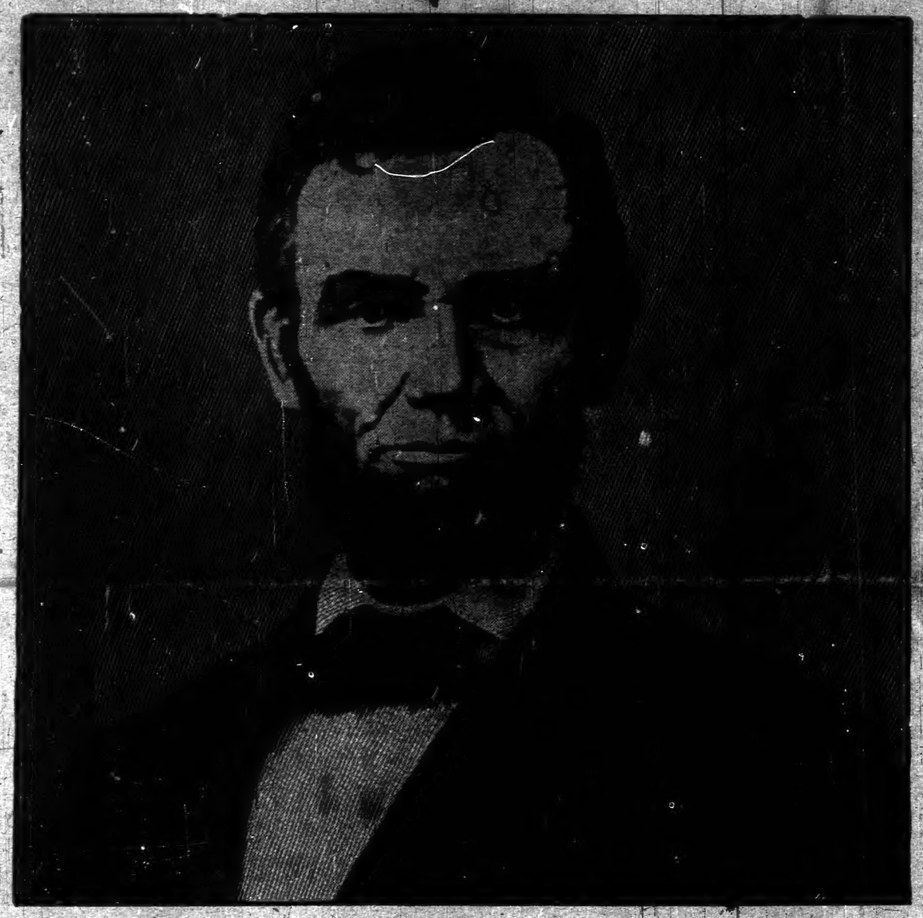
Emancipation Day Duly Observeed

EMANCIPATION DAY CELEBRATION BY THE CITIZENS A REMARKABLE SUCCESS

The Zion A. M. E. church, corner Pico and Paloma Street, was the scene of a mighty concourse of people who turned out on last Monday evening for the purpose of joining in the celebration of the 53rd anniversary of the emancipation proclamation issued by President Lincoln, Jan. 1st, 1863.

It was truly a gathering of the Race's most representative citizens in the city, the men and the women of the Race who stand as a mighty bulwark for Race progress and all that goes with the same. It was the concensus of opinion that the program on this occasion was one of the best ever rendered in this city.

Mrs. W. L. Gordon presented in her address figures showing the real progress of 53 years and this talented lady is indeed to be congratulated on her splendid effort.



Rev. C. A. Williams, the black Demosthenes eloquently portrayed the mighty march of progress and enlarged upon the foundation which had been laid by the address of Mrs. Gordon.

Rev. L. E. Sheafe, the speaker of the day, was equal to the occasion and his address was one long to be remembered, as his many salient points were eagerly absorbed by the large and appreciative audience. Dr. Sheafe came up to all expectations and made an address which was drank to the last draught by all and they could have taken more.

The other part of the program was a hummer; the Coleridge Taylor Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Prof. W. F. Wheaton, brought down some selections that one might think they were in Chicago at the Coliseum listening to the famous Theodore Thomas orchestra.

Mrs. I. J. Williams read with great effect the famous Emancipation proclamation.

Prof. W. T. Wilkins and his father, Thomas Wilkins, were the big musical hit of the evening. They played a duett, W. T. Wilkins at the piano, Thos., the father, on the flute. They took the house by storm and were compelled to respond to an encore.

Abraham Lincoln, whose act in signing the Emancipation Proclamation, was fittingly observed Monday evening at the A.M.E. Zion Church.

Master George Gatley, if you please, a mere lad, made a decided hit in his rendition of Lincoln's Gettysburg address, his voice, his gestures and rendition makes this child orator a marvel, he was called back again and again.

Miss Helen Wilson sang beautifully and was the recipient of the most hearty applause.

Chairman Stevens presided with dignity and grace. The various committees are entitled to great credit. The decoration and the reception committee arranged the decorations in keeping with the occasion. And withal this great celebration goes down into history as one of the greatest ever held in Los Angeles.

A PHILOSOPHIC STUDY OF THE ALL-AMERICAN LEAGUE

By H. Douglas Greer, Secretary

This League has for its object the real betterment of all members of the human race and most especially all members of the Colored race.

It is a League of Justice. The principles underlying this organization are the ever-enduring foundations of any political democracy which in its fullness will be the ever-developing crown and glory of this great American nation.

There is a most urgent need for this statemanlike and businesslike organization. The principles encouched will not encroach upon those of any other or similar institution, nor will it interfere with the Federal principles—whose services it hopes to enlist, to the end that all Races and Nations in this country may be fully warranted in proclaiming to the world: Now we are a part of the government of the United States.

"Municipal institutions constitute the strength of free nations. A nation may establish a system of free government, but without municipal institutions it cannot have the spirit of liberty." Burns.

This American Government stands for liberty. It has engendered the spirit of freedom because of the establishment of its municipalities. Unto each responsible unit of the U. S. government the fullest degree of citizenship belongs. A responsible system of government depends upon the recognition and acceptation of the responsibilities of its units; and if the present generation has not reached a state of responsibility, the blame for this rests with those who have failed to remove the defects that lie between the White and Black Races.

To rule by terror is to degrade the life of the ruled. From that which is degraded little that is in keeping with reason can be expected. Crying against the faults and weaknesses of those whom we compel to cling to a degraded position will never add to the betterment of those who are denounced.

The All-American League shall strive to establish, by peaceful, parliamentary methods, these facts:

That it is the inherent right of every man to say how his inheritance shall be used, and how his possessions are to be employed. All that interferes with questions of laws, labor, domesticity, sanitation, education and religion, should be carefully examined by those whose scrutiny will not be anticipated by those who are jealous of the rapid successes of other races.

Only under just and humane principles of government will this nation become progressive, and as is the measure of the might and power of the ten millions of human beings and their resources, who bear faithful and true allegiance to "the flag and the Republic for which it stands." And all, who, living under such just and humane conditions, would be every ready, willing and zealous to soak the earth with their blood, bearing the banner of the rampant U. S. A.

The All-American League shall enquire into the causes which make one Race more powerful and rich than another. It shall aim at teaching what is to be done to bring about better understanding among different Races. It shall collect and compile data appertaining to the numerical, political, social and financial, biologic and economic strength of the Colored Race. It shall encourage equality before the law; uniformity of conditions for the exercise and enjoyment of domestic, property and civil rights to trade and travel anywhere and everywhere within the United States, free from molestation and persecution.

With able champions at the head of this movement a relentless and unremitting combat shall be waged for attaining unto eligibility for the exercise and enjoyment of political and civil right of citizenship within each and every one of the constituent, political units of this country, and the provision of suitable and adequate scholastic facilities for establishing and imparting the necessary knowledge and worship designed for the purpose of engendering within this genoration and its posterity true spirits local Nationalism engrafted upon and conjoined with the one general spirit that should pervade this entire countty, the spirit of all persons who are true and faithful in their allegiance to this American Republic—America for Americans.

Be it further known that this League while recognizing that racial distinctions are not necessarily of themselves an evil, and that equality between Races, like equality between individuals, will be reserved, in all probability for "The Dawn of a New Creation," will combat at all times and everywhere for Freedom—freedom of the soul, heart, body and mind.

We realize the all important need of a National Revival—a series of protracted meetings for the purpose of arming and nerving this nation with Patriotism.

Our highest aim will be to strike away the bars and blocks which permit the toleration or permissive recognition of departure from or infringement of these sacred and just principles of government. It is our belief that depature from these principles creates internal friction and strife; threatens civil war and rebellion; disturbs the stability and weakens the power of the Nation.

This country has arbitrarily, harmfully and prejudicially violated, impaired and infringed the basic family, property, trading and travel rights of educated and civilized Americans. And when by petition to local and National government for redress of these grievances have been brought under the notice of these departments, they have acted, either by omission or commission, in a manner which seems to convey the impression to the aggrieved citizens that this government is without adequate and constitutional authority sufficient to safeguard effectively all persons in the full and equal enjoyment of their manhood rights and citizenship.

ALL AMERICAN LEAGUE ANNOUNCES INSPIRING PROGRAM FOR YEAR 1916

The All American League is an organization of Colored citizens, men and women, of the State of California, who are dedicated to the principle that the purpose of the American Government and the purpose of the American civilization as intended by the founders thereof, are that ultimately and practically all men and women who claim America as home shall have absolutely a fair and equal chance both under the governmental system of America and under the economic and social schemes of the common country.

This organization has had its conception in the brains and hearts of a few of the leading thinkers among the Colored citizens of the State of California. These men and women, just referred to, in looking upon the ghastly spectacle of the present European war and observing the unspeakable situation of death and destruction in that God-forsaken section of the globe, saw at the same time in the distant future a replication of the present European horror in the land of America unless the same causes which lead up to the European catastrophe are checked in their at present rampant course here in America. Racial hates and animosities are at present the cause of the present European struggle. Teuton hates the Frank, and the English hate the Teuton and with their respective hates as premises, they are each of them indulging in a physical fight to the finish. That it will be a "finish" of the civilized condition of the countries engaged in the present strife is conceded by practically all who have had the opportunity to observe what is going on at first hand.

It is in the hope that American will spare itself the terror of the present European internecine strife by a proper and amicable adjustment of the present racial animosities and friction, that representatives of the largest class of American undesirables—the American Negroes—have in the largest spirit of humanity and patriotism founded this All American League. It is because we are confident that America, to stand and endure as a nation or as a civilized entity, must be in truth dedicated to the principle of absolute equality of all men in point of opportunity—that America will pass from the stage of action in bloody strife unless such is done, that this League has founded. It is not the purpose of this League, fundamentally and primarily and exclusively to kick against our fellow Americans and to indulge in senseless and useless protest. It is, however, the purpose of this League to see to it by every means known to the peaceful arts of diplomacy, persuasion and suggestion that not only the Negro Americans but that all classes of people enjoying citizenship under the American flag shall be in truth entitled to and in the enjoyment of absolutely equality along the line of opportunity in every phase of human existence. This determination is prompted in no manner by resentment of past and present injustices suffered on all sides by the American Negro and other of the undesirable elements of our common American citizenship. On the other hand it is prompted by an absolute and certain knowledge that nothing but truth and nothing less than truth can ever endure in the national existence. Makeshifts, curbed opportunities, restrictions, disfranchisement and other limitations, however practical for the time being, doom a people to just as certain destruction as ever a people have met.

And while the founders of the All American League are prompted primarily by a desire to secure for the American Negroes a "place in the American Sun,"—above and beyond all other things these founders are prompted by the firm knowledge that the ultimate security of our entire scheme of civilization depends upon the opportunity for every class of American citizens to secure on equal terms "a place in the American Sun." The founders of the All American League are insisting for the Negro Americans and all other classes of American citizens the same measure of opportunity and the same degree of responsibility as is demanded of the very highest element of American citizenship.

That the members of the All American League are more than mere theorists and pleasant dreamers is evidenced by the fact that the League has outlined for the year 1916 a plan of achievement for the Colored citizens of the State of California which smacks decidedly of the concrete. According to the plans already being put in action by the League, before another three months shall have elapsed, the League shall have completed the first annual "stock taking" of the Colored citizens of the State of California. This census will give to the citizens of the State of California the first definite and dependable information of the actual achievements of the Colored citizens of the State of California along every line of activity, ranging from business achievement to agriculture, to mining, to industrial employment, to civic status and achievements, to educa-

Pasadena News

Class G, history, took the third prize. The float entered by the colored citizens won a prize. Great crowds cheered Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade and 100,000 people see floats in review brilliantly alive with millions of flowers. The 27th annual Tournament of Roses pageant passed through the center of Pasadena from Orange Grove avenue to tournament park on New Year's day. The judges declared the floats to have been superior to any preceding year. It was magnificent in its splendor. Fourteen schools of Pasadena entered the parade, and 11 colored scholars were in evidence. The colored citizens entered a float that was a credit to them, and they deserve much praise. Charles Prince, the chairman, is a pioneer in the city, having lived in Pasadena for a quarter of a century, being yet comparatively a young man. E. G. Gains and William Solomon deserve much praise also, both being active in the enterprise. The design was good. The Dove of Peace was fine. President Gains was the right man in the right place. It was a great entry, and all colored citizens should feel proud. It represented the dove of peace; 2000 white carnations were usad in constructing it. It made a very distinctive entry, and the float was accorded a rousing reception as it was borne along gaily decorated streets on a large auto truck. The wings of the dove were outstretched and measured 14 feet from tip to tip, stood 4 1-2 feet in height and was 8 feet in length. Peace in these war times means something. It showed that the colored citizens want peace and are neutral.

Small Talks on BEAUTY POINTS

There is joy in living when you know that some will give you an admiring glance. Whether you ar 20 or 60 admiring glances are due you and it lies within your power to warrant them.

A clear skin, bright eyes and an alert personality are things to have and I do believe that any woman who does not have a clear skin and bright eyes cannot have an alert and pleasing personality.

The skin may be likened unto silk—it kept soft with cream it will be pliable like crape-de-chine but if allowed to become harsh and dry it resembles tafieta which wrinkles deeply and retains the wrinkle lines.

Cold cream should be used with a lavish hand. You will note on a hot day that the cold cream seems to leave a cool feeling on your face and arms. It is because it is spreading a coating between your skin and the dryness of the air. Likewise on a cold day it prevents goose flesh and chapping of the skin and should be used as a protection throughout the year.

I have been asked the difference between cold cream and massage cream There is every difference with one or two exceptions that I know. Cold cream is a lighter product than massage cream or so-called skin food and has smaller feeding qualities. It keeps the skin smooth and soft and, if used early in life, will do much in keeping wrinkles from appearing. Skin food is a heavy feeding cream. It fills and plumps out shrunken tissues but is not as good for ordinary cleansing as cold cream. Fletcher's Cream, however, is a combination of the two as it is light and fluffy for cleansing and yet has good body and skin nourishing qualities It is neither too dry nor too oily and really takes the place of two creams at the price of one.

For whitening the complexion and clearing the skin use a mild bleach paste, only. It is dangerous to use strong bleaches that are supdosed to remove tan and freckles in one or two applications for the skin, after being peeled, will be more susceptable to the sun and wind than before and at the first exposure all the old blemishes will reappear.

The following method of gradual bleaching is recommended and it is really the only safe way: At night wash the face in warm water and a pure soap to remove the surface dust particles—dry and then apply Fletcher's Bleach Paste in liberal quantities. Rub in well and let stay over night. In the morning cleanse thoroughly with Fletcher's cream which removes all traces of the bleach paste and puts the skin in splendid condition for the day. Then apply a good powder. This method is no more trouble than sponging your face and, if followed, you will be a delight to yourself and your friends.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

Odd Fellows' Hall, corner 8th and Wall Sts.

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor

The services Sunday were excellent and well attending considering the very inclement weather. As usual the pastor delivered two masterly sermons. Asa result of the services Friday night and Sunday, four accessions to membership were made, three of which were converts.

This church is justly proud of the great work accomplished during the three months it has been organized. The year 1915 was closed with a wonderful record and the prospects for the future are exceedingly bright.

Since the postponment of the great Hall Jubilee entertainment at Gamut Club auditorium, the members are at work with renewed zeal and determination to make this affair the greatest of the season. You are invited to help make this entertainment receive the success expected.

Providence Inst'l Baptist Church

The public is invited to hear Pastor Williams Sunday morning and evening on the subjects "Looking Ahead" and "Keeping the door in the House of God" Sunday night there will be special installation services of the officers of all departments of the church. The choir will sing special installation authems.

Mrs. J. M. McCuller Los Angeles leading contralto will sing at the morning services and J. Leroy Albright, the sweet singer in Israel will sing at the evening services. Mme. Williams will render special pipe organ selections.

Tuesday night, January 11, the public will have the privilege of seeing the great San Francisco Exposition in moving pictures at Providence church.

Wesley Chapel News

In spite of the rain Sunday, splendid congregations turned out to both services. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered to an unusual company of his people on the Sunday of the new year. The messages of Pastor Kinchen were well received and gave added inspiration to the work.

The official board met Monday night and laid plans for a large campaign both for the debt of the church and for a spiritual awakening among the membership. The church is in the midst of a new life and the membership is rallying to the pastor as never before.

Sunday at 11 a. m. Pastor Kinchen will preach on "Man honoring God and God honoring Man." At 7:30 p. m. a special song and praise service, followed by a sermon on "Why judgment will begin at the house of God or the inconsistencies and cowardice of church people when facing moral issues." A large crowd is expected Monday to hear Prof. Chas. Winter Wood, the greatest leader of the race and the Tuskegee Singers.

Regular meeting of the official board Monday night, at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

The new trustee board enjoyed a splendid meeting Tuesday night. After the regular order of meeting the following committees were appointed for the ensuing year:

Contracting—Bros. Estill, Wilson and Shackleford.

Building—Bros. Busby, Bowers and Scott.

Needs and Supplies—Bros. Hall, John Hale and I. Murphy.

The contracting committee was authorized to secure bids for a concrete floor in the basement so as to take action on the same the first regular meeting in February.

Keep in mind "The old fashioned rag sociable and hog killing" to be given at the church by the Mite Missionary Society Tuesday evening, January 25.

Little Myrtle Elizabeth Reed was baptized at the altar the first Sunday in the Year.

TWO GREAT SERVICES AT ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH

Twenty-third, near Hooper Ave.

Tomorrow, Sunday

The famed "Fighting Parson," Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, the most talked of Negro preacher in the far west because of his article some weeks ago in discussing the "Social Club Question" from an economic view point, under the caption of "Who Killed Cock Robin?" has conducted a great work of prayer in which there has been a glorious outpouring of the Holy Spirit with many accessions. Tomorrow, Sunday, promises to be a great day in old St. Paul. Commencing at 10 o'clock with Sunday school Assembly, Gospel preaching at 11 a.m., when Pastor W. H. Tilman delivers his great New Year's message on the subject, "Facts Not Feelings for 1916." Young people's meeting, 6:30 p.m., evening sermon, 7:30. Speaker, Dr. J. Gordon McPherson. Subject, "Jesus the Friend of Sinners." The choir will sing special musical selections with solo by Madam Ophelia Boyd, the service will close with impressive baptismal services.

Peace!

Prosperity!

Union!

Woodrow's time is almost at hand the prosperity on paper will not feed hungry stomachs at all.

Last Sunday's Los Angeles Times accounted for two more geles Black and Tan journal, and gia.

"Shall the people rule?" We can tell better when the present special session of the legislature is over.

Do you hear that low and ominous rumbling in the distance? It is the warning cry thundering on its way and it says you had better GET TOGETHER.

The launching of two great mercantile enterprises this week in the black belt of this city we believe is only a harbinger for more to follow.

Scandal mongering in Negro journalism has long since been tabooed. But we see it in vogue at this time with the Los Angeles Black and Tan journal, and its literary editor from the far east.

The Negro politicians of Los Angeles are beginning to have that broad smile as the time approaches for the campaign to start and they can dispose of their long pent up bunk.

The California Eagle is heartily in sympathy with the attitude of the Los Angeles Tribune and Councilwoman Lindsey with regards to natural gas for domestic and other purposes.

If would be home makers of any city were ever held up by gas and telephone companies, Los Angeles is the best example.

Say what you will and notwithstanding the reinforcement of learned editorial talent which consents to play pigtail on a white man's two by four sheet; a white man especially of the caliber of the one which owns the local black and tan sheet is not fitted to meddle in Negro affairs, he is sure to make a mess of it. If a white man must run our little race sheets, for God's sake let it be one with some class.

PREJUDICE THE ROCK ON WHICH WE AS A RACE SPLIT IN LOS ANGELES

The editor has had a rich and varied experience in affairs racial, since attaining our majority, we have with the exception of only a few months been constantly on the firing line in the thickest of the fight in our humble capacity for Race progress. We verily believe in the principle of all men up and no man down; that to us means that we want to see the lowest man come up. Having passed through the vestibule of citizenship in this bailiwick, we are constrained to say that the bane on real Race progress in this environ is PREJUDICE; not the prejudice of Black against White or that of White against Black, but eternal prejudice and strife within the Race, forgetful of the memorable saying of Abraham Lincoln that a house divided against itself cannot stand. So right here we have the spectacle of our people fighting each other for no reason at all other than they are adverse to seeing the other fellow rise. On the contrary the rise to success. What does it matter if John Jones or Bill Smith is or is not a friend of ours or even whether we personally like them. The proposition is if we expect to continue to keep pace with the mighty march of progress we must obliterate the thing we call prejudice. We are galled and shoulder sore from the White man's prejudice, but our own prejudice is far more pernicious and doing more to undermine the body politic than that of the Caucasian.

There should absolutely be no prejudice within the Race for the man or woman, no matter who they are who is striving to do something for its benefit. The chronic agitator, the parasite or the riff raff they are only the weights on our progress. We should even not be prejudiced against these, we should do the things that will even help these elements to rise.

We therefore would counsel our people in this community to overcome this PREJUDICE and ous of those who would rise if diamonds at our feet, as it were, it is of the greatest importance that we should gather in the sheaves and cease to become jealous of those who would rise of they have the ambition, so let's help them do so, and let it be known that we have eschewed all prejudice, both from within and without. Let us emulate the beautiful sentiment expressed by Robert Ingersoll, who was situated in a mansion in New York with all the comforts and luxuries of life, when a friend commented on this fact he said, "I wish that I was the poorest man in New York." Asked to explain, he said, "I wish that every man or woman in New York was even better situated than I."

Let us get this sentiment in our souls and we will cease to founder on the rocks of prejudice.

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN
Aunt Jemima

After carefully planning a campaign of service through this medium I have, after much coaxing, decided to edit this column which I hope will prove a source of pleasure, as well as helpful advice, especially for our young readers. We want you to write us for advice regarding domestic upheavals—we may be able to save you from the divorce court evil.

We also want young girls changing cities without proper chaperons to consult us.

We are especially interested in those who are anticipating matrimony and it is our aim to assist you to locate well if you consult us.

All communications must be written on one side of the paper and mailed in to this office, 814 Central Ave., not later than Wednesday of each week. All transactions confidential.

Sincerely yours,
AUNT JEMIMA.

Our First Request

Dear Aunt Jemima:—

If you start your column this week in the Eagle as promised, please advise me as to the position I should assume in this case.

A few weeks ago when I came to this city I met a gentleman whom you recommended as a thrifty businesslike man of sober habits.

I was favorably impressed with him as he seemed to be with me.

We met again a few evenings ago at a public affair and the wife from whom he is being divorced, was there and made it very unpleasant for us both.

Should I see this gentleman any more or should I respect the rights of the other wife.

I think you are both old enough to be sober minded, and if there is any admiration between you it ought to be that sort that would enable you to wait the appointed time when he is really a free man.

AUNT JEMIMA.

31st St. Christian Church, Tuesday, Jan. 25

Miss Bertha Miller, Soprano

Los Angeles public will be favoredvored with one of the most unique Musical and Dramatic Recitals yet given in this section, and it is believed by persons who have heard each of the artists that a better trio could not be gotten together anywhere.

Mrs. Georgia Williams, Reader

Miss Lorenza Jordan, who has appeared in nearly every church and hall of any size is pronounced among the best in this city, and her most ardent admirers believe that her future has not yet begun.

Like Miss Jordan Miss Miller is a product of the younger set, and as a contralto her wonderful range and volume has set a pace that is not easily imitated.

Mrs. Georgana Williams, who hails from the Boston Dramatic School, has already stood the test of comparison with some of the best readers of the East and West and she has outclassed them all in dramatc force and impersonation.

This will indeed be the treat of the season and it is predicted that the E. 8th St. Christian church will be filled to its utmost capacity.

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE'S GREA SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST
ENTRIES OPEN UNTIL JANUARY 15TH

On account of a strong protest from our San Diego patrons and contestants, our prize contest will not begin until the close of theirs, about January 1st. We will receive entries until January 15 and then the race will start.

From the inquiries which we have received and the entries already at hand we can assure all who are interested this will be the greatest contest ever put on by a race journal.

Now is the time to groom your candidates and get them ready for the start. First announcement of entries, December 1st.

A watch meeting was held at the Mount Zion Baptist church on last Friday night. The congregation met in the early part of the evening. After having a recreation for a half hour they met and held devotion services while the old year was passing and the new coming in. We had a solo by Sister Nichols, after which we ad journed. As we were going out a lady came and desired to become a member of the church, so we returned and opened the church and received her and she joined and the lady, Mrs. Alta Wilson, is now a member of our church. As the scriptures say, it is never too late to do good.

Rev. Harvey called at the Eagle office on a business mission and reported that more than one hundred dollars was raised last Sunday, for which he praised all the cheerful givers, as it was an extrordinary large offering for the first Sunday after the holidays The secretary is busy arranging the reports for the past quarter, which will be made public shortly. Watch the Eagle for the full account.

You are cordially invited to attend a box basket social to be given for the benefit of Mount Zion Baptist church Friday night, Jan 14, at Masonic hall, 633 Market street. Each lady is asked to bring a box or basket large enough for two, with your name on a card on it, and invite some gentleman to partake of same. Come out and enjoy a pleasant evening. Committee, Mrs. L. A. Jones, Mrs. L. E. Goodwin, Mrs. C. E. Norwood.

T. A. Harris, grand master of the Masonic Lodge, A.F. & A.M. State of California, resident of Los Angeles, is expecting to make his first annual visit to Fidelity Lodge No. 10, Friday night, Jan. 2. All visiting brothers of good standing are cordially invited to attend. Grandmaster T. H. Williams is making great preparations fo his arrival, as it will be his first visit to their new hall. Many dinner parties have been planned in his honor.

Miss Annie Hobbs of La Jolla has been spending several days with friends in Pasadena; is expecting to return home soon.

Miss Marie Young reported as having a very enjoyable time in Los Angeles, where she will probably make her future home.

Miss Theo Lloyd of San Diego, who is spending several weeks in Santa Barbara is much delighted with that city but misses the balmy breeze of the sun-kissed city.

The Eagle sailing over Beauty and Age. The Hatchet has chopped the Post. And Youth has succeeded the Hatchet to Defend the Eagle.

Mrs. Mayme Henderson, who went to vis her husband in Los Angeles, has returned to prepare to move to that city. Miss Katherine Badgett, sister of Mrs. Henderson, is expecting to accompany her to Los Angeles to live. San Diego will lose one of her beautiful maids.

Miss Nona Jackson, who visited the opening Tia Juana races, has been confined to room with a severe cold which she contracted while shouting for the ponies and returning home in an open machine. Her many friends are glad to know that she is out again.

Oh, listen and I will tell you
About the birds at the Fair.
Now the Fair is to run another year,
So I hear,
But can the people all see it in Leap Year.
So they will come from far and near
To this International affair,
Which is of interest to our city,
As well as other countries.
But have you ever seen
Pigeons so docile and kind
They will eat from your hand
And are so proud of this land—
So Uncle Sam has said
Let them have all the space
At the Fair,
In this our land.

As I wondered along
Down by the lane,
I saw a colored dame
Whose hair was brown
And her head was round.
I asked her if she could come
To the Exposition, just for fun,
In order to see if she could run
To catch that car, that was to come.
But she replied that it was late
And that I should wait—
So we made another date.

But I was shy of that cane
That she had
And did not wait, but hastened my gait,
For I was afraid of that cane
And turned in the lane
To avoid that cane.

The Contest was began
And it cost 110 to run,
But when it is over
Look who will have the 110.

Now Martha, Dave and Ed
Were there, but did they do
Their best for Maria and the rest.

But you must remember
That Nona had the cards
And could not play,
For hundreds had the pull
And used it to the end.

So please remember
That when you enter a
Contest, be sure you have
The will and the money
To continue to the end.

I have been to San Diego,
And to Tia Juna, too—
But of the two
Just give me Tia Juana,
A place for fun.
The cards I will play,
The games I will watch;
And if per chance
A bone I get,
It will be because
I took a chance.
Now let Alexander come,
And Neal and Brown,
For the locations are few
And chances slim,
For we have been here
Since 1915 and
Not located yet,
But when Bubber comes
'Tis time to quit.

The leap year ball, which was given at Kastle hall, was largely attended by San Diego's dance lovers. Everybody had an enjoyable time. At 2 A.M. the hall was crowded to its full capacity. When it comes to entertaining, Mr. Moore, who was chairman of the committee, is in a class by himself.

Guess who it was who left the dance with feet so sore they could not get out of the way of an automobile?

Guess who could eat one dozen hot dogs on the way home?

Who was the girl from Los Angeles whom all the boys were forming a fire net for her safety?

Everybody is wondering who the beautiful Miss is that is often seen on the streets with the tall handsome brown. We warn you Mr. Brownskin this leap year, as the councilmen have said "if $900 a year is not enough to live on you should get married as two can live cheaper than one. You can tell us about it in 1917.

Mrs. F. G. Young, mother of Mrs. Henderson, has left for her home in Colorado Springs, she has been spending several months in the city.

Mrs. D. H. Hardwich, who has been visiting relations in Los Angeles, returned nome last Saturday

When you see a gentleman with a lady walking on the street with his hands in his pockets you can be sure it is his wife.

Who was the dude that done the cake walk in Coronado and received so much applause when he came into the hall at midnight?

On the 1st day of January, 1916 at San Diego I met her and she said, I wish you a Happy New Year, and I replied, I wish you many. But said she, if you will we will speak of this New Year. What did you do last night just before the hour of twelve? I replied that I was wise and tried to phone to you, to see if you, the New Year, would single or double be. But as you did not reply, and Central gave as a reply, I cannot get them, I thought that you was thru with me, but would change within the year, before it was thru.

J. W. Gordon, of the Richmond hotel, has a new machine. Mr. Hannahs, who has discarded his little Stanley Steamer, can be seen making regular trips to Tia Juana and about the city.

The Richmond hotel is the mecca for many strangers from all parts of the United States. Too much praise cannot be given the management of this establishment, as it shows to the many people who make a trip to San Diego that they are amply cared for.

While in San Diego you should visit the Pierson tonsorial parlor at First and Market streets.

Raymond Brock and H. Hall spent a few days in Los Angeles. Mr. Hall is the champion 100 yard dash runner of San Diego. Mr. Brock is the pride of the San Diego newsboys, better known as "Sambo"

One Black Baby All Now Left of German Colonies

Berlin.—A few days ago an American woman was visiting one of the Berlin baby clinics and while going through a ward she saw a little black boy. The doctor lifted him out of bed and asked:

"Do you know what that is?"

"No doctor."

"It's a souvenir from the colonies. A German maid home from East Africa is the mother."

"No," exclaimed the woman in astonishment.

"Yes," answered the doctor, "and that's about all there's left of the colonies."

Knock Out Saloons, But Retain Liquor, is New Plan

Disagreements regarding contribution of money for the campaign against prohibition are reported to have caused dissension in the ranks of the California "wets."

The saloon owners are said to have protested against contributing to the campaign fund.

In some quarters it is considered possible that the liquor manufacturers, who are united in this campaign under the name of the United California Industries, may circulate an initiative petition in the nature of a counter petition to the 1918 prohibition petition of the drys, providing that only saloons be closed in 1918.

The dry measure proposes to close not only saloons, but to prohibit the sale of alcoholic liquors in stores, restaurants, hotels and clubs. The manufacturers feel that the voters will take more kindly to a measure that would only knock out saloons and believe that such a measure would receive a higher vote at the election than the drys. And the law says that when two measures conflict the one receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail.

The manufacturers are also designing a petition to conflict with the drys total prohibition measures for 1920.

The possibility of California's tangled up registration laws interfering with initiative petitions, is causing much discussion. The drys, to be on the safe side, will attempt to get the requisite number of signatures before January 1 when new registration is necessary.

Let all colored voters vote on the counter petition 1918.—Scrap Book by J. D. Reynolds.

Colored Citizens Assert Rights

(Philadelphia Record, Dec. 16)

An addrrss to the country advocating that the Colored people should use their vnses and every other means in their power to receive full recognition and overthrow segregation was sent out at the final meeting of the eighth annual session of the National Independent Equal Rights League, held at the Allen A.M.E. churce 17th and Bainbridge streets. The meeting was a special celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Thirteenth Amendment. In the evening prominent Colored speakers from all parts of the country were heard.

Rev. R. C. Ransom, of New York, declared that the greatest statement of all time was Charles Summer with his Civic Rights bill and asserted that it should be carried through. "Up with civil rights" he said, "and down with segregation."

The league, in addition to the address to the country, passed resolutions deprecating the seizure of Haiti, which it contrasted with the Mexican policy and voted to send a delegation to the Senate. Other resolutions condemned President Wilson for his endorsement of the segregation of colored government clerk appealed to the public to oppose plays slandering the Colored race, and urging colored men in the south to register.

Dear Editor:-

I am sending you this note to invite your attention to the Y. M. C. A. located at 831 San Pedro Street,

This Institution is now and ever has done a splendid work among colored young men, the moral intel lectual and spiritual atmosphere around about the Associational Rooms has always been upliftdng for all men, the secretary of the same is particularly distinguished for his christian life both by precept and example Mr T. A. Green is well and favorably known as a christian gentleman and in every way worthy of the position as general secretary.

In addition to the religous and and other work conducted at the Association the secretary has used every opportunity to secure positions for sober reliable christian young men and this service has been rendered free of charge in any form. In some of the great Eastern Cities a great effort is now being made to qualify under the terms of the Rosenwald gift of $25 000. which will expore within the 30 days, the financial stringendv all over the nation has made it almost an impossibility for the average colored man white man as well to pay their subscriptions of two and three years standing and in nearly every city as in Los Angles but little over twenty five percent of subscriptions has been paid. However Chicago and several other cities managed to come within the perview of the Rosenwald gift.

Here we have approximatciy 15,030 colored people who collectively subscribed to give $38.000, and upon which there has been paid $9.000. and times are now so dull that collections have long since been since been suspended.

Now we cer ainly need this excellent institution for our men.

It has been the means of bringing men to Christ in addition to the few things mentioned and if its usefulnee ended just in that one phase of its work all our money and energy has been well applied it is in absolute harmony with the local churches of all denominations and out of it men go to the church and become useful churchmen leading ideal lives. I am sending this note to particularly say that it is with the greatest difficulties that our servant the General Secretary has been able to operate the institution, that although his whole heart and soul has been con consecrated to the work it has all along been a matter of great personal sacrifice on his part. And I desire to ask you and thrugh you to ask the men of the city to take deeper interest in the institution

The pastors of churches for the most part have great financial burdens to guard and discharge yet some of them have been mindful of the potency of the Association in the Chrst life of the men and have given it consideration. The Press is beyond all question a potent factor in the life of the people, the press and the preacher have the ears of the people and are able to mould sentiment and crystalize all uplifting thoughts into action that are productive of big results. Any people who fail to support its press liberally deprive themselves of the greatest weapon in civilization for maintaining the rights they have and for demanding rights that are denyed them. Some one may charge that I as boosting the preacher and the press this I deny, I simply desire to look the situation squarely in the face and every colored man must admit the truth of this statement.

Then I contend that the colored News Papers are indispensible and that rightly directed they hold the key to the situation for most all our troubles. This being true, it is within the zone of the preacher and the press, each in their own well defined course of operation, to do big things for our Young Men's Christian association. Gentlemen, will you do it? In some kind of a way we will always have an association, but it will be better for the young men and better for the colored people at large for us to have a healthy, vigorous institution with broader operations. We should have an automobile school and an expert colored machinist in charge, and numerous other auxiliaries that would and could be employed to the uplift of colored young men; and these can be had only in proportion to the energy applied by ourselves. If we take this associational matter on the altar of our hearts, think about it often and long, plan for it and all of us pull together, we can create profitable bee-hives of industry and intellectual and moral uplifts that will work well for her people.

Permit me to again repeat all I have said respecting the potency of the press and the preacher, and to urge that these two leading agencies do their part and trust the laymen to do their part. Let the preacher talk to us in that heart to heart manner that he alone has the privilege of doing, and let the press with its great power talk to the people at large and there will be no force that can long delay results.

Co-operative movements in this city have not been a real success. Down in Mississippi, Georgia and Alabama the colored people trust each other to the limit. They are not always mistrusting each other. They build banks, big industries, colleges, create big lumber interests put their interests together and come out at the big end of the horn where the gold dollars are found. They even build cities, railroads and operate street car and buss lines, and all make money. Let us get in and cut loose from the fellow that doubts everything and says "we can't," and lets all of us harness up for a long pull, a strong pull, a pull altogether for the year 1916—for the advancement of our financial interest, for a higher development of the Young Men's Christian association in Los Angeles, for better team work in our churches, for a better degree of trust and confidence in our fellow men and for the building up of the best local newspapers in this city that the country affords anywhere. Can we do it? Surely we can, if we will.

U. S. Senator For Training

There will be no conscription in America until we are licked by a first-class power, as we will be some day, declared Chairman Chamberlain of the senate military committee. "To prevent conscription by universal military education is our immediate, principal need I favor such preparedness as will enable the country to defend itself in time of need, particularly in the when England has swept our commerce from the seas, when Germany is destroying the the lives of our citizens and when Japan is ready at any time to resent Americans' assumption that the Japanese are not our equals."

Chamberlain is father of a bill providing for universal military training. —Scrap Book by J. D. Reynolds.

one whit more than it deserves and not one whit less than it is entitled to. In the course of this campaign the League will at once direct its efforts along lines of encouragement to the Colored American citizens themselves and to their brethren of other Races of the State of California. The League shall resolutely discourage all efforts on the part of American citizenship in the State of California to limit or curtail the Colored citizens of the State of California, or any other Race of citizenship in the State of California, along any line of opportunity whether it be economic, civic, social or religious; and the means used in this endeavor will include every art known to peaceful diplomacy and effort. The character of the work to be done by the League in the future may be suggested by the statements that not only have the Negro Americans of the State of California been denied their just proportion of economic opportunity at the hands of their fellow citizens of the great Golden State, but with almost equal emphasis, it is true that large economic opportunities have been always studiously avoided by the Colored Americans of the State of California.

In a nut-shell the purpose of the All-American League is to make America in truth and California particularly a land in which every man and woman shall be judged absolutely according to his or her actual worth and merit, and by no more and by no less. Its purposes are measured chiefly in the concrete and for that reason in its initial effort, the League is "taking stock" of the actual situation and point of achievement by the Colored citizens of the State of California in the beginning of the year 1916,—purposing with this statement of achievement at the beginning of the year, 1916, to show by another statement of achievement at the end of the year 1916, such concrete and actual advancement along the lines of economic, social, civil, educational and religious achievement as will give the citizens of the State of California of all Races and kinds, an actual basis in point of fact to declare at the beginning of the year 1917 that California at least is indeed a land in which the equality of opportunity for all classes of citizens, becomes more and more to be the fact as the years roll on.

The New Year was welcomed in at a charming dinner party and dance given by the newly-weds Art and Social club at the residence of Mrs. Charles S. Broady, 1139 E. 51st street. The house was beautifully embellished in Christmas colors, red and green. An elaborate dinner was served early in the evening, after which dancing and whist was enjoyed until the midnight hour. Among those in attendance were Mr. add Mrs. Chas. S. Broady, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. James Toomes, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Richerson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. E Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammond.

I want four people, COLORED ONLY, to go with me and inspect overlooked government land near here. Land worth not less than $30 per acre. I will charge only a reasonable fee for my services. Call on me Sunday evening at 743 1-2 Ceres avenue.

Important Race Movement.

We urge all colored people who have the interest of their race at heart to attend one of the meetings to be held next week under the auspices of the different churches by J. V. Kennard. The movement has the hearty endorsement of the Forum, the Interdenominational ministerial alliance, Baptist Ministers union and other representative organizations. Its great importance cannot be overestimated and our leading professional and business men owe it to themselves to at least attend one of the meetings and inform themselves concerning it. It will be a small return to the ministers to support them by being present. J. R Scott of the Forum, who can be counted on to say something of interest concerning a matrer on which he is particularly well adapted to speak, has volunteered to support Mr. Kennard from the floor. Announcements of time and place of meeting will be made from the pulpits on Sunday. The following is a partial list of meetings:

Monday at 7:30 P.M. at 1406 Newton street, Revs. W. J. J. Byers, J. M. Anderson, E. E. Lightner, Pettigrew.

Tuesday at 8 P.M. at 1323 E. 8th street, Revs. D. L. McMickens, Tilman.

Wednesday at 8 P.M. at Wesley chapel, 8th and San Julian, Revs. N. P. Greggs, E. W. Kinchen.

Thursday at 8 P.M., Rev. J. D Gordon and others.

Friday at 8 P.M., 140 S. Waverly drive, Pasadena, Revs. W. S. Dyatt, W. H. Hughes, J. M. Riddle, L. G. Robinson.

Ministers who have not made definite arrangements with Mr. Kennard are urged to do so. He has arranged to be at 907 Marsh building, 9th and Main streets, between 1 and 2 P.M. Saturday for this purpose. Appointments can also be made by telephone, Main 4493, between the same hours. Cut this out as a reminder.

Notice of Annual Stockholders Meeting.

The annual stockholders meeting of the Co-operative Commercial Investment company will be held on the twenty-fourth day of January, in the year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixteen, which is the fourth Monday, at the A.M.E. church, 959 E. Sowed The Wind Reaping The Whirlwind

Japanese Make Strong Protest Against Moving Picture Film Before Welfare Committee of the City Council

SOW THE WIND, REAP THE WHIRLWIND

An alarm announcing that half of the city was ablaze could not have been more sensational than the headlines of the dailies of last Sunday and Monday. Their statement that a big burly black man had captured Mrs. Viola Hood (white) of San Diego, and had eloped with her. The papers went on to state that Dodds, the Negro in question, had threatened to murder Mrs. Hood and her whole family, thus intimidating her to the extent that she was compelled to comply with his wishes in the premises; but as the week grew and the truth of the matter developed it was found that this is another case of a white woman's infatuation for a black man. It is to be despised that these conditions should arise from time to time; and it is clearly understood that the Colored American looks upon such with as much or more disguest than the white.

For we realize that these acts but increase the spirit of mob rule in this country, and we further opine that even as mob rule caused Rome, proud mistress of the world, to fall, Carthage to sink into oblivion, Spain to lose her grip on Cuba—that finally America, with its phenomenal strides in education and culture, will be subjected to a similar fate.

There must be law and order; but God's law is above all. As citizens and Americans we only ask that there be one law for all men and not a white and black man's law.

In the Hood-Dodds case we ask that Dodds be treated according to law. If he has committed any crime let him be duly punished, but if he is only the victim of this white woman's well-wrought charms and followed at her heels at her command, not even daring to touch the hem of her garment, then we believe that he should be enlightened, that man's law and not God's is supreme in this country, and that it reads that there is to be no intermingling of races—when it is a case of white and black the woman, too, should have the same pointed out to her.

WHAT YE SOW YE SHALL REAP.

During the period of American slavery the white man was not content to use the Negro as his slave, but under the cruel lash of his whip began a process of blood intermingling that has almost entirely changed this race known as the American Negro in racial instincts and physical features into a creature little unlike himself. Now, inasmuch as he has changed his features he has changed his desires. With the white man's blood coursing through his veins nothing less than the white man's civilization appeals to this mixed breed commonly called "Black Brute."

Even though we are not all in favor of intermarriage between whites and blacks, we do not fear that what has been sown must be reaped. There would be little danger of molestation on the part of the black man unless some advance was first made by the woman, and is she to blame for what she has justly inherited from her forefather, who, in the face of most cruel race antipathy, regardless of his high position of lord and master, could so humiliate himself, wife and children as to become the father of a family of children by a "Black Wench" whose position was that of chattel slave on his plantation?

Even though Thomas Dixon Jr. is constantly painting the Negro black in the eyes of the American people, the time is near at hand when American history, written or unwritten, will reveal itself, and the black man will occupy his true position in the same.

As a race we have never shown a disposition to shield our criminals or to encourage lawlessness of any kind, but we have reached that period of civilization when we can no longer relish such discrimination as has been heaped upon us during the past fifty-three years.

The Negroes of San Diego and Los Angeles counties are waiting with some degree of impatience to see what will be the outcome of the Hood-Dodds case. Mrs. Hood has insisted that she planned and financed the trip, and in the many newspaper accounts we have yet to discover any hint at any immoral conduct during the period of elopement.

As we have stated, if there is any charge in keeping with the law we insist that the Negro is given a fair trial. For truly those who have sown the wind shall reap the WHIRLWIND.

Since writing the above, the following, which might be called "The Sequel," appeared in Friday's Examiner:

Mrs. Hood and Spouse Returning; Case Ends

Van Lee Hood, after succeeding in having Federal authorities drop all thoughts of prosecuting his wife or Raymond Dodds, the Negro with whom she eloped, is to arrive here tonight from Salt Lake City with her.

Hood was unable to persuade his wife to return without a promise that the Federal officers would not prosecute Dodds.

Hood and the woman left Salt Lake City on the midnight train for California, Tuesday. They will go to San Diego.

Jap Protest Against Film Show Considered.

The protest of the Japanese association of Southern California against the showing of the moving picture film, The Cheat, was referred by the city council yesterday to the public welfare committee for consideration.

The opinion was expressed by Councilwoman Lindsey and Councilman Topham that the showing of the film should not be barred because it might hurt the feelings of persons of any particular race, as if this were made a bar against the exhibition of films the city would not know where to stop. Tribune.

The local Japanese residents of Los Angeles have filed a strong protest against the moving picture film, The Cheat, which appears to be obnoxious to the Japanese. The protest was filed before the welfare committee of the city council and is now under consideration. The action of the city's law makers in this instance will be watched with great interest. The nation itself, as well as the state, have been known to BACK UP when Japan gets busy, and we aver that it is only a question as to how busy Japan cares to be. It is a different proposition at all hazards from the protest filed by our own citizens when The Clansman was first brought here.

THE ATTITUDE OF OFFICIAL AUTHORITY WITH REGARD TO NEGRO PROPERTY OWNERS

From the Times

DRAW COLOR LINE IN REALTY DEAL

Attempt to Forbid Owner Use of Property

Restriction in Deed Opposed by Colored Policeman — Trust Company Asks for Permanent Injunction to Keep Him from Occupying Home He Has Purchased.

The preliminary round in an interesting fight in which it is sought to draw the color line was staged in Judge Shenk's court yesterday when the injunction suit of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company against H. L. Garrott came up on a demurrer to the complaint. Mr. Garrott is a colored police officer of this city, who bought and sought to occupy the property at No. 420 West Fifty-ninth street.

He was confronted with a restriction in the deed which provided that the property should not be owned or occupied by a colored person. Mr. Garrott, as the owner, held he had a right to take possession his own property and the Title Guarantee and Trust Company brought suit. A temporary injunction was issued by the court against Mr. Garrott last Thursday, and yesterday it was sought to have the injunction made permanent. The trust company was represented by Attorney W. T. Blakely while Mr. Garrott's interests were looked after by Attorney Tyler.

The argument, started late yesterday afternoon, was not concluded when court adjourned, and Judge Shenk continued the case until today. Attorney Tyler claims that the attempt to oust his client is unconstitutional.

In the face of most cruel discrimination directed entirely against the Negroes of this country, perhaps the most disgusting is that concerning Negroes owning and occupying homes in certain sections by this and other large cities of the United States.

Since the abolition of slavery we have had white men and women traveling up and down the country advising Negroes how to become reputable citizens, and yet these same reformers have never lifted their voices to protest against such discrimination that will eventually retard the intellectual and material progress of any people.

The class of Negro citizen such as Mr. Homer L. Garrott represents, who purchased the property in question would do credit to any community. Mr. Garrott hails from one of the best Negro families of this country. He is brother to Dr. A. C. Garrott who enjoys the distinction of one of the leading dentists of this city, whose business address is 1000 Broadwa Central building, where he has been housed for a number of years. Before becoming police officer, about four years ago, Mr. H. L. Garrott was employed by the Broadway Department Store for eight years.

Some months ago Mr. Garrott purchased property at 420 W. 59th Place without any knowledge of a supposed restriction on said property. A few days ago when Mr. Garrott would take possession of the property for which he already had the deeds, it seems that the neighbors got on the wind that the newcomers were Negroes and immediately got busy.

The Title Guarantee and Trust Company, a firm that has done business for and with all classes of people in this city for a number of years sought to have a permanent injunction issued against Mr. Garrott to keep him from ever occupying the home he has purchased.

The Title Guarantee and Trust Company was obivious of its big Negro patronage to the extent that it authorized its vice-president, Attorney E. W. Sargent, to write Mr. Garrott a letter, which contained insulting remarks and suggestions to the effect that there were thousands of lots in the city for sale where the title is unrestricted and the parties, who owned these premises had a perfect right to make such restrictions, and further suggested that if he, Mr. Garrott, did not consent to give up his claim on said property he was in danger of forfeiture of the same.

The case is being tried by Attorney W. O. Tyler before Judge Shenk. Mr. Tyler is one of our leading attorneys and is basing his argument upon the 14th amendment of the Federal Constitution.

Judge Shenk is fair minded and will render an unprejudiced decision. However, the host of Negro citizens who are interested in the case advise Mr. Garrott that if necessary to carry the case to the Supreme Court of California and from thence to the Supreme Court of the United States if need be in search of justice.

EUGENE V. DEBS FLAYS BIG MOVIE

Terra Haute, Ind., January 4—Eugene Debs, speaking of the "Birth of a Nation" says:

The merits of this spectacular drama excites bitter comment whenever it is presented. There is no question that it is a wonderful production, that many of its scenes are tense and thrilling and that there is much in the play to approve and commend, but if the author's studied purpose was to insult the black race and to revive and intensify the bitter prejudice which grew out of the war, he could not have better succeeded, and it would be passingly strange if colored people did not protest against certain shocking features of the drama as doing them and their race grossest injustice.

If it be absolutely essential to the play to present those harrowing rape scenes, then why not round them out in their historic completness and show the dissolut son of the plantation owner ravishing the black daughter before her parents' eyes?

For every white woman supposed to have raped in the south by a black man, a thousand black women have been seduced and outraged by white gentlemen (?) but no hint of this is given in the series of pictures composing "The Birth of a Nation." It is only the black brute that is guilty according to this and all other stories written about the Negro by Thomas Dixon, the author, who calls himself a minister of Christ.

There are four million mullattoes in this country, most of whom were born out of wedlock and allof whom have a white father or grandfather and these white gentlemen (?) are ready to fight at the drop of the hat for "white supremacy" against "nigger equality."

The pretended reverence for Lincoln in the play does not at all square with the facts of history Lincoln was hated with savage hate by slave-owners of the south, and it was this ferocious hate that culminated in his assassination and the reverence now shown him on the stage is a convenient mask behind which the same blind hate may vent itself upon the unoffending Negro.

Let it not be overlooked that all our histories have been written by white men and that Negroes had no hand in them. They simply had to take what was given them, but even at that there is no denying the fact that from the time the Negroes were first stolen from their native land by white slave-traders whom it were flattery to call brutes, until the last law disfranchising them in the south was put into effect and the last "Jim-crow" car put into commission to attest their standing as live stock, the whole history of the treatment of the Negro race is one of shameless exploitation and degradation, for which the white race can never atone in time nor eternity.

If the black people today could tell their story about "The Birth of a Nation," it would be replete with scenes infinitely more cruel and damning than those based upon Dixon's novel and flashed upon the screen to conceal the white man's crimes behind the Negro's misfortune.

The Ku-Klux-Klan are glorified in these pictures as spotless knights the personification of chivalry and honor, and the audience applauds madly as they dash to the rescue of some imaginary white victim of of a black fiend, but care is taken not to portray any of the outrages perpetrated upon defenseless, unoffending Negroes, by these same lawless night-riders.

The pictures showing the scenes about the polling places on election day, under Negro domination, are especially calculated to subject the Negro to ridicule and the audience never fails to attest its appreciation by its sneers and cheers.

It's true such election scenes with their black sluggers and their sodden corruption are disgraceful and revolting, but how much more disgraceful and revolting are they than the election scenes which have occurred in and about Terre Haute during the last few scenes in which the sluggers were white, instead of black, and insulted white ladies instead of black wenches; scenes unspeakably low and vile as everyone will admit, who bore witness to them. How would it do to make pictures of some of these and travel through the south with them, flashing them upon a screen to show the Negroes in that section what an eminently respectable thing an election is when dominated by white men and by what pure and incorrupiible method the will of the people is expressed in a civilized white community.

If the white race has demonstrated its "superiority" in any one thing, it is in its politics and elections, and if Negroes should be disfranchised, the evident purpose of Dixon's pictures, because of their disgraceful conduct at the polls, then by the same token white men should also be stripped of the ballot and driven from polling places.

The chief commercial statistics exhibited at the close of the play to show the progress made by the Negro race is but a weak attempt to excuse the wanton insults heaped upon that race. Intelligent Negroes will not be deceived. The progress they have made is mainly due to themselves. They owe little to the white race as a whole save their exploitation and degradation.

Let the colored people learn how to depend upon themselves, how to do for themselves and to win their own way in the world. When they cut loose from the grafting politician that use them as pawns in the political game and reward one of their number with a spittoon cleaning job in recognition of their race and stand together; when they begin in earnest to educate themselves to develop their minds and do their own thinking, they will then command the respect of the white race and of the world, but not before.

ROMEO LOVING, Mgr.

Montgomery Bell, of Las Vegas, N. M., who recently died in that city, was said to have been worth $250,000. At his funeral all of the pall-bearers were white, the first time such a thing had occurred in the history of the state. In fact, there have been but few such cases in the country. He made his money in common pursuits, and which he invested, finally becoming a silent partner in the People's Trust Co., of Las Vegas. His money talked, and as it will in most places. Money is not all life, but it is a very considerable part of it. These white pall-bearers had great respect for Mr. Montgomery Bell.—Freeman.

For some reason or other our San Diego news failed again to reach us this week although we were informed by our manager Mr. Laws, that it would be on hand.

PROSPECTIVE PEOPLE'S AUDITORIUM

The above is the prospective building of the People's Auditorium, which is being promoted by an organization of our people in this city. The building will be located on the corner of Crocker and Agatha streets, at a cost of $36,000. It will have a seating capacity of 1500. It will contain offices and small hall for rental purposes, and a store building.

The large auditorium will be used for moving pictures during the week and on Sunday will be leased by the Providence Institutional Church.

The company is capitalized for $50,000. The stock is on sale now. The officers are: W. L. Fields, president; O. S. Thomas, secretary; R. M. Mitchell, treasurer; Nat R. Harding, business manager.

Voters, Attention.

Do not be deceived by misstatements concerning the primary and registration laws.

The law does not require you to state your party affiliation at the time you register.

The law provides that you state your party affiliation when you vote at the primary election, but not when you register.

All state officials, including members of the legislature, will be nominated on a party basis.

Remember, you are not required to state your party affiliation when you register, but are required to do so when you vote at the primary election. If any one tells you otherwise do not believe it.

Do not sign any referendum petition against the primary election laws, as a referendum would again produce confusion and tend to destroy the direct primary system of making nominations, which is vital to good government.—Tribune.

Above warning to colored voters because we have learned that there are register clerks, and we regret to say in an especial manner a colored one, who is willfully misleading our people by stating they must state their party affiliations when registering.

There are 210,000 Methodists in Iowa, 953 preachers, 184,658 Sunday school scholars, 29,208 members of the Epworth League. They gained 10,771 members last year in the Junior League. The average salaries paid to pastors is $1800 a year. The district superintendent receives a salary of $2742 a year. Total salaries paid to bishops, pastors, district superintendents and conference claimants, $887,960. Benevolences totals $426,292. The benevolences, officials and non-officials, and all salaries for the Methodists in that state amounts to $1,396,960. There are four Methodist church conferences in that state. They have more than any other three Protestant churches combined, and every tenth church in the state is a Methodist. Yet they say Iowa is not the strongest Methodist state in the union. Dr. Hughes, the pastor of the First Methodist church in Pasadena, says from Cleveland, Ohio, for a radius of 100 miles you will find between four and five hundred thousand Methodists. In Pasadena at the last Union Methodist meeting there were 3500 Methodists represented there in thirteen Methodist churches in and around Pasadena. The Pasadena district is the wealthy district in the Methodist Episcopal church. Next to this district is the Buffalo, N. Y., district, and there is but one colored church in the Pasadena district; that is Scott chapel, and it it is free of debt.

"The Methodist church has furnished more soldiers, more money, more nurses and has done more towards abolishing slavery than any other church."—Lincoln.

PAINTINGS OF CHRIST.
Give Artists' Ideals.

By William E. Curtis.

In the Chicago Record-Herald of May 24th, writes:—

That a party of gentlemen in Cleveland, Ohio, who were interested in Art were discussing the various conceptions of the Savior by different artists. They formed a company, and after contributing the necessary capital, employed a certain number of artists to paint portraits of the Savior, each expressing, without instructions or suggestions, his own idea of how Christ must have appeared at his maturity.

The results of this experiment are now on exhibition in the rooms of the American Art Company at 45 West Forty-second Street, New York. These pictures were all paid for at the Artists' price. Mr. Henry C. Osborn is president of the Company, Mr. Julius F. Janes vice-president, and Jeptha H. Wade, Jr., secretary and treasurer.

The purpose of the Company is to vivify the personality of our Savior in the minds of the American people. The five great old Master Painters, Reni, Hofmann, Sheffer, Raphael and Munkacsy are all famous as painters of Christ. These portraits were on exhibition at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893. A selection of competent Art Critics, chosen from the World's Congress of religion, acted as judges. Which of these conceptions appealed to them as being the most "Ideal Christ?" It was unanimously conceded by them that "Munkacsy's Christ Before Pilate" was the most ideal Christ on exhibition. In this grand picture strength and serenity predominate in the expression of the face. Yet with that holy calm of renunciation, the giving of self, and the Love, Mercy and Charity which he brought to this life, especially for the oppressed and those whom the world scorns.

By H. Douglas Greer, Secretary

This League has for its object the real betterment of all members of the human race and most especially all members of the Colored race.

It is a League of Justice. The principles underlying this organization are the ever-enduring foundations of any political democracy which in its fullness will be the ever-developing crown and glory of this great American nation.

There is a most urgent need for this statemanlike and businesslike organization. The principles encouched will not encroach upon those of any other or similar institution, nor will it interfere with the Federal principles—whose services it hopes to enlist, to the end that all Races and Nations in this country may be fully warranted in proclaiming to the world: Now we are a part of the government of the United States.

"Municipal institutions constitute the strength of free nations. A nation may establish a system of free government, but without municipal instituions it cannot have the spirit of liberty." Burns.

This American Government stands for liberty. It has engendered the spirit of freedom because of the establishment of its municipalities. Unto each responsible unit of the U. S. government the fullest degree of citizenship belongs. A responsible system of government depends upon the recognition and acceptation of the responsibilities of its units; and if the present generation has not reached a state of responsibility, the blame for this rests with those who have failed to remove the defects that lie between the White and Black Races.

To rule by terror is to degrade the life of the ruled. From that which is degraded little that is in keeping with reason can be expected. Crying against the faults and weaknesses of those whom we compel to cling to a degraded position will never add to the bettermen of those who are denounced.

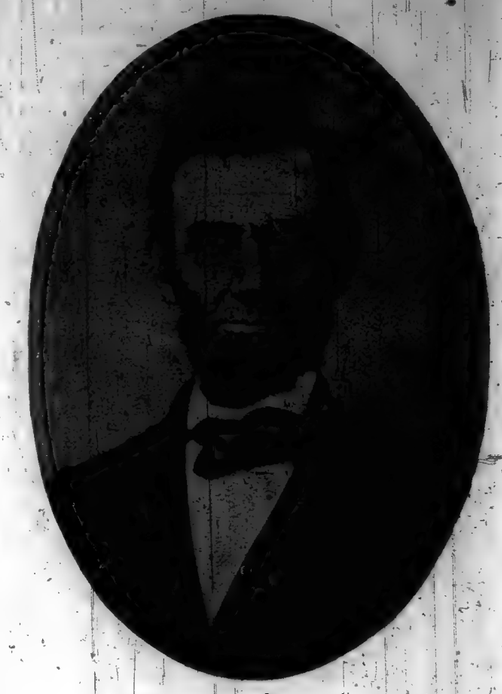
The All-American League shall strive to establish, by peaceful, parliamentary methods, these facts:

That it is the inherent right of every man to say how his inheritance shall be used, and how his possessions are to be employed. All that interferes with questions of laws, labor, domesticity, sanitation, education and religion, should be carefully examined by those whose scrutiny will not be anticipated by those who are jealous of the rapid successes of other races.

Only under just and humane principles of government will this nation become progressive, and as is the measure of the might and power of the ten millions of human beings and their resources, who bear faithful and true allegiance to "the flag and the Republic for which it stands." And all, who, living under such just and humane conditions, would be every ready, willing and zealous to soak the earth with their blood, bearing the banner of the rampant U. S. A.

The All-American League shall enquire into the causes which make one Race more powerful and rich than another. It shall aim at teaching what is to be done to bring about better understanding among different Races. It shall collect and compile data appertaining to the numerical, political, social and financial, biologic and economic strength of the Colored Race. It shall encourage equality before the law; uniformity of conditions for the exercise and enjoyment of domestic, property and civil rights to trade and travel anywhere and everywhere within the United States, free from molestation and persecution.

With able champions at the head of this movement a relentless and unremitting combat shall be waged for attaining unto eligibility for the exercise and enjoyment of political and civil right of citizenship within each and every one of the constituent, political units of this country, and the provision of suitable and adequate scholastic facilities for establishing and imparting the necessary knowledge and worship designed for the purpose of engendering within this generation and its posterity true spirits local Nationalism engrafted upon and conjoined with the one general spirit that should pervade this entire country, the spirit of all persons who are true and faithful in their allegiance to this American Republic—America for Americans.



Be it further known that this League while recognizing that racial distinctions are not necessarily of themselves an evil, and that equality between Races, like equality between individuals, will be reserved, in all probability for "The Dawn of a New Creation," will combat at all times and everywhere for Freedom—freedom of the soul, heart, body and mind.

We realize the all important need of a National Revival—a series of protracted meetings for the purpose of arming and nerving this nation with Patriotism.

Our highest aim will be to strike away the bars and blocks which permit the toleration or permissive recognition of departure from or infringement of these sacred and just principles of government. It is our belief that depature from these principles creates internal friction and strife; threatens civil war and rebellion; disturbs the stability and weakens the power of the Nation.

This country has arbitrarily, harmfully and prejudicially violated, impaired and infringed the basic family, property, trading and travel rights of educated and civilized Americans. And when by petition to local and National government for redress of these grievances have been brought under the notice of these departments, they have acted, either by omission or commission, in a manner which seems to convey the impression to the aggrieved citizens that this government is without adequate and constitutional authority sufficient to safeguard effectively all persons in the full and equal enjoyment of their manhood rights and citizenship.

LINCOLN BIRTHDAY EXERCISES

In keeping with our annual custom the

CALIFORNIA EAGLE

will observe the 106th anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln on Sunday evening, February 13th, 1916, at the Providence Institutional Baptist Church, corner of Crocker and Agatha streets. The Old People, Ex-Slaves, Old Soldiers, Spanish American War Veterans and the public in general are especially invited to attend these exercises. A splendid program is being arranged in keeping with the occasion.

Join the Eagle in commemorating the birth of the world's greatest humantarian and statesman.

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 21.—Capture of Raymond Dodds, the mulatto who is alleged to have forced Mrs. Viola Hood of this city to accompany him from this city under threat of death, is hourly expected by Chief of Police Wilson as the result of co-operation between the Los Angeles and San Diego police departments.

According to Chief Wilson, word was received this afternoon that Dodds and Mrs. Hood were seen in an automobile near Fullerton a short distance from Los Angeles, and going in the direction of the latter city. Authorities of Los Angeles were notified to be on the lookout.

Dodds, it is alleged, has been forcing his attentions upon Mrs. Hood, who is the wife of a San Diego hotel proprietor, for several months, and, according to friends here, the woman feared to tell her husband of the negro's demand that she accompany him because of his alleged threat to kill her and her parents.

Conductor Positive

C. B. Grogan, the conductor of the Salt Lake train, told Detective Winn he was positive his passengers were Mrs. Hood and Dodds. He said they had Pullman tickets, but rode in the chair car, and that passengers complained of the woman's show of affection for the Negro. The train arrived at Salt Lake at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and if the couple were aboard they had plenty of time to go into hiding before the fact of their elopement was generally known there.

If Dodds took the woman to Salt Lake his capture will certainly be followed by prosecution by Federal authorities for violation of the Mann Act.

Hood received a telegram from Chief of Police Wilson of San Diego last evening advising him to remain in Los Angeles till clews were developed further. Hood said he would take that course.

The San Diego police claim to have proof that Dodds lived with a white woman in Coronado recently until the indignation of residents compelled her to leave.

The idea of any person in any community, in any position in life, or of any character, to humbly submit and to be intimidated by threats of murdering themselves and their whole family and having months of time to report to the police and have the would-be murderer arrested and safely landed behind prison walls. This is apparent to all who have read the above accounts to be groundless. Then for the kidnaped victim to furnish all railroad transportation, hotel and sleeping car accommodations, taxi fares, etc., and then keep quiet. The next chapter of this romance of Othello and Desdemona will be the "round up."

By J. D. Reynolds.

THE TRUTH—TWO DAYS LATER

—ELOPING COUPLE GIVE SELVES UP

Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 24.—With the surrender to the police of Raymond Dodds, a former chauffeur, and Mrs. Viola Hood, wife of a well-known San Diego hotel man, there has come the unfolding of a story of strange fascinaton between mulatto and white, which has baffled the police of two cities.

The man declares, and the woman corroborates, so state the police, that he used no force and made no threats toward Mrs. Hood, and that it was she who planned the elopement.

Questioned as to their plans, Mrs. Hood said she was willing to return to San Diego if Dodds were permitted to go on to Chicago. Dodds may be held to answer a white slave charge.

Dodds had been in the employ of the Hoods for a year as chauffeur. In explanation of the elopement he said: "Mrs. Hood and I have been pretty close friends for a year. She wanted me to skip with her several times. I thought of leaving her to keep out of trouble, but she would put her arms around me and cry and ask me to stay. At last we decided to skip. We were to be married here and then go on to Chicago to make our homes."

THE SOUTHLAND

By Sidney P. Dones

For the benefit of my Texas brothers and sisters I am going to mention a few things I saw and did on my recent visit to our home State. I left Los Angeles on the Golden State Limited on Dec. 7th, 1915, arriving at El Paso Dec. 8th. The first person I met I knew was my sister, Mrs. Elliott Grigsby, who informed me of the death of another sister, Cornelia. I did not stay as long in El Paso as I intended, on account of the death of my sister, but proceeded on to Marshall, stopping only at San Antonio, Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth. On arriving at Marshall I was met at the station by my brother, T. W. Dones, who is a farmer and groceryman at Marshall. I then went to my home, which is seven miles southeast of Marshall. There I met my mother. Right here I pause and wonder if there is a young man or woman in this city who has a mother in some far-off place that they have not seen in eight years, which is the time it had been when I saw my mother last. If so, my dear young man or woman, I would advise you to take a trip back home, where you can breathe the fresh air of pure love, the love of a mother. When I got out of the buggy at my mother's door and met that old Christian lady of about 52 years of age, with her arms outstretched and tears in her eyes, I could not but thank God that he had spared me to see her again, and when she told me how she had prayed for my success in the West I was thoroughly convinced that through her prayers I was able to make a trip home to see her. Somehow or other it got out at my country home that I was to be at old St. John's Church on Christmas day to speak. This old church is the church that my mother and father belong to. My father, who is a deacon, and has been for twenty-five years, of this church; all of the young men who were my associates when I was a boy, were there; I mean those who are still living in that part of the country; and when I arrived at church and went into the pulpit by a side door entrance I could see the faces of men and women who were boys and girls when I left, and my heart went out to my old friends who are still tilling the soil in the backwoods of Texas. Although they are still in the backwoods of Texas, yet I could see in their faces true friendship. I felt like I was at a big family reunion. I visited Wiley University, the school I attended some years. I found there some of my old schoolmates, who are teachers. I also met my old friend and president, Dr. M. W. Dagans, who is still the very life of that great school, of which he is president. I also met Prof. Billings, A. M., LL. B., who also is connected with Wiley. Dr. Dagans and Prof. Billings send regards to Prof. T. A. Greer, Mr. Troy and Prof. E. L. Chew. I also met a man in Marshall who is a cousin to Mr. P. J. Anderson. In Dallas I met a Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, who are related to Mr. Bailey on Elwood street. In Ft. Worth I met Mrs. Carrington, mother of Mrs. Bynum of this city; she sends regards. I also met Dr. Taylor of Ft. Worth, who is a brother of the late Attorney Taylor of this city. Everybody seems anxious to know of California, and anxiously inquired about friends and relatives who are living in the west. I met mothers who say they have sons somewhere in the west that they have no heard from in years. I hope through the wide circulation of the California Eagle some young man may see his duty and at least write a letter home to his mother.

I spoke at St. John Baptist Church, Marshall, Texas; Bethesda Baptist Church, Marshall; also spoke at Carthage, Texas, and Mt. Gilead, Ft. Worth. At each place I saw faces I knew years ago, which made me feel proud that I was from the Lone Star State. I found men engaged in almost every walk of life. I found in Ft. Worth doctors, lawyers, druggists and bankers. I found men in all walks of life, making good, and above all I found a race of people living together, using for their legal adviser a Colored lawyer; for their doctor, a Colored physician; for their insurance, a Colored agent; for their groceries, a Colored groceryman, and even their money deposited in a Colored bank; for their news they read the Colored papers. I found the professional men of Texas generally a wealthy class, as well as the majority of business men. I visited the office of the Dallas Express, whose editor is W. E. King. I met Attorney Griggs of Ft. Worth, who made it very pleasant for me. I had dinner New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Jones of Thomas avenue, Dallas; they are the parents of Misses Sammie and Bernice Jone, former classmates of mine and now teachers in the public school. I also met Miss Lucile Epperson, daughter of Mrs. Paul Davis of Oakland, Cal. She sends love to Miss Johnie Mack of this city. I can say to those who come to the far west from the Lone Star State, you have much to be proud of, the people are getting along fine there; they are prospering along all lines, just as we are here; and above all, they are together there, and we are not, here. I bring greeting from your brothers and sisters of Texas.

Respectfully yours,
SIDNEY P. DONES,

NOTED PREACHER VISITS PASTORATE TO DO EVANGELISTIC AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

Rev. G. W. Reed, formerly pastor of the Second Baptist Church of Stockton, Cal., resigned his charge at that place the first of last month, and is now engaged in evangelistic work, also lecturing and conducting schools of methods for training efficient teachers for Sunday-school work. Rev. Reed is considered one of the Pacific Coast's greatest preachers. As an expert in young people's work he stands alone among the race on the Coast. Rev. Reed just finished a post-graduate course from the San Joaquin County School of Methods, and holds, as a result of that course, a certificate from the International Sunday School Association. This, together with eleven years' experience in active service in the State of Indiana, qualifies him unquestionably for the work which he has chosen to take up. Rev. Reed is also a lecturer of no mean ability. He is exceedingly brilliant in his discussion of the race question. His service is often in demand by both white and Colored organizations in the northern part of the State.

Rev. Reed is now engaged in a series of meetings for the Tabernacle Baptist Church, of which Dr. Gordon is pastor. His sermons have been helpful and ably delivered; everyone that has heard him expresses themselves as being well pleased in listening to his wonderful discourse. Since the meeting has been going on there have been seven converts, and several backsliders reclaimed. While in this city (Los Angeles) Rev. Reed's address is 714 Ceres avenue, or you may address him, if you need his service, P. O. Box 692, Stockton, Cal.

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER

(From the Rascal Whipper)

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER

Most Worshipful Woodrow Wilson, President of all these United States and Shepherd of the Democratic flock; thou who holdest great juicy slices of pie in the hollow of thy ample hands, when not holding thy new wife, and dealeth it out according to thy righteous will; we, thy poor, weatherbeaten and unworthy constituents, come tumbling down on our tummies to pour out our political devotions to thee and bless thy glorious Democratic name and to wish thee a large family of little Democrats in due season. Give ear unto our supplications, Great Political King.

Master Wilson, we thank thee that we are anxious and waiting Democrats. We are anxious to know what thou wilt have us do. We are waiting for anything that thy excellency may see fit to give us. We are waiting for thee to give us 20 cent cotton and 8 cent cattle. We are waiting for better times in general. Some of us haven't paid our taxes for two years.

We will confess that it is not as well with us as it might be. By some unaccountable reason several of us have not got jobs worth speaking about. And thou knowest a Democrat with no office and no work is in a devil of a fix. We simply can't hurrah for "Wilson Prosperity" under such circumstances. It makes us feel like sheep-killing dogs.

We could stand it to be without work, and have our rations run short and see times get hard, if it wasn't for the infernal Republicans making fun of our lot and saying "we told you so." Master Wilson, that hurts like blue blazes.

That is the straw that is breaking our backs. Maybe this is the reward for our wickedness. But if something is not done pretty quick thou mayest not find us waiting at the gate. There are other parties calling for us. We hate to pray like this, but starvation is hell on manners, and we can't help it. If our prayer is unpolished it is due to the desperation of starvation. But with all our crudeness and lack of manners we want to emphasize the fact that we are absolutely ready for our reward and we will accept thy pie blessings as gratefully as ever a little dog accepted a chicken's liver.

Mighty Master, thou knowest we can't be Democrats without reward. Thou knowest we voted for thee with the understanding that we inherit the offices and the emoluments thereof. Yet we see Republicans holding over everywhere while we are down in the gutter. Again, we declare that we are ready. We will take anything that thou hast. We would be dog-catcher for the back districts of Hepsidam. We would be tick inspector. We would be fertilizer ameller. Just anything thou hast to dispense we will thankfully accept, and the quicker the better.

And Master Wilson, there is one important question we would ask thee. It may be treason in us to want to know such a thing, but we can't help it. It is this: When dost thou expect the Free Trade tariff to begin to lower the cost of living? We know it is wrong to be impatient, but, Great Chief, if something is not done pretty quick we are going to have hard work keeping the party together; besides, we are going to have a harder time keeping our own souls and bodies together. Something to eat is getting shorter and shorter with us, and the price is mounting to the sky. Worthy Master, we wish that thou wouldst explain this tariff business a little. We can't understand it to save our lives. We thought reducing the tariff made things cheaper. We have always been taught to believe in that theory.

Again, Mighty Chief, we beseech thee to hear our prayers. For heaven's sake don't saddle us with a bond issue. We read in the papers that thou art considering a big bond issue to get money to run the government, and dodgast them bonds. Thou shouldst remember that Cleveland sold bonds, and it busted our party into smithereens. We never can survive a bond issue. Bonds means slavery, and slavery is worse than war, and war is worse than hell. It will bury us so deep we will never hear the gun fire this year. Cut them balloon tires! Let sell bonds.

Oh, mighty Woodrow, thou who hast already skinned us out of our jobs with thy business-busting Free Trade farce, don't get us scalped in a war. Thou knowest, dear and mighty pie-distributer, that we have never had any luck with war, anyway. Thou knowest that in the great history of the American people thou hast written how we Democratic dupess followed the party call and went to war against the Stars and Stripes for four long years, and how "Honest" Abe Lincoln licked the stuffin out of us and made us Democrats do without pie for over a quarter of a century. Oh, Waiting One, we hunker down on our Free Trade jeans-covered knees and petition thee not to have any more war.

If Mexico wants to make a doormat of the American flag let them enjoy themselves. Hasn't Germany done the same thing? Hasn't England done it, under thy great and adorable reign, oh, great soft-hearted chieftain? Why should we go to war? Are we not already at war at home with the poverty caused by thy great Free Trade? We thought we were already at war, mighty Woodrow. We've read of so many bank failures and business wrecks and people out of jobs under thy great Free Trade administration that we have stopped reading the newspapers, but if we are not at war why this blooming Hundred Million Dollar War Tax we are paying?

But, Mr. President, remember we are Democrats still. We are willing to face the music and drink soup, if, necessary, if only we can be patted on the back and called good Democrats. We know it is treason to complain. We know the province of a good Democrat is to take his medicine and never make a crooked face. So, Mighty Chief, forgive us for talking as we have. Kick us for presuming to ask questions. It is not for us to scrutinize thy wisdom or question thy plans. So put the toe of thy wrath to us and teach us to obey. Teach us that a Democrat was made to vote straight and ask no questions.

Master Wilson, if we are too presumptuous, kick us. Kick us a little anyway. We deserve to be kicked a little. If we ask foolish questions thump us on the head with the scepter of thy greatness. If we are a little crude and coarse in our manners it is because we never had a chance to be anybody. We never went to school. We are greenhorns. We are fag ends of Democratic despair. We are lick-spittles and gutter-snipes. We are ready to do the bidding of any Democrat who will command us. We will turn political somersaults. We will cuss Cleveland some more. We will denounce Roosevelt or Taft or Debs or Chafin or anybody else if it will make pie come our way.

Now, Master Wilson, accept this our humble prayer. Forgive us for asking for anything that we should no receive.

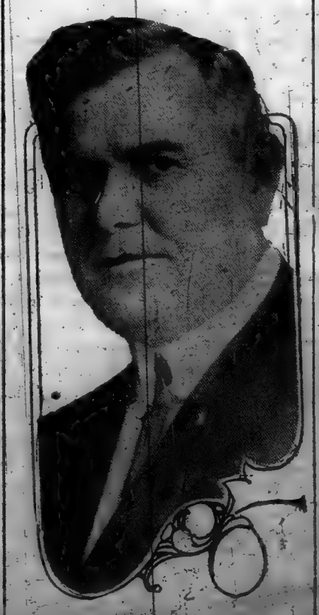
Save us from the clutches of The Rascal Whipper and all the honor shall be thine. Amen.

GREAT SUNDAY AFTERNOON PARLIAMENT — EXCELLENT PROGRAM, PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Will Be Inaugurated at Central Hall, Central Ave. and East Washington Street, Tomorrow (Sunday) at 3 P. M.

Through the untiring efforts of the "Fighting Parson," Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, a great Sunday afternoon Parliament is to be inaugurated here in Greater Los Angeles, and will fill a long-felt want in the eastern section of the city, where thousands of the most industrious Colored citizens reside; where questions affecting the moral, civic, religious, industrial and commercial interest of the race will be discussed along broad humanitarian lines. Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock will mark the auspicious opening of the PARLIAMENT, which promises to be a great event in the history of progressive Negroes of the city; many of the prominent business and professional men will be present to assist in the launching of the Parliament. Madam Ophelia Boyd, the sweet soprano, will sing; also the famous Mt. Zion Baptist choir has been invited to sing.

Among the prominent speakers who will address the Parliament will be Dr. Joseph T. Hall, who will give his observation of the effect of "The Clansman" throughout the State in stirring racial bitterness. Rev. Dr. W. H. Tillman will speak on "The Negroes in Business." Hon. Milton on "The Negro Real Estater." "The Fighting Parson," Dr. McPherson, author of the famous "Who Killed Cock Robin?" article, which created such a state-wide discussion, will speak on "The Social Side of Life." Attorney W. O. Tyler will speak on "The Bar and the Negro." Mrs. L. W. Coombs of Pasadena, member of the Woman's Court Commission, will also speak. This promises to be one of the greatest uplift movements ever launched in Greater Los Angeles and should have the moral support of the pulpit, press, and the citizen in general. Central Hall should be crowded on Sunday afternoon. The liberal men and women of Greater Los Angeles are urged to attend the opening of the Parliament and bring their friends, as a great time is promised. Come early to secure seats. Central Hall is the place.



SENATOR H. H. LYONS APPOINTED LABOR COMMISSIONER

No appointment made by Governor Johnson during his entire administration gives more general satisfaction, in Southern California than the promotion of assistant Labor Commissioner H. H. Lyon to that of State Labor Commissioner made vacant by the death of Col. Tobin. Commissioner Lyon has for a number of years been "labor's champion" in Southern California and his appointment to this important post is a well merited promotion. The Eagle congratulates both the Governor and the State Commissioner upon the elevation.

The Colored people recognize in Mr. Lyons a friend who appreciates their efforts for progress and one who does not hesitate to assist and encourage them to do so.

E. J. DE LOREY FOR SUPERVISOR FROM THE FOURTH DISTRICT

A strong man is the universal verdict when it is known that the successful business man, E. J. De Lorey, will make the race for supervisor from the fourth district.

His long residence and splendid record as one of the forces which has made Los Angeles great is indeed a strong asset and as the campaign progresses no doubt Mr. De Lorey will be heard of with a strong support from all classes.

OAKLAND JOTTINGS

By "Jakie" Peyton

Robert Chandler, fifty-one years a resident of Oakland, died at his late home, 1012 36th St., January 30, and was laid away Wednesday, the third. The funeral service was held at the 15th St. church. Rev. John Pointer, an old acquaintance of the family, was assisted by Rev. Brown, pastor of the church, and Rev. R. W. Haines in conducting the service, which was very effective.

Mr. Chandler was born in Jamaica, W. I., in 1840 and came to Oakland about 51 years ago, where he has resided until his death a few days ago. He was highly respected by all who knew him and beloved by his friends. He lived into the ripe old age of 75 years. Friends came from far and near to be present at the funeral, among whom was Mrs. Philip O'Riley of Sacramento. The pall-bearers were old settlers and friends, Mr. Geo. Godfrey, Kendall Cows, Fred Moore, John Riley, Fritz Jackson, and J. C. Peyton.

Mr. Philip O'Riley of Sacramento took a strange notion a few days ago and had a beard he has been growing for upward of 30 years chopped off—it is said that Mrs. O'Riley left home and it is not known whether or not she has returned.

Billie Robinson, one of the oldest men on the observation cars, received the sad news of his wife's continued illness at Chicago, where she went for her health a few months ago. The many friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson wish for her speedy recovery.

Wm. Prince has been very ill for two weeks, but is much better at this writing.

Mr. Blackburn has moved from S. Raymond to 127 Waverly drive.

Mrs. Zion gave her husband a birthday party Wednesday evening, 70 guests being present. Their home was beautifully decorated and the entire lower floor open to guests. Mrs. Bailey assisted in receiving, while Mr. Goosby acted as toastmaster. There were guests from Los Angeles and Riverside. Mr. Zion received many useful and beautiful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. D. Byers' family of Indianapolis attended the birthday party this week of Mr. Zion.

On Saturday Mrs. S. Wilson entertained 16 children at her home. It was a Christmas party doing the holidays. She did not have the children's class, but will have it every Saturday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:30. Remember when Jesus was asked who was the greatest in the kingdom of heaven, Matt. xviii-1, also Matt. xviii-10, Matt. xviii-6, teach your children to think of and to love the divine soul that pleaded their cause; remember the love and kindness shown by God toward helpless men and women, and they should show the same to helpless children. Wherever Jesus went the children followed him. Every church in the city was represented but one. Send your children next Saturday afternoon.

On February 14th there will be one of the grandest valentine parties given by Mrs. M. E. Moore at her home, 529 Stevenson avenue.

NOTICE.

To all Members of the Second Baptist Church, Greetings.

You are hereby notified that the second Sunday in February, Feb. 13, has been officially set as the date when the revised general roll call of the membership will be made preparatory to the coming of our new pastor, that we may present to him a house in order and lined up for battle in the Master's cause.

If you cannot be present have some one else answer to your name, or send in your name by mail to the church clerk, A. J. Nailor, 831 San Pedro street.

Don't fail to be present or send your name by mail to the church clerk, A. J. Nailor, 831 San Pedro street.

Don't fail to be present or send in your name, as this revised roll will be considered henceforth th official membership roll of the Second Baptist church of Los Angeles Cal.

FLETCHERISMS

Small Talks on Beauty Points

The Psychology of Beauty.

How often you have remarked, "What a beautiful woman." And yet, barring a soft, well cared for complexion, her features are plain and irregular.

The secret is, she appeals first to the senses through her grace, distinction and elegance. These, combined with an appeal to the mind, produce that charm called the "indefinable something" which is nothing more than the art of pleasing others. Charm is a moral element, the combination of which is beauty of character, tact and amiability, qualities which are indispensable to every woman who desire to please and produce a good impression.

Charm is a magic envelope which surround every woman and captivate all hearts and minds. You ask, "To possess charm, must she be beautiful in form and feature?" No; for beauty is not always sympathetic and graceful. Mere beauty can excite admiration, nothing more.

cination and wields an almost limitless power.

Develop the art of pleasing others and the above elements will be gradually acquired. To develop this art the utmost care must be paid to your own complexion and appearance.

"Fletcherize your complexion."

Communion services were sacredly observed by a large attendance Sunday and the worship was truly edifying throughout the entire day. The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services on our Lord's Day coming and speak from the following subjects: 11 a.m., "The Life of the Spirit-Born." At 8 p.m., "The Old Testament Prodigal." All are welcome.

The one greatest event of this season is the world of church entertainments will be "The Kermess of the Brides," presented by Los Angeles' most beautiful girls and handsome young men and our own augmented metropolitan choir on Tuesday evening, April 11th, in auditorium of First church. An enlarged platform will be built and gorgeously illuminated with electric flowers for this entertaining, instructive, historical and spectacular production. Keep this date in mind and attend, rain or shine.

The third quarterly meeting services will be held on Sunday, March 26. Presiding Elder Rev. J. H. Wilson will be present and in charge of the same. Let every loyal African Methodist member do your full duty upon this occasion and look forward with prayerful anticipations to the coming of this time.

The District Conference and Sunday school convention of the Los Angeles District will convene in Riverside, Cal., April 5, 6, 7. The delegates that will represent First church are Mesdames J. C. Slaughter, J. L. Craw and Alethia Holcomb. Mr. G. M. Warner, District steward, Hon. Willis O. Tyler and the pastor.

The Men's Co-operative Club is moving forward by leaps and bound, and will give the church the new carpet for Easter Sunday. Hon. J. B. Bass delivered a rousing and inspiring address to this body on "Progress" last Sabbath and from the same the club selected its slogan, viz., "Be something, Do something, Get something." The new month is in and each MAN will see the financial secretary to exemplify the truth of this slogan Sunday.

Don't miss the "House Musical and Supper" at Mrs. W. Montgomery's, Tuesday night, March 14. Auspices of Beacon Light Society.

An extraordinary Musical and Literary treat at the church on Tuesday night, March 28. Auspices of Trustee's Auxilliary board, Mrs. J. C. Slaughter, pres.

Next Friday night, March 17, at the parsonage, 1466 Griffith avenue, the Buds of Promise will give a five cent social and musical, beginning at 5 p.m. and continuing to 11 p.m. The public is invited.

Tabernacle Church

Last Sunday morning Rev. J. D. Gordon preached a sermon on "A Newer Vision." Among the many illustrations given by Rev. J. D. Gordon was one touching a "Vision" that came to him some thought he discovered the "Elixer of Life." He thought within himself what a wonderful discovery. When he raised his eyes again he saw a pile of men who had died, ready for the undertaker. They were piled up ten feet high. In this vision a whisper came, put a drop of this Elixer in each man's nostril, which was done, and as this Elixer touched each man he arose in full vigor and lived again. This was so startling to the dreamer within himself he though what will the world think of this discovery. He heard these men in great noise going to their various places of abode. He looked again and found an urn with the ashes of someone who had been cremated, labeled with the name of the cremated one. He said within himself, "this elixer fails here surely," but a voice again said, "drop a drop of the elixer into the urn." As soon as the elixer touched the ashes of the departed it began to sputter and effervesce, a cloud of vapor arose the height of a man, forming a man's eyes, nose, mouth, chin, and neck, and ran out to the length of his arm forming his index finger, thumb and hand, this going on on both sides and continued the building process until all of the ashes had left the urn and the man was perfectly formed. Then the dreamer awoke to find it but a vision. The preacher said these years the vision has gone on unexplained, but in his riper experiences he finds this elixer the discovery of each child of God when vital faith is iwthin discovered. Faith then is the elixer of life. Hence the dogmas and doctrines, but a vital faith in the simple truth of the Bible. This faith is the elixer of life. Not only faith in the word of the Bible, but we need a vital faith in the spirit of Christ. We first believe in the Bible truth and then we must believe in that same truth in the spirit.

The sermon was a beautiful one, and was enjoyed immensely by everyone.

Sunday night Rev. J. W. Walker of Bakersfield pjreached and it was very inspiring and uplifting.

Next Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock the new pastor of the Second Baptist church, Rev. Prowd, will deliver a message to the Baptist Union at Tabernacle church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

To The California Eagle:

At the regular business meeting of Mt. Zion Baptits church held on the evenig of Feb. 2nd, I tendered my resignation as pastor, under circumstances which make it necessary that I should give the churches of the denomination the reaso nfor so doing. A few days ago Rev. Mr. Curry, who is a member of Mt. Zion, took communion in the A. M. E. church, after making a talk declaring that he believed it was right, and if his church turned him out they could do so. As pastor I brought the matter to the attention of the church, and after listening to what Rev. Curry had to say, the church took a standing vote as to whether it stood for open communion; and the majority stood for making it an open communion organization. As a Baptist I stand where the Baptists have stood in all ages, upon the belief that the Bible stands for restricting the communion to the membership of the Baptist churches, and there was nothing left for me to do but resign.

EAST EIGHTH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Livest there a man woman boy or girl who does not attend a religions service at the E. 8th St., Christian church. We have a pastor there, Bro. D. L. Mc Mickens who unceasingl and unselfishly strive to bring the message to all that God intens for us to have and that is the knowledge of eternal life.

On last Sunday being unable to preach, he stroye to perform his duty and, God helping him brought us a soul stirring message, both morning and evening.

His topic for discussion in the forenoon was "Ghrist" and in the evening "The blood of the Covenant."

On next Wednesday evening Miss Bertha Miller will give a social concert with her pupils and others. Come and worship with us.

Expressing Our Will Power

BY THERESA F. YOUNG

Each individual has a certain amount of will power, yet in in some persons this trait of character is stronger than in others. For instance, these are those of us who will to do a thing and do it others do not even exercise their will power while still othtrs the unfortunate among us, who greatly desire to refrain from the things that are harmful and tend to undermind character but are unable on account of lact of the most essential and valuable assets that go to build strong noble character-will Power. There are several important traits of character tant of wich are honor, truth will power, these are the prime factors and indeed form the basesupon which a strong character rests.

Robert Buons one of Scotland ank England's most lovable poets lacked this essential asset will power, and the of which caused him a life of shame and alloted him a drunkard's grave. A drunkard by heridity, he passed from the state of drunkard to that of sot. Early mornings gound him lying in the gutter completely under the influence of liquor. struggle as he would the strong charmes of heredity and weak will held him fast. There are thousands of Robert Burns to day. Girls and boys who have no more back bone than a jelly fish. Do nnt be the monks of old, who in order to be good sought refuge in the monasteries, there shut in from the out side world by thick massive walls and heavy iron gates, they beat themselvs, tortured, starved and mained themselves bringing their bodies under subjection—as they thought fooced goodness which is not true goodness after all, and subjugating their wills to that of the master's all forced obedience which si not acceptable to God. This method which the monks exercised did not appeal to the outside world. If the desire to steal or lie is in you, you have not exercised your will power if you go to the authorities and ask them to lock you up in order that you may not committ a crime.

The thing that you should do, and that you must do, is to say No I will not steal from my friend No I will not do harm by telling a lie. Stand firmly in your determination, be resolute, and when the storm of temptation is passed another stone will be added to that great wall character the bulwark of mankind.

Its Relations to Health—Dr. Tarleton and others.

As Related to morals—B. E. Fullmer, md.

Closing Addsess—By W. H. Stephens, Pres. of the Forum.

At the close of the Congress there will be a free food demonstration. Attorney hugh mcBeth will introduce the star speaker of the meeting. Excellent music has been provided, such as solos and chorus. The noted Glendale male quartette will render three rousing selections. Song service begins at 2.30 and program proper sharply at 3 p. m., March 12.

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church.

Dr. J. A. Stout Presiding Elder of the Los Angeles Cistrcct will hold his second quarter Sunday at Phillips chapel. He will preach both services. Members and friends are expected to be out in large nings March 13th and 14th the ch will give a Feast in the Wilderness. An excellent musical program will be rendered each evening.

At 6:30 p. m. Sunday, Mr. Bert McDonald will address the Epworth League. Several musical numbers will also be rendered.

stuffin out of us and made us Democrats do without pie for over a quarter of a century. Oh, Waiting One, we hunker down on our Free Trade jeans-covered knees and petition thee not to have any more war.

If Mexico wants to make a doormat of the American flag let them enjoy themselves. Hasn't Germany done the same thing? Hasn't England done it, under thy great and adorable reign, oh, great soft-hearted chieftain? Why should we go to war? Are we not already at war at home with the poverty caused by thy great Free Trade? We thought we were already at war, mighty Woodrow. We've read of so many bank failures and business wrecks and people out of jobs under thy great Free Trade administration that we have stopped reading the newspapers, but if we are not at war why this blooming Hundred Million Dollar War Tax we are paying?

But, Mr. President, remember we are Democrats still. We are willing to face the music and drink soup, if necessary, if only we can be patted on the back and called good Democrats. We know it is treason to complain. We know the province of a good Democrat is to take his medicine and never make a crooked face. So, Mighty Chief, forgive us for talking as we have. Kick us for presuming to ask questions. It is not for us to scrutinize thy wisdom or question thy plans. So put the toe of thy wrath to us and teach us to obey. Teach us that a Democrat was made to vote straight and ask no questions.

Master Wilson, if we are too presumptuous, kick us. Kick us a little anyway. We deserve to be kicked a little. If we ask foolish questions thump us on the head with the scepter of thy greatness. If we are a little crude and coarse in our manners it is because we never had a chance to be anybody. We never went to school. We are greenhorns. We are fag ends of Democratic despair. We are lick-spittles and gutter-snipes. We are ready to do the bidding of any Democrat who will command us. We will turn political somersaults. We will cuss Cleveland some more. We will denounce Roosevelt or Taft or Debs or Chafin or anybody else if it will make pie come our way.

Now, Master Wilson, accept this our humble prayer. Forgive us for asking for anything that we should no receive.

Save us from the clutches of The Rascal Whipper and all the honor shall be thine. Amen.

Sidney P. Dones, manager of Booker T. Washington Bldg., real estate and insurance man who through honest and conscientous dealing is bringing the colored business men and women of the race together. Mr. Dones says that within the next six months Cenral Ave. between 8th and Pico will be found all kinds of mercantile business represented by our own race. We are not fighting any one, or any race. We believe that under the present conditions that the colored man or woman is entitled to the colored trade. If you want groceries, buy from a colored groceryman. If you need dry goods, buy from a colored dry goods store. If you you need professional services for heaven's sake use your own colored doctor and lawyer. Do you not know that the colored business or professional man must depend entirely on the colored people for support. If the other fellow gets the majority of our own race's business and all of his own race's business, how on earth will we poor race business men catch up?

He further warns the business men by saying, "Race men, build up your business and demand the patronage of your race, build banks, department stores, factories, make a place for the younger generation of our race. Colored people should go in business." Not a colored shoe store in California, notwithstanding there are 65,000 Negroes in the state spending annually over $1,000,000 for shoes.

By Sidney P. Dones, Suite 4, Booker T. Washington Bldg. 1034½ Central Ave.

CANDIDATES, DON'T BE FOOLED!

There are now a number of so-called Negro newspapers, campaign sheets, being launched in this city for the sole purpose of holding up candidates for public office this Spring and Fall. Such mercenary sheets have neither a mailing list nor any bona fide subscribers. This information can be authenticated by looking on the paper above the editorial columns for the printed statement that the paper has been admitted to the mails. If this does not appear, the paper is a fake pure and simple. Any money paid to such papers buys for you neither circulation of your printed matter nor the influence that is represented to go with it.

With two Republican delegations before the voters it will be hard to miss out, as one or the other will surely win.

GET TOGETHER

We at all times preach the Get Together doctrine along industrial and business lines, and now we must get together along political lines if we expect to get this country back on a safe and sane basis. All Republicans must get together to put a united front before the enemies of progress.

The watchful waiting policy of President Wilson has resulted in the present enforced invasion of Mexico. Stubbornness and personal dislikes lost all chance of order in Mexico when the President failed to recognize Huerta the only man who could have established order in that war ridden country.

OUR STAND ON JIM CROW PROPOSITIONS

We want it clearly understood that we have no personal feeling or antipathy against the Jim Crow clan. It is a matter of principle with us. We have to fight it from without and within on the Jim Crow issue. The latest Moses of the clan infesting this community is the disciple of Dunbar, Prof. Charles Alexander, erstwhile editor of a local Jim Crow sheet, working his own people to build up a cheap white man's paper.

No more could be expected, however, as he came to Los Angeles with his Jim Crow ideas, in fact all of his acts have savored of Jim Crow, even to his speeches against the red light abatement law.

Now we recognize that this man, if he was right on this racial question, could be of great benefit to his Race in this community, but as he has fallen by the wayside, deserted his Race in building up their enterprises to help a cheap white man build up a union shop in which our people are absolutely barred as workmen, we believe that it is time to snatch the mask from his face, and in fact we feel that we would fall far short of our duty should we fail to do so. We also feel that any of our organizations which give support to this man as long as he is connected like he is, they are simply giving the white man a stick to break their own necks.

We want to insist on our distinguished friend and disciple of Dunbar to stand up like a man, and quit playing ape for the white man, preying on your own people to build up a cheap white man. Be a Race man or get out of public life. You cannot last as you are, because you well merit the condemnation of every true and loyal Race man in the land, suffering yourself to be the tool of this cheapwhite man who is the owner of a newspaper devoted to Negroes.

It is the most ridiculous proposition ever foisted on the public and the surprising thing is that a man such as the genial professor could be procured to serve as vassal for this sort of man.

Now this will probably put a new impetus on Brown, the white man, to do further battle with this real Negro journal, and might make the professor whip up a little more to keep it going, but we are going to keep the people posted on this Jim Crow editor, and we serve notice that we are in on nothing that is dominated or directed by Jim Crow forces.

POLITICAL POT PIE

The County Republican Committee met Thursday night and made arrangements to open headquarters for the pending campaign.

In an interview with Chairman Bowen of the County Committee he stated that the Colored men lost the opportunity of their lives to get a Colored men on the delegation, all because the two Colored committeemen would not get together on a man.

A meeting has been called by the Republican Central Committeeman of the 74th Assembly district for Wednesday night at the 14th street school house, at which time the Republican voters will form a complete organization of the district.

E. J. Delorey, it is said, is making a winning campaign for supervisor.

The various Republican organizations are getting busy to rout Democracy in all of its forms at the coming elections.

There were no new entries for assemblyman from the 74th district the past week.

Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey, our very popular councilman, is doing her colleague, Mr. Langdon, a great service.

There will be a general organization of Colored Republicans organized next week. Announcement in our next issue.

THE TWO-PIANO RECITAL

In which Miss Lorenza Jordan and Mr. John Gray competed as it were, for honors as musicians of rare note last Tuesday evening was a pronounced success. To say that one had anything on the other in the way of technical manipulation would seem like partiality. Both style and class of rendition by Miss Jordan and Mr. Gray on this occasion demonstrated close application in the study of execution.

It is hoped that Los Angeles concert goers will soon learn to appreciate such talent as Miss Jordan and Mr. Gray.

The Eagle Soars High, Though Others (Journals) Come and Die.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 10, 1916.
Editor CALIFORNIA EAGLE:—
Dear Sir: I had supposed that "mud-slinging" journalism had become obsolete, but if the Postage Stamp, published and circulated on San Pedro street, is to be classed as a "news"-paper, then such is not the case, judging from the "roast" the Postage Stamp, in its last week's issue, handed to the Post. In the same "article" the Postage Stamp made a feeble and jaded attempt to spray the Eagle with a little of its filth, but as one can, in ten minutes' time, walk beyond the confines of the Postage Stamp's circulation, the Eagle should have no fear of losing even one of its thousands of subscribers. Yes, I believe the Eagle is a tough Old Bird, to down, having flapped its hugh wings in these parts for more than 30 yers, and I believe that it will continue to soar high and dry long after the Postage Stamp has been licked, canceled and started on its way to the graveyard. A. D.

Scott Chapel M. E. church held its first quarterly meeting March 4. Rev. Ray A. Moore occupied the chair. It was a big meeting and the pastor made a good report.

The funeral services of Richard Austin were conducted from Friendship church, Rev. Riddle officiating.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager Office 742 3rd St. Phones: Main 1613, Main 6128

The Eagle reporter called at the busy office of Mr. Anderson a few days ago. Mrs. Anderson regretted that business called her away, but she had to make her conversation short during the day in order to be ready to enjoy the feast to be given by the Royal Arch Masons at the hall the coming evening. Miss Arphelia Ellis, stenographer, who is setting an example for young girls to follow in business, said that she was too busy to know of any news anyway. Her sister, Mrs. E. W. Carter, and baby take up all her idle time. The question next taken up was matrimony, and even though it was leap year she was not making any proposals, as the San Diego young men do not seem to realize the responsibility for life-long companionship. However, there are a few young men in the Angel city who no doubt could win her hand. She intends going East this summer and was asked if two could not travel sweeter than one. No, doubt, but not cheaper. Right here she was interrupted by a proposal from a very handsome young man saying that he was willing to wait until such time as she may set for the church bells to ring. She then looked up from her busy desk and said, "Say, Mr. Reporter, why do you persist in questioning me. I have no news for you, but you can say that ten years from today I will still be single" (pie crust).

Miss Katherine Badgett is expected to return home this week.

Mrs. Ralph Sanders and Miss Corona White showed Mrs. E. W. Anderson and a few of her friends some of their gracefulness at the society function a few nights ago. In fact, Miss Whites' acts were so stunning and perfect that the Eagle dropped its wings in exclamation.

The Eagle is the peoples' Forum paper and we intend to keep the people posted of the doings of the race in our city. And when you see an article in the local news as to a public affair, that stands as our recommendation.

Since the Exposition has opened for its second year, there seems to be a flock of worthless people from all races pouring into our city. The little petty grafters, who have been run out of the largest cities of the coast, have worked their social and political graft until their conduct has made them ashamed to look a person in the face. Now they are trying to take advantage of the better class of citizens of San Diego and bringing up many grafting and short-lived propositions. The Eagle has stood on the bridge at midnight and watched over you. Why not become unanimous and support the bridge that carried you over.

Mrs. Copeland entertained her friends Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. E. W. Anderson entertained 16 ladies of the Friday club last Friday.

There was a late Christmas tree for Mrs. Gerard Freeman given at 30th and M streets last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served.

The Whist club, Mr. Saunders and Mr. Anderson, both shine. Who's next?

Mrs. Thad. Williams and Mrs. Hayden played their hands well.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman go to the country during the whole of lent.

Rev. G. W. Woodby has resigned from Mt. Zion.

The Tuskegee students sang to crowded houses during the whole week. Every place they visit they sing to crowded houses. People are delighted with their singing.

Mt. Zion Literary society first Tuesday night of each week meets at Mt. Zion church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Norwood were guests at dinner with Rev. and Mrs. P. E. Robinson Sunday afternoon.

At the Isis theater on Monday night were noticed Miss Ellen Gatewood and Mesdames Annie Hurley and C. E. Norwood.

Mrs. L. A. Jones has adopted a 1-year and a half old baby girl, who hastn't any mother. We know that Mrs. Jones will be repaid for her kind act.

Lots of people are fording thru the air on high life nowadays, but Mr. and Mrs. Freeman have forded the stream to their ranch.

The Royal Arch Chapter held their delayed Thanksgiving sermon and reception last Monday night at the new Masonic hall. You cannot find words to express the magnificence of the affair—it is on the tongue of every one. The Chapter was somewhat disappointed at the absence of the grand high priest, J. A. Roberts of Los Angeles. The high priest, W. A. Mitchell, carried out the ceremony to perfection. Officers: H. H. Harvey, King; T. K. Lewis, Scribe; W. H. Saunders, P. S.; A. Henderson, C. H.; T. White, G. M., 1st V.; G. L. Murray, G. M., 2nd V.; G. W. Grey, Treasurer; W. G. Meadows, Secretary; Gus. Thompson, Guard. Committees: G. Thompson, T. White, A. Henderson. Guests present: E. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Gus Thomas and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs White, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd White, Jack White and wife, W. G. Meadows and wife, W. D. Saunders and J. Gray and wife, F. Seads and wife, Thad. Williams and wife, Mr. and Mes. Loraines, Mesdames Scott, Purnell, Blockner, W H. Laws C. R. Scott, R. Lee, Misses Corona White, Robert Lee, M. T. Laws, Carter Waring, Jim Cassus, Tom Brown, Edward Marshall, Frank White, C. H. Murphy and P. L. Johnson. After the grand march they were all seated at a large banquet table. The high priest occupied the post of honor until the stroke of twelve, when they passed out of the banquet hall one by one.

Mrs. M. T. Laws reports having had a very enjoyable time among her many friends and relatives in Los Angeles.

The Panama International Exposition will re-open on March 18 larger and grander than ever. Ten thousand people are expected from Los Angeles alone. Special trains will be run from San Francisco and Oakland. Those who have not had the opportunity of visiting our Fair are making preparations to come this year. The managing editor of the Eagle, who will make a tour of the State, will meet more than 4000 of our race and will prevail upon them to see San Diego and its Exposition. The mayor has declared Saturday, March 18, as a holiday and Gov. Johnson has given his consent that throughout the state they may may claim it as a holiday. The governor has also consented to be one of rhe speakers of the day at the Exposition. Every citizen should take an active part in boosting this great affair.

E. Mulholland is among the new subscribers to the Eagle.

How can we furnish the news for you unless you become a subscriber to the paper?

If your bill is due, please remit at once, Eagle office, 742 3rd street, or 418 G street, San Diego, or phone Main 1613.

The Carnation Literary society, as advertised, met Tuesday night at the Mt. Zion church. Every one present certainly did enjoy th e program, and those who did not attend missed a rare treat.

Miss Sonnie Mason gave a recitation that bears repeating at any of our gatherings. Come out on the first Tuesday night in April and you will again hear this touching recitation, especialy ye men folks; it is for you. Miss Blanche Williams did justice to a solo as she always does, and she was asked to sing again at our next meeting. Every piece on the program was simply excellent. The beautiful welcoming address was delivered by Miss Exonia Mulholland and a most brilliant response delivered by Chas. Dodge, could not be excelled. In the spelling match Blanche Goodwin won the prize. Every one is cordially invited to come out to our next program first Tuesday in April. A debate by four young ladies will be something extra. We hope to encourage our young people all we can, as we certainly have a bright set of girls in our midst. Boys, you must get a move on you, the girls are ahead; they are not waiting for you, but with outstretched arms to bid you God speed. Up then, young man and gird yourself for the work of self-cultivation. Set a high price on your leisure moments—they are sands of precious gold. A great deal of talent is lost in the world for the lack of a little courage. The fact is, to do anything in this world worth doing we must not stand back shivering and thinking of the cold and the danger, but jump in and scramble through as best we can. Young men, you are wanted from the street corners, from the saloons and play-houses, from the loafers' den, from the idler's promenade and turn your steps into the highway of noble aim and earnest work. Always remember that you should enter into some kind of business for yourself, and the very best way to climb the ladder is to mind your own business. Mrs. C. E. Norwood is chairman of the literary program committee.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public on Friday night Mnrch 17, at the Mt Zion Baptist church. Rev. H. B. Thomas of Santa Barbara, moderator of the Western Baptist association, will preach for us. Come out and hear what he has in store and be benefited thereby.

Mrs. R. Ryder is getting up a play for the B. Y. P. U., which will be staged the latter part of this month. Watch for the date.

THE PHONE RANG

Hello! hello! said I,
She was so nice although—
But then I could not say no.
And then she sai i I don t know
What I shall do, as it is leap year,
And I must wed before the year is o'er;
But then that was true!
But who to? said I,
When she jerked the phone and said,
Who do you think I should?
I replied and said, it is up to you
She phoned and said its Mamie;
But then, be careful,
For it is for life.
Oh, no, its the custom now
To get a paper
From a judge
Which will let me go to—
Reno and other places, too,
And then she hung up
And so did I.

SHAM

Did you listen to the Lambs?
The other night, Oh, the song
Was magnigcent.
The singing was exquisite,
The voices were grand.
And the refrain was superb
Now when a Mulatto
Can compose such
A masterpiece,
Who can say that
They should ride
In a "Jim Crow" car.
No Father Abraham
We are here to stay
And are not to do the bidding of
An old disgruntled hard headed Settler
For if he was a man
He would not be ashamed
Of his name.
This poor old settler
Who was ashamed of his name
And wants to ride
All alone in a lilly
White car for SHAM.

Mrs. Lindgenfelter left for her home in Los Angeles after enjoying herself, and remarked that the time was so pleasant that she would return again.

M. T. Laws officially announces that he will not be connected with any new journal, the wings of the Eagle have supported you fnr 28 years, and let it continue to support you. The Eagle has not only given you the news and current events but its columns have been used freely towards boosting San Diego remember that we are a part of this globe and we must be patriotic in order to demand recognition.

Mrs. Martha Ann Smith, the mother of Mt. Zion church, is confined to her bed. We hope she will be up soon.

Mr. Chas. Dodge is a constant visitor to the Mulholland residence. Everybody be careful, for this is leap year.

Mrs. C. E. Norwood, Mrs. R. Ryder, Mrs. Annie Hurley and Miss Ellen Gatewood were guests of Spreckles Theater Wednesday night.

Mrs. Verra Simpson is preparing to leave for Los Angeles soon, where she will make her future home.

The reception given last Friday night in honor of the young ladies of the B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School of the Mt. Zion church, of which Rev. G. W. Woodby is pastor, was in every way a brilliant success. Mrs. Woodby spared no pains in giving the girls an enjoyable evening. After much merriment and laughter and singing, refreshments were served. Mrs. Moltan and Mrs. Hart served the refreshments.

Those present were Mrs. C. E. Norwood, president of the B. Y. P. U.; Mrs. R. Ryder, ex-president of B. Y. P. U.; Mrs. L. E. Goodwin, Mrs. J. Langley, Rev. G. W. Woodby, Miss Addie Belle Goodwin, Miss Lena Mason, Miss Blanche Goodwin, Miss Exonia Mulholland, Miss Saunie Mason, Miss Almazona Jefferson, Miss Isabella Langley and Miss Gertrude Williams. Miss Annie Mulholland could not attend, as she is still a victim of the la grippe, but we all sincerely hope she will be able to be out soon.

Mrs. Annia Hurley and Miss Ellen Gatewood of the Palomar Apartments are her for the winter from Louisville, Kentucky. Mrs. C. E. Norwood has made it very pleasant for the ladies since they have been in our city, and we hope that San Diego in general will not forget to entertain strangers while in our city.

During one of the greatest floods in its history the town of San Diego was entirely cut off from the outside world. Hundreds of homes were destroyed and more than a million dollars worth of damage was done and hundreds of lives were lost, among them were Japanese and Chinamen, but as far as The Eagle reporter has seen there has been no Colored people listed among the dead. The only bridge left standling was the one over False Bay at Ocean Beach.

The condition was indescribable before the Otay dam broge, since then it can never be pictured.

The little Mexican town of Tia Juana was practically destroyed by flood, all that was left of the race track was the grandstand and the stables. But President Conforth of the Lower California Jockey Club says he will place hundreds of men to work at once and by the time the county roads and the steam roads are in condition, and which has been said that the steam road would be out of commission for three or four weeks, about that time the tracks will be opened larger and better. The outside world to an extent are laboring under the impression that San Diego as a whole are among the sufferers, but those do not visit the surrounding outskirts only know the condition as they read it.

The Exposition ground, which sets high on the hill at Balboa Park is as far from the flood danger as the Statue of Liberty.

Mr. Geo. Murray announces that he will take unto himself a better half in a short time, as the strain of ducking the leap year proposals is too great.

Cut of a Portion of the Flooded District
Courtesy of San Diego Union

The Eagle reporter's sayings are coming true rapidly. Mr. John Cloud, San Diego's handsomest bud was picked off by the Cupid last Saturday night, Jan. 29th. He was married to Miss Charline Lawson of Denver, Colo. And will make San Diego their future home.

A certain young lady near East San Diego said that she will do her leap year plucking soon.

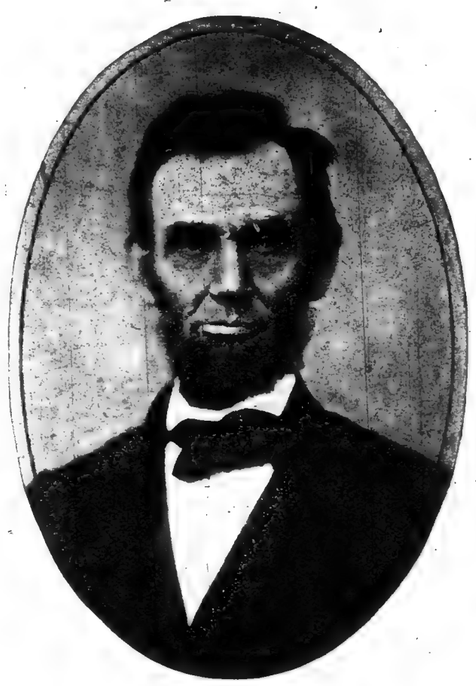
Mr. Frank Ellis of Coronado said that it is a good thing to be married, but during these flooded times he can't see where two can live cheaper than one.

Mr. Floyd Williams has been ducking the Cupid about long enough. If the affection on Greeley street is not strong enough, he ought to go up the Silver Strand.

Where and for whom does Harry Hall buy his one pound box of candy and tries to give it to one dozen girls. If you want it to go so far you should buy it at the 5 and 10 cent stores.

A man always tries to protect a woman from every man except himself. But Mr. Dave Johnson is trying to protect them from himself.

Miss Head, who has been employed as head matron and manicurist at Tia Juana race track, but has been taking life easy in the city since the flood, but her lucky days during the races will enable her to have a few days of recreation and return at the opening with gold to spare.



Mrs. E. C. Hannahs expects to leave for Los Angeles to spend several weeks with her husband, who is in the latter city.

Mr. Joe Robinson's pool room on Third street was partially destroyed by fire last week and is now closed for repairs. Several railroad porters who were on this end, left for their home via the steamers.

PROMINENT RACE MAN, LEADER IN FRATERNAL AFFAIRS, VISITS ANGEL CITY

Hon. E. H. Holmes, Spokane, Washington, one of the most prominent race men and leaders in the fraternal affairs of the Evergreen State, has been a welcome visitor to the Angel City during the past two weeks. While here he has been the house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, 1609 East Fifteenth street, and has been the motive of several social functions, theater parties by former Mississippians, as he is a native of the Southern State. During the past year Mr. Holmes was custodian of the Washington building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco. In the Inland Empire Mr. Holmes is a live wire in the political world, having held the responsible position of Deputy in the County Treasurer's office of Spokane County. He is prominent in fraternal circles, holding the Grand Senior Wardenship in the Grand Lodge of Masons of the Washington Jurisdiction. On Tuesday evening he was the honored guest of the St. John Lodge of Masons, where he was received with high Masonic honors in keeping with his station. Some years ago Mr. Holmes and Dr. J. Gordon McPherson published "The Forum," one of the foremost Negro weeklies of the Inland Empire. While in the city he was entertained by Grand Master T. A. Harris, Mrs. Julia Shackleford, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Patterson, a valued employee of the Postoffice Department, former residents of Seattle; Miss Gertrude Chrisman and Mrs. Chrisman, formerly pioneers of northern Idaho; Drs. Gordon and Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Boogs. Dr. Nelson and Mr. Holmes were boyhood chums in old Mississippi. He was also entertained at breakfast by Dr. and Mrs. J. Gordon McPherson and was extended many courtesies by Editor and Mrs. W. B. Bass of the "Eagle." He also delivered timely addresses at Eighth and Towne Ave. Church, of which the genial Dr. J. Logan Craw is minister, and at St. Paul Baptist Church, of which Dr. H. W. Tilman is pastor. After a brief visit to San Diego, Mr. Holmes takes his leave for Spokane, the great Inland Empire, Thursday, carrying with him the best wishes of his many fraternal and admiring friends in the Angel City, who hold him in high esteem. Should the time come when friend Holmes should decide to make a change in residence, the people of Southern California will welcome him.

The following Sunday morning the reverend was greeted with a congregation that taxed the capacity of the church. The choir appeared in a musical glory that gave evidence of the magic touch of our inestimable chorister, Prof. Henry Douglas Greer, who has recently resumed active charge of the choir.

After the conventional complimentary remarks, the reverend gave as his text that passage of Scripture wherein the Savior was giving his followers at their request the signs indicating His diciples. The theme was announced to be, "Hang Out Your Shingle." The Book was closed. As we have about exhausted our descriptive vocabulary, we will only say in repetition that everything we have said above concerning his initial appearance, we again reiterate with extreme emphasis, for truly Bro. Moore must have been inspired to greater effort, by what he was pleased to say in his preliminary remarks, was the largest audience he had the pleasure to address since he had been in the West. The aunience certainly went away justified and was glad that it had been there.

Sunday will be Young Peoples' and Rally day. In the morning Deacon Patterson will conduct a devotional meeting for young people. He has sent out the call for all the young people and their friends to be present.

Deacon Patterson has also on behalf of the church issued a call that on the first Sunday in February, 50 men and 100 women come prepared to respond with one dollar and fifty cents respectively, for the purpose of raising the necessary funds to discharge the pressing obligation of the church.

106 Years Ago Abraham Lincoln Earth Born Savior of Mankind Was Born

Monday is the Anniversary of Frederick Douglas Moses of His Race

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

BY WILLIAM NAUNS RICKS.

A day, a year, a century; in His eternal plan;
The three or one sufficient is for God to make a man.
He took of dust the strongest part and cast it in your mold,
Then breathed therein the breath of life and made your heart of gold.
A heart so great, so strong, so true, a heart deep filled with tears.
And every fiber tuned to feel, the needs of coming years.
To teach you Natures' finest creed, He gave you woods and streams
And songs of birds, and labor hard, to fashion out your dreams.
Here you were taught by torrents and hills ascending height,
How patience, strength and fortitude must carve the path of right,
He gave you then a rugged form, your wisdom to defend.
And vision, passing common dreams; of victory at the end,
That vision caught by you was held, through pain and upward strife;
It kept you free from small men's doubt, and gave you purpose life.
Kentucky's days and nights beheld, the master plan unroll,
And gave you grief, too poignant far; too deep to warp the soul,
Where weaker spirits failed, you stood; believing men should be,
Because in God's own image made, unhindered; upright; free.
With faith in God and man you pledged your life to raise your land,
Above the aim of blood stained wealth, free from the slaver's hand.
You deemed the human form to be, the temple for God's love,
And sought to make men understand, this wisdom, from above.
Your mission has not failed on earth; but men still vainly press
Their fellows down by force of arms; still traffic in distress.
You stood for peace and common weal, you stood for manhood, too,
You stood for Christ-like hearts in men; too kind to be untrue.
If in that Realm beyond the veil, the deeds of men you see—
You see how death stalks through the world; nor is there Liberty.
We long for peace with fervent hearts, we pray as you have prayed,
That UNIVERSAL BROTHERHOOD no longer be delayed.

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE'S LINCOLN DAY PROGRAM

At Providence Institutional Baptist church, corner of Crocker and Agatha Sts., Sunday evening at 8 p.m. sharp.

All are invited to attend.

The Old Soldiers of the Soldiers' Home at Sawtelle will be our special guests as well as the ex-slaves.

Sunday evening's service at the Providence church promises to be a remarkable one in many respects, as the evening will be given entirely over to the CALIFORNIA EAGLE for the purpose of holding appropriate exercises commemorating the birth of the world's greatest humanitarian and statesman, Abraham Lincoln.

The great Providence choir and its great pipe organ will peal forth the tidings of this earth born Savior of mankind of His birth and of his greatness by patriotic song.

The great Providence Symphony orchestra will play several selections likened unto those of the choir.

The program will be furnished by the Eagle staff, we are not going to say that we can make good, but we believe that the one which has been arranged will be a rare treat. We make special mentiol of Judge Griffin Jones of the Sunrise Court, who bears a message on Mr. Lincoln, the humanitarian. Mr. Jones is a fearless friend of the race and is in a position to speak along the lines as indicated above.

The Old Soldiers will come up from the home in a body. They will be brought from the station to the church in autos which have been kindly donated by the Sidney P. Dones Co., by Mr. E. C. Hannahs and others. Any old person who wants to come out to these services, but on account of infirmities cannot come, notify this office by calling phone Main 1594 and we shall be pleased to send auto for them.

The Eagle appreciates very much the assistance we have been rendered in preparing for this occasion by friends from all sources and of all classes. Mr. A. D. Lacey has kindly consented to look after the decorations. Mr. L. C. Luke is our special ambassador to make it comfortable for the ex slave.

SOJOURNER TRUTH SPRING BIG SURPRISE

Last week the officers and past officers of Sojourner Truth announced that on Friday evening the members were wanted to join in a sort of financial get-together rall and reception.

On the evening set apart many of the members, knowing the heatless condition of the building did not appear. Those among the brave who were willing to face even a little cold weather came out and on entering the club building which in every other respect was up-to-date in modern equipment, were pleasantly surprised when they realized that they were in a well heated building, and began to inquire what miracle was being performed, when Mrs. J. M. Scott, who was in the chair, could no longer withhold her secret enthusiasm, began to tell the story of how one of the members and her devoted husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paterson, had prevailed upon Mrs. Anita Baldwin the needs of the home, and how she, Mrs. Baldwin, had given her personal check for one hundred and ninety-five dollars for a beautiful steam heat furnace that was even then doing the magic work that provided so much comfort for those present. Mrs. Scott's remarks were not lengthy, but in them she encroached the idea of a great financial rally which is to be started in the near future for the further development and expansion of Sojourner Truth.

Every race-loving citizen of Los Angees and all California is asked to contribute one dollar to this great movement.

THE GET TOGETHER MOVEMENT SPREADS

Becomes a Reality—Read the Following

Our next week's issue will give in detail the great movement which has centralized in the big office building at 11th and Central avenue. One of the finest in the city.

Racement, get together, take over 57 room office and apartment building. Won't be ousted out by white agents of the uptown buildings any longer. Building to be called the B. T. Washington Building. Will be of the highest class. Spaces being rapidl taken by race men and women. Sidney P. Dones was selected as the agent and manager. R. C. Owens gives the following endorsement:

Sidney P. Dones Co.

Gentlemen—I heartil endorse the step you have taken in opening a modern office building for the colored business and professional men and women. You have certainly made a commendable move. Every colored business and professional man and woman should move in your building now and not wait until white agents drive them out, as they are doing now.

I wish you much success.

Respectfully ours,

R. C. OWENS.

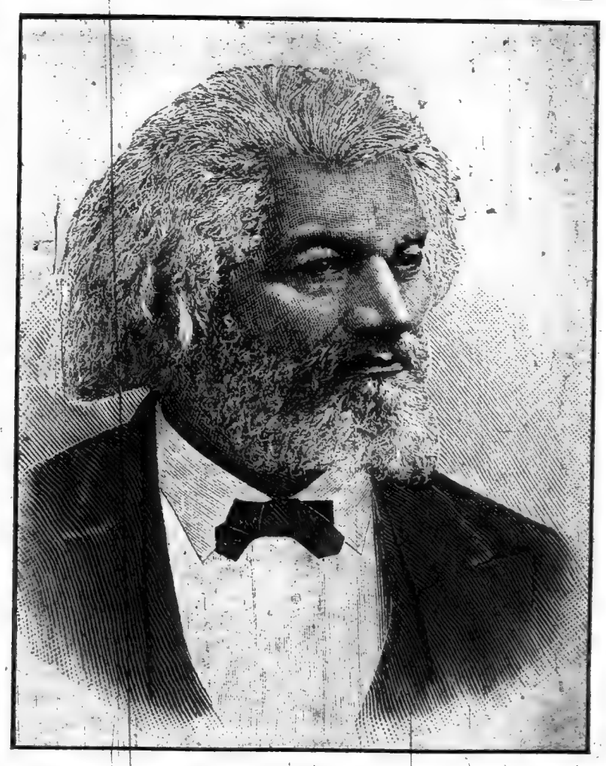
This building is surrounded with 60 per cent of the colored people of Los Angeles, where they have no car fare to pa to get to it. Where they will get the courtesies due them. Large front offices in suite or single, suitable for doctors, lawyers, real estate dealers, insurance agents, chiropodists, dentists, hair dressers, manicurists, stenographers, dressmakers, tailors, business colleges. Also a few light housekeeping apartments.

There are more than a million dollars spent annually with other business and professional men and women. Why? Because the colored business is too scattering.

We need more colored business. There are no colored banks, no colored shows, no colored general merchandise stores. Why, because we need to get our business together. Business and professional men get together and make places for the colored boy and girl that is graduating in the public schools annually. To the colored race in general, patronize your own race in every way you can, let's make better times in the west for ourselves. Here we make the money and we spend the money, but who gets the benefit?

This building is located at the corner of 11th and Central Ave. No. 1013½ Central Ave. Call at Suite 4, office of the building.

Sidney P. Dones, Agent.



GLORIOUS PATRIOTIC CELEBRATION COMMEMORATING LINCOLN-DOUGLASS DAY

Excellent Program of Music, Oratory and Song, Special Features of the Sunday Parliament Tomorrow 2:30. At Central Hall, E. Washington and Central Ave.

Great is the Colored citizens Sunday Parliament which was inaugurated last Sunday afternoon at Central Hall, East Washington and Central ave., which was attended by one of the largest and most representative gatherings of both Races that has ever been brought together in this Southeastern section of the city. Much credit is due Dr. J. Gordon McPherson for the public spiritedness he has displayed in bringing together the masses in so great a movement for the mutual uplift and social betterment. So great has the interest grown during the week until the parliament has been widely discussed by men of every class in the fraternal, social, industrial and business world.

The great Lincoln-Douglass celebration which is to be held tomorrow afternoon at the Parliament promises to be one of the greatest semi-religious and patriotic demonstrations ever held in this city among the Colored residents, and an excellent musical and literary program has been arranged in which some of the best talent of the city will take part. Among them such silvery tongued spellbinders of national repute as Attorneys W. O. Tyler and Frank Alexander, the eloquent Rev. Dr. J. D. Gordon of the famed Tabernacle Baptist church; vocal trio, "The Old Flang Never Touched the Ground," Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bilbrew, R. Harris. Mr. Lee Johnson, a gifted young orator who is destined to become one of the silvery tongued orators of the Pacific Northwest, will speak on the problems of the unemployed. Mrs. Estelle Lawton-Lindsey, councilwoman of Greater Los Angeles, has been invited to address this immense patriotic assemblage. Mme. Ophelia Boyd, the sweet voiced dramatic soprano soloist who has entranced many large gatherings, will sing an operatic selection, "Carissima," by Penn, with Mrs. E. Pearson, the celebrated Bay City pianist, accompanist. The Angel City Brass Band will discourse patriotic airs and concert music for the entertainment of the assemblage. A cordial invitation has been extended His Honor Mayor Charles E. Sebastion, members of the City Council, Grand Army heroes, Spanish-American war veterans,

FLETCHERISMS

Small Talks on Beauty Points

The Enemies of Beauty

Real beauty, combining both physical and mental characteristics, has powerful enemies that insidiously work at all times.

Age, the most feared of all, should be greeted gracefully for what is more beautiful and charming than the well preserved, well groomed woman whose calm dignity is crowned by adorable grey or white hair blending softly with a skin that does not show lines and set creases caused by passions and envy.

Passions and faults are the real destroyers of beauty for they indelibly imprint your thougnts and actions on the display sign of your real self, namely, the face and eyes

An inward thought, "My, isn't she wonderful," has been quickly dispelled at the first smile or close scrutiny. Do not permit angry or envious thoughts or emotions to occupy your mind.

Another real enemy is the mode of living. Regular, well kept hours or sleep and meals, moderate exercise which should not be abused, plenty of fresh air combined with a sufficient thought and care for the hygiene, in all its forms, will work wonders toward extending the length of beauty's reign.

Remember this, the features are the index to the thoughts and actions. A beautiful inward character will show a beautiful exterior providing ordinary common sense is exercised in the mode of thought and living.

"Fletcherize your complexion."

CITY BREVITIES

Dr. Joseph T. Hill, while in the city, was the guest of Dr. W. H. Tilman, 734 Kohler street.

Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, who is a practitioner of the science of divine healing, is making some miraculous cures.

We have just received the sad intelligence that J. M. Bedford is confined to his home at 1508 E. 15th street, having suffered a paraletic stroke a few days ago. His many friends hope his illness will not prove fatal.

Miss Nellie Sallee of Chicago is the house guest of Mrs. Sunshine Miller of E. 18th street. Miss Sallee is a social settlement worker of Chicago and active in church and society.

On Saturday next the biggest hit of the season vaudeville stunts, characteristic sketches, humorous monologues, sleight of hand performances, etc., under the direction of Mrs. Georginia Williams and Mrs. Jean H. Coffee, for the benefit of the Dramatic club, will be given at Washington and Central hall. Some of Los Angeles' most famous entertainers will appear on this program. Don't fail to see Prof. John H. Coffee in his wonderful feats at sleight of hand performing. He is, indeed, a wonder and is termed by all the greatest wizard of the West. "If the World Could Just Turn Backward for a Year," composed by Prof. John H. Coffee. This song will be sung and illustrated. Also hear the well known Lyric quartet, which never fails to please, and Madam Huley, the queen of song; Mrs. Rosa L. Sampson in her humorous sketch, Miss Lorenza Jordon, pianist, Madam Sue Te Nan Conley, the great actress, and others who will appear on this excellent program. Don't miss the entertainment.

A unique program will be given by Mrs. Jannie Sykes at Wesley chapel Feb. 15th. Grand drill by boy scouts, reviewed by two beautiful queens. Fashion show displaying dress from 1730 to 1916 Date, Feb. 15th. Place, Wesley chapel.

All kinds of applications for government lands, yearly proofs and relinquishments prepared; also plats showing vacant government land. Mrs. Vining, 431 Chamber of Commerce.

Beautifully furnished 3 and 4 room apartments for rent; convenient location; 1705 E. 15th St. Mrs. I. S. Blacksher, Prop.

Mrs. P. M. Hickman and daughter spent a very delightful afternoon Sunday as guests of Mrs. Burrell and daughter of Lakeshore avenue.

You missed a great treat if you did not hear the Eastern Jubilee singers Wednesday evening at Blanchard's hall. The program was richly varied and masterly rendered. All those who were present report a very enjoyabl evening.

The Tuskegee singers are having much success. While in our city a great crowd enjoyed their music at Trinity Auditorium Sunday af ternoon. They expect to remain in California until the middle of March.

Rev. Reed of Stockton is still holding revivals at Tabernacle Baptist church. The meetings thus far are very successful.

A surprise party will be given the members of Sojourner Truth club by the board Friday evening, Feb. 4th.

Mrs. G. G. Brown of Douglas street is reported some better.

R. W. Stewart of Ceres avenue remains on the sick list, but is able to be up and around.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Watson of Court street is much better, after about a month's suffering from blood poison.

Mrs. Ray Derry and Mrs. Margaret Butler arrived here from Oakland, and will spend the remainder of the winter visiting.

The Jubilee concert and Lincoln Day program to be given at Ward's Chapel, 1354 Channing street, Saturday evening, Feb. 12th, promises to be a grand affair. Judge Thos. T. White, W. E. Easton and Dr. Nelson are the speakers for the occasion. The singing will be under the direction of Mr. M. M. Moten. The Los Angeles Colored band will furnish the music. The public is cordially invited.

S. P. Johnson of 1221 Damon street is on the sick list.

Stephen Shields and W. H. Daniels of Topeka, Kan., friends and acquaintances of the editor of this paper for many years, are visitors in the city this week.

The Beavers are a new fraternal order that is in the process of making in this city at this time.

Mr. Milam of San Diego, who has for several years been employed at the Crown drug store of that city passed through the city this week with his family en route to Oakland, where he will live in the future. He has accepted a position as secretary with a corporation in that city.

Don't fail to attend the great Lincoln Day exercises at Providence church on Sunday evening, the 14th, given by this paper.

Mrs. Hannahs of San Diego arrived in the city Friday on a visit with her husband, who will remain here perhaps permanently.

The Married Ladies' Art guild will meet at the residence of Mrs. W. M. Saffold, 336 S. Burlington avenue Monday, Feb. 7th, at 2 p.m.

The Ladies' aid and Art club of the Second A.M.E. church has become the most popular social club in Furlong tract. They meet every Friday night at the home of members, and will give a dramatic and musical concert Friday, Feb. 11.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means to thank our many friends for their sympathy shown us in the death of our husband and brother.

MRS. GEORGIA HARRIS,
MRS. FOUNTAIN BROWN.

Court House Bunk.

John Davis is on the sick list and has left for his home in North Carolina to recuperate.

Al. Pleasant is still merose.

S. Atwater is the big man and aspires to be a bigger one than the editor of the Eagle, but he can't make it.

John Hall, the man who made jubilee singing famous in Southern California, is still making good.

The janitorial force has tabooed discussion on the race problem.

Since L. C. Robinson has left, the representation from that burg is only three men.

Rev. Hill of the west side keeps the boys in trim spiritually.

The janitorial force is neutral, but the pro-German continue to bob up, much to the discomforture of the Allies, headed by Capt. Reynolds.

The boys say that Bro. Pleasant will cease being a pessimist and become an optimist.

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN
Aunt Jemima

Dear Aunt Jemima—

You seem so willing to help those in trouble, I am sure that you can help me.

I am in love with a young man who is in the East. He asked me to marry him some time ago and insisted that I agree for him to come West next month to claim me as his bride. I think a great deal of him, and am anxious to become his wife. But he says that we must live with my parents until we have gotten a start in life. This I do not think best. What is your opinion?

A.—It is best that a young married couple branch out to themselves under all conditions. If they thing that impossible, before hand, they should stay single until such is possible.

Can you tell me what is good for cold feet?

A.—Put a small amount of mustard in your shoes before putting them on. You will find that your feet dill stay warm throughout the day.

Don't you think that a tall woman and a short man make a very poor showing on the street? And don't you think that a tall girl is foolish to marry a short man?

A.—I think that any girl should marry the man she loves, regardless of his height. Although a tall lady and a short man do not look so well together.

Order to Show Cause Why Order of Sale of Real Estate Should Not be Made.

In the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles.

It is ordered, by the Court, that all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, appear before the said Superior on the 2nd day of March 1916, at 9 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Court Room of Superior Court, Department 2 thereof, in the Court House, in said County of Los Angeles, State of California, to show cause why an order should not be granted to the administrator of said estate to sell so much of the real estate of said deceased be necesssary to pay the bebts of the deceased and the charges of administration.

And that a copy of this order be published at least four successive weeks in the California Eagle, a newspaper printed and published in said County of Los Angeles.

JAMES C. RIVES,
Judge of the Superior Court

B.Y.P. U. Sunday schhol reception given by Mrs. Woodbey at her residence at 12 29th street, Friday, January 28. Honored guests were Mrs. Norwood, president B.Y.P.U. Mrs. Ryder ex-president B.Y.P.U. Mrs. Goodwin acted as chaperon for the young people. The evening was spent in many social games, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Annie Mulholland, 353 South 30th street has been on the sick list with the lagrippe.

Mrs. J. B. Wilkins, of Los Angeles, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mulholland, and reports having a very enjoyable time.

L. E, Hudson, of Los Angeles, who has been marooned at Coronado, expects to return home soon.

The Hornaby brothers, the noted entertainers of San Diego who have been employed by the Crescent Boat Co. for the past year, during said time entertained thousands of people throughout the country, that have taken the Sun Harbor trip. Owing to the inclemency of the weather a few days ago they did not make the trip but explained that it could be made any day of the year if the crowd is sufficient.

Reporters of the Eagle visited the Panama International Exposition last Sunday. Even though the Isthmus and some of the large building were closed for repairs, thousands of people were talking advantage of the 25c admission. Mr. Jack Carpenter and Painter were busy everywhere cleaning and pruning, while there they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Winston, who have charge or the Salt Lake building, which is one of the most beautiful buildings in the fair grounds. The fair will open March 15th, which will be the greatest program since the 1915 opening During the time between now and March 15th special features are offered by tqe exposition. Organ recitals and band concerts are continuing daily.

M. T. Laws, business manager of the Eagle, made a flying trip to Los Angeles and was marooned in the Angel City. While there was entertained at the residence of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah Austin, 2915 Pennsylvania avenue and house guest of B. B. Spivey and wife at their palatial home, 1418 Tennessee. Mrs. Spivey, who is an artist in entertaining, spread the table for four that would quench the thirst and sooth the appetite of Chauncey Delew, also visited Mrs. Spear-Bass, who was confined to her room, and is glad to know that she is up and out again. He returned on the Steamship President

The Savoy Theatre presents one of the greatest vaudeville shows of modern times, even though San Diego was cut off from the outer world for several days, those who spent an hour or two at the Savoy never had a moment to regret.

We love you California has been sung for many days and it still brings back sweet memories from every phase, but we love you San Diego is what we want you to write to your friends back east every idle night.

The Tia Juana racetrack was not destroyed by the flood as was reported to the Eagle reporter in Los Angeles. Some damage was done to the track, which was soon repaired. With many hundred horses that are stabled there at present, they are still building stables for the horses that are arriving weekly, it is officially reported that the track will be opened just as soon as the roads are accessible.

The traffic on the Santa Fe has been discontinued since January 17th. Many bridges are completely washed out San Diego is entirely cut off from Los Angeles by rail. The only available traffic is by steamship or automobile. The Eagle office here has been informed that traffic no doubt would

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The glorious sunshine brought out with it a glorious congregation all day last Sabbath which was thoroughly enjoyed by each individual present. A striking feature that received commendable comment was the presence of so many young ladies and gentlemen in attendance. One of the, Mrs. Franklin formerly of Pasadena united with the church. Sunday coming is the regular monthly communion service. The pastor will preach. The entire public of the city is welcome. Come on time.

The Beacon Light Club had a full attendance at the home of Mrs. Murphy's Tuesday night. Enthusiasm ran high and plans were effected whereby this organization will attain great results for the Easter Rally. Next meeting with Mrs. W. Montgomery, 1431 West 35th street, Tuesday night, February 8.

Wednesday night at the Parsonage, 1466 Griffith avenue, the A.B. O.U.T. Club will give "An Affair Gastronomic." The entire public of the city is invited.

The two Endeavor societies will join in an extraordinary Allen's Day program at the evening service, Sunday, February 13. Mrs. Craw will have charge of the same. Prof. Bynum and our excellent choir with other soloists of unusability will give the musical numbers. Keep this annual affair in mind and attend.

The Buds of Promise will make their initial appearance in grand entertainment at church on Washington's birthday, February 22nd.

The Trustee Auxiliary Helpers will have a Valentine Social at the church, Monday night, February 14.

The Men's Co-Operative Club have selected Monday, February 28, for their grand dinner and musical extravaganza.

A church conference at which the pastor desires to see every member, will be held in connection with class services, Thursday night Business of importance. Come rain or shine.

The Sunday school is still growing. Come yourself and bring your children and friends. You willl be helped in so doing. We open at 9:30 a.m. and close at 10:45.

Providence Inst'l Baptist Church

Sunday morning Pastor Williams will preach from the Subj. "Jesus and Peace" at the evening hour he will preach from the subject, "Modifications of the Cross." The audinance of baptism will be celebrated at the marning and evening services. At 7 o'clock there will be a great old time covenent meeting, everybody will testify for Jesus. There will be an impressive celebration of the Lord's Supper. The choir will furnish good music. Mrs. Naomi McCullough will sing a contralto solo in the morning.

The 146th anniversary of the Rt. Rev. Richard Allen will be held at the First A.M.E. church Sunday, February 13, 3 p.m. All churches are invited to participate in this great meeting. The pastors of the A.M.E. churches and their congregations will do honor to the hero of African Methodism, an organization of which all race lovers are proud, regardless of denomination. The program is full of life. Come and be made to rejoice over a hundred years of successful negro management.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Gregg, Pastor.

Monday evening the first quarterly conference of the People's Independent Church of Christ convened in the auditorium of the East Eighth street Christian church A good representation of the membership was present.

Rev. N. P. Gregg, the pastor delivered a most eloquent and helpful address, in which he gave a wide and comprehensive survey of the work, and made several good recommendations that received the unanimous approval of the conference. The pastor also pronounced a splendid eulogy of the deceased member of the church, Sister Josephine Brown; while the eulogy was being pronounced, the congregation stood with bowed heads and paid tribute to the memory of this faithful, zealous, christian church worker.

The most interesting and encouraging reports imaginable were submitted by the officers and heads of the various departments. The following facts from the clerk's report will probably give an idea of the condition of the church both spititually and financially:

ON MEMBERSHIP

Converts, 22.
Membership, 300.

FINANCE

Receipts from Boyle Heights Willing Workers, $300.
Receipts from S. S., $44.39

GEO. A. BEAVERS, Church Clerk.

The members are justly proud of this record and are highly elated over the grand success of the church

This is one church that has all willing workers, there are no loafers in the ranks. Another club of willing workers has had organized in Boyle Heights, and although the church has a very few members

The matter of purchasing property was taken up and it was decided to take a little more time, and secure the property desired.

Wesley Chapel Notes.

Wesley Chapel is in the midst of a great awakening along all lines of the church work.

The pastor and membership are thrilled and encouraged by the fine spirit of willing service that is so manifest in the church at this time.

The people are moved by the burning messages of Pastor Kinchen and large audiences greet him at each service.

Sunday at 11 a m. Pastor Kinchen will preach on "Paul's Watch word, the Christian's Key Word." At 7:30 p.m. he will speak on "Inner feelings and thoughts which no one can reach."

Rev. J. D. Gordon preached a wonderful sermon, taking for his text the motto text of the Sabbath school lesson. He said in part that the denominations of this day had all made the great blunder of too much world righteousness or a doctrine of dogmas, but the true religion of Christ is to find a way to imbibe, to take into your being the very personality of Christ. When this is done we will do more than speak in tongues. A visible tongue of fire will burn over each believers head as a proof of his union with Christ. He continued by saying that whenever he could find some man or some set of men that could heal the sick, a touch and raise the dead at a word he would bid his denomination good-bye, that is, if he could not remain in his church and practice this new found knowledge. But until then said he, why change from one denomination and start up another. He finished by saying that the minister must have something to give, he must have words backed up by a consciousness of spiritual union with God.

Sunday night Rev. Reed of Stockton gave a most helful address to the Missionary Society on the work of women.

Rev. W. H. M. Dickerson of Pasadena was present Sunday night attending the service at his home church.

The deacons of the church were installed by the pastor. After the installation remarks, Deacon Harris responded in behalf of the board with a most interesting talk.

All members are requested to be present at communion services Sunday morning. Rev. J. D. Gordon will preach. The public is invited.

East 8th St. Christian Church.

"The Lame Man Leaping" was the topic of discussion by Bro. McMickens at the Christian church last Sunday. Since the beginning of the year Bro. McMickens has preached on the Sunday school lessons and has brought to the minds of his listeners many truths. For sometime he has discussed the origin of the church and said 'the lame man leaping and later praising and serving God was just another addition to the church.

He said some theolograms say that the 5000 and 3000 people added on one day wereall men but of course it is no known fact.

He also spoke of how everyone had all things in common at that time and how Ananias tried to deceive the people by keeping part of the proceeds for himself. It was the first lie of the church and death to both himself and wife was the result. He said God, today, holds us responsible for all of our false statements and in the end eternal death will be the result if we will not righten our mistakes.

In the evening he delivered a splendid installation sermon to all the officers of the church.

Philips Chapel C.M.E. Church

The Sunday and mid-week ser-

Both services Sunday were well attended. Among the visitors at the morning service Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Gordon. We were also pleased to see Mrs. J. C. Anderson, our pastor's wife, out after several weeks illness.

Rev. Arline, superintendent of missions for the Missionary Baptist of California, was present and preached at 11 o'clock from Rom. 1:6, theme "The Gospel." His discourse was beautiful and full of valuable information.

Pastor, Rev. J. C. Anderson, preached at the evening service, ext, Luke 2:7, "Because there was no room for them in the inn." He preached a soul stirring sermon. Rev. Anderson is a young man of affable diposition, broad hearted and wide awake, with such qualities and with support from the members and friends of the church he will succeed.

The parable of the Ten Virgins rendered on Monday night was a decided success. Mr. and Mrs. Jno Hall were present and rendered several selections to the delight of those present.

There will be a rally for the pastor next Sunday. Communion at both services. We urge the members and friends to be present.

The choir organized and elected their officers at last rehearsal. E. Mitchell was elected president with Mrs. A. C. H. Billbrew as organist. They are planning to do some effectual work.

Order of services, Phillips Chapel C.M.E. church, 1406 Newton street:

9:30 a m. Sunday school.
11 a.m. preaching.
6:30 Epworth League.
8 p.m. preaching.
Monday, 2 p.m. Stewardess board
Wednesday, 7:30 p.m., Prayer and class services.
Friday, 7.30 p.m., Choir rehearsal.

REV. J. C. ANDERSON, Pastor.

Second Paptist Church.

Sundey was indeed a glorious day at the old Second Baptist church and her seating capacity was taxed to the limit. Two things were responsible for this great turn out, which made the church look like old times. One of these contributing causes was the fact that for the first time this year old Sol, riding in his fiery chariot, condensended to grace the Lord's day with his beneficent effulgence, gladening and inspiring the hearts of all to an appreciation of the infinite goodness of God and an impelling desire to praise Him from whom all blessings flow.

The other contributing cause was that Sunday before last Deacon Allen treated the church to what was afterwards considered a very agreeable surprise, in introducing at the evening service one whom he described in his very characteristic way as "A strange preacher of the gospel blown to the western shore from the interior of Colorado, in the person of Rev. A. Moore."

The reverend gentleman took his text from Ezekiel, 37:3-4, announced his theme to be "Hear the word of the Lord," then closed the Old Book as only the warrior captain of the Old School are want to do, stepped back, rolled up his sleeves and plunged into his sermon. And so intelligent was his construction, so truly was his promise adhered to with humorous, though potent applications, so profound was his logic, so fervent was his exhortation and so wide was the sweeping of his scintillating sword, that when he had taken his seat every member of the congregation felt and afterwards gave expression of their joy and extreme pleasure at having been present. When Deacon Allen announced that the reverend had been pledged to preach again for us the following Sunday morning every one apparently promised themselves to be present and to tell every one else they could get in

CANDIDATES, DON'T BE FOOLED!

There are now a number of so-called Negro newspapers, campaign sheets, being launched in this city for the sole purpose of holding up candidates for public office this Spring and Fall. Such mercenary sheets have neither a mailing list nor any bona fide subscribers. This information can be authenticated by looking on the paper above the editorial columns for the printed statement that the paper has been admitted to the mails. If this does not appear, the paper is a fake pure and simple. Any money paid to such papers buys for you neither circulation of your printed matter nor the influence that is represented to go with it.

EDITORIAL

But my, as my sun is sinking fast, I have to have an issue to catch the people. It's name is Preparedness.

We fail to hear a whimper from the White House about the mobs in Dixie. The lives of nine Americans was last week's toll.

Gathering momentum as it goes the Get Together Movement is destined to ultimately succeed.

ASKING FAIR DEAL FROM

It is well that we have such an organization as the All American League which will leave nothing undone to see that the truth comes to light in such cases as this, and that at least an effort shall be made for justice and fair play.

Theories exploited and set forth by faultless rhetoric, figures of speech and eloquence will not feed the hordes of hungry people and pay debts, therefore the main issue with the people just now is to get rid of this administration.

THE COUNTY SERVICE

The All American League is about to take up for the thorough investibation the case of James Lee, a civil service employee of the county who, according to documentary evidence in the hands of this paper was shamefully dealt with by the Superintendent of Machinery of this county who without any charges whatever, has euchered him out of a job that is clearly within the civil service. It is to be hoped that as the case is brought before the Board of Supervisors and the civil service board that justice will be meted out to Mr. Lee and those who are guilty of the flagrant injustice to him will be held to account.

MAKE GOOD SHOWING FOR THE RACE

Judge Griffith Jones of the Sunrise courts informs us that out of more than 700 cases of drunkenness which have come before him that there was only three Colored persons on that charge.

We submit that this is commendable, indeed it shows that on the whole that we here in the Angel City are a sober people and that the efforts of our leaders along the line of the uplift of the Race are not in vain.

Judge Jones, though a young man of English extraction, is a friend to the Race, and has on numerous occasions demonstrated the same by the keen interest he takes in their progress. He is making an enviable record as judge of this court, and it is an actual fact that since he has been on the bench in this court that drunkenness has decreased 50 per cent. He pays a high compliment to the Colored people for sobriety and their remarkable progress.

NOTES ON RACIAL PROGRESS

Compiled by the National Negro Business League

A Thought for the Week.—Let us emphasize the fact, and keep on emphasizing it, that we must encourage trade and business development among ourselves; that we must cease more and more to be a wage-earning class; that we must buy and sell more among ourselves, so that we can have the profit that is to be made and thus make good openings for our sons and daughters to be tradesmen in their turn.—The Philadelphia Tribune.

With the appointment of Mr. Charles Redmon, Tennessee, now has four colored policemen.

Thomas Stokeley is Night Foreman in the Coonse and Caylor Ice Plant of Indianapolis, Indiana. Mr. Stokeley has achieved this promotion by reason of long years of faithful work.

The National Fraternal Congress will meet in Cincinnati, February 7th and 8th. This Congress represents a movement to bring about co-operation among the leading fraternal organizations of the race.

The newly organized Local Negro Business League in Waycross, eGorgia, has been instrumental in promoting the organization of the Laborers' Penny Savings and Loan Company of that city. Mr. Carlton W. Gaines is president of the League.

"For My People" is a race play staged in the office of the St. Louis (Mo.) Argus, which is being presented by the Smith-Bright Players at the Booker T. Washington Theater in that city. The play is designed to show the importance of patronizing colored business enterprises.

Mr. Samuel Charles of Pensacola, Florida, has opened an up-te-date shoe store in his city. Mr. Charles is a member of the very active Local Negro Business League in Pensacola and on the day of his opening, the League sent a large bouquet of flowers for his show-window.

The business men of Atlanta, Georgia, conducted a Christmas Tree for their employees in the Auditorium of the Odd Fellows Building. A feature of the entertainment was the awarding of three prizes for the best essays on the subject of building up business and conserving trade.

The Local Negro Business League of San Antonio, Texas, which was re-organized some months ago with Mr. G. W. Bouldin, editor of the Inquirer, as Secretary, has developed great strength in membership and influence. They expect to have all their business enterprises working in strict co-operation within a few months.

The South Carolina Race Conference will be held in Columbia from February 6th to 9th. Dr. John E. White who delivered an address in Boston at the last meeting of the National Negro Business League is scheduled to speak during this Conference. Rev. Richard Carroll, the noted Evangelist, is the organizer of the Conference.

The Florida State Board of Health is sending a Health Train throughout the State of Florida to encourage better health conditions. The Afro-American Insurance Company of Jacksonville is co-operating with them by sending special letters to all of their agents requesting them to take the forward part in arousing the interest of the colored people in their communities to the importance of the Health Train.

Sojourner Truth Club entertained its members and a few outside friends Friday evening. A delightful luncheon was served and short talks of interest were made, encouching plans for a bigger and better financial campaign.

THE POLITICAL POT PIE

E. J. De Lorey is a prime favorite for supervisor from the fourth district.

We will have a galaxy of spell binders to make the welkin ring for Republicanism during the coming campaign.

The Eagle is the oldest, the largest and has the greatest circulation of any other journal in the entire Western country.

We are certainly advocating the selection of a Colored deelgate from this state to the National convention in June.

The plan as announced for the purpose of representation in the Republican conference we believe a good one.

Look out for the announcement of our great Get Together meeting along political lines, which will be announced in this paper next week.

Some of the candidates and prospective ones, better get down in the black belt and look them over before they purchase them from the self-appointed leaders who say they can sell them.

It is said that Councilman Toppam is disgusted with the Negroes as they stand, and is very desirous of appointing one of his choice and give him the backing for the Colored leader.

It is about the time to organize a Colored Republican club on the East Side, one that stands for something, with men of whom there is no question of their integrity at its head; not one of those kind that is merely an instrument for some man to graft among the candidates for office.

D. F. McGlauthlin starts in the race for supervisor with a big handicap unless he squares for the race he made for the council last year. It will be like the old time preacher who thundered out "What did Paul say?" Another brother over in the corner answered him by saying, "Paul said you wasn't going to get any more meat until you pay for that you did get."

Yielding to the solicitation of his many friends, Councilman W. A. Roberts has finally consented to enter the race for supervisor in the 5th supervisorial district.

Mr. Roberts is fully aware of the needs of his district and has announced in his platform that he will give special attention to the system of boulevards, the county farm, public charities and flood control. Many influential citizens of the fifth supervisorial district declare that Mr. Roberts must be elected, and that a thorough, energetic campaign will be immediately waged.

Club Doings.

KANSAS-MISSOURI CLUB MEETS

On last Tuesday evening the Kansas-Missouri Club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, 1497 W. 36th St. It was the first meeting of the club for many months and the interest was great and the members were out in full force, the meeting was entirely social and after a time spent in a social way and reminiscences of Kansas and Missouri were exchanged. Mrs. Hubbard and the secretary, Mrs. Slayton, introduced a program and every number on the same was cordially and enthusiastically received. A. J. Jones acted in the place of the president, S. P. Johson, who on account of sickness was unable to be present. Mr. eHrsel Lloyd rendered a selection on the piano, J. B. Bass a short address, Mrs. Viola Hubbard rendered a vocal solo, Prof. C. A. Biggers a humorous address, Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass gave a selection from Shakespeare and then the best of all was the refreshments which were served in true Kansas and Missouri style.

All left declaring this to be one of the very best meetings and vowing to come always.

THE ALLEN ALLENSWORTH CLUB

At the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Club plans were laid for a Valentine social to be given at the home of the president, Mrs. C. Hulbert. The social will be one of intense interest, as a highly literary program will be rendered by members of the club, and each member is requested to invite five guests.

The Allensworth club under the leadership of President Mrs. C. Hulbert is doing excellent service for the Old Folks Home.

The Allensworth club was delighted to have with them at their last meeting Mrs. Spear-Bass, a very (conscientious)? worker of the club.

The Pioneer club will meet with Mrs. W. F. Woodyard Tuesday evening, Feb. 8th, at 868 E. 41st street.

The Women's Civic and Protective League met at the residence of Mrs. Barr Wednesday afternoon, at which time their annual election took place. Mrs. B. F. Tompson was elected president; Mrs. Elbert, first vice-president; Mrs. J. M. Scott, second vice-president; Mrs. Slaughter, secretary, and Mrs. Little, treasurer. The next meeting will be held next Wednesday at Sojourner Truth Home.

Will kill the sucking mink that thrives upon the blood of others if it takes what it takes to kill the old settler and his dog. This is the anedote that killed them both.

A man was ordered by his physician to go away for a trip, came home and was met by his valet. He inquired if there was any news to which answer the servant replied, that there was none to speak of. Well Hen is there not any news at all. No sir, there is not any news except one little thing you did. What killed the dog? Well your barn burned and burned up all the cows and horses, after the fire had cooled off, your dog went in and ate some of the burnt horse flesh and that is what killed it.

How did the barn catch on fire? Well they had the candles burning all around the coffin.

Who is dead?

Well Sir, your mother-in-law is dead, she is dead all right, the candles caught on to the curtains, the cutains caught onto the roof and sparks from the roof blew over to the barn and caught onto the barn and burned the barn down and burned up all the cows and horses, after the fire had cooled off, the dog went and ate some of the burnt horse flesh and that is what killed the dog. What killed my mother-in-law? I don't know exactly Sir, but around the neighborhood they say it was from the shock of your wife running away with the chauffeur. But outside of that there ain't any other news. This was what killed the settler.

Owing to the irregular departure of the mails the San Diego news columns has been without home news. A lady called at the office a few days ago to purchase a paper and said that she did not want it if there was not any San Diego news we informed her that th Eagle sailed everywhere.

In Memory of Lillie Mannual.

By Miss Violet White.

Farewell dear Lillie, farewell;
Oh, how I hate to give you up,
But I know you are happy
Flying aronnd with the Angels above.

You will come back to me as the rays of sdnshine
And fill me full of happiness and love,
And, oh, how I will rejoice and sing
Praises to the Heavenly Father above.

For you are a little Angel just on your Way to Heaven, and stop to tell me
That our dear one here is only borrowod,
And not given.

Oh, but when you turned your eyes to Jesus in a moment of despair,
A spark of hope was kindled
And you saw redemption there.

You beheld the Lamb all bleeding,
For the vilest of the vile,
And the fear of death departed,

Gone, but not forgotten, and I do
Miss you so, but you have gone
Where there is no more pain nor Sorrow, and everything is white as snow.

Where no raging storm shall rise;
Where no darkdess clouds the skies;
Where no angry billows roll;
Where no deeds disturbs the soul.

TEMPE OF DIVINE UNITY IN CHRIST

"The Church of Humanity" Will Hold Its Initial Services Tomorrow, Sunday Morning, at Central Hall, East Washington and Central Avenues with Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, Minister.

Much interest has been aroused in religious circles by the announcement that Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, who is widely known because of his altruistic spirit as one of the most successful soul winners, would establish a great Central Avenue Industrial Mission, with free employment office, reading room for the unemployed members of the Race. The new work will be known as the Temple of Divine Unity in Christ, as the Church of Humanity, when the great principles of Divine Love and Christian fellowship will be taught; their creed will be the "Golden Rule." All persons who are interested in this great humanitarian work of solving the great problems of the unchurched masses, in securing work for many who are out of work, are urged to come and worship Sunday morning at this great church of Humanity. Sermon topic one of vital interest, "Am I my brother's keeper?" This sermon is full of living facts, dealing with problems of the unemployed and unchurched masses of the Angel City. All persons who are out of work should attend this service as great free employment office is to be established and the register will be opened for the unemployed men and women of the Race.

INTEREST IN BOOKER T. WASHINGTON MEMORIAL FUND NATIONWIDE

Letters Received at Tuskegee Indicate Interest of White and Colored Friends

Tuskegee Institute, Alabama. — One of the most encouraging developments in the campaign for the Booker T. Washington Memorial Fund for the perpetuation of the work of Tuskegee Institute is to be found in the generous expressions of interest and approval that have come from all sources and sections. There is no lack of interest on the part of white people, or black people, north or south, east or west.

Dr. Washington enjoyed the friendship and good-will of citizens throughout the country, and now that it is proposed that the institution which he founded shall be preserved as a National Memorial, these friends have come forward to pledge their continued interest and support of the work for which he gave his very life.

When the news of his death was flashed over the wires, the chairman of the Institute Board of Trustees telegraphed: "The Trustees will not fail you in your hour of need."

When this message was published in the newspapers, a Southern white man is quoted as having said: "Yes, and the Southern white people will do their part to see that Booker Washington's work goes on."

Now, if there have been any questions as to what the Colored people intended doing towards the preservation of the work founded by Dr. Washington, it is only necessary to refer to the numberless letters from colored people sent to Tuskegee after his death, pledging their support and promising contributions toward a Booker T. Washington Memorial Fund.

The present campaign in the interest of the Fund will afford these good friends an opportunity to contribute toward the perpetuation of the work of Tuskegee Institute. The Trustees have decided that a part of the contribution from the Colored people shall go into a Permanent Memorial—that is, a building, statue or monument of some other character.

The campaign to raise $250,000 from among the Colored people is on. Beginning at home, the active Campaign for funds was started among the teachers and workers of the Institute. The first day of this local campaign netted nearly One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, and it has just begun.

Tuskegee Institute is not a local institution. It is national, and in a large measure, international. It must be preserved, primarily for the training of the Negro, but in an even larger sense because it represents the largest contribution of Negro achievement to present-day civiliza-

HON. E. J. SULLIVAN

Edward J. Sullivan, who has been one of the appointees in the New Free Employment Bureau, is well known in this city, having resided here for the last eight years, and has taken an active part in every public movement having for its object the welfare of the people. He is an ardent friend and advocate of Labor, and had the endorsement of many prominent and distinguished citizens in this City and State.

During his residence in New York City he was honored by Ex-President Roosevelt to a high place in the United States Diplomatic and Consular Service, and served the nation with honor and distinction in Turkey. He is a warm friend of the Armenian Christians.

He has also enjoyed the friendship and confidence of Presidents Harrison, McKinley and Roosevelt.

He has made an exhaustive study of labor and economic conditions in Europe, Turkey, Russia, Canada, Mexico, Central and South America. He is a frequent contributor to newspapers and magazines.

During the legislative session of 1915, Mr. Sullivan acted as secretary to the Committee of Labor and Capital of the Assembly and rendered that committee valuable service. At the close of the session the committee presented him with a set of resolutions warmly eulogizing his ability.

Mr. Sullivan is a prominent member of the New York State Society in this city. He will prove a valuable aid to the newly organized Free Employment Bureau.

Mr. Suullivan is an ardent friend of the Colored race and has always been found willing to assist them in every manner.

The Eagle is in receipt of the following communication which should be fully investigated and the blame properly placed.

Los Angeles, Cal., reb 11, 1916.
Editor California Eagle:

The Citizens here have no protection of the Police Department. We ask the citizens of Los Angeles to look into this matter. My wife was brutally beaten by Los Angeles police without any provocation whatever on reb. 7th about 9:30 p.m. at 8th and Wall streets by two colored police officers, Brodie and White, until she was unconcious for hours. After becoming unconscious some white lady came to her rescue and pleaded for mercy for the colored woman, but the officers had no mercy. She was unconscious from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. the next morning. She is still under the treatment of the doctor. I now appeal to the citizens of Los Angeles for investigation.

Yours truly,
CLIFFORD PALMER,

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER

Most Worshipful Woodrow Wilson, President of all these United States and Shepherd of the Democratic flock; thou who holdest great juicy slices of pie in the hollow of thy ample hands, when not holding thy new wife, and dealeth it out according to thy righteous will; we, thy poor, weatherbeaten and unworthy constituents, come tumbling down on our tummies to pour out our political devotions to thee and bless thy glorious Democratic name and to wish thee a large family of little Democrats in due season. Give ear unto our supplications, Great Political King.

Master Wilson, we thank thee that we are anxious and waiting Democrats. We are anxious to know what thou wilt have us do. We are waiting for anything that thy excellency may see fit to give us. We are waiting for thee to give us 20 cent cotton and 8 cent cattle. We are waiting for better times in general. Some of us haven't paid our taxes for two years.

We will confess that it is not as well with us as it might be. By some unaccountable reason several of us have not got jobs worth speaking about. And thou knowest a Democrat with no office and no work is in a devil of a fix. We simply can't hurrah for "Wilson Prosperity" under such circumstances. It makes us feel like sheep-killing dogs.

We could stand it to be without work, and have our rations run short and see times get hard, if it wasn't for the infernal Republicans making fun of our lot and saying "we told you so." Master Wilson, that hurts like blue blazes.

That is the straw that is breaking our backs. Maybe this is the reward for our wickedness. But if something is not done pretty quick thou mayest not find us waiting at the gate. There are other parties calling for us. We hate to pray like this, but starvation is hell on manners, and we can't help it. If our prayer is unpolished it is due to the desperation of starvation. But with all our crudeness and lack of manners we want to emphasize the fact that we are absolutely ready for our reward and we will accept thy pie blessings as gratefully as ever a little dog accepted a chicken's liver.

Mighty Master, thou knowest we can't be Democrats without reward. Thou knowest we voted for thee with the understanding that we inherit the offices and the emoluments thereof. Yet we see Republicans holding over everywhere while we are down in the gutter. Again, we declare that we are ready. We will take anything that thou hast. We would be dog-catcher for the back districts of Hepsidam. We would be tick inspector. We would be fertilizer smeller. Just anything thou hast to dispense we will thankfully accept, and the quicker the better.

And Master Wilson, there is one important question we would ask thee. It may be treason in us to want to know such a thing, but we can't help it. It is this: When dost thou expect the Free Trade tariff to begin to lower the cost of living? We know it is wrong to be impatient, but, Great Chief, if something is not done pretty quick we are going to have hard work keeping the party together; besides, we are going to have a harder time keeping our own souls and bodies together. Something to eat is getting shorter and shorter with us, and the price is mounting to the sky. Worthy Master, we wish that thou wouldst explain this tariff business a little. We can't understand it to save our lives. We thought reducing the tariff made things cheaper. We have always been taught to believe in that the-

we hunker down on our Free Trade jeans-covered knees and petition thee not to have any more war.

If Mexico wants to make a doormat of the American flag let them enjoy themselves. Hasn't Germany done the same thing? Hasn't England done it, under thy great and adorable reign, oh, great soft-hearted chieftain? Why should we go to war? Are we not already at war at home with the poverty caused by thy great Free Trade? We thought we were already at war, mighty Woodrow. We've read of so many bank failures and business wrecks and people out of jobs under thy great Free Trade administration that we have stopped reading the newspapers, but if we are not at war why this blooming Hundred Million Dollar War Tax we are paying?

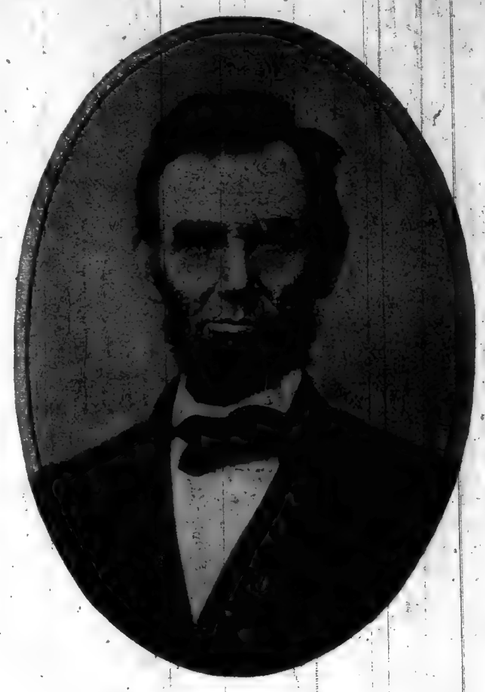
But, Mr. President, remember we are Democrats still. We are willing to face the music and drink soup, if necessary, if only we can be patted on the back and called good Democrats. We know it is treason to complain. We know the province of a good Democrat is to take his medicine and never make a crooked face. So, Mighty Chief, forgive us for talking as we have. Kick us for presuming to ask questions. It is not for us to scrutinize thy wisdom or question thy plans. So put the toe of thy wrath to us and teach us to obey. Teach us that a Democrat was made to vote straight and ask no questions.

Master Wilson, if we are too presumptuous, kick us. Kick us a little anyway. We deserve to be kicked a little. If we ask foolish questions thump us on the head with the scepter of thy greatness. If we are a little crude and coarse in our manners it is because we never had a chance to be anybody. We never went to school. We are greenhorns. We are fag ends of Democratic despair. We are lick-spittles and gutter-snipes. We are ready to do the bidding of any Democrat who will command us. We will turn political somersaults. We will cuss Cleveland some more. We will denounce Roosevelt or Taft or Debs or Chafin or anybody else if it will make pie come our way.

Now, Master Wilson, accept this our humble prayer. Forgive us for asking for anything that we should no receive.

Save us from the clutches of The Rascal Whipper and all the honor shall be thine. Amen.

SPIRIT OF THE NEGRO PRESS



Put the Mob Down

A Negro was lynched January 15, 1916, at Buckville, Ark., for slapping a small white boy. After the mob had disposed of the Negro in its brutal and summary way, it burned down the Negro school-house. Why did the mob burn down the schoolhouse? Because, one may suppose, school education prepares one to resist insults, whether coming from white or colored, and causes one to denounce all forms of lawlessness.

Such items as this one—lynching a Negro and burning down a Negro schoolhouse—are of such common occurrence that they barely get a paragraph in our daily papers. If a Negro is burned alive, he may get two paragraphs, but no bitter denunciation in editorial comment. Should such a horror be perpetrated on the battle-fronts of the bloodiest war of history, now raging in Europe, our great American press would go wild in denouncing the barbarity, but if a Negro is nailed in a pine box, saturated with coal oil and burned to a crisp in Mississippi, the news columns will tell the story simply, and the editorial page be as silent as death on this bit of Southern pastime.

The mob in the South has grown and fattened on Negro blood, and now it threatens the [illegible] and comforts of the white man.

Ana and Orange, for the the first time since the line went out as a result of floods. It will be several weeks yet before through service to San Diego can be established, as there is much bridge and roadbed construction work to be done. The Santa Fe has chartered the Roanoke, which is now plying between this port and the exposition city to take care of eastern traffic.

Tourist Rates Effective May 1—Tourist rates from the east to California will go into effect one month earlier than usual this year, according to notices received by Col. T. C. Peck, general passenger agent of the Salt Lake railroad. The rates, which will become effective May 1, and will be adopted by all lines, wisl continue daily until September 30. Return tickets are limited to October 31.

Funeral of Veteran Railway Conductor—Funeral services for Harry S. Kinch, railway conductor, who died last Monday from a rupture of the heart in an accident, were held last Thursday from the undertaking parlors of Booth & Boylston. His three surviving children, Harry, Jr., Myrn and Harvey, say the rupture was the result of falling over his lantern in a railway coach on the Salt Lake railway near Stine, Nevada. Mr. Kinch, who was 50 years old, was well known by railway men of the southwest, having been a conductor on the San Fe for fourteen years and with Southern Pacific for twenty-five years.

Slips on apple Peel, sues for $30,000—Because he slipped on an apple peeling, Hort, a machinist, brought suit against the southern Pacific for $30,000. According to the allegations of the complaint, prepared by Attorney Lightfoot, Hort boarded a train at Calexico and paid his fare to Yuma on the morning of December 15, as he was passing along the aisle of the smoking car he slipped on the peeling in the passageway and fell against a seat, sustaining a fractured hip.

Mrs. J. D. Reynolds, who has been visiting her daughter and family, Mrs. Dennis B. Wilson, of Coronado Beach, since Christmas, intendep to stay three weeks and was very reluctant to submit to the necessity of tearing herself from the Wilson family circle. From the Scrap Book by J. D. Reynolds

All American League's First Annual Conclave A Magnificent Success

C. E. Orr, A Successful Farmer of Fresno County, Makes Notable Address

ALL AMERICAN LEAGUE SCORES GREAT SUCCESS WITH THEIR FIRST ANNUAL CONCLAVE

Last Tuesday at 10 o'clock the All American League began the first session of their grand annual conclave and to say it was a magnificent success is only a mild way of putting it, for the magnitude of the great gathering was beyond the fondest expectation of their most enthusiastic promoters and star members.

Exposition Hall was the scene of the gathering; the day was spent in hearing the officers' reports, and splendid papers and addresses on the status of the Negro citizenship of the state. It was stock taking day. There were in attendance delegates from all over the state. The papers and addresses commanded the close attention of the great audience, all who appeared did not only themselves but the race, the highest credit. The papers of Mrs. Clara Hulbert on Housing was par excellent; that of Mrs. Weber was also a gem.

Mr. Kimbro read a paper which was highly complimented by all as well as the very excellent paper by J. Allen Reese, which we are publishing in full. H. L. Folke on the mineral possibilities was a hummer. G. P. Brown on labor had the right ring, P. W. Ridgeway on the producer and consumer brought out a great line of thought.

C. E. Orr Makes a Big Hit

C. E. Orr, our prominent and 641—Gal 2—Eagle prosperous farmer of Fresno county, made the big hit of the conclave wit hhis address which advocated the "Back to the Soil Movement." His remarks were listened to with intense interest and attention, his delivery was good and forceful, he claimed that the race was rear end front and all they had to do is to about face! And they will go ahead as never before. He pleaded with them to become producers, the fact that Mr. Orr in a few short years has demonstrated what he advocates gave great weight to his words and we dare say the back to the soil movement gained great impetus by his presence as well as the work of the All American League, which will itself enter into the movement.

President MacBeth delivered a great opening address, Secretary Grier made a splendid exposition of the mission of the League, W. E. Easton made an eloquent plea for the things which he League stands for.

Rev. E. W. Kinchen made a few remarks which were enjoyed by the conclave. Mr. Orr was introduced by the managing editor of the Eagle.

COLORED INDEPENDENT LEAGUE OF WATTS TO THE FRONT

The Colored voters of Watts have an organization that stands for real progress. They have for the last few campaigns in that suburb given a splendid account of themselves.

Recently the politicians got together down there and made up a peace slate, but in doing so they failed to take in consideration the Colored voters. The Colored men of Watts say that Perkins, one of the present trustees, is a man who does not stand for, or give consideration to all the people, and such being the case, they will agree to no slate which has him as a part of it; and they are out to beat him if they can. They have brought out a candidate and are a unit for his support, and they are going to ask the people whom they have helped, and who hope to have their help in the future, to help them elect him.

Also, the Bond proposition is a matter which they have up for consideration, and it is a question whether or not the League will support them.

The League will meet in their regular meeting on Monday evening, and will be favored with an address by J. B. Bass, editor of this paper. Subject, "The Three Cardinal Principles." All are invited to come out.

C. E. ORR OF BOWLES, CAL.

TWO PIANO RECITALS

Tuesday evening, March 7, 1916, the music-loving world will gather at Gamut Auditorium to listen to one of the greatest feasts of the season.

If you are happy, go and become happier. If you are depressed and have become diseased in mind because of the hard-times cry, come out on this occasion and get encouragement. It has been discovered that music not only pleases the aesthetic emotion, but drives away a peculiar sort of insanity.

MISS LORENZO JORDON.

Morbidness and depression depletes you physically and mentally. The 35 or 50 cents that you spend to hear these masters of music will so change the scene of your mental status that you will be encouraged beyond your own expectation.

Miss Lorenza Jordan and Mr. John Gray have distinguished themselves as being in a class by themselves in the realm of music, and on this occasion they will give to the public the best that is in store.

"HOW TO PROMOTE INTER-RACIAL AMITY"

By J. Allen Reese, Venice, Cal.

If you understand my subject you are expecting me to propose a solution whereby a better understanding, an absolute friendship and a more harmonious spirit may be had between the races. In this particular the Negro has been offered more advice than has been any other race, and therefore in this endeavor I claim no originality.

It is not my purpose to bring to you a solution of recent origin, and if I have been looked to for such, then your humble servant begs to acknowledge that his ability has been overestimated. Every race man that has honored our city by his presence as well as every well-wisher of our race have cried out as a unit and suggested the identical solution.

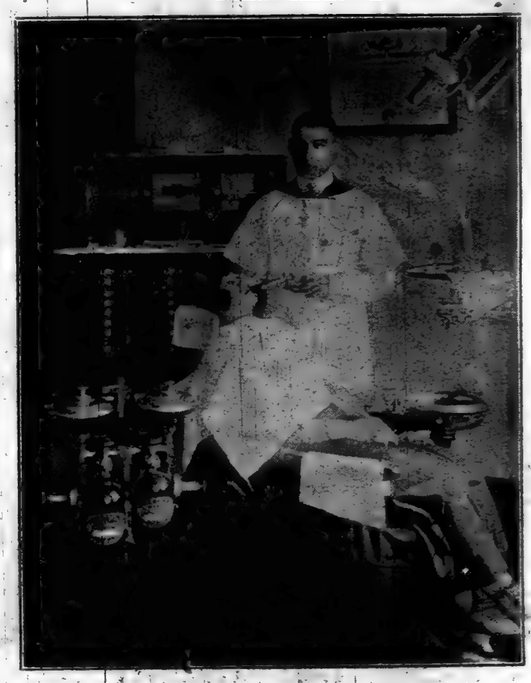
Slavery has well been called the perfected curse of the ages. Every civilization, ancient and modern, has experienced its blighting, withering effect, and since the world began freedom has been at war with all that savored of servitude. The sentiment of liberty is innate in every human breast. Freedom of speech and action—the right of every man to be his own master—has ever been the inestimable privilege sought, the boon most craved.

For this reward men have fought, —for this they have even died.

The years of bondage for Africa's sons and daughters in this fair land stretched on over a half century or more before the issue was raised. But at last the grasping arms of the gigantic Octopus that was feeding at the Nation's heart reached out too far, and as a result the combat with the monster was begun.

All honor to Abraham Lincoln, the performer, not the preacher; the friend of humanity; the friend of the North, the friend of the South, the friend of the white man, the friend of the Black man, the man whose heart, like the Christ's, was large enough to bring within the range of its sensibilities every human being beneath the stars; the man who, when God's clock struck the hour, swung back on creaking hinges the door of opportunity that four million slaves might walk over its portals into freedom, and into new fields of usefulness in civil life.

The status of the Negro was not entirely settled by emancipation; the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution, which it was believed would clothe him forever with those rights that are truly his, is more bitterly opposed today in some sections than ever before. The place which the Negro is to occupy is still a burning question. Newspapers and magazines are full of it; literature veils its discussion of the theme under the guise of romance; political campaigns are waged with this question as a paramount issue; it is written into the National platform of great political parties, and it tinges legislation; it has invaded the domain of dramatic art, until today it is enacted upon the stage.



The Negro of today is the most talked-of race in the world, and the reason is because he has proven himself to be a combination of something really remarkable, truly phenomenal.

Little more than fifty years ago we were not only penniless, but were ourselves assessed as real estate. We were turned upon the country in pov-

The above is a sketch of Dr. F. H. Davis of Marshall, Tex., who will preach at Mt. Zion Baptist church, Sunday, February 27th. He is pastor of the historic Galilee Baptist church, Marshall, Tex., where he has built one of the nicest church buildings in the South and doubled the membership in a few years. Brother Davis is the son of the late Rev. F. G. Davis, A. M., D. D., who had few equals in the American pulpit. Hear Dr. Davis next Sunday. He is both spiritual and eloquent; a pulpit master. The Texas Watchman, a reputable paper, recently said, "Dr. Davis' sermon at the Convention Thursday night was a masterpiece. His profoundness as a theologian and his pulpit oratory place him in the lead. His loud clear voice as it rang beneath a flood of golden sentences, mixed with Gospel fire shook the pillars of heaven." He is a national character, having served in many departments of the national convention. He is at present president of the Ministers' Union of Marshall, and much admired. Don't fail to hear him at Mt. Zion next Sunday. Special music by the choir. Violin solo by Mrs. Bessie Dones.

DR. B. A. JORDAN

The above cut is an excellent likeness of our brilliant young dentist, Dr. B. A. Jordan of whose office is located in the Germain Building at 224 So. Spring St. It shows his strictly modern equipped office in which is installed all the latest appliances for the highest class work known to dentistry.

Since assuming the practice of his profession here he has gained a large and steady growing clientele who all speak of his work in the highest terms.

He is a young man of the people, who by his genial and accomodating manner has made a host of friends and his steady growing practice speaks louder than words of his real worth and merit.

Dr. Jordan has placed the very best work of his profession at the least possible cost, so that the needs of dentistry is not a luxury, but within the reach of all. We are glad to have in our midst a young man of such sterling worth and bespeak for him your highest consideration at all times.

A. C. Williams, A.B., B.D., accepts invitation to deliver three lectures on departmental work in Sunday schools and to deliver Congress Sermon before great Baptist S. S. Congress. The Congress will convene at Vicksburg, Miss., June 14-19. S. S. workers from all over the world will hear Los Angeles pastor.

The Congress is atended annually by over 5000 S. S. workers representing Baptist S. S. workers from all over world. Will deliver principal sermon Sunday morning, June 18th. Congress headed by Rev. Henry Allen Boyd.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 19.—(To the Editor of the Times:) I see our national head, Woodrow Wilson, is still flashing the word to the European countries, telling them what they must or must not do, which has done as much good, up to this time, as if I had said, "Woodrow, you must go to bed at 9 o'clock tonight."

Now I noticed in the Times today he has warned Turkey to stop her massacres.

Now let us see how he is living at home. In 1915 there were sixty-nine lynchings in the United States, his home, and until Leo Frank was lynched in Georgia, not one protest from him was made. Then not only did Mr. Wilson open his mouth, but the majority of the big guns who have anything to say about the running of affairs in this country had something to say about that one case, saying not one word about the remaining sixty-eight.

Now if he would only attempt to abolish massacres in our own dear, beloved land and country instead of dicating to the people across the pond about what they

Pasadena News

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Archer will leave Saturday for their ranch. They will be absent about seven months.

We regret to hear of the sad accident which happened to John Fisher when he fell from a motorcycle and fractured his leg.

Miss Lillie Campbell is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Morton, 224 Franklin avenue.

First Sunday in April will be rally day at Scott chapel.

Miss Essie Grisham entertained the High school students Tuesday evening at Mrs. J. B. Bryant's on Franklin avenue. It was a grand affair and many students were present.

At the Maccabee hall last Tuesday evening one of the most brilliant affairs was that of presenting the prize cup won by the best float at the Rose tournament which was presented by the committee of citizens of Pasadena, of which Charley Prince was the chairman, ably assisted by W. C. Fields. A fine program was rendered and Mrs. Hicks was mistress of ceremonies. The address delivered by the chairman will go down in history as one of the best that we have heard in this city.

J. C. Moore is expected to be in the city next week.

Mrs. F. M. Prince is ill at her home on Kensington place.

Visit the Booker T. Washington Building while in Los Angeles. It is only three blocks from the Eagle office.

Don't forget the Bible class on Tuesday evening at Mrs. Wilson's, 151 Waverly drive. Children on Saturday afternoon.

Send your locals to 26 E. Colorado street and also your church notices.

Register at once and don't forget your friends.

Dr. J. J. Leggett of Los Angeles has read the Scriptures where it says, "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother," and he has decided to bring his mother from Atlanta, Ga., to Los Angeles. His mother for many years was a great worker in Lloyd street M.E. church. The doctor received his education at Howard University, D. C. We hope when Mrs. Leggett arrives she will at once identify herself with Wesley chapel M.E. church. Dr. Leggett is a class leader in the church, and Sister Pattie Leggett, as we used to call her, would have a glorious sunset in the evening of her life.

There are 334,000 public school children in this state, and 58,307 in the 58 counties. Los Angeles county leads with 75,903, San Francisco second with 41,117. Tulare county has 7231. Allensworth is in that county. Alpine has the least of any county in the state, only 24. The average cost per student is $7.54. The apportionment for the current school year is $283,906.62 more than it was last year, a total of $5,406,990. There are 4000 colored students of school age, and 62 per cent of them attend school. They cost about $7.54 each. We do not have segration in this state, but every year or so some new Richmonds spring up and want separate schools, so they can teach and get some of this money. Did you ever stop to think that in the South, where segregation is in vogue, they spend less than nine millions for colored schools and eighty-one millions for white schools.

Fifty Years of Freedom

IN the light of all history the truly wonderful progress of the Negro race in the United States during a period of fifty years of freedom, is not only a source of pride for the Negro himself, but it is a source of well warranted satisfaction to those members of the white race who helped set him free, and who have since generously furnished him opportunity for advancement.

BUT fifty years ago 95 per cent of this race were illiterate, a large percentage immoral, the result of the hellish practices of the slave owners on their helpless chattel. Today, fully 75 per cent of the 10,000,000 former slaves can read and write, and are proud owners of over fifty million dollars worth of church and school property, having over 15,000 of the race engaged in instructing the youth of the race educationally.

THIS year, 1915, the Crisis says: "This makes a total of 570 Negro college and professional graduates for 1915, omissions in the list given will easily raise this to 650.". Young men of each year in competition with the brainiest members of the other races in the many high grade colleges of this country, are taking first honors; elected class orators and sent to inter-collegiate competitions to uphold the reputation of alma mater.

THE Negro has shown an astounding capacity to care for himself. He started with nothing but his optimism, and the encouragement of some kindly whites and he has in fifty years produced representatives of his race who can compare favorably and often surpass intellectually members of the race that once owned him, and are now his teachers, his examplers in the way of higher civilization.

IT would take the space of several volumes to minutely show the progress of the race. He has also originated. He may yet produce a literature of his own, the very highest evidence of an advanced civilization, a civilization in juxtaposition to the earliest and higset civilization of the age.

THE Negro must be judged by the best that is in him, and with him, and not by his worst elements. The time has come when the American Negro will not be judged by the vicious, the ignorant and illiterate. He has men and women of good morals, of culture, of genius, and he knows to that alone when these qualities are recognized in individual members of his race, will the dominant race of this country acknowledge the equality of the Negro.

PASADENA PART

BY S. B. CARR, THE PIONEER SETTLER

Prof. E. L. Blackshear has again been reappointed at Prairie View State Normal, by the Governor of Texas, after a bitter fight. The veteran educator showed in the scrap to have the strength of Hercules.

Do not forget the sunday school picnic thursday at Eastlake park. All the schools in Pasadena will go over; all of the churches will be represented. It is the union of the sunday schools. Rev. William Prince is chairman of the committee.

The brotherhood at Scott chapel will meet at 7:30 p. m. sunday and will hold services. All are welcome. G. L. Nelson, secretary.

The choir from the First A. M. E. church of Los Angeles came over sunday and sang at the First Baptist church. It was a grand success, and much credit is due to Rev. Wm. Prince for having secured them.

A full report of the great Baptist convention was in The Eagle last week. A subscriber said that the value of The Eagle cannot be overestimated for it is placed in the hands of thousands of readers in this state. No paper gave a full report like your own. Then why not spend your money with the struggling enterprises of your own people. Do you not know if you don't support your own enterprises they will fail. Learn from others your duty to your own.

The Metropolitan Baptist will hold their anniversary this week. Hear Rev. Hughes sunday.

Read The Eagle to get food for thought. There are only two classes of people that don't like The Eagle, those who don't read it and those that do not think. Frederick Douglass is reported to have said, if you want to hide anything from the colored man, put it into the newspaper. This statement holds good now with many colored people today.

Police raided the house at 552 South Raymond ave. which is an alleged "blind pig." There were eight in the house at the time. Endeavoring to escape Wm. Kinnard was shot by policeman Moore. Henry Adams, also a policeman, did some shooting. They were both suspended but the chief has reinstated them. Policeman Adams is an Englishman and we believe if he wants to use his gun so freely he should go to meet the Germans in Europe. We do not believe such a man as Adams should be on the police force. We remember what a time he had with the Model Grocery company some years ago. Officer James Shelton who was in command of the police, warned him not to shoot. Mr. Shelton is a gentleman while on as well as off duty; but they claim that they shot up in the air. Kinnard must have been up very high to get shot. We are not in favor of blind pigs, but would rather have them than have officers shooting our citizens.

After Mr. Wm. Prince's trial sermon wednesday evening at the A. M. E. church the collections at the prayer meeting amounted to $16.00.

Don't forget the picnic at Eastlake park for all sunday schools in the city.

Ask President D. W. Herlihy of the Model Grocery company who is Police Henry Adams and he will tell the rest.

There were two deaths at the Pasadena hospital last week, one was Mr. Sherman Everett, who came here last February and roomed at 216 South Vernon ave. for some time with Mrs. R. E. Jefferson. His home is in New York. The other was the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Jackson, of 930 Cypress avenue. He only lived a short time, but he was christened and named Joseph Robinson Jackson. Mrs. Jackson being a Catholic the baby was christened by Miss Annie Robinson assisted by Mrs. Jackson, who is also a Catholic.

Notice.

In The Commercial Walk

Coulter Dry Goods Store.

In recounting the acts of kindness by the many friends of the race in this community, our narrative would indeed be incomplete without some mention of the Coulter Dry Goods Co. No firm has manifested a greater interest in the Religious welfare of Los Angeles than the above named. The securing of the East Side Christian Church for the Colored people of that denomination, will ever be held sacred to the memory of the departed head of the firm.

The Coulter Dry Gooods Company is held in high esteem by the best element of the people of this city, regardless of race or class; and we would indeed show a lack of appreciation, should we fail to mention this great institution at a time when we are endeavoring to demonstrate our appreciation for those who have taken an interest in our moral as well as material uplift.

Harris & Frank

Of the many business firms in this city, none have demonstrated a broader spirit than the above. For upwards of a quarter of a century the name of Harris and Frank has been a household word in this community.

The breadth of spirit which has characterized this successful business firm has found its fullest development in the civic and educational interests of the community, Mr. Frank having served on the board of education for three consecutive terms. When it comes to giving the race consideration from a business viewpoint, Harris and Frank has been generous beyond expectation, employing at all times, from eight to twelve men of color in their establishment.

The publication of a magazine, giving rise of the race in 50 years, would indeed be incomplete without some mention of those who have so materially assisted in that progress.

The firm of Harris & Frank has merited any corteous mention that might be given by citizens of color.

W. A. Brown.

One of the biggest and best men in the entire State of California is W. A. Brown.

Mr. Brown is known by men and women in all walks of life as one of God's noblemen. A man of deep Christian sympathies, whose every heart throb beats in unision with the needs of the unfortunate and distressed.

Any who have been fortunate enought to come into close touch with this follower of the meek and lowly Nazarene are instantly impressed with his deep Christian piety. A man of deeds, rather than words; living as close to the Golden Rule as it is possible for humanity to live, W. A. Brown reflects the image of his creator at every step in lifes journey.

Mr. Brown was for a number of years a conductor on one of the P. E. lines between Los Angeles and Pasdena and every one who had an occasion to travel over that line was impressed with the great care that he exercised toward each and every passenger.

Mr. Brown had no favorites—all were treated with the same Christian care and consideration. After leaving the employ of the street railway company, Mr. Brown accepted a position with Mullen and Bluet, which position he held for a number of years, bringing hundreds of customers to that establishment.

Mr. Brown is at present engaged in the undertaking business and those who have occasion to deal with him, find him still the same big-hearted Christian gentlemen.

Mr. Brown is truly a practical Christian of the kind our civilization so badly needs. Mr. Brown is indeed a friend of humanity; may his tribe increase.

Mme Hattie Wilson Tabourne

Madame Hattie Wilson Tabourne

The above is a good likeness of Madame Hattie Wilson Tabourne, who for the past eighteen years has been conected with the leading hair dressing establishments of Southern California.

Mrs. Tabourne was for the first eleven years of her career, employed by the noted hair curist, Madame Weaver Jackson, one of the most exclusive hair dressing establishments on the Pacific Coast.

Madame Jackson had as her patrons, some of the most noted professional people of America, and while in her employ, Mrs. Tabourne was permitted to serve them.

For the past seven years, however, Madame Tabourne has been in the employ of the celebrated hair cultivator, Miss Frederickson and has made good, bringing to this establishment many of her former patrons.

Madame Tabourne is a representative in class of whom the race has a just cause of being proud.

Fairchild Gilmore.

The Fairchild-Gilmore Company has become a household word to the Colored people of Los Angeles and vicinity.

No concern in the State gives as many Colored men employment as the Fairchilds-Gilmore Plant. It would indeed be a great oversight to fail to mention at this time, the great behefits derived by our race through its generous employment of racemen.

During the protracted dull season, through which we are now passing, it has been this big concern more than any other institution that has kept the wolf from the door." The working classes without regard to race or color should never forget this great institution, which has proven such a boone to the poor man at a time when employment has been next to impossible to find.

Charley Sparks, the manager, is one of the most popular men in the State and any man once in the employ of this great company can testify to the impartial treatment received by all.

NEW LAWS BETTER LABOR CONDITIONS IN CALIFORNIA.

Johnson Administration Further Carries Out Program of Social Legislation.

Carrying out its program of social legislation, the last legislature passed, and Governor Johnson has signed, a number of new labor laws that will do much to improve the condition of the working men and women of the state.

Among the more conspicuous labor laws added are the following:

Senate bill 257 (by Senator Lyon), improving the present child labor law by raising the age limit under which children may not be employed, protecting children in dangerous occupations, prohibiting children under ten years of age from the street trades and making minor improvements.

Senate bill 325 (by Senator Lyon and Assemblyman Ferguson), creating free employment bureaus under the direction of the commissioner of the bureau of labor, to assist the workers to get positions without paying fees and to selp solve the great problem of unemployment.

Protection of Women, Children.

Senate bill 594 (by Senator Lyon), increasing the powers of the industrial welfare commission to protect women and children in industry. It particularly concerns the granting and limiting of licenses to apprentices and disabled persons to work for less than the legal minimum which the commission may establish, and is to protect the workers and the fair employers from possible abuses of minimum wage rulings by unscrupulous employers.

Senate bill 955 (by Senator Lyon), making it a misdemeanor to misrepresent the conditions of employment in hiring labor. This applies particularly to the shipping of labor outside the state and is aimed to prevent the men from being exploited or stranded.

Senate bill 982 (by Senator Lyon), a new payment of wages law to replace the present law on the same subject, which has been declared unconstitutional by the courts. The attorney-general has approved this new law. The law provides that wages must be paid when due and also provides that an unnecessary harassing of the employe by not paying his wages promptly is a misdemeanor and punishable by fine or imprisonment.

Employment Agencies.

Senate bill 983 (by Senator Lyon), making employment agencies more responsible for the fair and proper conduct of their business, increasing their licenses and giving the labor commissioner additional power to revoke licenses in case of abu

Senate bill 984 (by Senator Lyon), providing more specifically for effective work of the bureau of labor in the enforcement of the labor laws.

Senate bill 985 (by Senator Lyon), establishing an equity as between employer and employes with particular reference to the right of an employe to receive wages earned up to the time of discharge. The present law does not give an employe who is discharged for cause any legal right to wages for the time between the last pay day and the date of discharge.

Senate bill 986 (by Senator Lyon), prohibiting employment agencies from charging or collecting exorbitant fees for securing positions and stating the maximum amounts that may be collected. This will materially decrease the amount of money paid by the workers for their jobs.

Stops Coupons for Wages Due.

Senate bill 987 (by Senator Lyon), prohibiting the issuance of coupons or other non-negotiable checks for wages to become due. The present law prohibits non-negotiable checks to be issued for wages that are due, but in many labor camps in the state the men always have to draw ahead on their wages and these coupons which they receive in place of cash are redeemable only at company stores or saloons and the men get not more than fifty cents on the dollar and sometimes less.

Assembly bill 487 (by Mr. Mouser), providing for semi-monthly paydays. Experience shows that the more frequent pay days are the most effective means of fighting the salary loan sharks. People who live on a cash basis can avail themselves of cheaper markets for trading than credit stores and can take advantage of bargains.

Assembly bill 850 (by Mr. Harris), giving labor unions further protection in the use of their labels and making misrepresentation or imitating of labels a misdemeanor.

Broadway Department Store.

Two things indicate very clearly a city's permanent growth and development—the increase in its schools and the expansion of its business section. The reason of activity, along the lines indicated, dispells all doubt as to the stability of our wonderful development. The remarkable development of Los Angeles during the past decade has been the most astonishing fact in the history of the great Southwest. The bosom of every public spirited citizen swells with patriotic pride as we witness the growth of our beloved municipality by leaps and bounds.

Not small temporary structures but substantial sky-scrapers tell the tale. Business blocks of grandeur and magnificence. Walking down Broadway at 4th we behold the beautiful white structure pointing skyward, and exclaim in wonder and amazement, "What hath God wrought," for surely a building of such beauty and proportions had its conception in a divinely inspired mind. What John Wannamaker is to Philadelphia, Arthur Letts has become to Los Angeles, in the achievement of this great event. The history as made by this great benefactor may not be appreciated as it should by some of his fellow townsmen, but the fact remains that race men and women will sing the praises of Arthur Letts for generations to come.

WILLIAM C. MUSHET.

One of the most public spirited citizens in the community is W. C. Mushet. Mr. Mushet is the one man whom every citizen, regardless of his color, religion or class, can approach at all times upon matters of public concern. Mr. Mushet has served the city in the capacity of auditor and it is said by those acquainted with his administration that it was one of the best that the city has ever had.

Broad-minded, intelectual, progressive, Mr. Mushet is looked upon by men in all walks of life as being worthy of the charge of a city of this magnitude. In fact, during the campaign recently closed, the name of W. C. Mushet was urged by thousands of loyal Republicans, for Mayor of Los Angeles. The Colored citibens almost to man were most enthusiastic in the call for Mushet. The Board of Freeholders now laboring to form a new charter for the city, is receiving valuable aid in the form of suggestions by W. C. Mushet.

Mr. Mushet recognizes character wherever found, and is without doubt one of the safest, most loyal citizens Los Angeles could possess.

ELVERADO GOLD STAR MINING CO.

Secretary Folke, of the Eldorado Gold Star Mining Company, has this to say when speaking of the wonderful progress his Corporation is making, and the energy and devotedness he is putting into the work of its affairs.

"Our enterprise may now be considered an actual possible ASSET, from which the laboring classes who have assisted in its promotion, may draw liberal dividends for years to come.

"'Old man talker' is a great and powerful entertainer, but a very sorry constrainer, because he fails to deliver the genuine goods, which may with appropriateness be called Do.

"The watch word to the stockholders of the Corporation is, 'Equip yourselves like men and do your duty; and give no consideration to criticism or the person who makes merchandise of you.'"

With that motto—and the hand of Providence to guide, the company has succeeded admirably well under existing conditions. It is succeeding on the merit of its holdings—among the biggest stockholders of the corporation are those who have gone to the properties, made strict investigations for themselves, and brought hundreds of pounds back with them, which were tested by the most reputable laboratories of Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Francisco.

The company owns and controls two hundred and sixty acres in the center of the mineral zone, Clark County, Nevada, eighteeen miles N. E. of Searchlight, the terminus of the Santa Fe Branch road, from Goffs, California to that point.

The installation of the company's mining and milling machinery is fifty ton capacity, per day and is now nearing completion, and no doubt will be in operation before this month is ended from what the superintendent says. Sufficient ore is on the dumps to keep the plant going day and night for the next two years of the low grade; and then there is an inexhaustable supply of the better grade exposed at a great depth, to operate the plant for years to come. The achievement is a crowning one.

The two dollar shares of stock are selling at one dollar a share for an indefinite period only. This special price was ordered by the board of directors to enable them to meet the current expenses, until shipments shall begin, when all stock selling will close. All persons may share the privilege of buying stock at $1.00 a share until further notice is given.

Make all remittances payable to the Eldorado Gold Star Mining Company, 255 Wilson Building, Los Angeles, California, and the Secretary will acknowledge same with receipt by return mail.

GEORGIA STATE SOCIETY.

At a recent meeting of the society notice was taken of the coming of distinguished personages from the home state to the Pacific Coast during the summer. Committees were appointed. The members also considered the wisdom of incorporating the society and buying a permanent home from the sale of stock, so that the stock would be negotiable paper that could be bought and sold and that whatever profit should come to the society that the same would be paid to the stockholders in dividends after the property had been paid for. The thought brought out by the members was that it was not enough to merely meet and to at times give socials but that the opportunity for the club to do something worth while and in a business way was too great to sleep over. This paper will watch the outcome of this action and will be pleased to report its further progress along this line. If there is one thing needed among us as a people it is more business projects, from a popcorn stand up to the most representative project within our reach. The Eagle has alway stood for this kind of thought and wherever and whenever you can get the people to think seriously about these matters it usually follows that they do take some action. We confess that there are a great many skeletons of disappointment to our credit, due largely to our incapacity to safeguard our interests. All along we have been too modest to demand proper protection of our business, we have failed to throw around the money end of our doings the bonded system that is employed by other successful people. We elect men out of favoritism rather than for their special ability to do things, and we are too cowardly weak to demand protection. Let us hope that the Georgia State Club will profit by the record of the past.

PROCLAMATION.

Convening the Thirty-First Annual Session of District Grand Lodge No. 32, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows.

To the Lodges, Members and Delegates constituting the Jurisdiction of Thirty-second District of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows in America.

Proclamation: Under the laws of our beneficent order, and in obedience to the duties devolving upon me, and pursuant to a resolution adopted at the last session of this District Grand Lodge, I, J. Soares, District Grand Master of the aforesaid District, hereby proclaim Oakland, California, as the place, and Tuesday, August 3rd, 1915, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. of said day, as the time upon which the duly elected and qualified Delegates from the several lodges, and all life members comprising this Thirty-second District, shall assemble for the transaction of all such business as may properly come before said delegates and life members in District Grand Lodge assembled.

In view of the many important maters to come before this session, I feel it incumbent upon me to urge upon the several lodges the prime necessity of being represented by delegates; and to impress upon the life members the importance of their presence at this coming session of our District Grand Lodge.

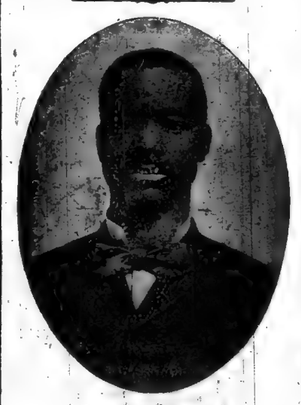
In addition to the great volume of business that will be transacted the good people of Oakland are preparing to give the delegates and visitors a delightful and most enjoyable time, one that will not soon be forgotten.

In F., L. and T.,
J. SOARES,
District Grand Master.

Attest:
(Seal) S. P. JOHNSON,
District Grand Secretary.

THE OFFICIAL CALL

Of the California State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs.



The Ninth Annual Convention of the California State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs will convene in the Fifteenth Street A. M. "MY PEOPLE WILL MISS ME WHEN I'M GONE."

By W. E. Easton.

Wednesday, I witnessed the parade along our down-town streets, a display of civic pride in the entertainment of the guests who are now within our gates. In this magnificent pageantry, I saw the representatives of every race save the Negro. I saw the Japanese, the Chinese, the Redman and the White race actively and creditably participating in the signal beauty of the moving scene, amidst the acclaim of the tens of thousands, aye, three hundred thousand spectators who were lining the streets, and I missed the Negro. And then I thought, I remembered there was a time when in our midst dwelt a man who craved just such opportunities to show the progress of his people whom he dearly loved, to secure upon the public right of way, the attention of the thousands, to our human progress. 'My people will miss me when I am gone," he uttered these prophetic words on an occasion when base ingratitude had made him sad, and he all but despaired of his just recognition by the people he most honorably served. Yes, dear old comrade, they only miss you when you are gone. Had they only known how appreciation, kindly words of encouragement, aid and stimulate race love and race endeavor, perhaps you, John J. Neimore, would have not felt and said those words. It was quite fifteen years ago on these self-same streets on a memorable Mayfest occasion, the Negro float, upon which for weeks Mr. Neimore worked, soliciting the necessary funds, $500, assembling and training the characters in the allegory, won a first prize for artistic display—the handiwork of the Negro. Again and again, Neimore would have these industrial displays, and they always received and merited applause which was generously given. Today we have more money, more art, more education, but Neimore has passed away and left no representative. Are these really "the saddest words of song and pen," "my people will miss me when I'm gone!"

M. T. Laws.

Rev. Thomas of Santa Barbara and moderator of the Western Baptist association, preached a soul stirring sermon at the Mt. Zion church Sunday afternoon. A good crowd was present and all certainly enjoyed the sermon, it being a rare treat for Mt. Zion.

Mrs. M. Wilkins left last week for Los Angeles and will soon go to Santa Barbara, where she will join her husband.

Rev. Thomas preached morning and evening at the First street Baptist church.

Mrs. R. Snyder is over on this side of the bay now. We are glad to have her with us.

The Literary society, under the auspices of the Carnation club, and of which Mrs. C. E. Norwood is chairman of the program committee, will meet on the first Tuesday evening in March at the Mt. Zion church. All are cordially invited to attend, and especially the retired members of the Dunbar Literary society are asked to come out and take an active part in the program. A spelling match will be one of the features of the evening, together with solos and instrumental selections and recitations. Come out and enjoy a pleasant evening. Refreshments will be served at the parsonage. The Eagle staff will be there.

The Carnation sewing circle met at the residence of Mrs. L. E. Goodwin this week. Every one enjoyed the evening, as they always do at Mrs. L. E. Goodwins.

W. G. Meadows is doing a rousing business in his new location, 418 G street.

Mr. Pierson's barber shop, 202 Market street, is a very clean and nice shop. Give him a call.

You should visit Brown's lunch counter for a good hot dinner and hear the latest news. You can hear more news there than at the sewing circle.

Evidently some people of high esteem and society do not read the Eagle, if so they would not condemn their brothers for not having race pride. Be not ungrateful for past favors.

The Pleasant Hour whist club met at Mrs. Anderson's house.

The Friday club held their meeting at the residence of Mrs. Thad. Williams.

Mrs. Estha Ramsey is living at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Shannon, but will have a little bungalow of her own soon.

Gilbert White of Los Angeles is now employed at the Plaza comfort station.

Mrs. Winston of the Salt Lake building of the Panama International Exposition visited the city on Washington's birthday.

B. C. Rease can be seen coming from his new home near National City in his Buick. Mrs. Rease is also very active at the wheel, but Mr. Rease says he is going to teach her to be a real chauffeur.

Mrs. Nona Jackson spent Feb. 22 at the Expo, where she enjoyed herself.

Geo. A. Ramsey will no doubt be awarded the public conveniences at the Panama International Exposition.

J. D. Wilkins of Los Angeles was highly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. L Crocker of the city before returning home.

Miss Jones of 31st street announced that there has been a ball team formed by the girls of the vicinity of 31st and Grealy streets, called the Girls' Bloomers club. A game will be played every afternodn at 30th and G streets. All are welcome.

Mrs. E. C. Norwood called at the Eagle office and was very much impressed with the paper, and no doubt you will read some very interesting stories from her pen. She was a teacher in the Lone Star state, and stands high in social and church work here in the city and her services are very very much sought after.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey returned from the Angel City, where he conducted a funeral.

Mrs. L. L. Allen of Juniper and Commonwealth streets was injured in an automobile accident last week. The party who drove the machine that ran into her is unknown.

Andrew Brown of 1272 Logan avenue received a sprained ankel while excavating.

Mrs. Phillips of Los Angeles is now stopping at Coronado for an indefinite time. Mr. Phillips is employe of the Santa Fe and his time is equally divided between here and Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. J. Freeman is among the new subscribers to the Eagle. Mr. Freeman and the manager have been close friends for many years. Mr. Freeman says from the enthusiasm of the paper there must be a real editor here.

The grand opening of the Panamay International Exposition will take place March 18th.

The Tia Juana race track will be opened again soon. As there has not been a definite date set, read the Eagle for information.

Mrs. Williams, who has been under the doctor's care for some time, is very much improved.

Mrs. A. Stephenson, who has been confined to her room with a slight touch of blood poisoning, is very much improved.

SPEAKING.

She left to go East to speak,
But when she arrived there
She found the halls were all
Engaged for weeks to come.
So like a patient lady
She waited there for some time,
And then she had a chance
To speak.
And then she spoke to crowded
Houses from the first,
And people came from all
Over the land to hear this Lady true and fine delineate
To all mankind.
For she was fair, and I
Sought her hand for many
A long year. but did not despair,
For she is to be the speaker
Of this, our land.
And if she never marries me
I will respect her all through
Her chosen path and mine.
But when this lady, fair,
Comes to San Diego to the Fair
The stores will close in order
To hear what she has to say.
And Mayor Capps will order
A holiday for the people
In this, our city by the sea.
All will want to hear
And gaze upon the speaker
From the race that they Command.
So I see the people coming
From far and near in wagons,
Vans and trains to hear the Exponent of the speaking art.

N.

MY GIRL.

My girl, she came
And said that she
Was sick, of the way she did,
But now would be good.
So of course we made up
And she said she hoped to See me on the high stool again,
When money would be plentiful
And times would be good.
Now every time she wants
Some shoes, she must go down
In her pockets, which are small
And very short of coin,
To get those shoes, which are white
And sleek, and are make
For maids and maidens fair,
But some how or other she
Looks good in anything she wears.
I know she does everything
For me she can;
To please me, is her task,
But then do you think
That she will jump
This leap year
For me or Wit,
Who have the clothes
And the furniture, too.
We will take a house
In San Diego, too, just to be true
To each other, but she said, "I don't know."
What I will do as yet.

W. M. S. Brown and company are expecting to leave after the opening of the Exposition on the Pantages circuit. Success to them.

A letter received from W. Uliver of Ash Fork, Ariz., complimenting the paper on its success, has been received. While we are progressing very rapidly, indeed, all the race wants is to support each other, to realize that our fame is just around the corner.

Mrs. Smith, 744 3rd street, called at the Eagle office and showed some of the most beautiful hand paintings on the Pacific coast, and we are quite sure that if some of her paintigs were on display at the Exposition the race would be well represented.

THE REAL AND THE UNREAL MAN

Scripture Quotations, From The 20th Century New Testament

Remarkable address delivered by Rev. J. D. Gordon before Ministerial Alliance, Tuesday, Feb. 22

Get rid of your old self, and its habits, clothe yourself in your new self.—Col. 3; 1.

All nature awaits with eager expectation the appearance of the sons of God.

Dear friends, we are God's children now, what shall be has not yet appeared. John 3, 2. Deny yourself and take up the cross and follow me.

There is a subject a better knowledge of which would change the history of the world if known in less time than a year. And the individual who can catch Paul's conception of it can never be the same in this life. This subject would give the world a clearer conception of God and man. This subject is set forth most prominently in the seventh chapter of Romans. The real and the unreal man, the double ego, the false and the true selfhood, such titles would fit the subject that we offer you at this hour. I do not present this subject simply because it is my privilege, but with the hope and joy that I might do some good, however small, among God s people here.

The world has been seeking to find God ever since the happy pair was forceably ejected from Eden. And all in vain. They have sought Him in vain. In the starlit heavens, the blazing sun, the dashing sea, the howling winds, the morning and the evening zephers. Everywhere natural glory and grandeur have been found, there they have looked in unrewarded gaze to find Him. The reason that man has failed in his search for God is that man did not look for Him within his own being. Where will God be found but in His own temple? And when man thought to turn his gaze toward man, he turned his attention to man's blood and bones, muscles and nerves, and so this search for God was also fruitless.

The gospel of Christ checks this search and turns the world's attention to the inner sanctuary of human consciousness, which is God's temple, and there reveals the glorious mystery of the ages, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. Man as reviewed by Paul, is possessed of a double selfhood. One his ligitimate self, that he terms the inner man, the other the outer or the illigitimate selfhood that he calls the old man, or the carnal mind. And in the seventh of Romans describes the battle between these two minds. And in the 8th chapter he utters the famous declaration, "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

Now the world's one blunder is that the distinction between these two selves is not sharply drawn and in most cases it is almost entirely unknown. We must know the difference between the true and the false selves if we ever expect to understand ourselves and know anything about God, the Spirit.

If we would carry out that beautiful precept of Christ in destroying or denying yourself, and taking up the cross and following Christ, but you must know certain truths before that is possible. And if you do not know that you have a true and a false self you can not know which one you are denying. And when you do not know which one you are denying you are always certain to deny the Divine self and accept your false self. So not knowing your true self, you invariably deny that very self that gives you your joy and peace; and the result is you claim your false self for your true.

That self that sins and suffers and grumbles at God's providence frets and worries, finally dies, is not your true self but your false. Here lies the mystery of iniquity. To make this distinction marks you a great man or a feeble man.

Now help us to set forth the origin and destiny of these two selves. Paul said the first man is of the earth earthy, the second man is the lord from heaven. Now this passage tells us the origin of these two selves in the plainest possible terms. This false self took its origin in the first man, or Adam. The true self came to you from God, when you are born again. And therefore it takes its origin in the second Adam, or Christ. And that which is born of flesh is flesh and that which is born of Spirit is Syirit. And as we have born the image of our early ancestor Adam, so we shall also bear the image of our heavenly ancestor. From Adam through our mothers and fathers we inherit our false selfhood that is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. Indeed there is such enmity between these two selves that Christ said "except you hate father and mother and your own life, you cannot be my deciples. Then you see that you get your false selfhood from your mother and father. And whatever you get from them you must hate or you cannot be my deciple, you cannot come into the consciousness of your true falsehood.

This false selfhood is discoverable from certain qualities. That Spirit in us that loves the world, and the things of the world is our false selfhood. That selfhood that creates appetites and sinful desires and is opposed to the law of God is the false selfhood. This false self fathers the world's sins and its sorrows, woes and death. The most blatant affrontery that now stands before God is that this false selfhood, this lustful, sin loving selfhood, this hell doomed self has learned the Christian catechism, and is profoundly religious and has gone into the very sanctuary of God and is now offering daily sacrifices upon God's altar. And seeks to save a lost world, and brands everybody that does not subscribe to his creed and join his church as sinners lost.

He is proud, haughty, a lover of self and a seeker of honors. He does not believe anybody can live according to the new testament otandard, and yet he pretends to hold the new testament as the standard by which all creeds and opinions shall be tried. Religious insanity has fallen on the world, and if one dares to live according to the new testament, or Christ life, this false selfhood brands him as an heretic, such is the false selfhood.

This false selfhood is of its father the devil. He is the seed of the serpent. He is the generation of vipers. He is the lie and the father of liars and lies. This is the man of selfhood that dies, and dies because he has no right to live.

But we know that we are of God little children, and that the whole world lieth in darkness even until now. This world is blind, my brother, on this vital question, because they call this false self the real man. And even after God has rid the real man of this body of death, and they have deposited this false man in the earth, some dare stand around and long for the rising of this very flesh and blood body in spite of the sacred utterances of Scriptures that flesh and blood cannot enter into the kingdom of God. And why long for the rising of this flesh man, to prolong the reign of the various diseases and keep the graves glutted with the dead? This false man is born of the woman, and is of few days and full of trouble, and must die.

This second Adam which is Christ starts a new race entirely in the earth, and even Christians have to start out with much the same Adamic falsities clinging to them which they can afford to regard as their false selfhood. And so the true selfhood in us starts in the right way, first it is born of God, born of eternal life. Eternal life father and mother of the true selfhood. It derives all of its relations from God and is of His family, a family in which death has never been known to intrude itself. In fact the knowledge that comes to true selfhood is Eternal Life. For this is life eternal that they may know Thee, the only true God and and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. The true self does not have to wait for some special day or time, to receive its eternal life, neither does it depend upon a certain place, but so soon as it begins to know God, not about Him, this knowledge is Eternal Life. This is our inheriteance. Beloved now are we the sons of God. He that hath the Son hath life; he that hath not the Son hath not life. This true self being born of life has risen with Christ, and emersion serves to show forth the burial and resurrection of the true Christ and the real self.

Railroad News

"Safety First" and Railroad Accidents.—The safety record on the railroads of the United States for the year ending June 30, 1915, is most gratifying. The number of passengers killed (196) is the smallest since 1896, and the increase of passenger traffic, as compared with that of 1896, is 83 per cent. On some of the roads not a life was lost in passenger-train accidents, and these perfect records, taken in connection with the showing for the 256,000 miles of the country as a whole, prove that the safety first campaign is bringing good results.

The report as to employes also is favorable. The total number killed (1835) is the lowest since 1898, notwithstanding an increase of 106 per cent in the working forces. The figures as to trespassers indicate laxity in the enforcement of the law against walking on the tracks—of the total of 3621 fatalities 5094 were due to trespassing. In the majority of cases of trespassers run down by locomotives were useful citizens who took the chances of accident to save time by the "short cut." The safety movement should include pedestrians as well as passengers and employes.—Providence Journal.

Well Done. Trains to San Diego.—Rail traffic over the Santa Fe will be resumed this morning, a day earlier than officials of the road had expected.—Feb. 19, 1016.

All aboad for San Diego! The first through train in a month, or since the floods, is scheduled to leave here at 9:10 o'clock this morning, one day earlier than the officials of the Santa Fe had promised. At 12:50 o'clock this afternoon the first train northbound will leave San Diego, if all goes well. A train reached Escondito yesterday, and all along the line was greeted with cheers from the crowds assembled to welcome resumption to rail traffic. Officials of the Santa Fe hope to keep trains running to schedule from now on.

2000 Negroes at the Mercy of Floods.—Natchez, Miss., Feb. 17. Repeated appeals were received here today from Newellton, La., for food and boats needed for the relief of more than 2000 negroes marooned by the flood from the Buckridge crevasse in the Mississippi. In answer, Natchez, St. Joseph and Vidalia dispatched all available boats and food supplies. The flood from the crevasse had extended southward several miles below St. Joseph, which was surrounded by water.

Largest and Best Appointed Edifice on Central Avenue Procured for Colored Business Men, Named the "Booker T. Washington Building"

Sidney P. Dones, manager of Booker T. Washington Bldg., real estate and insurance man who through honest and conscientous dealing is bringing the colored business men and women of the race together. Mr. Dones says that within the next six months Cenral Ave. between 8th and Pico will be found all kinds of mercantile business represented by our own race. We are not fighting any one, or any race. We believe that under the present conditions that the colored man or woman is entitled to the colored trade. If you want groceries, buy from a colored groceryman. If you need dry goods, buy from a colored dry goods store. vices for heaven's sake use your If you you need professional serown colored doctor and lawyer. Do you not know that the colored business or professional man must depend entirely on the colored people for support. If the other fellow gets the majority of our own race's business and all of his own race's business, how on earth will we poor race business men catch up?

Booker T. Washington said, "I do not believe in patronizing a colored man simply because he is colored, but as long as that man can give you good service and a square deal he is absolutely entitled to your business in every respect.

He further warns the business men by saying, "Race men, build up your business and demand the patronage of your race, build banks, department stores, factories, make a place for the younger generation of our race. Colored people should go in business." Not a colored shoe store in California, notwithstanding there are 65,000 Negroes in the state spending annually over $1,000,000 for shoes.

We need on Central avenue one or two big shoe stores, one department store, big grocery store, big meat market, haberdashery, bakery, laundry. We now have large furniture store, two big hotels, soon will have big theater, one big newspaper and printing plant, two barber shops, two restaurants, one confectionery store, tea and coffee house, one crockery store, one drug store, poultry store, one big office building. Racemen, get in business for yourself.

erty, naked, ignorant, landless laborers. Ninety-nine per cent of the laborers were field hands and servants of the lowest type and were referred to as a stupid, thick-lipped, flat-nosed, long-heeled, empty-headed animal, the link between the baboon and the human being, and only fit to be a slave; but from these have sprung 750,000 farmers, 70,000 teamsters, 55,000 railway hands, 36,000 miners, 33,000 sawmill hands, 34,000 teachers, 7,900 carpenters, 20,000 barbers, 25,000 nurses, 22,000 clergymen, 400 tailors, 1,400 masons, 28,000 dressmakers, 152 wholesale merchants, 1,000 engineers and firemen, 10,000 blacksmiths, 1,500 lawyers, 25,000 physicians, 7,500 business men, 32 brickmakers, 59 architects, 3,000 contractors and builders, 150 plumbers.

We operate and entirely control 75 bakeries, 200 sawmills, 50 furniture factories, 1 automobile factory, 9,000 dry goods stores and groceries, 700 drug stores, 1,000 millinery stores, 55 book stores, 18 department stores, 14 five and ten cent stores, 20 jewelry sbores, 13 warehouses and cold storage plants, 210 laundries, 350 livery stables, 953 undertakers, 400 photographers, 10 opticians, 75 hair-goods manufacturers, 12 buyers and shippers of live stock, 54 banks, 453 moving picture houses, and these enterprises handle an annual income of over one billion 110 million dollars, and above all we boast 2,248,000 mistresses of independent homes, with 3,252,000 children in school.

These facts, my dear friends, if generally known, would circumvent every opposition hurled at us, and would cement an everlasting and unbreakable friendship; yes, better than that, an indestructible love between the Negro and any and all races between here and the portals of Glory, and with these statistics as our recommendation and our pedigree I venture to say that if the Negro race were today on the auction block, bidding would be at fever heat and these grand old United States would, at any pric, be the highest bidder among the nations of the world.

Let me remind you that, notwithstanding your excellent record, your future is before you, and that races, like individuals, cannot live single and alone. The life, happiness and liberty of the black man and of the white man of this country are so wrapped together that it is absolutely impossible to oppress one without eventually oppressing the other, and the status of the Negro element will in a large degree determine the future of the white.

Where it is drawn, does the white brother draw the line of demarcation because of our dusky color? Let me plead with you that this is the great inheritance we received from God, and it could be no mark of shame or dishonor. No disgrace can be attached to physical characteristics which are the results of heredity, and cannot be removed by choice nor effort.

I plead that the Negro be permitted to stand or fall upon his merit, and only respect him when respect is really due, and I am proud to acknowledge that if the trend of affairs were today directed through this channel Los Angeles would be the unparalleled example of the world. Our Ministers are an A-1 selection from the 22,000 of their colleagues. From a standpoint of effectiveness and efficiency our professional men commend themselves to the world. Our business men and women are those that do things; they are the pride of our communities, and are a credit to the race. Los Angeles is doing much toward erecting that glorious temple of friendship where White, Brown, Red, Yellow and Black may proudly worship in the spirit of Christian brotherhood.

It would be well to suggest that we continue as we have begun, and press forward in the future as we have in the past; because with the acquisition of wealth and success, friendship is sure to be constantly in our paths.

Yes, education is absolutely necessary, not so much the arts and sciences, the classics, and romance, as instruction in purity, honor, thrift, truth and righteousness with a quickened and enlightened conscience. This acquisition will do much to bring about inter-racial amity, but our blessings in the past have come largely through the petitions of our mothers and grandmothers, our fathers and our grandfathers, who though unable to reach the ear of man could reach the heart of a most high God, who though ignorant were endowed with an abundance of wisdom, though often broken hearted could see beyond that vale of tears, though destitute they held their claim to a home in that city whose streets are of shining gold, who in the silent hours of the night would quietly ascend the ladder of prayer and place the future of this race of mine at the feet of a compassionate Savior.

And when this and coming generations believing in the efficacy of prayer shall fervently petition the Giver of Every Perfect Gift our racial animosities will cease; we will be accorded the rights and privileges which are the birthright of every American citizen, we will prove ourselves men among men, and racial differences will vanish as the mist before the rising sun.

Looking into the future I see gathered upon our fair Western plain nations of all the earth. The Irish sing "The Wearing of the Green," the Scotchman his "Blue Bells," the Englishman "God Save the King," and the American "The Star Spangled Banner." One towering Christian man, realising that the ultimate end of all government is that the Kingdom of Christ may prevail, and seeing a black man standing by as though without home or country, remembers that we are all one in Christ. He swings a baton high in the air. Forgot is all else, and the grand hallelujah chorus, white and black, of every age and every clime, join in the grand refrain:

"All hail the power of Jesus' name,
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all."

STRONG FOR RACE PROGRESS

February 17, 1916.

Editor of California Eagle:

I am very much interested in the move this paper has taken in the uplift and welfare of the Colored people of this community.

I have sen in the weekly paper of February 12, 1916, an article or articles stating that the Colored people as a body or as individuals have started wheels of progress in this city among the Colored people. I have read where the Colored people have started the erection of an office building and also an Auditorium in this city.

Gentlemen, I think it is high time for the black people of this community to seek adventures in the commercial world, as do the white and Japanese man of this city.

Gentlemen, I have hoped for this move time and time again, and I feel that no other move should be any more well supported than this.

As has been stated in the Eagle, we Colored citizens have no banks, theatres, dry goods stores, etc., with the exception of the Prentice store, as they are pretty well out of the way for most of the Colored shoppers.

I think that the wealthier class of Colored citizens of this community should enter into some field of business. We have Colored boys, and girls, who are waiting to qualify for such positions as managers, superintendents, clerks, etc.

Gentlemen, above all things, we Colored citizens should have a bank controlled and run by race men.

There are hundreds of thousands of dollars going from the black man to the white man's hand which should be handled by black cashiers and clerks only.

We Colored citizens should support this move to the utmost and make positions for the poor Negro boy and girl whom the white man and foreigner are crowding out.

Gentlemen, I say wake up, as it is high time, and there is no better time than now.

I want to see this letter published in the next paper, and more letters if God and man will permit it.

Sidney P. Doanes, who is Booming Central Avenue

I want every reader of The Eagle to rally to this move, as our greatest need is a bank controlled and run by race men.

Moneyed men of this race, turn loose of your money, as our own Mr. Prentice, dry goods and drug merchant, and also our own Mr. Eugene Walker, tailor, of this city.

Gentlemen, how do you expect your son and daughter to spend their vacation—in what way? Gentlemen, if we black men don't make opportunities for our sons and daughters, the white man surely will not.

Henceforth I pray God to speed the day when the black man will enter into the field of enterprise and walk side by side with the white and Japanese in the commercial world in this city.

This move should be advocated in churches, forum, homes, as well as society.

Gentlemen, this is all I have to say in this letter, as I wish to say more next time.

As I said before, I hope to see this letter published in the next weekly edition, and also hope that every race Negro will support this move and also paper. This paper should be in every Negro's home.

I remain, J. F. KYLE.

BIG NEGRO BUSINESS MEN'S DAY AT SUNDAY PARLIAMENT

Central Hall, East Washington and Central Avenue, Sunday at 2:30 p. m.—Excellent Addresses, Prominent Race Men and Fine Musical Program

Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon promises to be the greatest get-together meeting ever held in this city among the Negro business men, at the Sunday Parliament, and Central Hall should be taxed with hundreds of enthusiastic boosters for bigger Negro business in Greater Los Angeles. The Negro merchant man, the real estate dealer, the restaurant keeper, the druggist, physician, lawyer, the huckster, dressmaker, tailors, notion store keepers, all will be there to boost his or her business. If we as a race are to make places for the young men and women who are graduating annually from the various schools, then we must begin to boost and make business that will give them positions. Among those that are scheduled to speak to-morrow are: Mr. Chas. C. Flint, the pioneer Santa Fe avenue groceryman, Dr. Samuel G. Prentice, the progressive druggist; Mr. Sidney P. Dones, the big realty broker; Prof. H. Douglass Greer, Negro Press; Mrs. B. L. Prentice, the successful notion dealer; Mme. Ophelia Boyd, the sweet-voiced dramatic soprano, will sing "Thinkest," and Mr. Claude V. Pitts will render a cornet solo. At the close of these excellent and timely addresses there will be an open Parliament for general discussion.

The meeting will open at 2:30 o'clock, and every race man and woman should attend and boost for a big Negro business week in Greater Los Angeles.

The Fourth Supervisorial District has the largest colored vote of all excepting the second district which includes the black belt of Los Angeles.

Montgomery Bell, of Las Vegas, N. M., who recently died in that city, was said to have been worth $250,000. At his funeral all of the pall-bearers were white, the first time such a thing had occurred in the history of the state. In fact, there have been but few such cases in the country. He made his money in common pursuits, and which he invested, finally becoming a silent partner in the People's Trust Co., of Las Vegas. His money talked, and as it will in most places. Money is not all life, but it is a very considerable part of it. These white pall-bearers had great respect for Mr. Montgomery Bell.—Freeman.

Dr. Prowd, New Pastor 2nd Baptist Church Makes Hit

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH RECEIVES NEW PASTOR

Last Friday evening at a reception especially prepared as a fitting welcome for its new pastor the Second Baptist curch threw wide its doors and welcomed also into its midst a large concourse of the citizens of this vicinity.

Dr. H. D. Prowd

There appeared on the program short welcome addresses from every department of the church, and many of the business places of the city. These addresses were filled with glowing words of appreciation for the new pastor and his family which consists of a wife, two daughters and two sons all of whom occupied places, on this occasion, upon the rostrum beside Rev. H. D. Prowd, the pastor in question.

At the close of the program which in addition to the addresses consisted of musical selections and words of welcome from the other pastors of the city, Rev. Prowd was called upon to respond.

When the Rev. took the stand the great audience which packed the church edifice to its utmost capacity, arose to its feet, and he, Dr. Prowd, with no perceptible emotion, but with great feeling and touch in his every word and expression, convinced those who came out of curiosity, sympathy and interest, that he was a man of God, and that his presence in this community came out of his deep appreciation for the great work to be accomplished in this section.

The Eagle joins the church in its hearty welcome of its new pastor.

POPULAR AND PROGRESSIVE CITIZEN BECOMES A BENEDICT

Returns from Nashville Where He Married One of that City's 695—Gal 6—Eagle Most Beautiful and Popular Belles

Mr. Cleveland Buchanan of this city, who is receiving clerk at the very exclusive Kaniwald Apartment House, and who is also the private secretary of the very wealthy owner of the same. Buch, as he is familiarly known by his friends, is a prince and is known for his good nature and sterling worth as a citizen. He is a man who is enterprising and alive to all of the things that spell progress for the Race. He has made an enviable record with his employers who ofttimes leave the city for a month at a time and leaves his large business affairs in the hands of Mr. Buchanan. He has a record of only being absent from his post but one day and a half in three years.

It is therefore with no small degree of pleasure that we congratulate our friend, Mr. Buchanan and wish for him a pleasant voyage on the sea of matrimony. We also welcome to our city his bride, Mrs. Jennie Lee Noel Buchanan, who has been detained on account of illness, but who will arrive here on the 1st inst. Mrs. Buchanan comes from one of the leading families of the Athens of the South. She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Noel, who are one of the foremost families of Nashville, and we are sure that her coming in our midst will be a pleasant addition to local society.

They will be at home to their friends after April 10th.

The following is an account from the Nashville papers of reception tendered both Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan.

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—The home of Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Noel was the scene of a beautiful reception on Feb. 23, from 7 to 10 p.m., when they welcomed their friends in honor of their daughter, Miss Jennie Lee Noel's marriage to Mr. Cleveland Buchanan of Los Angeles, Cal. They were married on the 16th inst, in the presence of the immediate family, Dr. C. W. Morrow of Fisk University officiating.

Misses Annie Stewart and Annie Compton attended the door. Mesdames C. N. Langston and E. B. Jefferson introduced the guests to the receivng line. Standing with Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan, were Misses Vashti Caldwell, DeWitt Shorter, Derniece Compton, Gladys and Manila Owens of Los Angeles, Mrs. Cartwright (the groom's aunt) and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Price.

The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of white charmeuse, trimmed with real lace and pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses and ferns. The ladies in the receiving line were attired in evening dress, making a charming picture. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the floral decorations and the ice course.

Many handsome gifts of silver, cut glass, hand-painted china and linen, attested the popularity of the couple. Mesdames Jennie Compton and Rena Baker had charge of the gifts. The wedding register was kept by Mrs. F. A. Stewart, the bride's aunt.

Misses Ethel Jordan and Hazel Thompson were in the dining room where they presented each guest, as served, with a heart shaped card, announcing the date of the marriage.

Mesdames H. A. Boyd, R. S. White, Durand Houston and Dr. Wells, assisted Mrs. Noel in welcoming the guests.

Some of the events given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Buchanan were a reception by Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Hale, a tea by Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Morrow, dinner by Mr. and Mrs. William Compton, a whist party by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Price and a motor ride by Dr. and Mrs. Stewart.

For Mrs. Buchanan, a miscellaneous shower was given by Misses Caldwell, Shorter, Scott and Dr. Wells, and a musical by Mrs. C. N. Langston.

For Mr. Buchanan, a stag and smoker was given by Drs. Napier, Moore, Messrs. C. N. Langston, Carter, Page and Boger.

THE SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON

There is no question but that the formal dance given by Mrs. Maud Stallings at Normandie Hall on last Tuesday evening in honor of her niece, Miss Vivian Campbell, and the Summit and country club boys, was the most pretentious and gorgeous affair given in this city in many months. There was no minor detail overlooked and it seemed to be the greatest ambition of the hostess to make everybody at home and happy.

The affair was strictly formal and some of the gowns worn by the ladies were the latest creations of the modern modistes. The hostess was gowned in a gorgeous, jeweled oriental black net, Miss Campbell wore a silk net over chiffon, hand made pink roses and blue satin bodice, Miss Gertie William wore pea green taffeta. Miss Williams sang a beautiful solo which captivated the more than 150 persons present. Beside the above mentioned costumes all the ladies were most handsomely gowned. Space will not permit the names of all.

The hall was most beautifully decorated with pot plants and flowers.

The music discoursed was highly pleasing and the guests tripped the fantastic toe until 12 o'clock which came too soon on this occasion, but all joined in one accord in voting Miss Stallings as the queen of hostesses.

Those who assisted in receiving were Mrs. Cecil Green Jones, Miss Rose Warner, Miss Hazel Brown, Miss Edna Jackson.

RAILROAD NEWS

President Underwood of the Erie Railroad, a friend of the Race.

Mr. Geo. C. Burke of Jersey City, N. Y., who has served as steward and private car man on the Erie Road for many years, visited here this week. Mr. Burke was all smiles and happy because President Underwood of the Erie road had appointed Miss Burke, his daughter, to a position as stenographer and typewriter in the Erie office at Jersey City, N. Y. This was a grand recognition of her father's years of faithful service and we feel confident that Miss Burke will prove herself worthy of this confidence placed in her by the highest official of the Erie Railroad Company.

We also feel proud of the record that many of our men as stewards, chefs and private car men are making. When the great financiers of the country make their trips for business or pleasure, they are properly looked after by our Race men and their wants satisfied on the great deserts just the same as if they were served in the best palatial hotels of the cities. Among the private car men, stewards and chefs seen here recently were the following, through the courtesy of Mr. Samuel W. Thompson, the S. P. private car man, their names were secured:

Mr. Eligah Watson, S. Bethleham, Pa.

Mr. Joseph Johnson, Easton, Pa.

Mr. C. R. Brown, New York City.

Mr. Joseph Thomas, New York City.

Mr. Henry Williams, New York City.

Special for Children Over Ten Years

A short inspiring service for children, to which adults are also invited, will be held every Sunday afternoon in Lent, beginning next Sunday, March 12, at 5 p. m. We cannot afford to neglect the children of today. These little sermons to them are intended to teach them how beautiful it is to be good, and holy, and useful, and how ugly it is to be wicked and sinful and untruthful. Help them to remember their Creater during these forty days of Lent at least.

SAMUEL LEWIS, POLICE OFFICER, BEFORE THE BAR OF JUSTICE

The case of Samuel Lewis, who figured in the killing of his wife, Mrs. Mollie Lewis, February 24, at her home at 8th and San Pedro Sts., came up Wednesday in Judge Judson Brown's department of the Justice Court.

Agoodly number of witnesses for the State went to the stand, and in each case the testimony went along the same trend, each one stating that Lewis in the beginning stated that "I shot her, but I will tell you how it happened. My wife sent for me, and I went at her command. Upon entering the room, she (my wife) asked me to be seated in a rocker. I obeyed after resting my hat on the bed. Mrs. Lewis then asked me when was I going to pay her what I owed her and I responded on my next pay day. She then came in back of the chair in which I was seated as if to embrace me, putting one arm about my neck, and slipping the other into my pocket which she secured and then stepped over by the door and demanded with an oath that unless I pay her she would never let me leave the room. I pulled my pockets inside out, saying again that I had no money, and waiting my opportunity seized the revolver which she held and in our tussle for the weapon shots were fired and Mrs. Lewis fatally wounded."

While the story of the tragedy was reiterated, Lewis showed little emotion until the clothes of the dead woman were brought forth. Then an expression of great sorrow came over his face and features.

It seems that up to this time Mr. Lewis has enjoyed a good reputation as a law abiding citizen and an excellent police officer, and it is to be regretted greatly by the citizens at large that such should have happened.

WILL YOU DO US A FAVOR

The members of the Madam C. J. Walker's Culture Club, an organization of energetic race women, who are firm believers that a woman's hair is her glory, wish to ask all organizations to please arrange their social affairs and concerts if possible, so as not to occur onApril 5, 1916, as elaborate preparations are being made by the lovers of the club for their first concert which promises to be something different from the usual line of concerts.

Mrs. Lauretta Butler, the unexcelled concert produce, will have charge of this affair.

Wishing to thank you in advance for the favors conferred upon us, we remain,

Yours truly,

MME. C. J. WALKER'S CULTURE CLUB.

PATRIOTISM

The public is cordially invited to attend the annual reception of the Veteran Colored Soldiers, H. G. Otis Camp, Dept. of the Columbia, Tuesday evening, March 14th, 1916, at Patriotic Hall, Hall of Records. Admission, as well as a bountiful supply of refreshments, absolutely free. rFiends, come out and enjoy yourselves, thereby showing your appreciation of your game countrymen, who upheld the honor of the flag on the arid plains of the wild Southwest, at El Caney and San Juan Hill and in the fever-laden jungles of the faraway Philippine Isles. There will be vocal and instrumental music under direction of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bowers. An oration by W. O. Tyler, recounting the deeds of valor by heroic Negro troopers from the time of Crispus Attucks to the Spanish War. Patriotc addresses by other noted speakers.

By order of the Camp, U. S. W. V.'s

Wm. Qualls, Commander.
O. W. Butler, Adjutant.

Among the many affairs given during the week, was the whist party which was given by "The Married Ladies' Art Guild Club" Tuesday evening, March 7, 1916, at the home of Mrs. W. B. Maxwell, 1525 E. 23rd St.

Quite a number were present, and three prizes were awarded to the ladies, and two for the gents. An enjoyable evening was spent, and the Guild ladies served a most delicious repast, while Mrs. W. B. Maxwell proved a most charming hostess.

Mrs. Clara E. Armstrong,

SAN FRANCISCO NOTES

The big Republican conference was in session last Saturday. There were two Colored men in the conference and it is said these two could not agree.

Times are a little quiet for news since the soldiers left for Fort Russell.

Mr. Joe Bailey of Los Angeles was in on his regular run Thursday.

Another colored delegate named Morris nominated W. O. Tyler of Los Angeles as a delegate to the National Convention.

A Colored delegate named Oliver placed a candidate in nomination thusly: Mr. President, I is the editor of a newspaper in Los Angeles, I came up here to nominate Mr. Ceruti as a delegate. The chairman, Capt. Fredericks, asked what are his qualifications? Why he campaigned for you two years ago and he is a lawyer from New York.

W. H. SMITH, Sub.

The Second Baptist church of Monrovia, of which Rev. E. Wilson is pastor, gave a benefit rally last Sunday afternoon for Rev. Howard, the former pastor of that church, who has been ill for some time. Rev. Howard was so well thought of by the entire church. The A. M. E. church of Duarte, the A. M. E. Zion church of Monrovia, all joined in and made the rally a great affair. Rev. Wilson preached an excellent sermon for the occasion, which was held at the A. M. E. Zion. Text, 25th chapter of Matthew, 40th verse, which reads, "And the king shall answer and say unto them, "Verily, verity, I say unto you, inasmuch as yet have done it unto these my brethren ye have done it unto me." Colection raised $10.25.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many friends who have felt and expressed sympathy in my recent bereavement, the undersigned takes this method and opportunity of expressing his deep appreciation. To those faithful and devoted friends whose attentions and sacrifices have helped to cheer and relieve the last illness of my beloved wife, I beg to express my sincerest thanks, and acknowledge a lasting obligation.

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN

Aunt Jemima

Dear Aunt Jemima:—

Q.—I am at present very lonesome and have been for the past few years. I am very anxious to have a companion and should like to get married. But it has always been my idea that many annoying things confront one in married life. For example. Having some one to ask where you have been and why you stayed so late when you have very important lodge meetings that keep you.

A.—A man who avoids matrimony on account of the cares of wedded life, cuts himself off from a great blessing for fear of a trifling annoyance. You have no doubt got that idea of thinking that your wife would worry you about lodges from some wife who questioned her husband because she found that it was not always lodge that was keeping him out late. "Lodge" is often an untrue excuse with men.

Q.—Can you please tell me the colors that are to be worn this season?

A.—I think the colors very pretty; some of them are all shades of blue, gray, tomato red, and ripe watermelon. A great deal of white is also to be worn.

I take the opportunity through this column to urge all young women, married or single, to take advantage of the lectures and exhibits that are going on on South Broadway. The movement hoping to lead to a stronger generation.

Q.—What is your opinion of these new Bennious collars that cover over half the face?

A.—It is true that any style that comes along goes in Los Angeles, but my opinion of those collars is that they look very silly. But this would be a queer world if all our opinions were the same.

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER

Most Worshipful Woodrow Wilson, President of all these United States and Shepherd of the Democratic flock; thou who holdest great juicy slices of pie in the hollow of thy ample hands, when not holding thy new wife, and dealeth it out according to thy righteous will; we, thy poor, weatherbeaten and unworthy constituents, come tumbling down on our tummies to pour out our political devotions to thee and bless thy glorious Democratic name and to wish thee a large family of little Democrats in due season. Give ear unto our supplications, Great Political King.

Master Wilson, we thank thee that we are anxious and waiting Democrats. We are anxious to know what thou wilt have us do. We are waiting for anything that thy excellency may see fit to give us. We are waiting for thee to give us 20 cent cotton and 8 cent cattle. We are waiting for better times in general. Some of us haven't paid our taxes for two years.

We will confess that it is not as well with us as it might be. By some unaccountable reason several of us have not got jobs worth speaking about. And thou knowest a Democrat with no office and no work is in a devil of a fix. We simply can't hurrah for "Wilson Prosperity" under such circumstances. It makes us feel like sheep-killing dogs.

We could stand it to be without work, and have our rations run short and see times get hard, if it wasn't for the infernal Republicans making fun of our lot and saying "we told you so." Master Wilson, that hurts like blue blazes.

That is the straw that is breaking our backs. Maybe this is the reward for our wickedness. But if something is not done pretty quick thou mayest not find us waiting at the gate. There are other parties calling for us. We hate to pray like this, but starvation is hell on manners, and we can't help it. If our prayer is unpolished it is due to the desperation of starvation. But with all our crudeness and lack of manners we want to emphasize the fact that we are absolutely ready for our reward and we will accept thy pie blessings as gratefully as ever a little dog accepted a chicken's liver.

Mighty Master, thou knowest we can't be Democrats without reward. Thou knowest we voted for thee with the understanding that we inherit the offices and the emoluments thereof. Yet we see Republicans holding over everywhere while we are down in the gutter. Again, we declare that we are ready. We will take anything that thou hast. We would be dog-catcher for the back districts of Hepsidam. We would be tick inspector. We would be fertilizer smeller. Just anything thou hast to dispense we will thankfully accept, and the quicker the better.

And Master Wilson, there is one important question we would ask thee. It may be treason in us to want to know such a thing, but we can't help it. It is this: When dost thou expect the Free Trade tariff to begin to lower the cost of living? We know it is wrong to be impatient, but, Great Chief, if something is not done pretty quick we are going to have hard work keeping the party together; besides, we are going to have a harder time keeping our own souls and bodies together. Something to eat is getting shorter and shorter with us, and the price is mounting to the sky. Worthy Master, we wish that thou wouldst explain this tariff business a little. We can't understand it to save our lives. We thought reducing the tariff made things cheaper. We have always been taught to believe in that theory.

Again, Mighty Chief, we beseech thee to hear our prayers. For heaven's sake don't saddle us with a bond issue. We read in the papers that thou art considering a big bond issue to get money to run the government, and dodgast them bonds Thou shouldst remember that Cleveland sold bonds, and it busted our party into smithereens. We never can survive a bond issue. Bonds means slavery, and slavery is worse than war, and war is worse than hell. It will bury us so deep we will never hear the gun fire this year. Cut down salaries rather than sell bonds.

Oh, mighty Woodrow, thou who hast already skinned us out of our jobs with thy business-busting Free Trade farce, don't get us scalped in a war. Thou knowest, dear and mighty pie-distributer, that we have never had any luck with war, anyway. Thou knowest that in the great history of the American people thou hast written how we Democratic dupess followed the party call and went to war against the Stars and Stripes for four long years, and how "Honest" Abe Lincoln licked the

Scripture Quotations, From The 20th Century New Testament

Such would be true only of the naval part of the tree. The seedly part of this tree would rise up and declare all the claims of this Naval branch to be false, and it would assert that it was the original part of this tree and knew whereof it spoke. I am dead certain that no tree can bear fruit without producing seed, it is entirely against nature, and also it is contrary to the word of God, which says, "Every tree shall bring forth seed after its kind." Now you can see that each one of these contenders are true, in the sense he speaks; but neither tells the whole truth as it really is. So those who claim that man cannot live a holy if, in this world are only true, if they mean that the Adamic man or seedling part. This can not live holy in this world or in any other world, for this Adamic man is not subject to the law of God. neither indeed can be that that is born of the woman cannot live in heaven, and for that reason they must be born again. So in thinking and speaking, let us make clear the difference between our true and false selves. May God bless what has been said to the good of us all.

I have described the origin of the old and new man. But the text says, "Get rid of your old self and its habits and be clothed upon with your new self." We shall now discuss how this can be done, how we can get rid of our ld selves and be clothed with our new selves. It is not enough to say get rid of your old selves and tell not how such a thing can be done. Is it really possible for one to get rid of his old self? In order to see whether this change is possible, it would be well to see how fixed in its nature is the old self. Let us not forget that this old self is not of Divine origin. And if you destroy your old self, you cannot charge yourself with crime, because this self is not God's man and is not subject to God's laws. Therefore all heaven favors any change that means the complete elimination of this old man. Since God did not create him, he is not essential to being, and being is better off, by far, when it is destroyed. To get rid of your old self means more than quiting your old evil habits; it is the getting rid of the old doer instead of the old deads. Still how can I get rid of my old self? If this is an impo rtant matter, surely the word of God will somewhere contain a way or plan by which we can get rid of the old self.

We must develop a vission, a disgust for the unreal man, the sinful selfhood and then positively know that such a selfhood is not your own real self. Because thou has loved righteousness and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God, has anointed the with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. In other words, you must deny your old self. If you have ever witnessed an old mother hen weaning her young you have the key to your own soul's advancement. And following the example of the hen, you will do for your false selfhood what the old hen does for her troublesome brood. Jesus calls this denying your self.

When I continually deny my self, then the falsehood begins at once to loosen its hold upon the consciousness, and this continued, until you reach a positive state of knowing the false man. Men and women know better how to get rid of their false selfs than they realize. In trying to shift the mind from one person to another, one way that makes the matter simple and easy is to find another person upon whom to place your affection, and finding this more acceptable one, is the easiest and best way that I know to break the charms of your former friend. So in getting rid of your old selfhood, the best and easiest way is to find your new self, and the charms of that one, altogether lovely, breaks the influence af the one from whom you seek to be free.

In getting rid of your old selfhood, we cannot stiffle the old selfhood and suppress his thoughts, words and deeds and succeed and successfully free ourselves by that method from out old self. And since our old self is not a real self, but a collection of erroneous thoughts and conclusions; therefore we must call into exercise the powers of our new selves. This new self has a new will, which is the very will of God; aud this new self has a new mind, or the very mind of Christ, according to the word, "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." And God destroys the heart of stone belonging to the old self and gives this new self a heart of flesh. Then it is self evident that this new self has a new heart. All the old things and old habits are passed away, and behold all things have become new, because of this new self.

This new self has powers distinctly its own, but remember that it is not enough to be conscious of these powers in the new self, there must be a decided activity accompanying this new self. This new self takes on strength, like the old self, by exercise. The new self taking on strength, forces the old self aside, for the strong man holds his own until a stronger one comes. So we mvst give suitable exercise to this new self. Sit down, call into play the thinking faculties of your new self, and then be certain that it is your new self thinking, and if it is your new self thinking, your thoughts will be according to the truth of God's word, kind with the very kindness of heaven, loving and gentle. This is that tree which you will know by the fruits it bears. If it is your old self thinking, it will be just the opposite. Three times a day, fill up on loving thoughts for all the world, and send them out to all the world, and especially to those have despitefully used you, here is the test by which we demonstrate to the world at large and to our own souls, whether we are living in the new man or the old man. By the above method the heart of your new self and the mind of your new self links itself with the universal forces of love and all of the organizing powers, and even with God Himself, and being thus linked with power takes on the very power of God. The old self is then set aside completely and your new self enthroned. "If ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live."

CIRCUS DANCE A BIG EVENT

Three Peizes To Be Awarded For The Best Costume

The coming circus dance which will be given by the Heliotrope Art Club at Washington and Central hall on Wednesday night, March 15th, is being looked forward to with pleasurable anticipation by the lovers of the club.

There will be clowns, acrobats, bareback riders, ringmasters and all that goes to make a real circus. Of course no circus is complete without the famous pink lemonade peanuts and popcorn. The club has arranged to have vendors dispense these necessities during the evening. During the grand march the dancers will be reviewed by judges who will award three prizes to the three persons who's costumes are the most typical of a real circus.

A NOVEL AFFAIR

The Barbers' Contest

One of the most novel contests ever inaugurated in the city is the Barbers' Contest which was launched March 1st. It is to see who is the most popular barber in the City of Los Angeles, for an unknown prize which will be given by forty-two ladies of the People's Independent Church of this city. The contest will close on the 29th of March. The prizes will go to the individual tonsorial artist who brings the largest amount of money, which is for the benefit of the People's Independent Church.

The following are the barbers who have entered the contest and will work for this handsome prize and for the honor of being crowned the most popular barber:

Millennium Dawn Company Offers Great Opportunities For The Masses

THE MILLENIUM DAWN COMPANY

Demonstrating the possibilities of the Negro in business. This company doing a remarkable business, patronize your own proposition. Buy from one to 100 shares and buy your groceries from your own store.

The Eagle takes pride in presenting for the consideration of the public the splendid start of the above named company in the Booker T. Washington building, 1011 Central Ave.

This company is really worth while. It has passed the experimental stage and is now a full-fledged mercantile company that will furnish you anything in the line of groceries, no matter how large or small your order.

The crowning feature about the entire situation is that the Millenium Dawn Company is the people's company, and you are simply patronizing your own proposition when you buy from this store. The shares are One Dollar each and every man and woman who can should at once buy from one to one hundred shares. If they will do this, this will soon become one of the greatest corporations in the city and this company can open stores in all sections of the city, thus employing hundreds of our own people in the mercantile pursuits.

The company now as it stands is showing what it can do and if they can on a small scale do what they are, when we all become stockholders and keep the dollars within the circle, the possibilities will be untold.

We urge all who can to buy at least one block of shares in this company.

WHY IS IT THAT COLORED STUDENTS DO NOT SECURE EMPLOYMENT IN THE INDUSTRIAL PURSUITS WHEN THEY LEAVE SCHOOL?

First, because the avenues of business are already overcrowded and there is always more applicants than places.

Second, those that are operating the business prefer their own people, and it is useless for us to expect of them to employ our people when they are unable to make places enough for their own, and the hope that is indulged in by some of our people that to educate and you will find employment according to your fitness is an empty assertion and falls flat to the ground when carried to the test. And the proof of this fact is gathered from those that have tried it. Now it is clear to everyone that the Colored applicant is handicapped when he enters the race, but is not in every case rejected on account of color. The fact is there is not places enough and to supply the want, new places must be created.

Now Whose Move Is It?

If we wait for those that are operating the present business to increase their capacity to let us in we will have to reckon with the applicants that are already waiting, and that would he hope against hope, which is said to be almost despair, but why should we wait for others to create all of the business, when we can open up some of the avenues ourselves? And it would be a great relief to some of our friends on the other side to know that we were making an effort to stop banging on their doors for jobs, especially in the mercantile pursuits. And as it is a well known fact that no race of people ever rises any higher than their business level in the mercantile pursuit in any community, it is our duty to come together and make an effort to improve our condition here, along the industrial and mercantile lines by co-operation.

The key to the situation is organization and the churches and other societies of our people in this city have a membership that reaches into the thousands and their trade and patronage in the mercantile pursuits will create a volume of business during the year that would employ hundreds of our people and open up avenues that could never be dreamed of by individual effort. And this can be done by co-operation, without disturbing the present organizations. The trade and patronage of a hundred families will eanble this company to employ 10 to 12 of our people at a living wage. And the stock of the company is within the reach of all. One dollar is all that is required on the first block of 10 shares and one dollar per week until the amount subscribed for is paid. A certificate will be issued which will entitle the holder to a share in the profits.

What we desire is to build up a business in this community that will be a credit to the Race, and with the assistance of the loyal Race men and women we will find our way to the business world, and upon up avenues in the mercantile pursuits for some of the children that are now at school. We had just as well build up ourselves with the money we spend as to build up others. It is a plain business proposition, and a matter of investment, and if you have a boy or girl at school purchase a block of stock in the company, get a certificate for him. It will inspire him to know that he has a future prospect for a business career With the company when he leaves school. Under the present condition there is no encouragement for them and as other Races work together in business effort we should do the same. While we are Americans and can never be anything else, in business we must work out our own destiny.

The Millenium Dawn Industrial Corporation is a business company, incorporated under the laws of the State of California, and have secured a permit from the State Corporation Commissioner to sell stock.

What the company aims to do is to enter into mercantile pursuits, and create employment for the members and patrons by their trade and patronage.

The Terms to Subscribers

The stock is on sale at One Dolar per share, and is sold in blocks of ten dollars. Subscribers are required to pay 10 per cent cash and 10 per cent or one dollar weekly thereafter. When the amount subscribed for is paid a certificate will be issued which will entitle the holder to a pro rata share of the net profits when the Board of Directors declares a dividend.

What the Company is Doing Now

Operating a grocery at 1011 Central avenue, with telephone connection, Broadway 2576, with auto delivery and can fill orders in any part of the city, and every stockholder and subscriber is part owner in the present business, and they are to support the business by their trade and patronage.

Business Not Confined to One Locality

The business may be extended to any part of the city, and new enterprises open up, wherever there is a sufficient number of subscribers and patrons to support the business, and every additional business means more help, such as clerks, bookkeepers and deliverymen and they are to be selected from among the subscribers and stockholders.

Why We Should Co-operate

The growing need for business opportunities among our people is a fact that cannot be denied, and the keen competition that must be met in the industrial pursuits makes individual efforts along these lines almost a thing of the past, but by co-operation and a small amount invested from each individual the fields of activity can be reached and the trade and patronage of the members will create the volume of business that will give employment and open the fay to thei ndustrial pursuits.

Where to Purchase Stock

At the store, 1011 Central Ave., or The California Eagle Publishing Office, 814 Central Ave., or call any of the Directors. Notice their address and phone in this article. A copy of the constitution and by-laws of the company will be furnished each subscriber.

The Board of Directors

In presenting this Company to our people as a business proposition, we are guided by the present condition and the future outlook and we are convinced that the only way to succeed now in business enterprise is by co-operation and we invite every loyal Race man and women to join us in the effort. The patronage of a hundred families would create a volume of business that would enable us to employ 10 or 12 of our people at a living wage, and make a safe margin for the stockholders.

The Company has bought out the grocery of P. W. Ridgway, formerly located at 1210 Tunness street, and is now located at 1011 Central Ave., and we propose to carry a line of groceries that will meet the demands of the trade and with our delivery and telephone the patrons and shareholders can reach us from any part of the city. And we solicit your order.

EAST EIGHTH CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO CHANGE LOCATION

TheEast Eighth St. Christian church that has been located on E. Eighth St., near Central Ave., is to be removed to 14th and Birch St. by May 9th.

Rev. D. L. McMickens and the congregation invite their many friends to come and visit them in their new church home after the above mentioned date.

It is the plan of the pastor and congregation to erect a more stately mansion for the housing of their growing congregation. The lot at 14th and Birch furnishes not only a better site, but more space for the edifice, the prospectus of which will be published later.

Much credit is due Mr. Milton Lewis, the active real estate man who secured the site for the church.

And now that the date for removal is set and the plans for remodeling almost complete enthusiasm is running wild in the congregation—plans for a rousing financial rally are on foot and it is hoped that there will not be a drone in the flock.

The pastor, Rev. Mc Mickens, is a splendid young man, and an excellent Christian gentleman whose experience and aducational qualification well fit him to lead the church in its efforts at this time and it is hoped by the general public that their efforts at this time will be a howling success.

ALUMNI ORATORICAL CONTEST

1915-16 Students and Graduates to Compete

"How our conduct at home and abroad affects ourselves and our race" will be discussed at an oratorical contest, May 9th, at Wesley Chapel M. E. church, under the auspices of the Southern California Alumni Association. The receipts of the affair will go into the association's scholarship aid fund, for the annual scholarship prize of fifty ($50) dollars, to be awarded in June, to the California student graduating with the highest average scholarship rating.

Students and Graduates Invited

All students of the various schools, and all 1915 and 1916 graduates, are invited to enter the contest at once, by giving their written notice to either of the undersigned committeemen. No person may enter the contest after the next meeting of the association, April 9, as the program will be made up then—one month before the date of the contest, May 9th.

The Contest

Fifteen minutes will be allowed for each speaker to render, without reading (notes will be permitted), his original oration on the subject mentioned above. Three judges, from outside of the association, will be elected by the association.

DEBS FLAYS BAD MOTION PICTURE

Socialists' Leader Says Birth of a Nation Evades Southern Men's Deeds

THOMAS DIXON HIT HARD

Stalwart Terre Haute Man Shows Conclusively That Movies Does Not Square With Historical Facts.

(New York Age)

Recent elections in Terre Haute have been as bad as those pictured in "The Birth of a Nation," which movie shows colored militia driving whites away from the polls in the South, according to a scathing criticism of the movie by Eugene V. Debs, noted Terre Haute Socialist. Debs' criticism follows:

The Birth of a Nation"

Editor Post: The merits of this spectacular drama excite bitter comments whenever it is presented. There is no question that it is a wonderful production, that many of its scenes are tense and thrilling, and that there is much in the play to approve and commend, but if the author's studied purpose was to insult the black race and to revive and intensify the bitter prejudices which grew out of the war he could not have better succeeded, and it would be passing strange if the colored people did not protest against certain shocking features of the drama as doing them and their race grossest injustice.

If it be absolutely essential to the play to represent those harrowing rape scenes, then why not round them out in their historic completeness and show the dissolute son of the plantation owners ravishing the black daughter before her parents' eyes?

For every white woman raped in the South by a black fiend a thousand black women have been seduced and outraged by white gentlemen, but no hint of this is given in the series of pictures composing "The Birth of a Nation." It is only the black brute that is guilty, according to this and all other stories written about the colored man by Thomas Dixon, the author, who also calls himself a minister of Christ.

Four Million Mulattoes

There are four million mulattoes in this country, most of whom were born out of wedlock and all of whom have a white father or grandfather, and these white gentlemen are ready to fight at the drop of the hat for "white supremacy" and against "nigger equality."

The pretended reverence for Lincoln in the play does not at all square with the facts of history. Lincoln was hated with a savage hate by the slave owners of the South, and it was this ferocious hate that culminated in his assassination, and the reverence now shown hi mon the stage is a convenient mask behind which the same blind hate may vent itself upon the unoffending colored man.

Shameless Exploitation

Let it not be overlooked that all histories have been written by white men and that colored men had no hand in them. They simply had to take what was given them, but even at that there is no denying the fact that from the time the colored people were first stolen from their native land by white slave traders whom it were flattery to call brutes, until the last law disfranchising them in the South was put into effect and the last "Jim Crom' car put into commission to attest their standing as live stock, the whole history of the treatment of the colored race is one of shameless exploitation and degredation, for which the white race can never atone in time nor eternity.

If the black people today could tell their story about "The Birth of a Nation" it would be replete with scenes infinitely more cruel and damning than those based upon Dixon's novel and flashed upon the screen to conceal the white man's crimes behind the colored man's misfortune.

Klan Glorified

The Ku-Klu-Klan are glorified in these pictures as spotless knights, the personification of chivalry and honor, and the audience applauds madly as they dash to the rescue of some imaginary white victim of a black fiend, but care is taken not to portray any of the outrages perpetrated upon defenseless, unoffending colored people by these same lawless night-riders.

The pictures showing the scenes about the polling places on election day under colored domination are especially calculated to subject the colored people to ridicule and contempt, and the white audience never fails to attest its appreciation by its sneers and cheers.

Life in Terre Haute

It's true such election scenes with their black sluggers and their sodden corruption are disgraceful and revolting, but how much more disgraceful and revolting are they than the election scenes which have occurred in and about Terre Haute during the last few years—scenes in which the sluggers were white instead of black, and insulted white ladies instead of black wenches; scenes unspeakably low and vile, as everyone will admit who bore witness to them.

How would it do to make pictures of some of these and travel through the south with them, flashing them upon a screen to show the colored people in that section what an eminently respectable thing an election is when dominated by white men and by what pure and incorruptible methods the will of the people is expressed in a civilized white community?

Whites Also to Blame

If the white race has demonstrated its "superiority" in any one thing it is in its politics and elections, and if colored people should bes disfranchised, the evident purpose of Dixon's pictures, because of their disgraceful conduct at the polls, then by the same token white men should be also stripped of their ballot and driven from the polling places.

The chief commercial statistics exhibited at the close of the play to show the progress made by the colored race is but a weak attempt to excuse the wanton insults heaped upon that race. Intelligent colored men will not be deceived. The progress they have made is mainly due to themselves. They owe little to the white race as a whole, save their exploitation and degradation.

Must Depend on Selves

Let the Colored people learn how to depend upon themsselves, how to do for themselves, and to win their own way in the world. When they cut loose from the grafting politicians that use them as pawns in the political game and reward one of their number with a spittoon-cleaning job in recognition of their race, and stand together; when they begin in earnest to educate themselves, to develop their minds and do their own thinking they will command the respect of the white race and of the world, but not before.

EUGENE V. DEBS.

Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 6, 1916.

INDEPENDENT LEAGUE AT WATTS HOLD ROUSING MEETING

On last Monday evening the League held an overflowing meeting at their hall.

Many questions of interest were taken up and acted upon, they gave their unanimous indorsement to the candidacy of Jacob Hohn for trustee at the coming election, and will look to a man for his election. The league is assured of a strong support from other sources and with the present line up there is every assurance for success.

Endorse John S. Lang

The League also endorsed John S. Lang, present trustee, and in this they desire to go on record as to also endorsing him as a candidate for supervisor of the Fourth Supervisorial district.

This action was unanimous. The League looks on Mr. Lang as a man who stands absolutely for a square deal for everybody. His every public act has been for the advancement of all the citizens and for that reason they are for John Lang for anything to which he may aspire.

James and Titus Moore are both stars at the Pasadena high school this term.

The tract team of P.H.S. went to San Diego Saturday to play the San Diego high school and beat them 2 to 1.

James Moore won the 880-yard run and his brother Titus won the high jump.

Dr. H. D. Prowd, the new pastor of the Second Baptist church in Los Angeles, has a married daughter living in Atlanta, Ga. She is the wife of Prof. Brawley, the dean of the Moorehouse college in that city.

The citizens of Los Angeles have organized a Roosevel club. Mr. Allen is the president.

There are 29 women prisoners in the San Francisco jails.

At Dubuque, Ia., Monday of the 286 women voters, it is said that 200 of them voted wet, insuring the victory of the liquor interests. So we should look after our women as well as our men.

Mesdames E. H. Bailey and Alice Shaw were the guests of Mrs. J. B. Bass to dinner Sunday in Los Angeles.

Rev. J. C. Moore preached at the A.M.E. church Sunday evening. Many strangers were at the church. It is the Sabbeth home for strangers.

CANDIDATES, DON'T BE FOOLED!

There are now a number of so-called Negro newspapers, campaign sheets, being launched in this city for the sole purpose of holding up candidates for public office this Spring and Fall. Such mercenary sheets have neither a mailing list nor any bona fide subscribers. This information can be authenticated by looking on the paper above the editorial columns for the printed statement that the paper has been admitted to the mails. If this does not appear, the paper is a fake pure and simple. Any money paid to such papers buys for you neither circulation of your printed matter nor the influence that is represented to go with it.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Concerning certain libelous publications appearing against me is certain quarters, I wish to inform the public that every statement, suggestion or insinuation that I have ever in my life received a penny for any purpose and refused to do as I agreed to do, is a wilful lie, and the authors and peddlers of any such statement know the same to be a lie, and utter the same only for the purpose of inviting public controversy. I refuse to be drawn into public controversy, and for that reason I a mhereby warning the public to regard all such stuff uttered in the past and in the future, as malicious lies. I am fully prepared to prove the lie to any responsible parties who may apply to me.

KANSANS IN TOWN

A few of our old time acquaintances from Topeka, Kans., were in the city this week in the persons of J. H. Lawson, H. W. Scott and Abe Dowdell. These young men are in the Santa Fe service. They report Nick Chiles and Ira Smith and the rest of Topeka as the real goods. They left Monday for home, after inspecting the home of the soaring Eagle.

G. W. Gordon, one of the proprietors of the Angeles theater, after a week's stay at San Diego, returned to the city and is back at his post on Central Ave.

THE H. G. OTIS CAMP NO. 1 DEPARTMENT OF THE COLUMBIA.

Entertain Its Friends and the General Public With Brilliant Affair

Tuesday evening at their beautiful hall in the Hall of Records the Camp members entertained their friends with a splendid literary program, and delightful refreshments.

Those who appeared on the program were as follows: Music by orchestra; prayer by Parson "Mac;" address, "The Purpose of the Order," by Capt. Crumbly, who ably outlined the work of the order, commending certain members for service well rendered.

The name and valor of the deceased Col. Allen Allensworth was also mentioned, and in loving memory the audience was asked to stand on its feet while a word of thanksgiving was offered for this life that so well lived that he still lives in our hearts and minds. The duett by Messrs. Wheaton and Mitchell was well rendered, as was the piano selection by Miss Hazel Gottschalk.

Miss Maud Roberts read an original poem which was up to her standard of doing things.

Comrade William Turner captivated the house with two songs.

Comrade William Quarles was master of the cornet.

Editor J. B. Bass delivered an able address.

EAST EIGHTH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

On last Sunday morning Bro Biglow preached on a very interesting subject, it being a continuation of the one he preached several weeks ago, "Are We Still Living Under the Law of Moses?"

In the evening a nice crowd came out to hear Miss Bertha Miller's piano pupils as they entertained us on that occasion. There were 15 in all, and though young in age, all did themselves justice and the audience was greatly pleased with their performance. Miss Miller is a very promising young lady of talent, and we thank and wish her and all her pupils the greatest success possible. On Sunday Bro. McMickens will preach.

A letter from Mme. Pauline Brooks-Daniels, arriving at New Orleans, May 5th, was received by Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Moore, her brother-in-law, whose reception was very cordial and welcome and through whom she has made many agreeable and admiring acquaintance. She expects to remain in the city about three weeks, thence to the principal cities in Texas, arriving in Los Angeles about the last week in July. She says she is enjoying the best of health, the first impressions have been very encouraging and she anticipates a successful tour.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Johnson, 1109 Clanton street, Tuesday evening, May 16, Miss Clareta Todd, niece of Mrs. Johnson, became the wife of W. M. D. Martin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. W. Kinchen to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Lauretta Butler. The bride entered the beautifully decorated living room on the arm of her uncle, Ellis Johnson. Mr. Martin was accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Laura Todd. After the ceremony the many friends and relatives enjoyed vocal selections from Miss Juaneta Patton, Mmes. Ruth Todd-Robinson, Helena Smith and Master H. Patton. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be at home to friends at 1435 E. 23rd street June 15.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the whist party given by Mrs. Cook, on Glassell street, last Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Ferguson of Chicago. The guests were Mmes. T. Butler, De Jenette, McKinney, Henry Robison, Earnest Russell, Cornelius, Dorsey and Osburne. The first prize was won by Mrs. Butler; second by Mrs. Russell and third by Mrs. Cornelius. Dainty refreshments were served and all declared a delightful afternoon spent.

George Jones of Venice, using the charming home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, delightfully entertained Mrs. Maud Bentley of Santa Monica last Tuesday evening with a dinner, dance and musical in honor of her birthday. The house was attractively decorated, the color scheme being carried out in yellow and white. A large and beautiful birthday cake of white, with yellow inscriptions, graced the center of the table, while a wonderful feast was spread around the cake. About 26 guests enjoyed the evening.

Charming in every detail was the pretty whist party given by Mrs. Thomas Fellow, Mrs. Gertrude Kelley and Mrs. Gerald Mays at the residence of Mrs. Pillow in honor of Mrs. Randall and Mrs. R. C. Owens last Friday afternoon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing whist, after which dainty refreshments were served.

On Sunday afternoon, May 14, at the First Street Baptist church, Mothers' Day was duly observed under the suspices of the Federated clubs of San Diego. The meeting was opened by singing the Federated club song, "In the Ranks," and prayer was offered by Rev. W. A. Mitchell; Miss Windolin Logan played a piano solo; paper by Mrs. Moody; recitation by Edna Shannon; vocal solo by Miss May Harris; recitation, 'Too Late," Mrs. Thompson; instrumental solo, Elizabeth Perry; paper, "Mother's Love," by Mrs. Wallace; solo, "Silent Prayer," by Elsie Perry; reading, "Somebody's Mother," by Mrs. Glyn; vocal solo, by Mrs. Inez Harris, recitation, "The Battlefield." The third vice-president of the Federation made a talk on Mothers' Day, as did also Rev. W. A. Michell, Rev. T. Allen Harvey and Rev. C. Williams; also Mrs. Nelson, (chairman of the program committee) gave a talk, also Mrs. Thomson. Collection for the afternoon, $7.80.

Mr. Editor: Please permit me to say through your paper that we should honor our great men and revere their names after death. Has the time come that we should not? Have we gone so high up in the social world that we so lightly regard those who give their lives for our advancement, that we should drag their names in the lowest pit? It should be painful to the heart of every negro in the United States to see the name of him who gave his life to teach us how to respect each other and protect each other's good name brought down to the dust. In the San Diego Evening Tribune on Wednesday, the 10th, was an article commenting on a party of colored men on the streets with music advertising a Booker T. Washington ball. Is it possible that the young negroes have so little respect for the Christian religion and the principle this good man represented that they should dare to connect his name with a ball, and to cap it all the whole party landed in jail for disturbing the peace? Is that the way we honor our great men? Does that bring honor to the Race? Does it put any value upon the work this great man spent his life in trying to do? Every negro in these United States should see to it that that the name of this great hero of the Race should be lifted up and not cast down. Booker T. Washington's name was inscribed upon the greatest Book of all ages, the Book of Life, who's keeper is Christ.

C. Williams.

Mrs. Smith of 744 3rd street is expected to return to San Diego this week.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey is progressing nicely with his rally.

Among the visitors to our city we notice Mr. Pentegas, Mr. Brown, who is in from the Exposition, Peal Ramsey, who has returned after a month's stay in the North, Miss Willa Hosman from La Jolla, who attends the races dressed in the latest fashion, Miss L. Newlin, one of the fashion plates from New York, and many others.

A fine baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Little at their residence, 720 3rd street. Baby weighed 10 pounds. Both mother and baby reported doing well.

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Al Ramsey weighing 7 pounds. Both mother and daughter doing fine.

M. T. Laws, business manager of the Eagle, has been confined to his bed for several days and is still under the doctor's care.

The Wayfayers club had an opening last Tuesday, May 16. Quite a number were out.

Last Monday night there were more people at the Savoy theater than ever before, that is, they were in couples; usually gents go alone, but the plays have been so far above the average that gentlemen now take their lady friends. How nice! What an improvement. It shows that the people appreciate good shows.

There are a great many San Francisco people in the city.

The races are well attended by the sports from Los Angeles.

Joe Stansel is in a very bad condition at his mother's home on Menlo street. He has taken a setback from the bullet wound received accidentally a little over a month ago.

Miss Helen Randolph has returned home, having spent six weeks with her relatives at Long Beach. She reports having had a nice time.

On last Sunday the Mt. Zion Baptist church gave an auxiliary rally. The president of each auxiliary being called upon to raise the collections. The Missionary society, Mrs. S. Freeman, president, reported $3:15; the B.Y.P.U., Mrs. C. E. Norwood, president, $7.24; the Carnation club, Mrs. L. E. Goodwin, president, $11.49; the Sunday-school, Mrs. J. W. Gray acting superintendent, $1.36. Total collected, $23.24. The rally was given to raise money to furnish the parsonage.

The Olander club, which was organized about a month ago, met Friday afternoon at Miss Annie Mulholland's, the president of the club. Miss Mulholland will entertain again Friday afternoon, at which meeting the by-laws and constitution will be read. Mrs. C. E. Norwood, the chaperon of the club, has a cordial invitation to be present as a guest, as she intends leaving San Diego for Los Angeles, on a two or three week's stay. The girls are sorry to have her go, but Mrs. Norwood thinks she needs a rest. But can she rest in Los Angeles?

Mrs. L. L. Alexander paid $4 on her Eagle subscription.

On last Sunday afternoon Mrs. L. Alexander and her daughter, Miss Cook, entertained at luncheon Mrs. Reynolds and Master Clifford Reynolds, Mrs. Senorita H. Zamorano and her company. A delightful afternoon was passed.

Rev. C. Williams preached a very interesting sermon at Mt. Zion Sunday evening, "Courtship" being his subject. On next Sunday the subject will be on "Marriage." Come out and hear what he has to say.

Fire in the clothes cleaning establishment of W. W. Williams on 4th, north of Market street, caused damage to the extent of $300 shortly after 9 a.m. Thursday. Clothes hanging too close to a gasolene stove were ignited, it is said. Besides the loss of a number of suits, the building, a one-story brick, with wood roof and interior finish, was damaged by the flames, which burned through a partition. There was no insurance. S. J. Wines is the owner of the building.

Cheerfulness

God bless the cheerful person, man, woman or child, old or young illiterate or educated, handsome or homely. Over and above every other social trait stands cheerfulness. What the sun is to nature, what the stars are to night, what God is to the stricken heart which knows how to lean upon Him, are cheerful persons in the house and by the wayside. Man recognizes the magic of a cheerful influence in woman more quickly and more willingly than the potency of dazzling genius of commanding worth, or even of enslaving beauty.

If we are cheerful and contented all nature smiles with us; the air seems more balmy, the sky more clear, the ground has a brighter green, the trees a richer foliage, the flowers a more fragrant smell, the birds sing more sweetly and the sun, moon and stars all appear more beautiful.

Cheerfulness! How sweet in infancy, how lovely in youth, how saintly in age. There are a few noble natures whose presence carries sunshine with them wherever they go; a sunshine which means pity for the poor, sympathy for the suffering, help for the unfortunate, and benignity toward all. How such a face enlivens every other face it meets and carries into every company vivacity and joy and gladness. But the the scowl and frown begotten in a selfish heart and manifesting itself in daily, almost hourly fretfulness, complaining, fault finding, angry criticisms, spiteful comments on the motives and actions of others, how they thin the cheek, shrivel the face, sour and sadden the countenance. No joy in the heart, no nobility in the soul no generosity in the nature; the whole character as cold as an iceberg, as hard as Alpine rock, as arid as the waste of Sahara.

Look on the bright side. keep the sunshine of a living faith in the heart. Do not let the shadow of discouragement and despondency fall on your path, however weary you may be, the promises of God will never cease to shine like the stars at night, to cheer and strengthen. Learn to wait as well as labor, the best harvests are the longest in ripening. It is not pleasant to work in the earth plucking the ugly tares and weeds, but it is necessary as sowing the seed, the harder the task the more need of singing. A hopeful spirit will discern the silver lining of the darkest cloud, for back of all planning and doing with its attendant discouragements and hinderance shines the light of Divine promise and help.

Be cheerful for it is the only happy life, the times may be hard, but it will make them no earier to wear a gloomy and sad countenance, it is the sunshine and not the cloud that makys the flower. There is always that before or around us which should fill the heart with warmth, The sky is blue ten times where it is black once. You have troubles, it may be, so have other, none are free from them; perhaps it is as well that none should be; they give sinew and tone to life, fortitude and courage to man. It would be a dull sea and the sailor would never get skilled, if there was nothing to disturb the surface of the ocean. It is the duty of every one to extract all the happiness and enjoyment he can without and and within him, and above all he should look on the bright side of things, even though they look a little dark the lane will turn and the night will end in broad day. In the long run the great balance rights itself; what is ill becomes well, what is wrong becomes right. Men are not made to hang down either heads or lips and those who do only show that that they are departing from the paths of true common sense and right, there is more virtue in one sunbeam than a whole hemisphere of cloud and gloom. Therefore, we repeat, look on the bright side of things, cultivate what is warm and genial, not the cold and repulsive, the dark and morose. Don't neglect your duty, live down predjudice.

We always know the cheerful man by his hearty "good morning" don't forget to say it; say it to your parents' your brothers and sisters, your schoolmates, your teachers, and say it cheerfully and with a smile, it will do you good and do your friends good. There's a kind of inspiration in every "good morning" heartily and smilingly spoken that helps to make hope fresher and work lighter. It seems really to make the morning good and a prophecy of a good day to come. If this be true of the "good morning" it is also of all kind, cheerful greetings; they cheer the discouraged, rest the tired one, and somehow make the wheels of time run more smoothly. Be liberal then and let no morning pass, however dark and gloomy it may be, that you do not help at least to brighten it by your smiles and cheer.

The cheerful are the busy; when trouble knocks at your door or rings the bell he will generally retire if you send him word engaged and a busy life cannot well be other wise than cheerful. Frogs do not croak in running water and active minds are seldom troubled with gloomy forebodings, they come only from stagnant depths of a spirit unstirred by generous impulses or the blessed necessities of honest toil. The industrious bee stops not to complain that there are so many poisonous and thorny branches in his road but buzzes on, selecting the honey where he can find it and passing quietly by the places where it is not. There is enough in this world to complain

Common Sense Thrift

We believe that a man with money in the Bank is a better citizen than he otherwise would be.

The only way to get ahead in money matters is to save systematically a portion of your income and deposit it regularly in a strong, conservative bank, such as this, where it will earn a good rate of interest.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST
(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)
Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Although the pastor was compelled to be absent Sunday, the services were well attended. The senior deacon, Bro. J. A. Shaffer very efficiently couducted the services. At the morning session Rev. N. Price preached, The evenieg sermon was delivered by Bro. J. J. Joseph, a promising young preacher of this church. The choir seemed to have been at its best and rendered excellent and appropriate Mother's Day music.

Sunday promises to be another great day, the pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services. All are welcome, come early if you desire a seat. Statements of the second quarterly conferenc held May 3rd, 1916, have been published and can be secured free of charge, by applying to the pastor or any of the officers.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Mothers Day was fittingly observed the pastor speaking in the morning on "The Influence of Mothers." The church was beautifully decorated with white carnations.

Services Sunday: Sunday school 10 a.m. Preaching by the pastor 11:15 a m and 8 p m. Morning; "The True Estimate of Men;" evening, "The Syrian Leper." Christian Endeavor 7 p m. topic, "The Blessing of Peace and How to Get Them," led by Mrs. J. W. Byars. You are cordially invited to these services.

Bethel Church of Christ

Sunday school was taught with great interest by the teachers. A very helpful address was delivered by the superintendent. The school close with the reading of the minutes by Recorder Mrs. T. M. Washington.

At 11 o'clock, invocation by Rev. Rosemon which aroused the hearts of the congregation. Scripture was read by the pastor, Joal 3:10.

The afternoon service was open by Sister E. L. Lewis singing hymn No. 11 The pastor preached a very profitable sermon.

At 6 p m the Young People's Christian League held a very interesting service. The evening service was at 8.

The Bethel church will hold its 7th anniversary the 4th Sunday in this month. All pastors and their congregations are invited. Rev. E. W. Kinchen will preych at 3 p m and Rev. Tilman will preach at 7 p m.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.

Zion is now a church of beauty since the outside has been repaired and painted. Our pastor, Rev. Byers, is away at general conferance in Louisville, Ky., and will be gone for 3 more weeks, during the interim Rev. G. W. Reed of Stockton, post-graduate in child work for the church, a brilliant speaker and traveling evangelist, will occupy the pulpit,

Zion has another rally known as the Fishermen's Club Rally which is for the purpose of paying off the expense of repairs. The 3rd Sunday in June is rally day.

Zion's Sunday school is one of the largest and is still growing under its able head, Prof. J. C. Banks.

Monday at 7:30 p m the Fishermen's Club will entertain the lady members and invited friends. Refreshment and program. No admission.

Wesley Chapel

The services Sunday morning will always live in the minds of the people who were present. The splendid addresses by Dr. Stovall, Miss Margie Danley, Augustus Greene and Douglas Warren thrilled every person the church The church was thronged in the afternoon with Odd Fellows and the Household of Ruth. Pastor Kinchen preached their annual sermon for the fourth time

Sunday the pastor will preach at 11 a m and at 3 p m he will preach the annual sermon of the Ancient United Knight and Daughters of Africa. The evening services will be in charge of the Epworth League, Bro. J. A. Jackson, president.

Pastor Kinchen will say a word Sunday relative to a statement made by an attorney at one of the churches on last Sunday about the general conferance of the M.E. church at Sarotoga Springs The statement that because the newspapers report the proceedings of the general conference are silent on other similar conferences that is an indication of the disorder at Saratoga Springs which is a falsehood.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)
Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Sunday was a great day at Firs church. Large crowds were present both morning and evening. At the morning services the ladies of the Mite Missionary Society gave out white carnations in honor of "Mother's Day." The sermon by Rev. H. H. Williamson was a spiritual feast. The choir as usual rendered excellent music. The appeal made by Mrs. C. Barr, for the Day Nursey was responded to liberally by the large congregation. At the evening services Mrs. J. L. Craw delivered her first sermonette to the delight of all.

The pastor sends greetings to all members and friends and says he is well, but busily engaged in the work of the great general conference.

Sunday promises to be another spiritual feast. We will have with us another of our able visiting ministers.

The Red and Blue contest is on full blast in our Sunday school. There were 151 present last Sunday, the red side was ahead. This contest closes Children's Day night.

Tuesday evening the pastor's wife and mother were completely surprised by a number of members and friends who gave them a pound party. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Pasadena News

The branch office of the Eagle in Pasadena has moved from 26 E. Colorado to 45 South Delacy. All mail will be sent to the above address, while the main office is at 814 Central avenue, Los Angeles. The phone number is Main 1594. S. B. Carr has charge of the local office. Please notify him if you fail to get your paper, as that is the only way that he has to know it.

It is reported that the Pasadena High School will send Titus Moore to Chicago to compete with the High School Tract meet in June. He has already won the championship of California in the high jump, and the P.H.S. think he can bring back the bacon from Chicago.

We regret to hear that Prof Moore is to remove back East. This will be a great loss to Pasadena society, as well as to the High School, as both the boys, Titus and James, are stars at P.H.S.

Howard Drew is again in the city and will enter U.S.C. this fall. What is the trouble with the Day nursery?

The greatest revival ever held in this city has just closed. It was conducted by Rev. F. F. Moten of Los Angeles. It was held at the A.M.E. church of Pasadena.

Rev. Dyatt is a happy man, and he has few equals on the Coast as a Christian minister. Many have joined the church.

Don't forget Monday night at Wesley chapel, when the choir from Scott chapel will journey to Los Angeles and give a concert. Mrs. Beavers is not leaving a stone unturned to make it a grand success, so let us all go over and help her.

Buy rolling stock, not mining. F. M. Prince, L. S. Baker, W. B. Carr and Wm. Prince now have autos, while Willie Carr has purchased a motorcycle.

Mrs. Walter Carr entertained a few friends Wednesday evening in honor of her husband's birthday, it being the thirtieth anniversary of his birth.

Dr. Nelson is enjoying a fine practice in this city.

J. Braye was in the city Wednesday in the interest of an industrial school for colored people.

Another preacher goes wrong and gets 15 years in State's prison for it, Rev. Madison Slaughter of Oroville, Cal., convicted of improper relations with a 15-year-old girl. While we believe that a call to the ministry is the highest call that comes to man, yet we believe that if all of them would get justice while on earth there would be many a vacant pulpit. As a rule they do more to keep our race divided than any other set of professional men in our Race, but Rev. Slaughter was not a member of our Race, but was a servant of God. Remember that the saints are in heaven.

We regret to learn that Rev.

An Eulogy to My Father, Rev. S. L. Harris

When the evening sun is setting,
Far off in the golden west
And my thoughts begin to wander,
To the ones that I love best.

How my heart breaks down in sorrow
And how tears bedim my eyes
As I think of you, dear papa,
Way up yonder in the skies.

It's almost a year, dear papa,
But to us it seems a day
Since you left us, oh, so sudden
To go so far away.

When we sit and think and wonder
It seems but as a dream,
That now you should be away forever,
No more on earth be seen.

But when I close my eyes in slumber
And the world is fast asleep
It is you who comes and whispers,
I am happy, do not weep.

And I hear your sweet voice calling
And I see your pleasant smile.
Then I ask myself the question,
Is our crying worth the while?

He is happy, why should we sorrow
And let tears bedim our eyes.
Let's strive to meet him on the morrow
And live with him above the skies.

Sleep on, dear papa, sleep thou on,
Angels thy vigil's keep
Nothing, no nothing but the trumpet of God
Shall disturb thy slumber deep.

And when our work on earth is done
And we receive the final call.
We shall meet you mother, and the rest in heaven
To help crown Him Lord of all.

—Your daughter, A. C. H. Bildrew.

Sister Dolly Lewis is dangerously ill at Jefferson, Ky., and has been for four weeks, but at this writing it is reported she is some better. We pray that she may recover and soon return to her home in this city. She is a member of Scott chapel and was a great assistant to the late Dr. Duncan while he was pastor of Scott chapel.

The Missionary Society will render a special high class musical and literary program at the Metropolitan Social Hall, 140 Waverly Drive, Pasadena, on next Thursday evening, May 25.

The program will be rendered by some of the best talent of Pasadena; in addition to this other prominent persons of Los Angeles will take part. Dr. H. D. Prowd of the Second Baptist church will speak, and his daughter, Miss Helen Prowd, will render her favorite piano selection. Mrs. A. F. Webber, president of the Women's Convention Auxiliary of the State Baptist Convention of California, will also speak.

Some of the social features will be a pond and post office. This, together with other amusements will constitute the evening's ovation.

Don't fail to be present. Admission free.

MRS. MARY EDWARDS,
President.
MRS. C. MAE HARTS, Sec.

Those of the delegates from the Grand Circle which convened in San Francisco returned Friday morning, in person of Mmes. Anglen, R. C. Sims and Corry of Pasadena. They report a delightful time spent, but said they were glad to get back where the sun was shining.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Providence Inst. church will have services Sunday by Rev. E. Payne at 7:30 p. m. Rev. A. G. Williams will also speak. All the clubs are at work again and will report the fourth Sunday in this this month. All welcome.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes

Last Sunday was a high one in Zion, the pastor occupying the pulpit. Two openly confessed to the Lord Jesus, one being a woman nearly 60 years of age. Sunday Dr. Moten will preach. Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock. Services at 8 p. m.

Tabernacle Church

Last Sabbath was gloriously passed at the Tabernacle church, the pastor filling his pulpit both morning and evening.

The Sabbath school was well attended. The pastor preached an eloquent sermon in the morning taking as his text, "The Presence of Christ," which held the large congregation all attention.

Bible study every evening from 7 until 8. All welcome.

2nd Baptist Church of Monrovia

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised, was the motto at 2nd Baptist Sunday. Rev. Jones of Tabernacle church preached an excellent sermon at 11 o'clock. Mothers' day was observed at the evening service. The pastor delivered a special sermon to the mothers for the occasion. The choir rendered special music for the occasion.

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church
1406 Newton Street

Services were well attended Sunday. The pastor preached at both services.

Mrs. Spear-Bass addressed the Epworth League. Her address was full of good wholesome thought and inspiration to all who heard her.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Anderson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Colbert for dinner Sunday at their home in Boyle Heights.

There will be a lecture given for the benefit of one of the clubs June 5th. An excellent program is being arranged for the occasion. Notice and full particulars later.

The neighbors and friends of Mrs. M. J. Davis tendered her a very pleasant little party on last Tuesday evening on her arrival home from San Diego, where she had been for the last three weeks. Mrs Davis stated that her trip was very beneficial, and being organizer of the State Federation of Colored Women's clubs she was invited to visit several of the local clubs, two of which she makes special mention. The Friday club which is so well known all over the state for its hospitality to visitors and strangers, and whose every meeting is a reception, upheld by the dignity of their most efficient president, Mrs. E. J. Freeman. The club observed Shakespeare's Day with a most excellent program.

The Old Ladies' Helping Hand club was an inspiration. They are taking care of their sick and burying their dead and doing a great work. Mrs. Woodley, acting president. Having seen the sights and visited the Exposition two days as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Winston, do truly say that she never spent a more profitable vacation in her life, thanks to the San Diego ladies and to the sunshine and flowers.

ATTORNEY E. BURTON CERUTI SCORES GREAT VICTORY IN MILLER MURDER TRIAL AT SANTA BARBARA

Special to The California Eagle

In the Miller murder trial, which is now on in this city, every inch of the ground is being stubbornly contested by both sides. So far in the preliminaries the defense by Chief Counsel E. Burton Ceruti, assisted by Judge Gammil of this city, have out-maneuvered and out-generalled the prosecution and on Thursday on motion of the defense, six jurors, after having been sworn in were discharged and the peremptory challenges restored to the defense. This point was bitterly contested by District Attorney Squires, who argued at length against it, but to no avail. Attorney Ceruti is demonstrating his worth as a criminal lawyer and is the cynosure of all eyes as he is making a strenuous battle for the life of his client.

This is the 16th day since the trial has started and no one at this time will hazard a guess as to its finish. Venire after venire has been called and exhausted. There are many jurors who deliberately disqualify themselves from service. There are also those who have probably seen the Clansman and say right out that on account of Race prejudice they could not give the defendant a fair trial. It seems as though some of them are steeped much farther in the depths of ignorance and superstition than the Black Race, and as a result thereof have an innate prejudice and cannot assert a reason therefor. This condition makes the task of securing a jury a hard one. In the meantime many witnesses are chafing under their enforced absence from their homes and their business, but there is no help for it, they have no alternative but to stick until discharged by the court when the state and defense have closed their presentation of evidence.

Jury Has Been Obtained

On Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, just 24 days since the trial of Tom Miller started, was the last juror selected to sit on his trial. The evidence is now being heard and it is predicted that by Monday or Tuesday of next week the trial will be finished.

The battle will rage over the insanity issue, which will be the defense offered, hence the state's testimony in chief is only perfunctory, but they will make their great effort in rebuttal.

To one on the ground it looks like the defense has a stronger case than at the first trial, notwithstanding the record of a conviction for first degree murder in its favor, the state will have to go some to procure the same verdict this time.

And any sort of verdict they render outside of first degree murder without recommendation will be a notable victory for the defense.

HITTING THEIR STRIDE

DOING THINGS WORTH WHILE

Take a look at Central Avenue this week between 8th and 12th streets, and if you have ever doubted the part the Negro is playing in this march of progress that doubt will disappear even at the snow fades under the rays of the noonday sun. This great galaxy of business concerns of which you have read—and now the great big new home of the Angelus theater is being erected, thirty to forty mechanics and laborers on the job. A colored contractor, colored brick layers, carpenters, plasterers, etc. The money to build the same is the product of that pioneer business man of the West and his energetic partner, viz., J. W. Gordon and F. A. Williams. These gentlemen, for their thrift, for their confidence in loyalty of their Race, and for the reason they are doing something which is a distinct benefit to their Race, should by all means have their unanimous backing in their efforts in this city. They are furnishing the avenue from which we as a Race must be able to traverse before we can come up in the mercantile pursuits.

Go out Central Avenue way. Go and see for yourself that this people in this, the metropolis of the Pacific Coast, are coming, Father Abraham, 30,000 strong, and then you will feel as we feel, that we are hitting our sride and are doing the things worth while.

IN ERROR—APOLOGY FOR SAME

Rushing to press last week and our Santa Barbara correspondence reaching us late, too late to read even the proof, an article slipped both the managing editor and editor of this paper. Said article cast reflection upon the credit of Mr. R. H. Hite. We desire to apologize to Mr. Hite, without even being asked to do so, for the appearance of said article. While the same appeared under head of Santa Barbara notes and was not written by us, we are responsible for all matter in these columns and we still maintain the principle of all men up and no man down, and when we err, we do not feel too big to own up the same. More especially when the same is not within the law.

J. B. BASS, Editor.

They thunder, out prosperity is here, but everybody seems to be from Missouri and they must really be shown.

JUDGE JONES IS ALL RIGHT

We regret that Judge Griffin Jones has abdicated the bench of the Sunrise court, for since he has been thereon he has accomplished marvelous things for the cause of good citizenship in this community. He has reduced drunkenness in this city 50 per cent, has made many homes happy in doing so, and has gained for this city through his doing something worth while, a great publicity, so much so that many cities are adopting the rules made by Judge Jones in handling the situation here. But Judge Jones should worry, men of his worth will always be in demand and he will no doubt be called upon in a more pretentious manner to serve this people.

EDITORIAL SHORT STOPS

In a recent issue of The California Eagle it was stated that we as a Race were politically, after the Presidential Primaries, "Just where we started," and we added there was no occasion for rejoicing because the "regulars" won out. The truth of what we said has been strengthened by the contempt of the importance of that portion of the Negro vote that was loyal to them, as shown in the first meeting of the "regular delegates" in San Francisco, when they chose the 26 alternate delegates to the convention and did not select a single Negro. It is just such treatment that has cooled the ardor of many who fail to see the significance in calling a mere "political machine" a "party." "Machines," though do not usually reward their hirelings, as they have again and again boasted it is more convenient to pay before the election than to be under obligation after the election. If this is their claim now, of course, we haven't anything to say.

The "lilywhite republicans" have been busy in the South, and by the way, in some of the Western states. The National Republican Executive Committee will be in session a week before the meeting of the Convention, and will pass upon the prima facie rights of contested delegates to seats in the Convention. Louisiana, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida, Virginia, Oklahoma, Mississippi, District of Columbia and several other Southern states will have contesting delegations. In every instance it is the old fight of the "lilywhite" who contends that the Negro shall have no voice in National delegate convention, and the so-called "black-and-tan," who believe that no man entitled to a seat in the convention should be debarred because of Race or Color.

Let us be united in all of our Race endeavors. It is very plain that conditions are becoming more trying, and our lack of Race unity encourage those who would put obstacles in the way of our advancement.

Now that Pan-America, the governments of Central and South America, have issued the fiat: United States must not intervene in the affairs of Mexico, the Wilson administration has a hard nut to crack.

Edison, the great wizard of the electrical world, says that Theodore Roosevelt is worth more as a candidate for President, than all of the other mentioned candidates combined.

What has become of those Texas cowboys that went into Mexico to be avenged on the Mexican raiders. Like Villa they appear to have been lost in the "shuffle."

The Negro vote is the balancing power in six pivotal states. And his wants are too urgent to be passed up.

Sunday school lesson, always listened intently while the superintendent lectured and who was the first to "come thru" at the "moaners bench" and who, when patted on the head and asked tha question, "what are you going to be when you grow up my boy" spoke up quickly and said "I am going to be a minister of the gospel sir and carry the message to the heathen." The reason I say that Johnny should be such a "model" boy and then after reaching manhood prove to be the biggest rascal and bandit chief and associate with the toughest bunch since the days of Jesse James, is simply this; Johnny had "come into his own," the shackels of discipline and restraint had fallen away and Johnny was free. This is all that is accomplished by keeping the good apples from the bad ones, merely holping tight the reins of restraint, until with the coming of manhood the reins are jerked away and the wild horse is free.

A girl or boy, but I am speaking particularly of girls since I know more about the problems that confront them a girl of a strong noble character never worries when she comes in contact with all sorts and conditions of folk, we have to rub elbows with the commonest, and in many, many cases we come in very close contact with them.

There are some individuals who would rejoice greatly if they could have just their particular friends around them and never be thrown amongst the scum of the earth as they choose to call the unfortunates, to hold their own little coterie of friends and regard themselves as "Lacre'me de Societe." Personally I think they are nothing more than moral cowards, composed of the same stuff as jellyfish and possessing as much brain power as a gnat, as far as being able to grasp the highest and noblest in life is concerned. They are neglecting the most important duty of mankind, that of so strengthening the wall of character teat it will be impregnable to all the buffets that may assail it, for to destroy character is as easy as capturing a fortress by attacking it with cotton balls and just about as effective. A person possessed of a strong, clear, clean mind can look far above the sordid, petty, trivial things of life, and eternally look for the good and not the bad in his fellow creatures and is rarely if ever, disappointed. And all of us, despite our environments, will soar to the brightness of Glory or sink to the pit of Chaos, simply by hearkening to the whisperings of of the God or the Demon that is whinin us.

Most girls are independent, self reliant and worthy of a great deal of trust, at least the modern twentieth century girl is. Some mothers, bless their dear souls, worry themselves gray over their "only daughter" or perform the "anxious watching" act. Some lecture, pray, lecture and pray some more, really how foolish and useless are their tears ane lectures, if Mary or Jane or Molly insist upon going their own way and turning a deaf ear, as nine out of every ten do. It is all useless I say. Just let Mary, Jane or Molly realize that it is "up to her" to do right thing and "up to her" entirely. Have her to know that the desire to be a noble true woman and to acquire the most valuable asset—character, rests solely with her. Thus will end the useless and tiresome "anxious watching" performance on the part of so many mothers. I do not ask or expect you to assign this tirade to your selections entitled "memoirs" or paste it in the books on "hints to girls" or the book on "how a young girl should behave." Indeed I am perfectly willing that you should start the morning's fire or feed the cat his breakfast on it, should you feel so disposed. But I do desire that you berr in mind the fact, that to rightly enjoy life and get the most out of it, is to cherish those things that are finest and noblest, and which will abide forever in the hearts of us all.

RAILROAD NEWS

From the S. P. Bulletin, San Francisco

On January the 17th after an exceptional down pour the night before, a number of trains were delayed on the Tucson, Los Angeles and Coast divisions. They were held at points ch wi w to the convenience and comfort of passengers. The latter wherever held were unanimous in making the best of the situation. Employes at Yuma and the City itself "fairly out did" themselves in hospitality. On January the 19th the delayed passengers were given excursion thro alley. The principal points at which trouble had been encoutered in the south were at the throat of the Los Angeles Yard at White water on the El-Paso route and at Moorpark on the Coast Line. On January 20th the first clear day since the storm broke, the line from Los Angeles to Yumn was opened to traffic That night all regular main line passenger trains left Los Angeles on time via normal routes. On that morning the Southern Pacific was the only Transcontinental line entering Los Angles using its own rails, and in addition to this, we handled on Friday twenty detoured trains of other lines.

Passengers on Golden State Limited, No. 3 who were delayed at Indio, Cal, on Monday, January 17th owing to high water troubles, have expressed their appreciation of their treatment in the following resolutions addressed to the official of the Southern Pacific Company, the Rock Island Lines, the Pullman Company and the El Paso & Southwestern Railroad.

"Whereas, owing to unavoidable delay we remained at Indio until Thursday afternoon, the twentieth and in the meantime the flood waters from Monday night until Thursday would have prevented any of us from leaving the cars, and

"Where every convenience and comfort, even to the smallest detail were carefully provided and at no time were we with plenty of food, water, lights, linens, etc; and aside from the delay in arriving at our destination, none of us were inconvenienced in any way. In recongnition of this service it is hereby

"WORTHY OF HIGH-EST PRAISE"

"Resolved, that the courtesy efficiency and attention accorded us by the employes named is worthy of the highest praise. We are especially indebted to the Pullman conductor, Mr. J. M. Mayer, not only for conduct in performing his duties, but for arranging entertainment day and night. Also the special attention accorded us by the dining car steward, Mr. M. Kintsler, and the chef, Mr. E. P. Mohr, who provided us with good meals every day.

"A large hall in Indio was secured for parties, dances and concerts through the efforts of Mr. Lamport and Er. Ottf Shaffero and all railroad employes. A flat car carried the passengers to a temporary bridge and from there to the dangers and entertainments that were provided.

"Gratefut acknowledgement is also extended te those in charge of the train: Conductor J. P. Basset, Brakmen William Kling and A. W. Strahl, Observation Porter Fred Moore, Pullman Porters D. A. Gaithen, A. Webb, R. W. Gully, B. L. Glover, Dining Car Waiters H. C. Tolliver, J. Heard, E. S. Gilmore and William Smith, Second Cook E. C. Barcus and Third Cook Frank Fresh".

BY A TOURIST ON BOARD THE SHORE LINE LIMITED

From San Francisco to Los Angeles, Cal.

Isn't pleasant to encounter real courtsey and politeness in the public service? It is rather rare, but when I do find it I am tempted to grieve over my own short-comings Unfortunately I have always been accustomed to going after a man with an ax instead of a sofa pillow so it is that when we find politeness in departments of public service the community is to be congratulated, and the servant commended. In spite these grouch-provoking conditions the public will often find a porter who is polite, besides being faithluf and competent; such a one is a pleasure to the traveler and should be a satisfaction to the employing corporation. The porter who is alert, competent, genial and who understands every little problem of his route, is a treasure. Fortunately there are several. I have one in mind now. It is almost a pleasure to journey in his companionship. He is especially attentive to little children and equally attentive to the ladies, old or young, and is prompt with any little assistance that may be acceptable. He is neither officious or obsequious His attentions are only such as are welcome and proper, and with them goes sometimes a cheery word and always a cheery smile. For his politeness and courtesy, he should sometimes be excused in making mistakes. Apparently he plays an errorless game, in his humble way. He illustrates the virtue of courtesy, the gospel of consideration and the religion of politeness.

Why can't we all be decent, anyhow?

Brigham Scores Segregation in Mass in Bosfield Case

Apealls to white citizens to enlist against color line in civil service of our State.

The Boston Herald published yesterday the following letter by Mr. William D. Brigham, of the Equal Rights League and Wendell Phillips Memorial Association:

SEGREGATION IN MASSACHUSETTS. To the Editor of The Herald:

I write to awaken public interest in a case of segregation, not in Washington, nor Georgia but in the good old commonwealth of Masstchusetts. These are the admitted facts:

A colored young lady, a graduate of our high and Latin schools, who had studied stenography, passec successfulyl the civil service examination ,and in response to an invitation from the State, applied for a position as a stenographer and was assigned to the Medfield Insane Asylum. The head of the institutiou Dr. Edward Erench, refused to accept her. She then told Gov. Walsh, a Democratic Governor who wrote letter to the insan board. Dr. French then compelled her to sleep in a room over the morgue, obliged her to eat her meals, not in the dining room with the other employes, but sent her food her to on a tray. Upon her attempt to enter the dinning room he dismissed her for insuborcinatio. In making requisition for anouher stenographer he stipulated that she be "unmarried and white". The civil service commissioners notified that he could not legally discriminate as to color-

SHAMEFUL INJUSTICE: On these fact I wish to make these comments: It is a shameful injustice when a young lady, educated and refined of character unblemished, is denied becaused of the tint of her skin an opportunity to earn a living. How can the 10,000,000 of native Colored American citizens ever rise in this country if every door of opportunity is closed against them?

It is ungenerous and lacking in chivalry for the head of a great state institution to oblige a young lady of 20, away from home and friends in a lonely country town, to sleep in a building where corpses are kept, and to be excluded from the dining room. To insist that the 405 other employes would be contaminated by one colored girl is pregosterous.

Girl's father pays on salary of French: The head of this institutoon, Dr. French, is a fell w employe of the state. The young lady's father is a taxpayer and the people of Massachusetts pay the salaries, both of the superintendent and the stenographer.

Drew the Color Line Before: This same superintendent had a .ike experience with a young colored girl about a year ago under the same circumstances. This young lady was sent out to him at Medfield and he said on seeing her "You have deceived me; you should have told me you were colored." And she replied "You didn't ask me." He declined to employ her.

I think I appreciate the despair and even anguish many young colored people feel who are educated, ambitious and refined, when they find every door or opportunity slammed in their faces. It isn't much use to talk of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man when such meanness is practiced by a great and powerful state.

The friends of Miss Bosfield have sought an audience with the Governor to take up with him the far larger question of just treatment by the State of all its employees and such change in the laws as may prevent any repetition of such things. Race, color, and religion have no place in public institutions

The Eagle Stands For Fair Play

WHY WE ARE MEMBERS OF THE ALL-AMERICAN LEAGUE

Editor, The California Eagle.

Dear Sir: Please allow us space in your valuable journal to correct some mistaken ideas that are afloat concerning the All-American League of which we are members.

It seems to be the object of the L. A. Post to convince the reading public that the League is political in spirit, and was organized for the spenific purposes of selling itself soul and body into the hands of office seekers.

Now Mr. Editor, and reader, before you pass judgment upon us as an organization, visit the League at one of its regular meetings and be convinced as to its object. Don't take it from one who is narrow in his ideas and conceptions because of his own petty prejudicies.

As members and officers of the League, we know and feel deeply its object, and the spirit out of which it grew.

The All-American League is a foundation of love and believes in "All men up and no man down" and already with a large membership in Los Angeles and other parts of the State with this spirit is making itself felt.

As far as our leaders, Attorney H. E. MacBeth and W. E. Easton and the other officers are concerned, we feel that we have made the best possible selections, and are perfectly willing to intrust the destiny of our organization to this body of men and women whom we believe will do everything in their power for its development and advancement of the League along the lines for which it was formed.

For fifty-three years we have been crying "let's get together", and every time an effort is made to get together some would-be leader vegins his crab like operations of pulling apart.

This time it was from a source from which we would naturally expect a far different sentiment.

Now Mr. Editor of the California Eagle, if you hope to continue to enjoy the good will of the better class of citizens in the future as you have in the past, don't be eager to pass judgment before proper investigation. You are at liberty to visit the League and find out for yourself what we are doing.

It has been and shall continue to be our object to support our two leading race journals and we solicit your cooperation in our effort to uplift and uphold you in the work.

MRS GEO. GAMBLE
MRS. C. A. WALKER
MRS. A. E. WEBER
MISS R. R. JAMES
MRS. C. HULBERT.

Who's Office is a Branch of The Torrens Title Co. Has Been Established

We remember the Torrens Hill that was voted on a year ago, whereby the State of California would guarantee the title of race property. Now that this bill was carried, we are glad to see our young race men make one of the representatives. When you buy or mortgage your property and you want to know the condition of the title, you should let the State guarantee your title, it costs less and is the best and safest title that can be had.

Under the Torrens system, the decree based on the judgment of the Superior Court is permanent and lasts for ever. The insurance fund carried by the State itself guarantees the reliability of every title registered under the Torrens system. When you buy property get an abstract of the condition of the titles abstract. Cost you only $5.00 and can be had in three days. It shows the exact condition of title to your property. Make your application to Branch office of the Torrens Title, Land and Mortgage Co., suite 4, Booker T. Washington Bldg., 1013½ Central Ave. Bdwy. 1498.

NOTICE TO THE RACE

I am confidential agent of the owner of $75,000.00 who will make loans in amounts of $100.00 up to $5000.00, at a low rate of interest. If you have a mortgage that is due or soon will be, call at once and see me. All matters strictly confidential and private. Sidney P. Dones, Suite 4, Booker T. Washington Bldg., 1013 Central avenue. Bdwy. 1498.

PATRONS ATTENTION!

Dear patrons: You will please take notice and govern yourselves accordingly. We are asking all who are in our debt, to as soon as possible, straighten up your accounts.

We can't address you individually and so we are using this method; however, with the kindest possible feeling towards you. We have tried to be patient and give you every advantage in the way of newspaper publicity and printing matters, but some of our best friends have taken advantage of our kindness and are not doing their best in the matter of paying up.

When we print for concerts and other entertainments on time, we ask that you respect this courtesy by paying when the affair is over, for when you fail to do so, you place us in an embarrassing position. We have to pay cash for every bit of paper or cardboard used by us. We can't even ask for credit, and furthermore, the material used for printed matters is more expensive than the food you eat.

Now, dear patrons, please take the hint we are speaking in all kindness of heart and goodly feelings toward our patrons and subscribers.

And we feel that if you deem our effort along the journalistic and printing office line worth while, you will heed our call, for such a call could only be promted by a need.

JOHN MC LEMORE DROWNED

After occupying his past as usher at the First A. M. E. church where he was a member. John McLemore in company with a number of his friends went to the beach at Santa Monica to take a swim last Sunday afternoon. In company with several of his young friends was enjoying the swim when he was caught in an undertow and drowned.

The funeral service was held at the First A. M. E. church last Thursday afternoon, and a hoast of sorrowing friends were out to pay their last tribute to the memory of one who was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.

Resolutions from the Christian Endeavor, Ushers Board, the Sunday School and the Alumni Association were read and Pastor Craw spoke beautifully over the remains using for his text, "Remember now Thy Creator in the Days of Thy Youth".

Mr. McLemore was a senior of the law department of the University of Southern California and bore a splendid reputation all the way both in private and public life.

Maynard Gunsul, manager of the State Investment Company, for whom he works, spoke of the deceased in these terms: "He never loafed or waisted time; he was as near to being a 'model young man' as anyone I ever saw, and the people at the bank thought everything of him, by all who knew him."

We can not doubt but that in the flowery walks of spirit life, that John is the same good boy that we knew so well here.

To enable our feet in the next days march,
To climb up that golden ridge,
We must all lie down for one nights rest
Inside the covered tomb.

SOJOURNER TRUTH BIG RALLY

Sunday, March 26, the ladies of Sojourner Truth will close their grand rally that has been in progress for the past week. An Excellent program has been arranged for the occasion. Rev. J. D. Gordon will be the principal speaker and there will be other numbers of interest, and each visitor will be asked to remain over and sip a cup of tea with the ladies. Don't forget to bring your friends. The object of this rally is to get Sojourner out of debt.

HON. E. BURTON CERUTI

The above is an excellent likeness of Mr. E. Burton Ceruti, one of the leading barristers of the West, who has been retained to defend Thomas Miller of Santa Barbara at his second trial to be held shortly in that city. Mr. Ceruti has gained an enviable reputation as a criminal lawyer and especially so in murder trials. He is undertaking a hard task in the Miller case and the outcome will be watched with great interest. Mr. Ceruti stands in the front ranks as one of our most progressive citizens and has always been a staunch friend and supporter of all the things that stand for real progress.

FINAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE BARBER POPULARITY CONTEST

Fun for the old, the young and all concerned in the result of the Barber's Popularity Contest to be held Wednesday evening, March 29, at Washington and Central Hall. You know you are interested, especially if your friend is a barber, and if he isn't you will be interested just the same as to which one of these boys understand the art of cutting, shaving and polishing, for it may be that they will sometime serve you, and on this occasion each barber will make an effort to appear at his best in dress. Now, therefore,fi gkq bm dress. Now, ladies, come out and help your friend to win for you know "A friend in need is a friend indeed."

The program will begin sharply at 8:30 o'clock and will be introduced by a character sketch and song by the famous Miss Juineta and Master. H. Patton. Come for the small sum of a dime.

The names of the twenty-five barbers contesting have appeared consecutively in the last three issues of this paper.

GOLDEN RULE LODGE G. U. O. of O. F.

Tuesday evening was a big night with Golden Rule Lodge when they initiated a large class of candidates, which consisted of some of our foremost citizens, among those who were made members of this great order was Prof. C. A. Biggers, Jos. J. Anderson, Geo. R. Caibway and Harry J. Adams, formerly of Kentucky.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Duvall were prominent among the callers at our sanctum this week, the good Dr. and his very estimable companion are still doing great work for humanity in maintaining the National Industrial Home in Pasadena. Last Monday the Doctor addressed the Baptist Ministers' Alliance and the word was peace. As a result thereof, on next Monday a great get-together meeting will take place.

L. L. McMahan of San Diego, one of the leading colored pharmacists of the country, and who has resided at San Diego for the past few years, is now in our city and at the Prentice Drug store, 3rd and Stephenson. We have known the Doctor for many years, in fact from boyhood, and can commend him to the highest consideration as a man in every way worthy of confidence. Mr. Prentice is to be congratulated on having such a man as Mr. McMahan in his employ.

Security first, Security, see,
Security is the Bank for me!

Sing it loud, talk it in a crowd,
Hum it like the honey bee,
Security is the Bank for me!

Tell it strong; tell it all around;
Tell it with a bound
Until 95,000 more new depositors are found,
Then they will say, Gee!
Security is the Bank for me!

Let it go out with a mighty shout
That the management of the Security Bank know just what they are about,
From the President down,
They are hard workers all around
Each one is busy as a bee,
Security is the Bank for me!
The new Clock rings out with its Chiming Bell,
It's for all the people, so is the Security Savings Bank as well,
So, you can readily see
That the Security Savings Bank is the Bank for me!

ALL AMERICAN LEAGUE MEETS MONDAY EVENING

There will be a meeting of the League at the 8th St. Christian church Monday evening at which time the Japanese situation will be compared with that of the colored race of this city; their status industrially and in the business pursuits and ours. The fullest statistics have been obtained, a most interesting program provided. Last meeting was a hummer. Editor J. B. Bass of the California Eagle read a splendid paper on Higher Citizenship which invoked the greatest enthusiasm, the reading by little Katherine Bass was also a feature.

EL CENTRO

To the Editor of the California Eagle.

Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sir:—

Please allow space for me to give the happenings of our church.

Now, the visit of the moderator of the Western Baptist Association of Southern California in the person of Rev. H. B. Thomas has done much for the colored people of El Centro and Imperial. The colored Second Baptist church of El Centro had split, but Rev. Thomas got the factions to reunite and the dawn of peace is hovering over the little flock as never before. Rev. Thomas left our city for his home church on Friday evening, the 17th, much to the regret of the colored people, both of El Centro and Imperial, California, but we can truthfully say, whilst being in our midst for four or five days that they were days where the standard was raised through his influence we are more than proud of. And we must say that by his Christian and manly and businesslike way we were able, through the aid of the white people, to raise $110.24 for the indebtedness of our church. We were more than sorry to know that he could not be our pastor, but each evening that he was here he did not fail to stir up our pure minds about our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. We bid him Godspeed and pray the blessings of God upon him wherever he may be called to hold up the staff for the Baptist cause.

Will say further that we are proud to have in our midst, Mrs. S. B. Strickland of Pasadena, California, the President of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Auxiliary of Western Baptist Association. Mrs. Strickland will speak to sisters of home and foreign missionary circles each evening and each service Sunday. Mrs. Strickland, whilst in our city, is staying at Mrs. Addie Johnson's, 425 Commercial street.

Respectfully yours,
L. J. FERGUSON, Clerk.

Luiet. Green of the U. S. A. is leaving the coast for New York and will sail from there to Liberia, where he will take up the military work of instruction where Maj. Young left off.

Y. M. C. A. makes greater effort than ever before to secure a bigger membership.

Senator Works of California, reccommends prayer instead of amunition for the solution of the Mexican problem.

Our good friend Charley Olivier called on us this week in anything but an amiable mood, but after talking over matters he shook our hand and took our word that the articles we write are wholly impersonal. We congratulate him on reason, it is much better if you have a grievance with your fellow man to go to him and have a common understanding instead of carrying a grudge.

Capt. Walter Loving passed through the city this week en route to Arizona.

Mr. H. Shannon who is the Northern representative of the California Eagle, is a visitor in the city, preparatory of making the annual tour with Editor Bass.

Pasadena News

James Turner died Thursday the 16th inst., at his late residence, 624 Winona avenue. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church and his funeral was held at the church at 2 p. m. Saturday. Mr. Turner was 54 years of age and had resided in Pasadena for nine years. He came here from Vicksburg, Miss., and was a nephew of Mrs. J. G. Larmon Ross. He is survived by the widow, one daughter, Mrs. Felix Vernon, and three sons, all of this city. Interment was at Mt. View.

Rev. G. W. Reed, the Stockton evangelist, conducted special services Sunday at Friendship Baptist church both morning and evening.

One of the ministers of this city was recently fined five dollars for contempt of court.

Andrew Burton on N. Vernon is the proud owner of two autos.

Mrs. Della Walker has ordered the Eagle sent to 1574 E. 28th St., Los Angeles.

L. S. Baker is making quite a success on his patent for spraying. He is located at 691 N. El Molina ave.

Rev. R. W. Johnson continues to improve.

Miss Maria Ford has graduated from the Chicago School of Music, and is now taking a post graduate course. She was a scholar in the Pasadena high school. She will return home about August 1st.

Mrs. W. S. Pyle is doing a great work at the Metropolitan church.

The meeting at Friendship Baptist church was quite a success this week, led by Rev. G. W. Reed of Stockton.

At Orangeburg, S. C., one of the dormitories of the State Colored Agricultural college was burned on Monday last, 45 girls being injured, several fatally. They were cut off from fire escapes and stairways and jumped from upper floors. We regret to hear of the accident, as many of our best people here were former residents of South Carolina.

At the Pasadena high school are James and Titus Moore, Noble Perry and Wm. Bunch. They are said to be the greatest quartette of colored students that ever entered high school.

When Pasadena high school tract meets they always take a prize.

James Moore and Wm. Bunch will graduate from Pasadena high school this term.

Mrs Washington, who has been stopping with Mrs. Frank Prince, became ill and had to be taken to the hospital. Her family was at once notified of her illness at Denver, and her cousin, Mrs. J. R. Jackson, at once left that city for Pasadena and arrived here Tuesday at 6 a. m. and is now at her bedside. We hope for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Washington.

What has become of the federation of the state societies in Los Angeles that was organized some time ago, with Eugene Walker of the Georgia society, as president? When will it hold its annual banquet?. Every Southern state from Virginia to Florida, from South Carolina to Texas, was represented. We believe that would be one of the get-together movements that they talk about so much about. All of you were not born in New York, Chicago and Boston. Some of you were born in the South. Wake up and do not be satisfied with conditions, for time and tide waits for no man. Let me hear through the Eagle when you will meet again, Mr. President.

Miss Susie Anderson, the house guest of Mrs. F. M. Prince on Kensington place, entertained a few of her young friends Sunday, among whom were Mrs. Bertha Warren and daughter of Los Angeles.

Scott Thompson, a brother of Mrs. Menesfield, died Monday evening at the county hospital. He will be buried Monday in Los Angeles.

NOTHING IN IT.

President Wilson says that he has 'been a college professor long enough to realize that there is nothing in either the the theory of free trade or the theory of protection."

He said since his induction into office that there was "nothing in" a tariff board. No he loudly asseverates that there is "nothing in" opposition to one.

When Dr. Wilson was a college professor he hurled academic anathemas against the initiative, the referendum and direct primaries. Now these things which he once denounced are dear to his heart.

We can all remember when the president was in favor of peace at almost any price. Now his motto is:. Let preparedness proceed, damn the expense.

As a college professor Dr. Wilson was in favor of non-political appointments to Federal office. But, as president, if he has suffered any Republican anywhere to receive an appointment from him there is no record of it.

Mr. Wilson has realized that there is nothing in watchful waiting in Mexico; nothing in intervening and sacrificing seventeen American lives in order to obtain a refusal to salute the flag; nothing in expressing dissatisfaction with the continued murdering of American citizens by lynching and disfranchising them in the south and, above all and beyond all, nothing in the Democratic platform declaration against a second term.

Is it his experience as a school teacher or as a Democratic politician that leads Mr. Wilson to the conclusion that there is "nothing in" intellectual integrity and nothing in any theory, practice or promise, which interferes with his personal preferment?—Scrap Book.

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN

Aunt Jemima

I am the mother of several boys and for some reason they are taking to smoking one by one. I am dreadfully worried, can you tell me the reason for them doing so.

A. Oft times a mother serves foods to her family that are too rich. Foods that cause a craving in the stomach for a soother, and often tobacco is used for a temporary soother. Then again, it may be that you do not watch the company your boys keep, their associates if bad, are more likely to cause them to take on bad habits than any thing else.

Why is it that the young people of today do not seem to find amusement at parties and other social gatnerings unless they are dancing or card playing.

A. I fear the greater mass of the young people of today are somewhat shallow minded. Their aim is not very high. It is sad that they don't realize that the energy that they use in dancing and the midnight oil wasted in playing cards could be put to a much better advantage. We are now standing in the threshold of a new age, and the future of our race depends upon the young people of today.

My little boy is eight years old and he is very anxious to sell papers on Saturday and Sunday mornings and evenings. Would you advise me to allow him to do so.

A. I think selling papers one of the most absur things a mother can allow a boy under sixteen to do. The boy of the streets learns everything but the right thing. If you cannot care of your boy without turning him out in the streets to sell papers you had betters call on someone to help.

The ladies of the Missionary society are giving a series of socials at which they are having great success.

Monrovia

SECOND BABTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday was a big day at 2nd Church of Monrovia. The Rally set apart for that day was a success, both spiritually and financially. Rev. J. D. Gordon of Tabernacle Baptist Church, and a large percent of his members attended in a body, filling two large Auto Trucks. After the Tabernacle Trucks unloaded at the Church doors, and the Visitors from Monrovia and Vicinity arrived, The Church was crowded to its uttermost capicity.

At the appointed hour Rev. Gordon was presented to the Congregation, by the Pastor Rev. E. Wilson. Rev. Gordon's text was "Ye must be born again' and from that text preached one of the greatest sermons, ever heard in Monrovia. Throughout the services there were great manifestations of the Spirit, and at the close there was one added to the church. The Gospel opened the pocket books as well as the hearts of the people and about $25.00 was realized. Many thanks to good Doctor Gordon and his open hearted people for their timely visit and assistance.

Rev. Gordon McPherson occupied the pulpit at the 8 oclock services Sunday evening and Preached a sermon that wae enjoyed by all. The Dr. is billed for a Lecture at the A. M. E. Zion on Tuesday evening next.

Sister Bettie Burleson, one of the pioneer members of Second Baptist Church, was able to fill her pew Sunday, after being a victim of paralysis for the last year.

Prov. Inst. Baptist Church.

Sunday morning Rev. Elijah Payne will preach his sermon will be "Owing God". The Choir will render special music for the service. The pastor will preach Sunday night on the Subject "What Nebuchanezzar's dream meant as touching the second coming of Christ". Plenty of good Gospel music.

The revival which closed last Sunday night was a great success. Baptism will be held on the first Sunday morning in April. J. Lerory Albright will sing Gospel Solo at each service Sunday.

WESLEY CHAPEL NOTES

The Lord greatly blessed the church last Sunday by the wonderful outpouring of His spirit.

The minister used as his subject for the morning sermon "The Inlook and the Outlook of Old Age." There has never been a time when more interest was manifested at this service. The old people felt inspired and the young people pledged a deeper interest in the welfare of our aged fathers and mothers. The afternoon service of the No-Note choir conducted by our great little sister, Pauline Brooks-Daniels, is attracting people of all churches and of all races. Sunday marked a very high spirital wave in this service and lifted the people in the highest praises to God,

Brother Stout, McClelland, Johnson and Mitchell came to the afternoon service; hear the No-Note choir and watch the marvelous leadership of Sister Daniels.

A.M.E. Zion Church Notes.

Last Sunday Rev. S. W. Well preached two able sermons. There were two accessions.

Next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the subjhct of "Men of Healthful Visions." There will be a baptismal service at this hour.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock the presiding elder will deliver a special lecture to men under the auspices of the Fishermen club of the church, to which all men are cordially invited. Admission free. Come one, come all, and be helped by this lecture.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)
Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The Third Quarterly meeting services will be held Sunday. Presiding Elder Rev. J. A. Wilson will be in charge and preach morning and evening. The pastor urges all members to attend and extends a cordial welcome to friends and visitors. The Quarterly Conference will be held Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

Many distinguished visitors were in the congregation last Sabbath. The railroad men were especially out in large numbers. The pastor and officials of the church are always glad to welcome these splendid men to the services. A standing invitation is always extended to the visitors and strangers within our city to worship at Eight and Towne avenue church.

Don't forget the extraordinary musical and literary treat at the church, Tuesday night, March 28th, under the auspices of the Trustee's Auxiliary Board. It will be one of the best entertainments of this season.

Are you helping in our Easter Day effort? It is the last of it's kind this annual conference year. If each member will do their full duty, God will be well pleased and the church benefited. Friends are asked to assist in this good work.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

On last Sunday Rev. F. T. Walker of Bakersfield preached a very helpful and inspiring sermon at the morning service, taking as his text "If Ye Love ME, Keep MY Commandments," John 14:15. At the evening service the prstor preached on "Bearing One Another's Burdens," Gal. 6:2. Both services were well attended and enjoyed by all. All departments of the church are taking on new life, which is very gratifying. The Women's Guild was reorganized on Wednesday night and on Friday night held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Rowland, 1534 East 22nd street.

The pastor will fill the pulpit at both services Sunday. A cordial welcome to all.

Tabernacle Church

Last Sunday was a joyful day at at Tabernacle Baptist Church both services being well attened. Rev. Gordon took for his text; "Under standeest thou what thou readest" The audience listened while the pastor so beautifully pictured Philip and the Ethopian. The Intelligent Ethopian being the entire audience and a jew the preacher He gave many illustrations showing why the highest people in the world need religion more not because one is intligent, can he get a passport to heaven, you must have some one to guide. This Ethopian was very intelligent but did not seem to grasp the core which is the inner soul. He said you can teach your experience about the bible unless you understand the bible and its words. This Ethopian was a man of letteas and understood so far as letters were concerned. While walking along reading he was asked did he understand what he was reading. He answered how can I understand? This shows that you cannot understand God with an intellectual grasp, unless we have some one to guide us who is in touch with God otherwise God will send some one in connection with the Spirit world to teach us. He said, preaching is having a grasp of the truth. The preacher must have that Jesus that that the prophets talked about and give out by the force and power of his own heart. He said, we do not need theology but Jesus. We ought to be able to teach men how to come to God and accept the gospel.

When the Ethopian came to the river he was baptised and Philip was catching up. He said what we need more is to walk with Jesus, it was the understanding of God's word that brings us in touch with God. Loose from the world women and men and fly away with God and when we do what God wants us to do we will be cauht up aso.

Sunday afternoon Dr. Gordon preached to the Monrovians.

Sunday evening our church was honored by the presence Rev. Folks, secretary of the Elderado Mining Company who spoke to us after which four persons pere baptised

OAKLAND JOTTINGS
By "Jakie" Peyton

HARDING – DERRICK— Thursday evening, March 16, at the home of her parents, 1841 Adeline street, Miss Maryelese Harding, one of Oakland's most popular society belles, became the bride of Leo Derrick. The wedding was one of the most brilliant affairs of the season. More than a hundred guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Derrick enjoy the best wishes of their large concourse of friends friends for a happy matrimonial voyage.

BIG UNDERTAKING — Quartett formed out of some of Oakland's best literary producte, starts on concert tour. They are Miss Virginia Hughes, violinist; Miss Roxey Fowler, reader; Mrs. M. Lenear, pianist; Mrs. Loving, soloist.

Mrs Jewel Brown, mother of Mrs. Fred Williams, is reported very ill at the home of her daughter on Myrtle street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Peyton, 1062 24th street, entertained last Friday in honer of the Art Imperial club. Beauti ful prizes consisting of hand made garments were awarded the ladies holding the lucky numbers. First prize, nightdress, awarded to Mrs. C. Lewis; 2nd prize, center piece, Mrs. R. Brownlee; 3rd prize dressing cap, Mrs. Wade Williams The affair was most successful, Mrs. Peyton, the popular hostess, proved to be a most successful entertainer for everything went O. K. until the lights went out.

J. Peyton made a trip to Petaluma, Cal., Monday, March 13, and reports that he was received with great courtesy and hospitality by the best citizens. Colored men who can make good in foundry and machine shops may secure employment in that city.

WHITE OFFICER BEATS NEGRO TO DEATH—Bert McCoy while engaged in a fight with Grant Carpenter Saturday evening was beaten to death by a police officer with a blackjack.

THE OAKLEAF BALL CLUB—Manager Henry Hastings issues a challenge to any other team in good standing. We are in the game to win; if you don't believe it try us. See lineup next week.

THEY ALL HAVE A CHANCE

The Eagle plays no favorites. Every human has the same standing with us. We seek not the untoward things in men and women, but on the contrary we seek and exploit the good things. We have no time for the crooks, grafters and parisites which are the weights on our progress, but we must, as Whittier has said in his poem "Ichabod,"

"Walk backward with averted gaze,
And hide their shame."

On the other hand, any man, woman or child who really is doing something outside of their own realm of self, we are glad at all times to herald the same to the world. We feel that this is the mission of the real journal, and in so far as we can we expect to at all times give to every man, woman or child all that is due them in the way of credit for the things that are worth while, for the crooks that abount around us, the parasites, they are the weights on our progress and we are sure that in time they shall receive their just dues, without any beating of drums, but from their own momentum.

Our Jim Crow contemporary may now take second place in the assessination of character and as a sewage for long pent up hot air, as there seems to be a new Richmond in the field who loudly claims that his shall be the only sensational Pure D. Negro sheet; our distinguished friend and disciple of Dunbar must keep doing Jim Crow or get shut out in the cold.

Still another sheet to be launched and another one coming up. Truly the campaign is prolific of Colored newspapers. So you can see when the Los Angeles Negroes get together it will be at the Dawn of the Millenium.

Of all the new sheets which have come and are coming up like mushrooms, we appreciate the fact that none are of the Jim Crow sort.

Of Mr. James Alexander, who took occasion either himself or by proxy to vent satirically on this paper, we have the highest regard and respect. We have no fuss to picg with him. We are in our realm conducting a newspaper and we take it he is in his, as a clerk for the government. And it should not, we think, be his aim to try and get out and vent his irony on a Race enterprise that is doing something. This particular thing should be beneath the dignity of a man in the revenue office of this country. We are a part of the works that keeps this office going. So go after those that you want, you don't want us. We are for everybody and against nobody who is on the square.

CROSSING THE DOUBLE CROSS

This seems to be the age of the Double Cross and it is indeed a sad commentary on this progressive age that the double crossers wield this influence they do in our midst. It seems as though crossing the double cross is a familiar pastime and that under the pretention of friendship they will lead the unwary right up to their crucifixion on the cross, but this condition will ultimately be the undoing of those who are guilty of the same, for retribution will overtake them. There was Esau, the hungry, who sold his birthright for a mess of pottage. Judas Iscariot betrayed his Savior for a handful of silver. The double crossers would betray their Race, country or any citizen on the slightest pretext. It is too bad that we have this condition to exist, but we must gird on our amor and have faith in our ability to throw off the influence that the double crosser brings. We have that gentry in our midst, and must meet the issue fair and square. We must stop our ears to all of the things that impede our progres, and join our forces with all that stand for good, and march on to a glorious success.

BISHOPS FOR RACES NO DISPARAGEMENT

(From the "Central Christian Advocate," Kansas City Mo., dated March 15, 1916.

Is it a disparagement to be a specialist. It is not? To b specialist like Pasteur or Edison or Thoburn, what is it but honor and a distinction? If in any particular they have conc trated in their life work its meaning speaks for itself in the ords they have made.

We know of no more distressing or really hurtful use sarcastic discriminations than the covert sneer at the proposit to elect bishops for Races—Negro or Japanese, for example- making a "Jim Crow" bishop. Is it a stigma for a man to s emnly dedicate his life to the spiritual leadership of twelve m lions of human beings? Night and day, in season and out season, to think, study, plan, pray, provide, for their uplift, the new emancipation? If it is, we may well stop forever naming any reformer, any builder of the human Race.

If it were socially and ethnologically practicable, if ther were no objections in the world from any quarter, we shou think the man shot upward as a star, who would say, "Give as my lot, my life work, the millions of the Colored Race." means intensive work, specialization, definiteness of aim, such a name as Booker T. Washington carved for himself in granite of history.

It is a shame to disparage any intensive program of life, specialization; it disparages those who for Christ's sake bec missionaries to the heathen millions.

It is not a question of shoulder-straps, of brigadier-general, or lieutenant-general, or major-general. It is a question of sublime specialization. There is an obsession in Methodism on the matter of titles. It's a shame that it is so. It dishonors some men, who in character and intellect and efficiency are the peers of the highest, but who were not and who never will be bishops. It is a deep hurt, too, to the efficiency of the Church as a whole that it is so.

Away with all that discrimination—that worship of a name! Let us bend the knee only to efficiency! There is one question and but one now before the Church, in this matter; it is this: "If our work among the twelve million Negroes in this country should need a bishop of that Race for that Race shall we permit his election and consecration to that task? Will the Church vote NO! on that question? We hope it will not do that. And that is the question that is at our doors today.

We will not argue the merits of the case. But the facts give the Church occasion for sobering reflection, if we do not give heed to a movement that seems to be of God. Do not put shackles on the hands of the Church when she thinks, finally, she should vote. We can trust her, working in the fear and for the Glory of God. Can't we?

CANDIDATES, DON'T BE FOOLED!

There are now a number of so-called Negro newspapers, campaign sheets, being launched in this city for the sole purpose of holding up candidates for public office this Spring and Fall. Such mercenary sheets have neither a mailing list nor any bona fide subscribers, This information can be authenticated by looking on the paper above the editorial columns for the printed statement that the paper has been admitted to the mails. If this does not appear, the paper is a fake pure and simple. Any money paid to such papers buys for you neither circulation of your printed matter nor the influence that is represented to go with it.

CITY BREVITIES

The beautiful home of Mrs. Sarah Jones of East 57th street was the scene of a very enjoyable affair Monday afternoon when members of the Married Ladies Art Guild served in the capacity of hostesses to a number of visitors to the city. Mrs. C. L. Daniels of Chicago was extended a hearty welbome by the president, Mrs Tena Little. Mrs. Daniels responded with such beautiful words, telling of the pleasant moments she has spent in the City of Angels, that her audience completely enraptured. A short program was enjoyed by the visitors Mrs. E. V. Stewart, a guest of the evening, sweetly sang in her usual manner. Miss Missouri Busby rendered a few piano selections which called for a hearty applause. Mesdames N. F. Richardson, Sarah Wilson and Fannie Cheatham were also guests of the day.

Mr. R. McLemore, brother of John McLemore, deceased, was in the city this week from San Francisco to attend the funeral of his brother.

P. H. Dupas, who has been making his home at El Centro for the past few years, is back in the city, where he intends to remain, and will be employed by the C. C C. Co. His friends welcome him.

Rev. Davis, the new pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist church, who was expecting to make a business trip to his old home in Texas this week, has consented to remain over another Sunday and will preach at Mt. Zion Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, after a stay of several months in Lower California have returned to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Virginia Johnson of Salt Lake City, who has been the house guest of Mrs. M. E. Fry of 1220 Hobart boulevard for the past few weeks returned to her home Sunday.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. De Laney of Ceres avenue still remains on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Offutt and daughter, Glendora, were in the city visiting old friends Sunday.

We are delighted to have in our midst a very intelligent and energetic young man in the person of Mr. Boon, who recently comes to us from Houston, Tex. Mr. Boon has been in our city but three months, but in so short a time he has become a leading worker in the Y.M.C.A., and also has the honor of being the only colored member of the Poly high school chorus.

The no note choir which sings every Sunday afternoon at Wesley chapel are giving much inspiration to all who attend, through their sweet music.

All Native Sons and Daughters of California are urged to attend their next club meeting, which is to be held at the home of James Smith of 18th street. The last meeting was reported to be one of the best for some time.

After taking a peep in on the Women's Day nursery on Channing street, we are forced to say just a word in praise in regards to the condition of the home. So sweet and clean was the home and the surroundings, and every child's face beamed with happiness and contentment.

A very pretty surprise party was given in honor of Miss Mammie Payne on last Saturday night at the home of Miss I. Russell of Lake Shore avenue.

The Kansas and Missouri club was highly entertained last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woodyard, 868 E. 41st street. About 30 were present. So enjoyable was the evening spent that several imagined that they had been "back home."

The Poly high students report having big times at Violet street play grounds every other Thursday evening.

The Ceres avenue Tennis club is becoming in full bloom again this season.

The children of the Second Baptist Sunday school, class B, will have a picnic on next Saturday, March 1st, at Eastlake park.

Two Prizes Given Away

At the Rainbow Drill April 5th at Washington and Central hall. The person holding the lucky number will receive a free scalp treatment and a month's treatment of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations, the person holding second lucky number will receive a month's treatment of the preparations.

A numbered ticket will be given to each adult at the door. Admission, 25c; children, 15c.

Jeff Davis Celebrates Birthday

At their pleasant little home on South Utah street, Mr and Mrs. Jeff Davis received, in most part unexpected, many of their friends Tuesday evening. The occasion being Mr. Davis' birthday the friends who came were in high spirits and a very happy evening was spent by the large gathering. Music and games were enjoyed and refreshments in abundance were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Edwards entertained on Sunnay, March 19, in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary at their residence, 1337 Newton street. Covers were laid for 16. The dining room was beautifully decorated in pink and green and a profusion of bridal roses. Miss Hazel Gottschalk furnished the music during the afternoon. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. W. J. J. Byers, Mrs. C. H. Anderson, W. C. Hammond and wife, J. C. Wilson and wife, Miss M. Grechen, Mesdames J. A. Trimble, Glaster Boylar, Presiding Elder C. E. Weller of A.M.E.Z church, Mesdames J. O. Banks, Y. H. Green, R. H. Dupas, Mrs. M. L. Gottschalk and Andrew Anderson.

Canadian Exhibit of the Best at Exposition

Amid the booming of cannon and marching of troops, to the lively tunes played by one of San Diego's full bands and the presence of thousands of joyous people that moved down Broadway on the way to the opening of the California-International Exposition where the exercises were held. There were thousands of colored patriotic citizens present.

At 10 a.m. the first line of the dedcation day parade started from Columbia and Broadway headed by Colonel Joseph H. Pendleton, of the 4th regiment U. S. Marines, every branch of the United States service was represented in the line and many that were to march are now in Mexico. The spectacle inspired the patriotism of the crowds along the line of march. At 11 a.m. the troops were reviewed in Plaza de Panama by exposition officials, visiting representatives of the U.S. government and participating nations.

The opening address was made by R. N. Bulla, first vice-president of the exposition. Telegrams of congratulations from every part of world were read by Mayor Edwin Capps and following this Governor Hiram Johnson spoke on behalf of the State of California. President Charles C. Moore of the exposition was unable to be present because of illness and his congratulations were read.

Two minutes before noon Pres. G. H. Davidson offered his toast to peace and the exposition, the glass which he raised was filled with California orange juice in honor of Orange Day, which falls on this date. This same toast was drank at the same time in all parts of the world. At noon the guns of the warships in the harbor boomed out the national salute and the flags of eighteen nations were unfurled. The Stars and Stripes were raised on the big flagpole on the plaza while the government band played the "Star Sprngled Banner."

Count Del Valle de Salazar raised the Spanish flag sent President Davidson by King Alfonso. Miss San Diego 1916 officiated at the the unfurling of the exposition's new flag. At 12:05 President Davidson declared the exposition officially opened

Secretary of Interior Franklin K. Lane, representing President Wilson and the United States government spoke at 12:45 followed addresses by governors and mayors. Secretary Lane, always popular in the west, explained that the President had really hoped to be present himself, but the stress of international complications and the Mexican situation had made it impossible.

At 2 p.m. signal guns were fired by the U. S. Marine Corps on the exposition grounds and these were answered by signal bombs at the North Island aviation station. Immediately a dozen aeroplanes were seen rising from the aviation field flying to the exposition grounds and after circling the exposition building, four of America's most intrepid birdmen landed and took part in the afternoon's program. The aerial parade gives the San Diego exposition the distinction of being the first ever opening with such a spectacular feature.

At 1:15 the Spanish singers and dancers returned for 1916. Tommasino's Royal Italian band with the Milan Grand Opera Singers, gave special concerts and will be heard again. Dr. Humphrey J. Stewart, exposition's official organist, will be heard in many grand selections.

The "Court of Leap Year" was dedicated by adventurous bachelors from San Diego, Los Angeles and from San Francisco. Miss San Diego 1916 was given her exposition badge of authority and in the evening she her banquet at the Cafe Cristobal which was very well attended. As the guests were too numerous and I think I have said enough I will close.

I wonder who will be the first of the race to be caught in the "Court of Leap Year."

P. H. Steward, district of the San Diego district of the A. M. E. church, has been elected to the conference at Riverside which convened April 5 and 6. He will represent the Sunday school, Christian Endeavor as well as the church Mr. Maxwell is very prominent in the city, the Eagle extends to him a crowning success while away and hopes that he will fulfill all obligations intrusted to him.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey, of the A.M. church called at the Eagle office and reported that the cloud has passed over and that the flock is again working in peace and harmony. They had an arousing sermon Sunday and the Lord blessed them with one conversion, the financial standing of the church has grown beyond all past performances. All who have not attended church of late have failed to hear that harmonious choir.

Mrs. P. H. Phillips of Coronado was noticed among the busy guests on the Isthmus as well as were Mrs C E Norwood and friend Mrs. C.A. [illegible] of Los Angeles; Mrs. Deming, La Jolla; Miss Cora La Jolla, Miss Louisa Austin, Los Angeles; W. O. Tyler, Los Angeles; T. A. Harris, Grand Master Masonic Lodge; Mr. and Mrs. W. Saunders; Rev. T. Allen Harvey and wife; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs Thompson of Coronado; Miss Nona Jackson, Miss Katherine Badgett, Geo. Murray, Miss Howard of St. Paul; Mrs Dobbs, J. W. Gray and wife, John Cloud and wife, Mrs. Sheppard of Pasadena; Misses Lela Nowlin and Head, these are a few of the people caught by the Eagle reporter in passing up the isthmus. San Diego invites the world.

David killed Goliath. If so Villa will be safe.

Orangeburg, S.C., March 20—A dormitory of the State Colored Agricultural College was burned here today. Forty five colored girls were injured, several fatally. They were cut off from fire escapes and stairways and jumped from upper finors.

Don't forget the date of the Literary Social at Mt. Zion Baptist church, April 4. A good program has been arranged.

P. L. Jonnson, prominent church worker, called at the Eagle office and spoke of various industries which are prospering in San Diego

Mrs. B. C. Reese reports that she is enjoying the farm life, her products will soon be ready for the market, many delicious fruits and vegetables that she has on her farm to entertain her many friends. She re reports that the floods washed several street cars on her farm, which the company kindly donated to her. She came to town in that new auto like a sailor going to a ship and was advised to go chase Villa and by the time that she caught him she would be an expert chauffeur. Before she left she subscribed for the Eagle.

a mutual dependence on one another. There is nobody that cannot do some good. It is a false and indolent humility that make people sit still and do nothing, because they will not believe that they are capable of doing much, for everybody can do something. Everybody can set a good example be it to many or to few. Everybody has someone they can advise, instruct or in some way help to guide thru life. Those who are too poor to give alms can yet give their time, their assistance in preparing or forwarding the gifts of others; everybody can offer ad their prayers for those who need them. "He who waits to do a great deal of good at once, will never do any"Good is done by degrees. However small in proporportion to benefits which follow individual attempts to do good, a great deal may be accomplished by perserverance, even in the midst of discouragements and disappointments. Life is made up of little things. If we would do much good in the world we must be willing to do little things, little acts one after another, setting a good example all the time. There is a pleasure in contemplating good, there is a greater pleasure in receiving good; but the greatest pleasure of all is in doing good, which comprehends the rest. Do good with what thou hast, or it will do thee no good. be not simply good, be good for something. Mrs. C. E. Norwood

We, the deacons and members of Mt. Zion Baptist church, wish to rectify the statements of Rev. G. W. Woodby in one of tYe previous issues. Rev. Curry did take communion at the methodist church, but when he was brought before the church he said in the most christian like way and as humble as he could, "church, I did not know or feel as I was committing a sin to commune with the Methodist Christians, but if I have committed any wrong or sin I would lske for the church to tell me and I beg the church's pardon." He made this statement four or five times, but the Rev. Woodby in his way of ruling stated that we have no pardon to grant him as he does not feel that he committed any sin; so then other members of the church expressed their personal belief in the matter to such an extent that it was asked if the moderator would put it to a vote and see what the members believed. The majority voted that they did not think it committing a sin to take communion with any one that claimed to be Christians, and that they neither believed it a sin for any Christian to commune with us. But the members did not understand or vote to have the church to stand for an open communion church. We all know the laws of the Baptist church, but we voted as to our personal feelings towards the communion. We want the people to know that we are still missionary Baptists, and pray God to send us a missionary Baptist preacher. [Signed]

POISONOUS EFFECTS OF NICOTINE ON THE HUMAN ECONOMY

Master of Ceremonies, Ladies and Gentlemen; The truth of the subject I have been asked to discuss has no doubt been impressed upon you many times prior to this event—that nicotine is a poison and a deadly poison cannot be controverted and that its abuse constitutes one of the prevailing evils of the day is a fact which is to be deplored.

Most of us ksow of nicotine as the active principle of tobacco, Combined with an organic acid the alkaloid is present in every part of the plant, the amount varying in different varieties from 2 to 10 per cent. There is no other plant that contain this alkaloid. Altho pure nicotine is a most deadly poison the plant containing it is used in a great varietles of ways, and by some in very lorge quantities. From this we must conclude that nicotine as it exists in the plant is not readily absorbed into the body. However, there are many cases of poisoning from the plant on record, but it must be admitted after we have taken all of the possibilities into consideration that a certain degree of immunity is acquired by those who use the weed. The effects of the first smoks or chew need not be described. They are familiar to most males who have reached years of maturity.

There have been reported two cases of immediate death from excessive smoking, one man having smoked 17 and another 18 pipes at one sitting. One death has been reported from the taking of too much snuff. Cases of poisoning from the application of leaves of tobacco locally for the relief of ringworm have been reportad, and in some of these the termination was fatal. Infusions of tobacco were once used by irregular practicioners as rectal injections in cases of constipation and death from this cause has been reported. Insaue persons have swallowed large quantities of the leaf, and of infusions of tobacco, and in some cases death has ensued. It is stated that one of the lesser French poets of the past century was killed by drinking a glass of wine into which a box of Spanish snuff had been emptied by a half drunken companion. I have cited these instances to emphasize the fact that tobacco is undoubtedly a poison of great virulence. Nicotine is the only active agent of tobacco and therefore all of the poisonous symptoms which arise from abuse of its preparation are due to this poison

On the human economy when taken in excessive quantities it causes nausea vomiting, giddiness, trembling of the limbs, marked prostration, accompanied by muscular weakness, feeble action of the heart, slow respiration and dilatation of the pupils. In extreme cases the limbs become cold, the body is bathed with perspiration, the face is blanched, and the intellect is impaired.

When pure nicotine is administered death may occur within a few minutes and the records of the earlier part of the 19th century show numerous instances in which death occurred within half an hour or less after the employment of a rectal injection of an infusion of tobacco. Death in cases of poisoning from nicotine results primarily from depression of the heart's action and paralysis of the respiratory center. In experiments with this drug it has been found that a very small quantity of this poison injected into the ear of a rabbit causes, in about ten seconds, violent convulsions that last three to five minutes. When the injection is repeated frequently there is no immunity or tolerance, and the aorta, the main blood khannel of the body exhibits signs of necrosis, or local death of the part. This drug is held responsible for arterio sclerosif or hardening of the arteries so prevalent in males past middle age, who are addicted to its use. It is impossible to say just what the smallest fatal dose for man is, it is probably, however, only a fraction of a grain.

These scientific facts bring home to us forcibly that nicotine or tobacco is a rank poison and consequently it works havoc with the human system. The cultivation of a gradual tolerance is the grounds on which the apparent impunity which the habitual user may be explained. It is not within the province of this paper to make an ethical application of the scientific facts here adduced. The human race, always perverse, will no doubt continue to use this deadly drug in the face of the most appalling truths presented. The mountain climbers of tue Andes are as much addicted to the use of arsenic as the typical American user of tobacco and yet arsenic occupies chief rank as one of the most fatal poisons,

Reviewing these circumstances we must conclude that there exists in humaan nature an unaccountable yearning to tempt fate by doing things that are strictly interdicted. In conclusion, let me say that the abuse of tobacco, and especially the cigarette habit is one of the besetting sins of the day. This pernicious habit is the cause of a large percentage of the physical and mental wrecks who are as lode-stones about the neck of humanity today. I close with this unanswerable truth- "Whosoever uses nicotine does so at his own peril."

Three hours of oratory and impassioned appeal Sunday, March 12, opened the California "Dry" campaign of the colored citizens of Los Angeles and vicinity. The meeting was held under auspices of the Forum, probably the most influential and energetic organizabion of colored people in the city. Ministers of the gospel, physicians, professional and business men took their stand and proclaimed their convictions and the influence of the meeting will undoubtedly go far toward crystalizing the sentiment of hundreds of voters. Among the speaker were:

Dr. D. M. Gandier, State Sup't. California Campaign Federation

Geo. Thomason, M. D. Long Beach Sanitarium.

Rev. Manfred P. Welcher, Field Sec. Anti-Cigarette League of America.

B. E Fullmer, M.D., Los Angeles.

Those representing the colored organizations and churches were:

Rev. E. W. Kincoen, Wesley Chapel.

Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth

E. C. Nelson, M.D.

Howard Folke

Julius Steves, President Forum

The program was particularly rich in music which was interspersed throughout. There were solos and special music by the noted Glendale male quartette, and choirs of Watts and Furlong S.D. A. churches. Elder Sydney Scott served as chaisman ably assisted by the president and vice-president of the Forum.

The temperance question was approached from every angle, the minister with his scripture texts, the physician with his experience and scientific knowledge, the business man with an eye to the economic aspect of the liquor buestion and the attorney with law and logic. Predominating in every speech was the idea of a clean land in which to love, live and labor.

Dr. D.M. Gandier, State Supt. California Campaign Federation—I am more than glad to be here to tell you about our plans for the great campaign now on to make California "dry." We have two amendments to be voted on at the November election. One amendment provides for the closing of all the drinking places January 1, 1918, the other provides for closing up of the whole liquor business January 1, 1920. Our slogan is: "Two "dry" amendments—vote yes on both."

The task is big enough for the biggest of us. The fight is worthy of the best there is in all of us. To illustrate, when South Carolina went dry, only 54,000 votes were cast in all. In Los Angeles county alone we will have four times as many votes as were cast in all South Carolina. In Arizona they were only 863 saloons and drinking places, in Oregon only 1,844, in Washington only 2,612. In all the last 11 states which went dry there were 14 750 saloons. In our glorious state of California, how many do you suppose we have, 15,117 or 367 more than there were in all these 11 statse put together. Yes, it will be a big fight, but God helping us we will win.

African Education Success

San Francisco, Feb. 23—That the black man of Africa had been raised to a high plane of civilizations was the declaration made today by James E. Crowther, a missionary recently returned from Africa, at the closing session of the Laymen's Missionary Movement convention.

He said that the British were beginning to consider the problem of granting the people of their African dependencies the franchise and the right to have people of their own color represent them in government councils.—From The Scrap Book.

Cardinal Gibbons Opposes 'Dry' Bill

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 22—Cardinal Gibbons in an interview today said:

"I am strongly opposed to any Statewide prohibition bill because I believe such a law cannot be enforced in a city like Baltimore.

"A law of this kind interferes with personal liberty rnd rights and creates hypocrisy in the people. The history of the world demonstrates that man always has and always will use intoxicating liquors.

"However, I am heartily in favor of temperance. I am also a firm believer in local option which means closing all saloons or where drinks are sold over bars."—From the Scrap Book.

ALUMNI ORATORICAL CONTEST

1915-16 Students and Graduates to Compete

"How our conduct at home and abroad affects ourselves and our race" will be discussed at an oratorical contest, May 9th, at Wesley Chapel M. E. church, under the auspices of the Southern California Alumni Association. The receipts of the affair will go into the association's scholarship aid fund, for the annual scholarship prize of fifty ($50) dollars, to be awarded in June, to the California student graduating with the highest average scholarship rating.

Students and Graduates Invited

All students of the various schools, and all 1915 and 1916 graduates, are invited to enter the contest at once, by giving their written notice to either of the undersigned committeemen. No person may enter the contest after the next meeting of the association, April 9, as the program will be made up then—one month before the date of the contest, May 9th.

The Contest

Fifteen minutes will be allowed for each speaker to render, without reading (notes will be permitted), his original oration on the subject mentioned above. Three judges, from outside of the association, will be elected by the association.

Watts Struggling ForProgress; People Name Winning Ticket

VICTORY WILL BE THEIRS

Winning Fight by the Independence League at Watts in the Coming Election—Election April 10th

The red hot campaign of Watts is coming to a head and the ticket as published herewith will be elected beyond peradventure, but the Independence League wants to clinch this victory by such a vote that it will forever silence those who stand in the way of progress in Watts. The following is the people's ticket, the men thereon represent the people and are for all the people all the time regardless of race, color or creed. creed.

Trustees

JACOB J. HOHN X
JOHN S. LANGE X

City Clerk

WALTER I. HOPCRAFT X

City Treasurer

SARAH A. SMITH X

Analysis of This Ticket

To say that the above ticket stands for a square deal for everybody is a complete and concrete analysis of the same for it is composed of purely commoners whose honesty and integrity cannot for one moment be questioned..

Jacob H. Hohn

For trustee Jake Hohn as he is called by the entire populace, is a man whom everyone knows. They know that he can have no other than a keen interest for the future prosperity of Watts, as he has large property interests here, he is a plain, common, every-day, unassuming young man whom all may approach and consult on the problems which confront the city and that is what is needed in Watts at this time.

He is receiving the united support of the League and will be a strong winner on the 10th.

John S. Lange

Now John Lange is the one best bet for the people in this election. He has been tried and found to ring true on every proposition which had for its object the interests of the people. As a present member of this board he stands like a stone wall for the people. The people universally hold in the highest esteem Mr. Lange for his great service in their behalf and will give to him a magnificent endorsement on the 1t0h of April.

W. I. Hopcraft for City Clerk

W. I. Hopcraft is one of the splendid citiens of Watts who has since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, been a booster for Watts. He is out on his merits for this position. The California Eagle desires to give its support to Mr. Hopcraft. He has been a man that has encouraged the enterprise of these people as for many months those who read the Eagle will remember his advertisement was always therein. So for the reason of his fitness and this time because he is with the people against the ring, we urge for him a strong and unanimous support.

Mrs. Sarah A. Smith for Treasurer

Now for this office the present incumbent, Mrs. Sarah A. Smith, has no opposition, but we want to say that she is a splendid, first class citizen and all are proud of her and to know that she has always made good.

RETAIN STATE PROSPERITY, SLOGAN OF LEAGUE

Organization of Business Men Opens Headquarters to Begin Campaign. Plan to Please Tourists. Make California 'Home of Visitors' is Plea of New Combine

Opening headquarters in the Higgins building and launching a campaign for members, the first steps to extend the California Prosperity league to every city, village and hamlet in the state in the fight on prohibition and other measures termed by the league as detrimental to the welfare of the state, were taken today by the new officers of the mammoth business men's organization.

The fight to save the grape and wine industries from annihilation, to encourage prosperity by the bringing of more business to California, by the location of new factories and the sweeping of obsolete and harmful laws from the state statute books, will be waged unceasingly. Particular attention will be devoted to the two proposed prohibition amendments that will be submitted to the people at the November state election, to defeat them and protect the wine industry.

Plans For Officers

The plans of the new officers, elected at the meeting at the Alexandria yesterday, at which the purpose of the new organization was forcefully brought out by half a dozen able speakers, were made public today.

Sub-stations, so to speak, will be opened in every city and town in Los Angeles county as the first step. Through these sub-stations members of the organization will be enrolled, and will take up the fight to keep California prosperous and to make the state still more attractive to the hundreds of thoustands of tourists who come here seeking amusement, rest and recreation.

The next step will be to open offices in the northern cities and to extend the work of the organization to all of the southern counties.

No stone will be left unturned to carry out the plans and ambitions of the organization to preserve California prosperity and to defeat the proposed prohibition bills, saving the light wine industry that made California famous.

Garland is Chief

In the absence of William May Garland, president of the new organization, from the city, Watt Moreland, vice-president, served as head of the body of enthusiastic business men today. When Mr. Garland returns from New Orleans, where he is attending the convention of realty men, he will assume active management of the California Prosperity League and superintend its campaigns.

Mr. Moreland today outlined the purposes of the organization, as follows:

"There are thousands of eastern residents who want to come to California for the winter, or for the summer, but who feel that they would be hampered by the restrictive laws of the state. These people are bent on pleasure and they are going where they can find pleasure with personal liberty.

"It is not necessary to offer these good people anything more than they could find in eastern states. If we want to turn our business over to Florida, the best way to do it is to adopt prohibition and other similar laws.

Boost Wine Industry

"The wine industry of the state has done as much if not more for the prosperity of California than any other single thing. There is no reason why this industry should be made to suffer from a law that will hurt the state and the industry and will do no one any good.

"It is the same with many other laws on the books or proposed. They only hamper and handicap business and are keeping down prosperity.

"We are going to swat these laws and we are going to give business and industry a chance to make good. There can be no real prosperity in California unless the merchants, the manufacturers, the ranchers and al lemployers of labor are making enough money to pay their bills and run their businesses."

Edward F. Wehrle, Senator Robert N. Bulla, Watt Moreland, Edward B. Lovie, Max E. Socha, Judge Griffith Jones, Leo V. Youngworth and Oscar Farish took active parts in the meeting at the Alexandria at which the California Prosperity League was launched.

They all spoke on the purposes and the end toward which the organization would work.

Wehrle Is Chairman

In calling the meeting to order, Mr. Wehrle, who acted as chairman, said:

"California is singualarly situated. We have the tourist travel to depend on, and the prosperity and fame of the state are equally dependable upon its wine industry. Those who come here want personal and individual liberty—they are against prohibition and many of them have strong reasons for such opposition.

"I do not believe in prohibition—it does not prohibit.

"I believe in temperance, and from what I have actually seen in Arizona and other dry state I believe that when a law is passed which the people do not believe in, we have a general disrespect for all laws."

Senator Bulla sounded the keynote of the organization.

"To fight these measures we must have an organization," he said. "We need a president who will devote time and energy to the campaign and who will fight against any measure that will destroy one of our chief industries." He nominated Mr. Garland for the presidency and the election was carried.

Talks of Experience

Judge Griffith Jones, magistrate of the sunrise court, in a signal address praised the California wine industry. He said:

"During the time I have presided over the sunrise court not one man has been before me who became intoxicated on California wine.

"I know that this organization stands for opposition to intemperance. I want the co-operation of everyone her to stamp out drunkenness, but I know it cannot be done by prohibition laws. Preservation of the wine industry and the freer use of California wines, instead of heavily fortified liquors, will do more for temperance than all the prohibition laws the state colud enact."

Charles F. Lummis, Motley H. Flint, Leo V. Youngworth and Max E. Socha all gave their opinions, upholding the principles of the California Prosperity League. The privations endured by the pioneer grape growers and the hardships they suffered in the struggle to place the industry on the high plane it now holds were told by Mr. Lummis, former city librarian and California historian.

Many of the most prominent and influential business men in this city were present on this occasion and pledged their support to this organization in its fight to retain prosperity in this state.

OAKLAND JOTTINGS
By John Peyton

Young Charles Tillman is preparing a general directory for the Bay cities, which will be on the market soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emit Mitchell, who were among our most desirable citizens, have left Oakland to live in the intellectual city of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleave Murray are planning an extended trip through the East and South and will leave next week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Sears leaves next week to visit their parents and friends in Texas.

The many friends of young Jason Rutherford are grieved to learn of his untimely death. Young Rutherford was an energetic young man with a bright future. He would have graduated from the University this spring.

Mr. J. B. Wilson and Mrs. Jewel Brown are reported ill at their homes. Their friends are anxiously listening for better news concerning their recovery.

Our Oakland correspondent, Mr. J. Peyton, is on the job and after each trip kindly remits his finding concerning race interests and opportunities at the end of each trip.

This time he reports that he has visited Vallejo, and states that with regards to race prejudice, this is one of the most undesirable places for members of the race.

THE WAR BRIDES OF OAKLAND

It is reported that there is much sadness in the matrimonial camp, due to the fact that many of the grooms have been sent into Mexico to be chased by Villa.

CENTRAL AVENUE EMPLOYMENT AGENCY

In suite 8 of the Booker T. Washington Building, 1013½ Central Ave., is located the above employment company which has been in operation for the past few weeks with Mr. Wm. Johnson as manager; under his direction it has been a success from the start and from morning until night this is a busy place. Mr. Johnson has been very successful in placing both men and women in good positions and has orders at all times for competent help. If you are out of work look up Johnson at the above number, the man who both gets jobs and furnishes the best help, male or female.

SOME OF THE THINGS I SEE AND HEAR AS I PASS ALONG

Sojourner Truth Makes Plunge to Get Out of Debt

Sojourner Truth club house is without a doubt the most beautiful and complete home for colored girls in this or any other country owned, managed and controlled by women of the race. A work of this sort accomplished in so short a period would be a credit to any people.

Last Sunday afternoon was the time set aside by the members to close their "get out of debt" rally. We were edified upon this occasion to note how quietly, but effectively these women work. Mrs. J. M. Scott led off with $116.50 followed by Mrs. Cora Campbell, $92.39; the matron, Mrs. Elbert, $68.89; Mrs. John Jackson, $25.20.

Dr. J. D. Gordon, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, was speaker for the occasion. The good doctor was as usual in a high spiritual mood. His subject was "The Two Men or Minds" and in language simple, but far beyond the comprehension of a carnal mind, this intellectual spiritual giant defied competition in his description of the present status of this day's civlization.

It would be utterly impossible to analyze the doctor's subject as it was impressed upon us, but we will say that he emphasized the fact that men, in their effort to develop the material had forgotten the real in life, and the result is the present state of affairs—such as restlessness in politics and society, wars and rumors of war.

The Barbers' Contest presented by Miss Mattie Shackelford last Wednesday evening at Central Hall was a grand success, and Miss Shackelford deserves the applause and encouragement of us all.

The Tacky Party given at the residence of Mrs. Jennie Williams of Hemlock St., Thursday evening a week past, was one of the most unique house affairs visited by us. The costumes on this occasion took in four periods, i. e. the medieval, ancient, colonial and present day.

Mrs. Binkley of 849 Ceres Ave. of the colonial period carried away the prize.

The debate pulled off at Wesley Chapel church Monday evening, March 20, is to be repeated. The same two women who so easily defeated the same two men, will battle again, but next time the subject will read thus: "Resolved, That women should be granted national suffrage.

We advise the brethren to work hard for this time, as far as the women are concerned, the fight is two-fold.

We are glad to learn that our good Dr. H. D. Prowd has recovered sufficiently from the injuries sustained by a fall from a San Pedro St. car Friday evening a week ago ,and will be able to fill his pulpit all day Sunday at the Second Baptist church.

Dr. Prowd is a newcomer in our midst who we most heartily welcome.

So well has he lived and moved in church and society in other parts from which he came that his character and reputation both speak loudly for him.

The dinner served at the residence of Mrs. Joseph L. McCoy last Monday was a "top notcher." The Eagle staff ask that the good ladies responsible for the same repeat it in the near future, on the same plan, however.

The Angelus moving picture show, 934 Central, continues to put on the very best in motion pictures, also their high class vaudeville on Monday and Friday evening are the real class, the people both young and old, large and small, are demonstrating they appreciate the efforts of Messrs. Gordon and Williams to provide for them the splendid place of amusement.

Rev. J. Logan Craw

Pastor of First A. M. E. church, 8th and Towne avenue, and chairman of one of the delegations to the Centennial Session of the General Conference that will open in Philadelphia, Pa., on Wednesday, May 3, 1916. Rev. Mr. Craw will leave this city for that historic meeting, Wednesday, April 26, via Southern Pacific R. R. on "The California" to Kansas City. There he will join the Fifth Episcopal District Delegation which will go to take part in this great meeting. During Dr. Craw's absence he plans to fill his pulpit here with some of the ablest men in the West, aside from other attractions of a sacred nature that cannot be excelled. He will return to conduct services and administer the Lord's Supper on the first Sunday in June.

"Go-to-Church Sunday" will be emphasibed tomorrow, April 2nd, and First A. M. E. church, 8th and Towne avenue, welcomes everybody. Rev. Craw, the pastor, will deliver two special sermons. This great church with its great choir and metropolitan congregation is also preparing elaborate Easter exercises. A new carpet will adorn the Auditorium on Eastern Sunday as a donation from the Men's Co-operative club and the Easter day rally effort will close with a sacred program by the choir of 60 voices under the direction of Prof. Bynum.

R. W. Wells and W. R. Euber of Chicago were in the city Monday. Mr. Wells is the P. S. of the Arnett Lodge C.V.O. of O. F.. No. 7455. The Eagle correspondont accompanied them to the Waldorf in Los Angeles and enjoyed a 6 o'clock dinner. Mr. Wells is a great admirer of Major Thompson of Chicago and a close student of all public questions pertaining to politics.

If you have not registered yet this year, go today and do so. Remember, you will want to vote this fall. We will vote on the whiskey question; also we will elect a President.

There will be a hot time Saturday in Los Angeles on the Y.M.C. A. field, 194 entries having been received, which means that Keat will run in the sprints and hurdle evente. The tract meet will constitute all of the high schools in Southorn California, and each school will send its best. Pasadena will send James and Titus Moore, Bunch Perry and Paddock. They say Paddock has the swelled head. If such is the case he deserves to be soundly spanked and sent to bed, as he is only 16 years of age and is a freshman. His success must have traveled to his head.

We regret to hear of the death of Miss Helen Wadlow. She was an adopted daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. Wadlow of S. Vernon avenue. She died at the county hospital.

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN

Aunt Jemima

A few months ago I bought a beautiful Ortrich plume for a very reasonable price. Thinking that I would like another so that I might have two on my summer hat, I went to town and found that the prices are double what th what what they were. Can you tell why?

The cause is due to the war. The European markets have been closed and 460,000 of the 800,000 ostrich in South Africa have starved on account of shortage of corn.

While at a concert the other evening I met a young lady with whom I fell in love. Could you advise me what steps to take that I might become better acquainted with her. I am very anxious to be in her company.

You seem to know very little about the lady. Therefore I would advise you not to be in too great a hurry. If it is intended that you should becom better acquainted with the lady time will tell.

Progress Club Renders Splended Program

The home of Professor and Mrs. T A. Green was the scene of a beautiful array of young talent on last Saturday evening, when the Progressive Literary Club met in their regular meeting.

As this was program night, the following program was presented by the Program Committee;

Temperence Reading - Miss Eliza Robinson
Vocal Solo - Miss Mayme Lowe
Humorous Reading - Mr. Hilbert Rozier
Instrumental Solo - Miss Doris Youug

Debate: Resolved that Industrial Education is more beneficial than Literary Education.

Affirmative: Miss Nivian Temple and Mr. Lawrence Green.

Negative: Mr. Augustas Green and Mr. Eugene Walker.

Judges: Miss Ruth Temple, Mr. Jas Rodgers and Mr, Mc Donald.

The debate was red hot from start to finish and is said to be the best, every heard in the city by a young society.

The Judges admit it gave them a good deal of trouble, taking twenty five minutes to come to a decision.

There were about twenty persons present. In spite of the un favorable weather the Poly Social Club held its regular meeting, last Thursday evening at Violet Playground Club house. A good number were present.

Our Athletics, by Hilbert L, Rozier.—With the return of warmer weather, baseball candidates everywhere are taking advantage of it and many teams may be seen in action this summer.

The Y.M.C A. will start practice Thursday afternoon at Exposition park. A meeting will be held on Friday night to elect captain and manager.

Laurence Green has worked hard this year trying to build up the association team and he is pretty sure to be the next captain of the squad.

Julius Baker, Manual Arts and White Sox catcher, is going great these days. We wouldn't be surprised if "Rube" Foster doesn't get on his trail.

We are proud to say that all of our race representatives in the city track meet made splendid showings.

Clarence Bluett of Manual Arts and Wm. Pillows of Los Angeles, both annexed points in their favorite events, the shot-put and 220-yard dash respectively.

El Roy Lott of Poly also deserves much credit, and the fact that he did not place in the city.

The Giants added another to their long list of victories Sunday when they took the measure of the Harlow cafe team at Huele park, score 3 to 0. This was the opening game in the Giants' park. Hatch twirled shut-out ball for nine innings, while his team mates shammed in three runs.

C. Bernice Wood and Willie Kyle took the 9:30 train Wednesday night for Sacremento, where they are to become members of "Rube" Foster's Giants. Both boys are ball players by nature, as well as practice, and are sure to stick in fast company.

WHY?

Why do more than 96,000 depositors place their money in the Security?

First, because they know it's safe.

Second, because they are treated as though their business was appreciated.

Third, because they receive the highest rate of interest consistent with safe and conservative banking.

The security of YOUR money will be our first consideration too.

On Sunday afternoon, May 14, at the First Street Baptist church, Mothers' Day was duly observed under the suspices of the Federated clubs of San Diego. The meeting was opened by singing the Federated club song, "In the Ranks," and prayer was offered by Rev. W. A. Mitchell; Miss Windolin Logan played a piano solo; paper by Mrs. Moody; recitation by Edna Shannon; vocal solo by Miss May Harris; recitation, 'Too Late," Mrs. Thompson; instrumental solo, Elizabeth Perry; paper, "Mother's Love," by Mrs. Wallace; solo, "Silent Prayer," by Elsie Perry; reading, "Somebody's Mother," by Mrs. Glyn; vocal solo, by Mrs. Inez Harris, recitation, "The Battlefield." The third vice-president of the Federation made a talk on Mothers' Day, as did also Rev. W. A. Michell, Rev. T. Allen Harvey and Rev. C. Williams; also Mrs. Nelson, (chairman of the program committee) gave a talk, also Mrs. Thomson. Collection for the afternoon, $7.80.

Mr. Editor: Please permit me to say through your paper that we should honor our great men and revere their names after death. Has the time come that we should not? Have we gone so high up in the social world that we so lightly regard those who give their lives for our advancement, that we should drag their names in the lowest pit? It should be painful to the heart of every negro in the United States to see the name of him who gave his life to teach us how to respect each other and protect each other's good name brought down to the dust. In the San Diego Evening Tribune on Wednesday, the 10th, was an article commenting on a party of colored men on the streets with music advertising a Booker T. Washington ball. Is it possible that the young negroes have so little respect for the Christian religion and the principle this good man represented that they should dare to connect his name with a ball, and to cap it all the whole party landed in jail for disturbing the peace? Is that the way we honor our great men? Does that bring honor to the Race? Does it put any value upon the work this great man spent his life in trying to do? Every negro in these United States should see to it that that the name of this great hero of the Race should be lifted up and not cast down. Booker T. Washington's name was inscribed upon the greatest Book of all ages, the Book of Life, who's keeper is Christ.

C. Williams.

Mrs. Smith of 744 3rd street is expected to return to San Diego this week.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey is progressing nicely with his rally.

Among the visitors to our city we notice Mr. Pentegas, Mr. Brown, who is in from the Exposition, Peal Ramsey, who has returned after a month's stay in the North, Miss Willa Hosman from La Jolla, who attends the races dressed in the latest fashion, Miss L. Newlin, one of the fashion plates from New York, and many others.

A fine baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Little at their residence, 720 3rd street. Baby weighed 10 pounds. Both mother and baby reported doing well.

A fine baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Al Ramsey weighing 7 pounds. Both mother and daughter doing fine.

M. T. Laws, business manager of the Eagle, has been confined to his bed for several days and is still under the doctor's care.

The Wayfayers club had an opening last Tuesday, May 16. Quite a number were out.

Last Monday night there were more people at the Savoy theater than ever before, that is, they were in couples; usually gents go alone, but the plays have been so far above the average that gentlemen now take their lady friends. How nice! What an improvement. It shows that the people appreciate good shows.

There are a great many San Francisco people in the city.

The races are well attended by the sports from Los Angeles.

Tia Juana is a lively little place during the racing season.

Joe Stansel is in a very bad condition at his mother's home on Menlo street. He has taken a setback from the bullet wound received accidentally a little over a month ago.

Miss Helen Randolph has returned home, having spent six weeks with her relatives at Long Beach. She reports having had a nice time.

James Warren is improving at the county hospital.

On last Sunday the Mt. Zion Baptist church gave an auxiliary rally. The president of each auxiliary being called upon to raise the collections. The Missionary society, Mrs. S. Freeman, president, reported $3:15; the B.Y.P.U., Mrs. C. E. Norwood, president, $7.24; the Carnation club, Mrs. L. E. Goodwin, president, $11.49; the Sunday-school, Mrs. J. W. Gray acting superintendent, $1.86. Total collected, $23.24. The rally was given to raise money to furnish the parsonage.

The Olander club, which was organized about a month ago, met Friday afternoon at Miss Annie Mulholland's, the president of the club. Miss Mulholland will entertain again Friday afternoon, at which meeting the by-laws and constitution will be read. Mrs. C. E. Norwood, the chaperon of the club, has a cordial invitation to be present as a guest, as she intends leaving San Diego for Los Angeles, on a two or three week's stay. The girls are sorry to have her go, but Mrs. Norwood thinks she needs a rest. But can she rest in Los Angeles?

Mrs. L. L. Alexander paid $4 on her Eagle subscription.

On last Sunday afternoon Mrs. L. Alexander and her daughter, Miss Cook, entertained at luncheon Mrs. Reynolds and Master Clifford Reynolds, Mrs. Senorita H. Zamorano and her company. A delightful afternoon was passed.

Rev. C. Williams preached a very interesting sermon at Mt. Zion Sunday evening, "Courtship" being his subject. On next Sunday the subject will be on "Marriage." Come out and hear what he has to say.

Fire in the clothes cleaning establishment of W. W. Williams on 4th, north of Market street, caused damage to the extent of $300 shortly after 9 a.m. Thursday. Clothes hanging too close to a gasolene stove were ignited, it is said. Besides the loss of a number of suits, the building, a one-story brick, with wood roof and interior finish, was damaged by the flames, which burned through a partition. There was no insurance. S. J. Wines is the owner of the building.

Cheerfulness

God bless the cheerful person, man, woman or child, old or young illiterate or educated, handsome or homely. Over and above every other social trait stands cheerfulness. What the sun is to nature, what the stars are to night, what God is to the stricken heart which knows how to lean upon Him, are cheerful persons in the house and by the wayside. Man recognizes the magic of a cheerful influence in woman more quickly and more willingly than the potency of dazzling genius of commanding worth, or even of enslaving beauty.

If we are cheerful and contented all nature smiles with us; the air seems more balmy, the sky more clear, the ground has a brighter green, the trees a richer foliage, the flowers a more fragrant smell, the birds sing more sweetly and the sun, moon and stars all appear more beautiful.

Cheerfulness! How sweet in infancy, how lovely in youth, how saintly in age. There are a few noble natures whose presence carries sunshine with them wherever they go; a sunshine which means pity for the poor, sympathy for the suffering, help for the unfortunate, and benignity toward all. How such a face enlivens every other face it meets and carries into every company vivacity and joy and gladness. But the the scowl and frown begotten in a selfish heart and manifesting itself in daily, almost hourly fretfulness, complaining, fault finding, angry criticisms, spiteful comments on the motives and actions of others, how they thin the cheek, shrivel the face, sour and sadden the countenance. No joy in the heart, no nobility in the soul no generosity in the nature; the whole character as cold as an iceberg, as hard as Alpine rock, as arid as the waste of Sahara.

Look on the bright side, keep the sunshine of a living faith in the heart. Do not let the shadow of discouragement and despondency fall on your path, however weary you may be, the promises of God will never cease to shine like the stars at night, to cheer and strengthen. Learn to wait as well as labor, the best harvests are the longest in ripening. It is not pleasant to work in the earth plucking the ugly tares and weeds, but it is necessary as sowing the seed, the harder the task the more need of singing. A hopeful spirit will discern the silver lining of the darkest cloud, for back of all planning and doing with its attendant discouragements and hinderance shines the light of Divine promise and help.

Be cheerful for it is the only happy life, the times may be hard, but it will make them no earier to wear a gloomy and sad countenance, it is the sunshine and not the cloud that makys the flower. There is always that before or around us which should fill the heart with warmth. The sky is blue ten times where it is black once. You have troubles, it may be, so have other, none are free from them; perhaps it is as well that none should be; they give sinew and tone to life, fortitude and courage to man. It would be a dull sea and the sailor would never get skilled, if there was nothing to disturb the surface of the ocean. It is the duty of every one to extract all the happiness and enjoyment he can without and and within him, and above all he should look on the bright side of things, even though they look a little dark the lane will turn and the night will end in broad day. In the long run the great balance rights itself; what is ill becomes well, what is wrong becomes right. Men are not made to hang down either heads or lips and those who do only show that that they are departing from the paths of true common sense and right, there is more virtue in one sunbeam than a whole hemisphere of cloud and gloom. Therefore, we repeat, look on the bright side of things, cultivate what is warm and genial, not the cold and repulsive, the dark and morose. Don't neglect your duty, live down predjudice.

We always know the cheerful man by his hearty "good morning" don't forget to say it; say it to your parents' your brothers and sisters, your schoolmates, your teachers, and say it cheerfully and with a smile, it will do you good and do your friends good. There's a kind of inspiration in every "good morning" heartily and smilingly spoken that helps to make hope fresher and work lighter. It seems really to make the morning good and a prophecy of a good day to come. If this be true of the "good morning" it is also of all kind, cheerful greetings; they cheer the discouraged, rest the tired one, and somehow make the wheels of time run more smoothly. Be liberal then and let no morning pass, however dark and gloomy it may be, that you do not help at least to brighten it by your smiles and cheer.

The cheerful are the busy; when trouble knocks at your door or rings the bell he will generally retire if you send him word engaged and a busy life cannot well be other wise than cheerful. Frogs do not croak in running water and active minds are seldom troubled with gloomy forebodings, they come only from stagnant depths of a spirit unstirred by generous impulses or the blessed necessities of honest toil. The industrious bee stops not to complain that there are so many poisonous and thorny branches in his road but buzzes on, selecting the honey where he can find it and passing quietly by the places where it is not. There is enough in this world to complain

We believe that a man with money in the Bank is a better citizen than he otherwise would be.

The only way to get ahead in money matters is to save systematically a portion of your income and deposit it regularly in a strong, conservative bank, such as this, where it will earn a good rate of interest.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST
(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)
Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Although the pastor was compelled to be absent Sunday, the services were well attended. The senior deacon, Bro. J. A. Shaffer very efficiently couducted the services. At the morning session Rev. N. Price preached. The evenieg sermon was delivered by Bro. J. J. Joseph, a promising young preacher of this church. The choir seemed to have been at its best and rendered excellent and appropriate Mother's Day music.

Sunday promises to be another great day, the pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services. All are welcome, come early if you desire a seat. State ments of the second quarterly conferene held May 3rd, 1916, have been published and can be secured free of charge, by applying to the pastor or any of the officers.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Mothers Day was fittingly observed the pastor speaking in the morning on "The Influence of Mothers." The church was beautifully decorated with white carnations.

Services Sunday: Sunday school 10 a.m. Preaching by the pastor 11:15 a m and 8 p m. Morning, "The True Estimate of Men;" evening, "The Syrian Leper." Christian Endeavor 7 p m. topic, "The Blessing of Peace and How to Get Them," led by Mrs. J. W. Byars. You are cordially invited to these services.

Bethel Church of Christ

Sunday school was taught with great interest by the teachers. A very helpful address was delivered by the superintendent. The school close with the reading of the minutes by Recorder Mrs. T. M. Washington.

At 11 o'clock, invocation by Rev. Rosemon which aroused the hearts of the congregation. Scripture was read by the pastor, Joal 3:10,

The afternoon service was open by Sister E. L. Lewis singing hymn No. 11 The pastor preached a very profitable sermon.

At 6 p m the Young People's Christian League held a very interesting service. The evening service was at 8.

The Bethel church will hold its 7th anniversary the 4th Sunday in this month. All pastors and their congregations are invited. Rev. E. W. Kinchen will preych at 3 p m and Rev. Tilman will preach at 7 p m.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.

Zion is now a church of beauty since the outside has been repaired and painted. Our pastor, Rev. Byers, is away at general conferance in Louisville, Ky., and will be gone for 3 more weeks, during the interim Rev. G. W. Reed of Stockton, post-graduate in child work for the church, a brilliant speaker and traveling evangelist, will occupy the pulpit,

Zion has another rally known as the Fishermen's Club Rally which is for the purpose of paying off the expense of repairs. The 3rd Sunday in June is rally day.

Zion's Sunday school is one of the largest and is still growing under its able head, Prof. J. C. Banks.

Monday at 7:30 p m the Fishermen's Club will entertain the lady members and invited friends. Refreshment and program. No admission.

Wesley Chapel

The services Sunday morning will always live in the minds of the people who were present. The splendid addresses by Dr. Stovall, Miss Margie Danley, Augustus Greene and Douglas Warren thrilled every person the church The church was thronged in the afternoon with Odd Fellows and the Household of Ruth. Pastor Kinchen preached their annual sermon for the fourth time

Sunday the pastor will preach at 11 a m and at 3 p m he will preach the annual sermon of the Ancient United Knight and Daughters of Africa. The evening services will be in charge of the Epworth League, Bro. J. A. Jackson, president.

Pastor Kinchen will say a word Sunday relative to a statement made by an attorney at one of the churches on last Sunday about the general conferance of the M.E. church at Sarotoga Springs The statement that because the newspapers report the proceedings of the general conference are silent on other similar conferences that is an indication of the disorder at Saratoga Springs which is a falsehood.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)
Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Sunday was a great day at Firs church. Large crowds were present both morniag and evening. At the morning services the ladies of the Mite Missionary Society gave out white carnations in honor of "Mother's Day." The sermon by Rev. H. H. Williamson was a spiritual feast. The choir as usual rendered excellent music. The appeal made by Mrs. C. Barr, for the Day Nursey was responded to liberally by the large congregation. At the evening services Mrs. J. L. Craw delivered her first sermonette to the delight of all.

The pastor sends greetings to all members and friends and says he is well, but busily engaged in the work of the great general conference.

Sunday promises to be another spiritual feast. We will have with us another of our able visiting ministers.

The Red and Blue contest is on full blast in our Sunday school. There were 151 present last Sunday, the red side was ahead. This contest closes Children's Day night.

Tuesday evening the pastor's wife and mother were completely surprised by a number of members and friends who gave them a pound party. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Pasadena News

The branch office of the Eagle in Pasadena has moved from 26 E. Colorado to 45 South Delacy. All mail will be sent to the above address, while the main office is at 814 Central avenue, Los Angeles. The phone number is Main 1594. S. B. Carr has charge of the local office. Please notify him if you fail to get your paper, as that is the only way that he has to know it.

It is reported that the Pasadena High School will send Titus Moore to Chicago to compete with the High School Tract meet in June. He has already won the championship of California in the high jump, and the P.H.S. think he can bring back the bacon from Chicago.

We regret to hear that Prof Moore is to remove back East. This will be a great loss to Pasadena society, as well as to the High School, as both the boys, Titus and James, are stars at P.H.S.

Howard Drew is again in the city and will enter U.S.C. this fall. What is the trouble with the Day nursery?

The greatest revival ever held in this city has just closed. It was conducted by Rev. F. F. Moten of Los Angeles. It was held at the A.M.E. church of Pasadena.

Rev. Dyatt is a happy man, and he has few equals on the Coast as a Christian minister. Many have joined the church.

Don't forget Monday night at Wesley chapel, when the choir from Scott chapel will journey to Los Angeles and give a concert. Mrs. Beavers is not leaving a stone unturned to make it a grand success, so let us all go over and help her.

Buy rolling stock, not mining. F. M. Prince, L. S. Baker, W. B. Carr and Wm. Prince now have autos, while Willie Carr has purchased a motorcycle.

Mrs. Walter Carr entertained a few friends Wednesday evening in honor of her husband's birthday, it being the thirtieth anniversary of his birth.

Dr. Nelson is enjoying a fine practice in this city.

J. Braye was in the city Wednesday in the interest of an industrial school for colored people.

Another preacher goes wrong and gets 15 years in State's prison for it, Rev. Madison Slaughter of Oroville, Cal., convicted of improper relations with a 15-year-old girl. While we believe that a call to the ministry is the highest call that comes to man, yet we believe that if all of them would get justice while on earth there would be many a vacant pulpit. As a rule they do more to keep our race divided than any other set of professional men in our Race, but Rev. Slaughter was not a member of our Race, but was a servant of God. Remember that the saints are in heaven.

We regret to learn that Rev. Sister Dolly Lewis is dangerously ill at Jefferson, Ky., and has been for four weeks, but at this writing it is reported she is some better. We pray that she may recover and soon return to her home in this city. She is a member of Scott chapel and was a great assistant to the late Dr. Duncan while he was pastor of Scott chapel.

The Missionary Society will render a special high class musical and literary program at the Metropolitan Social Hall, 140 Waverly Drive, Pasadena, on next Thursday evening, May 25.

The program will be rendered by some of the best talent of Pasadena; in addition to this other prominent persons of Los Angeles will take part. Dr. H. D. Prowd of the Second Baptist church will speak, and his daughter, Miss Helen Prowd, will render her favorite piano selection. Mrs. A. F. Webber, president of the Women's Convention Auxiliary of the State Baptist Convention of California, will also speak.

Some of the social features will be a pond and post office. This, together with other amusements will constitute the evening's ovation.

Don't fail to be present. Admission free.

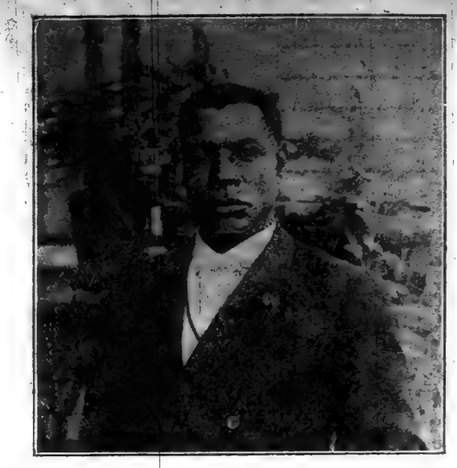
MRS. MARY EDWARDS, President.
MRS. C. MAE HARTS, Sec.

Those of the delegates from the Grand Circle which convened in San Francisco returned Friday morning, in person of Mmes. Anglen, R. C. Sims and Corry of Pasadena. They report a delightful time spent, but said they were glad to get back where the sun was shining.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Providence Inst. church will have services Sunday by Rev. E. Payne at 7:30 p. m. Rev. A. C. Williams will also speak. All the clubs are at work again and will report the fourth Sunday in this this month, All welcome.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes



Last Sunday was a high one in Zion, the pastor occupying the pulpit. Two openly confessed to the Lord Jesus, one being a woman nearly 60 years of age. Sunday Dr. Moten will preach. Dinner will be served at 1 o'clock. Services at 8 p. m.

Tabernacle Church

Last Sabbath was gloriously passed at the Tabernacle church, the pastor filling his pulpit both morning and evening.

The Sabbath school was well attended. The pastor preached an eloquent sermon in the morning taking as his text, "The Presence of Christ," which held the large congregation all attention.

Bible study every evening from 7 until 8. All welcome.

An Eulogy to My Father, Rev. S. L. Harris

When the evening sun is setting,
Far off in the golden west
And my thoughts begin to wander,
To the ones that I love best.

How my heart breaks down in sorrow
And how tears bedim my eyes
As I think of you, dear papa,
Way up yonder in the skies.

It's almost a year, dear papa,
But to us it seems a day
Since you left us, oh, so sudden
To go so far away.

When we sit and think and wonder
It seems but as a dream,
That now you should be away forever,
No more on earth be seen.

But when I close my eyes in slumber
And the world is fast asleep
It is you who comes and whispers,
I am happy, do not weep.

Aud I hear your sweet voice calling
And I see your pleasant smile.
Then I ask myself the question,
Is our crying worth the while?

He is happy. why should we sorrow
And let tears bedim our eyes.
Let's strive to meet him on the morrow
And live with him above the skies.

Sleep on, dear papa, sleep thou on,
Angels thy vigil's keep
Nothing, no nothing but the trumpet of God
Shall disturb thy slumber deep.

And when our work on earth is done
And we receive the final call.
We shall meet you mother, and the rest in heaven
To help crown Him Lord of all.

—Your daughter, A. C. H. Bildrew.

2nd Baptist Church of Monrovia

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised, was the motto at 2nd Baptist Sunday. Rev. Jones of Tabernacle church preached an excellent sermon at 11 o'clock. Mothers' day was observed at the evening service. The pastor delivered a special sermon to the mothers for the occasion. The choir rendered special music for the occasion.

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church
1406 Newton Street

Services were well attended Sunday. The pastor preached at both services.

Mrs. Spear-Bass addressed the Epworth League. Her address was full of good wholesome thought and inspiration to all who heard her.

Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Anderson were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Colbert for dinner Sunday at their home in Boyle Heights.

There will be a lecture given for the benefit of one of the clubs June 5th. An excellent program is being arranged for the occasion. Notice and full particulars later.

The neighbors and friends of Mrs. M. J. Davis tendered her a very pleasant little party on last Tuesday evening on her arrival home from San Diego, where she had been for the last three weeks. Mrs. Davis stated that her trip was very beneficial, and being organizer of the State Federation of Colored Women's clubs she was invited to visit several of the local clubs, two of which she makes special mention. The Friday club which is so well known all over the state for its hospitality to visitors and strangers, and whose every meeting is a reception, upheld by the dignity of their most efficient president, Mrs. E. J. Freeman. The club observed Shakespeare's Day with a most excellent program.

The Old Ladies' Helping Hand club was an inspiration. They are taking care of their sick and burying their dead and doing a great work. Mrs. Woodley, acting president. Having seen the sights and visited the Exposition two days as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Winston, do truly say that she never spent a more profitable vacation in her life, thanks to the San Diego ladies and to the sunshine and flowers.

ATTORNEY E. BURTON CERUTI SCORES GREAT VICTORY IN MILLER MURDER TRIAL AT SANTA BARBARA

Special to The California Eagle

In the Miller murder trial which is now on in this city, every inch of the ground is being stubbornly contested by both sides. So far in the preliminaries the defense by Chief Counsel E. Burton Ceruti, assisted by Judge Gammil of this city, have out-maneuvered and out-generalled the prosecution and on Thursday on motion of the defense, six jurors, after having been sworn in were discharged and the peremptory challenges restored to the defense. This point was bitterly contested by District Attorney Squires, who argued at length against it, but to no avail. Attorney Ceruti is demonstrating his worth as a criminal lawyer and is the cynosure of all eyes as he is making a strenuous battle for the life of his client.

This is the 16th day since the trial has started and no one at this time will hazard a guess as to its finish. Venire after venire has been called and exhausted. There are many jurors who deliberately disqualify themselves from service. There are also those who have probably seen the Clansman and say right out that on account of Race prejudice they could not give the defendant a fair trial. It seems as though some of them are steeped much farther in the depths of ignorance and superstition than the Black Race, and as a result thereof have an innate prejudice and cannot assert a reason therefor. This condition makes the task of securing a jury a hard one. In the meantime many witnesses are chafing under their enforced absence from their homes and their business, but there is no help for it, they have no alternative but to stick until discharged by the court when the state and defense have closed their presentation of evidence.

Jury Has Been Obtained

On Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, just 24 days since the trial of Tom Miller started, was the last juror selected to sit on his trial. The evidence is now being heard and it is predicted that by Monday or Tuesday of next week the trial will be finished.

The battle will rage over the insanity issue, which will be the defense offered, hence the state's testimony in chief is only perfunctory, but they will make their great effort in rebuttal.

To one on the ground it looks like the defense has a stronger case than at the first trial, notwithstanding the record of a conviction for first degree murder in its favor, the state will have to go some to procure the same verdict this time.

And any sort of verdict they render outside of first degree murder without recommendation will be a notable victory for the defense.

HITTING THEIR STRIDE

DOING THINGS WORTH WHILE

Take a look at Central Avenue this week between 8th and 12th streets, and if you have ever doubted the part the Negro is playing in this march of progress that doubt will disappear even at the snow fades under the rays of the noonday sun. This great galaxy of business concerns of which you have read—and now the great big new home of the Angelus theater is being erected, thirty to forty mechanics and laborers on the job! A colored contractor, colored brick layers, carpenters, plasterers, etc. The money to build the same is the product of that pioneer business man of the West and his energetic partner, viz., J. W. Gordon and F. A. Williams. These gentlemen, for their thrift, for their confidence in loyalty of their Race, and for the reason they are doing something which is a distinct benefit to their Race, should by all means have their unanimous backing in their efforts in this city. They are furnishing the avenue from which we as a Race must be able to traverse before we can come up in the mercantile pursuits.

Go out Central Avenue way. Go and see for yourself that this people in this, the metropolis of the Pacific Coast, are coming, Father Abraham, 30,000 strong, and then you will feel as we feel, that we are hitting our sride and are doing the things worth while.

IN ERROR—APOLOGY FOR SAME

Rushing to press last week and our Santa Barbara correspondence reaching us late, too late to read even the proof, an article slipped both the managing editor and editor of this paper. Said article cast reflection upon the credit of Mr. R. H. Hite. We desire to apologize to Mr. Hite, without even being asked to do so, for the appearance of said article. While the same appeared under head of Santa Barbara notes and was not written by us, we are responsible for all matter in these columns and we still maintain the principle of all men up and no man down, and when we err, we do not feel too big to own up the same. More especially when the same is not within the law.

J. B. BASS, Editor.

They thunder, out prosperity is here, but everybody seems to be from Missouri and they must really be shown.

JUDGE JONES IS ALL RIGHT

We regret that Judge Griffin Jones has abdicated the bench of the Sunrise court, for since he has been thereon he has accomplished marvelous things for the cause of good citizenship in this community. He has reduced drunkenness in this city 50 per cent, has made many homes happy in doing so, and has gained for this city through his doing something worth while, a great publicity, so much so that many cities are adopting the rules made by Judge Jones in handling the situation here. But Judge Jones should worry, men of his worth will always be in demand and he will no doubt be called upon in a more pretentious manner to serve this people.

EDITORIAL SHORT STOPS

In a recent issue of The California Eagle it was stated that we as a Race were politically, after the Presidential Primaries, "Just where we started," and we added there was no occasion for rejoicing because the "regulars" won out. The truth of what we said has been strengthened by the contempt of the importance of that portion of the Negro vote that was loyal to them, as shown in the first meeting of the "regular delegates" in San Francisco, when they chose the 26 alternate delegates to the convention and did not select a single Negro. It is just such treatment that has cooled the ardor of many who fail to see the significance in calling a mere "political machine" a "party." "Machines," though do not usually reward their hirelings, as they have again and again boasted it is more convenient to pay before the election than to be under obligation after the election. If this is their claim now, of course, we haven't anything to say.

The "lilywhite republicans" have been busy in the South, and by the way, in some of the Western states. The National Republican Executive Committee will be in session a week before the meeting of the Convention, and will pass upon the prima facie rights of contested delegates to seats in the Convention. Louisiana, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida, Virginia, Oklahoma, Mississippi, District of Columbia and several other Southern states will have contesting delegations. In every instance it is the old fight of the "lilywhite" who contends that the Negro shall have no voice in National delegate convention, and the so-called "black-and-tan," who believe that no man entitled to a seat in the convention should be debarred because of Race or Color.

Let us be united in all of our Race endeavors. It is very plain that conditions are becoming more trying, and our lack of Race unity encourage those who would put obstacles in the way of our advancement.

Now that Pan-America, the governments of Central and South America, have issued the fiat: United States must not intervene in the affairs of Mexico, the Wilson administration has a hard nut to crack.

Edison, the great wizard of the electrical world, says that Theodore Roosevelt is worth more as a candidate for President, than all of the other mentioned candidates combined.

What has become of those Texas cowboys that went into Mexico to be avenged on the Mexican raiders. Like Villa they appear to have been lost in the "shuffle."

The Negro vote is the balancing power in six pivotal states. And his wants are too urgent to be passed up.

The National Republican platform should condemn the Wilson's treatment of the Negro.

The girls out on Logan Heights are getting quite popular of late, and the young men are all flocking to this part of town.

There was a good crowd out on Sunday morning at Mt. Zion Baptist church, and Sunday evening the house was crowded, to hear the Rev. F. T. Walker of Bakersfield. He certainly preached a good sermon, his subject being "A Prepared Place for a Prepared People." It was preached in such a way that a child could not fail to understand. Every one enjoyed the sermon and hope to hear Rev. Walker again.

Rev. C. C. Williams preached for us last Wednesday night and also set the church to thinking. His sermon was effective in every way, his subject being "Just Touch the Hem of His Garment." Mt. Zion church will also be glad to hear Rev. C. C. Williams again.

The Carnation club was royally entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Moultan and Mrs. C. Wright. Every one present enjoyed the evening.

The sewing circle of the Missionary society of the Mt. Zion Baptist church met Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the home of Sister E. Freeman, 3013 Martin avenue. They are commencing a great work, and hope to do more and efficient work in the future than have ever done in the past. The helping hand portion of the work has had a little set back, owing to the fact that we have no place at present to establish the work, but are trying to make some plans by the help of God to get established soon, as there are so many of our people who need our help and assistance in this line.

Mrs. R. Ryder is to give an entertainment for the B.Y.P.U. next Thursday evening at Masonic hall, April 6. Every one is cordially invited to attend, and all are assured a good time and a splendid program by our young people. Mrs. Ryder is chairman of the social committee of the B.Y.P.U. and we certainly appreciate her effort to get up an entertainment for the young people. Admission 15c. Come one, come all. The Eagle staff is also invited.

The young people on Mt. Zion Hill met at the home of Mrs. C. Norwood on Tuesday evening and tendered a farewell reception to Richard White, Miss Ellen Gatewood and Mrs. Annie Hurley. They left at 8:20 Monday morning for Louisville, Ky. They all expressed their pleasure of the good time extended them while in San Diego, and also their regrets in eaving us.

Mrs. Shepherd and her friend, Mrs. Fowler, are in San Diego. There formerly resided in Pasadena and later went to Oakland. They expect to commence house keeping in San Diego. Both of the ladies are good church workers, and that is what is needed in San Diego.

John Luckey, who is well known by all the residents of San Diego, passed away last Friday night at the county hospital.

Joe Stansel, who was accidentally shot last Wednesday night, is at the county hospital. He wa an innocent by-stander and received two bullets, one entering the left arm and ranging up in the shoulder and lodged in the back, the other bullet entering the left side of the back and lodged in the abdomen. He is getting along about as well as could be expected. The bullet as yet has not been extracted.

ALUMNI ORATORICAL CONTEST

1915-16 Students and Graduates to Compete

"How our conduct at home and abroad affects ourselves and our race" will be discussed at an oratorical contest, May 9th, at Wesley Chapel M. E. church, under the auspices of the Southern California Alumni Association. The receipts of the affair will go into the association's scholarship aid fund, for the annual scholarship prize of fifty ($50) dollars, to be awarded in June, to the California student graduating with the highest average scholarship rating.

Students and Graduates Invited

All students of the various schools, and all 1915 and 1916 graduates, are invited to enter the contest at once, by giving their written notice to either of the undersigned committeemen. No person may enter the contest after the next meeting of the association, April 9, as the program will be made up then—one month before the date of the contest, May 9th.

The Contest

Fifteen minutes will be allowed for each speaker to render, without reading (notes will be permitted), his original oration on the subject mentioned above. Three judges, from outside of the association, will be elected by the association.

RAILROAD NEMS.

(S. F. Bulletin.)

On January 17th, after an exceptional down pour the night before, a number of trains were delayed on the Tucson, Los Angeles and Coast divisions. They were held at points which were to the convenience and comfort of passengers. The latter wherever held were unanimous in making the best of the situation. Employes at Yuma and the city itself "fairly outdid" themselves in hospitality. On January 19th the delayed passengers were given excursions throughout the valley. The principal points at which trouble had been encountered in the south were at the entrance to the Los Angeles yards, at Whitewater on the El Paso route, and at Moorpark on the Coast line. On January 20th, the first clear day since the storm broke, the line from Los Angeles to Yuma was opened to traffic. That night all regular main line passenger trains left Los Angeles on time. On that morning the Southern Pacific was the only Transcontinental line entering Los Angeles using its own rails, and in addition to this the company handled 20 detour trains of other lines.

Passengers on the Golden State Limited, No. 3, who were delayed at Indio on Monday, January 17th, owing to high water troubles, have expressed their appreciation of their treatment in the following resolutions addressed to the officials of the Southern Pacific company, the Rock Island lines, the Pullman company and the El Paso and Southwestern railroad.

WHEREAS, Owing to unavoidable delay we remained at Indio until Thursday afternoon, January 20th, and in the meantime the flood waters from Monday night until Thursday would have prevented any of us from leaving the cars, and

WHEREAS, Every convenience and comfort, even to the smallest detail, were carefully provided and at no time were we without plenty of food, water, lights, linens, etc., and aside from the delay in arriving at our destination, none of us were inconvenienced in any way. In recognition of this service it is hereby worthy of highest praise, and be it

Resolved, That the courtesy, efficiency and attention accorded us by the employes named is worthy of the highest praise. We are especially indebted to the Pullman conductor, J. M. Mayer, not only for conduct in performing his duties, but for arranging entertainment day and night. Also the special attention accorded us by the dining car steward, M. Kinstler, and the chef, E. P. Mohr, who provided us with good meals every day.

A large hall was secured in Indio for parties, dances and concerts through the efforts of Mr. Lamport and Otto Shaffero and all railroad employes. A flat car carried the passengers to a temporary bridge and from there to the dances and entertainments which were provided.

Grateful acknowledgement is also extended to those in charge of the train, consisting of J. P. Bassett, conductor; Wm. King and A. W. Strahl, brakemen; Fred Moore, porter observation car; D. A. Gaithan, A. Webb, R. W. Gully, B. L. Glover, Pullman porters; H. C. Tolliver, J. Heard, E. S. Gilmore, and Wm. Smith, dining car waiters; E. C. Barcus, cook; Frank Fresh, third cook.

Two Prizes Given Away

At the Rainbow Drill April 5th at Washington and Central hall. The person holding the lucky number will receive a free scalp treatment and a month's treatment of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations, the person holding second lucky number will receive a month's treatment of the preparations.

A numbered ticket will be given to each adult at the door. Admission, 25c; children, 15c.

Watts Citizens Will

March to Victory; Election Monday April 10th

OUR COLORED CLIENTAGE AT WATTS

The colored population at Watts is a creditable one.

In nearly every political campaign since the birth of Watts the colored voters seem to have been able to get together on issues, and have voted solidly. This spirit on the part of our people points towards a solid successful future for those of us who are turning our faces towards this little city of prosperity.

Now it is only hoped that the sturdy, hard working colored citizens of this growing little city will keep their eyes and ears open and keep out those lazy political pirates, who pollute the civic and social life of any city in which they are allowed to operate.

On next Monday avail yourselves of the opportunity of every good citizen—go to the polls and vote this ticket that your own representative citizens published in this paper because they believe, out of their part experience that these men if put in office will deal justly with all men.

Editor J. B. Bass, in company with our San Francisco representative, Mr. H. Shannon, is visiting San Diego and Imperial this week. All along the line Editor Bass is boosting for a bigger and better California for blacks and whites alike.

Seeing the handwriting on the wall, the opponents of Jacob J. Hohn, J. S. Lange and W. I. Hopcraft, are using all kinds of hog wash in their efforts to stem the tide but they have been weighed in the balance and found wanting, and the colored vote which is the balance of power in this election will be a solid phalanx for the people's ticket, headed by Jake Hohn and Jack Lange.

They have stooped but at that will utterly fail to conquer, the old rot about saloon license has spent its bolt and acted as a boomerang. No colored man wants a saloon license. And if he did as long as Watts is wet he would have as much right to have one as any other citizen thereof.

The people are sore and tired of ring rule in Watts and they are all congratulating the colored voters on their firm stand to break it up. The question before the voters is, "Shall the People Rule," and Monday the answer will be echoed back, they will. Hohn, Lange and Hopcraft will win hands down because they are for the people. It is therefore the plain and imperative duty of the colored voters of Watts to stand their ground and in one grand solid phalanx without a dissenting or discordant note, balance the scales in this election for the people.

Monday night meeting of the league was an enthusiastic one and all are on edge for the final fray on next Monday.

THE RAINBOW DRILL AT WASHINGTON HALL WEDNESDAY EVENING UNDER AUSPICES OF MME. C. J. WALKER'S CULTURE CLUB BIG SUCCESS.

Much credit is due Mrs. Vernon Gray and the ladies assisting her for the success of the affair given for the benefit of the Mme. C. J. Walker's Culture Club. The affair, especially the drill, was a brilliant affair, and the twenty-four girl drillers demonstrated thorough and accurate training, much credit for which, we believe, is due Miss Lauretta Butler, who has proven herself master of the art in child training for concert and vaudeville acts.

The character songs by Misses Louise Littlejohn and Green were also well done.

A large appreciative audience was present, and everyone was highly pleased with the affair.

The gentleman and lady holding the lucky card given at the door received presents of scalp treatment on the spot.

PRENTICE DRUG STORE GIVES GRAND OPENING

The opening of the Prentice Drug Store on 12th and Central Ave. on last Monday evening was a grand success. People in all walks of life came out in large numbers to pay their respects and to wish the genial proprietor success. This highly creditable institution which will not suffer in comparison with any drug store in the city for its completeness and service is now open for business and solicits your patronage.

Monday evening each visitor was serverd with light refreshments and all left declaring Dr. Prentice the prince of hosts.

NOTED EVANGELIST AND LECTURER WILL SPEAK AT METROPOLITAN BAPTIST CHURCH, PASADENA

Rev. G. W. Reed, evangelist and lecturer, will deliver an address at the Metropolitan Baptist church, Pasadena, Tuesday night, the 11th inst. Rev. Reed is considered one of the best informed public speakers on questions pertaining to the race.

He is an orator of no mean ability, witty and humorous. As a story teller he is in a class to himself as was demonstrated in his address at the Forum of Los Angeles some time ago.

He does not allow his audience to go dead on him. He will speak on the subject, "The Truth About a Great Question."

The public is cordially invited to hear this great man. There will be no charge for admission.

VICTORY WILL BE THEIRS

Winning Fight by the Independence League at Watts in the Coming Election—Election April 10th

The red hot campaign of Watts is coming to a head and the ticket as published herewith will be elected beyond peradventure, but the Independence League wants to clinch this victory by such a vote that it will forever silence those who stand in the way of progress in Watts. The following is the people's ticket, the men thereon represent the people and are for all the people all the time regardless of race, color or creed.

Trustees

JACOB J. HOHN X
JOHN S. LANGE X

City Clerk

WALTER I. HOPCRAFT X

City Treasurer

SARAH A. SMITH X

Analysis of This Ticket

To say that the above ticket stands for a square deal for everybody is a complete and concrete analysis of the same for it is composed of purely commoners whose honesty and integrity cannot for one moment be questioned.

Jacob H. Hohn

For trustee Jake Hohn as he is called by the entire populace, is a man whom everyone knows. They know that he can have no other than a keen interest for the future prosperity of Watts, as he has large property interests here, he is a plain, common, every-day, unassuming young man whom all may approach and consult on the problems which confront the city and that is what is needed in Watts at this time.

He is receiving the united support of the League and will be a strong winner on the 10th.

John S. Lange

Now John Lange is the one best bet for the people in this election. He has been tried and found to ring true on every proposition which had for its object the interests of the people. As a present member of this board he stands like a stone wall for the people. The people universally hold in the highest esteem Mr. Lange for his great service in their behalf and will give to him a magnificent endorsement on the 1t0h of April.

W. I. Hopcraft for City Clerk

W. I. Hopcraft is one of the splendid citiens of Watts who has since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, been a booster for Watts. He is out on his merits for this position. The California Eagle desires to give its support to Mr. Hopcraft. He has been a man that has encouraged the enterprise of these people as for many months those who read the Eagle will remember his advertisement was always therein. So for the reason of his fitness and this time because he is with the people against the ring, we urge for him a strong and unanimous support.

Mrs. Sarah A. Smith for Treasurer

Now for this office the present incumbent, Mrs. Sarah A. Smith, has no opposition, but we want to say that she is a splendid, first class citizen and all are proud of her and to know that she has always made good.

DAUGHTER AND FRIEND SURPRISE MOTHER WITH A DOUBLE BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Last Saturday afteronon Mrs. Jessie B. Saunders of Ceres ave. was allured from her home to another part of the city by a friend while her daughter, Mrs. Earnest Jones, transformed their neat little home into a thing of beauty, for lilies, chrysanthemums and green foliage adorned both ceiling and wall, and refreshments toning with the color scheme, pink and white in decoration was brought in.

Not until everything was in ship shape was Mrs. Saunders allowed to return home; and then to be greeted by fourteen ladies, who cried with one accord "Surprise."

As the afternoon died away and evening came on the guests after a very happy reunion dispersed, only, however, to be reimbursed by a new gathering, who came generalled by Mrs. M. Dawson, who was in charge in the evening.

When the guests had been gathered together the big birthday cake loaded with fifty-three delicate little candles was lighted. An excellent program was rendered, Mrs. D. Martin singing, "The Perfect Day," which charmed everyone present.

Mrs. Saunders, who because of her cheery disposition is loved by her friends an neighbors said to The Eagle representative, "My cup is running over with joy and I think it was very sweet of my daughter and Mrs. Dawson to think of this for me."

Mrs. Saunders was the recipient of many beautiful tokens.

CLUB AND SOCIAL DOINGS

Clarence L. James is Host of Progressive Club

Miss Ruth Temple, after spending a week of her vacation with us, has returned to Loma Linda to again take up her studies.

While here, Miss Temple visited the Progressive Literary Club and was much elated at the progress made by them since her last visit.

Miss Josephine Baker gave a splendid concert which was featured with many new hits in the musical world as well as splendid recitations, last Tuesday night, at First Baptist Church, Furlong.

Clarence L. James, superintendent of the Second A. M. E. church, is in Riverside for the S. S. Convention. He expects to remain over until Saturday evening.

Unless some one renders aid to the "Poly Social" Club, we are inclined to believe that they will not last long.

The club made a mistake in not qualifying their membership, and as a result, cannot do anything with some of their members.

They ought to take a peek at what their little sister The Progressive Club, is doing.

The Sunday afternoon club, of which Lawrence Patterson is president, could also use some advice. The sooner that some of our young people learn that we are not to act as children, but pattern after the older people, the better it will be for us all.

"VENGEANCE IS MINE," SAITH THE LORD

While ministers of the Gospel both white and black are crying from their pulpits "Repent for the kingdom of God is at hand, while sinners are crying "What shall we do to be saved;" and while the 10th Cavalry, a regiment of black men are marching as it were into the very mouth of hell in Mexico—Oklahoma wrestles with eGorgia for honors in the perpetuation of heinous crimes upon the "Black Men" within her borders.

Tuesday, April 4th

(Special to the L. A. Tribune)

IDABEL, Okla., April 3.—Identified by his girl victim as the man who criminally assaulted her, Oscar Martin, colored, was lynched in the court room here today.

Martin was having his preliminary hearing. The girl took the witness stand and identified him. Immediately a number of men quietly arose, disarmed the officers and seized him.

A rope was tied around his neck, fastened to a projection and he was shoved from a platform in the court room. As he dangled there one of the mob shot him twice. The crowd dispersed at once. No arrests were made.

Is it possible that this government, founded upon a constitution that says that all men shall enjoy rights and privileges, will continue to call upon its black soldiers to intervene in the Philippines and Mexico and not protect those same citizens and soldiers from the howling mobs of the Southland, that blight this civilization and cast reflection upon the religion of the age.

Oh, Uncle Sam, we pray thee to bend thy proud head and have mercy upon these thy black subjects for the God whom we give jects for the God whom we serve is not dead, and neither are these black soldiers who stand ready to protect and defend this country asleep to the treatment you administers as compensation for service.

SOME MEETING

There was called to meet at the 14th street school on last Monday evening what was to be a harmony or get together meeting of the Republican voters of the 74th Assembly district. It was the plan to unite the various clubs into one district organization, but there was nothing doing.

We have taken part in many meetings, some stormy ones, in the last quarter of a century but of all the meetings that we have ever attended this one caps the climax. It was some meeting. There was one man walking up and down the floor who defied the whole gathering to make him "sit down;" there was another jumping up every minute or so with a point of order; there was another and divers ones who seemed bent on the idea that HARMONY was just the thing they did not want. This in no way describes the meeting. It was disgusting to good citizens, So raw it was that many arose abruptly and left, especially when a preacher arose and commenced to recite how he loved his people. A funny incident took place as the club man left a preacher who was on the floor said "there goes my friend; he gave me three dollars for my church." Another person close by said, "how much gin?" The question was unanswered. In all fairness to Mr. Utterback, who acted as chairman, let it be said he was fair and impartial and gave to all a fair and square deal. But the wreckers were there to wreck and there was nothing doing, and there never will be as long as these forces are allowed to be recognized in organized bodies.

So the district organizations stand as they were and we suppose will each work in their own way. The regular 74th district club, of which J. H. Penson is the president, will hold a monster rally the date of which will be announced next week.

Samuel O. Bell of hte Torpedo Boat, Perry, stationed at San Diego, was a pleasant visitor to our office this week.

Mr. Bell has been in the U. S. service two years. Before entering the navy he lived in Los Angeles and Pasadena respectively. With a personal glimpse of Mr. Bell we were impressed with him as being a splendid young man with ability as a song writer. Already his "Won't you come out to California and Me" has wide circulation and high appreciation by those persons who have been fortunate enough to secure copies.

Mr. Bell tells us that he has several other songs now in the hands of the publishers.

"Won't you Come Out to California and Me" is light and airy in tone, but filled with a pathetic ring akin to a craving for the aesthetic and beautiful.

We must judge his future efforts by this first splendid production.

AFTER THIRTY YEARS

The editor of The Eagle on his regular business tour at San Diego ran across a cousin whom he had not seen for thirty years in the person of J. G. Bass. Mr. Bass runs the Annex rooming house, opposite the postoffice. We were royally entertained by our cousin and his estimable wife, and spent hours talking over scenes of our childhood days in dear old Missouri. Mr. Bass is employed at the Sanford Hotel and is not only making good there, but as a high class citizen as well.

The Progressive Literary Club held its April business meeting last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Clarence James.

Plans were launched for the debating and spelling teams, Mr. Agustas Greene and Miss May Rogers were elected captains of the debating and spelling teams, respectively, while Hilbert Rozier was elected manager of both teams.

Pasadena News

High schools of Southern California met in Los Angeles Saturday on the Y.M.C.A. field. 17 high schools were represented but Pasadena clinched second place. Pasadena wins four firsts, Paddock 2, Cooper 1, Moore 1. Paddock beat Harry Lamport, M.A. The Lamport boys are Pasadenans, but are attending Manual Arts. As the Eagle said last week the colored students in P.D. always win. Titus Moore broke his own record, hopping over the bart at 5 feet 11 1-4 inches.

The M.E. church conference opens May 16 at Saratoga Springs, N.Y. This conference will cost $125,000 and there will be 840 delegates. Los Angeles will send the first and only colored delegate from the Pacific Coast, Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth. The paramount question will be the union of the two great bodies which slavery separated in 1844. Since then 340,000 colored has joined the M.E. chuch, but the M.E. church, South, does not want them.

Don't forget the rally at Scott Chapel Sunday.

Why is it that the lodges don't get together and buy a lot, while they can, and build a hall on it, and stop paying rent? They say that only one man stands in the way. The questiion is, are you going to let one ignorant man prevent race progress?

When will the State Societies meet again?

Elroy Lott, P.H., was not in it with Titus Moore Saturday.

Don't forget Dr. M. S. Hughes, pastor 1st M.E. church, of this city will deliver his great lecture Monday night in Los Angeles at the 1st A.M.E. church under the auspices of the Y.M.C.A. Go and help the colored Y.M.C.A. on April 10.

PREPAREDNESS

By WM. HOARD

This is an extensive subject and vital to us all. Just as an army must be equipped and prepared for battle or as the birds and beasts of the field are prepared by nature to exist comfor ably just so must man, the perfection of God's creatioo, be prepared for the battles and storme of life. Yet, peculiar as it may seem to us, it is nevertheless true, that man, altho being the most intelligent of all earthly creatures and capable of the most thorough and efficient preparation, is many many times the least prepared to cope with the prevailing conditions or ordinary existence.

The term "man" in its entirety denotes far more than physical quality. Indeed, without the "mental man" the "physical man" is a nonentity, but in man complete, it is the medium of expression of the inner or mental man.

It is mentality with which I wish to deal mostly. Having christianity as our foundation, we begin to look into and examine the inner man; intending to eradicate the defects and undesirable traits of character and establishing those that are desirable and essentlal. Within ourselves lay the elements of failure or success and it is our duty to get busy on the inside

First; we must be honest and courageous, unselfish and aspiring, patient and steadfast, not given to too much much changeableness. We must beware of those little habits, such as the use of slang, cowardly back:biting, lying, drinking, smoking, gambling and other evils that steal into the heart and as a thief in the night, cut asunder the cords of success and soon sink us waist deep in the mire of iniquity. I assure you it is not pleasant to speak of the faults of humaniy, but the wounds of a friend are faithful and much more to be desired than vain flattery, which keeps us blind to true state of affairs.

Next; we must acquire knowledge and experience and dexterity in meeting or evading certain conditions, our minds should be receptive of good and progressive thoughts and oh; how powerful are thoughts, a thought has proven more injurious to me than a days hard work. We are almost entirely influenced and governed by our thoughts. For instance a family seated at supper are told of the burning of their business establishment. Immediately they are overwhelmed by surprise and terror, a few moments later, they are informed that the report was a mistake and immediately they are pacified, or a group of people go wading, one or two dislike the cold water and hesitate. They are apprehensive of a disagreeable sensation and ponder at the bank. The others enter fearlessly and summon the backward ones to follow, finally they creep in little by little and persuade themselves that the water was not so unpleasant after all; their hesitancy was occasioned by their own thoughts, and so, to a great extent the same is the case with man generally. It is not so much what the occurance or condition may be, but what we think of it. Consequently, we govern ourselves by our own estimations, reosoning, thoughts and conclusions.

In short, We must possess trained and cultured mind, free from much of the worldly traffic and plled with the vital knowledge so necessary to work of uplifting struggling mortals.

And now we come to the physical man. It is needless to say that weakness in the physical man begets untold suffering and his record is little more than a list of defeats for a weak and depleted body, is rarely more than a defeat. Such is a very sad picture, but beneath many a broken frame, lies the highest type of true manhood and womanhood. While weak physically man is more or less susceptible to the woes of this world and sometimes he is weak morally. Whether we believe it or not, it is a fact that a weakling sometimes has a harder struggle to be honest and manly than does the superb physical specimen. Furthermore, great mental endurance, ambition, and the greatest heights of success are simply unattainable and happiness is a mere myth without a strong physical foundation.

Many writers and speakers have quoted numerous articles on the subjects of mind and body and some may suppose that my statements herein are copied, but they are not. I am speaking just as I really believe and as I have to a great extent learned, through experience, "originality" or nothing for me.

I advise all who have not a strong constitution and normally well developbody to adopt, wherever advisable some reasonable system of home exercises and bring themselves up to normal. Personally I have relieved myself of severe indigestion and a general run down condition of the system aud added more than 25 pounds to my weight by the aid of an orlginal system of home exercises and cold sponge baths.

Health is worth working for and cannot be bought for dollars and cents. When we possess healthy minds and bodies together with free consciences THEN and then only do we know life to the fullest. There are so many things to be said along this line that I do not feel iustified in attempting a more extended treatise on the sublect. I feel that all that has been said, is merely a composition of hints at the foundation, and we must become acquainted with with the realities by our own personal experiences. We owe it to others as as well as ourselves, to be prepared and sensible during our career through this world, and we need also know that success and happiness in this world as well as our worthiness of a reward in the other world, depends upon the thoroughnese with which we understand and put into practice, the fact that efficiency, (spiritually, morally, mentally ann physically) is only another way of saying "Preparedness."

OAKLAND JOTTINGS

By "Jakie" Peyton

James Bvard Wilson passed away March 31. He leaves a wife and 2 daughters to mourn his loss.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell passed away Friday last after a severe attack of whooping cough.

Mrs. M. Davis sustained a total loss of household goods last Tuesday when her home mysteriously caught fire while she was confined to her bed ill.

The representative or thinking class of Oakland's colored citizens would have it clearly understood that the sentiment expressed by the management of the Balmer Apartments is wholly out of harmony with theirs. The Balmer has posted a sign which reads, "Housekeeping rooms for rent, colored preferred," We are constantly fighting unjust discrimination. Let us be sensible and do unto others as we would be done unto. We object to other people putting up like signs, why shoul we. It is a blight on American civilation for any people to establish any such precedent. If the management will kindly change the wording of that sign it will greatly felicitate matters for the future of Oakland.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)
Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The threatening weather did not frighten the parishoners who frequent First church Sunday. It was a glorious worship throughout the entir day. Mrs. F. E. Washington of Bakersfield and Mrs. Pauline Johnson of Indianapolis became full members. Rev. Gordon, pastor of Tabernacle Baptist church, deliveree an eloquent and timely address to the Men's Co-operative club at 4 p.m. The Endeavor meetings were truly inspiring and helpful. You are welcome to these meetings.

Palm Sunday will be observed by a special sermon by the pastor at the morning service and special music by the choir. Owing to the special services throughout Easter Day, the public is hereby informed that the choir-processional will take place at 10:45 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. Just a little earlier than usual Sunday school will begin its program at 9:30 sharp. Parents and friends will enjoy this exercise and must arrange to be early if you would see our pretty Easter children.

Persons desiring to have thesr babies christened will please bring them to the morning service Easter and inform the board stewardesses. Mrs. Fannie Warner, pres,, Mrs Minnie Tucker, sec.

Mrs. Emily Clarkson, one of our most efficient stewardesses, elaborately entertained the entire board Monday night at her home Messers. Fanner Morton, B. Tucker, P. Williams and the pastor shared in this hospitable meeting.

Don't forget our pre-Easter Bazaar in the Sunday school room on the nights of April 17, 18, 19. The public is invited to attend. Beautiful booths and many useful articles will be on sale by each of our auxiliary societies. Refreshments.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST
(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)
Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Four converts, exclusive of eight other accessions, resulted from the great services held last Sunday. The pastor, who seemed to have been filled with a double portion of the Holy Spirit preached two masterful and impressive sermons, which were visibly effective upon both of the large audiences that overcrowded Odd Fellows hall to worship His text for both sermons was, Matt. 27:35, "And They Crucified Him" Communion was observed and a good representation of the membership, together with many visitors partook of the holy sacrament.

EAST EIGHTH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Farewell Social given on March 28 was indeed a success both socially and financially. A good number was in attendance. We wish to take this opportunity to thank those who made it so. Each participant was at their best.

Owing to the fact that our pastor, Rev. D.L. McMickens has been ill since March 22, Bros. I. J. Williams and Garfield Coleman have been conducting the services.

Sunday morning Bro. Williams delivered a most helpful and inspiring sermon "The Prodigal Son." In the evening Bro. Coleman's sermon on "The Foundation Stone" was very beneficial.

Rev. McMickens is now convalescent

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.

Sunday was a great day in Zion, a large audience listeded to the pastor's sermon on "Vinyard of the Lord" at 11 a.m.

Sunday morning the pastor will preach on "The Need and the Condition." A large audience will no doubt be present at this service. Beginning Palm Sunday there will be held a series of meetings and it is our earnest hope and prayer that many souls shall be brought in from the fields of sin and lukewarm christians revived. Some of the leading pastors in the city will assist in these meetings.

Prov. Inst. Baptist Church.

Sunday morning Pastor Williams will preach from the subject, "The Meaning of Prayer." The choir will render special music at morning and evening worship. Rev. A. J. Williams will preach Sunday night from the subject, "The Love Which Christ Has For Us." There will be baptism Sunday morning.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Sunday we were blessed with two splendid services. The pastor preached in the morning on 'Our Place in God's Plan," in the evening on "A Man With God."

Next Sunday Rev. Jesse E. Raynor, missionary from Africa-Inland Mission will preach in the morning. He will also exhibit some of the work of the native Africans The pastor will preach in the evening.

Friday night the Missionary Guild had its regular meeting at at the home of Mrs. M. L. Byars, 754 East 15th street.

The Inter Denominational Missionary committee of all churches will have an opening meeting at this church Tuesday night, April 11. A very interesting program has been prepared.

You are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH MONROVIA

Sunday was a notable day at the Second Baptist church. A spiritual wave vertook the entire 11 o'clock services. It was 2 o'clock before the spiritual man gave way to the natural man and at that late hour we were loth to leave the house of God. Visitors Sunday were Mme. Vess, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Anderson Rev. Howard, M.. Echerson of Los Angeles and Rev. L. Shepherd of Helena, Montana.

The B.Y.P.U. had a rousing meeting Sunday evening. Bro. Lloyd Johnson, the capable president, returned home Sunday from Eagle Rock, where he has lately taken a position.

The Sunday school is progressnicely under the supervision of its energetic Superintendent, Bro. A. Cross.

Rev. I. H. Davis of Tabernacle Baptist church will preach Sunday at 11 a.m.

Friendship Baptist Church of Pasadena and Its Pastor
(By Rev. G. W. Reed, Evangelist)

Among the number of churches which I held meetings during my evangelistic campaign in the southern part of the state, there was none that impressed me more favorable than the Friendship Baptist church of Pasadena and its learned pastor. This impression was engendered by their demonstration of high spiritual ferver and layalty. From the beginning of the meeting to the night of closing, every one almost to the man, was at his post of duty. During the day it was common to hear them calling over up the phone and inviting their friends and sinners to attend the meeting. There was hardly a night that I did not preach to a full house, often to an overflowing house, as the prayer meeting room, had to be pressed into service a number of evenings.

I was specially attracted by the intellectuality of the membership. It was pleasing to note the progress of modern ideas of christian worship and service. These people are not only to be admired because of their spiritual and intellectual standing, but they are also to be admired for their finanancial support of their church. I learn from a little phamplet published ever quarter by the trustees of the church that more then $4000 was raised in 1015. I dou't know of another church in California with the same membership up to this standard, this money is raised as I understand, without giving socials or any other functions for help.

The Sunday school is the greatest yet that I have had the pleasure to visit, from a standpoint of attendance and interest. The other auxiliaries compare favorably with the Sunday school.

The pastor, Dr. J. M. Riddle, the pivot around which this church and its activities revolves, is a man equal to the occasion, for indeed he is the main spring of its development, ever alert and keeping before his people the progressive ideas of the modern church. His scholarly attainment is manifested on every hand. Naturally gifted as an instructor and he does not fail bestow it upon those in his charge unselfishly Truly Friendship Baptist church ranks with the best churches of California regardless of race.

I shall not soon forget the royal manner in which they entrtained me. Every comfort and necessity was lavished upon me. The meeting was a great success, there being nearly forty acessions.

Wesley Chapel

To many people last Sunday was the greatest day Wesley Chapel has seen in many a year. Three-hundred followers of Christ humbly bowed at the Alter and partook of the Holy Communion. At thhe 11 o'clock service, after a very strong appeal by Pastor Kinchen urging the young people to give themselves to God for any service, nearly one-hundred young people came forward and earnestly pledged themselves to be used by God in any way that He might lead them.

Among this number were our splendid school teachers, physicians and business and other professional men and women. This was indeed a great thrill to the church and pastor. The No-Note Choir had its usual great service under iSster Pauline Brooks Daniels. The church was well filled at the evening service.

Next Sunday at 11 o'clock a.m., Pastor Kinchen will preach on "Remembering Triffles but forgetting Fundamentals." The 10th anniversary of the Young Mens Christian Association will draw a great audience at 3:00. The evening service will be in charge of the No-Note Choir, lead by Sister Daniels and her great spiritual singers. No one should miss this great feast.

Special Dispatch

Los Angeles, April 3—The highest paid employes in the railway service have demanded a raise. They for $100,000,000 a year more than they are now getting, or a little more than $300 a year more per man. The railroads are not in such financial condition as to permit granting the demands, but the men are quoted as saying that unless these demands are met they will refuse to arbitrate and walk out. The situation is a serious one—serious for the railroads, for other railway employes and also equally serious for the public, as the public must ultimately pay the bill.

This is the substance of a statement made by Vice-President and General Manager Scott of the Southern Pacific, concerning the action of the four railway brotherhoods in presenting higher wage demands to the railroads of the country.

"The claim has been made," said Mr. Scott, "that the men want a day of 8 hours. This is not true They do not want a shorter day, nor do they place any limit on the working hours. This is merely a question of punitive overtime.

"They demand 10 hours pay for 8 hours work, with overtime paid after the eighth hour. They also demand 87 1-2 per cent more for overtime than the present rate This is in spite of the fact that they have already exacted the provision that if a man is called for duty and performs any service whatsoever—even though it be but for 15 minutes—he shall receive a full day's pay therrfore. Just what this litexaction already mens to railroads may be gleaned from the fact that in one year 56 western roads paid out to engineers and firemen $1,403,038.74 for which no actua work was done. This payment was compulsory.

"Should the brotherhoods strike the public would be vitally affected Southern California's crops could not be moved and this is but one instance of how the public would be affected by a tie-up of the railways of the country. The men asking the increase are already the highest poid of railway employes. They only constitute 18 per cent of the total number of railroad men, but they get 28 percent of total wages.

"The average pay per man involved on the western roads is $1296 a year, this includes all engineers firemen, trainmen and conductors working full time or even part time The average yearly salary of school teachers is less than $500, but if these railway employes, now averaging $1296 a year are given this $100,000,000 wage increase a year, every school teacher as well as other citizens will have to help pay it, They cannot avoid it for they are part of the American public.

Mrs. Anderson Childress left Thursday morning for Victorville where she will reside.

Colonel Roosevelt has declared that if he is the choice for the Republican nomination he will enter the race.

THE FIRST CALL

Some of the citizens are planning the biggest get-together meeting yet called by the Negroes of this section. The date and place of which will be mentioned in these columns later, but all persons interested in the welfare of the Race are invited to come and join in this get-together movement for better conditions for our people.

It is said that in Africa the heathen tribes meet together in one large body in times of famine or distress and cry and mourn to their God for better things. Are we as thoughtful as they for our future?

LIGHT IS BREAKING

After fifty-three years travel up from illiteracy into the shadow of hope, it seems that light is breaking here and there along the line for the American Negro. In New York, Chicago and many of the Southern cities we have Negro business colonies, which mark a decided development along the commercial lines for this people.

CENTRAL AVENUE AND THE EAGLE

Here in Los Angeles we have been somewhat slow beginning, but after more than 27 years hammering the Eagle takes the credit for having sounded the bugle for one of the most remarkable Negro business sections anywhere in the country, considering its quick development. In order to let New York, Chicago and the other part of the world know what we are doing in our next issue we propose to run figures as to actual valuation of Negro business on Central avenue from 8th to 20th streets.

We say that more than twenty-seven years ago The Eagle sounded the call and has been hammering away down the line of years, but we are always willing to give honor where it is due. It was not until a few months ago that Central avenue in the Negro section, took on this spirit of "Must do," when Sidney P. Dones, the hustling youg Race man, who has said by his action no obstacle is too great for me to surmount on my way to success entered into its business life. Mr. Dones came into his offices in the Booker T. Washington building, and is the only real Negro broker in Los Angeles.

His success is due to the fact that he has so conducted business as to win the confidence and respect of the better class whites of this section.

THE HOBO PREACHER

It is a fact that we have the Hobo preacher, and the question uppermost in our minds is, why should there be such persons? Truly, it is not by his own volition that a man garbs himself in the robe of that sacred title in order to shield himself from any attacks well warranted because of his actions in the community.

We believe that the church should awaken to a greater sense of its duty and that its ministers should be cared for in a dignified manner.

The church is the grandest social institution of this our present civilization. If it is polluted then society is polluted, and the achievements of the age are wasted.

We do not say that men who wear the title of minister should be like the monks of olden times, but we do say that these men who act in the capacity of spiritual father should live such lives that will recommend the church to the world. Then let us see to it that these men who have separated themselves from the things of the world in order that they may meditate upon things divine are properly cared for in order that material needs may not tempt them into the sinful walks of life that blight their future and cast reflection upon the church.

POLITICAL POT PIE

The Prosperity League is one that really seems to grab hold of old prosperity and hold it when it finally makes its return to our fair and glorious state.

Los Angeles Negroes should go down and take lessons from the Watts people and learn how to GET TOGETHER.

As the time approaches for the May primaries the forces are lining up like the Germans around Verdun.

The political pot pie has not even begun to simmer at San Diego as yet.

The hottest weather and the hottest political fight is now on at Imperial. The Editor of the Eagle is on the scene and in the midst of it.

H. H. Boone is a member of the executive committee of the regular Republican forces.

The people will have their inning at this thing after the politicians and squabblers get through, the success of Republicanism this year is the thing sought for by the people, not the greasing of some politician's mitt.

OHIO CLUB ENTERTAINS

Over 200 guests were entertained at an entertainment given by Dr. W. C. Gordon, The program consisted of recitations, vocal and instrumental music.

Dr. H. D. Prowd and family were guests at the Ohio club. His youngest daughter Lillian, a charming little miss, recited "Death on the Titanic" and "The Passing of Lord Roberts," her sister Miss Ellen played the piano Both were loudly encored.

CITY BREVITIES

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. G. Jones of Ceres Avenue, when Mrs. Jones gave a party in honor her mother's, Mrs. Saunders, birthday.

Funeral services of the late Arthur [illegible] singer were held at the Tabernacle Baptist church Wednesday last.

The funeral of Joseph Wayler was held from New Hope Baptist church Thursday afternoon.

Sir W. B. Rich, C.G.M. of California-Arizona Jurisdiction of Knights and Daughters of Tabor of International Order of Twelve, left last Tuesday on his annual visit over the states.

The Kansas-Missouri club met at the home of Prof. Biggers Tuesday evening. A large number of the members were present, also several visitors among them the three sisters of Prof Biggers, who recent arrival in the city.

Subject of an address before The All-American League.

The Negro in the grocery business, his advantages and drawbacks, including:

1. A history of the business locally.
2. Number in business in L. A.
3. Approximate amount of capital invested.
4. Proportion of trade, black and white.
5. How dealt with by wholesalers.
7. Opportunity for a strictly black grocery.

To be delivered by Chas. C. Flint.

Ome of the most beautiful affairs of the seasons was a luncheon given by B. L. Mitchell of of Chicago. Covers were laid for eight. Dainty refreshments were served, and tho house was beautifully decorated.

On our way to press we learn of the sad news of the death of Mr. John James brother of Mrs. A. F. Webber and Miss B. R. James. Mr. James has but recently came to Los Angeles.

Ministerial Federation News

Father Cleghorn addressed the Federation on the subject, "Christian experience and Human Philosophy." It was a great address.

Tuesday Rev. Archie Williams will deliver his famous address, "A Call for Capable Men."

The B.Y.P.U. Union's Choir will rehearse Sunday afternoon at the Mt. Zion Baptist church. Archie Williams director of music.

Card of Thanks

Miss Mattie Shackelfard wishes to thank those who aided her so nobily in making the Barbers Contest a huge success March 29th at Central Hall. Especially does she thank the prize winner Mrs. May Anderson, of Eades Barber Shop 814 San Pedro street, for her effort which secured as prize a beautiful silk quilt.

A Narrow Escape

Last Monday evening while driving across San Pedro in his five passenger car in company with his sister Miss Mattie Shackelford Mr. and Miss Shackelford barely escaped a very serious accident when they collided with a so. bound San Pedro street car the accident occured when Miss Shackelford was about to dismount. She received a hard blow and several bruises on different parts of her body, is but not seriously injured.

Mrs. Bessie Neimore Treece, Treese, daughter of the late editor, J. J. Neimore, is visiting in Los Angeles this week. Mrs. Treece lives with her husband in the little city of Santa Barbara, where they are doing nicely.

An Enjoyable Visit

Dr. H. D. Prowd, Father W. T. Cleghorn and Mrs. H. D. Prowd and her four fine children, namely Master John and Luke, Miss Ellen and her young sister, Miss Lillian were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Reynolds, 1966 Raymond Avenue, last Saturday. The whole party was most loveable and all were well pleased. After dinner just before leaving, Dr. Prowd pronounced a most touching and beautiful benediction which was quite an inspiration. Rev. Prowd of Jamica, late of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the new pastor of the Second Baptist church. Father Cleghorn is rector of St. Phillips Episcopal church.

Hostess at Birthday Party

The home of Mr. Mrs. Samuel McAllister on east 32rd street was the scene of an enjoyable affair last Monday evening when about fifty guest were present to celebrate the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Mc Allister. The house was prettly decorated in pink and yellow flowers, carnations and jonquils being tastefully arranged in basket of gold. The table was centered with a beautiful hand painted vase filled with carnations. Refresments were served and the colors were carried out in pink and yellow confections Mrs. McAllister was handsomely attired in a gown of white chiffon over yellow silk.

Mesdames Vernon, Robinson and and J. P. Harris assisted in receiving. Misses Missouri Busby, Lorenza Jordan and Henrietta Spann entertained with music. Many pretty presents were received by Mrs. McAllister.

OUR ATHETICS
By Hilbert L. Rozier

"Blue" Washington, the former White Sox twirler, who with C. Woos was signed by Rube Foster, pitched his first game for the Giants Friday, against the Portland Pacific Coast League club, and more than that, he won it. "Blue" allowed five hits and two runs.

C. Woods wasn't as fortunate as his teammate in his first appearance, but he proved that he is a pitcher under ordinary circumstances. Wood was attacked by a fit of stage-fright and walked 7 men, allowing only 3 hits.

The Y. M. C. A. is in for the best baseball season of its history. At the first practice last Thursday twenty candidates worked out, while there were still more out Wednesday. Both practices were ahndled by Capt. Lawrence Greene.

Greene is the best selection the boys could have made for captain of the "Y" baseball team and the fact that he was unanimously elected, proves that he was the choice of every fellow.

The Y. M. C. A. will have a championship aggregation this year, that is, if our writer knows anything aboot baseball. Just take a slant at our line-up: Lott, Baker, catchers and first base; Roberts and Patterson, second base; Capt. Green, Short and numerous other stars.

The name of Baker speaks volumes to those who follow baseball.

Can you imagine a Negro drawing the Color line? That's just what the Hoegee Giants have done, absolutely refused to play the White Sox on the ground that they are "outlaws."

This reminds us of the old adage: "Any old excuse is better than none."

That Manual Arts lost to Poly because J. Baker wasn't in the game is the opinion of everyone who witnessed the game last Monday. Time after Time the white catcher missed the ball with men on bases and time after time a run would come in on this account.

Had Baker been catching there would not have been so many passed balls and consequently not so many runs.

Time after time the name of Baker rippled over the Manual bleachers which lets us know that prejudice is getting to be a thing of the past, at least out at Manual.

HELLO! HELLO!

Everybody keep your eyes open for the great Panama-California International Expos tion boosters' special. We are coming to extend our gratitude to our fellow citizens throughout the state to our expo-tion. Leaves San Diego April 24.

Stop at Los Angeles, Bakersfield, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Santa Barbara, Barstow, San Bernardino, Redlands, Riverside and all intermediate towns.

Band concerts, street parades, Spanish dancing, receptions and banquets will be staged, meet our train and get phamphlets of our wonderful city.

We are accepting no financial aid, but defraying our own expenses, we want you to help us invite the world.

Self Reliance

God never intended that strong independent beings should be reared by clinging to others, like the ivy to the oak, for support. We as a race must learn to support ourselves, do sometning and not be dependent on the other race; for difficulties, hardships, doors closed, trials of life and the thousand other obstacles that our race has to encounter, should only make us that much more determined to do something for ourselves. The greatest curse that can befall a young man, is to lean, while his character is forming, on others for support. He who begins with crutches generally ends with crutches. The oak that stands alone to contend with the tempest's blasts, only takes deeper root and stands firmer for ensuing conflicts; while the forest tree, when the woodsman's axe has spoiled its surroundings, sways, bends, and trembles and perchance uprooted, so it is with men. Those who are trained to self-reliance are ready to go out and contend in the sternest conflicts of life; while men who have always leaned for support on those around them, are never prepared to beat the storms of adversity that arise.

The path of success in business is invariably the path of common sense; notwithstanding all that is said about "lucky hits," the best kind of success in every man's life is not that which comes by accident. The only 'good time coming' we are justified in hoping, is that which we are capable of making for ourselves. The wisest charity is to help a man to help himself.

To put a man in the way of supporting himself gives him a new lease of life, for it is very many times all the sick man needs to restore him to perfect health. A man's true position in life to society is that which he achieves for himself, as he builds for society in useful work, so he builds for himself. He is a man for what he does, not for what his father or friends have done

Anything once started see to it that you carry it thro; no matter if it does cost you the pleasure, the society, no matter for these; stick to the thing and carry it thro. Only once learn to carry a thing thro in all its completeness and proportion you will think better of yourself; others will think better of you.

Drive right along then in whatever you undertake. Consider yourself amply sufficient for the deed and you will succeed.

MRS. C. E. NORWOOD.

Katherine Interviewed

Were you ever a flirt?

Did you ever think it wonderful to flirt, just in an innocent little old way, many girls do. These words were spoken by a friend of mine after we had sat watching a very pretty girl flirt with an elderly man.

I laughed at my friend's remarks.

Then I asked, do you not enjoy sitting here in the park, watching a wonderful flirtation like that. I think flirting the height of love.

"You are wrong," she said.

In which way can you prove flirting wrong, I asked?

"Flirting is insincere love, made for mere amusement," she answered with a smile. But listen, I will explain why flirting is wrong.

I was very much peeved at her truthful answer. But I managed to get myself together, and listened.

She began something like this: woman flirts with her winning smiles and with her very affectionate ways, with one and perhaps a dozen men, but she never stops to think, she robs some man of his heart in a playful or innocent way and plays with it like a child plays with a toy.

Then I laughed again, managing to get out a word now and then. I'd like to see you make a toy of some man's heart and play with it.

You do not understand, she said. Toys have been made of men's hearts, but listen I am going to tell you about flirting. All that a man can say a thousand times and more is, I love you, his eyes speak, his very actions sperk the truth. He does not flirt if he loves. But a woman flirts on and on, just for for the fun of it, if you were to ask her. With her eyes masked with innocent smiles and her artless way and her mouth filled with sinful kisses and these men frequently fondle and praise, often worship her.

Then she only knows him as her slave, then as her slave he wonders and thinks until he tells her the truth that dwells in his mind. This leads her to think she is, his benefactor then she bestows sweet favors of her youth and beauty upon him and yet she robs him, while she places him in debt Flirts are worldly wise. They love to set men's hearts on fire and they take no risk at the passion game.

But after a time a man wakes up and comes to himself again, then he holds uer at length until the silly flirt's heart takes fire, until she learns the art of true love. Then in his higher self he speaks the dreams that he has dreamt of woman, that she has nelped him to destroy. He asks her how can he or any man have a happy life in days to come; after she, a flirt, steals his belief of woman. For all women to these men seem less loyal and less worthy of man's faith. Then how can a woman who is not a flirt be made happy by one of those men who has lost faith in women.

So, my friend. when you flirt, if you do not think of yourself; think of the girl who does not flirt.

Try, Try Again

If at first you don't succeed
Why, try try again
There is one that has not been caught
Although she is on top
Watching to catch the first hook
Now look for there are hooks with crooks
Ank crooks with hooks,
That are floating near the top
But if I should lose
The world will look cold
And all woman look old
Before I try to fish again
So be careful and don't lose
For if I do you will be on shore
And be old
And people will say
That I am cold
Now I have known people
Who were gray at five and twenty
And at sixty and five the same
So let me look and see if I can fish
At forty and five. For if I do they will say
That I succeeded and will not have
To try, try, again. N.

The City of Jerusalem extended a banquet to four prominent citi- of San Diego, three of whom are leading factors in the Masonic lodge; W. S. Saunders past grand lecturer of the state, H. J. Harris and C. M. Dickson of Fidelity lodge and E. B. White side, all had a very delightful evening.

The So Different Trio, Richie Ross, Richie at Pantages last week met with hearty applause, the act was well taken. They were met by the manager of the Eagle and were his guests at the exposition.

J. B. Bass, editor of the Eagle and H. Shannon, northern representative, were guests of our city. They are on their official tour of the state, while here they were quests of th business manager, M. T. Laws at the exposition. They were introduced to some of the leading men of the fair. Mr. Shannon will have to study calculations of valuations more, a Russian cane he valued at $40; when found he could buy it for $8 he got cold feet. He valued a French rug at $500, was informed that they were worth $100.000 each but could not be bought at any price a guard had to close the door in order to keep him from writing a personal check He said he never appreciated our wonderful fair in the north until now and I shall sent for my wife so she can enjoy the things that we miss at our door.

Harry Hall came in from the kelp factory to order an Eagle with tears streamingdown his cheeks mourning for a person that had left for country. And I informed him that the good shepard David had killed Goliath. So he had better hasten that powder plant in order to be safe.

J. W. Gordon it is rumored will take with him a minister in place of a bunch of bouquets in short.

The stork has visited the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Harris, its a boy. Mother and babe are doing well,

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Ramsey, brother G. A. Ramsey concessionaire at the fair, arrived last week from Bakersfield to resume his duties at the Southern California building.

A. M. Edwards, who has been employed by Baker' Chocolate Co. at the exposition, left last week for his home in Chicago, he regrets leaving our wonderful city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman, who have been several weeks at their country home, made a silent retreat to their home in the city, but however the Eagle was there just the same to greet them on their return.

The Carnation Club Literary Club met at Mt. Zion Baptist church, it was crowded with young people. The future debate "Fire and water" by four young ladies. The negative which was fire, won. The next meeting will be the 3rd Thursday in April instead of the 1st, in honor the sailors of the cruiser in the harbor. Subject "Observation and Reading."

Presiding Elder J. H. Wilson, of the A.M.E. church, preached a rousing sermon Sunday, the church was crowded to its full capacity and the contributions were swelled far bayond expectations. Rev. T. Allen Harvey delivered a sermon directly from his heart in behalf of his church and its frst progress, even though he had drawn his manuscript long before the arrival of the presiding elder it was cast aside as his observation had words to fill every nook and corner as the people sat spellbound. Monday he escorted the presiding elder to our great and wonderful fair.

Mrs. Newman, who is in charge of the ladies rest room at the exposition, has been on the sick list; glad to know that she is much improved. Mrs. Marcetta, her daughter, has been in charge during her absence, she deserves credit for the way she performed her duty during her mother's absence.

Miss Lilly Newman has returned from Oakland, where she has been visiting.

ALUMNI ORATORICAL CONTEST

1915-16 Students and Graduates to Compete

"How our conduct at home and abroad affects ourselves and our race" will be discussed at an oratorical contest, May 9th, at Wesley Chapel M. E. church, under the auspices of the Southern California Alumni Association. The receipts of the affair will go into the association's scholarship aid fund, for the annual scholarship prize of fifty ($50) dollars, to be awarded in June, to the California student graduating with the highest average scholarship rating.

Students and Graduates Invited

All students of the various schools, and all 1915 and 1916 graduates, are invited to enter the contest at once, by giving their written notice to either of the undersigned committeemen. No person may enter the contest after the next meeting of the association, April 9, as the program will be made up then—one month before the date of the contest, May 9th.

The Contest

Fifteen minutes will be allowed for each speaker to render, without reading (notes will be permitted), his original oration on the subject mentioned above. Three judges, from outside of the association, will be elected by the association.

Committee:

Sex the Key to the Bible

The World's Three Greatest Books

By Sidney C. Tapp, Ph.B.

"The Truth About the Bible," about five hundred pages, $3.00. "Why Jesus Was a Man and Not a Woman," three hundred pages, $2.00. "Sexology of the Bible," over one hundred and seventy-five pages, $2.00. All cloth-bound. These books treat of the sex of the Bible, and show that the Bible is a book of sex and a book of spirit, and that sex is the dividing line between the physical and spiritual worlds. They show that disease, sickness and insanity are within the sex, and that sex-lust was the original sin and cause of death. They are arresting the attention of the medical, scientific, philosophical and theological worlds and people of all classes as no other books of modern times, and will probably do more to shape the thoughts of the human race than any books ever written in the history of the world. They are daily going to the great thinkers of all parts of the civilized world.

"I would rather be the author of the Truth About the Bible, by Sidney C. Tapp, than to be the President of the United States. His sex interpretation of the Bible, as therein contained, is so daring and his conclusions are so unanswerable that the human intellect staggers under the ideas presented. For ideas, it is the world's greatest book. Mr. Tapp's books on the Bible and his sex interpretation of the Bible will live until time shall be no more. Republics may perish and Empires may decay, but the ideas presented by the author in these books on the Bible will never die." —Prof. J. Silas Harris, A. M.

"Mr. Tapp's works on the Bible will do more to empty our jails, insane institutions and hospitals than any other idea that has ever been given to the world, in our opinion, to say nothing of the great good, morally and spiritually, that they will do the human race. He has indeed produced a world idea that should be in every home and library in the civilized world.

Raid Planned Months Says Doctor

Villa at white heat over Carranza Recognition, Shouted Vengence, Declares American

By International News Service.

Wash. March 12- Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico to-night furnished the International News Service with a statement, signed by an American Physician who less than four months ago was one of four Americans condemned to death by Villa. The statement reveals that Villa attack on Columbus was but a part of a plan to exterminate Americans wherever they are met.

In October last year the surgeon decided equipped a field Red Cross outfit and go into the Villista ranks, He tells of the journey and his meeting with Villa.

We are escorted into a close knot of about thirty men stooping under the branches of a little mesquite tree. Villa in a semi-recumbent posture on a blanket thrown against a saddle, extends his hand and invites us to have a seat. He regrets that there is nothing other than the grass to sit uopn. He ask us if we belong to the American Red Cross Society. I explain that we do not.

AN OMINOUS HUSH

Some one rushes into Villa's presence. Villa greets him with "How are you my General? I see little of. I frequently inquire about you. They always tell me you are here, yonder, every where, fighting. What is new? "

The general addresses Villa with, "My chief, it is useless to continue the attack. I have just left one of Calles' Yavuis back there in the arroyo. It is true that Wilson has recognized Carranza and that 3500 Carranzistas have arrived thru the States in Agua Prieta" For a moment there is an ominous hush I feel my face grow scarlet.

Villa Grows Wrathy—Villa begins in an even, moderate tone gathering warmth as he proceeds. His eyes are dancing. There is the ghost of a smile with a shade of sarcasm.

He points a grimy finger at us, "Search these vermin," he orders.

Dr. M—, not quite comprehending the situation, arises, bustles around a bit and suggests that we take our departure. Villa is acting like a cat playing with a mouse. He looks at me with just a momentary suggestion of a twinkle in his eyes and says, "I guess you might as well tell him."

During Villa's tirade, turning his head so as to direct his remarks to the men about him, he said: "Hereafter when you meet a Chinaman respect him; when you meet a Negro or a Japanese respect them; respect burros; wherever and whenever, you encounter a gringo, —— him."

On several occasions we were asked when President Wilson's term of office would expire.

Orders Them Shot—Some one reopens the conversation regarding the bringing of 5500 Carranzistas thru the U.S. Villa goes into a rage. He splutters vituperative language and orders us taken out to an arroyo and shot immediately.

About twenty men quickly grabbed us several hands going into my various dockets. They leave my pockets empty About twelve men with rifles form a line off to my left. There seems to be considerable contention for places in the firing squad.

Over the heads of the men searching me I ask General Villa if he will not permit us to make an explanation. "If you open your mouth again I will shoot you myself," he replied.

The prisrners were snared through the good offices of a Villa general.—From the Scrap Book.

RAILROAD NEWS

Passengers traveling on the Southern Pacific trains needn't worry about eating accommodations now-a-days, for with the purchase of six new Pullman Dining Cars the Southern Pacific Co. has gained the distinction of and operating more dining cars than any other railroad in America and the record probably holds good for the world. The company now owns 105 diners, 5 more than the Canadian railroad which is the nearest rival in America for the distinction, besides 42 Observation cars The diners cost in the ueighborhood of $20,000 each. The company is vigorous in its demand for the most extreme sanitary conditions and cleanliuess on its diner system.

Comparing the European waiter with the American waiter, assuming that the chief requisites in a waiter are that he shall be quick, clean and polite, it must be admitted that in the two first named virtues American table artists is second to none. The most important point upon which his supremacy is open to question, is that of politeness and even here our critic too often imagines that servility is an essential of civility. Accustomed to the bow, the scrape and the spineless deference of the European attendant, many travelers are painfully surprised to see the American waiter stand in an upright position, talk as if he had a soul of his own and generally comport himself; as though he were a man and not a serf, fearful of displeasing their imperial majestices, the present customers.

The following clipped from the South ern Pacific Bulletin on awakening Pullman passengers who seoure accommodations at night. At present there seems to qe no understanding between train and Pullman conductors relative to the awakening of passengers in Pullman cars who are to detrain late at night or early morning. This sometimes results in various complaints from passengers on account of being called too late or too early, and has been the cause sometimes of holding trains for passengers to finish dressing and get off.

The Pullman Company furnishes its car employes with what is known as breakfast call cali cards, and it is proposed that train conductors be given a duplicate of such card by the Pullman conductor. This will practically insure people in sleeping cars being called in time to detrain.

Wherever train conductors have passengers in Pullman cars for points where they must leave the train at night they shonld see that Pullman employees are notified of the time this station will be reached in time for them to give the passenger the proper call.—From the Scrap book by J. D. Reynolds.

Miss Clara Bedney Entertains

Last Sunday afternoon at the home of her parents, 2754 Council street, Miss Clara Bedney entertained in honor of Mrs. Lulu Jones of Chicago and her mother, Mrs. Johnson, of Nebraska, both of whom are visitors in our city. Mrs. Jones is a finished musician and an assistant to Mme. Hackley.

The occassion was Miss Bedney's birthday and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent by the guests who were Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bedney.

Mrs. Jones and Miss Bedney were associates at Wilberfource University from which institution both are graduates.

A. I do not think it so necessary that you know anything of the child's inheritance, of course you might hope that her ancestry is pure. But there is greater force than heredity and that is environment or surroundings. Take the child and by your influence make her what you would haae her be.

A New Sort of Way in Vogue at Imperial to Win Elections by Drys

THE CLANSMAN OUTDONE BY THE DRY FORCES AT IMPERIAL

If the dry forces of this state appreciate a colored vote and Imperial City is a criterion it is enough to make any man who stands for fair play to flee from their standard. We have heard of shot gun intimidation and all other sorts, but they had a new kind of intimidation for the colored voters and that was a grand jury intimidation, a warrant out for their arrest and the enforcement of educational qualification on Negroes alone. As a result of threats that they would be arrested and summoned before the grand jury kept many away; not that they were afraid, but they did not have the time to be bothered and many of the Colored women would not suffer the embarrasment of unnecessary quizing by a tow headed school teacher who was the challenger selected by the dry forces.

This tow headed school teacher, if a man was colored, challenged him on sight. Many of them of course could give him cards and spades as far as scholarship is concerned.

The editor personally witnessed the above scenes, the dry forces was fearful of the attitude of the colored vote, so they put on a campaign of intimidation it was so disgraceful and so unfair that it cost them the election, as more than a dozen told us that on account of the tactics played against our people they would vote wet and the wets won by fourteen votes only.

Therefore the colored vote absolutely saved the day for the Progressive League in Imperial. Messrs Donnavin and May, president and secretary, respectively, made a dignified campaign and were entitled to win. Especially against the methods used by these people.

Ben Tilman in his palmiest days could not outdo the drys in their last noticable effort of intimidation.

At the schools the daughter of J. W. Gordon and other colored children, overheard their teachers talking to the white pupils admonishing them to have their parents vote dry, for if they won the election, these children would not have to attend school any more with the Negro children.

Now this was raw! But it is not all. And with such sentiment so openly displayed, there was no other alternation for the colored voter.

And if this is the new idea, one of intimidation by law, and the wholesale issuance of warrants, the dry's will not make much head way with Colored voters in the campaign which is upon them.

THE SOARING EAGLE MAJESTICALLY SOARS THROUGH GREAT IMPERIAL VALLEY.

Leaving Los Angeles Monday, the 3rd instance, the editor accompanied by our very energetic northern representative, H. Shannon, we boarded the Santa Fe train for San Diego, where we visited with our clientage at that point until Thursday, renewing old subscribers and securing many new ones.

We found our faithful and hustling Manager at this point, M. T. Laws, on the job. He never loses an opportunity to speak up for the Eagle and dishes up the news for our big army of readers at this point to the satisfaction of all. He took ye scribe and Mr. Shannon over the exposition and introducted us at the main office where we met as courteous and respectful attention as could be desired. The exposition last year seemed to be the acme of perfection, but notwithstanding that fact the vast improvement is noticeable at the first glance, and those who visited it last year should go again to appreciate the same in its fullness, and those who failed to go should by all means go and visit the same this year.

Colored Citizens on Upward Trend

The colored people of San Diego have in their midst some of the real men and women who are doing the real things for progress and it is this class that keeps the flag of real progress aloft and lends a strong hope for this people to do their part in the future progress of this splendid and wide-awake city. M. T. Laws is negotiating the opening of a high class cafe on the exposition grounds which will be a high credit to all.

Mr. G. A. Ramsey, former manager for the Eagle at this point, has opened a strictly first class hotel known as the YESMAR HOTEL, the Eagle staff visited the same and after a thorough inspection we pronounce it one of the very best appointed hostelries conducted by our people on the Pacific Coast. Newly furnished throughout, newly painted everything neat as a pin, hot and cold water in each room, press the button in your room, a bell hop appears, in fact every convenience a first class hotel should have. It speaks volumes for Mr. Ramsey's sagacity and the Eagle congratulates him on his enterprise. He assures us that it is his paramount aim to keep it up to the highest possible standard.

Mr. E. W. Anderson is still the garbage contractor and employs a large force of men.

Our old friend, T. H. Williams, is ever on the alert to do something for the betterment of conditions for the race.

Mr. Tunis Gordon, manager of the Hotel Richmond, is pleasing the guest at this old reliable and pioneer place. He seeks to please his guests, he has entertained some of the most prominent people of the country and they all have a good word for the Richmond. The Richmond is a strong booster for the Eagle. They even send their printing to our Los Angeles office, all of which is highly appreciated.

And many of our other citizens of which at this time space will not permit mention, are doing the things that spells progress and San Diego's colored citizens are doing their part for the upward trend.

The Mighty Imperial Valley

Thursday morning the Eagle's flying squadron took a stage for El Centro and Imperial, located in the heart of that great valley, which is an empire as it were, in itself. The richness of its soil has been likened unto that of the Valley of the Nile. We got along very nicely until we struck the mountain range and for more than 60 miles we threaded our way over a serpent like road, just wide enough for one vehicle and one false turn meant that we would go over into an abyss hundreds of feet to the bottom, we thought of "life insurance," our real standing with our maker, and everything else on this hazardous and tortuous ride with our machine going it at a rate of 25 miles an hour. Mr. Shannon abruptly exclaimed to our driver that we were in no hurry to get to El Centro. Leaving San Diego at 8 a.m. we, however, landed at El Centro at 4:30 p.m. without any mishap. Here we took another stage and with a short drive of about three miles we arrived at Imperial.

We found this city in the throes of a bitter fight over the question as to whether it should go wet or dry.

The sentiment seemed very evenly divided and it was up to the colored vote as to the fate of the election. In another article will be seen the part they played on this particular issue.

We were soon domiciled at the hotel conducted by A. Lincoln, a progressive member of our race, who formerly lived at Bakersfield and who is a successful business man. On the following evening we met the Foraker Club. On invitation we addressed the body at length, from the enthusiasm which reigned they appreciated the same. On Sunday in the absence of their pastor we preached a lay sermon, and on the evening we lectured at the same church to a crowded house. All of these events seemed to have a strong effect and from what we were told, was appreciated to the utmost.

On Monday evening we lectured to a full house at the Methodist church in El Centro and as at Imperial they seemed grateful that we did so.

Status of Our People at These Points

At Imperial there are some splendid citizens who are a high credit. Unfortunately there is a floating population here that seems to be the weights on real progress. There seems to be work for all who want a job, and there are those who are more ambitious and who are striving for openings in the various lines of business.

Many own homes and others are buying them. However, the big majority live on ranches or are working thereon. They have one church at Imperial, a K. of P. Lodge, one barber shop and one hotel.

A. J. Tullis is one of the leading citizens and one of the leading forces for good in the community. He is well informed on the questions of the day and a leader in church work.

Also is Mr. G. A. Crawford one of the leading citizens. Mr. J. W. Gordon conducts a barber shop and stands high as a citizen. He is an interpreter in the local courts, has a splendid family. Others who are making good and who joined the Eagle family are Lee Culberson, Clarence A. Hodge (Prof. Boscoe), J. C. Culberson, W. F. Henderson and others. The citizens all were the souls of hospitality and made our visit a pleasant one.

At El Centro

Our visit to El Centro was not so extended or did we find time to make a resume of conditions such as would do justice to the people who reside here or to ourselves. There are two churches here, the Baptist and Methodist. The first one is at present without a pastor while the second is in charge of Rev. A. C. Caldwell, who is seemingly making good. We are indebted to him for an opportunity of addressing the citizens thereof and for his efforts to make our short visit a pleasant one. It was at this church with only 24 hours' notice we addressed a full house, and they seemed to highly appreciate our coming. We met here our former real estate agent, Mr. McClellan, for some reason only one of the public school teachers attended our lecture; we suppose they were detained. Miss Whiting, however, was present and expressed to us as being well pleased by coming out. In the afternoon we visited the public school and were courteously received by both Prof. Sims and Miss Kinnard, both of whom live in the city. They seem to be progressing nicely with their work.

Several of our people are in business here, the most pretentious of which is the general store and meat market conducted by Mr. L. J. Ferguson and wife. They seem to be making real progress.

Mrs. Whitley, formerly of this city, is in the restaurant business and there are others whom we did not have opportunity to meet.

In talking to some of the leading citizens who seem to stand for something they told us that at El Centro the people had been hampered by the actions of renegade preachers who had come there and led such lives and so conducted themselves that the race has been held down.

It seems that the proverbial mess of pottage was their goal and they sold their race for a mess of pottage as it were. We shall in the near future visit El Centro again and we will give some mighty interesting reading when we do.

TESTIMONY OF ESTEEM AND CONFIDENCE

WHEREAS it has been our privilege, as Baptist Ministers of Southern California during the past three years, to have been associated with our esteemed brother, Rev. Alfred C. Williams, A.B., B.D., of the Providence Institutional Baptist Church, Los Angeles, California, whom we have learned to love as a friend and helper and counselor, and whose noble nature, frankness, tenderness and sympathy, have made him the Apostle of suffering and distressed humanity.

His tireless efforts to establish th Providence Institutional Baptist Church, to lift the fallen and cheer the discouraged, have made such a profound impression on our city, and indeed upon the people of Southern California;

WHEREAS Dr. Alfred C. Williams has proven himself a painstaking, efficient worker for the general good of all the people, we, as Baptist Ministers, representing the Regular Missionary Baptist Churches of Southern California, have been blessed of God in having been privileged to come under the influence of one so full of truth, with a mind so rich and comprehensive, a nature so cultured, a faith so full, and above all a life so consecrated.

THEREFORE be it resolved that upon the Eve of his departure for his new field of labor, we thank God that his influence as founder of the Great Peoples Mid-Summer Chautauqua will abide with us, and that his work will remain a monument of God's glory, and a legacy to ourselves, and the churches of the Pacific Coast. May heavens' riches and blessings rest upon himself and family and those among whom he shall labor.

We therefore commend him to the world.

Done by order of the Baptist Ministers' Union of Southern California.

J. D. GORDON,
President
J. GORDON MC PHERSON
Secretary.

RETURNED

Mr. J. O. Banks of 1235 New Hampshire street, who has been down in the state of Sonora in Old Mexico the past ten months with mine owners and who was captured once last year and has been threatened with death more than once by Mexican insurgents returned home last Sunday after a flying trip out of that war ridden country during which time he had many hardships and narrow escapes for his life. He reports that all the warring factions are putting all Americans to death, and Captain F. H. Crumbly, formerly an officer of command in the 49th U. S. V. Infantry, has received a communication from the War Department to report for further services in case more soldiers are needed. This notice is being sent out to all the experienced officers who made the necessary proficiency during term of service, and in this city we have two other first class officers who served in foreign lands to whom notices have been sent. These are Captain Wm. Reynolds of Pasadena, and First Lieutenant H. F. Wheaton of this city. This is possibly the strongest evidence possible that gives the black eye to the doubts of some that Colored men will not obey officers of their own Race as well as they do the white men appointed over them. It is also a stimulus to the demand that is being made by the Society for the Advancement of Colored People in their demand for additional Negro regiments officered by Colored men. The general order of the War Department will eliminate some of the officers on account of age.

If you believe in Race enterprise and undertakings you will show your faith and loyalty by attending the third annual benefit recital given by William T. Wilkins Piano School, Tuesday evening, May 23, at 8th and Towne Ave. Church.

The director, William T. Wilkins, who was a few years ago, a poor landscape gardener, has risen to our most prosperous music teacher and is now giving more private piano lessons than any single teacher, Colored or White, in this city.

His work and the work of his pupils is endorsed by the Ministers' Alliance. All of the leading ladies clubs and many of the best musicians and prominent business men of this city, both White and Colored. His name stands for the highest in music and is a guarantee that you will not regret the 15 or 25 cents you pay for admission.

Chamberlain-Gordon Wedding a Beautiful Affair

Mrs. J. W. Gordon, Formerly Mrs. JuliaChamberlain

A few weeks ago there was started in Los Angeles one of the most beautiful romances that ever ended in a real matrimonial compact out of which an atmosphere of real home life will breathe its influence upon this community for the best good of this citizenship.

(In order to fit and properly connect the happenings of this affair in proper order it is our plan to give in brief the careers of the singles that now compose our double.)

Mr. J. W. Gordon, the Groom

Mr. Gordon was born at Owen Sound, Ontario, Canada, where he spent his early life, and received his education. More than thirty-four years ago he came to this country, became naturalized, and started a successful business career.

In the states of Kansas and Minnesota he owned and operated large business concerns with great success, establishing everywhere for himself an enviable reputation as a man of sterling character.

More than twelve years ago Mr. Gordon severed his business connection with the Middle West and came to California. In Los Angeles he started the Canadian Cafe, which developed into a 64-room modern hotel the first of its kind established on the Pacific Coast by a Colored man. The Canadian furniture store which he later sold to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shackelford, the present proprietors, and which is the most neatly and completely fitted up new and second hand furniture store owned by Colored people in in the city of Los Angeles. A few years ago he bought property on Birch street for $2800.00, which afterwards sold to Mrs. Williams, the present owner for $3700.00, and is now a property owned in the fertile district of Watts.

Mr. Gordon is joint owner and manager with Mr. Frank Williams of the Angelus Theatre on Central between 9th and 12th sts.

At San Diego Mr. Gordon has owned and operated a number of businesses to his and the credit of his Race. He is a highly respected citizen in that city, and is still owner of the Richmond hotel, operated by his nephew, Mr. Tunice Gordon, as well as other property in that city.

Mrs. Julia Chamberlain, the Bride

Mrs. Chamberlain is the widow of the late Rev. Robert V. P. Chamberlain, once pastor of the First A. M. E. church of this city. During the life of her former husband, Mrs. Chamberlain was an ardent worker by his side and contributed greatly to his success as a minister of the gospel. Their work was begun in this city in 1884, where she has lived off and on since.

More than sixteen years ago Mrs. Chamberlain was left a widow, when she found that she was left alone to eke out her own existence this level-headed energetic woman saw the ripe opportunity of that age in this section, and grasped each and every one within her reach.

When asked by this reporter how she accumulated her wealth Mrs. Gordon nee Mrs. Chamberlain answered, "I went into the real estate business when things were good, and tried to manipulate carefully and honestly, and today the result of the same is real estate at Pt. Richmond valued at $3000, property in Los Angeles at 1427 Toberman street valued at $6000, property at 1021 W. 16th street, valued at $20,000, owned by me."

J. W. Gordon

They Two

Quite a number of years ago, shortly after Mr. Gordon started business in this city at the first grand opening of the Canadian hotel he met Mrs. Chamberlain—the meeting was only a passing one, and neither had seen or come in personal touch with the other since that time until a few weeks ago, when the acquaintance was renewed over the phone, when something in the ring of each voice said to the other, "I want to meet you," and little or no time was lost before two heads had got together, and last Sunday morning at the First Independent Church Dr. N. P. Greggs performed a ceremony that made two hearts beat as one. The

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN
Aunt Jemima

My sister goes with a young man who seems very nice but the only objection I have to him is that he is always dressed to the inch of his life. His shoes are always shined so that you can see yourself in them and his suits always look as if they just came from the tailor My sister makes fun of the young man I go with because he does not go dressed up all the time and looks a bit country like when he is dressed. What is your opinion of an one who never looks as if they would or could work.

A. I admire one who is always clean and neat as possible. But when it comes to a girl selecting a husband, I would advise her to beware of the man whose clothes are always too fine to be soiled. As for your friend who looks country like, remember that every one can not look dressed up.

Q 2. I have a brother who is always flirting with some girl. I sometimes speak to him about it. But he says that there is no harm in flirting. What is your opinion? Sister

A. to Sister. I thing flirting most harmful. My opinion of people who flirt is that they are just a little weak morally.

Q. 3. Some one is always remarking that I am so thin. Can you give me some advise as to how to gain flesh? I am 5 ft. 5 in. and weigh 120 lbs.

A. 3. I would not pay any attention to what people say. Just think of how many women are striving to reduce, and notice all the slender forms in the down town show windows. You should be thankful that you are tall and slinder.

I hear many slight remarks made of the many young men that run on the road. Can you tell me why many people have no good opinion of them?

A Lonesome railroad Porter.

I think many of the young men who run on the road brought much of the talk upon themselves. They seem to be a jolly bunch, the most of them always ready and looking for a good time. But I think that there are as many gentlemen on the road as in any other work. Many of of our professional men got their start on the road. As long as you are making an honest living young man don't let gossip stop you.

bride who wore a gown of embroidery cloth of gold with pearl trimmings and gilden lace and gold, was attended by Mrs. Libby Jennings as bridesmaid and her little daughter, Bianca Chamberlain, both of whom were beautifully draped in white and like the bride carried large bouquets of rosebuds. The groom's present to the bride was two handsomely set diamonds.

When the bridal march started for the couple to march away as man and wife, the happy groom, with a radiant smile on his face, turned to Pastor Greggs and said, "Reverend, we wish to connect with this church here and now."

The wish was granted, while only a hush pronounced the benediction.

WHO'S WHO IN THE PROGRESSIVE LITERARY CLUB

So many people have expressed their wonderment as to who and what the Progressive Literary Club is, and why they have not heard of it before, that we have succeeded in securing space in The Eagle through which we might throw a little light on this most important topic of the day, for truly every one is talking about the Progressive Club.

This Club was organized Nov. 30, 1915, at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Rozier.

It has 25 members of the highest grade talent along debating, spelling and musical lines.

It is a very exclusive organization and admits only the most efficient in their line of work.

Mr. Augustus Greene is captain of the debating team and Miss Mae Rogers is captain of the spelling team.

Hilbert Rozier is manager of both teams.

Mr. Eugene Walker is president and Miss Vivian Temple is vice president.

Miss Mayme Lowe is honorary member.

His brother, Oscie McDowell, has entered the real estate business and will have offices adjoining the attorney's. McDowell is attorney for the Western Baptist Association, Bricklayers' and Stone Masons Mutual Benefit Association No. 1 of California and other organizations.

To Whom It May Concern:

This will certify that I knew Mr. Wm. T. Wilkins as a student in the Commercial High School, several years ago. He is one of the most faithful, conscientious, honest fellows that I have met in life whose acquaintance and friendship have been a pleasure and pride to me.

It is with unqualified pleasure that I learn of his success in music. As a boy he was full of rhythm and I believed that under proper conditions he would prove to be a genius in the music line. His present success has confirmed my belief.

I believe in his music powers, and I commend him to all good people and solicit for him an especial interest on the part of music lovers.

Respectfully,
Signed JOHN H. FRANCIS,
Superintendent.

The Eagle Gold Contest

The San Diego Gold Contest is still open for contestestants, it has been continued until Saturday, June 3rd.

Those who do not apply at the office on or before May 26th will be disqualified.

Mrs. E. C. Hannahs, 1st
Miss Louisa Austin, 2nd
Mrs. C. E. Norwood, 3rd
Miss N. Jackson, 4th
Miss G. Jonss, 5th
Miss Theodora Lloyd, 6th
Miss Marie Young, 7th

Quite a time and some excitement at Tia Juana Sunday when Darkey in the fifth race at 7 to 1 romped home in the lead it seemed as if Royafi, Jack Ackinson and a few of the other big bookmakers had to pawn their autos on Monday in order to have money to start business Tuesday. More than 10,000 people were out and the colored sports came away ladened with gold and greenbacks when Darkey came down the stretch in a large field, even in Mexico no one objected to thousands of voices yelling and shouting "Come on Darky." While the wires were ticking the news throughout the U.S., hats were thrown into the air and men ran speechless to the bookies to cash their tickets.

The How-do-you-do and Thnk you special which has been touring the state met with one of the biggest and most enthusiastic receptins that ever left our city. People in all cities and towns turned out in large crowds to meet this palatial train, we are suite sure it had its effects and will terminate at our most wonderful exposition.

The Easter ball Monday night was quite a success, many swell costumes were seen. Los Angeles was well represented.

The Wednesday night function, which is all the rage, seems to have a grip on Miss Dimples, who is cutting an awful dash of late.

Chas. Dodge was seen a few days ago with a wedding ring on his finger and something else in his pocket.

W. S. Cleveland is quite busy remodeling his house which he recently purchased, he is employed at the U.S. National Bank.

Mrs. G. W. Gray has been confined to her bed for several days with an attack of nervous prostration, her many friends are eagerly awaiting her early recovery.

It seems that some of the swell society are straining a knat and so allowing a camel.

Mrs. A. W. Sheppard, 727 South 30th street, is conducting a first class cafe in the Wayfarer club.

Mrs. Bing and son and Mrs. Hope motored down from Los Angeles Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Eva Smith, 742 3rd street.

W. F. Jorden and W. M. Gilbert of Topeka, Kansas, spent several days in the city.

Attorney Hugh Macbeth of Los Angeles was in the city and spent several days.

Who is the laughing mask? Well you will be the laughing mask if you miss the Savoy theatre "Let's get stewed" and "It's a man" was alone worth the price. That is nothing, every week it is the same the best show that is going. What is next at the Alhambra, "The Graft" and "Uncle Sam at Work. Don't miss them, you should go and take the little ones.

George W. Murray and Miss Katherine Badgett were married Sunday rnd will make their home in San Diego. Their many friends were glad to hear of the happy union, and all join the congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hamilton of 3566 Menlo ave. have bought a nice little 5 room bungalow. We are certainly proud to see young people make such brilliant moves and aims for the highest mark in life.

Mrs. Martha A. Smith is still very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. Freeman, cor. 30th and Martin ave.

Mrs. Martha Woodby is also very ill at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Conoway.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Norwood were married 15 years, April 26, 1916. Mrs. Norwood says she will celebrate the anniversary by going to prayer meeting, which will be led by Mrs. L. E. Goodwin.

Rev. C. C. Williams preached a good sermon Sunday evening to a good congregation. All of Rev. Williams' sermons are immensely enjoyed by all who attend and the public has a cordial and standing invitation to come out at any time.

The members of the Carnation Club gave a Parcel Post entertainment Tuesday evening which proved to be out of the ordinary. Every one present enjoyed the evening and a neat little sum of $5.35 was raised above expenses. We kindly thank those who came out and made the affair a success. The Hornsby Bro. entertainers were there and gave us plenty of good music, which was appreciated by all.

The young people of the Mt. Zion Baptist church rendered their Easter program at the B. Y. P. U. meeting. There was not a failure on the program and the president gave each child an Easter egg.

Mrs. L. E. Goodwin and Mrs. C. E. Norwood spent a most enjoyable Sunday afternoon with Mrs. P. E. and Mrs. A. N. Hornsby.

Mrs. M. J. Davis of Los Angeles is in San Diego for a few weeks, stopping at the Gordon hotel.

On May 2nd the C. E. County convention will hold their regular meeting with the colored citizens of Bethel A. M. E. church, which will be a union convention with colored C. E. at 1647 Front street. The officers of the C. E. expect to have a grand time. Pres. D. H. Maxwell, vice-pres. Mrs. Ella White; quiet hour supt. Burton Thomas.

The Hornsby Bros., entertainers, are employed by the Star & Crescent Boat Co. at the foot of Broadway. They have played for this company for nearly two years. Every day two trips are made, besides making extra trips for all the moonlight excursions. They are two young men that the colored citizens of San Diego should be proud of as they are making a mark in the world by their effective way of entertaining. They have received and are receiving letters from all over the United States complimenting their playing and singing.

The Senior choir of the A. M. E. church rendered the Easter program.

Cupid is certainly shooting his darts in San Diego. Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Katherine M. McClellan to Henry Cambell on May 3rd.

The little boy of Rev. and Mrs. T. Allen Harvey fell from a two story window Tuesday afternoon and was badly hurt. We wish for his speedy recovery.

We are glad to see Joe Stansel able to be out again.

James Warren has been confined to his bed for over a week with appendicites.

We think that the Eagle would be glad to know of a little mysterious happening which occurred last week among the chicken and pigeon family. At the home of Mrs. L. L. Alexander a hen laid an egg under the house about three weeks ago. A pigeon finding the egg in the nest, took her abode there for three weeks, and last week came forth into the world a healthy little chick. Mrs. Pigeon pranced around considerable and it was hard to pacify her. The little chick was taken into the house by Mrs. Alexander and she is doing all she can to raise it up properly. We hope to learn more of this little chick in the near future.

Fault Finding

Never employ yourself to discover the faults of others—look to your own. You had better find out one of your own faults than 10 of your neighbors. When a thing does not suit you, think of some pleasant quality in it. There is nothing so bad as it might be There are some persons who seem to treasure up things that are disagreeable on purpose.

The tongue that feeds on mischief, the babbling, the tattling, the sly whispering, all these tongues are trespassing on the community constantly. The fiery tongue is also abroad, and being set on fire of hell, scatters firebrands among friends, sets families, neighborhoods, churches and social circles in a flame; I can understand how a boy that never had been taught better might carry torpedoes in his pocket, and delight to throw them down at the feet of passers by and see them bound. But I cannot understand how an instructed and well-meaning person could do such a thing. And yet there are men who carry torpedoes all their lives, and take pleasure in tossing them at people. "Oh," they say, "I have something now, and when I meet that man, I will give it to him." And they wait for the right company, and the right circumstances and then they are out with the most disagreeable things. If they are remonstrated with it, they say, "It is true," as if that was a justification of their conduct. If God should take all the things that are true of you and make a scourage of them and whip you with it, you would be the most miserable of men.

It is easier to avoid a fault than to acquire a perfection. By other's faults wise men correct their own. He that condemns a small fault commits a great one, and remember that the greatest of all faults is, to believe we have none.

OAKLAND JOTTINGS
By "Jakie" Peyton..

Thursday evening a very prettily arranged private dancing party was given at Carpenter's Hall by Misses Grace McDowald, Emma Scott and Ethel Brown.

Miss Ethel White visited Sacramento the end of last week, where she attended a ball game and a reception and other social functions complimentary to her.

The Ladies' Clubs of Oakland are busy and Raisin Day promises to be the feature day. The results of which we hope to publish later.

The Oakleaf Baseball Club of Oakland say they are camping closely on the trail of the Los Angeles Hoegee Giants. "Me thinks I hear something, or somebody must be scared." Claxton had 19 strikeouts Sunday.

FIRST CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS
Announcement

The Allen Allensworth Club will stage "The Wedding Feast" from Samuel Coleridge Taylor's Hiawatha in the near future.

We have already a galaxy of some of Los Angeles' best musicians, both instrumental and vocal, but we need about fifty more voices. It matters not whether you sing bass, alto tenor or soprano—come, we want you to join this chorus—in your future musical education it will mean more to you than to us.

We meet every Monday and Thursday evening at the Second Baptist church on Maple Ave., between 7th and 8th streets, and will be glad to meet you there next Monday evening.

Dr. Wilbur C. Jordan is directing the chorus. In addition to his native ability as a musician and instructor he is injecting great energy into the work at this time and already the "Wedding Feast," the biggest literary effort yet undertaken by the Los Angeles public, spells success.

While Dr. Gordon is ably directing the chorus, Mrs. M. E. Roberts-Saunders, assisted by other competent musicians, presides at the piano.

Common Sense Thrift

We believe that a man with money in the Bank is a better citizen than he otherwise would be.

The only way to get ahead in money matters is to save systematically a portion of your income and deposit it regularly in a strong, conservative bank, such as this, where it will earn a good rate of interest.

First A. M. E. Church Notes

8th and Towne Ave.
Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor

The two packed congregations was an inspiration to this historic church and a new epoch was instituted by the magnificant manner in which Easter day was observed. Spiritual fervor ran high. The membership was increased and the rally was a record breaker. To God and the people who did their duty belongs the praise. The presence of every person in that thronging congregation is always welcome.

Impressive and helpful services will be held Sunday beginning with the Sunday school at 9:30. Bring your children and worship throughout the day at First church.

"It was the best program of it's kind I ever heard." That is what all the people are saying about the choir and each one that appeared Sunday night.

Preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:45 p.m. with Endeavor service at 6:30 p. m. You are welcome to all.

The Easter rally will be continued to the first Sunday in June. The total is already $1,327.78 and when all pledges are in we expect to reach the fourteen hundred dollar mark. Do your duty by fulfilling your promise.

Wesley Chapel

The greatest day of the year was marked by the greatest audience of the year and the most wonderful service witnessed in many a year. In the morning the great choir under Prof. Howard thrilled the people with their wonderful anthems of praise and Pastor Kinchen gave a short message on Easter and then proceeded to baptize 16 infants. This baptismal service was followed by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper which was given to the older children of those who were baptized and to the parents and guardians of all the children gathered at the altar. At 7:30 p.m. the church was filled to overflowing to witness the wonderful program by the Sunday School. Prof. Greene and his teachers deserve the support and appreciation of all the people.

The Pullman Car was the occasion of great joy Sunday as Bro. Stout brought back the report of two conversions. This makes a total of 38 railroad men born in the Kingdom.

Sunday is a day that the whole church has been looking forward to—the 29th anniversary of the founding of Wesley Chapel and the rally. Pastor Kinchen will preach in the morning on "A Terrible Indictment and a Searching Question." At 2:30 p.m. Dr. Greggs will preach the 29th anniversary service His great choir will have charge of the singing.

The evening service will be a farewell service in charge of the No-Note Choir in honor of their great leader, Sister Pauline Brooks-Daniels, who leaves for a tour of the South. All the people are welcome to the church.

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton Street

Sunday was a high day at Phillips Chapel. The services were beautiful and impressive.

Rev. E. L. Jones, Supt. of the Sunday School deserves much credit for his faithfulness to the Sunday school and for the successful way in which he conducts the school. He is doing a great work among the children. He has an efficient corpse of teachers and a lively set of scholars. Collection for the Sunday school was $21.19. Collection for the day was $40.45.

The Easter sermon by the pastor was very good. The Sacred concert by the choir was excellent.

The choir will have an outing Sunday and will go to Monrovia and sing in the afternoon for Rev Henry, pastor of the A. M. E. Z church, who will have a big rally Sunday.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)
Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

Easter was celebrated with unusually wonderful services at this church. 18 accessions including 2 converts were realized. Although there was no rally, $110.01 was laid on the table as an Easter offering. At 11 o'clock one of the greatest and most perfect programs ever witnessed was rendered by the Sunday school children. In the evening the choir rendered an excellent sacred concert. Miss Maude Rosemond deserves much praise for the excellent work of the choir, as does Mrs. Willie Beavers and Mrs. Bessie Greggs for the unexcelled programme by the Sunday School children. The pastor as usual was at his best, and very profoundly and impressively unfolded the message of the resurrection. The morning session was concluded with a baptismal ceremony. On next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the pastor and choir of this church will be at Wesley M. E. church, the pastor will deliver a sermon and the choir will furnish the music.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH

Pico and Paloma Sts.

Last Sunday was a great day in Zion, the church was beautifully decorated. The audience was large. The celebration of Easter was as previously advertised that it would be the greatest in the history of the church. Zion is beginding to look new, her walls are being repaired and the breaches being stepped and the members and friends are much encouraged, more than $200 was raised last Sunday and the Fishermen Club of the church and the trustees met Monday evening and amidst wild enthusiasm agreed to repeat their effort the third Sunday in June and nearly $100 was pledged by men who always pay their pledges. Rev. Father Mucker will act as pastor while the pastor is away attending the general conference and the pulpit will be graced from time to time with other strong ministers of the city who have kindly consented to assist Father Mucker. Now let the members and friends be found in their places at each service, that the work may continue to grow. The sacred cantata, "The King of Glory" rendered by the choir last Sunday evening was a decided success and a great musical treat but it was no more than was expected from the choir under the direction of the master hand of Prof. H. D. Greer.

First Baptist Church, Venice

W. H. M. Dickenson Pastor

Easter Sunday was a glorious day and God was in our midst. The church was artistically decorated with roses and lilies. At the morning service the pastor preached from the subject "Christ is Risen." There was a very good attendance and all who attended were helped. Sunday morning the pastor will preach from the subject, "The Life of a Christian." Sunday night the services will be under the supervision of B. Y. P. U. They will have what is known as the "Hog Killing Rally" which we hope will be interesting. A grand program is anticapted. All strangers are welcome at our services.

Tabernacle Church

The pastor, Rev. J. D. Gordon, did not fill his own pulpit Sunday. He was thrown from a moving car and slightly wrenched himself.

The morning services were conducted by Rev. Reed of Stockton, who preached an excellent sermon.

In the afternoon the Knight Templar sermon was preached by Rev. N. P. Greggs. The sermon was one of great rejoicing.

Sunday night a grand Easter program was enacted by Mrs. A.B. Mitchell.

The funeral of Mrs. Kimbrough was held Monday morning at 11 o'clock. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

All are urged to attend our services Sunday.

Della Givens, Correspondent.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Easter Sunday was fittingly observed with appropriate services, beginning with Sunday school in the morning and closing with the Easter program by the Sunday school in the evening. All services were well attended and were a blessing to all.

The pastor is spending the week at Catalina Island, but will return for the services Sunday, which are as follows:

Sunday School 10 a.m.
Preaching 11:15 a.m.
Christian Endeavor 7 p.m.
Preaching 8 p.m.

All are cordially welcomed to all services.

SOCIETY and CLUBS

What is Going on at Sojourner

May 3rd there will be a Festival for the benefit of Sojourner. Lunch will be served from 4 p.m. to 10:30 p. m. and a splendidly arranged vaudeville program each hour under the auspices of the Domestic Science Teacher, Mrs. B. Turner.

Do not forget Sojourner's employment department. We are trying to find good positions for efficient people in all lines of work. We have still several unoccupied rooms and in the language and spirit of Sojourner Truth we are appealing to the young women of the race to come into the atmosphere of the influence that prevades the home.

Monday is Club day and all members are asked to be present. We are appealing especially to those who are in arrears to come out and pay up.

Mother's National Day will be observed at the Forum Sunday May 14th under the direction of the State Superintendent, Mrs A. Jackson. All women, especially mothers, and club women are urged to be present. A good program will be rendered.

The Woman's Civic League meets every first and third Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Sojourner Truth Home. Mrs. C. Campbell, pres. Mrs. M. Smith, secy.

The biggest hit of the season was made last Saturday evening when the Progressive Literary Club entertained some 50 members and friends in honor of Miss Edna Jones of Glendale who is to leave soon for Kansas to study a complete course in nursing. The home of the prominent Misses Ruth and Vivian Henry was the beautiful scene of this rare affair, which was attended by the "cream" of society. The following program was rendered:

Vocal solo.....Edna Jones
Recitation.....Dorothy Faston
Instrumental solo.....
....Geraldine Overton-King
Humorous reading, Hilbert Rozier
Vocal solo.....Mae Rogers

Among the prominent visitors were Mrs. Geraldine Overton-King, Miss Dorothy Easton and W. Easton, jr, Refreshments were served by our ideal hostesses.

Pleasant Hill Assists in Making Easter Bright

As usual Pleasant Hill Baptist church lent her aid to the brightening up of Easter.

Easter eggs were in abundance and most of all their wonderfully prepared program struck the heavily populated audience as the best yet, which is saying something.

The pastor, Rev. W. H. Rozier was an interested listener.

Second Baptist Church

Easter was fittingly celebrated at the church Sunday. At the morning service Dr. Prowd preached a stirring sermon so forcefully did he impress the truth of the crucifiction upon his hearers that they went forth uncommanded delivering the message to others. In the evening the Sunday school under the able direction of superintendent J. D. Groves rendered a pleasing program. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

The members of the Providence Intitutional Baptist church will close their thirty day rally Sunday. Each and every member and club captain is urged to be present. The members and friends are working hard and say they will not give up.

Rev. E. Payne will preach Sunday and the choir is preparing special music and a great day is promised.

Los Angeles Product Appreciated

Chicago, Mar. 21st.

Mr. Fletcher, Los Angeles, Cal.

Dear Sir:—I have used your preparations for the face—the Bleach Paste and the Opera Cream and I have seen a vast improvement in my complexion from one jar of each. My friends are complimenting me and advising me to continue using them since they are doing my skin so much good. Your face powder gives the best results of any I have ever used.

Respectfully,
(Signed) Florence Cole Talbert.

Sex the Key to the Bible

The World's Three Greatest Books
By Sidney C. Tapp, Ph.B.

"The Truth About the Bible," about five hundred pages, $3.00. "Why Jesus Was a Man and Not a Woman," three hundred pages, $2.00. "Sexology of the Bible," over one hundred and seventy-five pages, $2.00. All cloth-bound. These books treat of the sex of the Bible, and show that the Bible is a book of sex and a book of spirit, and that sex is the dividing line between the physical and spiritual worlds. They show that disease, sickness and insanity are within the sex, and that sex-lust was the original sin and cause of death. They are arresting the attention of the medical, scientific, philosophical and theological worlds and people of all classes as no other books of modern times, and will probably do more to shape the thoughts of the human race than any books ever written in the history of the world. They are daily going to the great thinkers of all parts of the civilized world.

"I would rather be the author of the Truth About the Bible, by Sidney C. Tapp, than to be the President of the United States. His sex interpretation of the Bible, as therein contained, is so daring and his conclusions are so unanswerable that the human intellect staggers under the ideas presented. For ideas, it is the world's greatest book. Mr. Tapp's books on the Bible and his sex interpretation of the Bible will live until time shall be no more. Republics may perish and Empires may decay, but the ideas presented by the author in these books on the Bible will never die."—Prof. J. Silas Harris, A. M.

"Mr. Tapp's works on the Bible will do more to empty our jails, insane institutions and hospitals than any other idea that has ever been given to the world, in our opinion, to say nothing of the great good, morally and spiritually, that they will do the human race. He has indeed produced a world idea that should be in every home and library in the civilized world.

SUPPORT THE FIRST TWENTY-SIX

Divested of anything personal we believe that the best isterests of all the people will be subserved by giving our support to the United Republican ticket at the primaries on next Tuesday.

If any man, woman or child can show to us where the gang that is conducting the campaign of the regulars, stands for all of the people, we will show them the inside of the moon, "by your fruits ye shall be known." And they say the regular delegation are fine men. We grant they are, but the men to whom they have entrusted the management of their campaign have placed a premium on crooked politics, on ignorance and indolence, and if they will do that at this stage, what will they put on you if placed in power.

So to the thousands of readers which we visit weekly, year after year, and who on such occasions as the one pending for next Tuesday, look with anxiety for our views: Take it from us; we have our ears to the grass roots at all times for everythng that affects our people and we want to say, pass the word along the line that every Colored Republican should vote for the first 26 names on your ballot on next Tuesday, which means a truly united and harmonious party, and that our people shall not be insulted again by the assigning in our various communities renegades and parasites, and idlers who neither sow nor reap and designate them as our leaders and then say to us, What are you going to do about it? This time we shall vote to repudiate the whole gang and put at the head of the Republican affairs men who believe in a square deal that is Republicanism. True United Republicanism is too big to be small. Therefore let the Black phalanx line up as of old for the winners, which by their help will be the United Republicans.

THE RIGHT MOVE

The consummation of an organized effort along business lines, by the Colored business men of Central avenue and the vicinity adjacent thereto will without doubt put a stimulus on conditions in not only this particular section, but in the entire city as well. It has long since been demonstrated that the Get Together, organization of your forces is the one and only way to secure lasting results and therefore in this city which has been dormant in so far as activity along business lines is concerned, is making the right move in forming a business organization to exploit and promote business concerns in an organized and intelligent way. Every man and woman who is ambitious along business lines should join this movement. The officers of this incipient organization are experienced and successful business men. With the exception of the writer who happens to be the President, they have been residents of this city for many years and have singly endeavored to solve the economic problem in their individual ways. While most of them have been successful, just think that allied as they are now in a strong band and all pulling together, what possibilities they have before them.

CHRISTIAN RECORDER FOR THE COAST

The movement by the Methodist connection in the West to establish a publication on the Coast is a timely one that would mean much for the connection, not only on the Pacific slope, but for that section of the country from the Mississippi river to the Pacific ocean. This vast territory has been sadly neglected and it is a ten stroke that the Western delegation will make in working for the establishment of the Recorder here on the coast.

Los Angeles, the center of Negro population and the metropolis of the West would be the logical point for its location. It would mean much, not only to the connection, but to the cause of Christianity itself. The Eagle, with its ears at all times to the grass roots for real progress, avers that the general conference would make a master stroke in placing this publication on the Coast and suggest that no better persoon could be selected to guide its destiny than that prince of diplomats and wonder worker, Presiding Elder J. H. Wilson.

GETTING BY

The Oakland Sunshine is taking to task the members of the Race who are passing for white in their bailiwick. We feel that if one will note the progress of the Race in fifty years they should be proud to be identified with such a Race as this, and those who call themselves getting by, after all would if they cleaved to the Race be only weights on their continued progress. What we are fighting here is the shiftless, immoral, grafting and Jim Crow Negroes, who are human parasites and the only time they get busy is in political times or when some cheap white man drives them. We have that sort with us right now. They have fooled the white folks into the belief that they are real representative Negroes and they are actually taken seriously. We have the Jim Crow editor of a white man's poster sheet getting busy raking chestnuts for this cheap white man to eat. We have alone and single handed fought this sort of thing, because we believe that from no standpoint whatever can such conditions as this be justified.

THE FICE ARE BARKING

The editor of The Eagle at this time is persona non grata with at least some of the political riff raff that is afloat around us in this vicinity; now while we have put ourselves upon no pedestal of superior attainment, we are satisfied and really feel highly complimented to have such part of our body politic to denounce us. Since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, we have stood for common decency, law and order and therefore it is natural that we shall have the ill will of this gentry. In this last episode, we have simply insisted that recognition be given to clean industrious and representative citizens, instead of to the shiftless and to those who are drones in our fight for racial progress.

OUR ATHETICS
By Hilbert L. Rozier

"Rube" Foster was so glad to get such stars as Wood and Washington, who proved to be the best pitchers on his staff that he overworked them in his anxiety to win games. As a result they threw their arms away. Rube sent them home for a month's rest after which they will join the Giants in Chicago. They made wonderful records while up north.

Of course you are not surprised in the least to know that our boys hooked, crossed, punched and uppercutted their way to victory over the haughty Crown city lads in that much talked of baseball game last Thursday and what's more we licked 'em in their own back yard. "Home Run" Baker and 'Cutey" Patterson took advantage of the fact that Reynolds didn't know how to pitch and drove out 4 hits apiece.

Carr of Pasadena got 3 swats but then he and our pitcher Bowdoin are good friends. We came pretty near forgetting to tell you the score, but that is such a trifle, The final count being 10 to 7.

Bowdoin proved that he wasn't a bit selfish because when I asked why he allowed 9 hits, he answered "We may want to play them again some day." You see he could have shut them out, but he thought of the team. The game was so uninteresting for Pasadena that Capt. Lawrence sacrificed himself in order that Pasadena, fans might have something to get excited over. Sliding home on a hit and run play in the ninth he sprained his ankle which will kee p him out of the game for some time.

Mrs. R. Daniels Entertains

On Saturday afternoon Apr. 22, Mrs. Robert Daniels of 1595 W. 35th Place was hostess of a beautifully arranged reception in honor of her house guest, Mrs. V. W. Mitchell of Chicago and Nrs. Thomas Oldfield. Mrs. Daniels was assisted by Mrs. M. D. Batson. The house was beautifully decorated throughout with profussions of roses. A delicious 2 course menu was served. Mrs. Mitchell after visitipg friends in Los Angeles for the past five weeks will return to her home. After living in Los Angeles for the past 3 years Mrs. Oldfield will return to her former home in Pittsburg, Pa. to live. Mrs. Oldfield is a lovely Christian woman and has endeared herself to her many friends here who regret very much to have her leave.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness, sympathy and floral designs during the illness and death of our brother and uncle, John C. James.

We thank Drs. Cole and Reed for their services and Dr. Tillman for the beautiful eulogy rendered, assisted by the Mt. Zion choir.

We also wish to thank Mrs. Huley for the beautiful solo, also Mrs. Hulbert, Mrs. Dyson and Mrs. Caviness for their splendid arrangements of the services and Dr. L. Stovall our family physician.

sermons were enjoyed by all. Rev C. C. Williams of Imperial preached Sunday afternoon, his sermon was also a masterpiece.

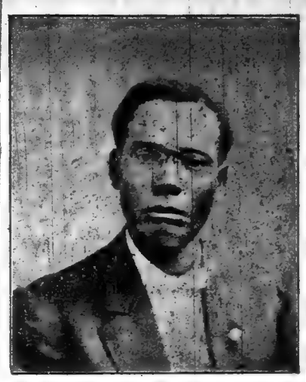
Rev. H. B. Thomas has accepted the pastorate of the Mt. Zion church but as his business is so arranged he cannot take it up ot present, so he placed Rev. C. C. Williams in charge until he can take charge. The charge is praying for his arrangements to be made soon.

Every one is cordially invited to come out on Easter Sunday and hear the children render their Faster program at 8 p.m.

Martha Washington a Negress

BY E. P. PEASTER

Taken from William's Negro History in America—1619 to 1880, vol. 326, 73:1a, pp. 192–193.



William Costins' mother, Ann Dandridge, was the daughter of a half-breed Indian and colored. Her grandfather being a Cherokee chief and her reputed father was the father of Martha Dandridge, afterwards Mrs. Custis, who in 1795 was married to General George Washington, these daughters, Ann and Martha, grew up together on the ancestral plantations. William Costins reputed father was white and belonged to a prominent family in Virginia, but the mother after his birth married one of the Mount Vernon slaves by the name of Costin and the son took the name of William Costin, his mother being of Indian descent, made him under the laws of Virginia, free born man In 1800 he married Philadelphia Judge, his cousin, one of Martha Washington's slaves at Mount Vernon, where both were born. In 1980 the wife was given Martha Washington, at her deceased, to the granddaughter. Eliza Parke Custis, who was the wife of Thomas Law of Washington. Soon after William Costin and wife came to Washington, the wife's freedom was secured on kind and easy terms and the children were all born free. This is the account which William Custin, his wife and mother, Ann Dandridge, always gave of their ancestry and were persons of great precision in all matters of family history as well as of the most mark scrupleousness in their statements. Their seven children, five daughters and two sons, went to school with the white children on Capitol Hill, to Mrs. Maria Haley and other teachers. The two younger daughters completed their education at the Colored Bonvent in Baltimore.

Louisa Parke and Ann passed their school days before the convent was founded. Louisa Parke Costin opened her school at 19 years of age, continuing it with much success until her death in 1831, the year her mother also died When Martha returned from the Convent Seminary, a year or two later, she reopened the school, continuing until 1839. This school was maintained some 15 years and was always full. The three surviving sisters own and reside in the house which they built. About 1812 one of these sisters married Richard Fisk, a colored man of good education who died in California. She now has charge of the Senate Ladies' Reception Room, Ann Costin was for several years in the family of Mayor Lewis at Wood lawn. Mrs Eleanor Custis was the granddaughter of Martha Washington. This school was not molested by mob of 1835 and it was always under the care of a well bred and well educated teacher.

THE MAN, THE CHURCH AND THE TIME

Evangelistic Campaign and School of Methods For Sunday School Workers.

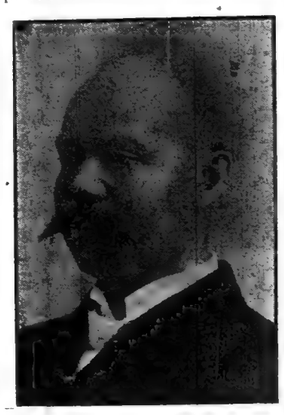
The long looked for school for Sunday school workers under the direction of Rev. G. W. Reed, expert in young people's work, is about to be an assured fact, Dr. Tillman, pastor of the St. Paul Baptist church, has thrown open the doors of his church to be used by the faculty of experts, with Rev. G. W. Reed, a dean, who in the last few months has proven himself to be well equipped for instructing those who are desirious of becoming Sunday school workers. The school, will open Tuesday the 25th at 4:15 p m. Every superintendent, teacher and all others who are desirous of becoming efficient Sunday school workers are invited to attend. There will be no special fee charged for the course.

Rev. G. W. Reed, Evangelist

The school of methods will be held along with an evangelistic meeting, which will also be conducted by Evangelist Reed, who in the last three months has created for himself the distinction of being one of the most successful evangelist that has ever visited this part of the state. Pastors of churches where he has held meeting, to a man, gives him this credit. He is compared by some with Billy Sunday, by others with Dr. C. T. Walker, and by others as the most wonderful young evangelist they have ever heard. The work of Evangelist Reed has proved him. During fifty-five days' meeting held in five different churches, there has been nearly 100 converts and accessions.

Dr. J. M. Riddle, pastor of the Friendship Baptist church of Pasadena, recommending him after he had held a ten days' successful meeting for him recently. "As an evangelist Rev. Reed is eminently qualified to give any church and pastor a great lift in his evangelistic efforts. He is a great gospel preacher; he is sane in his evangelistic methods; he is chase in his conduct on the field; he knows the people and what to say; he is not an evangelistic fanatic; all his methods are commendable. Rev. J. D. Gordon, D.D., of Tabernacle Baptist church; Rev. H. L. McKenney, S.T.B., of Mason Chapel M.E. church; Rev. W. H. Hughes, of Metropolitan Baptist church, Pasadena, equally recommends him.

The Baptist Ministers Union of Los Angeles county and Interdenominational Ministers Association of Los Angeles county, have also endorsed him and his efforts as being worthy.



Dr. Tillman, the learned pastor, and acknowledged as one of the greatest Bible expositors of the age, shows his appreciation of the ability of Rev. Reed, by being the first to invite him to hold the first school in the church which he pastors. None should miss this God sent evangelist.

St. Paul Baptist Church

The Los Angeles District of the California Conference of the A. M. E. church held its district Conference and Sunday School Convention in Riverside, April 5th, 6th and 7th. When Presiding Elder Wilson called the conference to order there was a good representation present, all stations being represented but two.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey of San Diego was elected secretary. The roll was called and committees were appointed after which Elder Wilson declared the Conference opened for business.

REV. J. H. WILSON

Throughout the Conference the subjects were well presented and at all times the discussion was enthusiastic.

The afternoon session found Mrs. Judkins in her place as district superintendent.

Miss Grace Owens of Watts was made secretary and immediately the convention was organized for work.

The papers presented were well prepared and commanded the best thought of the body.

Friday afternoon the election of superintendent and assistant superintendent resulted in the election of Mrs. Judkins of Pomona for the former and Mrs. L. Holcomb of Los Angeles for the latter.

The first evening was given over to a reception by the church and citizens to the conference and convention. There were two sermons delivered during the conference. Rev. T. A. Harvey spoke on "Man the Habitation of God." The scholarly manner of presentation impressed all with the fact that he is an orator and a student.

Thursday evening, after the Women's Missionary rally in the afternoon, Rev. F. F. Moten, of the third church, Los Angeles, delivered a stirring missionary sermon and by the frequent ejaculation of praise in the audience, it was attested that he was feeding "His sheep."

Friday evening, after a most excellent program recounting a century of organic life of the church, the principal speaker being the Honorable W. O. Tyler, there passed into history one of the pleasantest and most profitable sessions of the Southern District Conference and Sunday School Conventions of the California Conference.

COLORED OFFICERS

The colored officers in the U. S. regular army are at present as follows: Line officers, Major Charles Young, 10th cavalry; First Lieutenant Benjamin O. Davis, 9th cavalry; First Lieutenant Charles Green, 25th infantry. The regimental chaplains are Captain G. W. Prioleau, 9th cavalry; First Lieutenant W. E. Gladden, 24th infantry; First Lieutenant O.W.J. Scott, 25th infantry; First Lieutenant Lewis A. Carter, First cavalry. On the retired list Major W. T. Anderson and Captain T. G. Steward, both formerly chaplains; Major John R. Lynch, formerly paymaster. Major Young is the only West Point graduate, Green and Davis having been promoted from the ranks.

Colonel Dodd, with the 25th Infantry, colored, who are now in Mexico, was in hot pursuit of Villa on March 26. The 9th and 10 Cavalry were also sent to Mexico.

That is no idle boast. When the 54th Massachusetts stormed Fort Wagner in '63 it established for all time the fact that the colored soldier could fight and fight well. The history of the 9th and 10 Cavalry in the Indian fights between 1868 and 1890 piled up the evidence of their courage and loyalty.

There have been notably fewer desertions from the colored regiments than from the white. The 9th Cavalry once astonished the army by reporting not a single desertion in twelve months, an unheard and undreamed of record.

Their service during the Spanish War and since has shown our colored troops to be infinitely better fitted for service in our tropical dependencies than white troops. Company L, of the 49th Volunteers composed wholly of colored men and commanded by Captain E. L. Baker, colored veteran who had served for 17 years in the 9th and 10th Cavalry, made a record which no white company remotely approached. This company had on its rolls during a period of twelve months 106 men who were fit for duty at all times and never lost a day on account of sickness. More extraordinary still is the fact that during the same period not one of these men ever went before a court martial. Surely a striking illustration of what can be done by colored officers! Such traits enabled General A. S. Burt, in relinquishing command of the 25th Infantry April 17, 1902 to quote the Inspector General of the army as saying, "The 25th Infantry is the best regiment I have seen in the Philippines." It was noticeable, too, that neither the officers nor the men of any colored regiment figured in the charges and counter-charges which arouse out of the use of the "water cure" in the Islands.—From the Scrap Book by J. D. Reynolds.

Big Social Event May 17th

Most prominent on social calendar for the month of May is Alpha Tennis Club's Second Annual Shirt Waist Hop, which will be given at Blanchard hall on Wednesday, May 17th. The Alphas are sparing no pains to make this event compare favorably with their first annual hop, which was the most enjoyable affair of last season. The popular Black and Tan Orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 50 cents by card only.

There will be great services held at the Mt. Zion church beginning Monday night, April 24, under the auspices of the Baptist Ministers' Alliance. A grand rally for the benefit of the church leading up to the installation of Rev. F. H. Davis, the newly elected pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist church on the fifth Sunday, April 30 at 3 p. m.

The different auxiliaries of the church have chosen the following pastors with their church and choirs to appear as follows:

Monday night—Services conducted by Rev. Hutchinson of Mt. Olive. Sermon by Rev. A. Redd of Shiloh and both choirs will sing.

Tuesday night—Rev. A. Lively of New Hope will preach. Both New Hope and Providence choir will sing.

Wednesday night—Rev. J. D. Gordon of Tabernacle will preach and choir will sing.

Thursday night—Rev. Resier of Pleasant Hill will conduct the services and Rev. W. H. Tillman of St. Paul will preach; both choirs will sing.

Friday night—Rev. Prowd of Second Baptist will preach and his choir will sing.

All visitors and friends are cordially invited to be present each night.

Now is your opportunity to hear good sermons from nearly all the pastors of the city in one week.

Woman Accused Poisoning Child

THE ATTITUDE OF DAILIES TOWARDS NEGRO AMERICANS

We are aware, and highly appreciate the fact that many of the Dailies have actively promulgated the cause of the Negro in this country at all times, but in spite of this fact we loath to state that in nearly every instance when and where Negroes come up for publicity, only the darkest side of his life is pictured in the white dailies.

As in the case of a few days ago when a colored woman, one Mrs. Edna Barnes, was reported to have poisoned an infant, while in the employ of its parents. The daily in which we read the account stated that the woman was either insane or infurated because she was about to be dismissed from service, and poisoned the baby to get even.

At first it seemed that the case would go unnoticed by the Colored citizens of this section, but somehow the matter was called to the attention of Dr. W. E. Kinchen who immediately got busy on the case, and many facts are being unerathed.

To begin with it has been stated by eye witnesses that at the time the child drank the poison the Colored woman was not in the house, and that the moving picture actress mother was in the habit of hiring help, and when pay day came around, manufactured some excuse for not paying off, and it was this experience that Mrs. Barnes was having when this incident occured and that policeman when called of course grabbed the Colored woman on none other than the white woman's accusiation and thrust her in the insane ward of the County Hospital and ere this would have sent her on to Patton had it not been for the activity of Dr. Kinchen, and others who secured the services of Attorney Hugh E. MacBeth, who is making every effort to secure such evidence that will at least entitle Mrs. Barnes to the proper hearing in the courts of Los Angeles.

The case came up for the first time Thursday in Judge Sidney Reeves Department of the Justice Court and was held over for a hearing next Thursday.

TOM MILLER TRIAL AT SANTA BARBARA

Special from Santa Barbara

The editor of this paper is in Santa Barbara this week in attendance at the Miller trial, at which he is a witness. This trial promises to be longer drawn out than even the former one. It is estimated that it will be next Wednesday before a jury is secured.

Attorney E. Burton Ceruti of Los Angeles is defending Miller and is assisted by Mr. Gammill, one of the attorneys at his former trial. A large number of witnesses from all parts of the state have been subpoenaed and no stone is being left unturned on behalf of the defense for insanity. Mr. Ceruti is recognized as a brilliant criminal lawyer and in this trial will no doubt give a good account of himself. Mr. Gammill, one of the pioneer attorneys of this section, who is assisting Mr. Ceruti, has been with the case from the first and is a valuable man and entitled to much credit for the manner in which he has stayed by his guns.

District Attorney Squires is a very able, adroit and skilful lawyer, who, of couse, will do his utmost to shatter the defense of the charge of insanity. Mr. Squires is a very pleasing and affable gentleman, and represents the county with dignity and honor.

Judge Crowe, the presiding judge, is to our mind fair minded and it seems to be his highest ambition to deal out exact justice. The genial sheriff Stuart also is genial, hale and well met, and is very popular with all classes.

GRAND OPENING OF SEAL GARDENS

After many delays incident to the remodeling of the famous Seal Gardens and the efficient work of a small army of men, Messrs. McAllister and Murray on last Sunday informally opened the gates of this very beautiful park to the public, the main attraction was a high class ball game between the L. A. White Sox and the W. O. W. team. More than a thousand were in attendance and they received a run for their money. Moody for the White Sox pitched a masterly game. He had the Woodmen eating out of his hand. He was very stingy with hits, allowing them only four safe swats. The pitcher, a south paw, of the Woodmen, also showed the class. The score was 4 to 2 in favor of the White Sox.

GRAND OPENING, MAY 30th

While minor events will be held at the park from time to time, the very Grand Opening, the great event, will be on Decoration Day, May 30, at which time an elaborate program is being arranged. A grand parade will go through the principal streets of the city and grand and imposing exercises in honor of the enterprise of these gentlemen to take over and beautify this resort for the purpose of providing an amusement park for our people. There will be a special program, short addresses by prominent citizens, the christening of the park by unique ceremonies, music by brass band, baseball, tennis, dancing and other innocent amusements.

There will also be offered many prizes for various contests to be staged.

KEEP THESE DATES BEFORE YOU

June 5th, 6th and 7th

Little hands are busy, and big minds are at work making plans for the biggest demonstration in art and beauty by our women at the Exchange for the above dates.

There will also be a library program for each evening and dainty refreshments will be served from prettily arranged booths by the different clubs of the city.

THE CAREER OF MR. JAMES ALEXANDER

About thirty years ago when he was but a youth, and Los Angeles was still in infant garments as to population and prosperity in all lines, Mr. Alexander, still in the custody of his parents, came to this city where he has spent his early youth, received his education, and inbibed the spirit of the West.

Early in life Mr. Alexander demonstrated superior ability as a leader, and if the history of earlier days that we have had passed on to us is correct, the old Eagle, now the California Eagle, was the first to discover this young race man, and with pride, through its columns presented him to the public.

And now after a thirty years' career for both Mr. Alexander and the California Eagle, it, is with no small degree of pride that we at this time turn on the searchlight from our journalistic tower in order that the Los Angeles public, friend and foe alike, may take a retroospective view of the efforts of Mr. Alexander during this period already mentioned.

For a number of years, Mr. Alexander was a trusty and honored employer of Robinson's Dry Goods Store, the most up-to-date of its kind in Southern California, from which he went to fill a higher position of revenue collector in the U. S. Federal Department where he has been for near about eight years giving entire satisfaction as a competent workman in whatever line or part conducting himself in such man of the work that it was his good fortune to share, and at all times ner that he has won for himself and race the esteem of the whites with whom he comes in contact daily.

Some years ago when the Texas Association was started in this city the Californians, who hailed originally from the Lone Star State, looked among their number for a leader fit to bear the title of governor and direct the efforts of the organization, and it was the unanimous opinion that Mr. Alexander was the one man for that honored place. Hence for eight years he has so carefully manipulated the affairs of the association that today it owns property valued at $20,000 at 818 Wall street, and plans for the erection of a monster building on the same are on the way.

The Association is making plans for the biggest annual picnic for June 19th when the six or seven hundred members will meet together in a grand old reunion.

Mr. Alexander is also president of the Afro-American Council, one of the oldest and most active organizations for Colored people of this section. It was under his direction as president that many of the men who are employed about the Court House, Hall of Records and other public buildings of the State and City secured position and through his influence openings have been made in many business places for members of the Race. His work and his record speaks louder than words of his service and The Eagle believes in exploiting asd encouraging this sort of citizenship.

JAMES A. ALEXANDER

VOTE FOR THE UNITED REPUBLICAN TICKET

"The contest within the Republican party in California to be decided at the polls May 2, is not a battle of any group of persons with another group of persons," declares a statement issued from United Republican headquarters, "but a clearly defined fight of progress against reaction. It is a contest over principles of a fundamental and vital nature.

"A vote for the first 26 candidates for delegate to the Republican National Convention, and for none other (for to vote for more than 26 will invalidate the ballot), is a vote for progress, protection, patriotism and Republican victory.

"A vote for any other candidates is a vote to perpetuate the reactionary organization represented in California by the Otis-Fredericks faction, which would bar the path of progress if again placed in control of the party they have steered upon the shoals; and it is a vote for sure defeat in November.

"It should be remembered by every voter that regardless of whether he or she is registered as Republican, Progressive, Democrat, Prohibitionist, Socialist or with party affiliation not stated, the law distinctly provides that such voter may ask for and receive a Republican ballot May 2; and this act leaves the voter free to participate in the activities of his own party in the state election following.

"The only contest, nationally, is within the Republican party. Those who believe in progress in national affairs should ask for Republican ballots May 2 and stamp a cross after the name of each of the first 26 candidates appearing on the ballot, beginning with the name of Robert N. Bulla and ending with the name of D. C. Collier, and after no other name."

United Republicans Will Win Big Victory

THE CHURCH IS MOVING ON. EASTER RALLY AND SERVICE GREATEST AND MOST SUCCESS-EVER HELD IN THIS HISTORIC EDIFICE

Again the organ could well even with greater volume the song, "The Church is Moving On," for on last Sunday all previous records of the historic 8th and Towne ave. church were shattered, in attendance, in religious enthusiasm, in their beautiful service and in the amount of money raised at a rally in the time in which this one was consummated $1327.78 was the amount raised. It was a gala day in the house of the Lord. As on the morn of the resurrection, all nature was in its fullness of glory. So on last Sabbath morning the church was decorated with palms and lilies, the Men's Co-operative Club true to their slogan of "Be Something, Do Something, Have Something," had supplied and recarpeted the church with a beautiful carpet at a cost of about $400.00, and Prof. Bynum at the head of this great aggregation of Gospel singers, sang most beautifully. In the evenig the choir rendered a sacred program and it was pronounced by all as the very best one ever rendered in the city, the choir itself was the embodiment of harmony in its mighty choruses and the soloists all did themselves proud.

Mres. S. P. Dones excelled on the violin; Mr. Payne Middleton gained new laurels as a reader, and Miss Gould, Mrs. Bacon and Miss Young were superb in their rendition of their very appropriate solos.

At the morning service Rev. Craw spoke beautifully and effectively, and indeed for the day it seemed that every event and happening centered around the thought expressed by the pastor; his as it were was the key word.

The following is a full and complete financial statement of receipts and expenditures:

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE ON THE DEATH OF MRS. ELLA KIMBROUGH

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call our sister, Ella Kimbrough, home to heaven; and

Whereas, She was a useful and loving member of the deaconess board of Tabernacle Baptist church; therefore be it

Resolved, By the Deaconess Board of Tabernacle Baptist church that, while we submit to the will of God, we do not the less mourn for our sister who has been called home to rest.

Resolved, That in the death of Sister Kimbrough one has gone whom we loved, and one who loved us, and whose very presence was sunshine.

Resolved, That the Deaconess Board tenders its heartfelt sympathy to the family and relatives of our deceased sister in their sad afflictions.

Our Sister is gone—"beyond the skies
A cloud receives her from our eyes;
Gone beyond the highest height
Of mortal's gaze or angel's flight;
Through the veils of time and space,
Passed into the holiest place;
All the toil, the sorrow done,
All the battle fought and won."

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of the Deaconess Board, and that a copy be sent to the family of our deceased sister.

MRS. S. A. JOHNSON,
Corresponding Secretary.

MILLENIUM DAWN COMPANY

The above company held a stockholders' meeting on last Monday evenig, at which time a new board of directors was elected. The company which has been a success from the beginning has taken on even more life, forming an amalgamation of the West Side Improvement Club. They are putting in their quarters at 1013 Central ave., a new and up to date meat market, and with enlargement of their present stock they truly will demonstrate the Colored men and womens' capacity for doing business. The following are the officers and directors for the ensuing year: P. M. Hickman, President; W. Rhone, Vice-President; P. W. Ridgway, Secretary; W. C. Hammond, Treasurer; Directors, P. M. Hickman, W. Stuart, W. H. Hall, W. C. Hammond, J. B. Bass, W. H. Rhone, W. H. Fitzpatrick.

MRS. LILLIAN B. CRAW ENTERTAINS

Last Tuesday the particpants in the Kermess of Brides were entertained at the parsonage by Mrs. Craw.

The brides had been requested to appear with their photographs when they were babies and each gentleman present made a guess as to who was who of the baby pictures, and if his guess was correct, had the pleasure of basking in the ladies presence for the evening. The idea was new and greatly enjoyed by the young folk.

Dainty refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

Pasadena News

The Easter service at the First A. M. E. church of Pasadena was one of the greatest successful Easter services ever held in the history of the church.

The Sunday school opened at 10 o'clock, half an hour later than usual, after the opening the collection was taken by the classes. The 12 classes turned in $44 for the missions. After the collection the members of the Sunday school marched from the room to the main auditorium 125 strong.

The Easter program was rendered at 11 a. m. to a large congregation. After the program was over the regular church collection of $15 was taken.

The committee headed by Mrs. Harding gave to the children 13 dozen Easter eggs, then Supt. Wm. Prince gave to all the Junior intermediate and adults classes 100 gold crosses made into pins and 30 souvedir buttons for the primary department.

The pastor gave 12 infants certificates of membership, giving the age and name of the infant. At the evening services a sacred Easter concert was rendered by the choir to a crowded house. Every seat in the beautiful church was occupied. Mrs. W. W. Dyette directed the music. The choir was assisted by Hon. J. H. Kelly and Mrs. Eva Carter Buckner who gave readings, also readings from Mrs. Ryan and a dialogue by William Prince, Jr. and 5 young men.

Miss Ethel Miller who has just returned from a year's stay in Honolulu sang a solo. She was greeted by her many friends.

The church was beautifully decorated by the Ladies Aid Society, using hundreds of white roses. Mr. Dyette, Miss James Gooden, Mrs. John R. Wright had charge of training the children for the Sunday school. Mrs. E. Byant, the Supt. of the Primary department had charge of the program in that department. The collection for the day was $74. Rev. Dyette and the Supt. William Prince desire to thank all that helped make the day the great success that it was.

Political Life

Pasadena registration is 15,516 for the primary Tuesday when delegates to the National convention will be named. The United Republican ticket is in the lead. Col. T. Roosevelt won the Primary vote in Massachusetts last Tuesday. In Union there is strength. So we have a United Republican Club in this city. Officers: S. A. Carr, president and vice-presidents C. E. Anderson, J. C. C. Jackson, Mrs. Prof. J. C. Moore and Mrs. Frank M. Prince, Treasurer Geo. W. Dansby, Secretary William T. Carr. So do not forget to vote Tuesday and vote for 26 and let the first one you vote for be Robert N. Bulla, and down the line to D. C. Collier and let us get away from these Democratic times. I am a United Republican because I believe that a "House divided against itself must fall" says Attorney Hugh MacBeth. Louisiana elected a Democratic governor last week and he says the reason he is opposed to Roosevelt is that he took lunch with a Negro, but this is what Roosevelt says about it, "I did eat with him because he was a colored man, but because he was a gentleman, a scholar and my equal."

Pasadena Locals

Mr. George Barber is home from Arizona.

William Ford says he will vote for the first 26 names on his ticket.

We are proud to see Mr. Clemones out again after a week of illness.

The Women's Missionary Society at Friendship Baptist church will meet on the first Sunday. Mrs. E. S. Dotson is president. The Easter program was rendered at 11 o'clock Sunday. Mrs. W. C. Fields was mistress of ceremonies, and it was a grand affair and the Sunday school should feel proud of her. At the Metropolitan Baptist church Mrs. Hicks was in charge and she never left a stone unturned and it was the greatest ever held in the church. At Scott's chapel at 11 a.m. Rev. J. C. Moore preached and at 7:30 the pastor Rev. L. G. Robinson filled the pulpit and preached a very able sermon, and on Monday evening the largest congregation that ever attended the church was present to listen to a program prepared by Mrs. Beavers.

Don't forget to vote Tuesday and vote for the first 26 names on the United Republican ticket.

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN

Aunt Jemima

As June is drawing near, Aunt Jemima is publishing this letter written to a June bride. The many questions that have been sent in will be answered in the next issue.

LETTER TO A JUNE BRIDE

Many yearc ago an old friend wrote this letter to a June bride on the eve of her wedding-day:

"I have sent you a few flowers to adorn the dying moments of your single life. They are the gentlest types of delicate and durable friendship. They spring up by your side when others have deserted it; and they will be found watching over our graves when those who should cherish have forgotten us. It seems that a past, so calm and pure as yours, should expire with a kindred sweetness about it—that flowers and music, kind friends and earnest words, should consecrate the hour when a sentiment is passing into a sacrament.

"The three great stages of our being are the birth, the bridal and the burial. To the first we bring only weakness—for the last we have nothing but dust! But here at the altar, when life joins life, the pair come throbbing up the holy man, whispering the deep promise that arms each other's heart, to help on in the life-struggle of care and duty. The beautiful will be there, borrowing new beauty from ths scene. The gay and thoughtless, with their flounces and frivolities, will look solemn for once. Youth will come to gaze upon the object of its secret yearnings; and age will totter up to hear the words repeated that to their own lives had given the charm. Some will weep over it as if it were a tomb, and some laugh over it as if it were a joke; but two must stand by it, for it is Fate, not fun, this everlasting locking of their lives.

"And now, can you, who have queened it over so many bending forms, can you come down at last to the frugal diet of a single heart? Hitherto you have been a clock, giving your time to all the world. Now you are a watch, buried in one particular bosom, warming only his breast, marking only his hours, and ticking only to the beat of heart—where time and feeling shall be in unison, until those lower ties are lost in that higher wedlock, where all hearts are united.

"Hoping that calm and sunshine may hallow your clasped hands, I sink silently into a signature. ...."

Eternal Spring

Eva Carter Buckner

We hear the gentle voice of Spring
We bend a list'ning ear,
There's something in her magic tone
That give us hope and cheer.

Old Winter loosed his icy hold
New life to him denied.
The sleeping flowers awake and bloom
The earth's revivified.

Ah, see the grass doth live again!
Oh, list the songbird's voice!
The frozen stream doth break and flow,
All nature doth rejoice.

You say the world is sad today
And naught but sorrow gives;
But oh, the world is glad today,
Glad that a Saviour lives.

He guides the planets in their course
He rules the sea, the land;
The beast, the fowls and human kind
Doth bow at his command.

But oh, he is a Lord of love
And equal love bestows
And though a heart is bowed in grief
He knows, our Saviour knows.

We cannot always understand
Nor dare essay to tell,
But time will all elucidate
And then we'll know 'twas well.

And this new life doth symbolize
A dead and risen Lord.
It was a promise he should be
Again to us restored.

And He has promised us new life
We to his promise cling.
For his assurance is our hope.
Of an Eternal Spring.

The meeting was called ty order by the chairman of the meeting, Miss True and the entire meetsng was filled with interest. After the buiiness of the meeting was concluded music was rendered while the "Brown Skin Service" took the floor and dainty refreshments were served. All declaring a most delightful evening spent in East Hollywood.

Grand Piano Recital

Remember, Wm. T. Wilkins is not leaving a stone unturned in trying to give to the public and his friends a novel and excellent program. Besides the regular piano numbers he has employed the services of some of the city's best local talent to assist him. Owen Troy will render a violin selection Webb King and Mme. M. L. Baker will be at their best in Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. The Ladies of the music club are preparing to take car of the social end and refreshments.

Mr. Wilkins has made a special reduction in the admission so everybody may attend. Recital to take place at 8th and Towne ave church Tuesday evening, May 23 at 8:15 sharp.

The Eagle Gold Contest

The San Diego Gold Contest is still open for contestestants, it has been continued until Saturday, June 3rd.

Those who do not apply at the office on or before May 26th will be disqualified.

Miss Louisa Austin, 1st
Mrs. E. C. Hannahs, 2nd
Mrs. C. E. Norwood, 3rd
Miss N. Jackson, 4th
Miss G. Jonss, 5th
Miss Theodora Lloyd, 6th
Miss Marie Young, 7th

Last Wednesday May 3rd Miss Katherine McClemon became the bride of Henry Campbell, a native of South Carolina, as the old saying in the F. L. T. is, when a brother dies, that it is our loss and heaven's gain, the young men of San Diego feel that it is our loss, and Campbell's gain. Miss McClemon was liked in this city very much by both young and old; we all find her to be a loyal and Christion young lady. The bride appeared in white, with a very beautiful bouquet of flowers. The groom wore a rich black broad cloth suit. The wedding was performed at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. T Allen Harvey. Mrs. Garard Johnson was the bride's maid, and Walter Johnson was best man, after which a rich punch was served by B. Thomas. The Hornsby Bros. rendered a fine instrumental program and songs to suit the occasion and when the hosts were gone that was the time that the announcement was made to Miss McClemon that her name would hereafter be known by Mrs H. Campbell.

The Bethel A. M. E. is planning an army germatic rally which begins Wednesday May 10, ending the 1st Sunday in June. There will be a contest between the men and women to see who are the best in raising money. The plans of the rally is performed by captains, who have nine men to their regiment, after the rally is ended, the defested army is to give a reception to the winner not exceeding $5. We are also accepting volunteers. They are pledged to act for 4 weeks while in this rally, as though they have no wives and the wives have pledged to act as though they have no husbands.

On Sunday afternoon May 7th, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Goodwin entertained at dinner a number of their friends. Covers were laid for 12. The table was nicely decorated with sweet peas. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Belt, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Los Angeles, Rev. C. Williams of Imperial Valley, Mrs. C. Wright, Misses Blanche and Addie B. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Goodwin. Every one enjoyed the afternoon as Mrs. L. E. Goodwin is a first class entertainer in all social lines.

Little Dorothy Norwood expects to leave soon for the northern part of the state, where she will spend her vacation with her aunt. Dorthy joined the Juveniles of the S. M. T. Saturday.

The B. Y. P. U. gave an apron and necktie social last Thursday night at the residence of E. Mulholland, 353 So. 30th st. Every one enjoyed the evening. Bible games were played by the young people.

Mrs. Hulbert and Mrs. Busby of Los Angeles were in San Diego last week enroute to the mountains where they will spend a few weeks with Mrs. Hulbert's father. They were met at the boat last Thursday by Mrs. Davis and Mrs. L. Alexander.

Mrs. M. Davis who has been in San Diego about three weeks has enjoyed a very pleasant stay, and regrets she has to return to Los Angeles at this time. She has visited all places of interest and expects to be back again in July

Mrs. R. Ryder is still in Coronado, it seems as if the people over there cannot get along handy without her.

We would like to correct a mistake in last week's issue in regard to the relatives of Mrs. M. A. Smith and those of Mrs. M. Woodby. Mrs. Martha Smith leaves to mourn her loss a daughter, Mrs. E. Freeman, a son William Johnson, a grandson Jarad Freeman and 2 grand children and 2 great grand sons.

Mrs. Martha Woodby leaves a mother, father, husband, 3 children, 3 brothers and 4 sisters.

Mrs. J. A. Donegan of Seattle with her daughter Miss Hazel, are visiting in San Diego and have taken in all the points of interest.

The Misses Louise and Chertella Dangerfield and Miss Vassie Davis, who are touring Southern California are vsiting in our city with mr. and Mrs. Henry Campbell, 4046 Arizona st. They are graduates of Western Univeriity, Kansas City.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey who called at the Eagle office gave a short sketch of his coming contest. He aaid that every person should know what they are fitted for and follow it. Speaking of his contest he said the thing that we men should do is to wake up and let the women know their place in this coming event but the reporter of the Eagle informed him that the word of a woman's place in this world is long past over. That she has proven to be his equal and superior in many great events even though he is in charge of the men in the contest, the Eagle is very much impressed that the women will be crowned with victory when the war cry of battle is over.

The Eagle is thanking its many new subscribers as well as the old subscribers who are sending in their remittances as hastily as their financial conditions will permit.

We extend personal thanks to Mrs. C. C. McClellan of Coronado who came out to pay $2 on her account.

If you do not get your paper phone Main 1613 or Mrs. C. E. Norwood Main 2375 J.

The Black and Tan Orchestra of Los Angeles made its first appearance in San Diego last Tuesday where they had a street parade and held a danse at Germania hall baring one incident as Mr. Curray said to the chief the trip was much a success. Many Los Angeles people accompanied them down.

It seems as if the young smart set have overlooked a bet the Eagle had until a few days ago when he met one of the prettiest girls in San Diego. Miss Virge Messenger and her pleasant smiles and sweet tone of voice are so touching until we expect to hear of some heart broken mother's son soon.

Mrs. B. Rease of National City called on her friend Mrs. R. Chapman last week.

Mr. Chapman, the father of Rudy Chapman red cap at Santa Fe station is in the city visiting his son. He called on one of his old friends, M. T. Laws, who was very surprised to know that since he had seen him last he had lost the sight of both eyes. He held the run between Los Angeles and Denver on the California limited for many years.

Knowledge is power. The wonderful Fiji seer is giving readings every day and evenings to vast crowds of people. It looks as if the people are going wild over this gentleman from the Fiji islands. You can notice the better class all listening to the remarks of theseer. He is so true that women go to his house to find out their little wants. You must see and hear him if you want to know thyself from this man of few words.

John Solt who has been in the restaurant business at Tia Juana has sold out his interest across the line and is now a resident of our city.

Every body this year is taking advantage of the big exposition in which they missed last year as they find that it is the greatest fair from an educational standpoint as well as sight-seeing.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the many friends who so kindly assisted us in our bereavement in the loss of our mother, especially the B. Y. P. U. the Cornation club, Mt. Zion Baptist church, Mothers' Helping Hand club.

Colored Youth to Attend Institute

From the Imperial Valley Press
To the California Eagle

C. H. Toney, principal of the Vallejo Institute, a literary and industrial free school for negro children, closed a series of lectures Wednesday evening at the 2nd Baptist church on Brighton street, El Centro.

He urged his people to avail themselves of the splendid opportunities offered them in the valley, save their money, buy land, build homes, and to educate their children to work with the hands along with the literary work; to be honpst and fair in all of thnir dealings and to so conduct themselves as to demand reseect from all races.

He commended the separate school for his people add lauded the white people for giving his race a chance to work out their owd salvation here in the valley. He said that all other races are proud of their own race, loved the association of their own race, and that the negroes should do likewise.

There are over 80,000 negroes, he said, in California, and he hoped the day would soon come when saparate schools would be provided for his people in all communities where there are a sufficient number of negro children. He thanked the press for mentioning visit and his people for their cordial reception.

Several students from El Centro have been enrolled for his school for next term.

OUR ATHETICS
By Hilbert L. Rozier

We never had any reason to believe "Rube" Foster doesn't know much about ball players until he sent Washington and Woods home. Woods says that Rube told them their arms needed a rest but we are inclined to believe he was a little bit out of form when he said this. When "Blue" Washington was pitching at Seal Garden last Sunday he crossed Baker, his catcher up. Baker side-stepped and the ball went all the way to the grandstand before striking the ground. The grandstand is 90 feet back of the home plate. Does not look much like a sore arm does it?

Yes, our Y. M. C. A. boys are getting quite hard-boiled, that is to say they have defied the law—but wait and let me explain.

The "Y" baseball team has a cold turkey" choosed the L. A. police to a game of American pastime. The dignified cops have accepetd and the game will take place next Saturday at 36th and Western. Capt. Greene is anxious to go through the long season without defeat and a good battle is expected.

We would think College boys would be above ridiculing an athlete because of his color, but it is not so at Pomona. Julius Baker, while catching for Manual against Pomona seemed to be the center of attraction rather than the ball game. Chagrined at Baker's great playing a few of the so-called college boys took pleasure in trying to make it unpleasant for him by calling him reproachful names. As Baker happens to be the right kind of fellow he paid no attention to the remarks and by so doing avoided trouble.

For the first time in years our race has been represented on athletic teams in every High school in the city. These are the men who receive letters: Elroy Lott of Poly receives a track letter as a high jumper; Wm. Pillows of Los Angeles merited a letter as a sprinter and Clarence Bluett of Manual Arts gets one as a shot-putter. Julius Baker also of Manual gets a baseball letter. Are we progressing? Well, I guess we are.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)
Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Sevservices as usual Sunday were well attended. Rev. E. R. Johnson, pastor 2nd A.M.E. church preached two inspiring sermons. The choir furnished excellent music. A large number partook of the Lord's Supper.

Sunday there will be special services at 11 o'clock there will be a sermon by an able out-of-town minister. At 8 there will be a sermonette with special song services by our great choir. Let everyone be present at each service.

There is a contest on in our Sunday school between the "Reds and Blues" for membership. The Reds are under the leadership of Mrs. Lillian J. Craw with able lieutenants and the Blues are under the leadership of M. A. W. Wilson with able lieutenants. The contest will close on Children's Day. Get your child to Sunday school and come yourself, we will do you good.

The class meetings Thursday evenings are full of enthusiasm and spiritual fervor. Thus far during the pastor's absence there has been no fall off, this is indeed commendable. Were you present at last meeting?

Everybody welcome to all services.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

The services Sunday were well attended and highly inspiring to all present, the pastor preaching at both services, administering the Lord's Supper at the evening service.

The church was represented at the thirtieth annual meeting of the Southern California Conference held this week with the church at Long Beach by the pastor, Mrs. A. E. Shankle and Prof. Chas Alexander.

Next Sunday being Mother's Day, the pastor will deliver a special message at the morning service on the "Influence of Mothers."

At the evening service there will be a special program in honor of mothers. There will also be reports from the conference at Long Beach by the delegates. A cordial welcome awaits you at all these services.

Birch Street Christian Church

The East 8th street Christian church which formerly stood for years on 8th street near Linden and Central Ave., has been removed and now stands on the corner of 14th and Birch sts. It was being placed on that spot Monday afternoon just as the late pastor, Rev. D. L. McMickens, was lowered to his last resting place. As soon as some repairs are made the church will be open to the public. Services will be held at the usual hour Sunday at 1040 E. 9th st

We, the members of the Christian church, of which the late Rev. D. L. McMickens was pastor, take this method of thanking the many friends for their words of comfort and cheer in our bereavement and for the beautiful floral offerings sent and we most especially thank the editress of the Eagle and others who were so kind as to give so much space stating the death and life of our pasfor. We do here thank Rev. Kinchen also who acted so beautifully as master of ceremonies at the funera and all others who took part or sent flowers or resolutions.

Members of the Christian Church

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church
1406 Newton Street

Sunday is Mother's Day. A special sermon will be preached to the mothers at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Anderson. All mother's and friends are requested to be preseut.

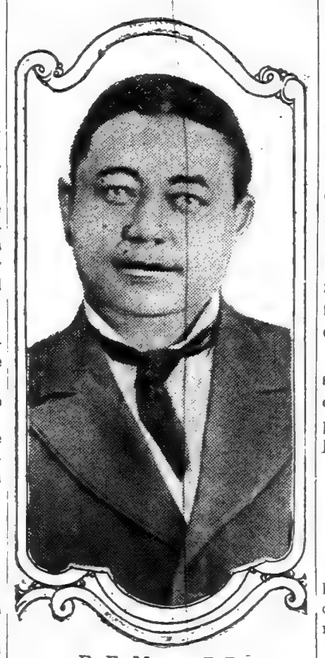
May 30th Mrs. Hattie Norwood and R. Mitceell will give a grand musical for their club, of which Mrs. Norwood is president.

The Interdenominational Missionary Society met at Phillips Chapel May 9. A very interesting session was held. Plans were discussed for a general missionary mass meeting in August.

The Woman's Missionary Society presented Mrs. T. Oldfield with a beautiful hand painted plate as a token of respect' She left for her home on the 9th inst.

Wesley Chapel

Large crowds weree present for the Holy Communion Sunday. The services were unusually inspirihg. Pastor Kinchen preached at both services. The No-Note choir ueder Bro. James Brown had one of the best meetings it has ever conducted at 3 p. m. The audience was not quite as large as the former gatherings but the spiritual fervor was the highest that has been witnessed. The congregation is still rejoicing over the splendid rally just closed.



Sunday morning service will no doubt mark the greatest shrvice of its kind that has ever been held in this city. The young people of the congregation will have full charge. The speakers for Mother's Day are Dr. L. Stovall, Miss Margie Danley, Augustus Green and Douglas Warren. About 40 young people of the Queen Esther Circle will act as ushers and they will be under the direct charge of the following ladies, who will act as mothers; Mesdames Pierson, Greene, Holland, Webster, sykes, Macbeth and Hall.

Pastor Kinchen will preach the Odd Fellows Annual sermon at 3 p. m. He will also occupy the pulpit in the evening.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST
(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)
Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

This church continues to have great services, beginning with Sunday school and continuing throughout the day, the services give great inspiration to all who attend. Sunday a large representation of the membership and many friends and viditors were present and accepted the Holy Communion. Five new members were enrolled, two of whom were converts.

Ward A.M.E. Church Notes
1354 Channing Street
Rev. F. F. Moten, Pastor.

F. F. Moten, D.D.

Evangelical pastor of Ward A. M. E. church, who is conducting the greatest revival ever held in Pasadena, Cal., among the colored people. Some of the hardest sinners have been brought to Christ this week.

Dr. Moten goes to Riverside Monday to begin a series of meetings there.

Sunday was a high day in zion in our church, many new faces were seen in the congregation, the pastor was at his best. 8 new members have joined the church since the great meeting Easter, where more than 175 people worshiped at 4 o'clock in the morning.

The pastor went to Pasadena Sunday evening where he is conducting a revival for Dr. Dyatt at the A.M.E. church To date 9 have been brought into the fold of Christ, some of the worse sinners are being converted.

Suuday morning will be "Mother's Day" will be observed in grand style at our church. All mothers are invited to be present and bring their children Those that have ao children, come and honor your mother, wear a white carnation. At 11 o'clock the subject will be "The relation of mother to the world." At 8 a program in honor of mother. Speeches, papers, solos, etc., among the different numbers will be the song "Mother" by several young misses accompanied by Hiwaiian music, ukeleles, played by Etta G. Moten and Luella Harper. A great treat awaits all who may attend.

Whereas the Great and Supreme Ruler of the Universe has in His infinite wisdom suffered to be removed from this field of action and preparation, our loving amd devoted pastor, D. L. McMickens; whereas we deeply sympathize with the congregation and many friends of the deceased in this hour of affliction ana whereas there is great sorrow in the E. 8th st. Christian church, occasioned by the loss of so worthy a man. Be it resolved that we, the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor and the Silver Star Bible Class of which he was a member, express our heart felt sympathy with the hope and prayer that even so great a sorrow to us all, may be ever ruled for good by Him who doth all things well. Be it resolved that we commend all to God for comfort and strength, believing that He alone is able and willing to uphold and sustain by the right hand of His power, and we take courage with the breaved in the belief that "behind a frowning providence He hides a smiling face." Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be entered upon the records of the church and published in the local newspapers of this city. First—Whereas it has pleased the Almighty God to remove from our midst our beloved pastor, Rev. D. L. McMickens and whereas it is meet and right that we should give public expression to our loss as well as to our estimate of his life and character. Therefore be it resolved, First—That in this, the death of our beloved brother w the officers and members of the 8th st. Christian church and Sunday school have suffered an irreparable loss, and he our departed brother has, by his Godly life, and Christian example erected in the hearts which he leaves behind a monument more beautiful than sculpture marble or granite shaft.

Second—That we the cause of Christ in a world have lost a faithful, consistent minister and humanity at large, a kind and helpful friend.

Third—That we who for the past 4 years and ten months have listened to his teachings and moral persuasions dedicate our lives anew to the service of the Lord and will endeavor to emulate his noble example.

Fourth—That were I to stand here for an hour words would fail me to express the depth of grief we feel for our lost one or the height of esteem in which we held him.

Fifth—That a copy of these resolutions be inserted on record and offered for publication in the Gospel Plea of Edwards, Miss., and the local papers of this city.

OAKLAND JOTTINGS
By "Jakie" Peyton

Edward Flowers, who was accidently shot about a month ago; as a result of the shooting, has lost the use of his right arm.

Edward Wilcox, private car cook is again a proud father, this time an 8 1-2 lb. son. Mother and son are reported as doing nicely.

Frank Derrick of Chicago, uncle of Mrs. J. Peyton was a visitor in our city last week.

Last Sunday was an unusual day for Fifteenth Street church. There was no special sermon preached, but the entire service seems to have been a spiritual shower for all present, and out of the intense spiritual awakening there were four accesions to the church

April 30th under the direction of Mrs. J. Peyton assisted by the club women of the city a most interesting literary program was rendered by 14 children. Each and every one a star. The affair was profitable.

NOTED OAKLAND JOCKEY DIES

Jockey A. Thomas, a little mite of a colored lad, who won the hearts and plaudits of the Emeryville crowds in the closing days of the turf sport in California, is dead. His mother and family in Oakland received word last week that the lad passed away in Russia from pneumonia that was contracted while galloping horses.

For the last three years Thomas has been riding for Count Mantascha, a nobleman, on the tracks of Russia and has been successful in ranking with the leading riders. He first came into prominence at the Emeryville track in 1910. The race course was located near his home across the bay and before and after school he made a practice of exercising horses. He was a bright and well-mannered youngster and soon showed promise in the saddle.

A. Thomas was one of the leading pilots on the transbay course along about 1911, when he was under contract to George H. Strate, who has a string of George Wingfield's horses in the east. He was able to do 90 pounds easy, and his rides on Bit of Fortune, Banorella, Redeem and other consistent selling platers gained him quite a following.

When the game closed down here Thomas went east with the Keene Brothers and sported the silks of Senator J. N. Camden, chairman of the Kentucky State Racing Commission and a prominent horse breeder. Soon afterwards he received an offer to invade Russia and accepted it.

Thomas was only 21 at the time of his death. He was a student and had learned to speak the Russian and French language fluently. The little colored lad was an example for many jockeys, and his passing will be regretted by hundreds of local race goers.—Fred Purner in the San Francisco Chronicle.

A POEM ON FARMING
By Francis A. Chandler, 8 yrs. old.

I am going to a farm far away
You bet I am going where the farmers make hay.
And where some men are sowing
My sister and I am going to a farm,
And I am going to do the sowing
While my sister helps make hay.

The whole family is going too
My father is going to do the milking,
And every morning the rooster calls,
Coco, doodle do;
After breakfast my mother does the silkinking.

My sister feeds the pigs,
And I feed the chickens,
And I dance some jigs
when I get hard lickings.

I go horse back riding every day,
And going down shady streets
My sister is very gay,
With her doll so sweet.

Mother hen with her brood
Goes marching in the yard;
And papa chops the kindling wood
On the ground that is very hard.

I like to play baseball
And run in a race,
And come in at my mother's call
And go and wash my face.

I like to play tag,
And play soldier with a gun;
I like to hold the American flag,
And we have lots of fun.

On the farm we do not go to school,
Nor do we have spelling
Nor do I like to jump in the pool,
Nor do I like to hear the yelling.

The boys do not hit me on my way home from school;
But when Xmas is here
I paddle in a little pool.

I do not like to go to school,
But I like to go swimming,
In a little pool,
And sometimes go a fishing.

Tabernacle Church

Last Sunday was a great day at Tabernacle. The Covenant meeting was well attended and was one of the greatest meetings of its kind ever held in the church. Sunday evening was communion and never was there a more beautiful occasion. The Deaconess Board has been struggling to make the necessary improvements to correspond with the intelligence of the age, and so they have more than succeeded thus f r. Before communion Rev. J. D. Gordon delivered an eloquent sermon suited for the occasion and was enjoyed immensely by all.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Corner Crocker and Agatha Sts.

Last Sunday the services were a great success all day. Rev. Prowd pastor of 2nd Baptist church preached a glorious sermon in the afternoon. All the clubs are at work again and having great success. Amount taken in from the rally is $75. We wish to thank our many friends for their support. Rev. Reed will preach next Sunday.

Sex the Key to the Bible

The World's Three Greatest Books
By Sidney C. Tapp, Ph.B.

"The Truth About the Bible," about five hundred pages, $3.00. "Why Jesus Was a Man and Not a Woman, three hundred pages, $2.00. "Sexology of the Bible," over one hundred and seventy-five pages, $2.00. All cloth-bound. These books treat of the sex of the Bible, and show that the Bible is a book of sex and a book of spirit, and that sex is the dividing line between the physical and spiritual worlds. They show that disease, sickness and insanity are within the sex, and that sex-lust was the original sin and cause of death. They are arresting the attention of the medical scientific, philosophical and theological worlds and people of all classes as no other books of modern times, and will probably do more to shape the thoughts of the human race than any books ever written in the history of the world. They are daily going to the great thinkers of all parts of the civilized world.

"I would rather be the author of the Truth About the Bible, by Sidney C. Tapp, than to be the President of the United States. His sex interpretation of the Bible, as therein contained, is so daring and his conclusions are so unanswerable that the human intellect staggers under the ideas presented. For ideas, it is the world's greatest book. Mr. Tapp's books on the Bible and his sex interpretation of the Bible will live until time shall be no more. Republics may perish and Empires may decay, but the ideas presented by the author in these books on the Bible will never die."—Prof. J. Silas Harris, A. M.

"Mr. Tapp's works on the Bible will do more to empty our jails, insane institutions and hospitals than any other idea that has ever been given to the world, in our opinion, to say nothing of the great good, morally and spiritually, that they will do the human race. He has indeed produced a world idea that should be in every home and library in the civilized world.

THE ECONOMIC STATUS OF THE NEGRO IN CALIFORNIA

In the South the great majority of the people who work nearly entirely with their hands are members of this race. Consequently this section of the Country, the South, offers agricultural pursuits of a class, cotton and cane, as the chief field of his labor exploitation. Notwithstanding the South's dependence on the Negro's labor, the franchise rights of the Negro in the South are denied him, and he remains the tenant rather than the owner of the soil whose productiveness he makes. California has offered the Negro of the South unusual opportunity to show his adaptability for changed economic conditions; hitherto common labor and skilled labor has been in the hands of members of the white race and the Mexican and Latin races. The ambition of the whites has been to become the owners of theland to the exclusion of all others. The great masses of our race coming to this State have fallen victims to the lure of the cities where they find more strenuous competition, and conditions entirely different to those that sprang from a different environment. Menial labor which in the cities of the South is the selected work of the Negro, finds here a preference shown for alien labor. The hublest walks of life are fast being pre-empted by Italians and Greeks, such as bootblack stands, while the Japanese has for years been favored as porters. Alone, in but a single division of common labor, the Negro appears to hold his own, and that is in the railroad division, as train and Pullman and Dining car porters. The hotels and other places of public entertainment are all but entirely out of the reach of Negroes. Where much of these conditions are due to race prejudice, much is also do to the lack of enterprise and daring of the Negro himself. Experience has taught us there ar ein California, unlike in the South, strictly speaking, NO NEGRO JOBS. The whole field of labor must be exploited by him here. And he must come to this field with not only his natural adaptability, but also with his skilled ability.

There are sections of this State where classes of agricultural pursuits can be better engaged in by the Negro, than the South has offered him. The "get-back to the soil" movement should appeal strongly to the large number of the race who live in the foreign atmosphere of California cities, at such a great disadvantage. The All-American League was organized for the purpose of not only safe-guarding Sonstitutional rights, but to open up channels of exploitation that are new to the Colored folk. Its officials are now engaged on actual propositions that will give the Negroes of this State opportunities never before opened to them. Conditions are growing worse for all in all competitive field of wealth producing, and it is the purpose of the League to ease these harsh conditions for the race. The All-American League has the solution of race troubles that so appeals to the better judgment of the dominant interests of this Country that failure is impossible from any angle. The negotiations now in hand will be made known through the columns of the California Eagle in the very near future.

WHAT PROMISES TO BE AN UNUSUAL EVENT

Sunday evening at the First A. M. E. church Mrs. J. Logan Craw, wife of pastor Craw, who is attending the general conference of the A. M. E. church now in session at Philadelphia, will occupy the pulpit in her first sermonette in this city, Sunday evening at the First A. M. E. church. Mrs. Craw has made good in her every effort in our midst and even more is expected upon this occasion.

Mrs. Lee A. Johnson rented a house last Friday at 1318 E. 16th St. and moved in on Saturday. She had not more than gotten in when some of the neighbors learned that their new neighbor was colored and demanded that she be put out. The landlord obeyed orders and in no apologetic manner ordered Mrs. Johnson to make a hasty exit, but she refused, and went in on Monday to take up permanent residence, but was again ordered out and again refused.

About five o'clock in the afternoon Mrs. Johnson, however, went to the store on the corner. Almost immediately the owner entered the house and threw her furniture, etc., out on the lawn.

The colored residents in the vicinity say that they will aid Mrs. Johnson in getting justice in this case.

Santa Barbara Notes

ONE OF THE STRONGEST LEGAL MINDS IN THE ENTIRE WESTERN COUNTRY

Of all the disciples of Blackstone in the entire western country there are none that for depth of though, research and real knowledge of the law, that have gained greater respect from the judges in this section than Chas. S. Darden. He delves deep into the intricacies of his profession and always brings forth the law in its true form without the beating of drums and crashing of cymbals. He has won some notable victories right here in this city; he has established property rights for all citizens by law; he has won numerous civil suits upholding the constitutional rights of our people.

In a recent case of Williams vs. R. H. Hite he brought forth law that compelled judges of the Superior Court to back up on their expressed opinion and for one time Mr. Rufus Hite was taken unawares and had to pay a bill. In this case he was assisted by Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth and in the face of all sorts of predictions they won for their client, and took all unawares by execution against the bonds in the hands of the city treasurer, but Darden it was who showed the court that the money could be

This case was one which reflected no particular credit upon Mr. Rufus Hite, who when his place was on the wane and when he was booking a daily loss, he procured the service of Mr. Virgil Williams who is recognized as one of the greatest caterers in the country, and with him formed a working partnership agreement. Williams' management changed the business from a losing one to a paying proposition in a very short time. Mr. Hite in an exuberance of gratitude for Williams' astuteness, proceeded to kick him out, hence the suit and the judgment. It seems that the boss man of this place of business makes a specialty of evading payment of just obligations and to us it is an enigma that the police commission which grants licenses, will allow such men to hold permits to do a public business.

A ROYAL FEAST

On last Sunday at Santa Barbara the editor in company with B. J. Hooper, Rev. Evans and Mr. Virgil Williams, was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thomas at their beautiful home on Gray Avenue, asd we want it to be known that with an experience of many years and enjoying many hospitalities, we have never been the recipient of a greater feast than on this occasion. Everything was just as the very best expert of the cuisine art could put up and it seemed as though the inner man was satisfied for a week to come. It is said B. J. Hooper did not eat any more for three days. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas are among the progressive and prosperous citizens of Santa Barbara.

The Tom Miller murder trial is progressing slowly. The town is filled with witnesses from Los Angeles and other points.

Attorney Ceruti returned to the city Wednesday after a visit to his office in Los Angeles.

Mr. E. Hester is very despondent as there seems to be nothing that he can beat the Los Angeles bunch doing.

Mrs. W. J. Thomas of Gray St. is contemplating an extended trip to her old home in Texas this month.

Rev. Evans is temporarily filling the pulpit at Mt. Olivet Baptist church.

Editor J. B. Bass will speak at the A. M. E. church Sunday evening, subject, "The Three Cardinal Principles."

Mr. W. J. Nelson of San Francisco is a visitor in the city attending the Miller trial as a witness.

The Smart Set are talking of giving a ball in honor of the visitors early next week.

A beach party was held on last Sunday by our local young folks, headed by Miss Geraldine Thomas, Mrs. Sims and their guests. The same was complimentary to the guests, Mr. Virgil Williams, J. B. Tanner of Los Angeles and Chas. Jackson of Chicago. The following Misses were present: Williamson, Ingraham, Roberts, Baskett, Simpson and Phoney; Messrs. Sims, Thomas, Hopkins, Jimmy Merritt, Adams, W. Simpson and others.

All American League

through its President was able some few days ago to convince these employers of agricultural labor that it would be far more patriotic and by all odds the wiser plan to give an opportunity of employment to 200 loyal Colored American citizens than to throw the resources of such employment to men who were not citizens of the United States.

Accordingly these employers a few days ago wrote a letter to the President of the All-American League informing him that positions for 200 experienced Colored cotton choppers in the Imperial Valley are now open.

All Colored citizens desiring any of these 200 positions should immediately get in touch with the Corresponding Secretary of the All American League, Mr. G. P. Brown, care of Eagle Office, 814 Central Avenue.

The Misses Dangerfield of Bakersfield and Miss Vassie Davis of Denver were pleasant visitors to the Eagle office this week.

The funeral of the late Rev. D. L. McMickens was held from the Broadway Christian Church Monday May 8th. The members of the church deserve great credit for the beautiful burial given their pastor, and both members and friends joined in bedecking the last resting place with many beautiful floral offerings. Smith & Williams were in charge and did credit to themselves as professionals along their line.

Major Young and the Gallant Tenth Saves Major Tompkins and the 13th Cavalry

On Wednesday morning of last week Major Frank Tompkins, commanding two troops of the 13th Cavalry, entered the town of Parral, Mexico according to the report of General Pershing. Major Tompkins and his troops appear to have been invited to "walk into my parlor" by General Lozano, the military commander of that town. The presence of the American soldiers so inflamed the natives both troops and civilians, that they opened fire. About 800 Carranza troops are reported as having joined in the attack. Major Tompkins ordered a retreat which seems to have been conducted in orderly fashion with the Carranza troops in hot pursuit. This retreat continued for eight miles beyond Parral, and in the direction of Santa Cruz. Just at this critical juncture, when Major Tompkins and his men seemed to be sandwiched between the soldiers of Parral and the citizens of Santa Cruz, Major Charles Young and a squadron of the gallant Tenth cavalry came to his rescue after a quick forced march of eight miles. As soon as the black Major and his black followers got into action the Mexicans dispersed and vanished into thin air, leaving 40 of their number dead, while not one member of the Tenth was lost: General Pershing reported two of the 13th cavalry killed, six wounded and one missing, with Major Tompkins slightly wounded.

This is the second time that the Tenth cavalry have been in engagements in Mexico, where the fatalities were large among the Mexicans without a single man being lost among the black troopers. We hope the President of the United States will make a note of this fact. He has separated every prominent colored official from the service of the government because their presence was unwelcome to the Southern Democratic employees of the government. If he will be good enough to communicate with Major Tompkins he will discover that there are occasions on which the presence of black men in the service of their country is not unwelcome to Southern white men. Major Tompkins was born in the District of Columbia. Major Charles Young comes from Ohio. While the one is white and the other black, we are confident that Major Tompkins and his men were as happy to see these black faces at Santa Cruz last Wednesday as Professor Woodrow Wilson was when he received the account of his nomination by the Baltimore convention. When will our presidents and mayors learn that worth and not birth is the true test of patriotic American citizenship?

Mrs. M. A. Briggs, a lady of great wealth, who has lived in California for over 45 years and whose son-in-law is Dr. Granville MacGowen, the great specialist, left on the Shore Line Limited last Thursday for her palatial home at 3734 West Adams st. Both Mrs. Briggs and her son-in-law make their home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Briggs was accompanied by her maid, Miss Maud Lawson, enroute to San Francisco, where they will stop at the Palace hotel. While Mrs. Briggs is quite an elderly lady, she is most pleasing and sociable. She spent her time on the train in reading when she was not talking to her maid and traveling companion, Miss Lawson, who is quite comely and very entertaining. They travel together stopping at the best hotels and pleasure resorts, occupying the same apartments and eating at the same table. In fact they are inseparable—a position, I dare say, could not be duplicated by any other colored servant in this country. Young women are being educated to hold independent positions and make their own living. They do not have to marry a man just to secure a meal ticket and they are getting wise to the fact that some of the conceited of the male persuasion are angling for that same provision. They are not attracted by the walking "fashion plates" or flattering compliments. Miss Lawson demonstrated her sense of justice and what was due her by bringing suit and winning out against the Ralph Grocery Co. for discriminating against serving her in a public place.

Big Social Event May 17th

Most prominent on social calendar for the month of May is Alpha Tennis Club's Second Annual Shirt Waist Hop, which will be given at Blanchard hall on Wednesday, May 17th. The Alphas are sparing no pains to make this event compare favorably with their first annual hop, which was the most enjoyable affair of last season. The popular Black and Tan Orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 50 cents by card only.

The Assembly
(Which means fun)

Never before was there such a jolly crowd as at the Assembly Easter Monday night. Most of the members were present, and all had a good time. The ladies wearing souvenir wreaths with their sport suits and dainty frocks made a very pretty picture. The men were gallant and happy with little souvenir "squealers."

Souvenir night was a success and beginning next Monday night May 1st the Assembly will have Special Souvenir Night, 1st Monday each month.

Not Dead, But Gone Before

On Easter morning in the year of our Lord, 1916, when the sun in all its state illuminated the eastern skies, Mrs. Ella Kimbrough was called to pass through glory's gate and walk into Paradise.

The funeral services were held at the Tabernacle Baptist church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

The obituary read by Mrs. S. B. Strickland was sweet and flowery sermon within itself. As the deceased had preached her own sermon by the beautiful life she lived while on earth.

Pretty solos and duets were rendered by members of the choir and friends. Rev. J. D. Gordon, pastor of Tabernacle church who preached the funeral took for his text the following, "When I die let me die the death of the Righteousness. Let my last days be like His." The beauty of the text and life of Mrs. Kimbrough were well blended by Rev. Gordon. A number of the city pastors had messages of sympathy from their churches and several friends of the family had a few words to say.

Mrs. Kimbrough leaves to mourn her loss a husband, a mother, Mrs. Bell, a daughter, Mrs. Annie Lewis and a son, Jesse Kimbrough and a host of friends.

Old Liners Win Great Victory

Santa Barbara, Cal., May 4, 1916.
Special to California Eagle.

There is much delay in procuring a jury in the Tom Miller murder trial. The last venire having been thrown out altogether, on motion of Lawyer Ceruti for the defense. Mr. Ceruti is putting up a strong fight for his client and it promises to be a most sensational one.

The State has subpoenaed great numbers of witnesses from Los Angeles, to combat the defense of insanity. Among those who have been summoned as witnesses are George Warner, Bert Tucket, W. Campbell, J. B. Tanner, Virgil Williams, Rev. N. P. Greggs, Ray Isum, W. Hooper, J. B. Bass and others. Next issue a complete resume of the trial will issue.

REV. D. L. McMICKENS DEAD

Last Thursday morning at 2:30 a. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peyton of 1574 West 20th street, members of his church, Rev. D. L. McMickens, late pastor of the East Eighth Street Christian church, passed out.

So quietly did he live to himself that at his death few people, even his close friends and members of his church, knew little or nothing concerning his past life, and connection, but after some research through newspapers and other manuscript it was found that Rev. Daniel Lee McMickens was born in Union County, South Carolina, but was moved to Kerrs, Ark., when about 14 years of age, and that he attended the public schools of both Union County and Kerrs, and was graduated from the Christian Theological School (now known as the Central Christian Institute of Louisville, Ky., in June, 1904..

The Late Rev. D. L. McMickens

About two months before graduation, the assistant principal, and students organized a church known as the Duncan Street Christian Church and called him as its first pastor, where he remained 18 months. At the expiration of which time he was called to the pastorate of the Christian church at Cincinnati, Ohio, and accepted the call. He remained at Cincinnati five years, when he accepted another call to the Christian church at Xenia, Ohio, where he remained until on account of ill health he gave up the work and came to Los Angeles in 1911 and accepted the pastorate of the East Eighth St. Christian church.

That church had been greatly run down, to the extent that at first Brother McMickens was somewhat, but not wholly discouraged. After taking a clear view of the situation he ralled his forces and went to work, and only a few months had elapsed when results from prayerful labor began to show.

Rev. McMickens was for two years president of the interdenominational Ministerial Federation of this city, which office he dignified.

Pastor McMickens, though accustomed to larger and better charges than this of Los Angeles made his influence tell. Under his direction the church has increased its financial status and its membership, and at his death is on wheels wending its way from its old to its now location.

Even though his plans for a bigger church of his denomination were already—we know not why God has called him from labor to reward, but we believe that all things work together for good for those of us that love the Lord.

Rev. McMickens is dead, but his influence will just begin to be felt. His life because of his quiet Christian demeanor was a benediction to this people.

SOME OF THE THINGS WE OUGHT TO KNOW

BOSTON, Mass., April 29.—Gov. McCall of Massachusetts and the members of the executive council, unanimously voted that Miss Jane R. Bosfield, the young woman who was recently discharged from the Medfield State Hospital, be reinstated at once.

Miss Bosfield was discharged because she was colored and because the white employees refused to mingle with her even in a business way, but Gov. McCall and the executive council decided that this wos contrary to the spirit of Massachuseets and could not be.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 3.—The colored woman, Mrs. Barnes, who was indicted a few weeks ago for supposedly poisoning a baby, was dismissed of the charge of insanity, but held over by the authorities for a thorough investigation of the case. Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth is attorney for the defense and says he intends to make a thorough investigation of the case.

The 17th annual meeting of the Western Press Association will meet at Chicago, Ill., Monday and Tuesday, June 5th and 6th. It is hoped that California will be represented.

Providence, R. I., May 1st, Mrs. Catherine Spear, mother of the managing editor of The California Eagle, is reported ill.

Lafayette, Ind., May 1.—Henry Brook (white) after seeing the Birth of the Nation, became infuriated with Race animosity and instantly shot and killed Edward Manson, a Colored high school youth of fifteen years.

Pittsburgh, April 30.—Earl Sams, a very highly respected police officer, is reported to have refused to salute the flag. The case has not yet been heard, but it is believed that Sam will deny the accusation.

Brislow, Okla.—A white man, J. R. Middleton, has been arrested, being charged with rape upon Emma Charles, a 13-year-old Colored girl.

The All-American League will meet Monday evening at 8 oc'lock at Ward Chapel, A. M. E. church, on Wilson street. All members and friends are urged to be on hand.

PATRONS ATTENTION!

Dear patrons: You will please take notice and govern yourselves accordingly. We are asking all who are in our debt, to as soon as possible, straighten up your accounts.

We can't address you individually and so we are using this method; however, with the kindest possible feeling towards you. We have tried to be patient and give you every advantage in the way of newspaper publicity and printing matters, but some of our best friends have taken advantage of our kindness and are not doing their best in the matter of paying up.

When we print for concerts and other entertainments on time, we ask that you respect this courtesy by paying when the affair is over, for when you fail to do so, you place us in an embarrassing position. We have to pay cash for every bit of paper or cardboard used by us. We can't even ask for credit, and furthermore, the material used for printed matters is more expensive than the food you eat.

Now, dear patrons, please take the hint we are speaking in all kindness of heart and goodly feelings toward our patrons and subscribers.

And we feel that if you deem our effort along the journalistic and printing office line worth while, you will heed our call, for such a call could only be promted by a need.

THE ANGELUS THEATRE

J. W. Gordon and F. A. Williams, managers of the Angelus theatre at 934 Central Ave., have done much to enliven business on the Avenue. Each evening the auditorium is packed to its utmost capacity, and those who frequent the Angelus say nothing but high class pictures are shown.

For more than a year members of the race have threatened to give us a moving picture, but Messrs. Gordon and Williams have actually done it.

And now that they have given us what we want, let us give them our support unflinchingly—the pictures shown at the Angelus are clean and healthy and fit for our children. The vaudeville sketches under the direction of Mrs. M. Hannahs are high class, and twice a week feature the events of the Angelus, and give those among our young folks with ambition along this line of endeavor, an opportunity to try out.

THE PASSING OF SIR W. B. RICH

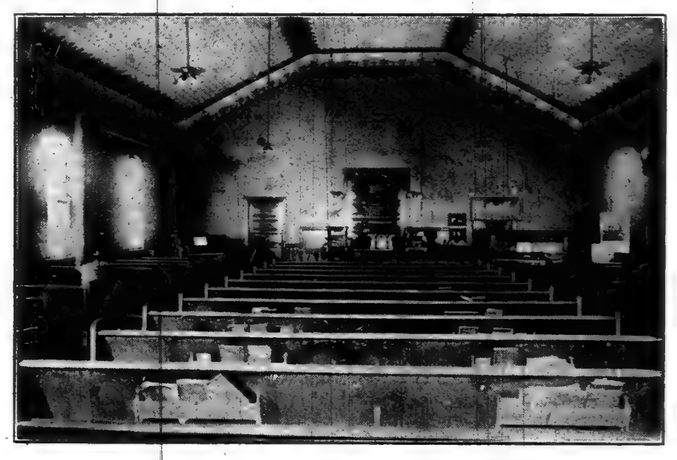
Sir W. B. Rich was organizer of the International Order of Twelve in the State of California, and chief mentor of the California-Arizona jurisdiction. He was born in Oklahoma 42 years ago before it came in as a state, but was considered a territory.

He first organized the order in Oklahoma where it is even now in a thriving condition.

Before coming to California he lived at Iola, Kansas, where he was an active member and worker in the Odd Fellow and Masonic lodges.

Four and a half years ago when Sir Rich came to California he was impressed with Los Angeles as being a suitable place for the launching of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor and set to work to do, as best he knew, what his heart and hands found to do, and the result of that four and a half years' labor is an organization with a membership and activity that is a credit to the race.

In the formation and development of the organization in this section, Sir Rich, however, had a rugged road to climb, for not easily was he understood by his followers, but in spite of everything he has erected a monument to his memory that will no doubt be developed to the glory and honor of this people.



In spite of the fact that Sir Rich seemed to have held the Knights and Daughters in high esteem as his favorite order, he found time to be an acive member in Golden Rule Lodge G. U. O. O. F., to which he had connected in this city.

It will be conceded by those who appreciated and followed ardently the management of Sir Rich in the Tabor order, and those who did not understand his lead that he was a tireless worker, who knew no favorites in his strong ambition to go forward in the development of the order.

The mantle of Sir Rich rightly falls at this time, to Vice Mentor P. J. Alexander, and it is believed that the foundation under his direction will be gloriously developem into a worthy mansion.

Sir Rich was a member of the New Hope Baptist church, but the funeral service was held at the First A. M. E. church at 8th and Towne Avenue, Thursday at 11 o'clock, where Rev. A. Lively, pastor of New Hope, in beautiful language described the active life of the deceased and his timely acceptance of the Christ as his Saviour. The service was in charge of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor and Golden Rule Lodge G. U. O. O. F. There were many beautiful floral offerings.

A wife and two sisters remain to mourn his loss.

East Eighth Street Christian Church of Which The Late Rev. D. L. McMickens Was Pastor

To The California Eagle:

Phoenix, Ariz., May 3, 1916.

Letter of sympathy to the bereaved family of Sir W. B. Rich, C. G. M. of the California Jurisdiction of the I. O. O. F. from Sir Scott Smith, S. M. of Pride of Arizona Temple.

Dt. S. Bobo, H. P. of Fair Ladies Tabernacle.

Dt. I. Moore, H. P. of Phoenix Tabernacle.

Dt. Hattie Smith, Q. M. of C. E. W. Day Tent.

Sir Allen Smith, P. P. of Royal Hour of Anath.

Since it has pleased Almighty God to call to his reward our well beloved C. G. M., we do most sincerely extend to the survivors of the family our deepest sympathy with the acknowledgement of our loss being Heaven's gain. And in our open orders did sing Servant of God, well done,

Rest from thy loved employ,
The battle is fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

Hoping that blessed recollection of him shall ever live in these western plains of Taboran Knighthood and that his mantle may fall on one that will show himself a workman approved unto their grand order that needeth not be ashamed. Promoting the cause of Taboranism for the glory of God and the betterment of humanity.

Colored People of Los Angeles Will Establish a Sanitarium For Consumptives

Sunday afternoon Dr. Leonard Stovall and several visiting physicians addressed the Forum on the need of a Sanitarium. It was shown that the several races of white people has had to build their own institutions for the care of their people who are afflicted with consumption; That many persons go around spreading the disease that ought to have proper treatment that will possibly cure some of them who are not too far advanced and at the same time reduce the danger to which otherwise well people are constantly exposed. That 50 per cent of the people who die in this city go to their death from consumption, that in some families the discease is contracted from carelessness and that this can be avoided by proper treatment.

Next Sunday a report of the Forum committee will be heard by that body and possibly some substantial plan will be adopted that will make possible this crying need in this community. The Forum is the only independent organization doing unselfish work for all the people without regard to condition or social standing or religious belief, it has the confidence of the people as it justly merit and has done thousands of dollars of relief work within the past 15 years. Every citizen of Los Angeles ought to become a member of that body and every home owner and every man, woman and child ought to have a hand in this effort to bring the most up-to-date relief to suffering humanity by the building of a sanitarium for our people. It was shown by physicians that most people wait too long before they take treatment, that most people have an abhorance going to the County hospital and stay away until they are forced to go there when all their money has been spent and after they have exposed many persons to contracting the disease. The Jewish people have a fine institution at Durate and they built it by small contributions from their own people of from 25c to $1 and more, the rich people did not help much, it was done by the wage earners. We can do as much. Let everybody go to the Forum next Sunday, we ought to make the first Sunday in May a great day at the Forum.

A Raceman

Resolutions by the Directors of the Masonic Temple Association of Los Angeles, Cal.

Whereas, Divine Providence has removed from among us our esteemed and beloved brother, Charles W. King.

And Whereas, He was not only a brother that was willing to let his moral support, personal efforts be spent in the upbuilding of our organization but also did and was ready to aid us in a financial way; that it was through his funds supplied that this organization owes such for its being able to achieve the success it has;

And Whereas, Our deceased brother did in all duties required of him as a member of our Association, perform them in a manner that was an inspiration to us all and gave encouragement for us to put forth greater and more determined efforts in accomplishing the duties as directors of this corporation.

And Whereas, In his private life, we knew him to be a brother with a character that should be emulated, as a citizen, as a husband and as a christian, life that we could recommend to be followed:

Therefore Be It Resolved, That we, the Directors of the Masonic Temple Association of Los Angeles; California, do hereby extend our earnest sympathy to his bereaved widow; that from our midst we will miss in him a support and an aid that we cannot in language describe;

Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, and that a copy be sent to Mrs. Mary W. King, his widow.

OUR MATRIMONIAL AND ADVICE COLUMN
Aunt Jemima

On Investigation I find that many of our young people have not been attending school this year. Can you make some suggestions for this condition in the future?

A. This condition should be remedied by the city. But in that case, as in many others, we find the authorities not interested in the colored children. Therefore it is up to the parents, clubs, churches, societies and every individual who has the welfare of the race at heart, to see that every child goes to school. We cannot afford to allow even ove of our young people to grow p in ignorance as one counts for so many. We must try to impress upon their minds that the world is calling today for the man "who knows." The man where labor is directed by knowledge.

Can you please tell me something that will remove wrinkles?

A. I have found the following to be very good: 1. Sulphate of alumini 16 grains, pure water 1-2 pint, mix and bathe the face three times a day. 2. Fresh butter 2 drams, essence of terpentine 2 drams, mastic 2 dram.

I am just about to lose all my eye brows. Do you know of anything that will restore them?

A. Try sulphate of quinine 5 grains, alcohol 1 ounce; apply after combing.

I am running on the road and have two days lay over at which time I become very lonesome. Having nothing to do or no place to go. Can you suggest some place that I might pass the time away?

A. I can suggest no better place than the public library. I hope that you are not looking forward to staying on the road all your life. You should be anxious to spend your spare time preparing yourself for something better.

Notes From Calexico

We have just closed a series of meeting which were conducted by Rev. Wm. Z. Hopper of Los Angeles. Rev. E. C. Dyer, pastor of El Bethel Christian church, invited Rev. Hopper to preach each eveaing for one week. Rev. Hoppers' sermons will long be remembered Much good was done, the christians revived and sinners made to think of their unsaved condition.

Rev. Hopper addressed the Banner Literary Society while in our city. The words of encouragement and advice were highly appreciated.

We are always glad to have our leading people visit our city.

We have three permaneut organization here, namely: El Bethel Christian church, Rev. E. C. Dyer, pastor; Banner Literary Society, Mrs. Mary Ford president; United Business League, G. Halloway, president. By writing any of the above named persons arrangements will be made whereby you can meet the people of Calexico. You will hear in other valley towns that there is nothing in Calexico. That is because the colored people of Calexico have taken a stand against the things that have come to other towns unawares.

Ministers who would sell the race for a few paltry dimes to build a church, are not allowed to establish a church here.

We hope the editor of the Eagle will include Calexico in his next itinerary.

Mrs. N. B. Murray Entertains the Children

Last Saturday about 75 children responded to Mrs. Murray's invitation to an Easter egg hunt at Seal Garden and a most enjoyable day was spent by Mrs. Murray and the little folks as they rambled over the grounds in search of Easter eggs which they found in abundance, and enjoyed the swings, tennis courts and other amusements at their disposal.

Auto service was provided for the conveyance of the little people to and from the grounds. Lunch in real picnic fashion was served. At the close of the day the little folks proclaimed Mrs. Murray the queen of hostesses.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Corner Crocker and Agatha Sts.

Last Sunday was a glorious day for the church. The rally was on a whole a financial success and it was decided that it be continued indefinitely since the church has a large indebtedness to be paid off.

Sunday Rev. Arline will conduct the 11 o'clock service at which time there will be covenant meeting.

At 8 p.m. Rev. H. D. Prowd, pastor of Second Baptist churcl, will preach and his congregation will worship with Providence in their monster rally effort

The Ministers' Wives' Alliance is increasing in interest and number. April 26 the Alliance met with Mrs. J. C. Anderson, the meeting was a splendid one. Mrs. McKenney read a fine paper which was discussed freely by those present. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. McKenney on Wilson street near 14th. Every minister's wife in Los Angeles county is cordially iuvited to meet with us. There is no membership fee and the meetings are held on the second and fourth Wednesday in each month at 3 p.m.

First Baptist Church, Venice

W. H. M. Dickerson Pastor

Last Sunday the services were unusually helpful. At the morning service the pastor preached a forceful sermon emphasizing the necessity of keeping "Constantly in the faith of Jesus Christ." The evening service was turned over to the B. Y. P. U. for the purpose of re-emburs ing their treasury A splendid program under ahe leadership of the president was enjoyed. The Hog Killing rally was a success. Next Sunday morning the pastor will preach from the subject "Getting Out of Ruts and Keeping Out." All visitors and friends are welcome to our service.

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church

1406 Newton Street

Services Sunday were well attended. Rev. J. A. Anderson the pastor preached at both services. The members are hard at work preparing for a big rally the 4th Sunday in June, Each member is requested to pay $5.

The second Sunday in May will be Mothers Day at Phillips Chapel. Rev. Anderson will preach a special sermon to the mothers at 11.30 a. m. Every mother is requested to be present. Every one is expected to wear a white and red carnation. For the mothers who are living red and those who are dead white. The pastor hopes to make this a great occasion. All members and friends are requested to be present.

Rev. Anderson is all smiles over a beautiful suit given him by the members of the church.

Communion services will be held Sunday. Other services of the day as usual.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

The services of this church Sunday were inspiring and edifying as usual. The pastor preached three wonderful sermons during the day and was greeted with a large and appreciative audiences at each service.

On Monday evening the second quarterly conference was held in the auditorium of the Providence Institutional Baptist church, and a large representation of the membership was present. The reports from every department were excellent and showed marvelous progress. The reports on membership showed 73 accessions, 20 conversions and a total membership of 392. Money reported raised during the quarter amounted to $1113.45. The pastor and members of this church have done commendable and creditable work throughout the entire first and second quarters of its existence and have made such progress both spiritually and financially as will give them a place in church history many centuries hence.

First A. M. E. Church Notes

8th and Towne Ave.

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor

Services at First A. M. E. church were up to the standard on last Sunday. In spite of the absence of the pastor the loyal members and friends filled their accustomed pews Rev. G. A. Triggs, of the A. M. E. church at Watts preached two practical sermons which were well received.

The regular monthly communion will be held tomorrow, Sunday, with preaching morning and night by an able speaker. The choir will furnish special music. The Young People's Society has taken on new life. There will be a special meeting in the Sunday school room tomorrow at 6:00 p. m.

Atty. W. O. Tyler will address the Men's Co-operative Club Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the church auditorium. The public is invited.

EAST EIGHTH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The building which has stood for years on Eighth st near Central ave. and which has been the place of worship for those of the Christian faith is there no more. May we ask to which place it now is? With pleasure we answer. You will find it not as it was at that familar place, but a larger, more attractive and commodious edifice one that will be more accommodating to its worshippers. It is now on the corner of 14th and Birch sts; not far from 12th st. or Central ave. Take either Central ave car and get off at 14th or Hooper ave car and get off at Birch; walk one block from either car line, You can't miss it for its mighty tower is seen from far and wide.

We welcome all to see our new home place of worship and in two weeks' time see what improvement we have made.

Services for next Sunday will be held at the residence of Mrs. Thompson, 1240 E. 9th st.

Wesley Chapel

Every day of service for God is a great day and there are conditions and features of a service which allow one to say "A greater service than others." But few services ever justify one in saying that it was the greatest ever known in the church. However, last Sunday broke all records both as to solid religious worship and the permanent and definite forward movement in things for the Kingdom. The spirit of fellowship was nerved as never before and the great union service which was in charge of the Independent church brought a new vision of fellowship to the Christian people in this city. Dr. N. P. Greggs preached as only he can, swaying the great audience which packed every available space in the spacious auditorium. His great sermon will always live in the hearts of the people and the inspirational service that he conducted will bring the result in great things for God's church in this city. There were a number of other preachers on the platform in the afternoon. Dr. H. D. Prowd of the 2nd Baptist church; Rev. Lively of the New Hope Baptist and Rev. Danley of Fowler, Cal. Dr. Greggs and his great church proved their right to permanent fellowship by demonstrating a spirit of brotherhood that this city has long felt the need of. The rally was a great success. Up to date $1900 in cash has been paid in; nearly every penny of which has come from the hard earnings and sacrifices of the members of Wesley Chapel. The $2000 mark and more will be reached by this coming Sunday. The church is grateful to all the friends for the assistance given.

Sunday is Communion day. The No-Note choir will be in charge of Brother James Brown and Sister Rosa Patterson. Sister Pauline B. Daniels has gone on her trip to the South with the prayers and blessings of all the people of Los Angeles.

The 2nd Baptist Church of Fresno

The 2nd Baptist Church of Fresno called to its pastorate Rev. T.M. Davis of Oakland on the 15th of February. He accepted the call of the church on the 28th of Feb.

He took charge of the church on the 1st of April, on the 3rd he met the official board of the church and they arranged for his installation on the 5th Sunday of April. They also planned a small rally to consummate on the day of the installation. The church membership was divided into 5 clubs with the following named brethren as captains: Martin V. Badie Charles R. Holmes, John Cannon, D. Hargrave and L. Pierson.

These clubs had two weeks and a half to work up the rally. The auxilaries of the church had each a day in the installation week beginning Monday evening April 24. The W. H. and F. M. Society had charge of the services. They rendered a fine program.

On Tuesday the Sunday school had charge of the services and rendered a good program.

On Wednesday the officers of the church had charge of the services. They secured Dr. Wilkerson the president of the State Baptist Convention to address them on the subject of "Church Efficiency" this, with very helpful papers, and addresses by the officers comprised an excellent program.

On Thursday the B. Y. P. U. had charge of the exercises and a very helpful program of song, papers and addresses was rendered.

On Friday the choir furnished the program which was both spicy and enthusiastic. At the close of the program each evening the pastor was called on, and he responded in befitting words of acceptance to all the honors conferred and pledges made by the officers of the church and auxilaries.

On Sunday April 30th the pastor preached at 11 o'clock from the 6th verse of the 62nd Chapter of Isaiah. We were made to understand as never before our position as watchman in the cause of Christ.

At 3 o'clock in the absence of the other ministers who were invited to assist in the installation exercises of our pastor, Dr. J. H. Davis, pastor of the 1st Baptist church of Fresno, took full charge of the installation. At 8 o'clock the pastor preached from the 1st Psalm, 1st and 3rd verses, after which the clubs reported as follows:

Club-No. I, M. Badie, Capt.		$50
"	"II, C. R. Holmes,	$35.55
"	"III, J. Cannon,	$43.60
"	"IV, D. Hargrave,	$42.00
"	"V. L. Pierson,	$43.40

The pastor took the part of his congregation that were not members of the church and they raised $26. Total $240.55. This amount added to the general collections for the month gives us $314.05 collected during the one month our pastor has been with us, we have not only taken a lively interest in the church financially but the spiritual interest of the church as well, has been doubled many fold and we all feel that God has indeed sent to this church an intellectual and spiritual giant equal to the task before him. We have pledged ourselves before God and man to stand by him with both heart and hand.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Sunday will be observed as "Mother's Day" appropriate with a special message to mothers in the morning by the pastor. It is hoped that every mother, who can, will attend services on this day and that every one will wear, so far as possible, a white carnation in honor of the best mother that ever lived —your own.

At the evening service there will be the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

2nd Baptist Church of Monrovia

Rev. E. Wilson, Pastor.

The Lord blessed our efforts Sunday. Rev. Ackwredge of Los Angeles preached at the 11 oc'clock service, and he delighted the audience with two beautiful solos. At the 8 o'clock service the pastor preached from the following text, "The Wages of Sin is Death, But the Gift of God is Eternal."

Deacon and Mrs. Woods opened the doors of their beautiful bungalow last Friday night to the members and friends of the church to partake of a supper preprared by a committee for the benefit of the church.

Bro. Walter Locket, our church clerk, who has been seriously ill for the last week was reported a little better Sunday.

Our Juvenile Choir consisting of Hazel Robinson, Florence McCoy, Mary and Letitia Bonner and Frank Etta looked sad Easter Sunday. The cause of the sadness was that Mary Jackson was in Riverside spending the Easter vacation with friends. But now the frowns have melted into smiles. Mary has returned and is now at her post of duty.

Bro. J. Cross has been unable to fill his place two Sundays as Supt. of the Sunday school owing to illness, but hope he will be with us again soon.

Tabernacle Church

Last Sunday morning Rev. Duvall of Pasadena preached a very interesting sermon. Sunday evening the Missionary Society of the church had charge of the evening service. A splendid program was listened to with much interest, after which Rev. Duvall gave a short talk.

Rev. J. D. Gordon spent last Sunday with the Monrovia people. He filled his own pulpit Sunday evening.

Sex the Key to the Bible

The World's Three Greatest Books

By Sidney C. Tapp, Ph.B.

"The Truth About the Bible," about five hundred pages, $2.00. "Why Jesus Was a Man and Not a Woman," three hundred pages, $2.00. "Sexology of the Bible," over one hundred and seventy-five pages, $2.00. All cloth-bound. These books treat of the sex of the Bible, and show that the Bible is a book of sex and a book of spirit, and that sex is the dividing line between the physical and spiritual worlds. They show that disease, sickness and insanity are within the sex, and that sex-lust was the original sin and cause of death. They are arresting the attention of the medical, scientific, philosophical and theological worlds and people of all classes as no other books of modern times, and will probably do more to shape the thoughts of the human race than any books ever written in the history of the world. They are daily going to the great thinkers of all parts of the civilized world.

"I would rather be the author of the Truth About the Bible, by Sidney C. Tapp, than to be the President of the United States. His sex interpretation of the Bible, as therein contained, is so daring and his conclusions are so unanswerable that the human intellect staggers under the ideas presented. For ideas, it is the world's greatest book. Mr. Tapp's books on the Bible and his sex interpretation of the Bible will live until time shall be no more. Republics may perish and Empires may decay, but the ideas presented by the author in these books on the Bible will never die." —Prof. J. Silas Harris, A. M.

"Mr. Tapp's works on the Bible will do more to empty our jails, insane institutions and hospitals than any other idea that has ever been given to the world. In our opinion, to say nothing of the great good morally and spiritually, that they will do the human race. He has indeed produced a world idea that should be in every home and library in the civilized world.

AN ELECTION AFTERMATH

The election returns have shown that the United Republican ticket for delegates to the National Republican Convention was defeated by less than ten thousand votes, in this city and cousty. The California Eagle has no apologies to offer for its loyalty to the harmony plan that was defeated. For thirty years this paper has been unquestionably Republican, and unalterably opposed to the Wilson administration, so much so, knowing a harmonization of the factions of the Grand Old Party was the ONLY solution to the present condition in the Nation, we stood for the party unity. And as "old liners," we did not stand alone. Every candidate on the United Republican ticket had stood as we had stood for the Republican ticket nationally in 1912, and upon that ticket recently defeated, from our own midst in this community, stood the names of several of the best known public-spirited citizens, such as Judge McCormick, Senator Bulla and Mr. Thomas Hughes, and such employers of Colored labor as M. A. Gunst. Actuated by a desire to unite all factions of the Republican party in the State and Nation, The Eagle will unquestionably support the nominee of the Republican party, feeling assured that the work of that convention in Chicago, June the 7th, will be to the purpose of presenting a united front to the Democratic foes to National Unity. In a recent issue of the Times of this city, appears a misleading statement from "Mr. C. Oliver, editor of a Colored newspaper," wherein this unknown editor of an unknown "Colored" newspaper is accredited with stating "nearly unanimously" the Colored voters voted for the regular ticket." Notwithstanding to our knowledge the United Republican Campaign Committee did not have nine or ten paid per diem colored workers in the field, nor subsidize and "edit from headquarters" a newspaper whose only claim to being a Colored paper was a Coolred man's name at the head of the paper, the Colored vote did not "nearly unanimously" go for the so-called regular ticket. This claim is made ostensibly to show "what I did," but it falls flat in face of the circumstance that the author of this statement has never since his residence in this city been in a position to know either the aspirations, hopes or intentions of the Colored Race. His statement is altogether misleading, because he has no way of knowing how any one's vote went save his own. The only attempt the Colored supporters of the "regulas ticket" made during the late entire campaign to have in a hall a "boost" meeting, at the Fourteenth School, was one of the most disgraceful failures of a political meeting ever held in this city, less than a dozen being present and some of them "boozy." It is a reflexion on the intelligence of the Colored voters to let stand withopt protest any effort to create the belief that any man or set of men were necessary to "deliver the Colored vote." The Colored people are "naturally Republican," and those largely of the Race who voted as the returns on their face show, voted a split ticket, the majority of them voting for Bulla, Mushet, McCormick and Johnson, all Republicans who will be found on the "firing line," November next! And on this line The California Eagle will be found in keeping with its record of THIRTY YEARS, unsubsidized and unintimidated! And notwithstanding the so-called "regulars" had refused to two highly creditable representatives of the Colored Race a place on their ticket, they did succeed in employing a dozen per diem Colored voters to espouse their cause. Still, no congratulations are in order, the Colored Race is just where they started before the campaign—no more nor less.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, April 26.—Unless the control of this government is very soon shifted from the southern colonels who are now in the seats of the mighty there will be a number of serious consequences.

By Harry Carr
[Special Correspondent]

The most serious of these will be the aggravation of the color question. The southern men who rule congress are changing it from a high school debate into a vital and dangerous issue.

It seems to be rapidly growing in bitterness. It pops up everywhere. In the Senate, southern men speak with passion in opposition to negro soldiers. In the House it flares up with savage hatred in connection with the segregation of negro and white children in the juvenile courts. Even in the short time I have been in Washington I can see it gathering impetus and bitterness. If this continues I do not know what terrible thing may happen.

The negro question will become acute some day owing to this complication. In many Southern States the negroes are not allowed to vote owing to the operations of the "grandfather law." But they are counted as population in giving the South, like the North, a Congressman for every 200,000 persons. Some day the attempt will be made to get through Congress a law limiting representation in Congress to voters; then the trouble will come.

The southern Congressmen are very cocky in their self-confidence that they alone know how this question should be handled.

In every debate some southerner remarks in a top-lofty way: "You northerners do not understand the negroes as we do."

Discussing the military bill in the Senate on April 4, Senator Vardaman protested furiously against the provision creating a volunteer army on the ground that negroes might be allowed to enlist in it, and negro regiments be raised for the defense of the country.

He said: "If a man should be elected who is so color blind on the race question and whose olfactories have become so desensitized that he could not distinguish between a white man and a negro, he could order negro regiments and mobilize them for military training in every Congressional district in the South. I do not charge that any man who could be elected President would be guilty of such a monstrous act, but I am not willing to take any chances. If I could have my own way about it I should prohibit the use of negroes in the army in any way except as menials."

Replying to Vardaman, Senator John Sharpe Williams made a speech ridiculing the idea that the white people of the South would allow negroes to volunteer. He said:

"Suppose a lot of darkies went into Hinds county to a so-called Plattsburg drill as a voluntary force of some sort and with arms in their hands begane to be disciplined, so that in the opinion of the white people of the State they began to be a source of menace to the white civilization, what would happen to these volunteers darkies? Echo answers, 'What?'"

Vardaman answered that the negroes would flock to such a camp "like carrion crows around a carcass."

In the House the negro hatred has been more outspoken and bitter than in the Senate.

This race animosity rose to its full tide during the debate over the question of separating the white and negro children who are brought into the Juvenile Court.

One of the southern members started it by declaring that "the gentleman from Massachusetts seems to have the smell of coon in his nostrils."

Prof. Fess, who is the president of Antioch College, roused the southerners to fury by relating a story of one of the prize students at Antioch who graduate along with the white boys and sat at the banquet table with his (Fess's) own son. That negro boy is now drawing a big salary in civil life.

Rucker of Missouri jumped to his feet and, in the course of a bitter speech, said: "I have but one boy and I would rather have him grow up in gross ignorance than to enter any school on earth that opens its doors to white man and black man alike."

Congressman Davenport of Oklahoma declared hotly: "The best negro that ever breathed cannot be raised to as good a moral standard as the commonest white man, and you can try all you want to."

The most offensive speech was made by Mr. Heflin of Alabama, who is one of the men closest to President Wilson. He followed Mr. Madden of Illinois, who pointed out that the Democrats were willing to appropriate $250,000 to kill coyotes, but were willing to do nothing for the negroes.

This extract is from an article that appeared in the "Times" of last Tuesday. In copying this portion of the rather fiery shot at the present administration, we do so with but one desire, and that is, that we may, as is our policy, at all times keep open the eyes of our clientage as to their situation under any and all administrations of this, our government.

It is our desire as scribe to be Christion in word and deed, for we believe that it must be by our plodding along this line that we will in time gain our true position or place in this country's government.

What We Sow We Shall Reap

We believe that in politics as in other things, that what the Democrat Party is now sowing with regard to the Race this country shall reap.

Some of the small prejudices hurled at us, for none other reason than that our faces are black, are a blight upon our civilization, but even this is a true case of history repeating itself.

The Negroes of this country cannot hope to reach the ideal in citizenship through radicalism aroused by passionate appeal or abuse during political periods, but rather by the patient development of their God-given qualities of assimilating even from without the portal of society. For it will be the gradual development of his faculties that will eventualy lead him into his own even in the very face of protest.

Eldridge-Parker Nuptials

On Wednesday, April 26th, at 8:30 o'clock at the Westminster Presbyterian church the marriage of Mrs. Alice Butler-Eldridge and Monroe Philip Parker, the son of Mrs. Rose Cooper, took place under a pergolia of green ferns and rose buds. Ed Wilkinson and C. Brooks held white ribbons, Miss Lottie Bolds, neice of the groom, played the piano, Horace Wheaton, cousin of the bride, played several violin selections. Henry Bacon rendered most beautifully "the heart song" accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Kelly. The matron of honor Mrs. Edna Broyles of Santa Monica wore a gown of pink taffeta with white lace flounces. A white satin bonnet with pink tulle, black velvet ties carried white roses. Miss Maude Bentley of Venice, the maid of honor, wore a gown of white French Organdy, short full skirt with high waist puffed and tucks, pink satin ribbon shoulder straps. She carried a gold basket filled with pink Cecil Brunner roses. The ring was carried on a silver tray by little Coretta Harbert in a French frock over pink with her brown curls looking like a French doll. The two little fairies in ruffled organdies carrying gold baskets with pink Cecil Brunner roses were May Alice and Helen Turner. The groom with his best man, Roscoe Broyles, met the bride at the alter who came in with Bertrum Tucker, a friend of the family in Chicago. The bride's gown, made by Mrs. M. Stanton was Grecian effect, satin crepe with Georgette long tucked sleeves, white hand embroidered butterflies, with lace under flounce. Hair dress of white bird of paradise. The bride carried a white satin prayer book.

The Rev. Hawes performed the ceremony. Mrs. Minnie Tucker planned and managed this unique and beautiful wedding of the season. The reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Harrison, 1608 W. 35th st. The 16 inches wedding cake was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Poinsette, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Gordon made a beautiful center piece. Many beautiful and handsome presents filled the room.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Parker will be at home to friends at 1024 Berendo st, instead of 1570 W. 36 st, as that house was not finished.

Tia Juana, Mexico

The mecca city where thousands spend their moments. Last Thursday Parachute at 100 to 1 upset all form when she caught the judges eye first by the grand stand A few of the long shot sports came away lucky. Kentucky John, Ready Money, A Gillow, E. L. Felix, G. A Ramsey, I. Leslie, Mr. LeRoy were among the noticeable sports.

No races on Mondays, but Tuesdays and Fridays are ladies' days, ladies admitted free and believe me there is some class shown at the grand stand.

Mrs. Johnie Johnson, who is in charge of the ladies' compartment, must have been selected by a vote as she is equally as handsome as her predecessor; however Miss Head was down and took quite a wallop out of the bookies' bankroll which they will remember for the season.

Some hard luck, the poor old horse, Darky, that brought home the bacon so many times; he and his owner have been ruled off the track for inconsistent performances So you see there is something in a name as Parachute at 100 to 1. owned by a lady, was crowned with honors. Poor old Tig is awfully sorry the price scared him.

When Long Shot Brownie heard that the bookies were laying 500 to 1 against the nag he sold out all of his belongings and made such a rush that the bookies wiped it off the board after the races Brownie was likewise.

Did you ever stand in front of the Judges stand and look at an excited crowd of men and women, watching a horse and man coming down the stretch, if not just try it once, everybody is hilarious when they have their money on a horse.

Mr. Moore could not understand the Chinaman who told him to play Christmas Eve. It was just as well as Christmas Eve is still running.

A large delegation came down from Los Angeles to see the exposition on a special train. P. O. Holt and J. P. McClutcheon were in charge of the buffet car.

Al Ramsey is in charge of the washroom concession while his brother, G. A. Ramsey has a crew of people at the Tia Juana track.

Mrs. O'Neal is employed at the exposition.

The big hit now is the sinking of the Titanic.

Monday seems to be the day that all the Tia Juana lovers go to the Savoy Theatre, believe me they are some critics too, but they all go away well pleased.

Mrs. White of Loma Portal and her lady friend enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon at the Alhambra theatre.

S. A. Daniel, who has been employed at the Otay Dam since the flood, had quite a chat at Eagle staff, reports that many of our men could have found employment if they had been looking for work.

Quite a number of old and young were out last Wednesday night at social they all had an enjoyable time.

W. H. Hume is on the sick list but is much improved since he has returned from the east.

Harry Williams is in town visiting his friend Mr. Lengenfeldt.

Mrs. Simmons of Los Angeles is visiting her sister, Mrs. Winston, at the exposition.

The Literary Society of the Carnation Club held its regular program on Tuesday evening and it became unusually interesting to every one present as every one had something to say on the free-for-all debate, "Resolved, Which is the most advantageous to the Negro race Property or Political Rights" The discussion was opened by Mr. Dodge who brought out many good points on the side of political rights. Then Rev. C. Williams came forward and gave us to understand that he was no political man, and did not make any stump speech. But before he was through with his talk on the side of property nobody present wanted to hear a better stump speech. Then Mr. Parker, Miss Blanche Goodwin, Miss Annie Mulholland, Mr. Davis, Mr. Dodge, Jr. and a great many others gave very good talks on either one of the sides. We also had an interesting spelling match of which Miss Blanche Goodwin won the prize.

M. A. Swan is a new subscriber of the Eagle.

Rev. C. Williams and Mrs. R. Ryder took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Norwood Sunday.

J. Harper and wife have gone back to housekeeping again on Greely avenue.

Little Maurice Cole and several of the other children of Logan Height school are at home on the sick list.

Mrs. Clara Thompson left Friday for Los Angeles where she will spend 10 days or more with her sister, Mrs. Tena Little.

The Sunday school of the Mt. Zion Baptist church has decided to have a picnic this year. Committee on general arrangements, Mrs. P. E. Hornsby, Mrs. C. E. Norwood, Mrs. A. L. Jefferson.

Rev. C. Williams preached a touching and interesting sermon last Sunday, subject being "The Receptive mind," an introductory sermon to his series of sermons. His subject next Sunday will be "Courtship." Rev. C. Williams has been asked to attend the funeral of Mrs. Martha Smith and Mrs. Martha Woodby..

Mrs. Martha A. woodby, deceased, was born June 14, 1889, in Halitsville, Texas, she was married to William Woodby Dec. 31st 1911. After about 10 weeks of serious illness she died April 29th. She suffered long but bore it patiently, realizing that Jesus was her only deliverer. "In her last hour she said, "I have my ticket and I am only waiting for my train" and asked her mother to care for her baby, having received her reply she passed into the great beyond.

Mrs. Martha A. Smith depareed this life Tuesday morning, May 2, at 10 a.m. She was born in Richmond, Va., from there she moved to Texas, and thence to San Diego in 1887. She leaves a daughter. Mrs. Ella Freeman, a son, William Johnson, and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Mrs. Smith said to the end, 'Don't ask how I died, but ask how I lived." She leaves a mother, father, husband, 3 children, 3 brothers and 4 sisters to mourn her loss. May the soul rest in Beaulah land until we all meet together on the other shore where parting will be no more. Her life was a commendable Christian life, always found at her post of duty when she was able. One chair is vacant in the Mt. Zion church, one voice is hushed, one is gone whom we all loved, and one who loved us. And we as members of the Mt. Zion Baptist church, missionary Society, Carnation club, B. Y. P. U. and Sunday school do extend our deepest sympathy to the relatives. We know the deep shadow that darkens their spirits Time will lighten it, though the sadness will never pass entirely away. May God sustain and comfor you all under the heavy afflictions.

James Warren was taken to the county hospital this week to b operated upon for appendicits.

Mrs. Rosa Lee on Valle ave. gave a chitting supper for the benefit of the Juveniles of the S. M. T. It was a success and the many friends are thankful for their patronage.

Tom Brown on Martin ave. and who has been in the restaurant business in San Diego for the past 4 years, and has made good for these years, saw where he was beginning not to make good and went out of business. We wish him success in any other business he might undertake.

To Whom It May Concern:

This will certify that I knew Mr. Wm. T. Wilkins as a student in the Commercial High School, several years ago. He is one of the most faithful, conscientious, honest fellows that I have met in life whose acquaintance and friendship have been a pleasure and pride to me.

It is with unqualified pleasure that I learn of his success in music. As a boy he was full of rhythm and I believed that under proper conditions he would prove to be a genius in the music line. His present success has confirmed my belief.

I believe in his music powers, and I commend him to all good people and solicit for him an especial interest on the part of music lovers.

Respectfully,
Signed JOHN H. FRANCIS,
Superintendent.

FIRST CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Announcement

The Allen Allensworth Club will stage "The Wedding Feast" from Samuel Coleridge Taylor's Hiawatha in the near future.

We have already a galaxy of some of Los Angeles' best musicians, both instrumental and vocal, but we need about fifty more voices. It matters not whether you sing bass, alto tenor or soprano—come, we want you to join this chorus—in your future musical education it will mean more to you than to us.

We meet every Monday and Thursday evening at the Second Baptist church on Maple Ave., between 7th and 8th streets, and will be glad to meet you there next Monday evening.

Dr. Wilbur C. Jordan is directing the chorus. In addition to his native ability as a musician and instructor he is injecting great energy into the work at this time and already the "Wedding Feast," the biggest literary effort yet undertaken by the Los Angeles public, spells success.

While Dr. Gordon is ably directing the chorus, Mrs. M. E. Roberts-Saunders, assisted by other competent musicians, presides at the piano.

An A. M. E. Preacher on the American Flag

Rev. D. A. Graham, pastor Bethel A.M.E. church, Spokane, Washington, states the Texas Freeman's position exactly on the American flag. With advocates like this before the bar of public opinion pleading our cause, the race even in the United States is bound to come into its own sooner or later. Listen at this preacher's heaven born message:

"The refusal of the little colored boy in Des Moines to salute the flag has been charged to religious fanatisism and it is charity to allow it to pas But I rather suspect that that the boy's parents are of the constantly-increasing class of Negroes who are asking the question, 'Why should colored Americans honor the American flag?'

"To the white American that flag is the symbol of liberty and opportunity, such as is offered by no other national emblem. To the colored American it is the sign of prejudice, discrimination and closed opportunities more than is the banner of any other nation on the globe. In Cuba, for instance, discrimination against Negroes was never heard of until the American occupation. The same is true of Panama and the Latin republics, the sevent of the American flag is the beginning of efforts to humiliate the Negroes.

"That the colored boy may have been aware that in this great 'land of the free and home of the brave' his kinsman are refused the opportunity to earn an honest living, while the foreigner, who can not speak our language any is saturated with anarchism and other ideas and antagonistic to the welfare of society, has every door thrown open to him where he can do the work.

"Right in this city colored men who have served their country faithfully under that flag and received an honorable discharge are refused the most common work simply because they are colored, while Italians, Greeks, Austrians and even Mexicans are readily employed.

"Recently, in this city, the public library of this city announced that a number of young ladies would soon be needed in the library and that an examination would be held at a certain time. Among those who presented themselves for the examination was a colored girl from one of our high schools. Her family had been residents of this city for 25 years and taxpayers all of that time. But the girl was flatly refused the examination because she was colored. The librarian in justification of his action, said that a member of the board expressed great surprise that a colored girl should presume to ask such a privilege.

"Thus the young colored people are being taught by their white neighbors that they must not expect any of the opportunities or privileges that the flg represents, that its glorious privileges are for white people of every nationality who care to come under its protection, but not for black Americans who have shed their blood in its defense from Boston Common to San Juan, and at this very moment are defending its honor on Mexican soil.

From the Scrap Book by J. D. Reynolds.

Big Social Event May 17th

Most prominent on social calendar for the month of May is Alpha Tennis Club's Second Annual Shirt Waist Hop, which will be given at Blanchard hall on Wednesday, May 17th. The Alphas are sparing no pains to make this event compare favorably with their first annual hop, which was the most enjoyable affair of last season. The popular Black and Tan Orchestra will furnish the music. Admission will be 50 cents by card only.

SOJOURNER TRUTH HOME

SOJOURNER TRUTH DOINGS

Don't forget the May Festival for Sojourner Truth Home on Domestic Science Day, Monday, May 22nd.

Our employment department is beginning to wake up. We filled several places last week with competent help. Come to the home and register, we want to come in personal touch with, especially the young women of the race, those who are not acquainted with the situation but who would like to start right.

Mrs. Elbert, our matron, is in touch with the white women who are active in this line and can help you if you will visit the home and talk with her.

Mother's National Day will be observed at the Forum Sunday May 14th under the direction of the State Superintendent, Mrs. A. Jackson. All women, especially mothers, and club women are urged to be present. A good program will be rendered.

Mrs. C. Campbell, Pres.
Mrs. M. Smith, Sec.

SPECIAL NOTICE

The Woman's Civic and Protective League will hold an open meeting Wednesday, May 17 at 2:30 p.m. at Sojourner Truth Home to study the proposed new city charter. Prominent speakers will be present to join in the discussion. All voters are urged to be present.

GEORGIA SOCIETY

All persons born in Georgia or who have lived in the state are requested to meet at Wesley Chapel Monday night. Rev. Gordon has been invited to address the society, also an election of officers. So come out and meet your friends.

S. B. Carr, Chairman of Publicity Committee.

ALLEN ALLENSWORTH CLUB

The Allen Allensworth Club was entertained last Wednesday night, its regular meeting night, by Mrs. Stanley at her palatial residence, 1415 W. 35th Place. A most enjoyable and profitable afternoon was spent.

A number of the jolly Sons and Daughters of California, met in their regular meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell, West 35th Place, Wednesday evening. After the business of the evening the members were highly entertained with pleasing music and dainty refreshments.

A very interesting program was rendered at the Forum when Dr. LeonardStovall read an excellent paper on Tuberculosis. Through the kindness of Dr. Stovall we were also permitted to listen to an address from Dr. Shuman one of the founders of the Duarte Sanitorium. Dr. Shuman gave much good advice and new ideas were aroused in the minds of many.

Tuesday evening the Kansas-Missouri Club was royally entertained at the home of their vice-president, W. T. Patterson, 214 N. Alvarado, an exceptional large crowd was present and after the business of the evening, which was filled with interest and enthusiasm the remainder of the time was spent in a social time. First we were favored with a recitation by the little niece of Mrs. Lord, after which Miss Edith Johnson entertained with music. The guests were then invited to the beautiful little dining room, which was named by S. P. Johnson "The second cozy den" of Los Angeles. Dainto refreshments were served, Lemon and Orange Ice with delicious assorted cakes. Music was rendered while the serving was going on, the affair was a real banquet. At the hour of midnight the guests departed for their different homes, all declaring a most delightful time spent. The next meeting of the Kansas-Missouri Club will be with Mrs. Lloyd and Mr. and Mrs. Davis, 806 E. 18th street.

THE ALLEN ALLENSWORTH LITERARY AND INDUSTRIAL CLUB

The arrangement for the coming of the best know musicirn of the music, Prof. Jackson of Kansas City has been completed, Prof. Jackson has been secured by the Allen Allensworth Club to stage the Wedding Feast a scene from Coleridge Taylor's dramatic Opera Hiawatha which will be staged in this city some time during the middle of the summer season.

Some of the cities best talent are participating and many more are wanted to join the chorus.

POLITICAL POT PIE

Now that the little family quarrel of the Republicans has been settled within the family, all hands will join for a more notable victory over democracy at the polls in November.

Stand up and take your medicine, boys, when you are whipped, don't whine and say that you single shot somebody. We all know where you are and you know it's all right. You are still a good Republican, just the same.

With the primaries out of the way we are now facing the August primaries and this promises to be some contest. May the best men win.

The Watts voters are booming J. S. Lange for supervisor. This man Lange is some vote getter, as the result of the last election in Watts indicates.

Hon. Mark Jones, it is predicted, will be a formidable candidate from the second supervisorial district. He is a staunch Republican and is in line, it is said, for the Republican endorsement.

And now some of the candidates for U. S. Senator will without doubt come out of the brush.

The Los Angeles Defender ran a dead heat in the last campaign.

Some of the boys are trying to get from under, but they had better be men and acknowledge that they were licked to a finish, for that old single shot story won't go down.

The Eagle only lost a few tail feathers. Our wings are intact as a result of Tuesday's battle, and we are soaring on to the heights.

NEW AND SECOND HAND STORE

Among the pioneer business people of the avenue, none are better known than Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shackleford, who conduct the Canadian New and Second Hand Store at 811 Central Ave. They carry a $5000.00 stock, they are both prominent in church and fraternal circles.

BILLIARD PARLORS

The Main Event is the name of the cozy billiard hall conducted by Messrs. Burns and Shephard at 1167 East 12th street. This place is run on a high order and the proprietors, Messrs. Burns & Shepherd are high class gentlemen and thorough business men, who are boosting all the time for Central avenue.

MR. ANDERSON IS MANAGER OF SMITH'S CAFE

Mr. Joseph J. Anderson, the well known entertainer, is now with Smith's Cafe, 1013 Central avenue, in the Booker T. Washington building, in the capacity of manager. He also is the entertainer. Mr. Anderson is very popular with all who know him, and a host of friends wish him the greatest success and will give to him their patronage at this new and popular cafe. This cafe is new and up to date and Mr. Anderson's coming means much for its success.

THE ANGELUS THEATRE

Of course all know of the Angelus, the moving picture and vaudeville house. This house has made Central avenue the great Mecca it is. Messrs. Gordon and Williams, the wide awake proprietaors, are ever on the alert to get attractions to please their patrons.

Don't Forget The Date of Wm. T. Wilkins' Piano School Recital

Here are more of the special features of the music school program. Hear the famous Melody in F played on two pianos by four girls; little Miss Georgia Caruthers will take a musical examination from Baby Ernestine Jones; Prof. Biggers and Atty. Willis O. Tyler will award scholarships and letters of merit to the six students that have stood at the head of the class for the past 6 months. Here are their names, but not in order of their standing, that will be withheld until the night of the concert, as Prof. Biggers is the only one that knows the order of their standing as he has charge of their credits. Misses Moxil Mae Mitchell, Bertha Achols, Georgia Caruthers, Hazel Gottschalk, Lenginia Mitchell and Fannie Wilson. Flowers are in order, but be sure to attach a card plainly marked from whom and for who. Mr. Wilkins is not only trying to do something for himself, but is also trying to found a school that we will not be ashamed of, also when we are turned down by teachers of other races, we will have a music school of our own to go to. You will be compelled to be there early as the seats are selling very rapidly owing to the great reduction in price; also the program will be a long and good one, and many of the pupils are small and must play before bed time.

The concert will be held at 8th and Towne Ave. church next Tuesday evening, May 23. at 8:15 sharp. Mr. Wilkins says it will be impossible for him to wait for you until 9 o'clock as he must be through before midnight.

It is earnestly hoped that the Negro public will keep its eyes open, and do whatever is within its power to aid Mr. H. L. Garrott in the case of Title Guarantee and Trust Co., vs. Garrott.

In this case Mr. Garrott has many thousand at stake, and has already suffered much mentally and financially.

Inasmuch as the white people find it necessary to get together as was suggested or rather outlined in last Sunday's Times, it seems doubly necessary that the Negroes should unite in this and all issues effecting our citizenship.

A JOINT DISCUSSION

Between Rev. Dr. Geo.W. Shields and Dr. J. A. Biglow, M. T.

Resolved, That the Bible teaches Spiritualism is the true religion; there is no death, simply transition; that when conditions are made the so-called dead can and do manifest to the physical sense of man.

The Minister affirms.

The Doctor denies.

2nd. Resolved, That the Bible ifest themselves purporting to be teaches that the spirits that man- the dead are the fallen spirits or demons and not the spirits of the dead.

The Doctor affirms.

The Minister denies.

That this debate shall be prosecuted according to the rules of debates and no persinating indulged in. Place, the Douglass Temple, 2452 Lenard street. Time, May 22nd and 23rd at 8 p. m. sharp. Seats free and no collection.

Rev. George W. Shields, Pastor of the Douglas Temple Spiritualist Church, a very pleasing speaker.

SANTA BARBARA NOTES

Mr. Julius Jones entertained and took the count against the championship whist team from Los Angeles last week, but we must say Mr. Jones is game to the cohe and it is well to be his guest.

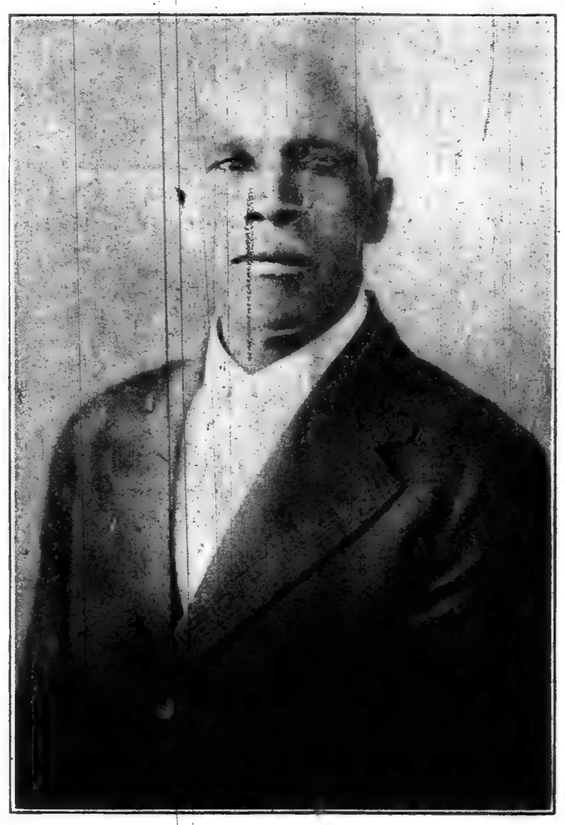
Mr. Ray Isum and Virgil Williams, the only single men with the colony from L. A., are being wined and dined by the buxom Misses of this city. Last Sunday witnessed another beach party.

Rev. Evans left on last Saturday after a ten days' stay in our midst.

Attorney Ceruti made a flying visit to his Los Angeles office on last Tuesday, returning the same day.

St. Paul's A. M. E. church will hold its second grand rally on next Sunday, after which it will commence the erection of its new church edifice.

A MEMORABLE OCCASION



Last Sunday evening will be one long to be remembered in the annals of Santa Barbara, as on this occasion instead of the regular sermon Rev. Duncan had arranged with Editor J. B. Bass of the California Eagle to deliver his famous lecture, "The Three Cardinal Principles," along the lines of progress. The church was packed for the occasion and for more than one hour Mr. Bass had the closest and undivided attention of his audience as he set forth the great principles of progress and everybody highly commended his splendid effort which is appreciated by all who heard it to the fullest degree.

Dr. N. P. Greggs and Hon E. B. Ceruti of Los Angeles were also in the audience and were introduced. It is to be hoped that before they leave we shall also hear from these very able and distinguished gentlemen.

Dr. J. A. Bigelow is a graduate of the American College of Mechano-Therapy and a public speaker that is known in many states. He is a Bible student and will discuss this subject from a philosophical, harmolitieal and Biblical standpoint. You will miss a treat should you fail to to hear him.

THE COMOBABI MINES CO. AND OFFICERS IN A UNITED EFFORT FOR THE NEGROES OF CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

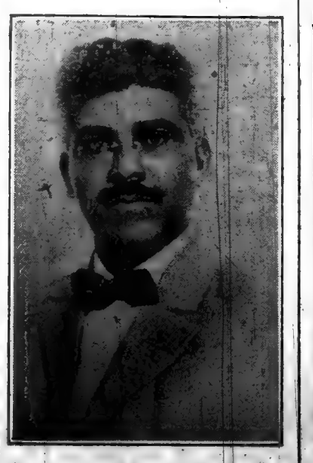
G. W. Miller, President and General Manager.

Geo. W. Miller, president of this company, will address the Forum at 4:30 p.m., Sunday, May 21st, 1916, at Odd Fellows' Hall, corner 8th and Wall streets.

All persons interested in mines and mining are especially requested to be present. Come and hear his story of ten years of sacrifice, that his race might reap the golden harvest of mineral wealth buried in the Comobabi hills of Arizona. Ten years of hardship, that his race might enter fields of employment that will inspire us with self-confidence and win for us the respect of other races.

Ten years of self-denial, that we might have a place to employ ours boys and girls and give them inspiration to be all that God would have them be. We are appealing to those of the race who are dissatisfied with present conditions and who desire to be real men—Men who feel the responsibilities of a race upon them and are ready and willing to take an honest chance to reach the top. Come and examine his specimens of ore being taken from the ground at present.

This company is doing business under the Blue Sky Laws of California and Arizona, and has its local office in the Troy Furniture store, 1149 San Pedro St. None of the officers of the company are under salary and no commission is paid for sale of stock.



This company is honestly and fearlessly using every righteous effort for success and invites rigid investigation.

GREAT MEETING CLOSED AT PASADENA THURSDAY NIGHT. REV. W. W. S. DYATT PASTOR FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH

For sixteen nights the pastor and members, wtih all of Pasadena, have listened to Dr. F. F. Moten of Los Angeels preach the word of God in its fullness. Twenty-one were brought into the fold. Fourteen grown people joined the A. M. E. church and seven went to the different churches of the city.

Dr. Dyatt is a great man, broad-hearted and true. His people are equally as fine.

More than a thousand people heard the last sermon delivered by Brother Moten, and all voted to pray for him wherever he goes and especially at Riverside, where Dr. Moten goes to run a meeting next week. One member of the seven joined transferred to Ward on Channing street.

AN APPEAL

In view of the organized effort on the part of realty dealers and realty owners to undo what, in keeping with justice and fair play, has been done in the equitable decision rendered in our Superior Court in the case of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company vs. Garrott. The colored people who wish to aid in meeting the cost of this fight so far as printing, court fees on appeal, etc., are concerned, may do so by leaving or sending contributions to either of the following persons: Mrs. Catherine Barr, 1351 W. 30th Place, phone W. 2809; Capt. Crumbly, 785 San Pedro St., phone B. 2528.

Miss Maggie L. Harris won highest prize in a contest published in the Evening Herald of May 9th, but upon presentation of the $100.00 check received by mail which entitled her to a lot in a supposed restricted district, Miss Harris was informed that it was not known that she was colored, and was asked to give up the check, but she refused to obey since it was not stated in the paper that the contest was open only to white.

Mrs. Vernon Gray who has been confined ot her home for the past two weeks is reported still indisposed.

All-American League

The executive committee of the All-American League met at the residence of Mr. W. E. Easton last Tuesday evening. Many things of interest to this community, especially those of import to the race, were discussed, and at the close the body was served with strawberry short cake prepared by Miss Dorothea Easton.

Miss Easton is a high school student, and demonstrated upon this occasion that she has not only learned to play the piano operate the typewriter, but likewise has the art of culinary at her finger tips.

Because of her gentle sweet manner and retiring attitude upon all occasions, Miss Easton is a favorite with both old and young.

GENERAL CONFERENCE IN SESSION AT PHILADELPHIA, PA.

The twenty-fifth Quadrennial session of the African Methodist Episcopal church opened in Bethel A. M. E. church, May 3, 1916, at 10:50 a. m., with Bishop Benjamin F. Lee presiding.

It is no doubt, of great import to that part of this vast organizationed stationed in California, and more especially the Los Angeles contingency, to know that, at the first roll call Presiding Elder J. H. Wilson and Rev. J. Logan Craw of this city were present to answer to their names in behalf of California.

We are in receipt of the actions of the first and succeeding days, and are qutie sure that it would be an inspiration for not only the members of the church, but all the people if we were able to give in detail the many sermons, addresses, remarks, etc., that have been given out up to date, and we regret that on account of lack of space we are unable to do so. However, it gives us great pleasure as we peruse the columns of the Christian Recorder to note that much progress has been made since the last session.

At the first day's session on the platform was the stand used by Bishop Allen, and Bishop Coppin held up the chair which Bishop Allen used one hundred years ago.

Among the conspicuous figures in the gathering are Bishops Allen, Tyree, Parks. Smith, Coppin, Shaffer, and a host of ministers of note. Among whom are our own President Elder Wilson and Rev. J. Logan Craw.

And even though this session is fired with greater enthusiasm than any preceeding advent in the history of Methodism the vacant seats of Bishops Grant and Derrick are viewed with no small degree of regret.

In our succeeding issues until the close of the same we shall give an account of the Conference.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 18.

The new bishops on the calendar this session are I. N. Ross of Baltimore, Md., and N. W. Beckett of Washington, D. C., both of whom are noted clergymen and men of great valor in the army of the Lord.

While Rev. Craw is participating in the doings of the conference in the city of brotherly love and filling his mind with new ideas and thoughts that he may more successfully inspire his gerat following here, Mrs. Craw is holding down this end as was demonstrated by her sermonette last Sunday evening.

Those who heard Mrs. Craw last Sunday, say that her effort was befitting to the occasion. In her simple love story she drove home many profound truths, and many lives were inspired to be more like Jesus day by day.

In her next effort a week from Sunday it is expected that greater crowds will pack the auditorium of the church to hear this woman who is so inspired with her husband's effort that she is willing to lay aside every petty formality and take the stand for righteousness, truth and virtue.

The Woman's Civic and Protective League had a very large and interesting meeting at Sojourner Home, May 17. Many interesting subjects were discussed and plans formulated to keep our race. The club held a mothers' meeting at Furlong and was heartily received. Tea was served. All left with a feeling that some good had been done. The club still appeals to all women to come into the league that have the future of the race at heart and want to progress instead of retrograde.

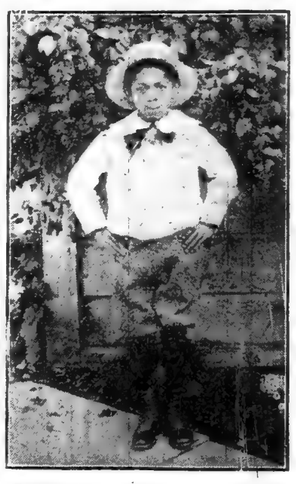
OAKLAND JOTTINGS

By "Jakie" Peyton

Dame rumor has it that Felix Beckford left last Tuesday for New York, where he will soon be joined by one of our Oakland belles and they will become as one. Mr. Beckford was one of Oakland's hustling young men, and it is hoped that he will do well in the Eastern metropolis.

Wedding bells are still ringing about Oakland. June 14th Miss Georgia Morris and Cassman Seville will join the ranks of married folks.

MESSAGE FROM THE SOUTH.



"A message from the South" was brought to the convention by Frank D. Rash, vice-president of the Kentucky Manufacturers' Association, who paid a tribute to the negro laborer.

"Experience has shown," he said, "that when given the opportunity for gainful employment under just and fair conditions, the negro not only proves in every way his value as a workman, but above all there is cultivated in his mind and heart that now too rare feeling of deep interest in and loyality to his employer. When the Southern negro works for a corporation he calls it 'my company' and never has a bomb been found in his hand, nor has he ever been branded as an anarchist."

The Hackett boys are said to have selected their respective places in life. They have gone to the farm.

The jolly party who visited the ball game at Emeryville, Cal., last Sunday afternoon met with a peculiar experience when a white man butted in upon the colored scene and went away with a black eye as a result.

A POEM ON FARMING

By Francis A. Chandler, 8 yrs. old.

I am going to a farm far away
You bet I am going where the farmers make hay.
And where some men are rowing
My sister and I am going to a farm,
And I am going to do the rowing
While my sister helps make hay.
The whole family is going too
My father is going to do the milking,
And every morning the rooster calls,
Coco, doodle do;
After breakfast my mother does the silkinking.

My sister feeds the pigs,
And I feed the chickens,
And I danee some jigs
when I get hard lickings.

I go horse back riding every day,
And going down shady streets
My sister is very gay,
With her doll so sweet.

Mother hen with her brood
Goes marching in the yard;
And papa chops the kindling wood
On the ground that is very hard.

I like to play baseball
And run in a race.
And come in at my mother's call
And go and wash my face.

I like to play tag,
And play soldier with a gun;
I like to hold the American flag,
And we have lots of fun.

On the farm we do not go to school,
Nor do we have spelling
Nor do I like to jump in the pool,
Nor do I like to hear the yelling.

The boys do not hit me on my way home from school;
But when Xmas is here
I paddle in a little pool.

I do not like to go to school,
But I like to go swimming,
In a little pool,
And sometimes go a fishing.

El Centro News

We were more than glad to have Prof. C. H. Toney from the northern part of the state with us. He brought a message to our people which was well received, as quite a few of our parents signed up to have their children enter the Vallejo Institute next term. He took oue girl with him.

The Independent Baptist church is alive and has one of the best Sunday schools in the state. We are preparing to be present at the Sunday school convention.

The 2nd Baptist Sunday school will be on hand to answer present.

We are glad to have Rev Wade of Oxnard with us. I am sure 5th chapter of 2nd Cor. will never be forgotten in the 2nd Baptist church, as that was what Rev. Wade so beautifully pictured to the crowded house that heard him Sunday. On Sunday night he drove home the one thought mother in all of her fullness to his hears. May God bless and keep him for his use.

Mrs. J. M. Bacon, Reporter.

A very pleasant social and business evening was spent with Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Monday evening when a number of club members gathered at their home on 15th street.

A. G. Roberts is reported on the the sick list.

The Kansas and Missouri club was royally entertained by Mrs. Loyde and Mr. and Mrs. Davis on 18th street last Thursday evening. A large number of the member, were present.

Mrs. Allen Allensworth and Mrs. S. C. Cole are spending the week at Bruces Beach and report a delightful time.

Misses Clyde and Josephine Brown spent a very pleasant day Monday at Bell station, the guests of Misses Inez and Mae Jones.

The public is cordially invited to attend the 54th annual celebration of the Knights and Daughters of Tabor at Sycamore grove Saturday, August 12th.

Attorney Afue McDowell, Mrs. Geo. M. Warner, Mrs. Moulden and daughter returned from Marysville Sunday, after paying a short visit in Oakland and Frisco.

The annual picnic of the International Order of Twelve, Sir Knights and Daughters of Tabor, will be at Sycamore grove Saturday, August 12th. A splendid time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell, Lakeshore avenue, left Los Angeles Thursday evening for their old home in Kansas, where they expect to make a stay of several months visiting relatives and friends.

Henry and Gilbert Allen, two prominent and successful business men of Omaha, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Joseph Lane of Watts. They are here not only on a visit, but on the lookout for engaging in business.

Mrs. Mamie Waugh was at home to a few friends Monday afternoon, those present including Mmes. G. Washington, J. Sommerville, S. Dones, A. Childress, P. Winters and Misses Ethel White, Gwendolyn Baker, Marguerite Prince.

Mmes. J. B. Thomas and L. Toliver have returned to their homes in Oakland, after enjoying the hospitality of their many friends and spending a most delightful time in Los Angeles sightseeing in Los Angeles and Pasadena. They were the house guests of Mrs. E. Banks, 1122 E. 33rd street.

St. Philips' Guild tendered their rector, Father W. T. Cleghorn, who is leaving for a three month's trip in the East, a reception on Thursday evening in the spacious rooms of the parish hall. Those receiving with the rector were the presidents of the organization and several ministers. Music was furnished by Wheaton's orchestra.

Mrs. F. L. Osborne, president of the New Thought Charity club of Boyle Heights, gave a most delightful six-course luncheon honoring the delegates to the Woman's Federation at Pasadena. Covers were laid for ten. The house and table were beautifully decorated in ferns and hygeraniums. The guests present pronounced it one of the prettiest affairs of the season and Mrs. Osborne a splendid hostess.

Under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. a program has been prepared for the Temperance rally, which will be of much interest, on Sunday afternoon, August 13th, at the Rev. Byers' church, corner Paloma and Pico streets. Several musical selections will be rendered by the junior choir of the church, assisted by Malcolm Patton, Jr. A treat is in store for those who attend. Everybody Invited.

The Virginia and West Virginia State Societies are about to be organized.

A very pretty whist party was given in honor of Mmes. Pinkey and Randolph by Mr. and Mrs. Westerfield.

Frank Gordon of El Centro is a recent arrival in the city and is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brown on Douglass street.

Mrs. M. T. Dove, sister of Mrs. Homer A. Harrison, 5206 Long Beach avenue, who has been spending the last few months with her sister, has returned to her home in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. A. Scott of Oakland is the house guest of Mrs. Green, 1420 Central avenue. While here she favored the Eagle office with a visit. She expects to remain in our city two weeks.

Mrs. A. Childress entertained with breakfast Sunday morning in honor of her mother's birthday. Covers were laid for ten. Everyone enjoyed their turn in trying to count the candles on the pretty white frosted cake made by Miss Josephine.

Mrs. Geneva Jones, Ceres avenue, entertained about 20 little girls and boys on last Monday afternoon in honor of the 10th birthdry of her little daughter, Earnesteen. The color scheme was carried out in pink and white, making the dining room and table enchanting in appearance.

R. F. McClellan, candidate for Supervisor from the 4th district, rushed several boxes of fine California lemons to Company E, 7th regular California Infantry, last week. This company is made up of boys from the bay city district. McClellan, in his usual quiet way, always does the right thing at the right time. Just the kind of timber for a Supervisor.

On last Saturday evening about 30 young people gathered at the home of Mrs. Norman Cook on Griffith avenue, where they enjoyed an evening of whist and music complimentary to Mr. Blue of Oakland. Mr. and Mrs. Cook spaired no pains in making it pleasant for all present, and there is no question as to them both being ideal host and hostess.

Wm. T. Wilkins, our prosperous music teacher, through the efforts of the Stokes Realty Co., has been fortunate enough to secure the large 12 room residence located at 1325 Central avenue for the location of his music school. Mr. Wilkins intends to make his school the only one of its kind in the West, and surpassed for efficiency by none in the United States. There are already four departments; piano department, Mr. Wilkins, assisted by Misses G. Adams, Eva Johnson, A. De. Rousell, Cleo Browder, Bertha Achols and Fannie Wilson; voice department, Mmes. E. J. Hughley and H. Clendenon; violin department, Johnie Mitchell and Johnie Anderson; saxaphone, Johnie Anderson. Piano and vocal lessons can be had as low as 50c per lesson. The grand opening and other announcements will be made later. Prepare yourselves and children to enter this school, as it is a race enterprise, and as fast as you advance far enough to teach or fill musical engagements, the school will try to find work for you. We need not question the ability of Mr. Wilkins, the director of our school, as he is a music student and teacher who has proven himself capable of heading such an institution. We find that Mr. Wilkins is the only race teacher mentioned in the directory of the Southern California music teachers.

Mrs. Margarett Bramlett is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, west 35th place, left Tuesday evening for Kansas City, where they will make a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. L. Broody will entertain in honor of the Misses Moses of Virginia Thursday, August 17, at her residence, 1146 E. 48th place. Take Hooper avenue car.

Mrs. A. Hill, 1655 W. 37th place, entertained in honor of Mrs. A. H. Wall of Oakland last Monday evening. A 7-course dinner was served and covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. Prescott, the blind Evangelist, will speak at the A M E Zion Church, Pico and Paloma, Sunday morning, and at Wesley Chapel in the evening. All are invited to hear her at both places.

G. H. Holland and wife, 461 N. Figueroa street, entertained in honor of Mrs. Pinkey and Mrs Hyna Randolph of Bakersfield, Mmes. Boiston and Owens of Alhambra, and Mmes. Emma Ankrum and Westerfield.

Appeal to the Public.

I wish to thank my friends and the public for their kindness and sympathy during the three trials of my son, Tom Miller, at Santa Barbara. Being without means to again retain an attorney to carry his case to a higher court, I make one more desperate appeal through the columns of the Eagle asking the public to help me raise the necessary funds in which to employ an attorney to look after the interests of my boy.

Mrs. Caroline Miller,
Sister of O. E. S.

On last Friday evening the choir of the People's Independent church of Christ met at the beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jones, 1330 W. 36th street. The choir, consisting of 41 members, is indeed one to be proud of, so much harmony reigning among them both in voice and in heart, after a short rehearsal under the direction of Rev. N. P. Greggs. The evening was turned into a social affair. Delicious punch and ice cream was served, and cake in abundance, truly the kind that mother used to make, but this time it happened to be made by father, for Mr. Jones is one of Los Angeles' leading cake bakers. Rev. Gregge was honored by having a freezer of lemon ice made especially for him. Large hearted as he is, not more than a taste could be had by any one. After very appropriate remarks on behalf of the choir by Emanul Hall, the party departed declaring a most delightful evening spent.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager — Office 742 3rd St. — Phones: Main 1613, Main 6128

The human fly has arrived in town, and as usual has made many a person look with wonder and amazement at his daring feats; to say that he has nerve is styling it lightly. He has the nerve of a lion and the daring of a monkey, when it comes to climbing. He has mounted the court house and stood on the goddess of liberty, and when he put his arms around that bronze statue he did what very few people have done, he had the pleasure of hugging the largest woman in Southern California and she did not mind his familiarity. He has also climbed the mortgage building, which is said to be one of the highest buildings in the city. He is now advertised to mount the Exposition building, that is the California building and its lofty tower. As we go to press he is climbing, and as the deed is daring we cannot say what the outcome will be.

Rev. T. Allen Harvey had his usual large congregation on Sunday last. He expects to leave for the annual Conference at Los Angeles soon, where he predicts the Conference will gain much lost ground.

Rev. Mitchell put much enthusiasm in his sermon on Sunday last, and many new faces were seen among the congregation.

Rev. Williams, who has gained fame by his serial of sermons, had had his church filled to overflowing. It seems as if the young people take pride in the advancement of the church on the hill. Many strangers have found their way to his place of worship.

Mrs. Blocker gave a nice party in honor of Mrs. L. M. Smith and son of Vallejo, at 1711 Columbia street.

Something greater than them all, the laughing mask party, was given at Elizabeth Perry's residence.

To the Public—When in San Diego just call at 426 Broadway and eat some old-fashioned cooked dinners, with Chef Thomas in charge. Every Tuesday and Friday evenings the Hornby Bros. render their musical selections.

Caught again by the sharp eye of the Eagle—John Saunders of private car No. 6, John R. King of car No. 414, J. Hanks of the parlor car department and B. Reese, head depot usher, were seen doing our fair city by automobile; also we are glad to note that they were favored guests at the Exposition grounds of the president G. A. Davidson.

Rudey Chapman entertained a party of friends at his residence with a Dutch lunch. Those present were Messrs. Dardell, Hanks, Phillips, Kinzy, Jr., Kinzy, Sr. Miss Randolph was a guest of Mrs. Rudey Chapman.

Louis J. Wilde and Col. Fred Jewell took over the controlling interest in the United States National bank. We are glad to know that W. D. Cleveland will retain his position, as he has been with Mr. Wilde several years and will be pleased to introduce his many friends to the directors of the bank.

Mrs. M.L. Gottschalk of Los Angeles was chosen one of the royal guests of our city a few days ago. She was the house guest of many friends, includidg the Exposition. She had to cancel many special engagements, but says she will visit our city again in the near future.

J. E. Hunt of Los Angeles, who is head porter at the girls' dormitory, is spending his vacation in the city.

J. R. Johnson and wife and little son, and J. B. Jackson and wife motored from Los Angeles to Tia Juana and around the city last week, after spending several days in the city.

Mrs. C. Thomas acted as maid during the absence of Mrs. Laws last Friday, when she returned to Los Angeles to take care of her sister, Miss Louise Austin, who is ill.

W. A. Granger, who is now in the poultry business, called at the Eagle office and told us of his success.

Mrs. P. E. Phillips stole quietly away from the sun-kissed city to the Angel city, but with much love for San Diego.

F. D. Williams and wife of Imperial valley were in the city a few days ago on business and pleasure combined.

Mrs. Jack Brown of Topeka, Kan., and her two beautiful daughters, Ruth and Edna, are spending their vacations on the Pacific coast. After visiting San Francisco and Los Angeles they made a flying trip to San Diego and were met at the station by the manager of the Eagle, M. T. Laws, who is a staunch friend of Mr. Brown. After spending a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. Chapman they were special guests of Mr. and Mrs Laws to the Exposition. They were very much delighted with the city and left on the evening train. They will visit the Grand canyon enroute home.

John Clark of Chicago, who has spent more than 25 years with the Santa Fe, is touring the Pacific coast for a short stay. While here he called on many of his old friends.

Geo. Washington of Topeka, Kan., who has spent many years with the Santa Fe and is well known over the entire system, called at the Eagle office a few days ago and said that he was much pleased with the paper, being a subscriber. Even if he is a resident of the Middle-west, he stated that he could not do without the Eagle and Pacific coast news.

Everybody is making preparation for the big social Monday night, where the San Diego New Orchestra will make its debut in this city. We have heard it and it has the pep. So come out and enjoy yourself.

SAN BERNARDINO

J. H. McAdams, will leave in a few days for a quite and extensive visit in the East.

Ovid and Hunter Hillman have returned from a visit in Pasadena.

Miss Florence Harrison spent Sunday evening in Redlands.

Miss Cleo Hathaway of Redlands was the guest of Miss Ruth Ingraham last week.

Mrs. Wilson, president of the A. M. E. Missionary Society gave a splendid lecture at the A. M. E. Church Sunday afternoon.

Misses Minnie and Beatrice Miller of Riverside are spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. P. P. Hurd.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hurd and daughter, Ethel, are preparing to leave soon for a visit in the East.

Miss Florence L. Harrison will leave Monday evening for Forest Home where she will be the guest of Miss Ruth Whiteside for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock of Redlands will be the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mabra Sunday.

BERTHA ALEXANDER.

Mr. Al. Graves, one of the foremost business men of Santa Barbara, was a visitor in the city this week. He reports progress and says the people of his city takes exceptions to the article of Mr. Baker in this paper of a late day

Advocates National Race Congress on Citizenship Rights.

A Hillburn, N. Y., dispatch of recent date says that Byrun Gunner, president of the National Equal Rights League, has issued a call for the ninth annual convention of said League, the matter of the exact date and place for the convention not having as yet been quite settled, but it is very timely and proper that there should be no further delay in inviting public attention to the fact that such a convention is to be held and within the next sixty days.

It has been wisely suggested in view of existing unfavorable social, civic and political conditions confronting us as a people, that the National Equal Rights League invite and urge all of our people in all sections of the country to unite in a great "National Congress of Colored Americans," and for the special purpose of voicing the feelings and opinions of the race on those unfavorable conditions now surrounding us in this country; and also to decide upon the wisest and best methods for combating color segregations and all other forms of color discrimination.

After 50 years of so-called freedom in this country, what is the prevailing condition of our Colored American population? Briefly stated it is this: Our civil rights have been rendered almost futile; we are shamefully curtailed politically; we are denied equality before the law; we are not allowed equal industrial opportunities; our property and our very lives are not at all secure; and the "black horrors of lynching" innocent colored Americans continue unabated. While our Federal government's indifference towards all these injustices is but little less than the nullification of our great war amendments. Throughout the southland, and to more or less extent in the north, the increasing millions of our fellow colored Americans are being more and more reduced to the pitiable condition of political serfs and social outcasts.

If such conditions do not stir our souls and our blood, what under heaven can do it? Do not the industrial opportunities denied us, the freedom of speech and of the press not allowed, the civic and political rights taken from us, and the insecurity of property and life that surrounds us, give sufficient ground and reason for the calling of such a National Congress of Colored Americans as is herein suggested? "In this fierce era of controversy and bloodshed," can we be unmoved?" While the whole world is wide awake socially and politically, shall we sleep? While all other classes and races are on the verge of social and political revolutions, shall we be indifferent? Since all other groups of oppressed people are in the stir and rush of agitation, is it not high time that we should at least begin to get on the move?

The south is still in the saddle at our national capital, rushing headlong with a most reckless disregard for the feelings and rights of ten millions of loyal, but oppressed colored Americans.

Therefore, let us get together in a great National Congress, and fling to the whole wide world the full story of our grievances and of our earnest demands for justice and fair play.

Let all our religious, educational, social and political leaders among us heed this call. Let all of our great religious organizations and lodges and benevolent societies begin now to plan to be represented in this proposed Congress. By so doing we cannot fail to produce a powerful effect on the public mind that will greatly help us in our struggle for justice and freedom.

This Congress will be independent and wider than any present organization. Its deliberations will not be under the Equal Rights League, which will meet in conjunction. — From the Scrap Book of J. D. Reynolds.

A Visit to San Francisco and Oakland.

On last Saturday morning a week ago, at the early hour of 3 o'clock in the morning, in a Franklin car, Mr. and Mrs. Sterlind Leeo of W. 28th street, in company with Mrs. Mary Peyton of W. 20th street, started on another tour in the northern part of the state, San Francisco and vicinity. They breakfasted at Bakersfied and from there went on to where they lodged over night. Early next day they toured on till near Yosemite valley and arrived in Oakland about 12:30 p. m. on Wednesday.

While in San Francisco they went sight-seeing every day, visiting the Golden Gate park, the Presidio and other places of interest. In Oakland they stopped with Mrs. Mildred Toney-Allen, who formerly lived on W. 35th place of this city, and they report having had a fine time with her. Mrs. Toney-Allen, a long-time friend of theirs, is a fine hostess and knows how to make those around her happy.

About 10 o'clock the following Monday, having stayed a week there, they started home and stayed over night at Fresno, arriving in Los Angeles on Tuesday about 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the only accident on the entire trip being a slight one near University station. The distance covered was over 1,000.

Just a year ago the same party, with Mr. Peyton, Mmes. Saddie Middleton, and Fields of the Raglin apartments, Susie J. Lynch and the late pastor of the E. S. M. St. Christian church, Rev. D. L. McMickens, made a similar trip to San Diego to see the Exposition. They stayed in the southern city nearly a week, camped out overnight and enjoyed themselves in every way.

PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday was one of the happiest days in the history of the church, being covenent day. The Holy Spirit accompanied the service and their was an old-time rejoicing. There never was such a glorious meeting since the organization of the church.

The pastor, Rev. C. N. Moore, read the covenent of the church in concert and took time and explained every article of the covenent, and wrote on the blackboard the nine requisites which makes a perfect Christian, as follows: patience, kindness, generosity, humility, courtesy, usefulness, good temper, guilelessness and sincerity.

The pastor informed the members that when these qualifications were kneaded into the Christian's life that he became a perfect Christian. The service was turned over to the members for expression, in which everybody took part, and the Holy Spirit accompanied the meeting in a shower of blessings.

In the evening the Lord's Supper was served and the pastor took as his text the 12th chapter of Exodus, 23rd verse, as follows: "And when He seeth the blood upon the Lintel and on the two side posts, the Lord will pass over the door." The pastor closed the bible and went into the subject, and the sermon was a masterpiece of eloquence.

The Sunday school and B. Y. P. Y. was well attended.

The pastor and wife and Sister Hines and son were outing at the beach and spent a pleasant day, bringing home a nice catch of fish.

The church has launched a thousand dollar rally to make a payment on the church the first of November. We have a fine church site, and we appeal to the Christian brotherhood and the public for aid. When our solicitors call upon you, please do not turn them down; any amount you donate will be appreciated.

The church will serve dinner in the dining room of the church every Sunday. Come and get your money's worth, and at the same time you will be helping the church. Meal hours every Sunday from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m.

FOR PRESIDENT
Charles Evans Hughes of New York
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana

The next president of the United States, Charles E. Hughes, is making his march of triumph westward and the same will not end until he reaches the White House on March the 4th, 1917.

President Wilson, like Andrew Johnson, has proved himself unequal to the occasion of guiding the destiny of a mighty nation and will be repudiated by the people in November by an overwhelming majority.

Coming down to local issues it is apparent that there are others that have friction within their ranks as to honor and prestige beside the colored race. Just now who is to have the honor of being in the limelight with the coming of our next president is agitating the minds of the managers of the party. We should worry: we really think the greaf victory that awaits us will be big enough and grand enough that all can rejoice in the same. The return of the progressives makes this victory possible, and we can see no reason why there should be any discrimination or preference to any particular part of the great army of Republican warriors.

DR. DUVALL'S WORKS

Much publicity was given to charges preferred against Rev. C. H. Duvall, president of the National Industrial School at Pasadena, and inasmuch as the same charges are now in court, a generous public will no doubt suspend judgment until the issues are tried out impartially in the courts.

The editor of the Eagle has an abiding faith that Dr. Duvall will prove his innocence, and we further wish to go on record as saying that his work cannot be discounted; and it speaks right out for itself, his home at Pasadena has for years been a refuge and shelter for the helpless orphan and the great work of Rev. Duvall and his noble wife are entitled to a greater reward than continual nagging which has been theirs, by some who have taken upon themselves the task of his undoing.

ANARCHY REIGNS NOT; COMING INTO OUR OWN.

It is gratifying to reflect that of all the noble deeds, the great events that mean the very existence of our country, the colored race has played an important and meritorious part. From Boston Common to Carrizal, the Negro has proved his worth for the salvation, honor and glory of his country; and then it is again gratifying to note that although from all angles the provocation has been great to do the untoward thing, not a single instance can be pointed to where this people has been even in the remotest degree connected with any of the dastardly crimes, such as committed at San Francisco a few days ago. Anarchy or disloyalty is not his forte.

This being so we believe that we shall yet come into the reward that such righteousness deserves.

We believe that the time is not far distant when we shall have the preference over this class of citizenship. Take San Francisco today in the waiters' and cooks' strike the colored waiters have been their succor and relief. Also the longshoremen the same. Now after they have parleyed and reached an agreement with their striking employees, the colored workmen, it seems, are to be let out; this is not right, and even in the present crisis at San Francisco some of the biggest employers have given it out that the colored waiters and cooks, if they make good, will remain with them forever and ever.

These are some of the things that come to us in reflecting at the past and present, and we are glad that it is as it is, for in the end we shall come into our own and not by the way of the assassin, the plunderer or anarchist.

about and find fault with, if men have the disposition. We often travel on a hard uneven road but with a cheerful spirit and a heart to praise God for his mercies we may walk therein with great comfort and come to the end of our journey in peace.

Let us try to be like the sunshiny member of the family who has the inestimable art to make all duty seem pleasant, all self-denial and exertion easy and desirable, even disappointment not so blank and crushing; who is like a bracing, crisp, frosty atmosphere throughout the home without a suspicion of the element that chills and pinches. You have known people with in whose influence you felt cheerful, amiable and hopeful, equal to anything. Oh, for that blessed power and for God's grace to exercise it rightly. I do not know a more enviable gift than the energy to sway others to good, to diffuse around us an atmosphere of cheerfulness, piety, truthfulness, generosity, magnanimity. It is not a matter of great talent; not entirely a matter of great energy, but rather of earnestness and honesty and of quiet, constant energy which is like soft rain gently penetrating the soil. It is rather a grace than a gift and we all know where all grace is to be had freely for the asking.

Railroad News

GROWTH OF AMERICAN RAILROADS

The first American railroad to be actually opened for operation by steam was the Baltimore and Ohio, which had a section open for general traffic as early as 1830, although the road was not completed until 1852. The first great trunk line, connecting the East and West, was the Erie, which was opened in part for general traffic in 1841 and was completed in 1851.

Railroads were then built in all directions, and today the United States has in operation more than 260,000 miles of track. Last year there were carried over these tracks 1,000,000,000 passengers and more than 2,000,000,000 tons of freight. There are employed on the American railroads 1,735,000 persons, they pay roll being over $1,400,000,000 annually. At the present time there approximately 64,000 locomotives, of which 14,400 are passenger 38,000 freight and the rest unclassified. The total number of cars is approximately 2,500,00. , The investment in roads and equipment in this country is approximately $17,000,000,000—New York Times.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT THE S. P. COMMISSARY

The dining car department of the American railroad, one of the big elements in the luxury of passenger service, is a bigger institution than the average trgveler imagines. An idea of its magnitude and importance may be gathered from figures by Superintendent Allan Pollok of the Dining Car, Hotel and Restaurant Department of the S. P. The S. P. has 105 diners, 63 buffet cars, 4 cafe and 1 lunch car. Its dining car milage last year was 10,832,-847 and 3,207,353 persons were fed on the diners. We have 107 commissary employes, 824 car employes, 80 stewards, 329 cooks, 367 waiters and 52 porters. In equipment we use 65,625 pieces of silver, 151,797 napkins, 36,098 table cloths, 19,425 pieces of glassware and 71,820 pieces of china. On the steamers we served 1,101,015 meals. Our 15 restaurants, alone served 1,612,-293 meals.

The chief commissaries are at West Oakland Yards, northern lines; Los Angeles, southern lines; Ferry Building San Francisco, for steamers and ferries Houston, for the Sunset lines. Other commissaries are situated at 3rd and Townsend sts, San Francisco, New Orleans, San Antonio, El Paso, Odgen.

The Los Angeles commissary is the latest, having been completed in June, 1914. It is without doubt the most convenient and complete one in the country,

A Philosophic Study

And Literary Digest of the All-American League

H. DOUGLAS GREER

LEAGUE OPTIMISTIC

This organization is not founded to propound platitudes. When the sun is shining on both sides of the street it does not require a weather prophet nor a philosopher to declare to us that it is beautiful day. We see the light of a day that has not yet dawned. The optimist mind is ever a valuable asset under dark conditions of thought. To see heaven through the smoke and fire of hell requires a magnificent eyesight, and it is through this fire and smoke that the All-American League looks with an almost prophetic power towards the future.

Light Amid the Gloom

Realizing that the retrogressive power has had its hand for ages upon Negroes here, and everywhere, this league should be welcomed as a ray of sunshine within the domicile of morbidity where the gloomy thought is ever tearing at the hope of the heart, and racial progress, enterprise, solidarity and brotherhood are undermined by the jealousies, suspicions, and indiscretions of the dark view. The ambitions of the past are asleep. This league is driving inequality and injustice into innocuous deseutude, and according to the inspiration and hope, there will be no resurrection.

Precepts of League

The All-American League teaches that all persons who are born in this country and now living under this government are Americans, and all foreigners who, having secured certificates of naturalization, and who sustain the national honor and integrity of America by pledging themselves to the local and national spirits of this republic are Americans, and are thus entitled to the rights of citizenship and privileged to live and labor as do the peoples of all free countries.

Negro Patriotism

When the retrogressive power was most unkind and unjust, Negroes proved that they love this country, and even we find them clinging to it with all the fervency of childish hope; the toil of the day has been continued within that ideal of sweetest simplicity—love of home. The Negro is a patriot of the highest order. He is simple minded in thought, and lives the simple life. True patriotism belongs to the simple life. It is undone by contact with greater commercial activities, and it dies within complexity. It is because of this fact that we meet with the highest patriotism among Negroes and with a spurious patriotism within our great commercial dynastic. The spirit of patriotism pervades the All-American League. High-minded men, filled with religious fervor and humanitarian ideals are giving their life to the work of redemption from oppression and deceit, unsuccessful and successful war, all races in America.

The hope of the All-American League lies within the soul of its members, and their thoughts, words an ddeeds all point to a future within which betterment is anticipated for the millions of our people who are struggling thru the gloom, and who are at present held in the power of a merciless system within which there is but little respect or consideration shown to the liberties and welfare of a burdened people.

Systematic Injustice

Can we expect that a government that is built up on the dual power of business and race prejudice, will willingly cast away the root of its being and find another basis for its existence? The power of our courts of Justice have been invoked to suppress the truth. Europe, today, writhing in the throes of a mighty reaction, demonstrates how much ignorance and prejudice still exists and how far off the world remains from the high ideals of human brotherhood.

TENNIS NOTES

(By Raymond Isum)

With the big annual tournament only ten days off, the tennis sharks are busily sharpening up for the grand fray.

Sunday was try-out day with the Alpha Tennis Club members at the Club courts, corner 14th and Paloma. Four players were chosen from this try-out to represent the Club in the July 4th tournament to be held in Santa Monica. The four making the Alpha team were: Ballinger, Kemp, Paul Williams, Albion Matthews and Clarence Brooks. The games were fast, snappy, full of "pep" and well worth witnessing. Clarence Brooks sprung the surprise of the day when he defeated the veteran Paul Williams. Albion Matthews easily defeated Chester Williams in two straight sets. Ballinger Kemp eliminated George Johnson in two sets and Paul Williams eliminated his brother Chester in the second round.

In a practice match of doubles Albion Matthews and Raymond Isum defeated Paul Williams and George Johnson 6-4, 8-6. The events were run off under the supervision of Attorney Willis O. Tyler.

RAY HASTINGS CONGRATULATES WM. T. WILKINS

Prof. Ray Hastings of the Temple Auditorium Writes the Following Letter to Wm. T. Wilkins, Our Local Teacher and Pianist.

Auditorium Building.
Los Angeles, May 24, 1916.

Prof. Wm. T. Wilkins,
1239 Tennessee St., City.

Dear Friend Wilkins: I want you to know that I more than enjoyed the recital last night.

The carefully arranged pieces, masterly training shown by pupils of all grades, the earnestness and dignity with which the program was carried on—all marked the affair as one of the finest I have ever attended.

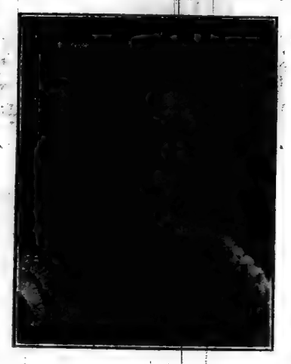
Your "Path of Destiny" was a treat. It not only gave an astonishing display of technic, but is a number of real musical worth—very faithful to the theme which inspired its writer.

Your are certainly on the right track!

Congratulations!

RAY HASTINGS.

P. S.—I have sent your program and a note to Mr. Colby of the "Pacific Coast Musician." Perhaps he will mention you in the June issue.



Mr. Frank Colby, music critic and editor of the Pacific Coast Musician, the greatest musical journal of the West, says in his June issue:

W. T. Wilkins gave his third annual piano school recital at the First A. M. E. church Tuesday evening, May 23. Mr. Wilkins is a talented young Colored musician who is doing fine work among his people as a music educator. Upwards of twenty-five participants were represented on a program of that many numbers. —This is the highest tribute ever paid to any musician of our Race on the Coast.

We are also glad to note that Mr. Wilkins has been granted the use of the East 14th street intermediate school auditorium, for the meetings of his ensemble and music history classes, his class having grown so large that his music school will not hold all his pupils, leaving out the many visitors and friends at the monthly meetings.

BAPTISTS HOLD CONVENTION

The California Baptist State Convention met with the St. Paul Baptist church of this city during the past week and closed last Friday what will be recorded as an historical session for the Baptists of this state.

NRS. McNICKENS

The four days session opened Wednesday, June 14, with a good representation of ministers from all over the state, and each session both spiritually and intellectually was like a shower of blessings to the large concourse of people that attended the convention.

Addresses of import upon timely subjects were rendered by Drs. Gordon, Davis, Riddle, Coleman and Prowd.

Thursday was woman's day, and the W. H. and F. M. was called to order by president Mrs. A. E. Webber, who presided over that remarkable body of energetic women with great dignity and reserve to the credit of womankind.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Ford read an inspiring paper dealing with the "Present Day Evils for Children," which was followed by a talk upon a similar subject by Rev. Davis, pastor of Mt. Zion, who for thirty minutes thrilled his attentive hearers.

The women in their session did themselves proud by virtue of the excellent papers and addresses of such timely nature.

It was truly a meeting of education where the people were brought in touch with real work that must be accomplished by the church and its auxiliaries, that the conditions both spiritually and temporally of the Race might take its place along with the other great religious bodies of this age.

Much credit is due Rev. Reed, who, it is said, through untiring effort brought about this great meeting.

The following persons were elected as officers for the ensuing year:

President—Rev. J. M. Riddle of Pasadena.

First Vice President—Rev. J. H. Morgan, Fresno.

Second Vice President—Rev. W. H. M. Dickerson, Pasadena.

Recording Secretary—Rev. G. W. Reed of Stockton.

Treasurer—Rev. F. W. Cooper, Riverside.

Officers of the W. H. and F. M. Convention are:

President—Mrs. A. E. Webber, Los Angeles.

First Vice President —Mrs. McMickens, Pasadena.

REV. G. W. REED

Second Vice President—Mrs. Elnora Williams, Oakland.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. S. B. Strickland, Pasadena.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. W. E. Ford, Pasadena.

Treasurer—Mrs. M. F. Gaither, Esparto.

Superintendent of Children's Band—Mrs. Edna Freemon, Stockton.

Members and friends of the Convention thank Rev. Tilman and his genial congregation for the many courtesies extended during their stay.

J. W. COLEMAN

The above is an excellent likeness of one of Los Angeles' most famous citizens, by reason of the fact that he has been the fountain head for the members of his Race who toil. He is well and favorably known, as he has placed thousands into various positions and with this people his name is a household word. He is a live wire in all of the things that stand for real progress in the church and in fraternal circles he can be found doing his part. Perhaps he is best known for his enthusiasm and support to the Sunday Forum, his fidelity for this popular organization has been such that many of its members have asked him to stand for election as the president at the annual election to be held Sunday and have assured him of their support. No one doubts for a moment his appreciation for this body and if elected no doubt is entertained but that he will fill that office with credit to himself and the body as well.

MARK JONES FOR SUPERVISOR OF THE SECOND DISTRICT

The Eagle has been authorized to announce the candidacy of the Hon. Mrak Jones for supervisor from the Second supervisorial district of this county, subject to the August primaries.

Now Mr. Jones is one of the pioneer citizens of this Greater Los Angeles and he is also one of those that has largely helped to make it such as it stands today. Aside from this he has been a life long Republican and in this year, although running for a non-partisan office, he feels sure the people want none except Republicans on guard.

It takes high class business men to conduct the business of this county and Mr. Jones can amply qualify, as his large and varied experience enables him to do.

So therefore, purely on his merits as a citizen, his qualification as a business man and his capability of filling this office with both credit to himself and his constituents, he presents his cause to the voters with an abiding faith of their hearty support at the primaries in August.

From time to time we shall acquaint our readers with the progress of Mr. Jones' campaign, to the end that they shall be fully informed as to his progress.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Dr. Frank A. Gordon calls the attention of the Los Angeles public to the fact that his offices at 1103 1-2 Central avenue are now newly and beautifully fitted for business, and that he is ready to receive patients for treatment.

Dr. Gordon is a product of Howard University, has had experience in some of the leading hospitals and is thoroughly equipped for business.

Even though he is but a young man he seems to possess those sturdy qualities that assure power and steadfastness in man's profession whatever it is.

With these sterling qualities in a broad field like Los Angeles, Dr. Gordon can but satisfy his ambition to relieve suffering from disease and ailment here among the people.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEMBER

Dear Editor:—

Please allow me space in your cosmopolitan journal to express my feeling as to the work and good we are accomplishing in our particular realm.

I am an enthusiastic member of the People's Independent church, and so thoroughly am I impressed with the ease with which we are accomplishing what we set out to do that I just want to say a word to the public because I feel that God is with us in our effort; and since he is my Saviour I would have him your Saviour too.

Our rally which partially closed last Sunday, the figures of which already has been published, was accomplished with such ease that we are at a loss to really understand our own power to do the work of "Our Father."

Our new location for our new church has been secured and real soon a church tower will appear above the low thatched roofs of the neighborhood of 18th and Paloma avenue.

Pastor Greggs and the members of the Independent Church are ambitious to erect a monument that will be a soul saving station for Los Angeles and invite all who are out of any ark of safety to come under its shelter.

Yours in the work,
MRS. J. H. SHACKELFORD.

THAT RECITAL

At the wonderful girl pianist's recital on July 11th, will appear Miss Antoinette Young, soprano; Messrs. J. L. Albright, tenor, and D. M. Mathews, bass, in that splendid trio, "Carlino." It's a great production and the characters selected for its rendition will force you to always remember the occasion. Other bright numbers and singers will appear in this issue later. Keep up with them and make Blanchard Hall the place for your evening's pleasure on Tuesday, July 11th.

Pasadena Students Make Good Showing

Five colored students graduated from the Pasadena High School this term. It was the largest number that ever graduated at any one time. Those that received their diplomas were as follows: William Julius Bunch, Samuel Babo Danley, James Crozier Moore, Mabel Edna Harris, Ruth Brown Prince, but the class for 1917 is much larger. We have no segregation in this city and are satisfied with conditions as far as schools are concerned. Yet sometimes there comes a Moses in our midst that thinks so much of his race that he wants a separate school for us so our people can teach. The last Richmond to show up over here was a cigarette smoker. Now we don't want cigarette smokers to teach our children. They will learn it soon enough. We rather send our children to the schools that are already built than to burden ourselves building Jim Crow schools. The first thing they say is that we want a school modeled after Booker T. Washington. They must forget we have a Throop University and a Poly High and the doors are open day and night for all that care to go. It requires more than an education to be a successful school teacher. We have 21 educational centers within Pasadena district, also night schools, manual training and special studies to all. Night school s a great boon to many who cannot attend during the day, and there are more than seven thousand students in this district and all can go. We have 15 kindergartens, so let our school system alone.

ANCIENT KNIGHTS AND DAUGHTERS OF TABOR CELEBRATE ANNUAL SERMON

This historical order of long standing with Mr. P. E. Alexander as chief grand mentor and the other grand and subordinate officers appeared last Sunday afternoon at Wesley chapel and listened attentively to a most excellent address by Rev. W. J. J. Byers; a paper full of good thought by Mrs. V. Fingers; a piano solo by Miss Hazel Gottschalk; vocal solo, Robt. V. Edwards, and a vivid history of the organization by C. M. P. J. Alexander.

The officers and members with Atty C. Joones as master of ceremonies, made an excellent appearance upon this occasion, demonstrating in every way the healthy and helpful state of the order.

L. G. EGGLESTON AND HIS JUVENILE ORCHESTRA DEMONSTRATE PREPAREDNESS

Last Tuesday Mr. Eggleston, director of the Juvenile orchestra and a company of young boys, who have been under his training for the past few months, appeared at Washington and Central Hall in their initial concert and highly pleased a large and attentive audience.

Those who compose the company and are so fortunate as to have the excellent training that Mr. Eggleston is capable of giving, are: Robert Banks, James Warren, Jessie Alexander, James Brown, Theo Johnson, Robt. Brown, Perry La Mont, Achewood Benjamin, Alexander Kincheen, Theo Jefferson, Aryant Benjamin, A. Whetsel, E. Drake, C. Banks, A. Douglas, J. Houston, E. Wheaton, and Miss Thelma Wheat at the piano.

Since this was the initial concert even greater results may be expected.

The E. 51st street school, Y.P.P. club, will give a grand concert for the benefit of the Second A.M.E. church in the auditorium of the church Monday night, June 26, under the direction of teachers, the Misses Brunington and Maxwell. The admission will be 10 cents. This will be one of the greatest treats of the season, as there are no brighter children in the city, and they have been exceptionally well trained for this occasion by these very efficient teachers of our own race.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue
F. E. Lightner, Minister.

The services on last Sunday were well attended and of unusual interest. The pastor preached at the morning service, Dr. C. H. Duvall at 3 p. m. and Dr. George F. Kenngott at the evening service.

The clubs reporting Sunday night made a creditable showing, some going far beyond the amount asked for. Additional reports will be made next Sunday.

At the regular hour for service on Sunday there will be a program rendered by the Sunday school and a special address to the young people by Prof. Charles Alexander.

There will be preaching at the regular evening service. The usual Christian Endeavor meeting at 7 p. m. Topic, "Life's Purpose." Geo. Baker, leader. A cordial welcome to all these services.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)
Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

The fourth and last quarterly meeting services were held last Sabbath to the edification of all who attended. Presiding Elder Wilson preached two inspiring sermons and there were four accessions to membership. Rev. Morton was a visitor at the evening service. The last quarterly conference was held Tuesday night, and the reports showed the church prosperous and progressive along all lines. Attention will now be turned by the pastor, members and friends to the coming of the annual conference which is scheduled to meet in First church, this city, on the first Wednesday in September, the 6th, and close on Sunday night, September 10th. A summary of the year's church work will be published at that time.

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both sermons tomorrow, Sunday. The public is always welcome. Out-of-town visitors will be sought after by our courteous ushers. Our unexcelled choir will render inspiring song service.

The Men's Co-operative club will hold forth at 3 o'clock Sunday in regular monthly program. Mrs. Malcolm Patton will address the assembly on the subject, "Our Supreme Duty to Our Fellow Man." This is an open meeting for all.

Don't forget the lawn fete Saturday, July 1st, at 1747 New Hampshire street, by Mesdames Holt and Williams.

Woman's day, the fourth Sunday in July. Men's day and Educational day, the second Sunday in August.

Wesley Chapel

These are great days for the churches. The fast of the matter is, all of our churches are feeling the thrill of steady growth and a fine spiritual atmosphere is to be found in God's church. This is as it should be. Wesley chapel is no exception to this rule, and in fact is in the midst of a steady spiritual growth, and with it the Lord is pouring out his blessings in the way of financial aid. The church is a unit for all good things and follows the lead of the pastor in everything that pertains to the advancement of the Kingdom. Last Sunday was a day of information and inspiration. At 11 a. m. the Foreign Missionary society had charge of the services and had as a speaker Mrs. Steward, a returned missionary from China. At 3 p. m. the Knights and Daughters of Tabor crowded the church and were thrilled by a great message from Dr. Byers. The evening service was inspired by a great message from Dr. Reed of Stockton.

The services next Sunday will have the ministry of the pastor at both services; At 11 a. m. Pastor Kinchen will preach on "The Sovereign Quality in World Conquest." At the evening services he will preach on True Preparedness." The No-Note choir will have charge of the services at 3 o'clock p. m. Bro. James Brown in charge.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.
Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Pastor

Last Sunday morning Rev. J. B. Holmes of Hanford preached an able sermon to the delight of all present from the text, "Why Stand Ye Here all the Day Idle?"

The Fisherman's clubs efforts resulted in the neat sum of $43.

Sunday is Connectional Children's day. In the morning the pastor will deliver one of his special sermons on the child and the church, and it is earnestly hoped that the parents of all of the Sunday school children will be present, with their children, to hear this discourse.

Sunday evening the Sunday school will render its Children's day program, and a real treat is in store for all who will attend the exercises. This day has been set apart by the General conference of the A. M. E. Zion church to emphasize the work of education, and the services of Attorney Willis O. Tyler has been secured to deliver the educational address at the close of the children's exercises. Attorny Tyler is one of our most successful negro barristers and a man of extraordinary eloquence and oratorical ability, as all who have heard him will testify.

Be sure and attend the farewell concert Monday evening at the A.M.E. Zion church, given by the famous Rossan family orchestra of musicians and singers, for the benefit of the church.

The Coming of Dr. C. T. Walker Means

Great Religious Revival for Entire West.

PROF. GEO. H. CARR (WHITE) WHO IS CHARGED WITH STATUTORY RAPE BY YOUNG 14 YEAR OLD COLORED GIRL.—NOTWITHSTANDING THE GRAVITY OF CHARGE IS OUT ON THE STREETS ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT BOND. WHO IS TO BLAME? OUR PEOPLE MUST WAKE UP FOR PROTECTION OF HOME AND WOMANHOOD.

A grizzly, silver haired white vocal music teacher by the name of Prof. Geo. H. Carr, who is well known in this city in both white and Colored circles; if the allegations of a fourteen-year-old Colored girl are true, is branded as one of the greatest impositions ever put off on any people. He has specialized in gaining for his pupils our Colored youth, he has ingratiated himself into the confidence of the Colored citizens, appearing on their programs; he has even been entertained at dinners and luncheons at their homes. Now that he has been accused of a statutory offence by the youthful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Albritton, who are among the most respected citizens of this community, the people have held their breath and only speak of the affair in utter disgust, that if true that this wolf in sheep's clothing should have been stalking abroad in this community and picking for his prey the youth of our race. With his thousands of years of civilization he has vulturelike to appease his beastly passion picked for his victim a girl of 14 years of age, but the truth sems to at last be revealed and exposure unhorsed before he has had the opportunity of ruining more homes.

The Following is the Story.

Of the girl, whom this Dr. Jekyll-Mr. Hyde has misused since November last.

"On one occasion when my mother sent me, in company with my younger sister to Mr. Carr's place, he called me aside and whispered thta if I would come to his office the next afternoon at a stated time he would have something nice for me."

Ques. "Did you have any idea what he wanted?" "No," was the innocent reply.

Ques. "Did you go?" "Yes."

Ques. "When you were there what happened?" "He took me in a room o ffrom his office, gave me candy and 25 cents, kissed and caressed me, and fixed the date of next Wednesday when I should come again, charging me all the while not to tell my parents or relations."

Ques. "Have you ever visited his office since that time?" "Yes, every Wednesday on my way from school, when I thought my whereabouts would not be detected by my parents."

"From that time until about four weeks ago when my mother detected that I had been out and regained over time and investigated my behavior and whereabouts on previous occasions.

"I am sorry I deceived my mother. I have a loving, kind mother and my home training and the atmosphere of my home has always been all that a girl could desire. I never would have yielded to Mr. Carr but I did not think that there was any harm in what he said and did because he said there was not."

This is her story, all of it that we can with decency write. The horrible details, of course, are omitted. But a crime has been committed. The 14-year-old girl says that Prof. Carr is the man who is guilty of the crime. Notwithstanding these facts and the fact that he has been arrested and arraigned, he is boldly walking the streets, released by somebody, who we have been unable to learn, ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT ANY BOND, on his own recognizance. The Eagle rises to ask what is the trouble? And to acquaint the public with what's going on. We ask that in the name of justice, the commonest of decency, that the man Carr be treated in the same manner as any other man charged with crime; that he be put under bond the same as any other man charged with crime. Were the parties to this affair reversed, Carr a black man, the girl a white girl, a mob would be howling for his life.

But this man goes on the street without any restraint. We take it as a damnable outrage, and whoever is responsible for it should be held responsible.

It is time that the NEGROES of Los Angeles wake up, the apologizing leadership must be no longer. If we fail to protect society by the failure to prosecute such vampires as this, we fall far short of our duties as citizens.

All citizens, all races, all creeds are with us for justice. The purity of our womanhood must be protected. It looks to us like there is some agency at work to defeat the ends of justice in this case. The people must be on the alert to see that justice prevails.

The case will be called today at 9:30 o'clock in Judge Summerfield's court.

MRS. C. SAFFOLD AND MRS. MARIE BOWEN ENTERTAIN WITH WHIST PARTY.

Last Friday afternoon at their pretty home on Burlington ave., Mrs. Saffold and Mrs. Bowen entertained some out of town friends with a very prettily appointed whist party.

The home was prettily decorated and four tables for whist were laid. Among the out of town guests present were Miss Alma Baynord, Mrs. H. Riddle of St. Louis and Mrs. J. M. Edwards, and about thirty city guests present.

Four prizes were offered, three for the best players and the booby won by the hostess, Mrs. M. Bowen.

Mrs. Riddle was winner of the first prize for meritorious playing, Mrs. A. Watkins, the second, and Mrs. Geo. Sherman the third.

The prizes were, 1st, hand embroidered table cover; 2nd, hand embroidered breakfast cap; 3rd, breakfast set, and 4th, picture of little Colored baby.

A very enjoyable session was spent by those present.

COUNTRY THROBS WITH INTEREST FOR COMING OF GREAT CHAUTAUQUA PROMOTED BY PROVIDENCE INSTITUTIONAL CHURCH AND PASTOR.

It is predicted that the Colored population of this thriving Western country will receive, not only the great spiritual awakening but likewise the greatest educational training in so short a period out of the visit of Drs. Ford and Walker yet enjoyed by them. So wide is the fame of Dr. Walker, as the most eloquent preacher of the age, that already persons who have heard him in the East, as well as those who have never heard this black Spurgeon, are beginning to secure seats for the occasion at the big auditorium at 15th and Central.

The prices have been cut and put in reach of every one. Tickets, regular, 15c; reserved seats, 25c; season tickets, $1.00.

The great chorus of many hundred voices under the direction of Rev. J. T. Hill will furnish music for the Chautauqua.

DR. C. T. WALKER, "The Black Spurgeon."

LAST SATURDAY THE CLEAN GOVERNMENT LEAGUE OF LOS ANGELES IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE MASSACHUSETTS STATE SOCIETY CELEBRATED ANNUAL PICNIC AT SYCAMORE GROVE.

Mayor C. E. Sebastian Present. Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Duvall of National Training School of Pasadena Present.

Unselfishly they met and mingled without regard to race or color. Mayor Sebastian was orator on this occasion, his remarks were limited, but to the point and in them he paved the way for his secretary, Rev. McWilliams, who in eloquent terms pleaded for a universal spirit of brotherhood. Dr. McWilliams declared that the color of a man's skin did not limit his capacity for higher education etc., etc.

There were several representatives from the White Cross Society, among whom were Dr. and Mrs. McNeal. It is understood that the presence of these good people is always felt and deeply appreciated by their host of friends.

Dr. and Mrs. McNeal are the head of the White Cross Society, one of the greatest organizations of this country, and the only one that has opened wide its doors to the Colored American. But recently Dr. C. H. Duvall and wife have been placed at the head of the Colored department in this section, which positions they are amply prepared, out of their big experience to fill.

DR. A. E. FORD, Who Rebuilt and Replenished

THE ERSTWHILE "GRANDFATHER" CLAUSE.

Since the United States Supreme Court, on June 21, defeated the "grandfather" clause, much speculation has been entertained as to the posible effects of the decision.

"Grandfather" Clause.

Briefly stated, the "grandfather" clause meant that the Negro could not register or vote unless his ancestor could vote prior to a specified date, which was generally fixed at the year 1866. Such ancestor was the grandfather of the new Negro voter of today; hence the term "grandfather," as applied to this law. This "grandfather" provision is expressed in various ways in several Southern states.

Oklahoma's Clause.

The Oklahoma constitution expresses the "grandfather" clause as follows:

"No person shall be registered as an elector of this state or be allowed to vote in any election herein unless he shall be able to read and write any section of the constitution of the state of Oklahoma; but no person who was on January 1, 1866, or at any time prior thereto entitled to vote under any form of government or who at any time resided in some foreign nation, and no lineal descendant of such person, shall be denied the right to register and vote because of his inability to so read and write sections of such constitution."

In the 1910 election, two Negroes in Oklahoma were prevented from voting. The election officers enforcing the law were prosecuted and convicted. After several appeals, the cases finally reached the United States Supreme Court, where, for the first time, that court squarely met the issues and decided the entire law above quoted, was unconstitutional.

Maryland's Discrimination.

Various Maryland cities adopted the "grandfather" clause regarding municipal elections. Such a provision was enforced in the city of Annapolis, and authorized the registration, as voters, of all taxpayers of the city, whose property was assessed at not less than $500; all naturalized citizens; all male children of naturalized citizens twenty-one years of age, and all citizens who prior to January 1, 1868, were entitled to vote in the state of Maryland or any other states of the United States at a state election."

Under this law, two registrars of voters, at Annapolis refused to register two Negroes, on the ground that they could not qualify under the ancestor provision of the law. The Negroes sued, and the case finally reached the United States Supreme Court, where, along with the Oklahoma cases, the court decided the "grandfather" clause was unconstitutional.

Other Restrictions.

Various other restrictions are enforced by other Southern states. Chief among such other restrictions is the restriction requiring the individual to be able to read and write and interpret any part of the state or federal constitutions to the satisfaction of the registration officials. It is given that the example already [illegible] to deny the registration; for it is for the registrar to declare when he has been satisfied with the prospective voter's interpretation of the constitution. Most people cannot given even reasonable interpretations of some parts of state or federal constitutions. In fact, the lawyers and judges daily clash, in court, as to the proper interpretations of many constitutional provisions. Other educational qualifications are demanded by some constitutions.

Effect of Decision.

While the effect of the late decision defeating the "grandfather" clause will be far-reaching, yet this effect will not enfranchise the Southern voters appreciably, until they qualify under the other provisions and enforce a fair treatment at the hands of the registration officials. However, the "grandfather" clause was the only insurmountable obstacle in the way of franchise; most of the other requirements of the law could be satisfied if the proper forces were brought to bear in compelling the registrars to give the prospective voter due credit for his merits as to ability to read, write and interpret the constitution.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS TO BE HEARD AT WESLEY CHAPEL MONDAY NIGHT.

These are days of good cheer for the Colored people of Los Angeles. The great Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco is attracting to California a large number of the most representative and distinguished of our people to the Pacific Coast. These people are coming from the great centers of the eastern states and it is our good fortune that Los Angeles proves of as much interest to them as San Francisco.

Los Angeles will welcome next week some of the true leaders of the race. The Los Angeles branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will introduce for the first time in this section of the country, Mrs. B. K. Bruce, widow of the late United States Senator B. K. Bruce, Prof. George W. Cook, of Howard University, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Cook, at Wesley Chapel, together with a musical program. Dr. Kinchen, who is in San Francisco, was instrumental in having these distinguished members of our race visit Los Angeles.

Mrs. Bruce will share honors with Prof. and Mrs. Cook on this occasion. For a number of years Mrs. Bruce has been interested in the promotion of Club work among Colored women, and her address will deal with the progress of Club work; Prof. Cook will tell of the great service rendered the race by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Prof. Cook is a member of the Advisory Board of the organization. It is expected that there will be a great outpouring of our people to hear these speakers. Remember the date, Monday evening, August 2, at 8 o'clock. The admission will be free to all. An offering will be taken for the Los Angeles branch and to cover expenses. Watch for further announcements at the church services.

Mrs. C. C. Lewis Recital at A. M. E. Church a Grand Success.

An oversight made us neglect to mention the recital given by Mrs. C. C. Lewis at the 1st A. M. E. church on Tuesday evening, July 20th.

It was one grand success, and pronounced by all as the best ever rendered in this city. [illegible] was at her best and [illegible] of [illegible] ever rendered.

PASADENA PART

BY S. B. CARR, THE PIONEER SETTLER

Rev. S. E. Edwards of Los Angeles preached at the A. M. E. church sunday, and attorney J. H. Kelly spoke in the evening under the auspices of the brotherhood memorial of the late Bishop H. M. Turner, and those that heard him say tant it was one of the greatest addresses that has been delivered at that church in a long time.

Mr. Dan. H. Boykin will leave for San Francisco next week.

Mrs. W. H. Hicks, Mrs. W. Y. Racsom, Mrs. C. F. Curry and Mrs. Henry Hammonds left tuesday for Oakland, where they will attend the district grand lodge in that city, and after the session is over they will go to San Francisco and visit the fair.

Miss Louise Beavers who graduated from Garfield school this term, will enter the high school this fall. She entertained about 30 of her friends last saturday evening, from 6 to 10, at her home at 432 N. Chester st. The decorations were beautiful. After the games were over refreshments were served. On leaving, many of the smart set were heard to say, Miss Beavers, when will you favor us with another evening, please?

The day nursery at the Metropolitan Baptist will soon be completed in the basement. There will be sloyed and also a plunge. One person has given them three hundred dollars worth of books. They will have a reading room for all. The pastor and members of the church are looking forward for a grand session of the State Baptist association that is to be held in that church on august 18th.

The Ohio club will meet monday evening at Mrs. W. H. Roberts, 951 South Fair Oaks ave. All Ohioans are welcome. Did you ever live there?

The Harriet Tubman club met at Mrs. W. C. Field's Thursday evening, No. 177 South Raymond avenue.

Mrs. Lorena Hunter Martin is the house guest of Mrs. Prof. J. C Moore on S. Sierra Bonita avenue. She was formerly Miss Lorena Hunter. It will be remembered that she kept her marriage a secret or a long time, but the gentleman, A. J. M. Martin, is one of the best young men in Los Angeles and a Christian gentleman, and a member of the Y. M. C. A.

Among the new subscribers are Mrs. S. Wilson and Mr. Henry Hammonds. Mr. Hammond is a G. A. W V, and saw duty around San Juan hill. He was a member of the 8th Pennsylvania, and says he must have The Eagle.

The sad news reaches us telling of the death of mrs. McGrow, the mother of mrs. S. Wilson, of this city. She died at her home at Corona, N. Y., on july 18th, about 20 miles from Brooklyn. Mrs. E. T. F. Williams of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is the house guest of mrs Stricklin, was a personal friend of mrs. McGrow, paid her a visit just before leaving for the West.

Mrs. Wilson gave a luncheon on Friday evening in honor of Mr Williams and a few of her friends the next morning she received a notice telling of the death of her mother. She had the third stroke of paralysis. She was with her daughter at the time of her death. Mrs. Wilson desires to thank her many friends in Pasadena for the kindness shown her by them during her hours of sadness. The Eagle has this to say, we are creatures and He is the Creator. He giveth and He taketh, and blessed is His name.

Attorney H.E. McBeth addressed the brotherhood at Scott chapel sunday evening to a large congregation and the church looked like a flower garden. He was accompanied by Mrs. MacBeth and her mother, Mrs. Dr. E. E. Mayers and a sister of hers, Mrs. Dr. S. LeCount Cook. They lunched at Rev. L. G. Robinson's, on West Stevenson avenue, and those who did not hear this addres missed a great and instructive discourse. He does not use a manuscript for he has it in his head and heart. The brotherhood did a great thing when they secured him to address them. much is due to the effort of Rev. L. G. Robinson, so watch this paper and see when he and Rev. W. W. Lucas will come again. Neither one of them uses manuscript. We want you to hear Dr. McMillin and Dr. Wragg. When they come they will be at Scott chapel.

Mrs. Wadlaw is very ill at this writing at the home of Mrs. Wesley Miller on East Mountain street, and is not expected to live.

Mrs. Wallace, the mother of Mrs. Frank Prince, continues very sick at 319 Kensington place.

Mrs. Holmes is sick at home on South vernon avenue.

Miss Rose Mack of Fort Smith, Ark., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Levi Mills on N. Vernon ave.

The committee met and organized by electing William Prince chairman, Mr. Troy, secretary, J. T. Lang treasurer. Following committees were appointed. committee on transportation, committee on refreshments. committee on entertainment. The success of the picnic was due to the splendid plans of the committees which were carried out like clock work. There were representatives from Watts, Long Beach and Los Angeles.

Captain Scott of the 25th infantry honored the picnic with his presence.

The eloquent pastor of friendship Baptist church, Dr. Riddle, Dr. Dyat the strong preacher and financier of the A. M. E. church, Rev. L. G. Robinson, everybody's friend wearing a perpetual smile, the Samson of the metropolitan Baptist church Rev. Hughes, were seen just as busy as beavers doing their best to make everyone happy.

Those that were present are loud in their demands that we must have another next year.

The union picnic given at Eastlake park last thursday, has been said by many to have been one of the finest affairs ever given by the Pasadena people. The four churches of Pasadena selected five committees from each church to carry out the plans for the union picnic. Committee from first A. M. E. church, messrs. John Wright Harold, I. Prince, Wm. Prince, John Wright, Mrs. Harthern; friendship Baptist, were messrs Van Williams, Wm. Solomon, Troy and fields; Scott chapel, messrs. Walker, Lee, Perry, Danley, jr, miss Gladys harris; metropolitan Baptist, messrs. J. T. Lang, Garner, harris, mrs. margaret Ransom; There were four special cars left the Southern Pacific depot at 9 o'clock arriving at the park before 9:30. many went in carriages and automobiles. A short time was spent in getting acquainted, then dinner was served. For the afternoon a fine program had been arranged, consisting of races and outdoor games, to compete for the forty or more prizes that had been secured by mrs. John Wright and her committee. After the games were over the committee served ice cream to more than five hundred school children and their teachers and parents. The merry-go-round proved to be an attraction to many of the smaller children and old people, while boating was the main attraction for the young ladies and young men.

RESOLVED, That we the brotherhood of Scott chapel of Pasadena, Cal., do hereby extend our deepest condolence to our beloved brother, attorney H. E. and Mrs. MacBeth, the grief stricken parents of little Emma their daughter and only child, who met her sad death on the 5th day of july 1915. And be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded The Eagle and the New Age, respectively, newspapers of Los Angeles, California, for publication.

PROCLAMATION

Convening the Thirty-First Annual Session of District Grand Lodge No. 32, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows.

To the Lodges, Members and Delegates constituting the Jurisdiction of Thirty-second District of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows in America.

Proclamation: Under the laws of our beneficent order, and in obedience to the duties devolving upon me, and pursuant to a resolution adopted at the last session of this District Grand Lodge, I, J. Soares, District Grand Master of the aforesaid District, hereby proclaim Oakland, California, as the place, and Tuesday, August 3rd, 1915, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. of said day, as the time upon which the duly elected and qualified Delegates from the several lodges, and all life members comprising this Thirty-second District, shall assemble for the transaction of all such business as may properly come before said delegates and life members in District Grand Lodge assembled.

In view of the many important maters to come before this session, I feel it incumbent upon me to urge upon the several lodges the prime necessity of being represented by delegates; and to impress upon the life members the importance of their presence at this coming session of our District Grand Lodge.

In addition to the great volume of business that will be transacted the good people of Oakland are preparing to give the delegates and visitors a delightful and most enjoyable time, one that will not soon be forgotten.

In F., L. and T.,
J. SOARES,
District Grand Master.

Attest:

Ocean View lodge K. of P. are proud to acknowledge a visit from the vice grand chancellor of the state, Sir Knight Joe Bridges, who helped us wonderfully in our initiation work, assisted by members from his own lodge.

Mrs. J. Allen Reese is spending a few days in the city of angels with her sister-in-law.

On last sunday club no. 3 of the first naptist church, of which Mrs. May Dudley is captain, had their rally and as a result of same $41 was realized. Rev. T. J. Hill and his people were down to aid us. The Rev. preached an able sermon as usual. The Virginia club, of which Mrs. Dudley is a member was also well represented.

Messrs. Willie and Charles Tabor made a trip to Santa Barbara, stopping at Oxnard en route. They used their motorcycle and claim an excellent and interesting trip.

Mrs. Nichols opened her doors to the friends of Miss Ruby Tabor when the latter gave an entertainment for the benefit of club No. 1 on friday of last week.

Mr. Richard Doolin, a newly wed and also poet trainer of Sam Langford, used his pugilistic ability to a splendid advantage when a "visiting elk" improperly approached his wife. When Doolin saw that blows should be passed, he sent a right to the jaw with telling effect. His opponent fell to the sidewalk, and when awakened he was a wiser but weaker man. Two of his friends endeavored to subdue Mr. Doolin, but to no avail; one blow each to these two aggressors sent them to their knees, while Mr. Doolin escorted his wife from the scene.

On last sunday Venetians had in miniature a view of what is daily costing Europe hundreds of lives. The Universal Film Co. staged a sham battle on the ocean front, costing $10,000. During the staging of same three men were seriously burned with powder, one person being a Negro.

Many people from the bay district took advantage of the picnic at Eastlake park on friday, july 30.

Mt. Zion Church Notes.

Sunday morning will be Family Day. All the members of the church are not only invited but urgently requested to be present with every member of the family. This is the home coming of all Zionists. Splendid singing, and a strong sermon by the pastor, "The Popular Christ."

Afternoon 5 p.m., covenant and communion. Individual service.

At the evening service there will be a 30 minute sermon, supported by some of the best music that is possible to be had in the city.

Rev. C. H. Anderson, Pastor, 1823 Paloma Ave.

Sunday morning july 25th there was a large congregation at the New Hope Baptist church to hear our Rev. A. Lively, pastor of the 1st Baptist church of Venice. Rev. Lively is no stranger to us, because he grew up with us and we are proud of him. Rev. Lively took for his subject, "Therefor if any man be in Christ he is a new creature." At the evening service our assistant pastor Howard Folks preached a most interesting sermon. Next sunday, august 1st, at the morning service there will be covenant meeting; at the evening service the assistant pastor will occupy the pulpit, after which the Lord's supper will be celebrated. All members and friends cordially invited.

On august 8th our pastor, Rev. C. H. Anderson will return; a special program is being prepared for this service.

The entertainment given by the Christian Aid society last thursday night was a grand success. The program was good, each number was well rendered. after which all enjoyed the refreshments that were provided.

The pastor filled the pulpit in the morning and had as his text, Gglt 4-19.

We had quite a large number of visitors, members and friends of the B. Y. P. U. The lesson was read by Mrs. Drake, after which we listened to a most excellent program. A recitation by Mrs. mollis and the solo by Miss Minnie Albritton were both very beautiful, while Miss Faucett who always recites well was worthy of commendation.

Lines to the Negro Student.

BY EVA CARTER BUCKNER.

Oh, youth! Oh, maid of sable hue!
The world has much for you to do;
Step firmer when you feel alone,
With head erect and stiff backbone,
Stay in the march of rapid stride
And know He's ever at your side.

Too sensitive ah, do not be,
Ignore half what you really see;
The blight, the scorn you may receive
Is not from noble hearts, believe—
The altruism in your heart
Is there for you to act your part.

Go on and up, and in your flight
Strive hard to reach the dizzy height,
But when you think the goal you've won
Know you, your school has just begun;
Yet in your march, where e're you be,
You're not alone though seemingly.

"AMERICA'S GREATEST PROBLEM OF THE NEGRO"

Three Students of the Subject View the Racial Question from Different Angles and Offer Suggestions for Its Solution.

America's Greatest Problem: The Negro. By R. W. Shufeldt, M. D. Illustrated. Philadelphia. F. A. Davis Company. $2.50.

The Education of the Negro Prior to 1861. By Carter Du Bois Woodson, Ph. D. New York. G. P. Putnam's Sons. $2.00.

The Negro. By W. E. Burghardt Du Bois, Ph. D. Home University Library. New York: Henry Holt & Co. 50 cents.

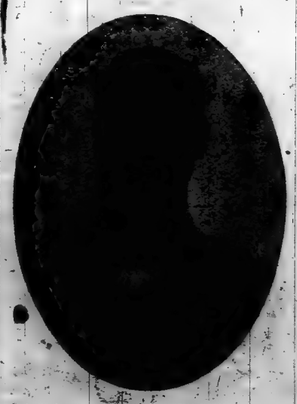
Of these three books on the Negro Dr. Shufeldt's is the least satisfactory, but it shall be discussed first because the others refute some of its sensational statements. It has the merit of sincerity, and it is not without substance, but its violence and prejudice destroy its value. The defect of its judgments is seen in statements such as this: "Men like Booker T. Washington and W. E. B. Du Bois are traitors to their race in this country, and are the worst enemies the Negroes in the United States have today."

According to this author the full-bloded negro in this country has never "contributed a single line to literature worth the printing; a single cog in the machine of invention; an idea to any science, or, in short, advanced civilization a single millimeter since the first Congo pair was placed on this soil." A large portion of the book is devoted to trying to prove scientifically that all Negroes come of cannibal stock, that they are hopelessly sensual, subject to "sex madness," and incapable of improvement. "It is impossible to improve the morals of a people when they have no morals to improve" is one of his comments. Burke once said that one cannot indict a whole nation, but Dr. Shufeldt would indict a whole race.

The deplorable situation in parts of the South, of course, with the daily terror that it imposes on white women, is discussed at length. The problem is there, and grave enough it is, but it requires a different treatment from that given it by an author who can see nothing but a "seething mass of black bestiality." Dr. Shufeldt asserts that miscegenation is going on in our cities through the lower-class whites, and he jumps at the conclusion that because there is some white blood in 4,000,000 of the 10,000,000 Negroes in the United States the whole Negro population is going to be absorbed into the white race to our lasting degradation. Our only salvation, he believes, is in "complete and thorough separation" of the two races, and he therefore urges, "the enactment of a Federal law to the effect that all Negroes and descendants of Negroes within the boundaries of the United States of America shall leave this country for all time within ten years after the passage of said law."

Dr. Shufeldt would send them to the Philippines, South America, Mexico, the West Indies and Haiti, and he says we could well afford to spend $150,000,000 on the work. He thinks such a law would "entail no hardship whatever," but he would hardly take the same view if the people to be expatriated were white. The book is so intemperate and unjust that it defeats its own ends.

Dr. Woodson's "The Education of the Negro Prior to 1861" is a dispassionate monograph, done in the modern scientific spirit, to show the persistent strivings of slaves to learn to read and write. It covers a chapter of American history hitherto almost untouched. Dr. Woodson has gathered his facts from innumerable sources and assembled them in an orderly mosaic. His method involves a good deal of repetition, but it leaves no room to question the soundness of his conclusions.



This book recalls the half-forgotten fact that in the beginning the Negro slaves were taught to read and write as freely as they were taught Christianity. That epoch continued until about 1835, and it produced some brainy persons of color, such as Phyllis Wheatley, the poet, and Benjamin Banneker, who, in 1770, made the first clock manufactured in the United States. Another instance is that of James Durham, who spoke French and Spanish fluently, as well as English, and was a distinguished New Orleans physician. The noted Dr. Benjamin Rush of Philadelphia once deigned to converse with him professionally and afterward confessed: "I learned more from him than he could expect from me." Dr. Woodson also tells of a native African who had amazing powers as a mathematician. Many such instances controvert Dr. Shufeldt's sweeping negatives.

About 1835, however, the dark age set in, when it became a crime for a Negro to teach his own children to read and write. The coming of the cotton gin and other modern machinery, coupled with an increasing fear of Negro insurrections, caused the slave barons to enact stringent laws forbidding the education of Negroes. Dr. Woodson's chapter on "The Reaction" sounds almost incredible, but it is well-authenticated American history.

The policy of keeping the slaves in complete ignorance soon had a deteriorating effect on their minds and characters, and the more thoughtful whites tried to overcome this by teaching them "religion without letters," but even such enlightenment often brought persecution to the teachers. A chapter entitled "Learning in Spite of Oppositions" tells of secret struggles to overcome these obstacles—with pathetically meagre results.

The thirteen chapters of this book cover all the main phases of ante-bellum attempts at Negro education in the North as well as in the South. It is a thorough and intelligent study, with just enough sympathetic spirit to humanize its array of well-ordered facts.

SAN DIEGO NEWS.

A few noted turf men are stationed at Tia Juana, among whom are Ed Jackson, Lexington, Kent.; Joe Woodson, Butte, Mont., and Mathias Belt, Oklahoma.

Dan Cole, beau Brummel of San Diego, is cutting many dashes in the city and still playing the part of a count looking for a widow with lots of money to choose him. We advise him to hasten on the war.

The Messrs. Ramseys have relinquished their concession at the Tia Juana race track, which gives relief to San Diego's beautiful maid who was in charge of the ladies' rest room. We learn that Mr. Jones, assisted by his wife, has taken over the concession.

Otto J. Bennett, chef of Santa Fe private car No. 10 of Topeka, Kan., is in San Diego taking in the Pacific coast.

We notice J. C. Kinzy, Santa Fe private car No. 414, while in the city called at the Eagle office and said that he was very proud of such a Race paper on the coast.

Mrs. Willie Isam and son, William Isam, jr., left Los Angeles for their home in Needles a few days ago, where Mr. Isam is a machinist in the employ of the Santa Fe shops.

The many friends of Mrs. Ethel Stancel will be sorry to learn that she is still on the sick list.

Quite a number of our sailors on the sealing ship Mary were highly entertained by some of San Diego's young ladies before their departure to the Mexican border.

Miss Josie Colwell of Los Angeles is having a delightful time whilst in our city.

Chef at the Guyamaca Club, San Diego.—W. A. Granger, formerly of San Francisco, is the chef in charge of this very exclusive club in the Exposition city. He is ably assisted by Mrs. Granger, and the dining room is manned by J. Comas and C. H. King, with J. T. Donegan as head waiter. This force is making an enviable record here at the club, and is deserving of especial praise for the efforts along this line. Mr. Granger entertained the Eagle staff, the same being highly appreciated.

See the young men at their best at I. M. A. Hall, Monday, July 3rd. Don't miss this. Under direction Lonnie Butler.

PRESIDENT'S CALL

President J. ALLEN REECE

Venice, Cal., June 6, 1916.

To the Unions of the Baptist Young Peoples' Union Concention of Southern California.

Greetings: The unerring hand of a Most Holy Father has brought us upon the threshold of another session of our Convention and it is my pleasure to state that the sessions will be held at New Hope Baptist church, San Bernardino, Cal., on July 6 and 7, 1916.

These are to be epoch making sessions for more than one reason and one of the paramount features will be the daily lectures to the Convention by Rev. G. W. Reed, who has won for himself an enviable reputation as a specialist in young peoples religious work.

Bear in mind that our Convention Constitution allows one delegate for each twenty members or fraction thereof; and each delegate will be charged at the rate of fifteen cents per meal while at the Convention. The latter is a new law enacted at our Pasadena session in 1915.

The Santa Fe Railroad has granted us a rate of one and one-third fare provided we can show fifty certificates, therefore when purchasing your ticket for San Bernardino all delegates and friends traveling from all points and on all railroads are asked to be sure and secure a certificate from your agent with your ticket and present the certificate to the Secretary at the Convention.

Do not forget that the per capita of ten cents per member is also due at the Convention. All Unions that have not paid one-half of same to the Executive Board will pay in full at the Convention and those that have made one-half settlement will pay the balance due.

Asking the Masters benediction upon you as a Union, and asking that you pray fervently that this may be a session in which great things will be done for the uplift of the Kingdom of God.

We are yours for the Cause,

B. Y. P. U. Convention of So. California.

S. P. Johnson, President.

J. Allen Reese, Cor. Secretary.

AT THE SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday was a big day at the Second Baptist church, Rev. Mr. J. L. Allen, president of the State Conveniton, preached an excellent sermon, he taking for his text "The Sermon on the Mount," and as he repeated the great sermon that Jesus himself preached, he stirred the hearts of all his hearers so much that many amens were heard. He did not fail to impress upon his hearers the importance of being contented in whatever lot they found themselves, if earnestly engaged in the work of the Master.

At the close of his splendid sermon Rev. H. D. Prowd, pastor of the church, made an earnest plea to the unsaved, as well as to those who were Christians and have no church home, and as a result of the great sermon that was delivered, and the earnest plea made by Dr. Prowd added nine souls to the church, three of which were converted during the services.

In the Afternoon

At 3:00 p.m. the church together with a number of friends, and all the leading ministers of the city, assembled for the purpose of conferring the honor of Ordinatio nto the Gospel Ministry, upon Bro. John H. Eldridge, a licensed minister, and a member of the Second Baptist church, the services were indeed impressive, the program being as follows:

1. Procesional .....Choir
2. Invocation..Rev. J. D. Gor
2. Invocation.....
.....Rev. J. D. Gordon
3. The Lord's Prayer.....
.....Church Choir
4. Lesson..Rev. W. H. Rosier
6. Prayer....Rev. F. H. Davis
7. Hymn .....
..Choir and Congregation
8. Sermon.Rev. W. H. Tillman
9. Hymn .....Choir
10. Ordination Prayer ....
.....Rev. J. L. Allen
11. Charge to Candidate...
.....Rev. J. H. Morgan
12. Presentation of Holy Bible
.....Rev. H. D. Prowd
13. Hand of Fellowship....
.....Rev. F. W. Cooper
14. Benediction .....
....Rev. J. A. H. Eldridge

As organizer of the Colored Citizens' Civic League I desire to state that this League was not effected for the purpose of endorsing any particular candidate or party. It is strictly American in idea and ideal and fundamentally it knows no clique with any intention other than that of affiliating with men and issues that tend towards uplift and the true principle of American citizenship.

(Signed) R. G. LAMAR.

A GREAT GAME PROMISED

The long looked for match game between the L. A. White Sox and the Hogee Giants will take place at Seal Gardens Sunday for a purse of $200.00. This promises to be a battle royal, much interest is mnaifested by the friends of the two teams, and it goes without saying Sunday will break all previous records for attendance.

Colored Moving Picture Manufacturing Establishment Launched

The Lincoln Motion Picture Company of Los Angeles, Cal., 1215 Tennessee street, owned and operated by Negroes, is now producing motion pictures acted by Negro talent.

The company is entering this field with a firm determination to picture the Negro as he is in his every day life, a human being with human inclination, and one of talent and intellect.

This enterprise should receive the hearty support of the Race because it will be a means of opening a big field of employment to the Colored people.

The company has just completed a two part drama entitled "Realization of a Negro's Ambition." It is well acted by a Negro cast. Mr. Noble M. Johnson, the author, playing the leading part.

The parts are played by local talent and locations were of prominent business men's homes of the city.

Through the courtesy of Dr. Gordon and in the effort to secure a number of real lawn party scenes, the Lincoln Motion Picture Company was host to a lawn party given last Sunday afternoon at the residence of Dr. Gordon, Paloma and Washington sts. A great number of the younger set was present and enjoyed immensely their initiation into the movies and the abundance of refreshments.

"Relization of a Negro's Ambition" will first be shown in Los Angeles at an early date. Announcement later.

Los Angeles, the home and heart of the motion picture industry, with its wealth of sunshine and natural scenery, fitted for any clime or county, has given birth to an absolutely new enterprise—the motion picture business.

Realizing the need of a company to produc epictures to portray real life, the interests, ambitions, enterprises, talent, misfortunes and successes of the Negro today, a few local colored citizens formed a company for that purpose.

The fact alone should be a credit to our people of Los Angeles and of vital interest to the race in general.

Creating a demand for our people and giving an opportunity to develop the talent about in professional and business capacity.

Mr. Noble M. Johnson is also author of "The Indiana Lament," a three reel drama produced by the Universal Co., Mr. Johnson playing a leading part.

HAIL RESOLUTE NATION

Eva Carter Buckner.

Hail, resolute nation,
Proud land of the free!
Old Glory so gracefully waving
O'er thee;
Our immortal heroes
The noble, the brave,
So gallantly sought that
It ever should wave.

We'll stand for the right
With our watch-word to cheer,
With God and our flag
There is nothing to fear!
The echo resounds, 'tis so
Sweet to the ear.
With God and our flag
There is nothing to fear.

With love for humanity
Justice for all
Our symbolic beauty
Says we cannot fall
For each is ready
And ever will be
To answer the call of the "Flag of the Free."

May tyranny, greed, our
Dear nation ne'er mar,
Delusively leading
Our peopel to war.
Destroying our youth
Hope of bright future years,
And drenching our homeland
With blood and with tears.

Our glorious past urges
On to success.
Inspiring is all in this
Age of progress,
Oh! may we grow stronger
As each year enrolls,
And firmer and ready
At duty unfolds.

A Philosophic Study

And Literary Digest of the All-American League's

H. DOUGLAS GREER

The power to perceive and grasp the truth seems to be overshadowed by other forces such as self-interest of the nation or individual, so that the vision is confined only to those things which conveniently fit in with the prejudice of the moment.

Modern Convenience

Convenience is too often made the arbiter of general rules. In all states of society that are dominated by convenience, equitable considerations are associated with dreams of the night rather than with the thoughts, words and deeds of the day. Consequently, much truth lies hidden between the layers of convenience with which our modern civilization is enamored, and many burdens of iniquity are uselessly continued. The truth may not always be pleasing, but it is for your soul's health that you should hear it.

Truth

Experience gathers truth upon every field of life. There is but one truth, and all that is gathered is part of the one, and, therefore all experience leads to an affinity of knowledge. The All-American League must come through the path of experience and be associated with that "justice and truth" that "goeth before the throne." The lack of justice and truth leads to the absence of mercy and grace.

American Civilization

American civilization cannot blind the eyes of the idealist. The basic construction of this new civilization, so much prated, is being speedily undone by the childish efforts of those who think themselves wholly civilized and fully capable of dealing with cismic and ethnic complications. Civilization is a brazen god with feet of clay, and the civilized have run riot in their vanity during the absence of the law-giver, who has apparently betaken himself to the mountain of quiet contemplation that he may be far removed from the huddle and muddle, which the fools have drawn from his philosophic ideals.

Some day the prophet of civilization may return and the golden calf of the civilized will then be broken, powdered, and cast upon the waters of understanding to be consumed by those who have engaged in the idolatrous worship of the new golden calf.

Pious Impunity of Civilization

The necessity of civilizing the uncivilized covers a multitude of sins; and the privileges of civilization in the matter of lynching, murder, exploitation, debauchery, loot and misgovernment are too important to be lightly surrendered. "The virtue that requires to be guarded is scarce worth the sentinel." The virtues of civilization need not be virtuously regarded as one is civilized; with Negroes, well, yes, there is a difference: Negroes should not be allowed to assimilate as much civilization as other privileged members of society.

This feigned civilization has over-eaten itself, and has passed along to its progeny a disease that is congenital. Many specialists have endeavored to correctly diagnose this disease.

MRS. CARRIE ESTELLA MARTIN ANSWERS THE DEATH SUMMONS

Funeral Services Held at the First A. M. E. Church, 8th and Towne Avenue

Friday afternoon, 2:30, the funeral of Mrs. Carrie Estella Martin, wife of William L. Martin, was conducted by Rev. J. L. Craw. This eulogy, delivered by Dr. Craw, was marked with sympathy, pathos and spiritual power. Rev. W. J. J. Byers, pastor of the First A. M. E. Zion church, assisted Rev. Craw in the services, reading the eulogy, resolutions and expressing a condolence to the bereaved family and friends of the deceased. At the opening of the services, the choir sang, "Nearer My God to Thee," Scripture reading by Rev. Craw; the choir then sang, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus;" resolutions and the obituary were then read by Rev. Byers, after which the choir sang, "We Shall Meet." Rev. Craw then delivered his touching sermon eulogizing the Christian career of Mrs. Martin. At the closing of the sermon the choir sang, "Come Thou Disconsolate." Special remarks of condolence were the made by Rev. Byers.

The Funeral Director, Mr. Fred Roberts, then took charge of the remains, and the order of the Funeral Procession was as follows:

Occupants of Auto Cars, Etc.

Car No. 1—Pallbearers: J. Thos. Norris, J. M. Busby, T. A. Green, J. P. George, A. J. Champion, E. D. Goodlow.

Car No. 2—Rev. J. Logan Craw, Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Mrs. F. Tolbert, Mrs. J. Logan Craw, Mrs. W. J. J. Byers, Mrs. Parkson.

Car No. 3—Hearse with Remains.

Car No. 4—Relatives and friends: Wm. Luther Martin, Mrs. A. J. Champion, Mrs. D. D. Bonds, Willie Jacob, Mrs. E. D. Goodlow, Mr. J. T. Saudusky.

Car No. 5—Deaconess Board of the Church: Mrs. A. Stewart, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Commo, Mrs. Hickmon, Mrs. Biggers, Mrs. Ausley.

Car No. 6—Mrs. A. Miller, Mrs. Moulton, Mrs. W. C. Gardner, Mrs. Carrie Cooper, Mrs. J. J. H. Parker, Mrs. Y. C. Cox.

For other friends a sperial Funeral Car was stationed at 8th and San Pedro streets. Space was made for every one who cared t oattend. Not a stone left unturned.

Obituary of Mrs. Carrie Estella Martin

The subject of this sketch was born Feb. 1, 1879, in the city of Pine Bluff, state of Arkansas. It was here that she received a common school education, and lived until April 3, 1907. Having made acquaintance with Mr. William Luther Martin before he left that state and after a long correspondence, upon his request she came to California, arriving here, April 8th, 1907, and on that date, was happily married to Mr. Martin. The marriage ceremonies being performed by the Rev. Obrient, who then pastored the Wesley Chapel M. E. church.

Their union proved a great blessing, results of which they have accumulated a nice home and much material progress. Notwithstanding, her health has been bad ever since she arrived in this state.

She was converted at the age of ten, and joined Gethsemane Baptist church; there she lived a consistent Christian, being highly esteemed and respected for her Christian integrity and for the Lord's cause, though by a child.

Upon her marriage to her survived husband, he being a member of the A. M. E. connection, she with him joined the First A. M. E. church of this city, and in this church she lived a consistent Christian until her death.

She was a devoted wife, a true mother and trusted friend. She was a long and patient sufferer, having been in poor health, a period covering more than seven years, three of which she was unable to do her own work. She bore her illness with the greatest of patience, never complaining but putting her whole trust in the Lord.

For 27 years she was a Christian soldier, and fought in the battle for the Lord until her death. She often expressed herself as not only being willing to die, but ready to die. She kept the faith unto the end, surely there is laid up for her a crown of righteousness which she will receive at that great day.

For consolation, she often asked her husband to read for her the Twenty-third Psalm and the account of Job's suffering, which her husband did with the greatest of pleasure.

Monday last, she testified in the presence of her pastor, and the Rev. Byers of the A. M. E. Zion church. She said that she was ready and only waiting on the coming of the Savior.

Among her last words were words of advice and counsel to her son. She begged him not to stray from her training, to be obedient to his Father, live a consistent Christian, be loyal to his church and be a good citizen.

Expressing her belief that her husband had done his full duty, and that he could do no more. Often he would call the doctor when she would beg him not. She knew the end was near, she asked him to meet her in heaven, for that was where she would soon take flight. Tuesday morning, June 20th, about 2:45 a. m., she asked her husband for a drink of water, which she received at his hand. She then prayed for the Lord to come and take her out of her suffering, which He did. The end came Tuesday, June 20, 1916, at 8:20 p. m. She died as she had lived in the full triumph of faith. She leaves to mourn her demise a husband, son and a host of relatives and friends.

Peace to her ashes and rest to her soul.

The President of Biggers' Business College and Students Beg to Submit the Following Resolutions in Behalf of Wm. L. Martin, Husband of the Deceased, and Student of the Said Institution.

Whereas, In the course of human events, it has pleased the Almighty God to call from labor to reward the dearly beloved wife of Mr. Wm. L. Martin, and

Whereas, This dearly deceased companion has answered to the death summons of Him who doeth all things well, and

Whereas, We, in Christ, as brothers and sisters of the dear Mrs. Martin, whose Christian life prepared her for the summons of the death angel, knowing that we should submit to that which is inevitable and that we must bow to the will of the Omnipotent, be it

Resolved, That it remains to us, a duty to express our sadness in the loss of our sister, Mrs. Martin, and that a solemn and sympathetic duty is hereby involved upon us as Christian and social friends and co-workers of Mr. Wm. L. Martin, to express words of condolence that may, in the hour of his bereavement, eliminate some sorrow of his mind or that may dispell a gloom that may lurk in his soul.

We, therefore, plead to him to consider that in the destined way of life, it was doubtless the pleasure of Providence to pluck from his side, the blooming flower of his home, to shed the fragrance of a sweet disposition in the land of the angels, where a fonder appreciation of the pure gems of human nature, finds its favor, than here in a world of woes, mingled with sin and sorrow.

Then, to Mr. Martin and son and sorrowing friends, we beg your consideration that God's will be done; and we sight you to the Savior—He will comfort those who mourn.

May God bless your desires, and make stronger your intent to see that saint and others who have taken their abode in the Haven of Rest.

Yours in sympathy,
BIGGERS' BUSINESS COLLEGE.

Card of Thanks

To the many friends who were constantly attentive to my dear wife during her long illness and who by their words of comfort and sympathy and by their many and magnificent floral offerings made her passing less hard to bear; to Rev. J. Logan Craw, pastor of the First A. M. E. church of which she was a member, and through him to the loyal members of the church who were so interested in my wife's welfare. To the Rev. W. J. J. Byers, of the First A. M. E. Zion church, who assisted the pastor in conducting the funeral services, and members of his congregation who were so loyal and helpful; to her close friends of the Second Baptist church (Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert) and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Champion, and to all who were so wonderfull helpful, I wish to extend my sincere and heartfelt thanks.

William Luther Martin,
2327 Hunter Street.

Everybody is going to the cycle of pleasure beginning at 2 o'clock this afternoon and continuing until 11 o'clock tonight. Take Washington street car, get off at New Hampshire and go to house number 1747.

THIS IN LOS ANGELES TOO

Please admit me to speak through your columns of an injustice, humiliating, ignorant act accorded me, a citizen and taxpayer of the State and also of the city, in one shoe store located near the corner of fourth and Spring street, known as the Walk Over Shoe Store.

As I walked in the above store mentioned, at two o'clock, p.m., June the eighth, I stood up for a few minutes, and no one seemed to notice me. I decided to sit down, seemingly all was a little busy. I thought they would see me soon as I waited patiently. I noticed a fat fellow would look out of the corner of his eye at me once in a while, just as if I had stolen part of his earnings and came back to steal the balance which was left. Pretty soon a white gentleman walked in, and one of the clerks jumped to his feet, met the gentleman and asked him what would he have or what could he do for him. He said, "well you seem to be busy, so I will come back later." The clerk replied "no, I am not very busy—I can wait on you now." Well, I'll come back, responded the gentleman, so he left. This clerk walked by me, and never even looked at me. I could then see that I wasn't wanted there. I looked at my watch and discovered that I had been in that prejudiced, scornful, ignorant place fifteen minutes, and to make me feel the insult more forceful, when I got up and walked out, not a man asked me what I would have. I quietly walked out.

Now, Mr. Editor, will you please explain to me and the public what causes all of this ignorant prejudiced cold treatment in this civilized America.

D. C. CLEMONS,
1844 East 52nd street.

Editors Note: Prejudice is the cause, it is a disease and sooner or later will overwhelm those who are stricken with the complaint; it is the bane of the nation and the one thing that stands like a stone wall against progress. We will, however, take this matter up and look into it and the cause therefor.

SUNDAY AT THE FORUM

Last Sunday was election day for the Forum. The candidates for president were J. W. Coleman, T. Norris and J. Stevens, the man in the chair. After having been nominated Mr. Norris withdrew from the race, and Mr. J. W. Coleman received a much larger vote than last year, but Mr. Stevens on account of the excellent services rendered during the past years was finally unanimously declared amidst a shower of applause, president of the forum. Other officers were reelected, and the question of segregation of schools for white and colored was the order of business for the afternoon.

It is needless to say that a heated discussion against segregation lasted for about half an hour, the result of which was the appointment of a committee of three to wait upon the Baptist Ministers Union, and ascertain the true steps that were reported as being taken up by that body in favor of segregation.

The Negro journals in this city that have weathered the storms of adversity were present and are present and ready upon all occasions to do whatever they may to further and better the "interest" of our people.

F. H. MOUSER FOR ASSEMBLYMAN FROM THE 74TH DISTRICT

From those who have kept tab and who know, it is said that Assemblyman Mouser has made one of the best records as a member of the legislature of all the members of that body for the past four years, and in announcing his candidacy it is his desire to even improve on that record for the next term, feeling thusly he announces his candidacy to succeed himself, and since the amalgamation of Progressives and Republicans he is running simply as a straight Republican, last campaign he was nominted on both the Republican and Progressive tickets.

Mr. Mouser has demonstrated all through his public career a strong friendship for his Colored constituents and even his enemies cannot help but say that he has always stood for them and gave and helped them in gaining political recognition. And for this and many other equally as important reasons Mr. Mouser will without doubt receive from this people a strong support. And if nominated and elected will no doubt keep up the good work.

POLITICAL POT PIE

It is all Republican party now and there should be no flaunting of rays of the past but a solid phalanx for the success of Republicanism.

W. H. Jennings, who will make the race for the Republican nomination for Congress in the 9th District, sizes up in every way as a man big enough for the job and no doubt will receive a strong support from all classes.

E. J. Delorey, the village blacksmith, is gaining strength every day in the race for supervisor for the 4th Supervisorial District. He has a strong following among the masses and as the approaches for the primaries, he is looked upon as one of the best to win.

Mark Jones seems to be a prime favorite with the Colored voter sof the second District, this comes from his known friendship when he was a County official, and the confidence that the plain common people have in him for a square deal for all.

The 74th Assembly District is a seething cauldon in things political, this district takes in the black belt of Los Angeles and therefore the colored vote is quite a factor in deciding "who is who."

The following are those who have so far taken out nomination papers for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman from the 74th District: F. H. Mouser, present incumbent, E. T. Hubbard, Wm. Greenwood, and L. C. Luke.

Thomas Lee Woolwine for district attorney is taking no chances, but is thoroughly organizing his force for re-election.

A SAD COMMENTARY INDEED

The weights on our political progress in this city at this time are very much in evidence, the grafter, the bum, soak and vagrant, leeches on the body politic are in the heydey of their glory, as they proceed on their endless march from candidate to candidate, from headquarters to headquarters seeking money for their influence. The Eagle is at a loss for words to condemn this practice as the most debasing, pernicious and damnable that has ever been allowed to obtain in any community. And the seeker for public office that encourages this condition is as much to be condemned as this class that seeks it. If they would only stop and put two and two together, what good can men of this character do them, the masses of the people have nothing in common with this element. These parasites as it were are not the sort of men who have the respect and the confidence of the public, they neither sow nor do they reap.

The political bum and parasite are the weights that will pull down the Race, and the candidate that gives them succor.

THOMAS LEE WOOLWINE FOR RE-ELECTION AS DISTRICT ATTORNEY

The Eagle is authorized to announce the candidacy of Thomas Lee Woolwine for re-election to a second term as district attorney of Los Angeles county.

Mr. Woolwine has made an enviable record as district attorney and on his record he appeals to the people for their suffrage.

The great masses of our citizenship have had in Mr. Woolwine a man who at all times has stood for a square deal for all and they will give to him a strong support for re-election.

No better nor loftier sentiment could be expressed than the following by Mr. Woolwine:

"My paramount desire had been to find some way by which the poor and oppressed may have the same opportunity, the same even break, at the bar of justice, with the rich and powerful."

This is truly the character, and such men as this the people could pay themselves no higher compliment than rendering to them their support.

EVERETT, WASH., NOTES

The Everett Benevolent and Social Club received a letter of thanks from the secretary of the Booker T. Washington Monument Committee for its contribution. Though small in numbers they have an Eagle's eye on work for the race progress. Mrs. Jno. Samuels is the president.

Rev. Allen R. Little, herb specialist, is meeting with great success in our midst.

Mr. W. Samuels and Geo. Norwood are two of the leading young men of Everett; this is Leap Year, too.

Will Davis, our accomplished pianist, donates his service to the A. M. E. church.

Mr. and Mrs. Lassites, who is in charge of the Colby building, have rented their beautiful home and are living in the civic center.

More than 5 per cent of the colored people of Everett own real estate.

MRS. VAN WILLIAMS.

Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth, president of the All-American League, addressed the congregation of the First Congregational church on South Hope street near 9th, Rev. William Horace Day, D.D., pastor, Sunday evening, June 25th. President Macbeth's subject was "Christian Americanism." At the close of the address, Dr. Day in speaking to his congregation said, "Brethren, Ethiopia is even now stretching forth her hands unto God. We of the white race have to thank our Colored brethren for a new vision of our citizenship."

On Tuesday evening, July 11th at Blanchard hall will appear a double quartette of young ladies assisting the wonderful girl pianist. Their numbers must be heard to be appreciated. Little Velma White will appear in song written by our own Negro composer, Mr. J. H. Cuffee. We are glad to note that little George Gatliff will give the audience a reading. All of these for your enjoyment aside from the master numbers by the wonderful girl pianist. Admission, 25 and 35 cents. The program will begin on time, 8:15 sharp.

GRAND OPENING OF THE THE ANGELUS

Through the enterprise of Messrs. J. W. Gordon and F. A. Williams, portably the finest and best appointed show house conducted by Colored people in the entire United States, will be thrown open to the public on next Tuesday evening, July the 4th. The new Angelus theare has been especially built for these gentlemen, who are and have been operating the Angelus theatre for the past three months. The new house is located immediately across the street from the present house at 1011 Central ave. It is thoroughly up to date in every respect and is a high credit to all concerned. These gentlemen will carry the best to be obtained in moving pictures and high class vaudeville.

With their push and enterprise they have provided this place for our people and they deserve and we believe will receive the hearty support of all the Colored people in and near Los Angeles.

SOJOURNER TRUTH HOME

SOJOURNER TRUTH DOINGS

Last Monday was one of the most interesting days of Sojourner Truth Home. Attorney McIntire enthused his audience with the life and works of Dunbar, reading two of his soul poems in the purest English and talking of his greatness and his personal contact with Dunbar. The program included vocal and instrumental numbers by the Misses Rosemond and Gordon. Several out of town visitors were present and expressed their delight to the splendid work which Sojourner Truth women were doing for the community. The social hour was enjoyed by all, after which refreshments were served in honor of the out-going officers. Next Monday officers for the ensuing year will be installed, and members are urged to be present.

Phillip Chapel C.M.E. Church
1406 Newton Street

Last Sunday closed the rally, amount raised being $240. Th sacred concert Sunday night was very good and well attended. The choir will give a sacred concert the 4th Sunday night in each month. Sunday will be Communion day. Rev. J. A. Stout, the presiding elder, will preach at both services. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Pastor

Last Sunday was Children's day. The pastor preached at the morning service and at the evening service the Sunday school rendered its program, a feature of which was an educational address by Attorney W. A. Tyler. A splendid audience greeted the children and the attorney.

Sunday will be Communion day and no doubt a large audience will be present. At both services Pastor Byers will occupy the pulpit. The subject for the morning subject will be, "Heavenly Witness and Record."

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

The Sunday school, under the superintendency of Mrs. Cora Dennis, rendered its annual Children's day program last Sunday morning at the regular hour for service. The exercises by the children were very interesting and instructive. At the evening service Rev. W. F. Greevy, returned missionary from South America, delivered a very helpful message, taking as his text, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path."

The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services on Sunday. Subject for the morning, "Christian Self Denial." Evening, "A Last Wish." Communion service Christian Endeavor 7 p. m. Topic, "How To Make Ours An Ideal Nation." Leader, Bro. J. W. Morris. A cordial welcome to all these services.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. M. P. Griggs, Pastor.

Those who gathered at this church for worship on last Sunday were spiritually blessed and wonderfully benefited by the inspiring services. The sermons by the pastor were immensely helpful, convincing and very applicable to every-day life, as well as certain important issues that are confronting the people of this community. Six accessions, including one convert were made. At the conclusion of the morning session, Prof. Chas. Alexander, former editor of the Los Angeles Post, and present editor of The Citizens Advocate, spoke briefly on the segregation subject, giving unshakeable reasons why segregation in the public schools of Southern California is undesirable. The audience manifested great interest in his remarks. Supplementary reports to the rally fund are still being made, the total, including Sunday evening's report, being $2086.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Two metropolitan congregations greeted the pastor Sunday and the services were thoroughly edifying to each person present. The choir was impressive in its appearance and inspiringly effective in the rendition of each selection. With the class night addition there were three accessions to membership. The pastor delivered two sermons. Among the strangers introduced to the congregation was Mrs. E. Williams of San Francisco, who delivered very encouraging remarks in a timely impromptu address. You are welcome to the services Sunday. The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services.

A most profitable church conference was held last Thursday night and plans were launched for the successful entertainment of the forthcoming session of the annual conference scheduled to meet at First church the first Wednesday in September. The pastor also launched the "Dollar Money" campaign, and is now receiving daily from members and friends this yearly claim which maintains the greatest negro organization ever conceived or established, and sends the gospel to the heathen and works for the advent of the Master's kingdom, as well as opens the eyes of the blind and furthers the cause of education by maintaining schools for ministerial training. "The Dollar Money" accentuates and perpetuates the Pauline dogma of the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God. The member and friend who pays it bears his or her part of the load of lifting up the millions identified with the masses of the race. Pay your "Dollar Money" now either to your class leader or give or mail it to your pastor. Address J. Logan Craw, 1465 Griffith avenue.

Big things to be held at First church Sunday, July 9, Old Folks' day. Sunday, July 23, Women's day, with cheering meetings. Sunday, August 2, Educational or Men's day. Mrs. Craw will have charge of Woman's day and Attorney W. O. Tyler will have charge of Educational or Men's day. The public is advised to arrange affairs at home so as to spend all day on these days at the church.

Remember the date of Tuesday night, August 8. This night is taken for a grand two-piano recital by Miss Lorenzo Jordan and John Grey, pianists, for the benefit of the church. You can not afford to miss this rare musical treat.

Birch Street Christian Church

The members of this church are still holding services each Sunday at 1040 E. 9th street. Bro. Williams and others bringing messages each Sunday. On last Sabbeth the Rev. Dunn, a devout young man from the First Christian church, delivered a most noble sermon. We are glad to see such young men doing God's work. We were pleased to have Bro. W. G. Hopper with us on last Sunday. We ask all to come to our services, as they are held as usual on Sunday and during the week.

Wesley Chapel

Last Sunday was a red letter day in the history of the church, both from a spiritual standpoint and from the inspiration along the lines of national life. The Sunday school under the leadership of Prof. Greene is crowding the Sunday school room almost to the point of forcing an enlargement. The Epworth League societies are growing each Sunday in interest and inspiration. At 11 o'clock a. m. the church was filled to hear the message of Pastor Kinchen on the subject of "The Dominant Quality in World Conquest." In the afternoon at 3 o'clock Brother James Brown and his splendid no-note choir thrilled the hearts of the people who were present to hear these wonderful songs of our fathers and mothers. Words can not describe the evening services. They were far beyond anything dreamed of by the pastor or the officers of the church.

Over 1200 people crowded into the church to pay tribute to the memory of the gallant members of the Tenth Cavalry who fell in battle in Mexico. There were over 200 of the most prominent white citizens of the city, and army officers of all ranks as well as privates. On the platform with the pastor were the retired officers and members of the Tenth Cavalry. The speakers were Capt. F. H. Crumbly, Lieut. Butler, Sergt. Thompson, Sergt. E. Paine and several white army officers.

Wesley chapel is moving on in the direction of spiritual and moral leadership, and both the church and the pastor stand ready to serve the community in every way possible.

Breakfast Party to Visiting Tourists.

The palatial residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jones on W. 36th street was the scene of a most delightful breakfast party given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Most, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs of San Jose, and Mrs. McCall of Palo Alto, who had formed an automobile party in Mr. Most's 7-passenger Studebaker from San Jose to this city.

Rev. Greggs and wife and Mrs. J. H. Shackleford were guests to make up the entire party, covers being laid for nine prepared by the hostess.

The home was beautifully decorated, as was also the table, the color scheme being in keeping with a profusion of pink hydrangias.

A five-course service prepared in the manner of which Mrs. Jones is mistress, gave her guests cause to ever remember the entertainment given in such royal manner by their most hospitable host and hostess.

OAKLAND JOTTINGS
By "Jakie" Peyton

Mrs. Ward Williams presented her husband with a bouncing daughter on Tuesday, June 20. Mother and daughter doing well.

Miss Eva Jones of Oakland, most popular piano teacher and a favorite among the younger set of our city, sailed on Wednesday, June 27, for Honolulu to become the bride of Mr. H. R. Smith, who is an electrical engineer for the government in the Islands. May God bless her on her journey.

The Ladies' club of Oakland gave a very delightful picnic at Grand canyon recently, eighteen ladies and one man being in attendance. Who was the man?

H. Gans, the St. Louis Pullman porter on train No. 10, was found dead in his car on Monday morning of last week by the train crew. It was said that he became quite ill before leaving on his run.

Wiley Hinds, one of Oakland's pioneer citizens, left for an extended tour through the East, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Edith Nicklas. They will visit Obeling, where the youngest daughter is training for a musical profession.

Mrs. H. Dehort's sister is a very welcome visitor in our community. She arrived on June 19 with her two children.

Leonard Richardson, one of our thrifty young men, has received his diploma from the University of California as attorney at-law. We wish him the best of luck in his start of professional life.

Miss Eva Jones received her diploma at the University at the close of the term.

THE L. A. POST IS FLOUNDERING

The shot and shell poured into the citadel of the L. A. Post has hit the mark and their boat is almost out of commission. In fact, it came out three days late this week minus an editor. We shot the bridge away, with nothing to stand on, it is now nigh impossible to get a Negro game enough to play pigtail for the white owners of the Post.

The Colored people of the community are also getting wise to themselves and are discontinuing their subscriptions. They have never had any ads to speak of.

Poor old Brown and Rose are sadder but wiser men. Hereafter play in your own back yard. See!

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY RE-UNITED

The Progressives of the Nation through the action of their National Executive Committee have accepted the results of the Republican National Convention, and there will be a united support for the Republican nominees. The program of the Progressive wing of the Republican party making Americanism and Preparedness the chief issues of that party with which they go before the voters has been accepted nearly in toto, and though losing the nominee, the Progressives are to be congratulated in common with the balance of the Nation, that Charles E. Hughes has demonstrated through all of his public utterances since his nomination that he is thoroughly progressive with no entangling alliances with re-action, and can be depended on to carry out the Rooseveltian policy of demanding the respect of foreign nations. Both wings of the Republican party have come together with some semblance of genuine earnestness and great potriotism, as sacrifices were made o nboth sides. The oldliners lost Root and the Progressives lost Roosevelt, and it wll be proven that the Nation has gained through this compromise.

It is now the duty of the rank and file who love their country first, to close ranks and marhc upon the citadel of Democratic deficiency. In his patriotic letter addressed to Colonel Roosevelt, Charles E. Hughes makes this ringing endorsement of the motives and the course of Colonel Roosevelt: "I know you have been guided in this emergency by the sole desire to be of the largest service to the United States. You have sounded forth the trumpet which shall never call retreat." And it is the resonance of that trumpet-call that will lead the Republican party to victory in November. The Republican party platform is the most patriotic document ever issued by any political party since the days of Lincoln, and aims at the "revival of the American spirit—a Nation restored." Again as Mr. Hughes has said in his letter to the Progressive National Committee: "We make common cause in the interest of national honor, of national security, of national e ciency. We unite in the demand for an undivided and unwavering loyalty to our country; for a hole-hearted patriotic devotion over-riding all racial differences." Thus the Republican party stands a united party, meeting on a common ground and battling for a common cause. Past differences must be forgotten ,or remembered only to avoid the catastrophes of 1912, and it is written that the present democratic administration is relegated to the "scrap heap." We have shaken hands, now let's make up! The man who does less is no American, and should be hyphenated.

The L. A. Tribune of Wednesday, June 28th, had this to say concerning the part played by Negroes in the wars of the nation.

The "Tenth" at Las Guasimas and Carrizal

The first battle of the war with Spain was fought at Las Guasimas, near Santiago, in Cuba, when, on June 28, 1896, the celebrated Rough Riders had their baptism of fire. Wood and Roosevelt led into action 450 of the Rough Riders, supported by 200 of the First cavalry and 224 of the Tenth, then, as now, made up of Negroes. Taken by surprise, and subjected to a heavy fire from the outnumbering Spanish forces in concealment, the volunteers hesitated upon the rain of bullets. The Tenth cavalry came to their rescue with the intrepidity of disciplined veterans.

Colonel Waterson, in his history of the Spanish-American war, records:

> The courage of the Black troops as they charged deliberately up the slope was everywhere applauded. There was no hurry, no hesitation, but cool deliberation. When a man was struck his comrade turned and called "Hospital!" with as much presence of mind as if it were a sham battle. The Black troops displayed fine coorage and discipline.

After a lapse of eighteen year "the Black Tenth" figures in the opening engagement on Mexican soil. The same heroim that was displayed in the first battle of the Spanish-American war was shown again at Carrizal, when the Black troopers were led into an ambuscade.

Reflecting on the service rendered by "the Black Tenth" in Cuba, and now, after the lapse of eighteen years, in Mexico, we are disagreeably affected by this dispatch from Washington:

> The suggestion has been sent to the war department from a government official in El Paso that one hundred thousand Negro troops be recruited in the Southern states for use in the event that the United States invades Mexico. The suggestion was telegraphed today and is based on the theory that the Negro troops will be better able to cope with conditions in the desert country of Mexico than would other troops.

Before the government calls upon the Negroes of the South to raise one hundred thousand recruits for Mexican service, would it not be well for that same government first to take steps that will assure Negroes in the South their political rights? If they are good enough to die for it, as they died at Las Guasimas in June, 1896, and at Carrizal in June, 1916, then they are good enough to vote in it.

The Tribune has always been fair and not afraid to speak right out in the defense or praise of the Negro. This is more than we can say concerning any other daily in this city and very few in any other city in the Union. A paper like this should find a warm place in the hearts and homes of the Colored people of this city.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

Mr. William Nauns Ricks of Oakland is spending his vacation at the home of Mrs. S. Wright of Santa Monica, and looks in on the city daily.

Our acquaintance with Mr. Ricks for the past few years has been a source of information and inspiration, for we have been a close student of his poetic contributions to modern literature and find them to be meritorious in every way.

As Scott and Burns sang of the fatherland, so sings Mr. Ricks of his people in this country. In every bit we find a sort of pleading, but manly ring in blank verse and rhythm asking for universal brotherhood of all mankind.

Some of his poems have been published in the leading journals and magazines of this country and his ability as poetic genius is recognized by the best literary authority.

Mr. Ricks, however, represents not the old but a new school of poets, for he works not only with brains, but alike with his hands. For eleven years he has been in the employ of the California Trust Canners Association in the main office or department of secretary. This is one of the largest concerns in the state of California.

Mr. Ricks started to write poetry in 1905, but has accomplished the bulk of his 400 poems within the past two years.

Among some of his most laudable contributions which have been published by the San Francisco and New York papers was Memorial Day poem which we are publishing here:

DO WE REMEMBER?
Memorial Day, 1916

Full fifty years have passed away,
Yea, fifty years, have day by day
Fulfilled the laws of destiny
And passed into eternity.
Hear you the drums throughout the land?
Old drums—which know the master hand,
Whose fervent practice for this day,
Has swept the fifty years away?
These souls—whose darkened chambers keep,
The key where memories lie deep;
Are breaking all the bounds this day,
To live this thirtieth of May.

With tattered flags and dream-fired gait,
(Impatient if the line should wait),
Come men who fifty years ago
Were flushed with manhood's healthy glow.
Not less today; but fifty years
Have brought conditions fraught with tears,
For some are poor and all are old;
But hearts as true, as brave, as bold,
Beat underneath those coats of blue,
As when in youth they dared to do
The bidding of their souls—for right.
How bravely now they face the night.

Do we remember why they fought?
Have we from them their vision caught?
Does Liberty stand out as clear?
Is Freedom to our hearts as dear?
If not, this thinning line of blue
Proclaims us to our trust untrue.
If we forget their sacrifice,
We stand disgraced before their eyes.
Let Freedom true our land embrace,
That we, like them, the grave may face;
In conscious pride of work well done,
To keep Old Glory in the sun.

WILLIAM NAUNS RICKS.

The Citizens Advocate is the name of a brand new Negro journal, 6 column, 8 page paper, which made its first appearance last week. It is neatly gotten up and bears the imprint of one who knows journalism. The editor and owner is the well known literary genius, Prof. Charles Alexander. The Eagle welcomes to the field this new effort and coming to us as a Negro journal published by a Negro we certainly wish it unqualified success.

Local Happenings

Mrs. G. G. Brown, who was bitten by a spider some time ago, is reported out of danger.

Don't forget the Booker T. Washington memorial fund on the second Sunday in July.

We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. Fannie Warner of Santa Monica is still quite ill.

Mrs. V. Finger left the city on Wednesday for the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Lucinda Day, 1411 Lydia Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Something new — the novelty penny dance—at St. Phillips parish, July 12. Each dance will cost one penny. Admission 10c.

The funeral of E. E. Woods will be from Tabernacle Baptist church this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. Roberts & Son in charge.

All persons having donations for the Booker T. Washington memorial fund, send or give the same to Mrs. C. E. Barr, 1551 30th place.

All members of the Hiawatha Chorus are requested to be present at the Second Baptist Church on Monday evening. Business of importance.

The city is honored by having as our guest Mrs. Littie Brown of Chicago. Mrs. Brown is the guest of Mrs. C. Barr, 30th place. After spending a few days here she will visit several of the Eastern cities.

Mrs. H. W. Scott, Mrs. R. Sims and Misses Vivian and Emily Sims, all of Topeka, Kansas, were visitors in the city this week. Mrs. Scott was the guest of Mr. Shepherd and wife at the Eagle Cafe Wednesday for dinner.

The home of Mrs. A. Hulbert, 1468 E. 20th St., was the scene of a very pretty dinner party on last Wednesday evening, when Mr. Hulbert and wife had as their honored guest Mrs. W. L. Martin and son and Mrs. L. O. Boyde and son.

The Allen Allensworth club will meet Wednesday, July 5, at the residence of Mrs. Boyd of 1250 E. 23rd street. All members are urged to be present at 1:30 p. m., as business of importance will be transacted. The meeting will adjourn at 3:30 sharp.

The home of Mrs. John Fingers was a scene of pleasure on last Tuesday evening when the old pioneers of California gathered there in one of their regular meetings. Real soul stirring expressions were made by several, and after the business of the evening dainty refreshments were served. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all.

As we go to press we learn of a sad and shocking accident, when Mrs. Paul Brown, 470 N. Burlington avenue, was struck and killed instantly by an automobile at the corner of Western avenue and Temple street. Mrs. Brown was a Native Daughter and an active social worker. The body is at the undertaking parlors of Roberts & Sons.

The Arollo Musical association will present the following program on Sunday, July 2, at the First A. M. E. church, 8th and Town avenue: Remarks on the purpose and aim of the association, Maude Rosebond; piano solo, by Bianca Chambers; vocal duet, by Miss Rosemond and Mr. Mason; a talk on "The Art of Listening," John A. Grey; vocal solo, by Mr. Mason; piano solo, by Miss Lorenza Jordan. A chorus of trained voices will sing Burleigh's arrangement of "Deep River." The program will begin promptly at 4 o'clock. The public is cordially invited. A silver offering will be taken at the door.

Lawyer Hugh E. Macbeth will be the speaker of the day at South Park on the 4th of July. Ex-mayor Geo. Alexander will preside as master of ceremonies, and one of the largest and best bands of the city will furnish the music for the day.

The Eagle Cafe a Popular Place to Eat.

The famous Eagle Cafe, under the management of Miss Blanche Taylor and Miss Beatrice Young, is just about the cleanest, neatest and most popular place in the city, where strictly home cooking is provided, with prices within the reach of all.

The place has been thoroughly renovated and the dining room made attractive, and to satisfy the inner man the place to go is to the Eagle Cafe, 816 Central avenue.

"A Welcome to the Sweet Girl Graduates."

On last Tuesday afternoon, from 2 until 5 o'clock, Miss Missouri Busby, 2102 Amey St., was the most charming hostess to a delightful party, complimentary to the Misses Ruth and Ruby Walker, who have recently returned from Western University after completing a commercial course. The cosy little home with its simple but pretty decorations was indeed a scene of merriment, and especially so when the hostess called for each one present to make a short speech of welcome to her honored guests, after which the afternoon was spent in whist and dancing. The parlor hostesses who assisted in dispensing hospitality were the Misses Inez and May Jones and Josephine Brown. Miss Ruby Walker favored those present with a piano selection composed by Major Smith band master of Western University. Dainty refreshments were served.

Late in the afternoon the guests departed declaring Miss Busby an ideal hostess.

Fifty-first Street School Progressing Rapidly.

This year they send five students into the higher realms of education, all with excellent standing and from whom we expect great results.

On last Tuesday afternoon the school entertained, and were honored by the presence of Mrs. Dorsey, assistant superintendent; Dr. Palmer, head of the agricultural department, and Mr. Finney of the woodwork department.

Much credit for the advancement shown by this school is due to the strenuous efforts and earnest, faithful work of Miss Bessie Brunington and Polly Maxwell.

Mr. W. W. Bicbee, of San Francisca, will address the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. Everybody invited.

ORGANIZE A HUGHES-FAIRBANKS CLUB

A temporary organization of what promises to be a monster Hughes and Fairbanks Republican Club was effected at 1331 Central avenue on last Tuesday evening. J. B. Bass, editor of The Eagle, was elected as temporary president, and Willie Wilson, temporary secretary. The greatest of interest and enthusiasm was manifest, and everybody seemed anxious to line up and do service for the triumph of Republican principles.

The permanent organization was deferred until next Thursday evenig at which time a monster meeting will be held at the 14th street schoolhouse at 8 o'clock p. m. Good speaking, program and music by the band. Everybody is invited to come out.

Notice

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager — Office 702 3rd St. — Phone: Main 1013, Main 6105

All the plutocrate of San Diego were out last Tuesday evening to the first annual reception of the Alumni association of San Diego at Masonic hall, 636 Market street, in honor of the graduates of June, 1916.

Much praise and credit is due Miss Corona White, of San Diego State Normal school teachers college, in organizing this learned association. The opening address was given by the president, Walter McDonald. The invocation and benediction was rendered by Rev. Williams of Mt. Zion Baptist church. Solo by Mrs. Sprights. Mrs. Henrietta Goodwin of Los Angeles State Normal school is the secretary. She gave an oration, "Aim and Purpose of Alumni Association." The White Bros. rendered a duett. Mrs. C. E. Norwood by request made a short address on the use of education. Miss Marguerite Hunter of San Diego High school rendered a fine solo. Instrumental solo, Miss Gwendolyn Logan, San Diego High school. Miss Blanche Goodwin, reading, San Diego High school. A lecture on "Encouragement" by Miss Corona White of San Diego State Normal school, organizer of the Alumni association. Instrumental duet by Lloyd and Melvin White. An arousing address by Chas. Dodge, Sr., of Fiske University. By request a short address by Walter D. Benton. "Honorable Mention," Miss Edith Thompson of Quindero and Wilberforce colleges. Members: Walter McDonald, president; Miss Corona White, organizer; Messrs. I. L. Bennett, Walter D. Benton, Chas. Dodge, Sr., J. Gorham, Mmes. Johnson, Cora Speights, Mary Robinson. Graduates: Miss Elizabeth Burney, East San Diego; Miss Arnette Bryant, Lincoln; Misses Ada Belle Goodwin and Gertrude Williams, Logan; Miss Willamay Goodwin, Normal training school; Miss Corona White, Normal teachers' college; Master Chas. Logan, East San Diego; Master Gathern Perry, Franklin school; Master Edwin Thompson, Coronado.

Milton W. Fowler of San Francisco and Miss Geraldine Seeles of Colorado were married in this city a few days ago.

Mrs. E. F. Coborn of Vallejo and Miss Hattie E. Day of Los Angeles were royally entertained by some of the leading society people of the city while here. On Wednesday they were guests at a picnic party at La Jolla given by Mrs. P. E. Robinson. Mrs. Tombs and Mrs. C. E. Norwood were invited guests. She was also a dinner guest at Mrs. Woodbey's on the following day. Miss L. L. Alexander also shared the entertainment. The guests left Friday for their homes.

J. M. Wooden of Greeley avenue called at the Eagle office a few days ago on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdock, Wm. Hamilton, Los Angeles, Miss Brewington, Wm. Bunch, Jefferson Fowler, Misses Margaret Ruth and Ruby Prince and H. Prince, from Pasadena, after spending several days in the city left for home.

Mrs. Al Ramsey is much delighted over the handsome present which she received, a new modern locomobile baby carriage, from her brother-in-law, G. S. Ramsey.

People are still flocking to Tia Juana by the thousands, many soldiers on the border patroling the International line, but we do not expect any trouble from Lower California.

The Masonic annual sermon was preached last Sunday, and was largely attended by members and friends of the organization.

Master Gathern Perry, nephew of M. T. Laws, graduated from Franklin school with high honors, being the only graduate of the race in that school. And he enjoyed a picnic at Ocean Beach.

Miss Cora Wright gave a delightful party Sunday at beautiful La Jolla by-the-sea in honor of Miss Agnes Minor and Mrs. Frank Hart. Those in the party were Agnes Minor, Daisy Hart, Cora Wright, Leslie Knight, Frank Hart, Maud Coleman of Los Angeles and Ethel Dimery.

Dedication day attendance, on March 18, was 33 per cent greater than the biggest day of the entire period of 1915.

Ashamed of My Love?

By Susie Jean Lynch.

Ashamed of my love? I shall say not!
Why, that part of me is my God.
It is He within me, says the Scripture;
"God Is Love," I read in His word.
Since He loves me, then I'll love my neighbors,
My friends and my enemies, too;
What care I for harsh words so spoken,
Did not Christ suffer, too.
Yes, He suffered the death of a myrtyr;
For us He was hanged and did bleed.
He loved us so well, did my Savior,
And when dying, left His love here for me.
To love and be loved, is so sacred;
So sweet; so lovely; so sublime;
Livest one who can say they've not witnessed
This love of God or of man?
I can love, and I'm glad I can tell it,
To be loved is sweeter still.
But I'll never let my loved ones love me
More devotedly than I can love them.
Yes, I love my friends and I'm glad they know it.
Why wait till their dead in their graves?
I want them to see it and feel it
And to share it with me each day
And then when they have gone on before me
To pay the debt I, too, must pay,
Such a comfort to me it will then be
To say, "We loved here and we love in the grave."
You, too, will I love, dear Master,
I will love you all the day long.
I will share this love which you gave me
To help make some other one strong.

Knights of Pythias.

By Missouri Busby.

The Knights of Pythias and Courts of Calanthe of the Eastern and Western Hemisphere held their memorial services Sunday, June 25, at the Vernon Avenue A. M.E. church of Pasadena. California Lodge No. 1, Golden Leaf Court No. 1, Hermion Court No. 4 of Los Angeles, and Echo Lodge No. 2, and Regina Court No. 3 were all well represented on this occasion by about 25 men and women.

A large group of Knights, regaled in uniform, stood at the front entrance of the church in open file, while the white robed band of ladies of the different Courts were escorted into the auditorium by Sir Knight Joseph Bunch, Chancellor Commander of Echo Lodge.

Three supreme officers and a local deputy graced the rostrum during the entire services. Mrs. Nannie B. Loving, Supreme Deputy for more than seven years, J. B. Loving, Past Adjutant Chancellor, W. M. Taylor, present Adjutant Chancellor, and Mrs. Victoria Fingers, Deputy of Regina Court.

Joseph Bunch, master of ceremony, presented each participant on the program with a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Before the pastor, Rev. Dyett, began his wonderful discourse, the following numbers were rendered:

J. B. Loving related the history of Pythianism and told of the establishment of the order of the Knights of Pythias in the state of California. He became so enthused over the close relationship of Damon and Pythias that tears of sorrow were seen to trickle down his cheeks.

Mrs. Maggie Jennings of Golden Leaf Court read a paper which brought sad memories of the past of three departed sisters of the Court, namely, Mrs. Clara Gage, Mrs. Parlee Johnson and Mrs. Mary Clark.

An original oration on "Calanthe," by Mrs. Essie Robinson, was heartily applauded by the audience.

Miss Harris of Pasadena rendered an appropriate solo.

The last number on the program was a very pleasing one. Mrs. Nannie B. Loving, of whom both Courts and Lodges feel justly proud, spoke in such glowing terms that the very portals of heaven seemed to open as she told in plain, simple words of the beautiful existence that marked the lives of Damon and Pythias and Hermion and Calanthe.

After the services were concluded at the church, Mrs. Crecie Jones, the Worthy Chancellor of Regina Court, was hostess to the entire body of Knights and sisters at a 6 o'clock dinner served in the beautiful summer garden house of Mrs. Brooks, one of Pasadena's wealthiest residents and an exemplary friend of the colored people of that city.

This memorial ceremony was declared by all present to be the best that has ever been held in the state of California under the direct supervision of the Knights of Pythias and the Courts of Calanthe of the Eastern and Western Hemisphere.

Thoughts Wise, and Otherwise.

By Hilberta L. Baxter.

Of course this is nothing unusual, but as long as we have to write something I might as well tell you that that invincible Y.M.C.A. baseball team won another ball game last Saturday, and what's more, they, or rather we, won from a team with a reputation—Echo Park. The final count was 12 to 9. Our captain was flying 'round short again, and he looks as good as ever. Next Saturday they meet the police on the Y.M.C.A. field, and a great little tussle should be the order of the day.

Among those who are walking around with their heads high in the air today, are Misses Cornelia Leggat and Vivian Temple and Messrs. Lawrence Greene and Clarence Blunt. I say with their heads high in the air because, not because they are, but because they have earned their right to be doing so. The two young ladies received their diplomas from Los Angeles High, while Manual Arts is the alma mater of the young men. I know I speak the sentiments of the Eagle readers, when I say, "We wish them the best of luck and greatest success in the future."

The Progressive club is proud of the fact that one-half of the graduates are members of their organization. The persons spoken of are Vivian Temple and Lawrence Greene.

PRESIDENT'S CALL

President S. P. JOHNSON

Venice, Cal., June 6, 1916.

To the Unions of the Baptist Young Peoples Union Concention of Southern California.

Greetings: The unerring hand of a Most Holy Father has brought us upon the threshold of another session of our Convention and it is my pleasure to state that the sessions will be held at New Hope Baptist church, San Bernardino, Cal., on July 6 and 7, 1916.

These are to be epoch making sessions for more than one reason and one of the paramount features will be the daily lectures to the Convention by Rev. G. W. Reed, who has won for himself an enviable reputation as a specialist in young peoples religious work.

Bear in mind that our Convention Constitution allows one delegate for each twenty members or fraction thereof; and each delegate will be charged at the rate of fifteen cents per meal while at the Convention. The latter is a new law enacted at our Pasadena session in 1915.

The Santa Fe Railroad has granted us a rate of one and one-third fare provided we can show fifty certificates, therefore when purchasing your ticket for San Bernardino all delegates and friends traveling from all points and on all railroads are asked to be sure and secure a certificate from your agent with your ticket and present the certificate to the Secretary at the Convention.

Do not forget that the per capita of ten cents per member is also due at the Convention. All Unions that have not paid one-half of same to the Executive Board will pay in full at the Convention and those that have made one-half settlement will pay the balance due.

Asking the Masters benediction upon you as a Union, and asking that you pray fervently that this may be a session in which great things will be done for the uplift of the Kingdom of God.

We are yours for the Cause,

B. Y. P. U. Convention of So. California.

S. P. Johnson, President.

J. Allen Reese, Cor. Secretary.

PASADENA.

Mrs. Katie M. Tout of Pasadena left a short time ago for the Boston Conservatory of Music, where she will study for a season. The day of her departure was one long to be remembered by both Mrs. Tout and her pupils, for so dearly had she grown to those who depended upon her for instruction that there was great regret at the parting by both teacher and pupils.

Rev. C. P. Isaacs left Tuesday for Brenham, Tex., to visit his children. He has been employed by the city for the last ten years and is only on vacation.

At 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Scott chapel M.E. church, the Hiram Lodge of Masons listened to one of the most eloquent sermons, it being an annual St. John day sermon. All visiting lodge members and members of the Eastern Star were present. The sermon was delivered by Dr. J. Gordon McPherson and was a masterpiece of eloquence. There was special music by the choir. Dr. McPherson will hold a revival meeting at the church Friday evening, taking as his text "And a Little Child Shall Lead Them." Sunday at 11 o'clock his subject will be, "Settling Old Accounts."

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Secretary Folke of the Eldorado Gold Star Mining Company is sending out notices to the stockholders of the meeting of the same on Aug. 8th at the company office, 255 Wilson building, this city. The work at the mine is proceeding and shipments are being made. The returns have been highly satisfactory. The company is considering the putting in of a cyanide plant at once, thereby reducing the ore to bullion right on the spot.

IS BACK TO DEAR OLD L. A.

Prof. F. M. Roberts, president of the Mound Bayou Institute, arrived home for his vacation last week. He announces himself as much pleased with the progress of his work and that he hoped for a mighty progress in the future. Enroute home, he visited Chicago and the National Convention, Kansas City, Colorado Springs and other points.

SENATOR H. H. LYONS FOR STATE SENATOR FROM THE TWENTY-NINTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

Senator H. H. Lyons is a man that absolutely stands for all the people all the time, and no announcement for public office will be received with greater enthusiasm than that of the genial and popular State Senator from the 29th Senatorial District. By many the only regret is that the Senator is not announcing himself for U. S. Senator, Governor or something of that sort. The people admire a man who stands by them and on all issues Senator Lyons has always been found on the side of the people. The Colored voters will recognize in him at once a friend tried and true, who has at all times stood for recognition for them. In the legislature his record will show that he has obtained more positions for this people than all the Senators of the state combined.

There is no doubt that the Senator will receive a strong support from all classes and if nominated and elected will render the same efficient service in the future as in the past.

A Philosophic Study

And Literary Digest of the All-American League

H. DOUGLAS GREER

Dr. Washington's Policies

Dr. Booker T. Washington, the Tuskegee savant, fanned the ievered brows of this widespread epidemic in a way peculiarly his own. Individual sympathy and understanding was his chief reliance for overcoming the differences between races of this country, and these feelings and principles implanted by him have been a powerful aid in that direction. Ere the eve of his demise he must have discovered a diminution of that sympathy and understanding, and a gradual widening of the chasm of racial misunderstanding.

Policies of Dr. DuBois

It is true we have the scholarly, philosophic and logical Dr. DuBois, who by dint of penetration and fitness and by study, and personal contact in settlement work, has labored to increase and raise to a higher standard that sympathetic intelligence by direct appeals to reason and common sense. Still the great work remains protoplastic.

Dr. DuBois seems to be of the opinion that higher education will remove every bar to responsible citizenship, and by this co-operative system of education, inspire the nation to aspire for a higher knowledge of justice and of liberty. The conscious efforts of educators and teachers like Dr. DuBois and Dr. Washington are not sufficient to offset the unconscious alienation created by the dominant facts of daily life, therefore the All-American League must assist in the great work before us. It is the connecting link between two great schools, viz: Industrialism and Philosophical Education.

Lack of Scientific Comprehension of Facts and Theories

The All American League is aware that facts and institutions are inevitably followed by theories to explain and justify the existence of the institution. In political democracy there are democratic theories of politics. This league is not primarily nor fundamentally a political organization, as has been declared by some; still, we have theories, but better than that we have works and by these works "ye shall know us."

The Wedge of Inequality

Wherever inequality has been a permanent institution or situation theoretical thought has defended it; hence all theoretical defense offered by this institution will be for the purpose of demolishing the present system of inequality and injustice.

In the natural differentiation of human species, we note, in the language of Aristotle, that "there are individuals as inferior to others as the body is to the soul, or as animals are to men. Adapted to corporeal labor only, they are incapable of a higher occupation. Destined by nature to slavery, there is nothing better for them than to obey." It is from this degradation and servile strife that the All American League is striving to raise its men and women. This league is demanding equal opportunities to live and to labor, as do the peoples of other dominant races. This demand does not imply that all men are to be of identical wealth, wisdom and authority.

POLITICAL POT PIE

The Civic League held an enthusiastic meeting on last Monday evening at 1331 Central avenue. They were favored with an address by Mark G. Jones, candidate for supervisor, and will meet every Monday evening during the campaign, at which time various candidates and others will address the meeting.

The supervisoral fight in both the second and fourth district is now attracting much attention, and the line up at this time is a toss up as to the winners in both districts. Much depends on the effective work to be done in the next few weeks.

The Eagle is, as it always has been, a strong Republican paper. We strive for the success of Republican principles, and as such we leave our columns open for all who seek favors at the primaries. All have a chance to place themselves before the public through these columns.

The political headquarters maintained at 1331 Central avenue seems to be a very popular place at this time.

The Clean Government League seems to be resting on its oars and they have not kept up with the procession in the old 74th district.

No star chamber sessions for the voters of the 74th district. Everything must be in the open and all of the people taken in confidence.

One of our good patrons who is a candidate for public office need not be timid about coming to The Eagle sanctum. We will not hurt him. It may do you good, brother. Come by, the water's fine.

The rush for papers by those who are politically inclined has compelled us to print 500 extra copies each week of late. The people are reading and deciding these issues for themselves.

Honest John Lange, of Watts, as we predicted, was completely exonerated at the preliminary trial on last Saturday of all blame or guilty knowledge incident to the sensational arrests made at Watts some weeks ago.

The Woolwine campaign committee it seems has the jump on all other aspirants and have a great organization for the re-election of Mr. Woolwine at this early stage of the campaign.

Thursday night's meeting at the 14th street school was the best move yet toward harmony among the Colored voters in the 74th assembly district.

SEVENTY-FOURTH ASSEMBLY DISTRICT ORGANIZE A HUGHES-FAIRBANKS CLUB

At a meeting called for that purpose a meeting of the Republican voters of the 74th assembly district met at the auditorium of the 14th street school house on Thursday evening and perfected a permanent organization by electing G. P. Brown, president; Dr. Asberry, vice president; W. H. Sanders, secretary; Mrs. Gladys Green, treasurer.

The meeting was a harmonious one. The various factions seemed bent on getting together and much good for unity in the Republican forces was accomplished.

G. P. Brown, elected president, is a young man and has a clean record, is an enthusiastic worker and no doubt will bring this club to the front.

Two Delightful Affairs.

Two of the most delightful events of the season were the reception given to the renowned choir of First A.M.E. church by Mr. and Mrs. Holt at 1320 Albany street, and the Cycle of Pleasure at the home of Mrs. Van Williams by Mesdames Holt and Williams at 1747 New Hampshire street, for the benefit of the Day Nursery and First A.M.E. church. On both of these occasions beautiful decorations, sweet music and high class social entertainment were enjoyed by the many guests, who declared themselves as never having been more delightfully entertained in such a manner as these functions afforded. Long live these big hearted people to dispense wholesome pleasure and enhance the cause of "sweet charity."

Mighty Religious Tidal Wave

MIGHTY RELIGIOUS TIDAL WAVE SWEEPING THE CROWN CITY

The Far Famed "Fighting Parson," Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, the Noted Black Evangelist, Leads the Greatest Evangelistic Campaign Ever Witnessed in Pasadena. Sways Hundreds — Many Hardened Sinners Hitting the Trail.

Scott's Chapel M. E. church, on South Fair Oaks avenue near California street, of which the Reverend L. G. Robinson is the popular pastor, for the past three weeks has been the scene of one of the greatest old time fire and Holy Ghost revivals ever witnessed in this section; this mighty spiritual awakening is under the leadership of the far famed "Fighting Parson," Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, the most noted Black evangelist in the Golden West, who has a nation wide reputation as one of the most successful soul winners in the country. Nightly great throngs of white and Colored, saints and sinner, men and women, all stations of life, the merchant prince, the sons of toil, and the woman of the more cultured class along with the servant girl, are among the great crowds that have packed Scott's Chapel during the past three weeks and sat spellbound under the magnetic spell of this eloquent man of God, whose burning message on the old Gospel ranks him as one of the greatest evangelists of any Race that has ever visited Pasadena. Surely Evangelist McPherson is the annointed of God and can truly say with the prophets of old the "Spirit of the Lord is upon me," for never a man spake like this man. Hardened sinners that were never known to yield to the pleading of any evangelist bow at the call of the "Fighting Parson," who is battling as never before against sin and unrighteousness. Among the score or more of conversions was an old woman, 85 years of age. Old tobacco users have thrown away their pipes and discarded their cuds, the sick are being healed by prayer, and the distressed are being comforted. Christians are taking higher spiritual ground and the saints are being edified. One enthusiastic white man was heard to say at the close of a Pentecostal feast after witnessing a wonderful outpouring of the Holy Spirit, "Surely this is the old time religion."

Evangelist McPherson is being able assisted by Pastor L. G. Robinson, and Mrs. M. Wilson has charge of the consecration and praise services nightly. It can be truly said that Sister Wilson is a woman of deep spiritual nature, one that is being wonderfully used of God. Among the others that are doing yeoman service in this great soul winning campaign are such as the Rev. Wm. Prince, of the A. M. E. church, Rev. W. H. Hughes, Rev. W. M. H. Dickerson, the sweet gospel singer, Madam E. Monroe Beavers has charge of the singing and is assisted by a big choir of sweet-voiced singers. It is worth going miles to hear these consecrated singers sing some of the sweet old gospel songs and the plantation melodies.

The big sunrise prayer meetings have proven a spiritual blessing to many.

Sunday promises to be another great day at the Scott's Chapel, as hundreds of out of town visitors are planning to attend the revival meeting. All persons who are planning to attend these services should take Pasadena Short Line car, get off at California street in front of Scott's Chapel.

The services for Sunday will be as follows: Commencing with sunrise prayer meeting for those seeking a deeper spiritual life.

9:30 o'clock, great Sunday school hour. All parents are urged to bring their children.

At 11 a. m., Evangelist McPherson will speak on the "Lilies of the Valley, or Faith Simplified."

At 2:30 o'clock a big social purity rally, under the auspices of the women, and Evangelist McPherson will speak on the "White Life." Mrs. M. Wilson will preside, assisted by the representatives from the various women's societies of Pasadena and Los Angeles. This promises to be one of the greatest women's meetings ever held in the Crown City in the interest of the social purity movement.

At 7:30 p. m., consecration and praise service with burning testimonials from the redeemed.

At 8 p. m. Evangelist McPherson will preach his famous sermon on the subject of "As the Eagle Stirreth Her Nest." Thousands who have heard the delivery of this wonderful sermon have been unstinted in their compliments of the gifted Black evangelist, and the press and pulpit have pronounced it a masterpiece of biblical eloquence. So great is the demand for seats from hundreds of white people and outside visitors that extra chairs will be put in to accommodate the great throngs that are flocking to hear this wonderful and gifted Black evangelist, Dr. J. Gordon McPherson. So great has the interest grown among all classes in the work of Dr. McPherson, and his associates, until a movement is being launched to purchase a mammoth tent that would seat thousands, that Evangelist McPherson with a corps of assistants and personal workers can lead a state wide evangelistic campaign. Pastor Robinson urges all of the ministers, religious workers, that if they desire seats that they will have to hurry on Sunday, for it is expected that hundreds will be turned away.

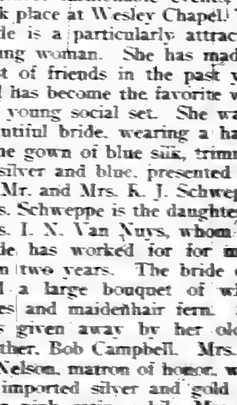
THE DAY WE CELEBRATE AT SOUTH PARK



Attorney H. E. MacBeth Orator of the Day

"We Know That We Have Had the Best Speech Made in Los Angeles Today

The Verdict of a Very Prominent Lady Who Voiced the Sentiment of the Thousands That Listened Entranced to the Great Oration of the Speaker

There was an excellent program for the 4th of July celebration at South Park, the best of order was maintained and good attention given those who took part in the exercises of the day. Ex-Mayor George Alexander was the President of the Day, and in his characteristic pleasant way conducted the order of the day. Music was furnished by the S. P. band and its rendition of popular airs was frequently applauded. The Declaration of Independence was read by a young school boy, Clarence Dowd, and to this fact there hangs a tale. It seems that three men in succession had been chosen to read this patriotic address, but because of the very strong Socialistic sentiment in this vicinity, they were discouraged by such sentiment hissed at them in derision: "What are you doing reading an independence declaration when you know this country belongs to Wall Street." This will give you some idea of the sentiment in this neighborhood. Lincoln's Gettysburg speech was read by a bright young fellow by the name of James Sunshine. The invocation and the speech by Rev. Scott Anderson, the first heartfelt and the latter fervidly eloquent. After a patriotic selection by the band, "America" had already been sung by a well trained chorus, the orator of the day, Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth, was presented to the audience. When this bright representative of his race first faced the vast gathering there was a palpable stillness, to some probably a shocked surprise, this was but of short duration. The speaker's grip upon the close attention of his audience was immediate. He eloquently reviewed the causes that lead up to the Revolutionary war, and graphically showed the obstacles that confronted the patriots in their first endeavor to establish their own government. Coming down the years of the Nation's travail, he vividly brought his hearers to the present day, the first of all nations of the world for prosperity, democracy and for peace. He dealt with the nation's preparedness for an enduring peace, indulgently, and clearly showed the bounden duty of the American citizen that made the welfare of the nation superior to our personal grievances. In handling the very conspicuous "hyphen" found in some degrees of loyalty to American institutions, he received time and again, the most hearty applause. He paid a high tribute to the patriotism of the Tenth Cavalry at Carrizal, who forget their racial cause for grievance, and unfaltering remembered only their duty to their flag and country. After this tribute "taps" for the dead heroes of Carrizal were sounded, and the speaker proceeded with his eloquent address that closed amid a storm of generous applause. Quite a levee was held for the orator of the day after the exercises of the day were over, and Mr. Macbeth received hearty handshakes and congratulations long after he departed from the grand stand from which he had spoken. With his accustomed modesty he received his honors so fairly won both for himself and his people, having as one very prominent lady in the civic work of the city said: "We know that we have heard the best speech that has been made in Los Angeles today," and she voiced what appeared to be the very general sentiment of the vast gathering.

FRANK R. BAKER FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

The announcement of the Hon. Frank R. Baker for District Attorney of Los Angeles County, is indeed an indication of real progress. The men of Mr. Baker's type who are seeking office are few and far between. Mr. Baker came to Los Angeles from the great northwest, where for a quarter of a century he had been most prominent in all reform movements. He comes with the highest recommendations as to integrity and ability and will doubtless supply the long-felt want in the District Attorney's office of Los Angeles County.

As a trial lawyer, Mr. Baker is regarded by those best acquainted with him, as one of the very best of this class. A big, broad minded man, with a large experience will regain much that has been lost by having to import outside legal assistance as heretofore.

DAVIS-BROWN NUPTIALS

Mrs. Hattie B. Davis and Mr. C. P. Brown of Denver were married last Wednesday evening. The wedding was one of the year's foremost fashionable events. It took place at Wesley Chapel. The bride is a particularly attractive young woman. She has made a host of friends in the past year and has become the favorite with the young social set. She was a beautiful bride, wearing a handsome gown of blue silk, trimmed in silver and blue, presented her by Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Schweppe. Mrs. Schweppe is the daughter of Mrs. I. N. Van Nuys, whom the bride has worked for for more than two years. The bride carried a large bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern. She was given away by her oldest brother, Bob Campbell. Mrs. H. S. Nelson, matron of honor, wore an imported silver and gold net over pink satin, while Mrs. O. Coleman, bridesmaid, wore an all-over lace over imported pink embroidered satin, trimmed in sprangle trimmings, bouquets of pink roses and ferns added an effective touch to the smart costumes. Little Mary Ragland, flower girl, wearing a white embroidery dress carried a basket of Cecil Bruner roses. Mr. Bob Butt served as best man. Mr. H. S. Nelson and Mr. C. E. Anthony, ushers. While the bridal party marched down the aisle to the altar stood Rev. N. P. Greggs of the P. I. P. C. of Christ, under the arch of ferns and white carnations, with baskets of ferns hanging carelessly about the altar, officiated. Mrs. Anna Strode Mills sang "Oh Promise Me," then Mrs. Smith played the wedding march, as the bride, escorted by her brother, entered. Following the marriage the reception was given in the dining room of the church. The bride's cake was goven her by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lulu Campbell, which she appreciated so highly. She received several handsome presents, such as cut glass, silver, hand-painted china and a beautiful set of dishes, presented by Mrs. I. N. Van Nuys. After the reception the bridal party went home and had a private affair amongst themselves, and everyone had a delightful time, the home being decorated beautifully, carrying out the color schemes of pink, white and green.

THE PEOPLES' INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

The Peoples' Independent church continues onward and upward. Sunday being monthly communion, a large crowd of members and friends were present and partook of the Lord's supper. The pastor occupied the pulpit at the morning service and delivered a forceful and edifying message. The sermon in the evening was delivered by Bro. J. J. Joseph. The new birth was his theme. The services were indeed profitable, both spiritually and financially. On last Friday evening at the close of their rehearsal the choir gave a surprise entertainment in honor of the new members, Misses Ruth and Ruby Walker, who recently returned here from Kansas City, where they graduated from Western University.

The young people of the church have begun active work and have organized a club which will be known as the Y. P.A.C. The officers elected are J. J. Josephs, president; Miss Joy Washington, vice-president; Miss Ruby Walker, secretary, Miss Eloise Smith, assistant secretary; Miss Adaline Brown, treasurer, Rev. N. P. Greggs, critic.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Splendid congregations greeted the pastor at both services on last Sunday. Prof. Bynum, with our unexcelled choir, rendered selections that inspired the entire congregation. The pastor delivered two sermons and there were four accessions to membership, two of which were converts.

The fifth annual Old Folks' day will be observed tomorrow. The pastor will deliver a special good cheer sermon to these fathers and mothers at 11 o'clock. The choir will sing old hymns and old songs especially to the liking of these venerable folks. Free transportation and a grand free dinner will be served to the same from 1 to 2:15 p. m. At 2:30 an old-fashioned song, prayer and praise service will be led by Father Vena, Mothers Norris, Onsley, Stewart and Bro. and Sister Robert True. All the old people of the city are especially invited guests. Telephone all names to either H. F. Posey, Broadway 4677, or Mrs. Minnie Tucker, Broadway 6235. The pastor will occupy the pulpit at the evening service also.

The A.M.E. "dollar money" is wheel shaped, having the greatest circumference, with a capacity of the greatest distance, and achieving results greater than any dollar yet invented. Every member of this great church is duly obligated to pay this claim once each year before the assembling of the annual conference. This time is now at hand, and every loyal member of First church will do their duty by paying the class leader or pastor this amount at once. The fifth Sunday in July is "special effort dollar money" day. Please pay yours on or before that time. Remember it is "conscience money" inasmuch as its payment is pledged by every one who takes the vow of our church membership. Friends are asked to aid in this charitable claim.

Woman's day, a real innovation in the church life of historic Eighth and Town avenue's flourishing congregation, will be conducted by Mrs. Dillon J. Craw on Sunday, July 23. Three big services will be held, and the public is invited to attend each service. Dinner will be served in the church banquet hall.

Men's day, known as educational day, will be observed on the second Sunday in August with three big meetings, under the direction of Attorney Tyler. Dinner will be served.

Wesley Chapel

The usual large crowds were out on Sunday last and the altar was crowded with those who bowed to take the holy communion.

The evening service was well attended and the whole day was fully up to the standard. The message of the pastor seemed to be very effective.

On Sunday at 11 a. m. Pastor Kinchen will preach on "Waiting Fulfilled and Acknowledged." At 7:45 a. m. he will preach on the subject, "In the Eyes of Three."

At the official board meeting on last Monday evening the church was found to be in splendid condition and progress being made along all lines. Both pastor and officials are greatly encouraged for the future.

At the Pullman car last Sunday on Alameda street Bro. Stout, the leader of the railroad men, reported a great service, car crowded and one happy conversion.

Mrs. Emma Markham, our faithful and efficient organist, has been granted a vacation and is spending a few days at the beaches with her son, Wallace. Her place is being filled by Mrs. L. V. Stewart.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

We were blessed with two helpful and inspiring services last Sunday. The pastor preached in the morning on "Christian Self Denial." In the evening Rev. W. J. Conquest preached, taking as his text, "Wilt Thou Be Made Whole?"

The Christian Endeavor, under the leadership of J. W. Morris, was of special interest and helpful to all present.

All the regular services of the church on Sunday, the subject for the morning being "The Good Samaritan." Evening, "Soldiers of Christ." Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Topic, "The Consecration of Purpose." Mrs. Joseph, leader. Strangers cordially welcome.

OAKLAND JOTTINGS

By "Jakie" Peyton

I am through with La Bonita. No bathing suit for "Little Jakie."

The Oakland colored men and women are overjoyed to know that there is another avenue of employment open to them. The Pullman company has issued orders to put on all colored car cleaners as fast as competent ones can be found to take the places of foreigners, now employed.

We have been in doubt as to whether the Tip Top Battery company would be able to compete with the larger electric battery companies, but they now have $2000 worth of machinery installed and $1100 working capital. Next Monday morning they will start operations with more orders than they can fill for the next two years. The Eagle wishes to congratulate such an industry as this on the coast.

Mrs. P. A. Green of Los Angeles was a welcome visitor in our city last Sunday. She is on her way to Kansas City to visit her brother.

H. Williams, the president of the Pullman Porters' aid of California, will leave for Chicago next week to attend the general meeting of that order. M. H. Bell will relieve his run during his absence.

Rev. J. T. Hill has returned from a very successful tour with his quartet in the north. Rev. Hill is in a position to do more for the good of the negro than any other man in the state. On Sunday in the Forum, where he visited with his troupe, he preached to a large congregation and told the people that we are real human beings.

NOTICE

There will be a special meeting of the stockholders of the Millennium Dawn Corporation at the company's store, 101 Central avenue, Monday evening, July 10, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking the payment of delinquent share and increasing the business.

Tribute to Carrizal Heroes.

To the Editor California Eagle:

Los Angeles, Cal., June 30, '16.

No American can read the story of the American troopers of the Tenth cavalry, who were yesterday returned to the United States at El Paso, without profound admiration for their heroic conduct and that of their brave comrades who made the supreme sacrifice of their lives for their country on the battlefield at Carrizal. The modest but inflexible courage of these gallant black soldiers and the sufferings and indignities to which the prisoners were subjected by Mexican mobs because they were the defenders of the honor of the United States, cannot fail to impress all patriotic Americans, and convince those of our people who may not have realized before, that the black race is the equal of any in devotion to our common country and as ready as any other class of our fellow citizens to risk and sacrifice their lives in our country's service. The record of the colored soldiers of this nation for patient, loyal service in time of peace and for uncomplaining, tireless, dogged courage in time of war and battle, is a remarkable one—inspiring to all citizens, no matter what their source.

This tragic event must undoubtedly advance the work of good relations and understanding between the black and white races of this country, so ably and successfully carried on in his lifetime by that other enlightened patriot and brave colored soldier, Col. Allen Allensworth of the United States army.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS.

By J. D. Reynolds.

I was very much pleased when I read in the editorial of last week's Citizens Advocate an able article on the "disgrace of separate schools" in California. I voice its sentiments most heartily. I can not understand how any colored person with any self-respect or race pride would sanction any move to segregate himself or his children, unless it was from some selfish motive or trying to cater to the desire of some one of the prejudiced white race. My personal experience has convinced me that this privilege is one of the greatest the colored people enjoy. Its environment, association and affiliation afford opportunities that the child could not otherwise obtain. In the early 70's our family lived in Sandusky, Ohio. My father was a plasterer by trade. He had the contract to plaster a public school in our neighborhood. He told Mr. Cowdery, the superintendent of the public schools at that time, that he had two children, a boy and a girl, who would be old enough to go to school in the following spring, and that he was going to send us there instead of sending us a mile or more to the colored school, as there were no mixed schools in Ohio. Mr. Cowdery said, "Why, certainly! Why not?" We went, and had five children going to the schools in Sandusky during the many years of our residence there. Thus you see, the colored people had voluntarily segregated their children from the white schools, sending them out of their districts for fear they would be offensive to their poor white neighbors, but my father predicted that as soon as they saw us attending the school of our district they would soon follow, as the race acts as magnets in their drawing power, and he was right. I sent my son and daughter to the Chicago public schools. They graduated with honor and respect. My daughter then took a thorough course in dressmaking, being the only colored girl in the class, graduating with the highest average in cutting, fitting and drafting. She now has two little ones, a boy and a girl of kindergarten age, whose teacher was a schoolmate of their father, who attended the same school here in California. Their teacher told their mother (my daughter) that they were on the "roll of honor" for neatness and manners, as well as excelling in whatever duties assigned them. Here are three generations who never were inside of a separate school.

Those colored people who would rather have their children attend segregated schools may find opportunity in the Southern states. California is a democracy. All children of whatever race are given the same identical sort of training. In the educational race they have the same start. This is the most desirable scheme of education; it is the equality of chance, and every sensible parent will want his child to have the same chance that every other man's child has. California affords children as fine school advantages as any other state in the Union.

A subtule influence is at work in California to undermine our present public school system. That co-operation between treacherous and traitorous colored men and designing white men, if not already brought about, is certainly in process of formation, with the idea o segregating the negro pupils, in order that colored teachers may have employment. That is the reason chiefly set forth by those who favor segregation, but there is a deeper reason. That reason is the bitter racial prejudice harbored in the breasts of mean white people, who hold the negro in contempt for no other reason than that he is a negro.

We cannot stand by and see this unjust discrimination against our younger generation perpetrated. We must enter our protest. We must see to it that every colored man who attempts to carry on this segregation propaganda in Southern California is properly exposed. Any support or encouragement by any man who would deprive the colored children of their present opportunities for educational advancement is to be characterized as both unpatriotic and stupid.

The interests of the race cannot be advanced in any such manner The public schools, as at present conducted in California, are the equal of the schools in any other state in the Union. The equipment, the teaching forces, the management and everything conspire to give our boys and girls an advantage of which we are proud. Moreover, the contact with our boys and girls with the boys and girls of other races, in our public schools, will help them to form ideals of racial equality which could not be impressed in any other way.

It is an object to set forth the dangers of racial segregation in the public schools of Southern California, and we take an unalterable position against this baneful influence which has recently been set in operation by some of our so-called "leaders."

FOR PRESIDENT
Charles Evans Hughes of New York
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana

The truth of the saying "Give a calf rope enough and he will break his own neck," is apparent when we look at the mess our President is in over the Mexican situation.

The glorious Fourth was fittingly observed and our forceful and well qualified orators in the persons of Attorneys H. E. Macbeth and W. O. Tyler did credit to the race and themselves at South and Exposition parks.

We note the attack in a local embryo journal by the communication route, and the object of the attack, several thousand miles away the comment is unnecessary that all connected with this ink-slinging are in poor, cheap and small business.

To bring prosperity about in this nation we must all put up a united front, and we are glad to note that in this section, the forces of progress are rapidly uniting in battle array to annihilate the common foe which is in this case President Wilson and the Democratic Party.

NOW SING SONGS OF REJOICING AND TRIUMPH

The spirit of the Negro Press gathered from exchanges since the battle at Carrizal, and the fact that the white press has at last given to the Negro the recognition due him, is just cause for the singing of the songs of rejoicing and triumph, to do this is indeed refreshing, for nigh unto 300 years we have sung the sorrow songs.

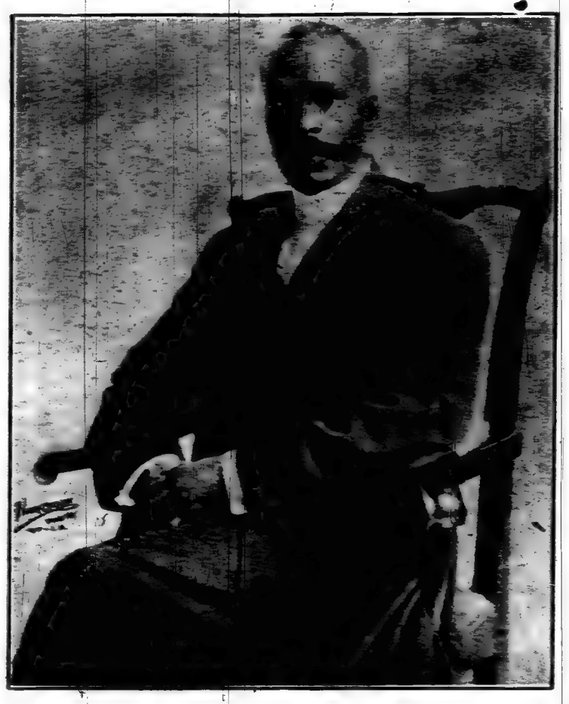
A GREAT VICTORY

Many persons will no doubt fail to appreciate the signal victory that the Eagle has scored in forcing the white owners of the L. A. Post to come out in the open and confess that they are the real owners of this publication which has heretofore been paraded before our people as a race enterprise.

The Eagle knew better. We bombarded this combination because it was very wrong in principles for this journal to parade before the people sailing under false colors and one by one the Negroes who played second fiddle that were willing to prey on their own race to build up a print shop for these white men under false pretenses, have deserted the fort; and for two long weeks these same white men with their distress signs floating at their mast head, have actually been unable to get another Negro to come into their fold to work on their own people, the Negroes, for these two white men. So we say it is a great victory. This fight we made, has put some manhood in somebody at least, we made it single handed and alone against great odds, we had the cringing and sneaking Negro against us, and the white man with his money in a wobbly plant, who was crying for Negro dollars to make himself solid, but we smoked him out just the same and he stands before you now in his true light and that light wholly substantiates the Eagle and justifies our fight. We are content and feel that our fight for a principle has prevailed.

SEPARATE SCHOOLS

Every once in a while a body of fools will crop up in some spot above the Mason and Dixon line, and petition their local school board to give them separate schools. They offer the flimsy argument about providing positions for the young men and women of the Race who elect to teach after graduating. They go to great lengths to point out how futile it is to give our youth higher education without providing a place where they may make use of it. It isn't a difficult matter to impress a body of men, educated though they may be, that such a plan is feasible because there is a growing sentiment against the mixing of the Races, and this is one means of keeping them apart.



There are many reasons why we should use every means in our power to retain the mixed schools. Contact is the one thing that will do more to break down prejudice than all other means, and short-sighted indeed are they who would make a place for the few and permit the many to pay the price for it. Public opinion in the South is so strong against the Race that separate schools are forced on us if we would have any schooling at all, and then we are only given a smattering of what they give their own. The instances where our schools are on a par with the white schools in this section of the country are so rare they could be counted on the fingers of one hand.

In the North there is absolutely no occasion for the division of school children according to their Color, for our teachers have an opportunity, though limited, to secure places in the public schools, even where there are no Colored students. Why, then, should members of our own Race seek further discrimination by appealing to school boards for separate schools? The very thing that should be fought at every turn, "discrimination," these enemies within the camp are fostering. If they would use the same amount of energy along other more beneficial lines they would be doing something constructive, not destructive.—Chicago Defender.

WOMAN'S DAY

Sunday July 23rd at the First M. E. Church—Three Big Services

By the Women—morning, afternoon and night. Great preparations are being made to make this a Red Letter day, under the auspices of the White Missionary Society of First A. M. E. Church, managed by the president Mrs. Lillian J. Crow, assisted by the Choir and some of the best talent among the women in the city of Los Angeles. The afternoon meeting at 3 o'clock promises to be one of the greatest mass meetings ever held in the city. Watch for particulars—Women keep the date in mind. The men of the city are cordially invited.

REV. N. P. GREGGS, D. D.

Pastor Peoples Independent Church, under whose leadership this Church Organization since October of last year, has gained a membership of more than 400 souls, and have just concluded a rally which resulted in the raising of more than $2,000. See detailed report on page seven.

OUR CITIZENSHIP, THE PURCHASE OF BIRTH, LABOR AND BLOOD

The Globe-Democrat of June 26, published an editorial which sounded most jubilantly the praises of the Negro soldier. Most emphatically does it refer to the ambush and massacre at Carrizal, where a section of the Tenth Cavalry fought bravely and nobly. The editorial in part says:

"It was a great exhibition of physical courage and endurance. But the fight at Carrizal was a greater moral demonstration. There was but remote chance of victory. The Negro troopers spilled their blood like water, knowing that death was certain. But they had the traditions of the service, the glory of America and the unsullied reputation of 'the fighting Tenth' to maintain."

The sad but glorious event only demonstrates the Negro's loyalty and his devotion to a flag in the stars of which he can see his way, through difficulties, to glory; but it is our flag and our country because we have purchased it by labor, blood and patriotism, and no petty party organization of Race baiters can wrest it from our hands.

It is not the Negro, but a certain class of white men, who do not in full appreciate the full power, glory, and magnificent and universal scope which this grand banner gives us. All men are endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights—free speech, free religion, free press, due process of law before conviction, th protection of life, liberty and property, impartial jury trial, equal protection of the law, citizenship to all born or naturalized in the United States. These are the principles that the old flag has written on its folds, in the blood of white men and the blood of Negroes. Upon these our patriotism stands and for these our brave soldiers, as well as the American armies of brave white soldiers, have fought many hard won battles.

Upon the unsullied courage of the Negro soldiers at Carrizal, at San Juan, as well as a thousand other places de we stand and demand that the American people give us the right to vote and put no partial restrictions upon it, that we are allowed to travel as others, that no restrictions be placed upon our right to live at any place where by purchase or contract we have obtained the right to a residence. This is what the Negro fights for and this is what the American flag represents, and no party, however poisoned it may be with Race feeling, can make the dear old flag of our country represent anything else.

It is our flag and our constitution. "Ours to defend, ours to transmit, ours to enjoy, and ours to perpetuate."

Frederick Douglass said in 1864, when the fight was one for the enfranchisement of the Negro and the Massachusetts 54th Regiment and other Negro troops had covered themselves with glory on many battlefields in the South, Douglass then said: "If we are good enough to use bullets, we are good enough to use ballots. If we are good enough to march with white men, under the star-spangled banner, to the battlefield, we should not be denied the right to march with white men, under the star-spangled banner, to the ballot-box."

We cannot be citizens when the nation is in peril and aliens when the nation is at safety. Against such a conclusion every sentiment of honor and manly fraternity utters an indignant protest.—St. Louis Argus.

Walter Coffin and wife enjoyed a pleasant week's vacation at Long Beach.

J. D. Graves is attending the convention this week at San Bernardino.

Wonderful girl pianist in recital at Blanchard's hall Tuesday evening, July 11th.

Don't forget the wonderful girl pianist in recital at Blanchard hall on next Tuesday evening.

W. M. Jackman, after spending ten days visiting in the city, has returned to the Soldiers' Home.

Mrs. A. R. Lewis, of Calexico, Cal., was a very pleasant visitor at the Eagle office during the week.

Little Gwendolyn Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Brown, has returned from a two month's visit in the Middlewest, where she has been visiting her grandparents and other relatives.

Woman's day at First A.M.E church Sunday, July 23, promises to be one of the greatest days ever held in the church.

E. R. Robinson, who was called to Memphis, tenn., to attend the funeral of his brother, returned to his home, 930 E. 31st street, last week.

Seats are now reserved at Blanchard hall, next Tuesday evening, when the wonderful girl pianist will be heard in recital, so be on time at 8:15 o'clock.

The Young Peoples' Missionary society will hold their meeting Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Second Baptist church. Friends are cordially invited.

Mrs. C. A. Spear Bass, our managing editor, is in San Bernardino this week attending the meeting of the S.S. & B.Y.P.C. convention. She was accompanied by Miss Idell Albritton.

Mrs. S. A. Bridges of Oakland, Cal., who has been a visitor at San Diego for the past fortnight with her sister, Mrs. Gordon, arrived in Los Angeles Monday, where she is the guest of Mrs. Fountain Brown, for a few days. Mrs. Bridges is the wife of S. A. Bridges, who conducts an up-to-date job printing business in Oakland. She is well up in the knowledge of the printers' art, and is a valuable assistant to her husband. She paid the Eagle a visit, which we appreciate very much.

Morgan M. Lisle of San Francisco, who has been in the city on a visit to his grandparents, E. Morgan and wife of 1027 41st street, returned to his home Tuesday after a very pleasant visit. He was the recipient of many informal affairs. Accompanied by Malcolm Patton of Los Angeles, Mr. Lisle also enjoyed a hike to Long Beach Saturday. The boys strolled leisurely, leaving the city at 9 o'clock and arriving at the beach at 1 o'clock.

No place was there a more patriotic Fourth of July celebration than at the Ivy Street play grounds. An excellent program was rendered composed og speaking by some of L. A's. leading citizens. A number of the children had been well trained in drilling, and did honor to themselves and to their trainers. The L. A. band furnished excellent music, and the colored soldiers, who recently gave up their lives for their country, were not forgotten.

Notice.

All members of the Virginia and West Virginia States club are requested to meet on the evening of July 11th at Providence Baptist church, corner Crocker and Agatha streets. Business of importance.

Mrs. C. Gilliam, Cor. Secy.

At The Forum July 9th, Dr. J. A. Biglow will speak on the subject "AFTER THE WAR, WHAT?

Dr. Duvall Exploiting Building a Race.

Rev. C. H. Duvall is making a tour of the State and is exploiting his matchless lecture "Building a Race." He is accompanied by Mother Duvall and Dr. J. Mitchell Smith. The Doctor is also representing in his lecture the greatest Journal of the West. The California Eagle subscriptions given him will be highly appreciated.

Sunday at the Forum

Last Sabbath was another very interesting occasion at The Forum. Aside from the regular routine of business, the Forum was favored with addresses by Wm. N. Ricks, the poet from San Francisco, and Miss Ruth Temple, who is a protega of the same. Mr. Ricks' address was along the line of racial unity, and he read two of his poems which were received with the greatest of enthusiasm.

Miss Temple spoke on the subject of "Prevention of Tuberculosis" and showed that in her chosen profession she was making a commendable progress, and that ere long she will be one of the brightest jewels in the firmament for racial good and advancement.

An Elite Affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Connor, 2716 Glassel street, last Friday evening tendered a sumptuous dinner and party for A. F. Summers and wife of Oakland. Among those who were seated at the dinner table were W. E. Easton and wife, parents of Mrs. Summers, Dorothy and Willie Easton and Ernest Russell and wife. The following menus were served in six courses: First, fruit cocktails; second, caviar on toast; third, boiled salmon with tartar sauce and potato balls; fourth, smothered chicken, mashed potatoes, green corn Spanish; fifth, special salad and cheese straws; sixth, lemon pie, cake and punch, cafe noir en petit tasse, ices, confectionary and fruits. The decorations were Marie Corelli sweet peas, and the color scheme pink. Music and conversation and cards helped make the evening very pleasant, with the large number of guests who came after supper.

Reeves-Maxwell Nuptials.

In the presence of immediate relatives and friends Miss Senola D. Maxwell became the bride of Mr. H. A. Reeves on last Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Graham, of 1534 E. 23rd St. The house was daintily decorated with bowers of green ferns and Shasta daisies, which were picked and presented to the bride by her pupils of the E. 51st St, School.

The bride was attired in a charming creation of white silk net and point rose lace and carried a bridal doquet of sweet peas. The bride and groom were unattended, the wedding march being played by Mrs. Ethel Berry, sister of the bride, and Mrs. S. P. Dones, violinist.

Following an informal reception Mr. and Mrs. Reeves left for a short honeymoon, motoring to San Diego. After their return they will reside in this city, the groom being in business here.

Mrs. S. E. Hicks of Phoenix, Ariz., is a visitor in the city, a guest of Mrs. W. H. Sanders, 1200 Easton street.

Making Good Everywhere.

Hall's California Jubilee Singers rendered a program at First Methodist (white) church, San Diego, to a packed and appreciative house. Every number was encored, the people showing that their work was appreciated and above the average, and they have been promised a number by return engagement. They will appear at Long Beach Friday night and at Trinity Auditorium at 3 p. m. with a full program.

Independence day and the Preparedness parade were the grandest in the history of San Diego. Crowds were everywhere and everybody had a great and glorious time. It was a grand Fourth; one could hear it said on all sides—at the Exposition, where the banner crowd of 45,250 entered the gates, at the beaches, at the back country, at Tia Juana; in fact all through San Diego county, that the great Independence day was a great day in every respect. It was without doubt the grandest day ever held in these parts. The Exposition was the drawing card. It consisted of a crowd that came early and stayed late; in fact the crowd stayed until the last set of fireworks had flashed in the beautiful heavens. And it was a happy, jolly, enthusiastic, cheering crowd—a crowd that went wild with joy and excitement. Why, they were bent on enjoying themselves, and there was no limit to the hilarity and they tried to send the smoke through the clouds. Noise, noise, and then some noise! The preparedness parade marched 12 abreast, and were just one and one-half hours passing a given point. Now, if we tell you how the people were lined up all along the sidewalks and curbs, looking down from sky scrapers and telegraph poles, you would have declared the sight comical, as well as grand and imposing. It was the same all along the line of march. And after the parade had broken rank, C. A. A. McGee, orator of the day, delivered his patriotic address in the Exposition grounds. Col. D. C Collier read the Declartion of Independence, and it looked as if the city of San Diego was enclosed in the Expoeition grounds; then came the autos, which looked as it they were on their way to Mexico, there being so many of them. There are more autos in San Diego than in any other place of its size in the state. The various beaches also report that they had great crowds. One of the features at the Exposition was the singing by Ellen Beach Yaw, who sang twice during the day. Many people stood, in order to hear the great organ recital by Dr. Humphrey I. Stewart, who started the recital by the playing of the patriotic piece, "The Star Spangled Banner." Then came the daring auto leap of Jack Little—it was a thriller, that's all. We then had a grand time, Tommasin's band entertaining with popular airs, which were listened to and applauded by all.

In the evening of the Fourth, at Masonic hall, Prof. Bubber Brown gave a grand ball, which was well attended, the participants enjoying themselves immensely. By the way, Bubber is making good here in San Diego.

What made the Fourth a grand day here was because every back country community in the county joined hands with San Diego in the great preparedness parade and in the exercises that followed the parade. Many came by auto and steamer from the north, filling the apartment and rooming houses and hotels. The restaurants and stores all did a rushing business, and to sum it all up, it was a dandy big Fourth. Hurrah for the 1916 parade!

Among the visitors to the sunkissed city were Mr. and Mrs. Jewell, Mr. Marshall, Attorney W. O. Tyler, A. L. Brookins, Mrs. Reynolds, and a party of friends, Helen Mays, formerly of Houston, Tex., cousin of M. T. Laws, Miss Paton, Miss Brown and brother.

Mr. P. Bridges, sister of Mrs. Tonie Gordon, is down from Oakland on a visit to her sister.

Miss Carson and Mrs. Scales, Mr. Shannon, from San Francisco, are in our city.

Miss Beasley, San Francisco; Mrs. R. C. Wilson, Los Angeles, are in the city.

Miss Dimples, after returning from the Angel city, entertained a party of friends from the latter city Tuesday night.

Mrs. Geo. Hodge, 1720 Newton avenue, entertained with a dinner last Friday, June 30. Those present were Mmmes. J. J. Jacobs, A. J. Most, Coy, all of San Jose. They motored back home after seeing all places of interest in and about San Diego.

Rev. Kinchio of Los Angeles was down to officiate at a funeral. As usual, he called at the Eagle office.

Don't forget to prepare for the big outing to be held at the pepper grove at the Exposition grounds shortly. Everybody in the city should invite a friend to be present. Watch next issue for said date. Every lady should invite two gentlemen friends. All 1916 school graduates admitted free.

THE BLACK SOLDIER BOYS.

Not a drum was heard,
Nor a Whisper spoken
When we lost our captain
At Carrizal!

On the bloody battlefield,
Near the old adobe hut,
Where we took shelter from
The rain of bullets
From the soldiers of Mexico—
Long will we remember
The burning sun
From the blue sky
That made our faces
Ache, as they never ached before.

So it is good-bye, Villa,
And don't be deceived, Carranza,
For the black boys are coming back
To avenge that cruel death.

No double-crossing is necessary;
We are coming in the open,
For a chance to have a fight,
To avenge the death
Of our Black Soldier Boys.

G.

MRS. VAN WILLIAMS.

Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth, president of the All-American League, addressed the congregation of the First Congregational church on South Hope street near 9th, Rev. William Horace Day, D.D., pastor, Sunday evening, June 25th. President Macbeth's subject was "Christian Americanism." At the close of the address, Dr. Day in speaking to his congregation said, "Brethren, Ethiopia is even now stretching forth her hands unto God. We of the white race have to thank our Colored brethren for a new vision of our citizenship."

On Tuesday evening, July 11th at Blanchard hall will appear a double quartette of young ladies assisting the wonderful girl pianist. Their numbers must be heard to be appreciated. Little Velma White will appear in song written by our own Negro composer, Mr. J. H. Cuffee. We are glad to note that little George Gatliff will give the audience a reading. All of these for your enjoyment aside from the master numbers by the wonderful girl pianist. Admission, 25 and 35 cents. The program will begin an time, 8:15 sharp.

F. H. MOUSER FOR ASSEMBLYMAN FROM THE 74TH DISTRICT

From those who have kept tab and who know, it is said that Assemblyman Mouser has made one of the best records as a member of the legislature of all the members of that body for the past four years, and in announcing his candidacy it is his desire to even improve on that record for the next term, feeling thusly he announces his candidacy to succeed himself, and since the amalgamation of Progressives and Republicans he is running simply as a straight Republican, but campaign he was nominted on both the Republican and Progressive tickets.

Mr. Mouser has demonstrated all through his public career a strong friendship for his Colored constituents and even his enemies cannot help but say that he has always stood for them and gave and helped them in gaining political recognition. And for this and many other equally as important reasons Mr. Mouser will without doubt receive from this people a strong support. And if nominated and elected will no doubt keep up the good work.

Letters Frighten Brakemen.

Negro brakemen on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley railroad, says a Natchez, Miss., dispatch, are being forced to give up their positions because of black hand letters and other threatening messages, followed by hostile acts. Blacks all over the system are receiving letters telling them to quit their jobs forthwith. Several of those who have failed to take the advise have been shot from ambush. The negroes are terrorized and in some localities it is the exception to see a negro employed in any capacity on a train.

Mrs. A. R. Wilson of San Diego spent a very enjoyable visit here attending the convention of the Christian Science teachers, stopping with Mr. J. D. Reynolds, returning Monday in time to assist her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dennis B. Wilson, and two little ones, to make the same trip, where they will spend a few weeks visiting with their grandfather and Mamma Reynolds, at 1986 Raymond avenue, Pasadena.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Secretary Folke of the Eldorado Gold Star Mining Company is sending out notices to the stockholders of the meeting of the same on Aug. 8th at the company office, 255 Wilson building, this city. The work at the mine is proceeding and shipments are being made. The returns have been highly satisfactory. The company is considering the putting in of a cyanide plant at once, thereby reducing the ore to bullion right on the spot.

LIST OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE
FIRST CHURCH-BUILDING RALLY
HELD BY
THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST
JUNE 11, 1916
REV. N. P. GREGGS, D. D., Pastor

We herewith submit a detailed statement of the contributions received for the building fund of our church. We are conscious of the fact that there may be many errors and omissions in the reports as handed in by the captains. If you name has been omitted or the amount you contributed incorrectly stated, you will kindly report same to the clerk or pastor and the matter will be adjusted.

This rally was the outgrowth of an idea, born in the mind and heart of Sister Clara Moore, who saw, in her vision, a $1000 rally, for a new church home, for our congregation. The suggestion was approved, by the pastor, and Sister Moore was authorized to launch her campaign. Under her splendid leadership, the co-operation of the fourteen captains and the loyalty of the members and friends, more than $2000.00 were brought as an offering to the Lord. And say what you please, but this money represents a greater sacrifice than any, who are not close to the hearts of these people, can possibly imagine.

Many brought their last dollar, others sacrificed all their pleasures and many of their personal comforts and necessities and all gave until they felt it.

We thank God for having associated us with such a people, the like of whom, we freely confess, we have not seen, in all our ministerial experiences. With such an army, who like the "Old Guard" of Napoleon's command, knew how to die, but not to retreat, we feel that the victory is ours, for "We see the triumph from afar, by faith we'll bring it nigh."

We are especially indebted to our friends, without whose help and encouragement it would have been impossible for us to have succeeded so well. Chief among whom, we mention Dr. E. W. Kinchen, the big-hearted pastor, and the Christian spirited people of Wesley Chapel, whose latch string never hangs on the inside, when we desire admission, for any purpose. Our afternoon services were held there and they encouraged us by a generous offering. The splendid choir of Wesley Chapel was in its place and sang as it alone can, under the efficient Prof. Howard. In the same spirit we refer to Rev. W. J. J. Byers, the pastor and members of the A. M. E. Zion Church, (Pico and Paloma) who gave us the privilege of worshiping with them, in the Sunday evening services. There we closed a most glorious day of worship and sacrifice. Last but by no means least, we mention the pastor and people of New Hope Baptist Church, who were our guest during the afternoon services. Rev. A. Lively, their stirring young pastor, delivered the sermon and his people supported us by their presence and offerings. We are under obligations to all, whether present or absent, during this effort, for their sympathy, prayers and good will, even if they could not contribute one cent. Your Christian sympathy is worth much to us.

With $1500.00 net, over and above current expenses, already on hand, and more than $2000.00 resulting from this effort, we have a worth while "nest-egg," which, we hope, will, in the near future, hatch out a house of worship, which will be a credit to our Race and a monument to the prayers and sacrifices of this people.

We were organized Oct. 3, 1915. Chartered, Dec. 14, 1915. Since which time we have grown from 47 to more than 400 souls, more than 50 of whom have been converted to the Christian religion, through the influence of our services and prayers.

You will notice that our splendid Sunday School, under its inimitable Superintendent, contributed $50.00. All the boards made substantial contributions. Out of some single families from $20.00 to $38.00 were given personally.

In reading the following lists, you will note that the meaning of the letters used is as follows: P—Personal donation; E—Money raised by entertainment; S—Money raised by solicitation; C—Money raised by public collections.

EDDIE HARRIS VICTORIOUS AT SANTA MONICA TOURNAMENT

Five Hundred Fans See Sturdy Lad Defeat All Comers

(By Raymond Isum)

Santa Monica, July 4—Eddie Harris of the Three Boys Club of Ceres avenue, is tonight the Colored tennis champion of Southern California.

Harris played his way through the elimination, the grueling semi-finals, defeating the champion, Ballinger Kemp of the Alpha Club, and whipping Alva Garrott, representing Glendale in the finals for the championship.

The stripling lad from Ceres avenue played better tennis today than he did in the Y. M. A. first annual tournament held at Pasadena last Labor day. He was the "dark horse" in that event and caused a sensation by defeating all comers bu to the finals. In the finals he was defeated for the championship by Kemp. The ten months that have elapsed between the tournaments have worked wonders with Harris. Today he proved beyond a doubt that his defeat last year was due to the lack of court generalship. Today he was the master of the situation from the opening game to the final shot. He wore his opponents out by superior court generalship. He fairly ran them to exhaustion. His wonderful stamina and superior court generalship was responsible for his great victory over the veteran, Davis, Kemp and Garrott.

The Finals

The finals were great to witness. Garrott took the first set with apparent ease, the score being 6-4. The next set was hard fought and close at times. They maneuvered brilliantly, with the spectators rendering thunderous applause after each spectacular play. Harris won this set by a score of 6-4, thus evening the score in sets, and bringing the fans to the high fever point of excitement. The last set was even more closely contested than the second. Harris was here, there and everywhere with Garrott tired, but using his wicked cut service with deadly effect in three games. The score was tied, one set each and three games apiece. It was at this point that Garrott's stamina failed him and he weakened quickly. Harris was superb and did his best work after the tie, winning three straight games, which made him peer of them all on the court. The final score was 4-6, 6-4, 6-3. The linesman, Paul Williams, and the scorer, W. O. Tyler, are to be complimented on the splendid manner in which they handled the event.

The tournament was held on the Santa Monica High School courts under the auspices of the Santa Monica Tennis Club, of which Messrs. Roscoe Broyles, E. J. Peters and Walter McNeal are the directors. It was for the Southern California championship in men's singles. A beautiful loving cup was the prize contested for by the sixteen entrants.

Among those who participated in the event were: E. Harris and P. Davis of the Ceres Avenue club; Broyles, Peters and McNeal of the Santa Monica; H. Ramey and H. Davis of the Y. M. A., Pasadena; E. Kemp, C. Brooks, A. Matthews and P. Williams of the Alpha Club; J. Oliver and Clark of the Westside Club; Lee Bailey and Alva Garrott, unattached. Five hundred fans lined the courts and liberally applauded the players.

The Presentation

The loving cup was presented to the champion at the dance held this evening at Ocean Park. Dr. James E. Duncan did the presentation honors in behalf of the Santa Monicans in a creditable manner. The victor received a great ovation and cries were made for a speech. He assumed the championship mantle modestly and responded in a few brief words that "it takes speed, nerve and endurance to win tennis tournaments." The balance of the evening was spent in tripping the light fantastic to excellent music furnished by Mrs. Madaline Morris. Three cheers for Harris and three more cheers for the Santa Monica Tennis Club.

Montana Colored Boy Graduates With Honor From Montana State College.

We note in the Anaconda Standard an account of the graduation in a class of 31 the name and cut of Arthur Ford of Helena Mont.

We are proud to see this and the more so because of our acquaintances with him and his splendid family, and if our people thruout the country would do as this family and this young man the problem would soon be solved. We congratulate the young man for his effort and his family for their sacrifices. Mr. and Mrs. Ford his parents are among the most enterprising and progressive citizens of the entire North West.

Prov. Inst. church will have a great day Sunday. Rev. Moore will be present and preach for us. We are looking forward to having a crowded house, with all members present.

Notice to S. M. T's.

The State Grand Princess, Mrs. Wm. Shores, asks that all S.M.T's who are in good standing in the lodge be present at Washington and Central hall July 12. State Grand Master, Rev. C. H. Harbert, will be there and have many good things to say.

Jos. J. Anderson, premier entertainer, is the whole works with the vaudeville act at the Angelus.

Mrs. Wm. Thomas, grand lecturer of the Supreme Grand Chapter Order of the Eastern Star of North and South America and Canada, left Tuesday afternoon for Memphis, Tenn., to attend the Supreme Grand Chapter which convenes in that city at the close of the National Masonic convention, which began its session there July 11. Mrs. Thomas will stop over in New Orleans Friday evening and join Capt. Wm. T. M. Grant, the Supreme Grand Patron, and a host of delegates and friends. Mrs. Thomas is well known in social circles here and in Texas, and on her return West, she will spend about a month visiting relatives and friends in the Lone Star State. She is the Matron of Alpine Chapter, A.F. and A.M., of this city.

OPENING OF THE NEW ANGELUS A NOTABLE SUCCESS

Thousands Turned Away on Opening Night. The Finest and Most Up-to-Date Moving Picture and Vaude-House in Entire Country

Film by Colored Cast a Great Drawing Card. Triumph for the Lincoln Moving Picture Company.

On Tuesday evening, July 4th, the Angelus Theatre was crowded to its utmost capacity by Colored citizens, eagerly bent upon seeing the real physiognomies of real Negroes thrown upon the canvas.

"The Realization of a Negro's Ambition" is the title of the play produced by the All-Star local cast.

Each member of the cast deserves special mention for the exceptional and histronic ability displayed on this initial appearance.

Messrs. Gordon and Williams are to be congratulated upon their success in carrying to completion one of the coziest and most comfortable playhouses in the city of Los Angeles. The erection of this new enterprise marks another epoch in the social and economic independence of the Negroes of California. No pains has been spared to carry out in detail all the designs of similar playhouses in and around Los Angeles.

The Lincoln Motion Picture Company guarantees the Colored citizens of Los Angeles that all pictures featured and delineated by this company will be of the highest order; depicting the Negro only in his natural habitat. All application and references will be true to the life and character of the Negro.

We regret that the space allotted us will not permit us to write of the characters individually, but suffice it to us to say that the first production of the All-Star Negro company proved to be an overwhelming success and paves the way for grander things in the future. We are certainly proud of the work being done by this company.

The midnight picnic was given at the residence of Mrs J. S True Tuesday, July 4, in honor of her sister, Mrs. B. H. Jones of Bisbee, Arizona. Everyone pronounced the hostess superb.

Mrs. P. G. Fowler, who left Thursday for a three month's stay in the East, including Pittsburg. Her many friends in Los Angeles have shown their great love for her by the many social functions given in her honor. Mrs. Fowler was accompanied by Mrs. Fannie King, who goes to New York for a visit. Mrs. Fowler spent Sunday afternoon and night the guest of Mrs. M. J. Davis, 179 S. Utah. On Monday she was entertained with an afternoon luncheon by Mrs. Fletcher, 572 Austin street. Covers were laid for 14. Tuesday, the Fourth, a beach party was given by a number of friends in her honor, and on Wednesday evening, the day prior to her departure, Mrs. Thornhill of Hollywood entertained from 6 to 11 p. m. with a very pretty reception.

Morton Clark, from Indianapolis, Ind., who was called here to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Barbara Clark, will return home soon to renew his work. Young Mr. Clark is a graduate from Knoxville College and a post graduate from Howard University. His sister, Mrs. Cally La Vine, and her brother, Wm. Clark, regret very much to have him leave.

Mrs. Beatrice Cook, 3614 Griffith avenue, who has been very ill, is reported to be some better.

A number of friends and one of the Los Angeles pleasure clubs were royally entertained by Mrs. Clarence Wright, 171 Clarence street, Thursday evening.

Mabel De Hurt is recognised as one of the foremost of colored actresses on the stage today. The vaudeville act at the Angelus this week is her conception.

Just think what you will miss if you don't come to the penny dance next Wednesday evening at the Parrish hall. Dainty refreshments only one cent. Good music and lots of fun.

Baptist Convention at San Bernardino.

REV. G. W. REED

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND B. Y. P. U. IN ANNUAL MEET

Wednesday, July 5 the ninth annual session of the Baptist Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. convention assembled with the New Hope Baptist church of San Bernardino, of which Rev. F. A. Cooper is pastor.

Wednesday morning at 9:30 the session was called to order by President W. M. Reynolds. At that hour most of the delegates were in their places and responded to the roll call. It is needless to state that it was a happy meeting, for as the representatives responded to the call and took their places per the direction of President Reynolds. A few vacant seats were there, and a few voices that once joined in sweet accord with those present had been hushed, such as that of Father C. H. Anderson, who at the time perhaps was permitted to turn his microscopic vision, earned by his many years' toil, upon us and reported to the angels assembled about the throne that a mighty meeting was in progress.

The first day, Wednesday's session, set the pace for the succeeding ones. Conspicuous among the numbers, however, was the address of welcome by Mayor Nixon, who appeared in person and heartily endorsed the work of the brothers in Black, commending them for their loyalty to the country in times of crisis, and for the great gospel trust such as they were spreading upon this occasion. Rev. J. M. Riddle of Friendship, Pasadena, responded to the mayor on the behalf of the convention and elaborated also upon the bravery and valor of members of his Race, especially in those serving in the U. S. Army and Navy.

The other two features of the first day was President Reynolds' address with its many and timely recommendations for the future education and spiritual development of the organization, and the paper by Miss Myrtle Anderson on the subject, "Preparedness which was a masterpiece of eloquence.

Miss Anderson is an orator of striking ability. Each year as she appears before the convention marked improvement is noted.

Each conventional day at San Bernardino appeared brighter and brighter. Thursday morning the scene was changed, and as it were we thought that we had already listened to all of the good things that could come from the convention in one year, but when the brave B. Y. P. U. workers were ushered into prominence, we soon learned that other good things were in store for us.

President S. P. Johnson called the convention to order upon this day, and the welcome address on behalf of San Bernardino was delivered by Miss F. Harrison, and responded to by Mrs. Eva Solomon of Pasadena, both addresses were highly meritorious and befitting to the occasion. President S. P. Johnson's annual address was as usual inspiration to the body and filled with new thought that will form a foundation for a stronger and better union.

Friday, July 7th, was joint session for the two bodies. The most important feature of this day was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which were as follows:

From the Sunday School—

President—Capt. W. M. Reynolds.

Vice President—Miss Myrtle Anderson.

Corresponding Secretary — J. Allen Reece.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. S. B. Strickland.

Treasurer—Mrs. W. Willingham.

Organist—Mr. Wyndon.

Chorister — Miss Antonette Young.

From the B. Y. P. U.—

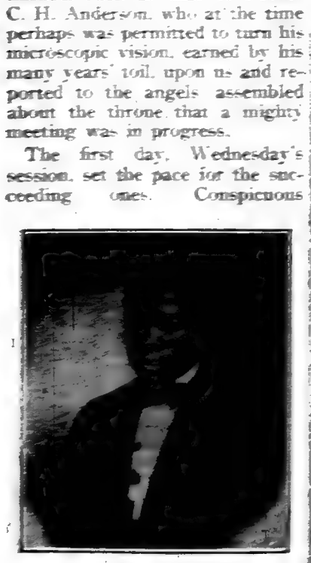
President—S. P. Johnson.

Vice President—S. N. Miller.

Recording Secretary — Mrs. Florence A. L. Gordon.

Corresponding Secretary—Hilbert Rozier.

Treasurer—Mrs. Millie Taylor.



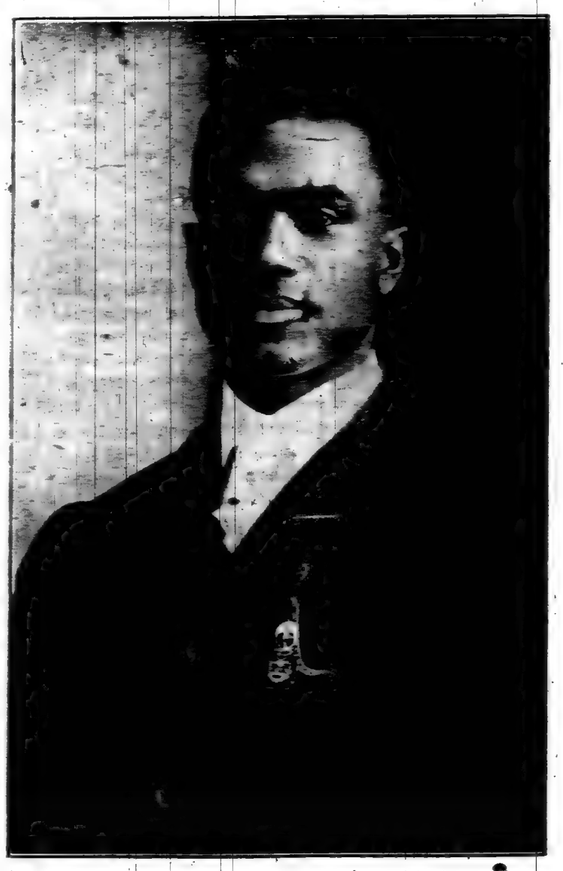
Organist—Mr. Hopkins.

Chorister—Miss Ollie Green.

One of the most instructive features of the convention were the three connected lectures by Rev. G. W. Reed, who demonstrated that much study, and application had thoroughly prepared him the task undertaken.

The presence of Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Proud was warmly welcomed and it is believed by the people that the presence of a man like Dr. Proud in this section will mean much spiritually and intellectually to this people.

After a very pleasant automobile trip over the city which was accorded the delegates by the citizens of San Diego the convention adjourned to meet next July at the Tabernacle Baptist church, Los Angeles.



HILBERT ROZIER

MISS VELMA MARIE WOOD IN RECITAL

When it was announced that Miss Wood would appear in recital at Blanchard Hall under the auspices of the Second Baptist Church, it was anticipated that a rare musical treat would be the order of things, but as it were, the half had not been told.

Last Tuesday evening when Miss Wood, for the first time, appeared before a crowded audience in recital the most sanguine expectation of even her admirers was surpassed. Among the numbers rendered by Miss Wood was the "Soneta quasi una Fantasia—L. Van Beethoven (op. 27), Mendelssohn's "Spring Song," and Franz Liszt "Rhapsodie hongroise No. 2."

S. P. JOHNSON

Those who listened to Miss Wood upon this occasion predict for her the most brilliant future as a musician yet produced by the West.

Miss Wood is sweetly simple in her stage manner, and appeals to her audience not only because of her perfect technique, grace and ease, but also because of her pleasing and effective attitude when executing.

The other numbers of the program that attracted special notice was the oration by Master Geo. Gatliff, who is always a star and Mr. J. H. Cuffies "If the World Would Just Turn Backward," by little Velma White.

MRS. FLORENCE A. L. GORDON

Among those who highly appreciate the effort of Miss Wood and her mother and tutor, Mrs. Wood, who is absolutely responsible for the success of her daughter, were Mr. and Mrs. Baylie—the letter from whom we are publishing here:

Los Angeles, Cal., July 12, 1916.
Mr. and Mrs. Jno. C. Wood:

Dear Friends: I want to tell you how greatly we appreciate your kindness in extending to us your invitation to the musical of last evening. We enjoyed it greatly.

Miss Velma certainly shows the training of a master, i. e., her mother. I predict for her a career and will enjoy with you her merited success.

With kind regards, we remain
Yours sincerely,
MR. AND MRS. BAYLIE.

LOCAL NOTES

Mr. A. E. Summers accompanied by his wife spent two very pleasant weeks in this city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Easton, took his departure for his home in Oakland last Sunday morning, his wife will remain with her parents during the summer months. Friday night Mr. Summers was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell attending the Alumni meeting, when he returned to his residence he was most agreeably surprised to find a gathering of guests there to surprise him. Among those present were: Attorney and Mrs. Hugh E. MacBeth, Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. P. Segour, Mr. and Mrs. D. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. G. Rutherford, Mrs. Conners, Mrs. Beatrice Thompson, accompanied by Master Sumner and Miss Anita, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dorsey, Mrs. Madge Shaefer Hill, Miss May Rodgers and Mr. Jesse Kimbrough. Mr. D. Baker was the host of the evening and assisted by Mr. Segour, furnished a delightful Surprise Party collation, including an excellent fruit punch which contained every fruit of the season in addition to fruit that do not grow here. Upon the arrival of Mr. Summers, he kindly presided at the piano of which he is a master and the hosts of the evening enjoyed a rare treat both instrumental and vocal.

Mr. Pierre Segour, Mrs. M. S. Hill, Little Miss Hilda Brior contributed in fine voice a number of popular selections. Mr. D. Baker who possesses a rich baritone also added to the entertainment. After a very pleasant evening, the merry hosts of the evening departed to their homes, and Mr. and Mrs. Summers had been given a memory of Los Angeles entertainment not soon to be forgotten.

SOJOURNER NOTES

For the atmosphere of real home life don't forget the sunny rooms at the Sojourner Truth.

The Southern division of the State Federation held their last Board meeting, and reciprocity day, 1915-1916 at Sojourners Home, Tuesday, July 11. Chairman's of Departmental work reported increased interest and activities, and are looking forward to great things at the State Federation which will come at Pasadena July 25, closing Friday, July 28. Every one should avail themselves of the opportunity to attend and learn of the great work carried on by the State Federation.

Delegates or visitors to the Federation who expect to remain over for a few days can secure rooms at Sojourner Home. Avail yourself of the opportunity of coming personally in contact with this work.

Miss Katherine Oliver has gone to the foot-hills for a two week's recreation.

Mrs. Holly after several months in the home returned to Denver, Colo., Tuesday evening.

Miss Patti, on her way through the city, stopped in the home for two days.

New arrival at the home this week.—Misses Hankins Harris.

The president calls a special meeting for officers, members and delegates to the Federation on Monday, July 17, at 2:30.

Women are requested to register for employment as there are many calls for efficient help.

REV. G. W. REED

Recently Elected Field Secretary For the Western Baptist Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Conventions

At the recent meeting of the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Conventions, at San Bernardino, Rev. G. W. Reed, of Stockton, was elected Field Secretary and Director of Young Peoples Work of the Western Baptist Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Conventions. Rev. Reed is also Corresponding Secretary of the California Baptist State Convention, and Secretary of the State Ministeral conference.

The election of Rev. Reed, to this very important office by the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. conventions, was due to the superior knowledge demonstrated by him during the sitting of the convention in his lectures on "management and equipment", "preperation" and "presentation". At this meeting, Rev. Reed proved himself an expert in young people's work.

Those wishing to communicate with Mr. Reed, may address him P. O. Box 692, Stockton, Calif., or 1244 Long Beach avenue, Los Angeles. Phones, Stockton 3R13. Broadway 3292.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

It was a great day with the Old Folks, and a thronging number of other folks, at First church Sunday last. Sixty-six aged mothers and fathers found their way, through the courtesy of the transportation committee, to First church and worshipped. Free dinner was served to these, and more than 200 others. The photographs of the old people were taken, and an old-fashioned class service enjoyed until 4 o'clock, when the aged folks were returned home. One of these mothers gave her age as 126 years. A unanimous vote of thanks was extended by the official board to all who helped in making this annual affair such a grand success.

Now comes the official announcement of the forty-ninth annual session of the California Conference of the A.M.E. church to convene in First church, this city, with Rev. Craw and his splendid members and staunch well-wishers on Wednesday morning, September 6, at 9 o'clock and continuing with three sessions daily until Sunday night, September 10. A good public reception will take place Wednesday night. The entire community of Angel city and its suburban neighbors are welcome to each session.

"Dollar money" time is at hand, and the pastor and class leaders are busy collecting the same. "Special effort dollar money" day will be observed on Sunday, July 30. Let every member and well-wisher pay either before or on that fifth Sunday. This is a heavy-pressed claim that is truly a tithe which should be cheerfully paid into the treasury of the church, according to the lavished blessings of heaven upon the contributory. Do your duty now.

The biggest event in our church life before the assembling of our annual Conference, will be Woman's day, all day on Sunday, July 23. Sermon by Mrs. Lillian J. Craw, assisted by the choir, at 11 a. m. Grand women's mass meeting and mite missionary box rally at 3 p. m. Great sacred program at 8 p. m. Dinner at the church.

The parish is delighted in the in which homes are being opened for the entertainment of delegates to the annual conference. Breakfast will be served in these homes and dinner and supper at the church. Revs. Johnson and Barton are doing their part towards making this session the best by way of entertainment in the history of the Conference.

You are welcome at First church services tomorrow. The pastor will preach morning and evening.

Come see our sweet Sunday school children Tuesday night, July 18, in their play, "Mid-summer Eve."

Man's day, Sunday, August 13. Don't forget it.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Pastor

Last Sunday Pastor Byers occupied the pulpit at both services. At the morning service the subject was "The Believer's Hope." A splendid audience was in attendance and the services being highly spiritual, were very effective.

Sunday evening "The Healing of the Lame Man by Peter and John," was the subject. The sermon was expository, practical and very helpful to all.

Tomorrow (Sunday) will be a great day in Zion. At the morning service the pastor will deliver the sermon, the subject of which will be, "The Work and Counsel of Man vs. the Work and Counsel of God."

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the general memorial services for the city, in honor of the members of the Tenth cavalry who lost their lives in Mexico in the fight at Carrizal, will be held under the auspices of the Colored Ministers Association.

All civic, social, fraternal, and religious organizations in the city are invited and expected to be present and participate in the service. The memorial address proper will be delivered by Rev. J. W. Prowd, pastor of the Second Baptist church. There will be other speakers also. The music for the occasion will be furnished by an aggregated choir composed of members of all the choirs in the city. Special musical numbers will be contributed by Rev. Joseph T. Hill and Capt. W. M. Reynolds.

Sunday evening the Junior choir of the church will appear in its first sacred concert, which promises to be a real musical treat. Let every member and friend of the church be present and enjoy the program, be inspired and encourage these young people in their maiden effort.

Second A.M.E. Church

All the A.M.E. churches will unite in the stewards' rally next Sunday, July 16, at the Second church. Furlong tract, at 3 p. m. Dr. J. Logan Craw, the leading pulpit orator of our city and pastor of the First church, 8th and Town avenue, will deliver the sermon. Dr. Moten and his splendid summer choir will be present and good music is assured.

On the second Sunday in August the High school students and graduates will confront the educational program at the night service. Hon. James Alexander will deliver an address.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church
1406 Newton Street

Dr. J. A. Stout, presiding elder of the Los Angeles district, held the Third Quarterly Conference at Phillips' chapel last Sunday. He preached at both services, closing on Monday night with the business session of the Conference. Good reports were made from every department of the church.

Memorial services will be held in honor of the late Rev. S. L. Harris, ex-pastor of Phillips' chapel, the fifth Sunday in July at 3 p. m., and on this day funds will be raised for the erection of a monument by the members of the church. All members and friends are requested to be present to do honor to this great warrior who fought so bravely.

THE PEOPLE'S INDEPENDENT CHURCH OF CHRIST
(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. K. P. Griggs, Pastor.

The services Sunday were up to the usual high standard. The Sunday school was very interesting and well attended. A large and very appreciative congregation greeted the pastor at both the morning and evening service, and were greatly benefited by an eloquent and practical sermon on each occasion. The choir continues to thrill the audience with their soul touching music. Beginning with next Sunday, services will begin promptly. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Everybody welcome. Come early if you desire seats.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and beautiful floral offerings which greatly comforted us at the loss of our beloved husband and father.

Charles L. Ehrenfeld.

Republican Candidate for Assemblyman 72nd District.

Charles L. Ehrenfeld announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman of the 72nd District. Mr. Ehrenfeld is a native of New York State and came to Los Angeles 23 years ago, and has resided in this Assembly district continuously for that period. He has never held public office in this state, but has always been interested and actively engaged in furthering the best civic and political interests of the community. For 22 years he was in the train service of the Santa Fe Railway company, from which employment he recently retired.

He is a believer in sound, sane and just legislation and opposed to all legislation of the special privilege type.

He strongly favors legislation that will reduce taxation and protect the home.

Legislation that gives equal rights to women.

Legislation that will protect the children of the state.

Legislation that will enlarge the scope and efficiency of our educational institutions.

Legislation that will not encroach upon the personal liberty of the citizens granted by the Constitution.

Legislation that will advance and protect the industries of the state.

Legislation that will make for effectiveness, efficiency and economy in the administration in the various departments of state government.

If elected to this office he assures us that he will put forth his best efforts to influence legislation that will protect and advance the interests of all the citizens of the State.

The Citizens of Monrovia Hold Great Meeting, Editor of Eagle Receives Ovation From Business League.

At the kind invitation of the citizens of Monrovia the editor on last Tuesday journeyed to that place, and at the beautiful and commodious structure of the A.M.E. Zion church found a crowd of both colored and white citizens awaiting our arrival.

The League stands for progress, and the president in introducing us said that personally he had never met us, but that he was a reader of the Eagle and that from the mere fact that the Eagle is what it is, he was satisfied that its editor would be an inspiration to this people.

We addressed the people at length "On the Progress of the Race." And from the manifestation and constant applause, we take it that we at least brought to them a message worthy of consideration.

We were accompanied by quite a delegation of Los Angeles citizens, E. J. Gaines, R. G. Lamar, G. P. Brown and W. H. Sanders. At the conclusion of our address we presented them to the people of Monrovia, and all acquitted themselves with credit with short, spicy addresses.

We truly appreciate our visit to this people and for the opportunity in our feeble way to be of service to them.

Token of Esteem.

By N. B. Harding.

I understand the Women's Federation (colored) of Southern California are contemplating sending some token of esteem to the Tenth cavalry to do them honor for their valiant services rendered to their country at Carrizal, Mexico. I acknowledge that those brave heroes deserve great credit and much credit and honor, but in doing them homage for what they have done, I do not think we should encourage our sons to assimilate. Now, you may become wonder-struck at such an assertion, but when I call your attention to the fact that there is nothing that the black man can do in the present state of affairs which will cause public sentiment to give him recognition as an American citizen, with the same rights and privilege as other American citizens. You may harp as much as you please about this being your country, but you will have to agree with me that it is as much your country as is the home of a friend of mine, who could not live in it because he was black.

Thoughts Wise, and Otherwise.

By Hilbert L. Rosier.

The Y.M.C.A. will meet their old rivals, Pasadena, in a game of American pastime at Echo park this afternoon. As this is picnic day at the park, a large crowd will be in evidence and a great little argument should be the order of the day. Of course I am neutral, naturally, but if Pasadena wins they'll have to get up and hustle. Our pets beat Pasadena in their first battle and are considerably stronger now than then. Admission free. Honest, now, how can I miss it?

The Progressive Literary club is extending its membership quite a bit, as a number of Pasadena's young smart set have announced their intention of joining, among whom are Martha Napper and Ruth and Loretta Riddle. The club announces its welcome to these aspirants.

The Progressive club entertains at the home of Julius Baker tonight with a program including a part of Romeo and Juliet. Miss Mayme Lowe's singing will be another feature of the program.

Summer school has its charm for the girls and the girls. Well, the boys enroll, too.

Discussing summer school with some club fellows, Clarence James learned that Miss Mayme Lowe was attending. The next day Mr. James was among those enrolled. You may form your own conclusion.

Ethyl Temple—"Little boys are the cutest kind of boys."

Julius Baker—"I'm on my way to Ceres avenue."

Lawrence Greene—"Bub Howdy."

Josephine Baker—"I want to sell you some tickets."

Did you know that special delivery letters from San Bernardino to Los Angeles are getting common since the convention?

Automobile rides are as common as three squares in San Bernardino.

For Supervisor.

Peter H. Updike, candidate for Supervisor for the 4th District, is a safe man to represent the people on the Board of Supervisors. He has a broad business experience and is filled with the spirit of Western progress and is well equipped, both from the standpoint of experience and natural ability, for the position. He has given time and study to the needs of the county, and if elected would expend the taxpayers' money conservatively and with due regard to needed progress and improvements throughout the county.

He has been eminently successful in the conduct of his own business, and would give the same conscientious and energetic effort to the county's business which has always characterized the conduct of his own business. Mr. Updike is a strong advocate of good roads and flood control; the application of business principles in all matters coming under the supervision of the Board of Supervisors. He is opposed to the prodigal expenditure of money by the Supervisors and a strong exponent of the reduction of the high rate of taxation, which now burdens the people of this county.

Peter H. Updike, candidate for Supervisor for the 4th District, was the president of the Long Beach Republican club during the last state election, and is a firm believer in the Republican principles and policies as applied to government.

Resolved that the State of CALIFORNIA Should Establish a Schedule of Minimum Wage Law.

Come and hear your side of this question discussed thoroughly by men who have studied for this very occasion. The Progressive Club present Mr. Augustus Greene, Jr., and Burton McDonald, both of U. S. C.

The Get-Acquainted Club President Mr. William Howell and Miss Bessie Barron, representing the Affirmative.

Now is your chance to learn something you didn't know.

In connection with the debate, we are presenting a well prepared program, starring the best talent in Southern California.

The Instrumental Selection of Miss Estella Harte and the Vocal Solo by Miss Mayme Lowe are worth the price of admission alone. Don't fail to go.

Tickets will be on sale at every Church Sunday morning, and all over town thereafter.

Read of Mme. Massey's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

The hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't know if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guarantee success. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Poro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Massey, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and her more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in her line.

Agent for Eureka Straightening Combs $1.50. Full line of Human Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Massey has no agents. You may get her treatments and treat your hair at home. Full treatment $1.50. Mail orders 10 cents extra.

FOR PRESIDENT
Charles Evans Hughes of New York
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana

Only a few more fleeting weeks of democratic control in this United States.

To our minds the American government made their demands and then Carranza made some and Carranza got what he asked as the American government backed up. This is truly democratic incompetence.

The Republican committee as constituted is in poor business of seriously considering the twaddle brought them by the Negro gossipers that seem to have their ears at this time. We had no desire to wash any dirty linen before that committee, but they had better get wise to differentiate between the real and the bunk if they expect results in the pending campaign.

THE FIGHTING PARSON SCORES VICTORY

The success of the Fighting Parson as an evangelist at Pasadena seems to be absolute and now it seems that the Rev. J. Gordon McPherson is in his real realm, doing work for his Master. We now believe him right and do not hesitate to say so. We believe that in his efforts along these lines the saving of souls and the spiritual uplift, that he should have the support of all the people and that the time for all we know is ripe for a mighty revival in this bailiwick.

A NEWSPAPER'S PREROGATIVE

Newspapers certainly enjoy the prerogative to scrap if they like and in an experience of nearly a quarter of a century we have never seen where a rank outsider had the nerve to go out of their way to interiere. Our good friend, Dr. Kinchen has a perfect right to give his undying support to any paper of his choice, be it a Jim Crow journal or otherwise, we certainly have no objection. As a newspaper man we certainly have no time to interiere with any particular church or organization, to successfully conduct our own business we have our hands full. As to our unmanliness we take it that if this Christian gentleman can qualify to pass judgment on us, we have no desire to qualify to pass the same judgment on him. We have, however, been manly enough time and again to refuse paid articles in that paper that attacked him and at the same time this great apostle whom he extolls so highly, greedily accepted some of the same articles that lambasted him. For this, from this distinguished and eminent divine, coupled with the "Old Hickory" who is another divine whom we have accused of misconduct and misrepresenting the high calling of the ministry, we verily believe that we can survive.

POLITICAL POT PIE

E. J. Delorey, the village blacksmith, has been making a dignified canvass and is reaching the common, plain, every day people of his district. He is meeting with flattering success and will no doubt render a good account of his efforts on August 29th at the primaries.

The Civic League will meet on Monday evening at 1331 Central Ave. A special program will be rendered as well as short talks by several candidates.

The Independent League of Watts held an enthusiastic meeting last Monday evening and are getting in shape for the campaign.

The Hughes and Fairbanks Club will hold a meeting Monday evening, the 17th, at the neighborhood hall, corner of Wilson and 9th street.

Wednesday was a strenuous day for the Republican central committee. After an all-day session, however, they ironed out the disputes in the various districts and presented a set of men and women for election as committeemen that will no doubt be acceptable to the rank and file of the party. From the 68th, L. Barnett and F. B. Alexander were selected; from the 73rd, C. Oliver and Mrs. Shelton; from the bloody 74th, Messrs R. H. Penson, W. J. Fitzpatrick, C. S. Wilson and Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass.

Some of these days the higher ups as managers of political parties will lend a listening ear to the people and not continue to be humbugged by those who are the exponents of gum shoe politics and those who really have neither the ears or the confidence of the people at large.

Much enthusiasm has been injected in the campaign of Frank R. Baker, candidate for district attorney, in the selection of Wm. Winestein as campaign manager for Mr. Baker. Mr. Winestein is an expert on municipal government and his accession to the Baker camp is a stroke of successful political policy.

THE DARK HORSE

The proverbial dark horse has appeared in the race for supervisor of the fourth district.

In the interest of good clean county government, Mr. John B. Reeves, contractor and president of the Master Plumbers' Association, has finally been persuaded to enter.

Two of the present supervisors, Messrs. Norton and Hamilton, are supporting Mr. Reeves, and taking an active part in the campaign for his election. The fact that he has been selected by them out of such a large field of candidates is a flattering testimonial to the esteem in which he is held by them.

His platform which follows is surely based on good sound principles, and it is predicted that he will be elected to aid Supervisor Norton and Hamilton in their efforts to free this country of the rotten political graft, and the hand of invisible government now said to exist.

I favor good roads, good schools, adequate flood control and good and efficient county government, economically administered.

I am opposed to unnecessary red tape, legal technicalities and delays in handling public business.

I will promptly investigate to see that every citizen having business with the county in any of its offices shall have prompt, courteous and efficient service.

I am opposed to absenteeism in office. If elected Supervisor, I will promptly attend all sessions.

Iam for public ownership of public utilities in the county as well as in cities.

I stand for the strictest enforcement of the liquor laws and for the elimination of blind pigs and evil resorts of all kinds.

Keeping Within the Circle.

The leasing of their new hall from the Masonic Temple association by the Knights and Daughters of Tabor is certainly a move that is of more than passing notice because of the fact that it is a movement of our forces getting together, two separate and distinct organizations of our people doing business the one with the other, the hundreds of dollars of rents paid out annually now being paid to their own organizations.

The order is to be congratulated for setting this precedent, and to Rev. W. J. J. Byers, W. W. Ross and P. E. Alexander, who have worked to bring this about, is due unstinted credit.

All of the Temples, Tabernacles, Tents and other auxiliary organizations will move to their new home in the Masonic Temple, 1209 1-2 Central avenue, on August 1.

T. A. Harris, president of the Masonic Temple association, is also to be congratulated for his broad-gauged spirit in making it possible for these two great organizations to be as separate as the fingers on the hand in their work, and that they can do business for racial progress and uplift as one great body.

Odd Fellows Grand Entertainment Tuesday Night.

At Odd Fellows hall, corner Wall and 8th streets, Tuesday Golden Rule Lodge will be given one of the grandest affairs of the year. The committee, of which Bro. Geo. Conaway is chairman, has spared neither pains nor expense to make this the best of all. Good music, to close with a soiree. The following is the program: Grand welcome by Prof. C. A. Biggers; vocal solo, J. J. Anderson; reading, Mrs. C. A. Spencer-Bass; instrumental solo, Prof. W. T. Wilkins; grand debate, Household Lodge vs Golden Rule Lodge.

Pioneers Entertained at Alida.

On last Tuesday night the beautiful home of Mrs. Anna Hallada Long was indeed a scene of merriment when 46 of the Pioneers gathered there at one of their regular meetings. After the business of the evening was transacted, then came the banquet, a feast which caused the sweet memories of the Pioneers to go back years farther than 25 years ago. They were forced to think of childhood days, down on the farm, in the East, North and South, where the nice brown fried chicken, potato salad, hot coffee, ice buttermilk and all kinds of good cake like mother used to make, were served to them by four of the native daughters.

All departed at a late hour not having words to express the enjoyable time they had.

Federated Clubs Meet

The last reciprocity meeting of the Federated clubs of San Diego was held at Masonic hall, 630 Market street, Tuesday, July 11, with a splendid representation from all clubs.

Miss Cora White, the head of the department, deserves and has earned for herself great praise for the creditable manner in which she has conducted these meetings, introducing several new features which added much to the success of the day.

The manner of serving luncheon was one of the new features: instead of each individual preparing whatever portion of the lunch she desired, Miss White prepared a menu and sent notice to each club of the portion it was to provide. In this way an ample four-course luncheon was enjoyed by all and promptly on the hour agreed upon the clubs went into session.

Meeting opened with singing of the club song, "In the Ranks," followed by prayer by Mrs. Childress. Reports of reciprocity meetings from all over the state were read by the secretary, after which heads of departments in San Diego rendered their reports showing that each one had been busy in the line of work assigned to her.

The work of literature by Mrs. Speight, and music department, by Mrs. T. H. Williams, were of especial interest, and from these departments at least two permanent organizations will be formed in San Diego, a literary society and a cottage musicale.

There being no report from the suffrage department, Mrs. T. Hezekiah was given permission to speak instead, and showed a master mind in handling the political situation today as it affects our people. She urged upon all women present the vital necessity of taking advantage of their right of suffrage in the coming elections, and to demonstrate that she meant business produced her credentials as a registration officer and offered to register all who had not done so, then and there.

The paper by Mrs. E. W. Anderson, "The Colored Man's Place in the Business World," aroused more discussion than any other paper read before the assembly. She arranged her subject under two headings, "A Colored Man's Business and a Colored Business Man," handling both in a masterly manner, the main point being that when a man of the race does a business exclusively for his own people his standard is not so high as when he renders the same service to another race. Mrs. Childress and Mrs. Alexander of the Helping Hand club lead the discussion, which was intensely general.

The reports of clubs were next read, the following clubs reporting: The Friday club, the Helping Hand club, the Athenian club and the Harmony club, all the reports showing a successful year.

A most interesting part of the program was the item, "What part of the work of the Federation has been most beneficial to your club?" which was responded to with a three-minute speech by a representative from each club.

Mrs. Speight of the Athenian club dwelt upon the subject of union of harmony between the clubs, showing in a few well chosen words the large amount of good that has been accomplished since the ladies have been inspired by the spirit of this union.

Mrs. Anderson of the Friday club had for her subject the good accomplished by systematizing and specialization in the work as demonstrated by heads of departments, thus enabling each one to do the work she was best fitted for.

Mrs. Alexander of the Helping Hand spoke of the charitable work accomplished.

Mrs. Harris of the Athenians and Mrs. Smith of the Harmony club also made short talks.

At this point Miss White introduced to the club Mrs. Colwell, one of the instructors of the State Normal school, who spoke at length on home making as a profession, after which a general discussion followed the speaker, inviting the ladies present to question her on any point they wished further information, and she also gave a list of books for research work along these lines.

Mrs. Jack White, third vice-president, next addressed the meeting and spoke most beautifully of the work we have set our hands to do, impressing it upon the minds of all present to be not weary in well doing. She also thanked the clubs and heads of departments for the support they had given her in her field of labor. Taken altogether, her speech was a very touching one and it is to be hoped will make a lasting impression. Mrs. White would make a good vice-president to succeed herself in fact, with a few exceptions San Diego could hardly do better than to ask that the same heads be appointed another year.

After listening to a report from committees on credentials and courtesies, the assembly adjourned with repeating of "mizpah."

The Gala Assembly Dancing club of San Diego is something unique in a way, being a private dancing club, with a membership of 40. Mrs. E. W. Anderson, who organized the club, is matron of same and at each dance puts forth every effort to make the affair socially perfect. In this she is assisted by Mrs. W. D. Saunders, Mrs. Parker, Misses Ophelia Ellis and Corona White, who, with the following gentlemen, T. H. Williams, W. D. Saunders, W. McDonald, C. Hunter and E. W. Anderson, form an executive board for the management of the Club. There have been several special dances given since the organization of this club, including a sport ball and a costume ball. At the latter prizes were given, the first prize being won by Frances Ross of Denver, niece of Mrs. Jack White, who came as an Indian maiden. Frank Ellis won first gentleman's prize as King Cotton, and W. J. Edwards third prize as Yama Yama man. The club, which meets the second and fourth Friday in each month, will have its next dance Friday, July 14.

Cards are out for a reception in honor of Miss Velma Strickland and Mrs. E. D. Simpson at 1757 Essex place, July 17. Mrs. Simpson, who was formerly Mrs. Hattie Jenkins, was recently married in Los Angeles. Mr. Simpson is an instructor in mathematics in an Eastern college.

Miss Ophelia Ellis will leave San Diego July 26 for an extended Eastern trip, visiting relatives and friends at Chicago, Louisville and Henderson, Ky., and Denver.

Miss Corona White spent the week-end in San Bernardino, where she went as a delegate.

Chas. Dodge left a few days ago for San Louis to visit his mother.

Rev. C. Williams will preach a sermon Sunday afternoon for the Missionary society. All cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Pearle and Ethel Hornsby have returned home from their trip to the Angel City. They report having had a good time.

Annie Mulholland, who was a delegate to the convention representing the B.Y.P.U. and S.S., will make her report Sunday.

A parcel post entertainment was given at the parsonage Friday night, which was a success. The program was immensely enjoyed by all present.

Rev. C. Williams preached a most interesting sermon Sunday evening at Mt. Zion, his subject being, "A Scientific Religion." All who were not there missed a treat.

E. B. Whiteside was at Mt. Zion Baptist church Sunday and said that he certainly enjoyed the meeting.

Eugene Edwards, formerly of Riverside, is in San Diego and is spending the greater part of his time with his old friend and standby, C. E. Norwood, on Martin avenue.

Mrs. Randolph and son, Richard, of Long Beach, spent the 4th of July with Helen Randolph. Misses Randolph and Abbie Benjamin entertained them with joy rides to Tia Juana, Point Loma, Ocean Beach and other points of interest, ending up at the Exposition grounds. A very elaborate dinner was also prepared for Mrs. Randolph and son. They enjoyed every minute of their visit in San Diego.

Middletown folks make newspapers good reading. So read the Eagle and find out what middletown folks are reading about.

The Ninth Annual Session of the Western Baptist Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Convention opened at 9:30 a. m., at New Hope Baptist Church, on Wednesday, July 5. When the session was called to order by the President nineteen schools were represented with forty-five delegates. During every session new delegates were reported and at the close over one hundred delegates, besides visitors and friends, were present to listen to the splendid reports and papers. Rev. Reed gave very instructive lectures every afternoon, which were very beneficial to all present. S. P. Johnson, President of the B. Y. P. U's, presided at their sessions. The annual address of both the presidents were splendid, and all the papers by members of the different churches were all that they should have been, and were enjoyed by all present. The musical numbers were well taken and of especial note were the quartettes rendered by William and George Johnson and Benjamin and Eugene Anderson, of New Hope Baptist Church. This was the first appearance of the boys in public but they did fine. Friday afternoon the delegates were taken for an auto ride about the city, taking in Redlands, Highlands, Patton and Arrowhead. B. T. Rowan, one of our business men, with the co-operation of the members of the Chamber of Commerce, were the instigators of this splendid affair, and to them is due many thanks. Friday morning the Convention closed with a Hosting program. Saturday morning most of the delegates left for their homes. Those remaining to the Sunday morning service at New Hope Church were, Rev. Rosier, who preached a splendid sermon on "Theology and Conscience," Mesdames Strickland and Willoughby, of Los Angeles, Mrs. McMillan and Misses Coy and Hart, of Pasadena, Mr. Bowers, of Venice. Mr. Bowers, a member of Child Baptist, of Los Angeles, passed under the watch care of New Hope.

The Fighting Parson Sways Thousands With Burning Gospel Messages—Pasadena Revival Meetings Close Sunday.

On every side in saint and sinner, young and old, white or black, the thousands of Pasadena residents, is the same expression "The Fighting Parson." Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, the famous black revivalist, has made good. No evangelist ever came to the crown city and preached to such immense crowds nightly as this "Soldier Preacher" whose burning messages, fiery elocutionic tactics wit and humor thrilled thousands and brought many penitents sinners to the mercy seat. No man ever battled against sin and misery with such power as this man of God, as the Negro race have never given to the world an evangelist of power whose messages have made the nation sit up and take notice of "a man beneath the gospel scepter."

Who knows but what God is raising up here in the far west on the Pacific slope the man whose burning message may bring the back-sliding church back to their first love. May we learn a deep lesson from nature, wearied of monotony, breaks up the surface of continents, there and there, by throwing up huge mountain ranges, ribbing them with rock and crowning them with snow. Thus climates are modified and the conditions of life are changed. So in the history of the world, God, now and then breaks the monotony of human life, by thrusting out extraordinary men, endowed with power from on high. It can be said that the men who have moved the world into higher conditions of thought and life have come from families and tribes of whom nothing was said concerning the priesthood.

Many of the prophets were men of extraordinary power, whom the world call the church back to its ancestry and lift it out of corruption and superstition. He raises up men, endows them with germs, endues them with power and sends them out as a voice crying in the wilderness, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight." In this age of spiritual decay thousands that have listened to the burning messages of gospel truths are convinced that Dr. McPherson, the black revivalist, is divinely called to the work of an evangelist.

Do we not hear the voice crying in the wilderness? To the Negro church leaders God has raised up in our very midst a mighty evangelist whose only message is "Christ is all and in all." The hour for a spiritual awakening draweth nigh. Pasadena has been stirred as never before. Saints are edified, sinners are converted, the sick are being healed, an dthe poor have the gospel preached unto them. So great is the interest in the old time revivals under the leadership of the fighting parson, that plans are under way for a great union September campaign, when a mammoth tent that will seat thousands will be located in the central part of the city where tens of thousands can hear this one of the mightiest revivalists of the day.

Now is Los Angeles opportunity for a great and winning cam-paign. As Evangelist McPherson will invade the stronghold of the wicked about the first week in August for a thirty days campaign, assisted by a corps of personal workers, gospel and jubilee singers, a big chorus, and one of the greatest old time revival meetings ever witnessed in the West will be held. Evangelist McPherson, in speaking of the great revival meeting, said to The Eagle representative, "For five years the Lord has laid the burden of a mighty spiritual awakening for the great city of Los Angeles, with her teeming thousands upon my heart. I have prayed for wisdom and light and the Master has commanded me to go forward and I cannot do otherwise than obey. I am obedient to the heavenly vision, and shall appeal to Christian men and women everywhere to join in this great soul-saving campaign in August. I am calling for at least 500 consecrated personal workers, 250 singers, along with the big-hearted Christian ministers to come up to the help of the Lord, and Los Angeles will receive her baptism. I am ready for the battel against sin. You may say to the people of the Pacict slope, the "fight is on." Sunday will mark the close of the big Pasadent revival meeting and hundreds are planning to attend the great closing services at Scotts Chapel on South Fair Oaks ave., near California street. Hundreds were turned away last Sunday. So Pastor L. G. Robinson urges the friends and the public at large to come early to even get near the building to hear the closing words of this mighty man of God. Friends coming from oLs Angeles should take Pasadena Short Line car, get off at California street, in front of the church. The closing service for Sunday will be as follows:

"The Fighting Parson," Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, in the Famous white suit, battling against sin.

Big olden time farewell sunrise prayer meeting for saints seeking the deep things of God. At 9:30 a. m., great children's meeting. 11 a. m., morning sermon, theme, "Life as a Symphony." At 2:30 monster men's meeting. Evangelist McPherson will give his talk from the shoulder to manly men. At 7 p. m., big echo rally. Has the Fighting Parson Made Good in Pasadena? Expression from saints, converts, citizens in general. Has the work been a blessing or a curse? A great meeting is anticipated. Final message at 8 o'clock, when Evangelist McPherson will preach on the "Glorious Home Beyond." The choir will sing special music and a glorious time will mark the closing of this great campaign.

Monday evening Evangelist McPherson will give his famous lecture on the daring charge of the Black Regiment at San Juan Hill, 1898, and will tell the wonderful story of his life from the trenches of San Juan Hill to the pulpit, which is one of the most interesting and thrilling narratives you have ever heard. So the general public is invited to the closing services of the revival. But, friends, you will have to hurry if you want to get a seat. Remember, large crowds are turned away night. So be on time.

PROCLAMATION

Convening the Thirty-Second Annual Session of District Grand Lodge No. 32, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows

To the Lodges, Members and Delegates constituting the Jurisdiction of Thirty-second District of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows in America.

Proclamation: Under the laws of our beneficient order, and in obedience to the duties devolving upon me, and pursuant to a resolution adopted at the last session of this District Grand Lodge, I, J. Soares, District Grand Master of the aforesaid District, hereby proclaim Marysville, California, as the place, and Tuesday, August 1st, 1916, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. of said day, as the time upon which the duly elected and qualified Delegates from the several lodges and all the members comprising this Thirty-second District, shall assemble for the transaction of all such business as may properly come before said Delegates and the members in District Grand Lodge assembled.

In view of the many important matters to come before this session, I feel it incumbent upon me to urge upon the several lodges the prime necessity of being represented by delegates; and to impress upon the the members the importance of their presence at this coming session of our District Grand Lodge.

In addition to the great volume of business that will be transacted the good people of Marysville are preparing to give the delegates and visitors a delightful and most enjoyable time, one that will not soon be forgotten.

In F., L. and T., J. SOARES,
District Grand Master.

Attest:
(Seal) S. F. JOHNSON,
District Grand Secretary.

JUST FIVE YEARS OLD

Mt. Olivet Baptist Church will celebrate her first and fifth anniversary on Sunday, July the 23rd, at 2:30 p.m.

A most excellent program has been arranged; some of the best speakers of the city will be present.

New Hope Choir will render music.

Among the noted speakers will be Rev. I. F. Watson, superintendent of missions; Mrs. Ida B. Ford; Mrs. S. B. Strickland, Mrs. C. A. Bass.

You are welcome. Come one, come all.

I believe in the merit system when properly administered, and will uphold the Civil Service Commission in all efforts made in good faith to enforce civil service regulations.

I believe in good pay for county employees, and would rather advance the salary to fit capable men than to secure or reduce men to fit inadequate salaries.

I believe that it is wiser to develop industries which will employ labor at good wages than to spend public money in parades, entertainments and showy, but fruitless boosting.

I plan for the lowest possible tax levy consistent with first-class public service and the progress and development of Los Angeles County.

E. L. BRADY

E. L. Brady, Republican, is a candidate for the assembly from the 57th district, which includes Monrovia, Duarte, Arcadia, Sierra Madre, Lamanda Park, San Gabriel, Alhambra, South Pasadena, Belvedere, Montebello, Laguna, Frutland, Bell, Vernon, Huntington Park, also five city precincts in the northeastern part of Los Angeles.

Mr. Brady is a man forty years of age and has resided in Los Angeles for the past 14 years. He is an active public spirited citizen and is chairman of the Rose Hill Improvement Association. Mr. Brady is not naturally inclined to politics, but aspires to a seat in the assembly because he believes there is a place in the halls of legislature for active, conscientious public spirited citizens. Mr. Brady is a stalwart Republican and had rather be styled a humanitarian than a politician. Mr. Brady is an ardent advocate of national preparedness. In a word Mr. Brady is the kind of man that should go to the assembly and the Colored voters of Monrovia and Duarte, in the section above mentioned, will make no mistake in supporting the hon. E. L. Brady for the assembly from the sixty-ninth district.

In the near future a meeting will be held in Monrovia in the interest of Mr. Brady's candidacy, and when the arrangements have been made every voter in the district should avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing a man who measures up to every requirement in the responsible position.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good. Let us bring forward H. Underhack, who has proved himself to be a man absolutely on the square, by his straightforwardness he has made himself eligible to receive the consideration of the people at all times in the future.

JOHN D. DAWSON FOR STATE SENATE

John D. Dawson, the well-known attorney of 710-12 American Bank Building, is a candidate for State Senator from the 37th district. Mr. Dawson is one of those young progressive professional men who makes friends with all those with whom he comes in contact. He is well educated, well trained and has a large experience for a man of his years, and will add much to the delegation from Southern California in the upper house of the state legislature. The Colored voters of the 37th district will make no mistake in supporting John D. Dawson for the State Senate.

HINSHAW FOR SUPERVISOR OF THE FOURTH

Mr. William E. Hinshaw, Supervisor in the Fourth District, is distinguished by having more candidates seeking the office that he is filling than any other candidate for any office at the coming primary election. (Some fifteen or twenty men are out for Supervisor in the Fourth District.)

And yet we do not hear of any complaint concerning Mr. Hinshaw's administration. He has conducted the office during a period of development that no other district in the county has been up against, and just now the affairs of that district are in such a shape that the experience obtained during his term of service is an asset that the county cannot afford to throw away and put another man in the office who will not be able to take up the different affairs as well as Mr. Hinshaw can be expected to do with the experience he has had.

PHILOSOPHIC STUDY

And Literary Digest of the All-American League

H. DOUGLAS GREER

Equality and opportunity can co-exist with the greatest natural differences. There is no more fundamental difference, nor a greater intellectual chasm than that existing between an educated man and his little child, yet in the home all are equal. The cook and butler are outside the family circle, however important they may be to it.

Inter-Racial Amity-Enmity

Some white people have made themselves dear to colored people. Some have really tried to be just and true to the Negro. A few have succeeded. Many there are who can find no good in a "nigger" as they contemptuously call him, but there are others with whom we have lived and traveled, finding them honorable, faithful and kind, and adherents of a friendship that is kind and true to the core, unruffled to the end because of the simplicity and love within which it is born.

Under this new dispensation the Negro in America will come into his own. Under this new period of reconstruction Christianity and civilization will rise to the altitude of supreme power, and serving as a connecting link between the two, the all encircling love of God will harmoniously bind them together, and the progress of one will be the progress of the other. It will be marked by scenes of man's humanity to man; realizing that a man is a man, and that to deny a man a voice in the affairs of his country is to establish tyranny. There is a slavery that is of the government and a slavery that is of the individual. To denounce the latter and to establish the former is inconvenient with the life of the other. What no government has yet denied its people cannot in justice be kept back by any civilized state. (Southern states takes notice.) To take away liberty is to establish slavery, and to interfere with the good laws of a people will make of them enemies of justice and order.

Without being tolerant no toleration can be expected of others and if a government acts without wisdom, or right consideration, Nemesis must be expected. The Law of Compensation never busts. The Law of Nature is the ultimate law of the nations. If these laws are violated, impaired or infringed sooner or later fruitification of all that is planted will come, or nature will have ceased to legislate in her own grandiloquent way. And the seeds of racial animosity, prejudice, oppression and deceit that have been sown will bear fruit, some to the dishonor and dismay of the sowers, and others to the sorrow and damnation of those who have degraded and despoiled.

NEW FIRM WILL CONDUCT A MODERN AND UP TO DATE CAFE

Messrs. Hawkins and Watts have purchased the Dawson Cafe the well known place on San Pedro street that has never been known to draw the color line until lately, by a Chinaman.

The said Chinaman could not make it so he has had to sell it, and now these two young men, Mr. Hawkins and Watson, have purchased it and it has again come in as an enterprise conducted by the race.

It will eventually be made the leading first class cafe conducted for our people in the city. These gentlemen expect to run this cafe on the very highest order. They will open for business at their stand, 909 San Pedro St., Saturday, watch for their advertisement in our next issue.

RAILROAD NEWS

Kinds of Dirt We Do Not Wish to Eat

Present day sanitarians lay much more stress on cleanliness than on the prevention of adulteration in food.

1. That every cook, waiter or omnibus boy should carefully clean his nails and hands before beginning his day's work.

2. That every one of these employes should carefully cleanse his hands after visiting the toilet.

3. That no waiter or other employe be allowed to sneeze into a towel, napkin, or table cloth which may subsequently be used by a patron of the hotel or restaurant or dining car.

4. That every such employe should be compelled to wash his hands after blowing his nose, coughing or sneezing, and that he be instructed and supervised to prevent his coughing or sneezing or expectorating in such a way as to contaminate his hands or any article that may be used in connection with dining-room service.

5. That plate and other eating utensils be handled as little as possible by the fingers or hands of those who serve them.

6. That no such employe shall use towel, table-cloth or napkin for public use for wiping perspiration from any part of his body, or in cleaning or drying his hands or face or nose.

7. That the old clothes of a former employe be not given to his successor till they have been washed or cleaned, as they are often very filthy.

One of the best things about being neat and tidy is that it does not cost anything. It's just as easy to keep things in order on your desk as to have them in confusion. It takes less time to brush your shoes in the morning than it does to look down at them ruefully during the day when you remember they are not shined. It is more satisfying to hang up your clothes neatly before retiring than to throw them over the nearest chair in disarray, and lots more enjoyable wearing a clean collar than one that is not. You don't have to wear loud clothes and you don't have to be uncomfortable to put up a good appearance. Neither do you have to have a lot of clothes. The whole thing in a nutshell is that when you know your appearance smacks of comfort and tidiness, you have got a lot of confidence in yourself and you can start out the day and go through it with enough grit and assurance to buck your hardest problems without worry.

In an eastern city lives a life insurance agent, who, although still on the sunny side of forty, is rated as the most successful policy writer in the country. Some one asked him a while ago to what he ascribed his success. "Well," he said, "some people say it's luck, but I know it isn't for heaven knows I've worked hard enough. Perseverance, yes, that's got a lot to do with it. But there's another factor that may seem small, but I think is mighty important. I've always tried to keep up my personal appearance and I think that's had much to do with the results I've accomplished. You see in the insurance line you've got to go after the business. It rarely comes to you. You've got to be out meeting the public. You've got to meet this man in his office, this one at his home, this one at his club, and if your collar's soiled, or your trousers bag, or your shoes give evidence of being total strangers to a brush and rag, the first impression the other fellow gets of you isn't going to be what it ought to be. You may represent the biggest corporation in the world and tell him so, but that isn't going to change his personal estimate of you—the corporation's representative."

—From the Scrap Book of J. D. Reynolds.

A GOOD SHOWING

COLORED STUDENTS MAKE GOOD! SHOWING AS GRADUATES FROM PUBLIC AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS OF LEARNING.

In spite of the fact that it is rumored that Negro youngsters are becoming discouraged, and are "quitting" instead of graduating in Los Angeles, and the state, we are pleased to notice that from the public schools of the city and Pasadena this year we have a fair representation, all of whom we are told made good marks in their subjects, while some graduated with honors.

Since we feel that through this medium we are making history, we publish here a list of the graduates that have come under our observation with the hope that others may be inspired to do as these have done, and that ere another scholastic year shall come and go we hope that the list we are publishing here will have at least doubled.

Among them are:

William J. Bunch, Pasadena H. S.
Ruth B. Prince, Pasadena H.S.
Inez Bennett, Lincoln H. S.
Henry Brooks, Huntington Beach H. S.
S. Eleanor McClellan, L. A. State Normal.
Mary L. Hubbard, L. A. State Normal.
Estelle Harts, L. A. State Normal.
Corona E. White, San Diego State Normal.
Hebe L. Mack, Hollywood Junior College, $50 scholarship for U. S. C.
Bertram McDonald, U. S. C. Preparatory School.
James E. Duncan, U. S. C. Pharmaceutical department.

Honorable Mention

Byron F. Kenner, University of Illinois.
Hallie Asbury, St. Augustine's Raleigh, N. C.
Ruth Walker, Western University, Quindaro, Kansas.
Ruby Walker, Western University, Quindaro, Kansas.

Winter 1916

Doris T. Young, L. A. H. S.
Lorenza E. Jordan, L. A. H. S.
Angelita D. Williams, L.A.H.S.
Irene A. Givens, L. A. H. S.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

By H. B. Gordon, M. D.

The epidemic of infantile paralysis which at present has some of the eastern states, and particularly New York, so helpless in its grasp, may soon include California amongst its victims, and it is not at all improbable. The infection may be carried by shipments of food-stuffs, mail, etc, and by passengers on boats or trains. Thus in four or five days (the time it takes a train to make the trip across the continent) the epidemic may have the Pacific coast at its mercy also. Stringent quarantine of the infected eastern cities and rigid inspection of incoming children passengers, will do much to limit its spread, and possibly allow us to escape entirely.

Infantile paralysis is an acute infectious disease usually of children between two and nine years of age, although young adults are not exempt. It begins suddenly with an attack of fever with pains in the back and limbs. About the third or fourth day paralysis of one arm or one leg, or both arms or both legs, or of one arm and one leg develops. In favorable cases the acute illness subsides after a week or ten days, but the paralysis usually remains. Seven out of every one hundred attacked, die during the acute stage. Of those who survive, only a few escape being paralyzed for life.

The germ of infantile paralysis enters the system through the nose, passes into the fluid of the brain by way of the lymphatics, and thence to the spinal cord, where it destroys the cells in the anterior horns of the gray matter which control the motor activities of the limbs. Since these cells when once destroyed cannot be regenerated, it is easy to understand why paralysis in this disease is persistent. Because so little hope for complete is offered on attacked, it is well to do all in our power to prevent children from catching it. Strict attention then on the part of mothers to the following details will do much to lessen the danger:

1. Let the children have plenty of fresh air and sunlight, which is the best germicide known.

2. Don't let them play with large groups of children, particularly those who are uncleanly. Just as in diphtheria, there are persons called carriers who harbor the germs of infantile paralysis in the secretions of the nose and throat, and although not susceptible themselves, they distribute the germs unconsciously so that others are attacked.

3. Disinfect all garbage with chloride of lime and keep in a covered can until it can be removed.

4. Protect the children from flies. Have them avoid dogs, cats, and horses, since it is claimed that the "distemper" which sometimes affects dogs is caused by the same germ.

5. At the first signs of fever, restlessness, pains in the back and limbs in a child, isolate it and call a physician.

OFFICIAL

The Tenth Annual Convention of the California State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs will convene in Metropolitan Baptist church, 136 Waverly Drive, Pasadena, Calif., July 25, 26 and 27, 1916.

Standing as a Beacon Light in the fields of Woman's activities is this great State Body, the foundation of which was laid ten years ago by a body of Women of well directed Energy and Perseverence, and who were wide awake to the situation and the need of a more united effort in the great work of uplifting the Masses to a higher Industrial, Social and Economic Plane.

MRS. ELIZABETH BROWN,
State President.
MRS. J. H. BATE, Vice Pres.
Mrs. Hettie B. Tilghman,
State Secretary.
Mrs. L. V. Steward,
Corresponding Secretary.

July 8, 1916.

Mr. W. E. Easton, Councilor All-American League of Calif.,
221 Lissner Bldg.,
Los Angeles, Cal.

My Dear Mr. Easton:

Senator Newton W. Thompson, while acting Governor, received a letter from your League signed by President Hugh E. Macbeth, Secretary G. P. Brown, and yourself, offering the service of that body to the State in case of need of volunteers, and referred it to Governor Johnson.

The Governor wishes me to express to the All-American League his appreciation of the offer and the true spirit actuating it. Should there be a call for volunteers, which at this moment, however, does not seem likely, he will be pleased to take such steps as he can to present it to the War Department.

Very truly yours,
MARTIN C. MADSON,
Executive Secretary.

REV. THOMAS BACK

After a Three Month's Vacation the Rev. Thomas Returns to His Pastoral Duties.

Santa Barbara, Calif.,
July 12, 1916.

The California Eagle,
Los Angeles, Cal.

Please give me space in your great paper to say a few words about one of our young but great men, Rev. H. B. Thomas. When I say he is a great man, I mean that he is a Christian Minister and a contracting builder of our race who has and is really doing things, building churches, buying and building homes, helping to educate the children of our race, and all other good that he can do, and these are the things that I think make up a great man, or woman.

Rev. Thomas has returned to us, the Mount Olive Baptist church, after a vacation of nearly three months, having been called to the bedside of a sick sister who passed away the last Friday in last May. We, the Mount Olive Baptist church, prayed for him while he was gone, prayed for his safe return to us, and are now praying that he will stay with us, yes, always. I have been a Deacon of the Baptist church many years, both in the South and in the East, and I have never worked with a pastor, school teacher or any person before who took so much interest in the welfare of everybody as does Rev. Thomas. Any one can get up to him. Put your burdens upon him and he will help you carry them.

If we as a race would rally around the men of our race like Rev. Thomas, help and be helped by them, instead of standing off mudslinging and fighting all the time, our race would rise in spite of what the members of other races might do to keep us down for after all this fighting among us and newspaper mud slinging is our worst drawback.

Let us stop trying to go forward by putting the cart before the horse and making the horse a black one matters not what color it is, let us get and keep the horse before the cart, and go forward by keeping straight. I mean that the leaders of our race must stay in front of us if we are to rise, and not we in front of them and often times we get thus changed, by telling untruth because we are jealous of the horse pulling well, and making it up the hill.

I am chairman of the Deacon's Board of the above named church, this office causes me to be in charge of affairs while Dr. Thomas was away, so far from experience let me say that Rev. H. B. Thomas has wrought wonders in Santa Barbara and we, the church, Mt. Olivet Baptist church, is with him to the member, yes with him with our prayers, persons and money, not asking for any help from any one but God, but if any one would be saved come in and we will help you all that we can.

Very truly yours for the uplift of the race, and the building up of the cause of Christ.

E. J. BAKER.

WALTER S. GATES

For the Assembly, 72nd District.

No candidate appearing before the people of this section asking their suffrage has a better chance of election than Walter S. Gates. Mr. Gates is doubtless the best equipped man aspiring for assemblyman in Los Angeles County. Though young in years he is ripe in an experience which is greatly augmented by his high intellectual attainments. Mr. Gates has many fine qualities which spell volumes for any candidate appearing for office. He is big-hearted, broad-minded, Christian gentleman, and as a lawyer is a notable exception to his profession. No young man of California has a more promising future. The Colored citizens of the 72nd Assembly district are manifesting a keen interest in the candidacy of Mr. Gates, and wherever he appears among them the most favorable impressions are made. Vote for Walter S. Gates. Mr. Gates is the president of the International White Cross Society, which is making such an active fight against segregation.

POLITICAL INFORMATION CONCERNING CAPT. HENRY Z. OSBORNE, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION, 10TH DISTRICT.

Capt. Henry Z. Osborne, candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from the 10th District, is well known to a great number of the residents of this city. For more than a quarter of a century he has been a resident of Los Angeles and of the district which he aspires to represent in Congress.

In 1914, Captain Osborne was chosen Republican nominee for Congress at the primaries and made a remarkably strong showing in a bad year for Republicans. It is interesting to note that, though he was defeated that year for election, he received 33,172 votes—a greater number than were given to any of the 440 members of Congress, except 15. He also ran far ahead of his ticket in his district.

The fine, clean-cut fight Captain Osborne made at that time has made him the logical candidate for the Republican voters, as his friends believe, in this year, which promises to be a good, normal Republican year.

Captain Osborne has been a Republican all his life. He responded to Abraham Lincoln's call for volunteers during the Civil War and became a soldier when barely sixteen years of age. He was honorably mustered out of service at the close of that war after serving in the Shenandoah campaign under Gen. Phil Sheridan. He is therefore, one of the youngest war veterans in the United States.

He learned his trade as a printer, later becoming an editorial writer and a newspaper publisher. From 1882 to 1898 he was the principal owner and editor of the Evening Express of Los Angeles and had much to do with the various moves and enterprises as well as with the organizations that have done most for the development of Los Angeles City.

REMARKABLE CONFERENCE

Held By Representative Forces Throughout the County, Thursday Night at 1131 Central Avenue. Great Forward Step Toward a Union of Forces for the Betterment of Political and Civic Affairs.

The Civic League held a remarkable conference at 1331 Central avenue last Thursday evening. All sections of the county and city were represented, and along political lines it was indeed an inspiration for at least one time that the get together spirit prevailed.

It was a meeting of the plain common every day citizens, the people who do things, as it were, all intent upon accomplishing something for the people, also that the stigma of corrupting politics and petty grafting should cease to exist.

The organization is headed by Mr. C. H. Woods, one of the most substantial and highly respected business men of this community. The other officers represent the things that spell progress in any organization. Milton W. Lewis, vice president; Rev. McKinney, second vice president; M. Shields of Watts, third vice president; J. I. W. Fisher of Monrovia, fourth vice president; R. G. Lanier, secretary; S. P. Danes, treasurer; Leroy D. Burnett, councilor; executive committee, W. H. Sanders, chairman; J. B. Bass, Harvey Utterback, G. P. Brown, W. D. Hollins, Monrovia; R. H. Perry, Watts; C. W. Smith, Santa Monica; E. L. Gaines, Pasadena; R. W. Jackson, O. S. Fletcher, Mrs. Lucile Shelton, W. Green.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH
(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Craw, Pastor.

Women's day will be the center of general attraction and overflowing meetings Sunday at First church, and all are welcome. Come early, so as to get a good pew and enjoy all. Services begin promptly at 11 o'clock. Dinner at the church after morning services. Big women's mass meeting and mite missionary rally at 3 o'clock. Special musical selections. Grand musical program at 8 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Musicians Ballard Williams brought good cheer to the splendid congregations which thronged Christ's church last Sabbath morning when at the conclusion of the sermon they requested an net proceeds from their leave fete, $216.20. This affair was given as a benefit for the church and day nursery, and $100.-35 was turned over to Rev. Craw for church purposes, and a like amount to the nursery association. Several tickets are still out, and as soon as these are in the report will be complete. There were two accessions to membership.

Don't forget your "dollar money." Pay the pastor or your class leader now and get it off your mind. "Special effort dollar money" day Sunday, July 29th.

Mrs. Frederick Wilson presented the church with a beautiful new rug and leather couch for the ladies' parlor. Ladies are invited to inspect the same, Sunday at the women's day services.

At the solicitation of Mrs. Emily Clarkson, one of our efficient stewardesses, the basement of the church will be christened as a guarantee donation to the church for annual conference by our friend and fellow citizen, H. C. Wheat.

The meetings of the Fifth Episcopal District annual conferences are scheduled to take place as follows: Puget Sound annual conference, Seattle, Wash., August 16; California conference at Los Angeles, September 6; First A.M.E. church Colorado conference, Pueblo, Colo., September 20; Kansas conference at Wichita, Kansas, September 27; North Missouri conference at Macon, Mo., October 4; Southwest Missouri conference at Springfield, Mo., October 11; Missouri conference at Poplar Bluff, Mo., October 18.

Birch Street Christian Church

We are still holding the usual services, including Sunday school and Endeavor, at 1040 E. 9th street. The church is now being remodled, and in a very short time we hope to be worshiping there again.

Last week at a special board meeting of the church, we called a pastor, Rev. Robert Latourche of Paris, Tex. Rev. Latourche and wife have done good work in Paris, we are told, and come to us highly recommended by Bro. Lehman, president of the Southern Christian Institute, of which Bro. Latourche and wife are graduates. We hope to have them with us the latter part of August or early in September.

The members saw fit to ask Bro. W. C. Hopper to preach for us until we can have our pastor with us, and he has consented to do so.

We were pleased to have Mrs. Lewis of Dallas, Tex., to unite with us on last Sunday. We trust God to guide us.

Peoples' Independent Church.

Bertha H. Alexander, 166 E. 1st Street, Reporter.

The services on last Sunday were indeed profitable and gratifying. The holy spirit manifested itself through wonderful preaching of the pastor. His morning discourse was on the subject, "Worshippers, True and False." In the evening his subject was, "The Sons of God." The church is enjoying a marked degree of prosperity. The Sunday school and all of the auxiliaries are doing excellent and effective work. The members and friends are very eagerly looking forward to the erection of the new church building, which will begin in the near future.

Wesley Chapel

The people who come to Wesley chapel on the Sabbath to worship the Lord are deeply blessed. They bring a blessing with them to the speaker and to others, and in return they are inspired by the gospel message from the pulpit. The ones striking thing about the congregations of Wesley chapel is the great number of male young people who attend the services. No more can here hope in his mess who will visit these services and note the audacity of these splendid young people along the lines of permanent uplift.

The Sunday school is steadily growing. The Epworth League is getting a new hold on the young people. The following societies are moving forward with great substantion, and Mrs. Jane Hosking writes from the presidency of the Home missionary society, Miss R. I. S. Moore taking her place.

Last Sunday at 11 a. m. Pastor Kinchen preached on the subject, "Is It Worth While to do Things well."

The W.F.M. society had a program at the Parsonage. Judge Allen, who was a delegate to the General Conference held at Saratoga, addressed the congregation on the morning of the movements for church unity and other incidents from the General Conference.

EPWORTH MEMORIAL CHURCH
(Social Church)
24th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

Beginning with the Sunday school, all the services were well attended and helpful to all who worshipped with us on last Sunday. The pastor preached at the morning service, taking as his subject "The Fall and the Rise." Rev. A. F. Ramsey delivered the message at the evening service.

All the regular services of the church on Sunday the pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services. Subject for the morning, "Our Present Blessings." The subject for the evening will be, "The Wheat and the Tares." Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m. Mrs. A. E. Shields, leader.

You are cordially invited to all services.

On Thursday night, July 27, there will be a grand musical program, in which some of the best talent of the city will appear. Remember the date and be present to enjoy the program.

FIRST A. M. E. ZION CHURCH
Pico and Paloma Sts.

Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Pastor

Last Sunday morning the pastor preached from the subject, "Permanency of the Christian Faith and Doctrine." A splendid audience was in attendance and the spirit ran high.

Sunday evening the junior choir, under the direction of Miss Bertha Miller, a faithful and devout Christian young lady, full of zeal for good works and loyal to the church, never refusing when called upon to serve the church or her choir, made its first appearance in a sacred concert. They drew out a very appreciative audience and the concert was excellent and greatly inspired those present. Sunday the pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services, and a great service is contemplated.

Phillips' Chapel C.M.E. Church
1406 Newton Street

The annual picnic for the Phillips' chapel Sunday school was held last Friday at Griffith park. It was one of the most enjoyable outings ever had by the school. There was plenty of dinner, five gallons of cream, and lemonade free. The superintendent, Rev. T. L. Jones, deserves much credit for this most pleasant and enjoyable affair.

Services as usual Sunday 9:30 a. m. Sunday school 11 a. m. Preaching at 8 p. m.

Sacred concert will be held by the choir. A splendid program has been arranged by Mrs. A. C. Harris-Billowe. Don't miss it. A rare treat is in store for all who will come.

Memorial services for the late Rev. S. L. Harris at Phillips' chapel Sunday, July 30, at 3 p. m. Don't forget the date. Printed program will be out this week.

2nd Baptist Church of Hermosa

Sunday was a day long to be remembered in the history of 2nd Baptist church. A multitude of people were in attendance at the big rally and basket dinner which was held there on that day. The services were of the highest order throughout the day, and the people were fed until they wanted no more. Rev. L. H. Washington of Watts, Rev. Hughes of Pasadena and Rev. E. Payne of Los Angeles were the principal speakers of the day. Tourist loads came from Redlands and Pasadena, and by way of the electric cars from Los Angeles, until the evening closing hours. Altogether, the proceeds of the rally amounted to $116.50. The church will begin at once upon the contemplated improvements.

The Eagle is the Paper For Me

All the world I like to my views and visits
For a business that's sure to secure;
It brings to me the news of my Home,
And stories the good we have done.
Of the Eagle is the paper I speak.

"Have you read the Eagle?" I hear my friends say.
"Have you seen this, and that, and that?"
"Why sure," quoth I, "What d'you take me for?"
Without that paper I wouldn't live.
The Eagle is the paper for me.

It tells of the Churches, both great and small,
And the good they're doing for all.
The lawyer, the lawyer, the doctor, and all
On that paper are represented, too.
Yes, the Eagle is the paper for me.

The news of society from far and near,
With interest I read each week;
And the letters of Aunt Jemima, so dear,
Are amusing, and so discreet.
I repeat, the Eagle is the paper for me.

All that the columns there is seen
Is clean,
The editorials are noble and just.
What you want such a man, brought right to your door.
Subscribe for the Eagle, I say you must,
For the Eagle is the paper for you.

Negro Masonic Fund

National Masonic Congress of United States and Canada in session; delegates from 31 states were in Memphis, Tenn., attending the bi-annual meeting of the National (colored) Masonic Congress of the United States and Canada, which opened Tuesday morning, July 11, at the Negro Masonic Temple, 87 S. 3rd street. The Congress was in session five days. I. E. W. T. M. Grant, Sr., 33rd degree, of New Orleans, La., one of the most prominent Negro Masons in the country, presided, with the following officers occupying the various stations: Dr. C. M. W. Fraser, Pittsburg, Pa., vice-president; Edward Henry, Brooklyn, N. Y., secretary; Ernest Byrum, Memphis, treasurer; J. W. F. Reed, Memphis, sergeant-at-arms; Jerry Davis, chaplain. A large number of delegates were accompanied by their wives and were entertained by the members of their local lodges. This information comes from S. Berry Batley, the Worshipful Master of Alpiste Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., the mother lodge of regular Masons of the State of California.

Grand Session K. P. Lodge

The 65th annual session of the Grand Lodge K. of P. of N. A. S. A. R. A. A. & A., held in Oakland July 10th, 11th and 12th, was one of the most harmonious sessions in the history of the order. The following officers were unanimously elected:

S. E. Young, grand chancellor; J. L. Taylor, grand vice-chancellor; R. Hamilton, grand prelate; J. C. Lindsay, grand master of exchequer; L. F. Marsh, grand keeper of records and seal; A. D. Stevens, grand inductor; D. R. Sheffield, grand master of arms; W. A. Bay, grand inner guard; Nelson Day, grand outer guard; E. R. Carell, attorney; T. Parker, J. Greene, A. R. Martin, grand trustees; T. S. Johnson, secretary of endowment board; J. C. Rivers, treasurer endowment board.

The session ended Wednesday, after three days of hard work. The reception by the Order of I. B. P. O. E. W., with J. C. Rivers as chairman of reception committee, made everything pleasant for the grand officers and representatives.

The next grand session will be held in Los Angeles in July, 1917.

Watts Items

By E. E. Wright.

Rev. Hunter will preach at the Baptist church tomorrow morning and will be ordained.

The Methodist church rally will close Sunday. Each club has been doing its best.

Mrs. Tucker's Bible class is visiting her kindred and friends. We hope she will forget Arizona and remain with us.

Quite a number attended the musical given by Prof. Ward's daughter, of which her parents have every reason to feel proud.

Think of how many of the 35-passenger Pioneers who attended the gathering at Mrs. Lang's, on Manhattan street, Tuesday last.

Mr. Sims, from Imperial valley, attended his mother's funeral last Saturday.

Rev. Trigg and wife are proud to have their daughter come, and live with them.

Mrs. Kane and children would appreciate help in any way, as they lost everything they had in the recent fire which destroyed their home.

Watts had a mixed jury last Tuesday, and one man was sent out.

We are proud today! Watts has a colored paper route, and our people can get their papers every Sunday morning.

Rev. Washington is preparing to attend the Grand Lodge at Oakland.

Mr. Young's lecture on "The Seven Ages of the Bible" was a grand success.

Mrs. Foster, Miss Missouri Busby and the State Grand Princess were down last Tuesday and left the Journaller trusting they will bring the little man and come again.

PASADENA

The Rev. J. Gordon McPherson successfully closed a great revival at Scott's chapel on the 16th inst. The Rev. McPherson was at his best during these meetings and held his reputation as a pulpit speaker. There were quite a number of conversions, 46 whom 13 joined Scott's chapel, while the others went to different churches. L. G. Robinson, pastor of Scott's chapel, takes this means of thanking the Rev. McPherson for his excellent services.

Sunday, July 23, will be Rally day at Scott's chapel. It is hoped that the church will raise sufficient funds to meet the benevolent obligations of the church.

Rev. N. P. Gregge of Independent church will preach at 3 p. m. Sunday. His congregation and that of Wesley chapel are to be present and assist in the services.

Mrs. L. G. Robinson and son, John W., are in Kinmore for two weeks. They are guests of Mrs. H. F. Penny. The trip was made in a Cadillac.

A grand Two-Piano Recital by Miss Lawson Jordan and John A. Gray, pianists, for the benefit of First A.M.E. church, 8th and Towne avenue, will be given Tuesday evening, August 8, in the church auditorium. Mrs. Frances R. Copeland of Detroit, Mich., and classic soloist for two seasons with the Canadian Jubilee Singers, and Miss Valeria White, soloist, of New Orleans, La., will make their initial appearance to the people of Los Angeles. Elmer C. Bartlett will preside at the pipe organ. This will be the greatest recital ever given in this city, and everybody should hear it. Admission only 25c. Refreshments.

Read of Mme. Mooney's Wonderful Hair Treatment

People who had bald temples for years and whose hair would not grow tell how they now glory in beautiful hair. Others who had dandruff all their lives now have a clean and healthy scalp.

For hair stops falling after a few treatments. I don't care if you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, eczema, tetter, or any hair trouble, consult me first.

The hair grows one inch a month after treatment. We guarantee eczema. I positively guarantee my work to be the same as done at the Paro College, St. Louis, which means growth and beauty of the hair no matter how short or stubborn your hair may be. These treatments will surprise you. This parlor is under the sole management of Madam Mooney, who is a graduate of the St. Louis College, and has more than nine years experience qualifies her to give the best service in hair line.

Agent for Elevita Straightening Combs $1.00. Full line of Elevita Hair. Order by Phone or otherwise. Ladies attended at parlor. Madam Mooney has no agents. You may get her treatments and treat your hair at home. Full treatment $1.00. Mail orders 10 cents extra.

Before using my discovery my hair was only four inches long.

FOR PRESIDENT
Charles Evans Hughes of New York
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
Charles Warren Fairbanks of Indiana

The Negro voters of this country for many reasons will welcome the chance to vote against Wilson and hard time on November the seventh.

The demonstration program as well as the effort to create a fund of $10,000 to prosecute lynchers, inaugurated by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, is worthy of and should have the support of all good citizens.

The coming together of the forces that assembled on last Thursday evening for clean government and a desire to support the candidates that stand for the best interests of all the people is a good omen, and when the people get together they generally accomplish something worth while.

The Eagle again desires to express its sincere thanks to the many expressions of good will, both by letter and in person, that have come to us. Our highest ambition now, as it always has been, is to build up an organ of the very highest credit and by the support of those who stand for Race progress, we know that we shall ultimately succeed.

THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP

It is conceded that the Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate on August 29th in this State will be elected. It therefore is apparent that the pending contest between Mr. Booth, Gov. Johnson, and Judge Bordwell is of the highest importance. There are many angles to view this candidacy of these three eminent and distinguished gentlemen, and to do that the principles which they represent should be more considered than their personality. The Eagle is frank to say that we have not digested the situation enough at this time to make a choice and we daresay there are legions of others who are in the same situation.

The great fundamental principels of Republicanism obtain we opine in each of them; so the question of support would come down to the proposition: Out of this galaxy of available Senatorial timber which one in this crucial period of the political status of our nation will best serve the people who will vote the Grand Old Party back in power? In this there is much food for thought, and we aver that before many hours have elapsed this one question will be put squarely up to the people and they at the polls will decide.

THE NEGRO STANDS THE TEST

We publish the following excerpt from a letter received from a genuine Raceman in Massachusetts: "The loss of the 10th Cavalry was unfortunate, but it adds another laurel to the crown of the Negro patriot. Some day I hope the United States will give him more substantial recognition than she has hitherto. From the Boston Massacre and Bunker Hill to Fort Wagner and San Juan Hill, and now Carrizal, the Negro has shown sterling qualities, and NEVER has he been known "to flunk," which is more than can be said of the Caucasians who are "squealing out" of enlistment at the present time on every flimsy pretext."

The disposition to "flunk" has been shown more generally in the South than any other section of the Country, with its boasted chivalry. In the South, where the brave defenders of the American flag have been disfranchised, mob-ruled and most inhumanely treated. The Blackman has set an example, brilliant and illuminating, for his white brethren throughout the nation. As at Fort Wagner in the Civil War, San Juan Hill and Santiago de Cuba in the Spanish American War, and now as the writer says at Carrizal, he has been placed in advance for the enemy's shot and shell—always the FIRST on the danger line.

There never was, nor will there ever be, a question of the Negro's loyalty to this Government. In the Civil War he enlisted without a draft over Two Hundred Thousand strong; he forced the turning point in the fortunes of the Nation—he preserved by his valor the Union of the State. It is time, past time, that the Black citizen be treated like a Man and Brother. In the Examiner of the 21st inst., appears the following suggestively in bold face type:

"All the men who have families dependent on them are asking to be allowed to go home, and from the number of these applications company commanders have received so far, it looks as though all the regiments will be seriously short of the required strength in a few weeks."

This has reference to conditions in the camp at Nogales, Arizona, in the ranks of the Fifth and Seventh California regiments. For these men and their families, generous provisions of support in their absence were made by city, county and other employers of their labor. Their presence at home is not to drive the "wolf" from the door. But this is a common condition. The true spirit of "preparedness" has not been manifested as it should. The same writer from Massachusetts says in the same letter: "It is a thankless job getting killed, or maimed for mine prospectors and so-called promoters." Governor Johnson in his eloquent address recently delivered in this city, said: "To-mind I am the pioneers of preparedness. You hear much of preparedness today. We were the ones who understood and who saw and realized that a nation such as ours is best prepared in peace for war, by preparing its men and its women and children and giving them a square deal."

Never were truer words said than these. Make the citizen FEEL, with glowing ardor, HIS DUTY to defend his country. Patriotism is not for sun a day—the day of danger; it has its birth in the every day occurrences that make his outbursts of patriotism in times of actual war a spontaneous outbreak of love of his country that for years and generations has awaited the voice of duty that calls him to arms. He is then seeking no "pretext," he is simply and earnestly demanding opportunity to lay down his life if it be necessary that the Nation may live.

Local Happenings

Mary Moore of Cerro avenue is visiting at the beach for a few weeks.

The Misses Anita and Edith Johnson of Gladys avenue are enjoying a two week's visit in San Diego.

Mrs. Annie E. Webber, 650 Cerro avenue, who has been very sick with a nervous break down, is convalescing.

Rev. H. D. Prowd, pastor of the Second Baptist church, will address the Y.M.C.A. Sunday afternoon, July 23, at 3 o'clock sharp. All are invited.

Mrs. S. H. Hobson and daughter, Cleo, of Denver arrived in the city Thursday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Ciara Henderson of 942 Long Beach avenue.

Thursday, July 27, the Kentucky club will meet at the residence of Mrs. H. S. Foxen, 1364 E. 40th street, and will be addressed by Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass.

Mrs. Goins, 2308 Compton avenue, entertained at a banquet Tuesday, July 18, in honor of Mrs. A. M. Johnson, 1364 E. 32nd street. The house was beautifully decorated with carnations and smilax. Mrs. Johnson, who has been a resident of Los Angeles for 11 years, left on the 20th to make her home in Bisbee, Ariz.

The name of the little Monrovia Miss who was mentioned in last week's issue as being a graduate from the grammar school at the age of 12 years is Hazel Robinson, instead of Hazel Brown. Hazel's ability as a musician is worthy of second mention, and her many friends both here and of Monrovia are very proud of her both as a scholar and musician.

Victoria Shorey, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. W. Shorey, and one of Oakland's best young women, is in the city enroute to the Federation to be held at the Metropolitan Baptist church, Pasadena, beginning July 25th. While in the city she is the house guest of G. M. Warner and wife. Miss Shorey bears the distinction of being one of the speediest stenographers in the State, having received a medal for speed at the University a few years ago.

Pastor E. R. Driver of the Saints Home church has returned from his vacation taken at San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley and reports victorious meetings in each city. His return to us was a joyful one. He found Evangelist E. H. I. Clark, his long standing companion and co-laborer in the ministry, in the beginning of a red hot revival. One was saved and there were many seekers after salvation. Pastor Driver has laid out plans for the greatest revival in the history of his pastorate, having associated with him the most noted revivalist of the age Evangelist E. H. Clark. The full program of Rev. Driver's coming campaign will appear in next week's issue of the Eagle. Come and hear this man of God, who brings to us the Bible in alphabetic form, which is so simple that the most unlearned among us may know their place in the body.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Scott, 1900 W. 35th street, a little daughter, Geraldine Lois Scott, July 13. Mother and daughter are doing nicely.

A basket picnic was given on Wednesday at Eastlake park in honor of Mrs. Summers, and a very delightful time was spent by all who attended.

Mrs. F. J. Johnson, 749 Cerro avenue, who has been ill and confined to her home for the past four months, was removed to the County hospital last Thursday.

All ministers' wives are cordially invited to be present at the ministers' wives alliance, which will meet with Mrs. H. D. Prowd July 26th at 663 E. 36th street.

The Seven Day Adventist church at Lincolnville, S. C., joined the Assembly of Free Seven Day Adventists last week—and so the work of freedom moves onward.

The mid-week Country club boys gave their first dance at Blanchard hall Monday evening. The hall was beautifully decorated and the affair stately formal.

Mrs. Payne, who recently came to Los Angeles from Grace, Mo., is visiting with her daughter, Mamie, and Miss Ida Russell at the home of Mrs. Russell, 561 Lakeshore avenue.

Elder Lewis C. Shiel is conducting a big tent meeting on the corner of 10th and V streets, Washington, D. C. The Adventist church, located at 10th and V, voted itself independent of the Adventist conference Tuesday night, July 12.

The second grand session of the International Order of Twelve of the California and Arizona Jurisdiction will meet in San Diego, July 25, at 1 o'clock p. m. All members and friends of the order who desire to attend, please notify Rev. W. J. J. Byers, 959 E. Pico by Monday noon, July 24.

Lucas C. Lucke makes the following announcement to the 74th Assembly District voters: "This is my first time to come before the people as a candidate for office and I ask the voters for their support in the coming campaign, and if elected I will serve the masses and not a class. I believe that the American Constitution does not recognize its subjects by their color, but standing."

Tuesday evening, July 25, at the Workingmen's hall, 35th street, there will be a general discussion on the subject, "By what means can we interest our young boys and men?" The public is invited to attend and take part in the discussion. Committee in charge: Mumaw, T. A. Martin, H. A. Harrison, C. A. Cole and W. Taylor.

Misses Edith and Juanita Johnson, in company with Alberta Downer, are visiting their grandfather at San Diego this week and report a delightful stay in the Exposition city. The Johnson sisters and Miss Downer are among our best girls, whose activity in the choir and Sabbath school of the Second Baptist church of this city will be greatly missed for even so short a period.

Gospel Singers Wanted

A Consecrated Gospel Soloist and Chorus Director, one that can sing both the sweet old Southern Melodies and Gospel Songs, also Trombone player and Pianoist for great Revival meetings. None but consecrated Christians need apply. Write, giving your experience and wages you would expect. The services are needed for a series of meeting covering 3 or 4 months. Write, do not call.

Enthusiasm Among the Colored Women.

The Women's Republican Voters' League met last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Gladys Green, corner of E. 24th and Long Beach avenue. Much enthusiasm was displayed, and it was decided that the League should take an active part in the coming campaign. The ladies of the 74th Assembly district are invited to attend the meetings each Wednesday evening.

Mrs. A. D. McKinney, Pres.
Mrs. Gladys Green, Secy.

Notice.

The All-American League will hold an anti-segregation meeting Sunday, July 30, at 3 p. m., at Wesley chapel M. E. church. All persons interested are invited.

Mrs. Willie Barnett of San Francisco is the house guest of Mrs. Andrews of 745 Gladys avenue this week.

SAN DIEGO DEPARTMENT

M. T. LAWS, Business Manager

The Knights of Tabor will hold their Grand Lodge in the city, beginning July 25. A warm welcome is awaiting the many delegates, as a majority of them will arrive on Monday, July 24, to take part in the grand outing at the Exposition. P. E. Alexander, well known society man who ranks among the highest in many organizations, will hold the gavel during this grand conclave and many other royal functions, as planned during their stay in the sun-kissed city.

Rev. Herbert, State Grand Master of the U.B.F. Lodges, visited San Diego on his annual tour and while here, assisted by Rev. T. Alton Harvey, Grand Master of Missouri, installed the officers of the Lodge in joint session here with the Temple, after which refreshments were served.

Doings of Mount Zion Baptist Church.—The Carnation club gave a social last Tuesday night for the benefit of the club, realizing $5.30. Missionary society gave an ice cream social and entertainment, of which the receipts were $9.50 net. The Literary society will have its program Tuesday night, August 1st. A good program will be rendered and all are welcome. B.Y.P.U. elected officers last Sunday night as follows: Anna Mulholland, president; Alamanza Jefferson, vice-president; Isabella Langley, recording secretary; Miss E. Mulholland, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. C. E. Harwood, treasurer; Gertrude Williams, organist; John Langley, chaplain; E. B. Whiteside, sergeant-at-arms. All were duly installed by the Rev. C. Williams.

John Cole, G. A. Ramsey, Clarence Summey were initiated in the K. of P. Lodge Friday night.

Edward Jones has just returned to the city, after spending a week at Elsinore Springs.

R. W. Anderson and wife, who motored to Elsinore for a few day's recreation, have returned to their home and report having had a very enjoyable trip and greatly benefited by the change of scenes. Mrs. Anderson is not only a society woman, but a business woman as well, and her talent is much sought by all.

E. J. Brennan is taking a few days needed rest.

M. T. Laws has returned from a whirlwind tour of the State in behalf of the first Grand Union picnic to be held at the California Panama International Exposition. From reports of various committees this will be one of the grandest times in history. Many prominent citizens of Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Francisco, Oakland, Pasadena, Riverside and Redlands have sent greetings and promised to participate, and we hope to see many of the auto models which the Exposition is giving for more than 500 miles, carried away by many of our race. The Exposition management has gone a notch further and extended many special privileges, which you will enjoy on said day. Remember that every corporation and taxpayer of the State of California is a part of this Exposition, so that will make us, as a whole, a part of this wonderful fair and exhibit. You can not afford to miss showing your appreciation in order to make this one grand and long to be remembered affair. If you can not come, send your children, and the committee will see to it that the children will have enjoyment as well as the older people, and that there will be pleasure for all. The Santa Fe has agreed to furnish all the necessary accommodations and make a low rate for this occasion. And remember that you will have free access to all the exhibit buildings, as well as free parking privileges for your car during the day in any unobstructed place in the grounds. Special added attraction will be the Spanish singers and dancers, who will entertain you under the shade of the pepper tree. Select speakers of the day, President G. A. Davidson of the Exposition; address of welcome, Hon. Mayor Edwin Capp; Rev. T. Alton Harvey will speak in behalf of the first Grand Union picnic; Rev. C. Williams, the master mind, on women's rights; J. B. Bass, editor California Eagle, on the negro's contribution to the American commercial situation; G. A. Ramsey, on the spirit of publicity; Sydney P. Dunn, well known business man of Los Angeles, will speak on the negro soldiers at Carrizal; Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, impersonator of Billy Sunday, on the charge of the black brigade at San Juan; Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass, on the progress of the Race; P. E. Alexander, on the fraternal orders; W. D. Saunders, master of ceremonies; M. T. Laws, president of the day.

SAN DIEGO POLITICAL JOLTS.

It is reported that the dry politicians are receiving many pledges among our people to vote dry.

Thomas Kneale is an aspirant for a member of the Board of Supervisors from the First Supervisorial district. Mr. Kneale is one of the progressive citizens of this district, and is the recipient of a good support from all classes.

The present Supervisor from the Second district, C. H. Swallow, is a candidate for re-election. He has rendered valiant service, and no doubt is expressed but that he will receive for re-election a strong and unwavering support from all classes.

Look out for the coming of the editor of this Eagle, who will bring the latest political dope.

J. P. Smith, the present efficient Supervisor from the First district, is before the people for re-election, and on his splendid record is receiving, at the hands of the people, a strong support.

Sojourner Truth Flourishing—Officers Elected.

Many good things have happened to the Women's Day nursery. Mrs. Nan Holt collected $108.25, to be used for the benefit of the Home expenses. A rising vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Holt for the many good things she has done, and she was made an honory member.

Mrs. Lauretta Butler gave the nursery a $150 piano; Mrs. E. Saunders turned in $103.50 which she took in at a benefit for the Home.

Mrs. Stewart, president of the organization, went before the city council and asked for a decrease in taxes. The council was all well pleased with the work of the Nursery that they moved the Nursery be exempt from taxes. This means much to the Home, on account of the tax increase on all property and also on account of the many mothers who leave their children at the Nursery to be cared for.

Election of officers took place place Monday as follows: Mrs. L. V. Stewart, president; Mrs. A. C. McBeth, vice-president; Mrs. Lauretta Butler, recording secretary, Mrs. A. Hill, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. Scott, assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. N. G. Sellers, treasurer.

Board of Directors—Mesdames L. V. Stewart, Greer, Hill, L. Butler, L. Scott, Chesthoe, A. McBeath, M. J. Sellers, Floyd, Shanks, Chas. Alexander and E.G. Hill.

Don't forget that biggest event of the season—Baptist Union Picnic, Friday, July 28th, at Eastlake park.

My yearly contribution to memory of my daughter.

To Whom It May Concern.

I hereby call your attention to insuring your property against fire. I am so glad I had my property insured in a reliable company and that I had such an experienced representative as H. H. Williams in adjusting for me the loss I had by fire. I am very pleased to recommend Mr. Williams to any one who wants their property insured. He will save you the expense of an adjuster. And the Great American Fire Insurance company, which he represents, is one of the best. They took pleasure in paying my loss. Mr. Williams has proved very satisfactory to me. I feel that I cannot say enough, or recommend him too highly, as he has been such a benefit to me. Yours truly,

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson.

Attention Baptist Superintendents and Teachers.

The attention of the Baptist superintendents and teachers are hereby called to the meeting of the Bible Teachers' Institute, organized under the auspices of the Baptist Ministers' union of Los Angeles county. You are requested to be present each Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, at the Second Baptist church on Maple Ave., between eighth and ninth streets, to take part in the study of the Bible and instructions in Sunday school work, under the direction of Dr. H. D. Prowd. Each Baptist superintendent and his corps of teachers, together with any others who desire to become efficient in Sunday school work, are urged to be present on next Tuesday evening. Done by order of the Baptist Ministers' union of Los Angeles county.

Rev. G. W. Reed, Secy.

Friday, July 28th, is the day set apart for the Baptist Unions picnic at Eastlake park.

OAKLAND JOTTINGS

By "Jakie" Peyton

The ladies of the Kenny J. Coppin club have been of great service to the N. A. A. of C. P. Last Friday night by reproducing the trial scenes in the Merchant of Venice at Starr King hall, the house was packed to the doors, every available seat being taken and those coming late were forced to stand. The ladies deserve great credit, and appreciation and encouragement was shown by the long drawn applause; also the other numbers deserve much credit. Mrs. M. Hudson won the first prize in the ticket selling contest, taking in $123; Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. M. Oliver, second prize.

Ethel White, one of the Oakland smart set, left Wednesday on the steamer Harvard for Los Angeles to be the house guest of Mrs. Monroe Parker, 1024 Dunsdo street.

Mrs. Grace Jones received a cablegram on the 4th inst. giving a full account of her daughter's marriage at the home of Chaplain Prilus to Mr. G. Smith of Honolulu.

The West Indies Aid association will hold their big fair commencing August 1st, with five floats and monster parade, headed by two brass bands. Our own "Jakie Peyton" will be marshal of the day, and a general good time, aside from the educational feature, will be had. Visitors from all over the state have signified their intention of being present at the great exposition.

Gus Purcell, the step son of the late well known citizen of Oakland, Lon Purcell, was shot and died from his wounds on Tuesday last in San Francisco. His assailant was a woman, of whom counsel was exercised. It seems as though it was a case of insanity on part of deceased.

DISTRICT GRAND MASTER JACOB SOREAS

Issues Proclamation Convening Grand Body of Odd Fellows at Marysville, August 1st to 5th.

PROCLAMATION

Convening the Thirty-Second Annual Session of District Grand Lodge No. 32, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows

To the Lodges, Members and Delegates constituting the Jurisdiction of Thirty-second District of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows in America.

Proclamation: Under the laws of our beneficient order, and in obedience to the duties devolving upon me, and pursuant to a resolution adopted at the last session of this District Grand Lodge, I, J. Soares, District Grand Master of the aforesaid District, hereby proclaim Marysville, California, as the place, and Tuesday, August 1st, 1916, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. of said day, as the time upon which the duly elected and qualified Delegates from the several lodges and all life members comprising this Thirty-second District, shall assemble for the transaction of all such business as may properly come before said Delegates and life members in District Grand Lodge assembled.

In view of the many important matters to come before this session, I feel it incumbent upon me to urge upon the several lodges the prime necessity of being represented by delegates; and to impress upon the life members the importance of their presence at this coming session of our District Grand Lodge.

In addition to the great volume of business that will be transacted the good people of Marysville are preparing to give the delegates and visitors a delightful and most enjoyable time, one that will not soon be forgotten.

In F., L. and T., J. SOARES,
District Grand Master.

Attest:
(Seal) S. P. JOHNSON,
District Grand Secretary.

"THE FIGHTING PARSON" CLOSES THE GREAT PASADENA REVIVAL. SUNDAY NIGHT — MANY WERE TURNED AWAY— PITCHES ANOTHER BATTLE AT DUARTE

The great olden time revival meeting under the leadership of the Fighting Parson, Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, at Scott's Chapel, Pasadena, was brought to a close Sunday night with hundreds clamoring to radmittance to hear the closing words of the eloquent and gifted black evangelist, whose powerful messages have thrilled the people of the Crown City as never before. He closed with the great revival Sunday with five big services which were largely attended: the old time sunrise prayer meeting was the largest ever held with nearly half a hundred happy shouting saints. Sunday morning the great illustrated children's services made a lasting impression on the little folks. At 3 p.m. the Men's Meeting was the largest ever held here among the men of the Crown City.

Evangelist McPherson gave a talk from the shoulders to many men, a talk that will live long in the memory of those that heard the gifted and fearless preacher at the close of this remarkable address scores of men rushed around the evangelist and thanked him for his message.

At 7:30 p.m. hundreds of men, women and children of both races in every walk of life, as in the days of old, all roads led to Rome, so it was on last Sunday all the roads led to the historic Scott's chapel, they came from all parts of the city in automobiles, buggies, auto trucks were pressed into service, so great was the interest of the people to hear the final words of the humble gospel preacher whose fiery messages have stirred the people as never before. The big echo meeting was led by that faithful and devoted Christian woman, Mrs. Mattie Wilson, who has proven herself such an able assistant to Dr. McPherson during the great campaign, and many were the burning words of testimony and praise for the glorious work accomplished by this noble man of God whose only message was "Christ is all and in all." No man ever came to the Crown City that has exalted the name of Jesus the Christ of God as the revivalist McPherson, and the blessed name of Christ has proven the magnet for it surely did draw the people of Pasadena. The climax was reached at 8 o'clock. The historic Scott's chapel was crowded and every available space was taken and hundreds were clamoring for admittance, while the sidewalks were thronged with people who stood for hours just to catch some word that floated through the open window to add to the great throng. Monrovia, Duarte, and Los Angeles sent their quota. Surely a "prophet is not without honor save in his own country and among his own people" when the popular pastor, Rev. E. G. Robinson, in his introductory remarks paid an eloquent tribute to the noted revivalist who had done such a great work in awakening such deep spiritual interest among all classes. When Dr. McPherson arose to deliver his closing sermon, his golden smile was greeted with a sea of upturned and expectant faces, who came to hear the parting words of the eloquent revivalist who preached a powerful sermon on the "Glorious Home Beyond." Men and women leaned forward as he painted a vivid word picture of the scene of his old home in the sunny southland, as he told the story of a visit back home and there was not a shingle left to mark the place where he was born, many of the congregation saw the vision of their old homes far away to them in childhood was the dearest spot on earth. At the close of this powerful sermon when the revivalist made his closing appeal to the unsaved many responded and the altar was crowded with anxious souls. So great was the interest in the work of Evangelist McPherson, until a big committee has charge of planning for a mighty soul-winning evangelistic campaign during the month of September, thus as the immense congregation joined in singing God Be With You Till We Meet Again. Thus closed one of the greatest revivals ever held in Pasadena.

Monday night Scott's Chapel was crowded out to hear Dr. McPherson give his famous lecture on the daring charge of the fighting black regiment at San Juan Hill 98 the speaker thrilled his hearers with the recital of daring deeds of heroism by the black troopers in that memorable charge that turned the tide of battle and brought victory to the American forces and drove the proud Dons from Cuban soil. When Dr. McPherson depicted the scene of the charge up the hill, one could almost hear the sizzing of the Mauser bullets, and the charge of the troopers as they snapped the barbed wire was so realistic, until the entire audience arose to their feet and applauded to the echo. Rev. W. M. H. Dickerson sang a beautiful gospel solo. At the close of the lecture Miss Lucile Beavers stepped to the rostrum and in a neat speech presented Evangelist McPherson a beautiful gold cross, in behalf of the ladies of the church, as a slight token of the high esteem in which he is held by the people of Pasadena and the members of Scott's Chapel. Evangelist McPherson accepted the gift in words of thankfulness.

Several white friends also presented Evangelist McPherson a solid silver ring set with deep blue sapphire stone. Mrs. Mattie Wilson, the able assistant and personal worker, was also presented in behalf of the friends of Scott's Chapel by Mrs. Wm. Roberts, a fine Morocco bound Christian Worker's Bible as a token of appreciation for the faithful services rendered during the revival.

On Wednesday afternoon after a day of rest Dr. McPherson laid the people of Pasadena good bye and left for Duarte, where he launched another big revival in the foothill town at the African Methodist Episcopal church, with Pastor H. Judkins and his splendid people, the opening services were largely attended. The surrounding towns are sending large delegations and the indications are that a big old time camp meeting for those seeking a deeper work of grace and a richer spiritual life, the saints are being edified and the sick are being healed is not this the fulfillment of the prophecy of Joel. Sunday promises to be a great day among the saints as great crowds are planning to attend the great Duarte old time revival meeting.

KID GLOVES TO A LYNCHING

We are indebted to the Atlanta Constitution for information as to the manner in which Georgia proposes to tackle the lynching evil. The legislature is going to caution the country sheriffs to be more careful in permitting mobs to seize prisoners in their custody for the hilarious pastime of stringing accused and suspected persons to a tree or burning them at a stake.

"If the legislature enacts into law the measure introduced by Representative Harry J. Fullbright of Burke, which seeks to minimize, and possibly eliminate altogether, the crime of lynching, it will have advanced this State a long way in the triumph of law and order," says the Constitution.

We quote this paragraph to show the characteristic vigor with which newspapers and public men of the Southern states approach the subject of lynching. Certainly they should be commended for introducing in the legislature a bill that "seeks" to "minimize" lynching. We must confess our surprise, however, that they venture to connect it in a phrase with the word "crime."

The Fullbright bill imposes the heaviest sort of penalty upon a sheriff if he should turn a prisoner over to mob vengeance. He will automatically forfeit his office. And it is further gravely provided that if a sheriff permits a prisoner to be removed into another county and the sheriff of the county to which the prisoner has been removed, knowingly fails to object to a lynching bee, both the sheriffs shall be subject to removal from office by the governor.

Seemingly suspecting that popular opposition will be manifested against the enactment of such an unreasonably severe law, it is ingenuously explained that, reduced to the last analysis, the measure "simply requires that the sheriff shall perform his duty according to law. It makes this demand and no more." And then a powerful apology for the dear sheriff: "Certainly there is no reason why a Georgia sheriff can object to the stipulation that he shall perform the duty which the laws of the State demand of him." And that the sheriff may not feel that the domain of his official prerogatives is to be invaded, he is reminded that if a lynching occurs in any county of the State, the governor is simply empowered and directed to require the sheriff to show cause why he should not be removed.

The all-powerful sheriff is not to be made liable for prosecution as an accessory to murder if he gives a prisoner in his charge over to a mob. Oh, no! Not in Georgia. Nor in Waco, Texas, for that matter.—Oakland Tribune, July 10, 1916.

CHAS. M. THAXTER "The Road Builder"

The voters of the fourth supervisorial district are confronted with a most confusing situation in the multiplicity of candidates asking their suffrage. Common sense, however, would suggest that the most practical man be selected. All admit that there is room for improvement in the management of the affairs of the county, but why select a man who knows absolutely nothing about the practical side of the county's affairs? Mr. Thaxter for the past sixteen years has had the experience in the very business he is asking you to let him perform. If you really want to better conditions for the people who pay the taxes, elect Chas. M. Thaxter.

Quoting Mr. Thaxter—"My experience has shown me the folly of continually expending money to maintain Macadam Roads, and I favor the abolishment of this system and the substitution of concrete, such as has been adopted in Orange County, which will save the taxpayers thousands of dollars annually."

"I am for the lowest possible tax levy, consistent with first-class public service. Strife and dissention are not good for the taxpayers. I am familiar with county affairs and fully realize the responsibility of the office. Why there should be delay of weeks and months in repairs when there are many idle men wanting work, the taxpayers can't understand? I believe in good pay for county employees, and would advance the salary to fit capable men."

The old system of road districts will give the people the road tax money which is collected in the district." There has never been a time in the history of this county when there was greater opportunity to save the taxpayers money or conserve the resources of the people than at the present time.

"And if elected, it is my purpose to give the county a careful and strict business administration."

"I stand for all the people and not for any class of people and solicit the support of the people in the Primary of August 29th."

Thoughts Wise, and Otherwise.

By Hilbert L. Rosier.

The B. Y. P. U. Federation has passed a law cutting the time of meetings 3 months instead of six. President J. Allen Rose won't any too highly elated over the new law, and neither were some of our Pasadena friends.

San Bernardino boys have stopped sending "special deliveries" to Los Angeles and Pasadena, but have resorted to sending "books" in letter form instead. 20 pages is nothing uncommon for Miss X—(oh, never mind the name) to receive these summer days.

Misses Martha Napper, of Pasadena, and Helen Brown were the distinguished guests of the Popular Progressive Club last Saturday evening, when Julius Baker entertained the Club at his home. The young ladies were highly elated over the splendid program, and the extreme hospitality shown them, and remarked that the charming Mr. Baker makes a pleasing host.

Mrs. Alice Craig is also an advocate of preparedness. She leaves for Georgia on the 31st of this month, but already has an alibi prepared in case she does not remain.

Quoting some of our friends:

Vivian Temple—"Why, of course I am going to be an old maid—So is Rockefeller going to be a bootblack.

Eugene Walker—"Would some one make a motion to that effect?"

Burt McDonald—"I overslept so I couldn't get there."

J. Allen Rose—"Five years from today we get our just article."

Richard Temple—"I move we adjourn."

McCLELLAN FOR SUPERVISOR FROM THE FOURTH DISTRICT

R. F. McClellan of Sawtelle has launched an active campaign for supervisor of the fourth supervisorial district and will receive a strong support all along the line. Mr. McClellan is a man with a wide and varied experience through the mazes of business efforts and has been a remarkable success and today stands to give to the people the benefit of this experience in conserving the resources of the great district in which he lives. Although this is a non-partisan office Mr. McClellan is now and always has been a staunch republican and believes in the principles of that party. The great common people will find in him a man who thoroughly stands for the masses and their interests.

A square deal for all is his slogan and with the same he is gaining support on every hand.

He is the president of the citizens State Bank of Sawtelle and the only candidate from the west end of the district.

In the employment of men for the enormous work of the county, he has had the experience of years in the timber countries of Minnesota and the development of the Bonanza Copper Mines of Alaska, where he was at the head of the constructive and development work, spending $24,000,000 before a cent was made in return. That mine now produces $1,000,000 a month.

Mr. McClellan believes in all conservative public improvements with economy and efficiency in the transaction of the county business, and that means lower taxation, for which Mr. McClellan is a STRONG EXPONENT and for which he will ardently work if elected.

In politics Mr. McClellan is, and always has been, a loyal Republican, standing to the grand principles of the Republican party through all its vicissitudes, and while the office of Supervisor is non-partisan, he is not afraid to aver his politics, the same as to say to every man and woman in the county of Los Angeles, that if elected, he will apply the same earnest endeavor to the affairs of the county that he has in making his own life a splendid success.

Mr. McClellan will gladly meet anyone by appointment. Address Dudley Block, Santa Monica, Sawtelle, Calif., or 421 Wright & Callender Bldg., Los Angeles.

The 4-act drama, "Ruined by Drink," played at Gamut Auditorium last Tuesday evening, was indeed good. All who missed this drama missed a treat.

POLITICAL POT PIE

E. J. Delorey for supervisor of the 4th district, will address the Colored voters of Santa Monica, Watts and Long Beach in the near future.

Frank H. Mouser, present assemblyman from the 74th district, has a happy facility of making friends. He has an even temper and refuses to fall out with anyone.

Wm. Greenwood, who promised to be a good and likely man, seems to be slipping, instead of being hale and well meant, he absolutely avoids his friends. The Eagle thought well of him, but we cannot now get close enough to him to hand him a red apple.

One particular candidate for supervisor in the Fourth district will do well to see us and make some explanation at least about a previous campaign in which he was a candidate, if he wants to do right he will do this.

L. C. Lake insists that he is not a joke in the 74th Assembly race and that he has a chance.

E. T. Hubbard, though late in filing, said that he had a purpose in making it late and that he will gather a strong support all along the line.

Governor Johnson, W. H. Booth, Judge Bordwell are the Republican candidates for U. S. Senator. Who will it be?

Mme. Sul-Te-Wan, Famous Movie Actress in different Poses, at University City.

A PERSONAL GLIMPSE OF MADAM SUL-TE-WAN

A few days ago a very little lady walked into our office, and because of her striking personality our attention was almost immediately arrested.

This little visitor turned out to be Mme. Sul-Te-Wan, who is the only regularly employed colored movie actress in this city.

At this time and for the past year she has been employed by the D. W. Griffith Co. of Hollywood. In our interview with Mme. Sul-Te-Wan we learned that she played some of the leading female roles in the "Clansman." Mme. Sul-Te-Wan in speaking of D. W. Griffith, who made the pictures of the "Clansman" the most talked of picture perhaps of this century, said that Mr. Griffith was one of the biggest hearted men of the age, and as far as investing any interest in the "Clansman" from the standpoint of reflecting upon any race that such an attitude was far from him.

"I am a natural born actress," said Mme., but had it not been for that man with a soul, I and my three little ones would have suffered right here in this beautiful land of the setting sun.

When D. W. Griffith knew of my connection for a number of years with darkest america when I was better known as "Creole Belle," and my connection with Walker of Williams & Walker before he became famous, he made it possible for me not only to fulfill my calling, but likewise to make an honest, honorable living for me and my children.

Some of the other companies in which Mme. Sul-Te-Wan has played leading characters were "The California Coca Co., in which she was Hawaiian queen and leading lady in the California Carnival with Owen Hoffman.

Mme. Sul-Te-Wan also stated that it was through her connection with the D. W. Griffith Co. that she found a brother who had been lost to her for ten years and was supposed dead.

Interest in Race

"I would love," said Mme. Sul-Te-Wan "with my two little sons of 5 and 8 years respectively, who also fill engagements at the Universal City as movie actors, to get in closer touch with my people in this city and would be pleased to fill any engagement on the vaudeville stage that I may.

"I feel greatly indebted to the Men's Forum of this city and especially Mr. J. W. Coleman, who made it possible for me to come before that body when I was in the throes of misfortune in this city and get assistance," said Mme., "and I shall never be entirely satisfied until I in some way repay them for their kindness."

THE GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS

THE GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS MEETING AT MARYSVILLE LAST WEEK A VERY NOTABLE EVENT

The meeting at Marysville on the first and second and third inst. of the G. U. O. of O. F. will be a long remembered one from all angles, for those who attended in the capacity of members and likewise from the local lodge and the citizens in general, who by their gracious hospitality showed their eagerness to pay homage to this grand and noble order.

The Mayor of this Cosmopolitan city sincerely voiced the sentiment of the citizens in his speech at the reception on the opening day and truly from that time until the close of the session it was patent on every hand that the delegates were entirely at home.

And on Thursday evening the mighty climax came and the weeks effort closed in a mighty blaze of glory. As the spacious hall was crowded with fashionably dressed women and men of both races to witness the grand installation of officers and to join thereafter in the grand promenade.

Our special wire service has already acquainted our readers with the result of the election of officers in our last issue, but we would fall short should we fail to briefly make mention of the same.

A. Dumas Jones who was elected Grand Master is a government employee at San Francisco and lives in Oakland, he is one of the pillars of the order, a member of Golden Gate lodge of San Francisco and has well earned his laurels at the head of the order in this jurisdiction.

The Deputy is one of our energetic and progressive young men, in the person of W. P. Taylor of Sacramento, who has for several years been a clerk in the P. O. department of that city.

For Grand Secretary, that prince of Odd Fellows, diplomat, scholar, and statesman, S. P. Johnson, was for the seventh successive time chosen to push the pen for the Odd Fellows of California.

For Grand Treasurer, S. A. Bridges, a splendid and successful young business man of Oakland, was elected to serve his third term as treasurer.

For Grand Director D. E. Simpson of Bakersfield, who is one of the commercial forces of that city was elected as Grand Director.

GRAND HOUSEHOLD OF RUTH

The 28th Annual Session of the Grand Household of Ruth which met semultaneously with the session of the Odd Fellows was likewise a grand success and much good was accomplished for the progress of the order.

Notable was the presence of P. N. G. Mrs. Eliza Warner and her great work for the progress of the same stands unsurpassed.

Mrs. V. Ransome of Pasadena, was elected as most Noble Governess, Mrs. E. Crabb, of Oakland, as recorder and other grand officers were chosen from the rank and file of the order.

A Step Forward

The two grand bodies in joint session by an overwhelming vote adopted a mortuary fund in place of the endowment features, and elected a staff of officers, for the same. Those selected represent progress and no doubt under their guidance this will become a great asset to the order in this jurisdiction.

J. B. Bass of Los Angeles was unanimously elected president; Mrs. Eliza Warner of Los Angeles unanimously elected secretary; Mrs. E. Brown of Oakland, vice-president; G. W. Wilson of Marysville, treasurer.

GRAND LODGE NOTES

The old war horse, P. G. M. Soreas indeed retires with a splendid record of which he might well feel proud.

Henry B. Gordon of Riverside can well bide his time and he will yet realize his ambition to be Grand Master of this district.

L. J. Williams of Vallejo proved an able adjunct as delegate from his lodge.

Tony Love was missed from the Council of the Grand Body this year.

Delegate Turk from Sacramento lodge kept up the high standard of that lodge at the Grand session.

A. B. Cairel the old war horse was there with bells and Vallejo was much in evidence.

The old Guard, it seems, got their head together at least on some things.

Attorney Geo. Ingraham, P. M. from Oakland, is one of the strong and forceful members of the Grand body and rendered great service.

Geo. W. Wilson is the noblest Roman of them all, and has the confidence and respect of all who know him.

W. H. Churchill is also one of the thrifty and progressive members of Marysville lodge and their sterling representative.

DR. J. GORDON McPHERSON THE GREAT EVANGELIST TO LEAD ANOTHER BIG REVIVAL AT PASADENA

To Commence on the Third Sunday in August

After a months absence, "The Fighting Parson", Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, will return to Pasadena, in response to popular demand of the religious force both white and colored at a big mass meeting held in the interest of civic righteousness and community betterment, at Scotts Chapel on Monday night which had been the scene of his early triumph in the Crown City. Evangelist McPherson's superior ability as a great revivalist and soul winner. It was decided that this Great Evangelistic Campaign should begin on the third Sunday in August, and that a big tent, seating 1500 or 2000 persons be secured, and placed on the lot at at the corner of Center and Raymond which is centrally located in close reach of the car lines. So great is the interest among the people that it is predicted that hundreds will be turned away from the Big Revival.

Evangelist McPherson has organized a corps of specialists and his evangelistic party will consist of Mrs. Mattie Wilson, Bible teacher and personal worker among the women and children, Rev. R. H. Wade, assistant to Dr. McPherson, and foremost singers of plantation melodies and old time jubilee songs such as are only heard at Southern Camp Meetings and is widely known throughout Texas as "Sing Ned", as these old southern songs are to be special features of the meeting a rare treat is in store for the people of the Crown City. The monster choir of 100 voices will be under the leadership of Madam E. Monroe Beavers the noted Contralto Soloist and director, with Miss Louise Beavers and Rev. W. M. H. Dickerson as special soloists. The revival will begin Saturday evening with a a monster Get-to-getther Rally of the religious forces and will have a glorious jubilee and sacred concert when some of the best talent in the State will take part in a feast of Gospel songs and Southern melodies.

Every minister wit his choir congregations in Los Angeles, Pasadena, Pomona, Monrovia, and Duarte, are invited to be present and take part in the opening ceremonies of the Big Revival, and make this one of the greatest Saturday demonstration ever witnessed in the Far West among the Colored Religious forces.

Hundreds will be there. Last Monday at the Baptist Ministers Union of Southern California, Evangelist McPherson was endorsed and highly commended as Revivalist, a committee representing such eminent Divines as Dr. H. D. Prowd, Dr. J. T. Hill, Dr. W. H. Tillman, Rev. G. W. Reed and Rev. W. M. H. Dickerson, were selected to draft suitable letter of endorsement commending Dr. McPherson, to the world as a Christian gentleman and Evangelist.

Such an endorsement giving recognition to Dr. McPherson, speaks volumes. At the close of the Big Pasadena Campaign, Evangelist McPherson goes to Los Angeles for a Great September Revival Meeting under the auspices of the Baptist Ministers and churches, and mighty spiritual awakening is predicted.

Mr. J. E. Ready, wife, father-in-law, R. B. Stevens, and C. D. Lucas of Phoenix, Arizona, some of Arizona's most desirable citizens are visiting Los Angeles this week, and seem favorably impressed with our city.

FIT TRIBUTE PAID TO THE MEMORY OF REV. S. L. HARRIS SUNDAY, JULY THIRTIETH, AT C. M. E. CHURCH ON NEWTON STREET.

With a goodly representation of the ministers of the city, a large gathering of most of the representative church going people gathered at Phillip's Chapel, C. M. E. Church, July 30, in the afternoon, and paid high tribute to the memory of the late pastor of that church.

Rev. S. L. Harris, Rev. Anderson, present pastor of the church, presided over the meeting, and among those who spoke in memory of the work accomplished by Rev. Harris in this connection were Revs. Greggs, Buyers, Presiding Elder Stout, and other members and friends of the church, all of whom spoke in loving terms of high appreciation for the work accomplished by Rev. Harris and his exemplary life as a Christian gentleman while in our midst. It was brought out that such lives as that of Rev. Harris is not in vain.

In our next issue we will run a full account of a very beautiful reception given in honor of the many out of town guests by Mrs. Blackshear-Waller.

Mrs. Fannie Johnson of 749 Ceres avenue is still very ill at her home.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING OF THE ELDORADO GOLD STAR MINING COMPANY

Greatest Interest Manifested, Hundreds in Attendance. Present Administration Given a Hearty Support and Strong Vote of Confidence. All Reports That Company Has Even a Brighter Future Than Has Been Claimed.

Last Tuesday, the 8th instant, as the hour of 10 o'clock had been set as the time for the annual meeting of the stockholders of the famed Eldorado Gold Star Mining Company, long before that hour, however, the throng of stockholders had begun to arrive and by the hour set the suite of rooms which had been fitted up for the occasion was filled to overflowing and the halls adjacent thereto were filled with those who had come to hear the reports and to take part in the annual election of officers and directors of the company.

The personnel of the gathering was the brawn and intellect of the race with a sprinkling of Anglo Saxon shareholders, all having an abiding faith in the ultimate success of the company, came hence to contribute their thought and give their support to that end.

Address of N. G. Pitts, President of Eldorado Gold Star Mining Company, at Annual Stockholders' Meeting last Tuesday.

To the Stockholders of the Eldorado Gold Star Mining Co.:

With our second annual communication, I come to bring you greetings in very few words, saying to you that it is not merchandise primarily that makes business. Machinery does not make business, money does not make business; it is the men in the business that make business.

Secondly an organization is a success when its men are progressive, when they do not take for granted they are in, but constantly strive for the growth and for improvement, for something better.

Thirdly it is well for a man to respect his own vocation, whatever it is, and to think how to uphold it and to claim for it the respect it deserves.

Fourth, the life blood of business building is salesmanship, the power to persuade people to purchase product at a profit. Of persuasion there are two kinds, direct and indirect, the persuasion that counts most of all to the end of permanency of trade is, first, quality of goods, and second, excellence of service. Patrons are ill served with anything but quality goods.

Last but not least, nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm.

When it was ascertained through the report of the Secretary that no dividend was in store at this meeting and the explanation following the same the body as it were, rose not to condemn, but rose as one man to give a vote of confidence to the present officers and board of directors by re-electing them without a dissenting vote, and in less than five minutes hundreds of dollars in additional stock subscriptions were voluntarily subscribed and scores of other signified their intention of doing so as soon as called upon by the board.

A Cyanide Mill to Be Installed

The report of experts and engineers recommended the the erection of a Cyanide Process Mill in addition to the present concentration or gold separating mill and recommended by the directors, as the only barrier to the unqualified success of the Company. Adjoining properties treating the same ore by the cyanide process are producing at this time from 80 to 154 thousand dollars monthly and with an ore bed even running a greater value the Eldorado properties when under the cyanide treatment, will prove a sensation.

Stockholders from all sections of the state were present and they all with the minutest exception expressed themselves by voice and acts that they have the utmost confidence in the ultimate success of the Company.

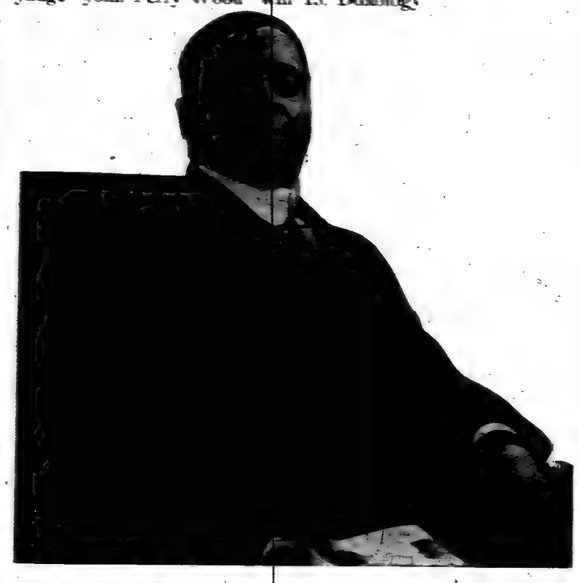
Shipments Made Satisfactory

From returns on shipments already made it shows what this ore will run and it is only a question of saving by lasting freight and smelter charges, thousands of dollars to the company, it has not been the policy of the directors to ship the low grade ore and they have on their dump now an estimated quantity of thousands of tons of ore representing something like a quarter million of dollars.

On this showing, on these premises, the stockholders of the company can well accept a policy that in the end will make their holdings the choicest of all the mining companies in this great county.

The Board of Directors elected for the ensuing year are N. G. Pitts, Howard Folke, C. G. Dunscomb, Geo. W. Shields, J. H. Young, J. J. Bunch, L. K. Roberts, G. P. Isaacs, J. W. Lewis.

GREAT EDUCATIONAL DAY PROGRAM



On Sunday, Aug. 13, at the First A. M. E. church of this city, located on the corner of 8th and Towne avenue, there will be celebrated Men's Educational Day. The A. M. TO THE VOTERS OF THE 37TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

Before entering the ballot box on Primary Election Day, August 29th, you will probably welcome any information submitted to you regarding the Record, Qualifications and Capabilities of the respective candidates for whom you are called upon to vote.

With this in mind we respectfully submit for your consideration the following, concerning Charles A. Kleinman, who is a candidate for the office of State Senator in your district.

Kleinman has lived in this city for the past fifteen years and in that time through his pleasing personality he has succeeded in making a host of good friends and well wishers. For the past twelve years Kleinman has devoted fully one-half his time to charitable and civic betterment work.

As a representative of the people he has persistently fought before the City Council against Special Assessments, only recently appearing before that body to institute a strong protest against the exhorbitant price of gasoline. He has been active in street improvement work. He supported the Council program to purchase the Municipal Electric Plant. He was the originator of the plan to create an industrial trade commission for the city of Los Angeles. A persistent supporter of the merging and consolidating of the city and county governments.

As a lawyer he has given his services gratis in all charity cases which the city prosecutors and the public defenders office have sent to him, and has handled the legal end of innumerable cases from different private charitable institutions of this city. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, the Ad Club, and the Elks.

Kleinman is a straight Republican. He stands squarely upon the Party's platform and for every principle embodied in it. He asked none other than straight Republicans to sign their names to his nomination petition.

Kleinman is a broad gauged, high minded lawyer and business man. He sees with a clear vision the real necessities of his constituents. If you send him to the State Senate his efforts will be directed towards legislation that will induce outside capital to come to our city, and make it welcome when it comes here.

We need factories. They give employment to our citizens. They create a healthy growth and a substantial prosperity.

Make Charles A. Kleinman your next representative in the State Senate and he will work for you with untiring energy to accomplish a general betterment of civic and industrial conditions.

With his life's work still before him he will so conduct himself as to deserve your everlasting support and co-operation.

THE PEOPLE'S TABERNACLE CHURCH OF CHRIST

(Odd Fellows' Hall, Cor. Eighth and Wall Sts.)

Rev. N. P. Greggs, Pastor.

The thronging crowds that overflowed Odd Fellows Hall to worship at this church on last Sunday received great showers of blessings when Pastor Greggs delivered two wonderful and practical sermons on the subject, "Christian Growth." It being monthly Communion Sunday, a large number of members and friends partook of the Lord's Supper.

This church made a very sensational start on the new quarter, six accessions to membership and a regular offering of $112 resulted from the day's services. Sunday at 11 a. m. baptismal services will be held.

The choir members were recipients of a delightful entertainment in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jones at their beautiful home, 1130 W. 36th street, on last Friday evening. A very enjoyable time was experienced by all present.

Second A.M.E. Church.

This church is endeavoring to make the greatest report in its history at the annual Conference to convene at 8th and Towne avenue September 6th. During the year the work has been pressed with unprecedented success, and now we are marshalling our forces to raise the Conference claims. Much interest is manifested and all are determined that there shall be a goodly increase along all lines. On Sunday afternoon the Stewardesses will conduct a special service for women at 3 o'clock. Rev. J. D. Gordon of Tabernacle Baptist church will deliver one of his soul and body inspiring sermons.

Sunday, August 20th, at 8 p. m., a grand educational program, with good music, a paper on "Education" by Ruth Sykes, solo by the sweet singer, Mamie Lowe, addresses by Hon. W. O. Tyler, Mrs. C. A. Spear-Bass and the Hon. James Alexander, and solo by Master Jessie Sykes, the rising young violinist.

FIRST A. M. E. CHURCH NOTES

(Eighth and Towne Ave.)

Rev. J. Logan Crew, Pastor.

Communion day services were celebrated by the largest number of communicants this Conference year on last Sunday. The pastor delivered two sermons and there were four accessions to membership, besides one baptism. The offering was good and many distinguished visitors were present.

Men's day, which is educational day, will be the big special event at the services Sunday. Two thronging congregations will gather at this Sabbath day, and in a true brotherly manner magnify and enhance and espouse the cause of education. Spokesmen from both races will pay just tribute to this great asset. Special music by our unexcelled choir. Splendid chicken dinner will be served in the banquet hall as long as it lasts. Men, women and children will come early in large numbers and fill the spacious auditorium. Everybody welcome.

Only four more Sundays and the annual Conference will be in session. The "dollar money" is coming in very nicely and a great many loyal members and staunch friends are yet to pay theirs. Pay yours now to the pastor. He is required to collect one dollar from each member of the church yearly as a benevolence to perpetuate the great good that this connection is doing. The member and friend who pays it bears his and her part of the load of lifting up the millions identified with the masses of the race. Come prepared to pay yours to the pastor Sunday. Do your full duty to God, your church and the race.

Communications were sent out the first of this week assigning delegates to their respective stopping places during the session of annual Conference held at First church from September 6th to 10th. Delegates will begin arriving September 5th. The public of this Angel city and neighboring communities are invited to attend this session. Dinner and supper will be served in the banquet hall free to delegates and 25c to all others. The delegates will have breakfast at their respective stopping places.

By all means pay your "dollar money." The recording angel is waiting to give you credit for this noble sacrifice and deed of duty loyally performed. Pay Sunday.

LINCOLN MEMORIAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

34th Street and Central Avenue
E. E. Lightner, Minister.

The annual picnic of the church and Sunday school on Friday of last week at Sycamore grove was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season.

The services throughout the day on last Sunday were helpful and inspiring. The pastor occupied the pulpit in the morning, speaking on the subject "A Challenge to Loyal Christians."

Rev. J. D. Pettigrew of Santa Ana delivered a helpful message at the evening service.

The usual services on Sunday. Subject for the morning, "Stewardship." Evening, "California Day."

Wesley Chapel

This great church was crowded at both services Sunday. A great host of believers took the Holy Communion. The pastor was at his best under the leadership of the blessed Spirit, and showed the result of his vacation by thrilling the audience with his sermons. Every department of the church is looking up and planning great things. Supt. Greene of the Sabbath school, Dr. Stovall and Miss Danley of the Epworth League, Attorney Hugh E. Macbeth and Bro. Ora Stout of the Brotherhood, Miss Vasna Williamson, Mrs. Tibbets and Miss Moore of the Missionary societies, and Mrs. Webster of the Ladies' Aid are planning forward movements for their departments.

The total number of conversions to date at the Pullman car is 47. This is splendid work among these men, who furnish so many leaders of the race.

Pastor Kinchen will preach at 11 a. m. on the subject, "Keep the Lamps Burning."

The great blind woman evangelist, Mrs. Prescott, will preach on Sunday night.

The pastor and members are greatly saddened by the death of Sister Dollie Lewis.

Memorial services Sunday night under the auspices of the Ministers' Alliance.

The Interdenominational Ministers' Alliance invites the many friends and converts of Sister Dollie Lewis to a memorial service at Wesley chapel on next Tuesday evening. The songs of Sister Lewis, "Cannot Live Without Religion" and "Yet've Got to Walk That Lonesome Valley," will be sung. Tributes will be paid by those who knew Sister Lewis and loved her.

A Great Musical Feast

The First A. M. E. choir, under the direction of Wm. M. Bynum, assisted by the city choirs and one of the best orchestras in Southern California, led by H. Wheaton, will give their fourth annual concert Tuesday evening, August 29th, at the First A. M. E. church, 8th and Towne avenue. All lovers of good music are invited to hear some of California's best talent. Wm M. Bynum, director; Elmer C. Bartlett, organist; Miss Lawrence Jordan and Mrs. E. Saunders, pianists; Rev. J. Logan Crew, pastor. Admission 25c.

Obituary

Bishop Henry McNeal Turner, D. D. L. L. D., D. C. L., the primate of his church, its senior bishop, scholar-soldier, patriot and great leader is no more. He

"Has stept aside the earthly line of march,
And is numbered with the dead."

He died at Windsor, Ontario, Canada. He was 84 years old at the time of his death: he had been a member of the A. M. E. church more than 50 years. his life has been one of the most eventful ones of great American lives. He was born at Abbeville, South Carolina, a free man; his mother descended from an African prince; he was a carpenter by trade and applied himself to that calling for a long time. Soon after entering the Christian ministry he was commissioned a chaplain in the U. S. army by President Lincoln and was re-commissioned by President Johnson. He was several times a membe f both branches of the Georgia legislature, and for four years he was post master at Macon, Ga., and he came within five votes of being elected U. S. senator from Georgia. After serving out his term he became active in the church, and was the first presiding elder in the State of Georgia in the A. M. E. church. In the days that tried men's souls, immediately after the war. When the Ku Klux Klan and like conspiracies threatened the existence of the colored man in the South he stood like a strong oak—defying tempest and storm—defending and leading his people through it all. He has been instrumental in educating his people, the permanent establishment of the Morris Brown University was his great work, and for a number of years was chancellor of that institution, the main building and the theological department bearing his name. He was a great lover of history and a hard student of arts, sciences and literature; and in his magnificent library, where he was found night and day, the thousand volumes to him were like a work shop, there he prepared his defence for his people, and the pleadings for their full and complete manhood rights as citizens and as men. He was elected bishop in St. Louis, Mo., 35 years ago. Since then he has made six trips to Africa, but he has gone his last time. He is survived by a devoted wife, Mrs. Laura Lemons Turner, two sons, Dr. John P. Turner of Washington, D. C., Mr. David M. Turner of Philadelphia, four grand daughters, and by millions who knew him. Mrs. Bishop Turner was educated at Clark university at Athens, Ga.

"Go to the grave; at noon from labor cease.
Rest on thy sheaves, thy harvest work is done;
Come from the heat of battle and in peace
Soldier, go home. With thee the fight is won."

WHAT CONSTITUTES A NEGRO.

BY EVA CARTER BUCKNER.

When the first slave ship was landed
With its cargo on this side,
There was then no vexing question
As to which race he's allied;
Just a Negro, pure and simple,
And as such might have remained,
But—well—here we drop the subject
For there's nothing to be gained.

Years have passed and now we see him,
On him's turned the strongest light;
Every race is represented—
Black, brown, yellow, red and white;
And they call him now a problem.
Yes, a problem yet unsolved.
For there's One not been consulted
And in it He is involved.

There's a rise and fall of nations
But dispute it if you can,
There is just one God and Father
And the brotherhood of man
Ten tenths blood of pure Caucasian
This it takes to make you white.
But one drop of Negro blood in,
Just the same, as black as night.

For this stamp was put upon him
And so let it thus remain
For what is the use contending?
All contention is in vain
It is said ten million Negroes
On this firm, free land doth stand
God inspires them to mount upward
Though chains bind both foot and hand.

Read his crime in boldest letters
Negro, and no question then
And we own him, our heads bowing
Grieved to know we have such men;
On the other hand in turning
We can point with pride to those
Who thought it worth while in striving
And to fame and honor rose

Dumas, known as the French novelist,
He his Negro blood could trace;
Tanner, artist known so widely,
Who has won himself a place;
Yet, and there's the "Black Napoleon,
Brave Toussaint L'Overture
And the great Edmonica Lewis,
Sculptress, whose work will endure.

And we claim S. Coolerige Taylor,
Dunbar, though he's dead, still lives;
Booker Washington we all know
For his race, his life doth live,
Bishop Grant in sermons, lectures,
Dubois, John H. Jackson, true,
Chestnut, Vernon, tower o'er Pendleton,
Browning, many others too,

Great Rome had her gladiators
And of them was very proud;
We care nothing for the prize-ring,
But since it has been allowed
Why not then applaud the winner?
Whether white or dusky man?
The survival of the fittest
It's the rule and it will stand.

This would be a grander nation
With the goodness that's innate,
It would be a perfect haven
But the prejudice too great
There are friends who say come, onward!
Join us in life's great combat;
Though your skin be dark, what matter?
You're a man e'en for all that.

And we're using every effort
To make good where e'er we trod.
One hand with the flag a waving
And the other stretched to God.

With most of the candidates this has simply been a campaign of hot air.

The Whiffen forces aver that if they can keep off that assassination planned for Tuesday morning they will win with ease.

With the campaign only three days longer in duration those on the anxious seat will soon be at ease.

So much has been said about the closing of the revival that we have come to the conclusion that comment is unnecessary, and shall be content to pass the subject up.

The war situation seems to become more and more complicated, and the pleasing events, such as the torpedoing of the Lusitania, makes that a timely nature indeed should we keep out of this great war.

We are indebted to Mr. Chas. Olivier for a souvenir by way of a handbook of the 41st session of the legislature with our name thereon in letters of gold. Mr. Olivier is one of the employees of the last session and we appreciate very much his remembrance of his friends.

OUR VISITING CLERGY.

Some of our ablest and most distinguished Baptist clergy have been in our midst during the past week, in attendance on the National Baptist convention, which has been in session in this city for that length of time. They came from the various sections of the country. They all seemed to be alive to the interests of their constituents and to measure up to the standard. We therefore feel highly honored in having in our midst these distinguished gentlemen.

Los Angeles Times, May 27, 1915

Clara Shortridge Foltz—A woman attorney, good in both instances; has many constructive ideas that are not altogether feminine; she would bring to the Council an element of wisdom and thoughtful strength, and would make a lasting record as a hard-working public servant. A vote for Mrs. Foltz is a vote for good government and good citizenship.

BURLY WHITE RUFFIAN ASSAULTS 14 YEAR OLD COLORED GIRL.

On last Saturday on East 9th street between Central and Kohler a young burly white man by the name of Frank Bishop brutally assaulted Pauline Davis, a 14 year old Colored girl, knocking her won and assaulting her with his fists. Much indignation was apparent at this attack and feeling ran high. The police arrested him and we understand that in Police Judge White's court he is out on parole or a suspended fine. Now there is something wrong somewhere when a brute like this receives no more punishment than this for such a crime as this. This case should be looked up by the Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Had the case been reversed as to the parties concerned there would be another tale.

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE INVESTIGATE.

Last week the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (Local Branch) addressed a circular letter to the various candidates for mayor and city council, requesting an expression of their attitude on various subjects affecting general interests and race interests. The letter was designed to elicit from these candidates their views, which would epable the Colored people to choose with discrimination and vote intelligently at the coming election. The answers were as follows:

To these communications, responses from the candidates for council were gratifying both as to number and contents. Of the mayoralty candidates, Mr. Whiffen, through a subordinate, replied evasively, while Mr. Sebastian replied very favorably and answered fully the various propositions.

Of the eighteen candidates for council (nine of whom must be chosen) fourteen replies were received, four failing to respond. Those answering were Betkouski, Wheeler, Conwell, Langdon, Mrs. Lindsey (Cynthia Grey), George Williams, Topham, Roberts, Mrs. Foltz, Hampton, Hart, Brain, Wright and Dromgold. Those failing to reply were Dr. Houghton, McLaughlin and T. A. Williams.

A summary of the replies follows:

Question 2. A jitney bus ordinance which would permit discrimination as to passengers on account of race or color.

Such an ordinance is condemned by candidates Wheeler, Conwell, Langdon, George Williams, Roberts, Foltz and Wright. Candidate Topham suggests that the jitney bus ordinance ordinance will be before the people for an expression of their will, and that he will abide their decision.

Question 3. A moving picture censor board dominated by moving picture interests.

The condemnation of a moving picture cens r board of such complexion is general particularly by candidates Wheeler, Conwell, Langdon, George Williams, Topham, Roberts, Foltz and Wright.

Question 5. An ordinance preventing moving picture houses from practicing discrimination among its patrons as to admission fees, or otherwise, on account of race or color.

The practice of discrimination as suggested in this question is condemned by Conwell, Langdon, George Williams, Topham and Roberts, while Wheeler and Wright believe the present laws sufficient to take care of the situation.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People does not engage in politics, either national or local; is not partisan and, therefore, endorses no candidates. Its duty and purpose in this respect is to obtain and present to our people the information they need and which is undeniably necessary to enable them to intelligently discharge their duty as citizens. This it has conscientiously and accurately tried to do.

It is obvious, however, from the above survey of the situation that our best interests can be served by selecting our councilmen from the names of the above mentioned candidates, basing our discretion upon the replies of the candidates as shown above. All citizens should condemn and vote against the vicious jitney bus ordinance which will appear on the ballots.

Subsequently to the preparation of the above article, a reply was received from candidate E. L. Williams, representative of the Jitney Bus Association.

Answering question No. 2, Mr. Williams says:

"2. The Auto Bus Owners & Operators Association, representing practically 75 per cent of the jitney bus owners and drivers, have never adopted as a policy, nor countenanced by any of its members of the discrimination as to race or color of its passengers.

"I sincerely regret that several instances have come to our attention, however, where individuals have discriminated against various races. I think that American spirit and ideals are strictly against such discrimination."

Stripped of sentiment and verbiage, this reply acknowledges that there is discrimination practiced; that discrimination is wrong, but that regulation of jitney busses is inadvisable for the reason that it will increase race hatred. This argument is ingenious, if not satisfying; in effect it says: "Let the malefactor go; do not restrain him; do not attempt to regulate him. It will only make him worse."

An annual sermon will be held in Long Beach the second Sunday in June at 3 p. m. Rev. Ramsay pastor.

Miss Hazel Gottschalk was the winner in the contest for the queenly honors for the annual May festival at the A. M. E. Zion church, which closed Friday evening with an orchestra recital by the Coleridge Taylor orchestra of the Providence Baptist Institutional church and to say that she was crowned a beautiful queen is to say the least; for those who know her know that with her genial and lovely disposition, her beautiful countenance, and gowned in a beautiful costume, she could not have been otherwise. This charming high-school girl has every indication of becoming a true leader among her sex; and the above named church takes this method of thanking her for the interest she manifested in its welfare.

A vote for Estelle Lawton Lindsey and Clara Shortridge Foltze is a vote for fairness, and a square deal for all the people.

Thousands of Patriotic Citizens Will Pack Dreamland Skating Rink, Central Ave. and East 15th., To attend Memorial Day Services and honor the Nation's Heroic Dead

Central Avenue and East 15th Street to Attend Memorial Day Services and Honor the Nation's Heroic Dead at 2:30 O'Clock.

The religious tidal wave is stirring the people of Los Angeles of both races as never before during past two weeks thousands have not only attended the great tent meetings but a down town theater has been crowded at the noon hour services, with men and women of all races, classes and creeds, representing every profession, the banker, the merchant prince, the lawyer, doctor and the honest sons of toil to hear the plain old Gospel of the Son of God. The unexpected closing of the big union evangelistic services was indeed a sad mistake, and in response to the plain folks of every religious creed, to reach the thousands of unchurched Colored people that are flocking to this, the greatest city in western United States. In answer to cry of the people that they may have a chance to get together and worship God in a real old time union funcries as tables will be arranged for all such. In order to reach the Dreamland Rink take Central Avenue cars, will stop at the door. Come early to secure seats. The famed Black Evangelist Humanist, who is called the Billy Sunday of the Negro Race, an old time Gospel preacher of the old fashioned Religion, who will breakloose Sunday Evening at the Dreamland Rink, in Great Sensational Sermon, "The Crime of the Ages." a Powerful Message to the Unchurched masses of Greater Los Angeles. Hear him! Hear him!

Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, "The Fighting Parson."

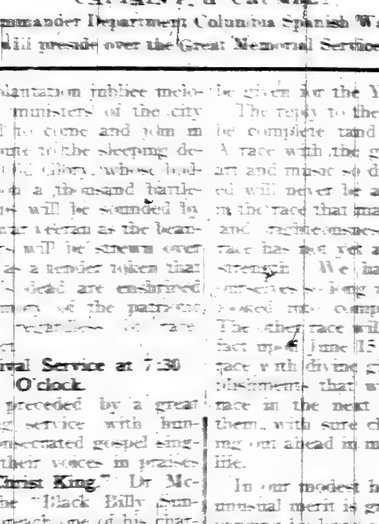
Holy Ghost and fire revival meeting, where they can have religious freedom and enjoy their liberty from doctrinal strife and denominational dogmas. Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, "The Fighting Parson," who has been called the Billy Sunday of the Negro race, with the assistance of a few preachers and score of prominent laymen and women who are seeking for the deep things of God in higher spiritual living, have secured the Dreamland Skating Rink, corner East Fifteenth and Central avenue, which has a seating capacity of 2500, making this one of the greatest and largest religious gathering of Negroes ever assembled in the world in a soul winning campaign to win the masses of the unchurched thousands to Christ in the Back to Pentecost spiritual movement. It is befitting that such a great religious movement for racial and community betterment should be launched with prayer for guidance of the Holy Spirit, to this end a "Big Old Fashioned Sunrise Prayer Meeting" will make the opening of this great religious campaign, with dedicatory services of the Dreamland Rink. 1000 praying men, women and children are urged to meet the Lord Sunday morning at the Dreamland Rink Sunrise prayer meeting. If you are seeking the baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire, as they did on the day of Pentecost, you should attend this great prayer meeting. Preachers and members of all churches, regardless of sect or creed that love the Blessed Name of Jesus Christ, that name high over all, are invited to come join in this great sunrise dedicatory prayer services. Evangelist Charles P. Jones has been invited to be present and offer the dedicatory prayer. Among the other ministers that are invited to assist in the dedicatory ceremonies are Rev. Dr. W. H. Tilman, St. Paul Baptist church; Dr. R. N. Holt, the eloquent Oklahoma preacher; Rev. R. H. Rozier, and others. So let the Christian men and women who are seeking a rich blessing from the Lord to meet early in the courts of our Lord. Bring the afflicted in soul and body for spiritual and healing uplift to this great sunrise prayer services tomorrow, Sunday morning.

At 2:30 o'clock will mark the real opening of the great indoor old time Camp Meeting, with Memorial Day Ceremonies out of respect to the "Nation's Heroic Dead." This promises to be one of the greatest semi-religious and patriotic demonstrations ever witnessed in Los Angeles and the Farthest West under the auspices of the patriotic Colored citizens. Civil War heroes and veterans of the Spanish war. Capt. F. H. Crumbly, past commander of the Department of Columbia Spanish War Veterans, will preside as master of ceremonies; the comrades of the Gen. Harrison Gray Otis camp of Spanish War Veterans will act as ushers, all former soldiers, veterans, their wives and the women's auxilliaries are urged to attend this great patriotic demonstration and pay befitting tribute to our "Honored Dead." Let every patriotic race man and woman turn aside to attend these beautiful and impressive Memorial ceremonies. Rev. Dr. J. Gordon McPherson, the hero of the yellow fever pest camps of Siboney de Cuba 98th, will give his thrilling war lecture on the Daring Charge of the Black Regiments at San Juan Hill. This lecture is pronounced a masterpiece of patriotic eloquence by the pulpit and press and teaches an impressive lesson on patriotism. Mrs. C. Spears-Bass, editress of the California Eagle, will read Lincoln's famous Gettysburg address. Prof. W. E. Easton, will speak on "Our Black Heroes," the famous Hall Jubilee Singers will sing many patriotic selections, interspersed with war song and plantation jubilee melodies. The ministers of the city are invited to come and join in paying tribute to the sleeping defenders of Old Glory, whose bodies are upon a thousand battle fields. Taps will be sounded by a Spanish war veteran as the beautiful flowers will be strewn over the graves as a tender token that our martyred dead are enshrined in the memory of the patriotic Americans regardless of race creed or sect.



CAPTAIN F. H. CRUMBLY

Past Commander Department Columbia Spanish War Veterans who will preside over the Great Memorial Services Sunday

Big Revival Service at 7:30 O'clock.

Will be preceded by a great gospel song service with hundreds of consecrated gospel singers lifting their voices in praises to make "Christ King." Dr. McPherson, the "Black Billy Sunday," will preach one of his characteristic sensational sermons on the theme "The Crime of the Ages." This is the one great sermon that brings out the fighting spirit of the famed Black Fighting Parson, and he will deliver the goods which makes him the only living rival of the noted baseball evangelist "Billy Sunday." This great evangelistic campaign will continue daily at 2:30 and 7:30 o'clock except Mondays and there will be no services as it will be rest day.

Morning prayer for healing of the sick, the afflicted in soul, mind or body, daily from 9:30 to the noon hour for those seeking the deep things of God for the spirit filling baptism of the Holy Ghost, should attend the morning's hour worship and spend a quiet hour with God. Those living at a distance can bring their lunches as tables will be arranged for all such. In order to reach the Dreamland Rink take Central Avenue cars, will stop at the door. Come early to secure seats. The famed Black Evangelist Humanist, who is called the Billy Sunday of the Negro Race, an old time Gospel preacher of the old fashioned Religion, who will breakloose Sunday Evening at the Dreamland Rink, in Great Sensational Sermon, "The Crime of the Ages." a Powerful Message to the Unchurched masses of Greater Los Angeles. Hear him! Hear him!

Sweet Gospel Singer, who will sing "Calvary's Cross" at Dreamland Rink Sunday

FIFTY YEARS OF FREEDOM

There will be the biggest aggregation of voices, splendid and amazing in power, that can be gathered together west of Chicago at the Shrine Auditorium, June 15 for the entertainment to be given for the Y. M. C. A.

The reply to the Clansman will be complete and unanswerable. A race with the gifts of oratory, art and music so divinely bestowed will never be any but leaders in the race that makes for success and righteousness. Really the race has not yet awakened to its strength. We have lived with ourselves so long we have not yet passed into comparative values. The other race will awaken to the fact upon June 15 that there is a race with divine gifts and accomplishments that will run a great race in the next 25 years with them, with sure chances of coming out ahead in many avenues of life.

In our modest homes, talent of unusual merit is growing and advancing by leaps and bounds.

The great centers and leaders are our churches and ministers. There springs the religious zeal and awakening to all worthy efforts of every line of development and we must not fail to hold up their hands in gratitude.

Last evening Madam Ella Hughley's superb dramatic soprano was heard singing the obligato solo for Rossini's Inflammatus, to be sung at the performance. She will be assisted by Mt. Zion choir. This choir has had the most able direction of Rev. J. T. Hill, the pastor of the church, in its musical study and will astonish the music lovers of the city.

In the same bungalow the brilliant young musical composer and pianist Mr. Wm. Wilkins lives.

Mr. Wilkins will play one of his own compositions.

In an adjoining bungalow the rehearsal of the unsurpassed Hall Jubilee Singers rehearsed for the performance in jubilee songs, solos and quartettes. Certainly there is nothing more stirring and captivating than this varied collection of selections to be sung by the two masters of jubilee work, John and Emanuel Hall.

At the Y. M. C. A. rooms a chorus was rehearsing, which is to be led by the Wesley Chapel choir and directed by Mr. Howard, the leader. A completed grand chorus will be held under his direction next week.

Mr. Wheaton's orchestra was rehearsing and the beautiful lyric soprano voice of Mrs. Anna Strode Mills was heard for the first time as Columbia, the daughter of the regiment. Mrs. Mills in figure and voice is a perfect type for Columbia.

Mr. Mills has a very effective speaking part as "The Young Volunteer," who loses his life upon the battlefield in '65.

Last Monday evening the Uniform Rank of K. of P.'s rehearsed at Capt. Bratton's, and the clever Bratton family orchestra rehearsed for the performance.

Next Monday evening the Uniform Rank of K. of P.'s will rehearse there again at the captain's residence.

Tuesday night, June 1st, all of the three companies of K. of P.'s are requested to meet at the Y. M. C. A. with the Spanish American War Veterans to rehearse the camp, battle and hospital scenes at 8 p. m.

The tickets are out. Get ready to purchase early, as there will be a crowd.

There will be in reserved seats 500 each at $1.50, $1.00, 75c, 50c and 35c upon the floor: Dress circle, 300 each at $1.00 and 50c, and 1000 at 25 cents. Balcony, 50c and 25 cents. Also fifty boxes and thirty loges with seats six, eight and ten seats each.

The four-page circulars are ready with complete lists of performers, active and honorary patronesses and historians and program.

Notice the beautiful window cards and get one at the Y. M. C. A. to put in your nearest store window and see the reserved seat plat there and new circulars. Take some tickets to sell to your prominent white friends, as well as those of our own race. Wake up to the pride of the race's wonderful advancement to be shown.

The management of Fifty Years of Freedom invite all local organizations, philanthropic societies and church associations to have banners made and standards to be used in the audience. It will advertise each association. Have it made of silk, satin or velvet, with name, date and motto. They are then ready for any gathering in the future and will make a splendid showing of club and church work for our race.

MR. JOHN HALL, BASS SOLOIST.

Will sing "Flee as a Bird, Memorial Services Sunday.

The members of the civic league are requested to meet at a call meeting Monday evening May 31, at 8th and San Julian street, Wesley Chapel.

The Young Peoples' Advancement Club.

On last Monday evening the Young Peoples' Advancement club met at the home of Misses Ruth and Daisy Walker, 956 E. Pico. This is a newly organized club, which promises a great and glorious future, being under the direction of Rev. N. P. Gregg. After the very interesting business meeting and a short rehearsal for the play which is to be given by the club, the Misses Walker served dainty refreshments and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Lucia Sheldon wishes to state that she is not supporting the Woodrow campaign.

WATTS NEWS

Mrs. Howard from W. Jefferson spent several hours with Mrs. Martin in Ramsaur Ave.

Mrs. Owens residence was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns, flowers, and everything needed to receive fifty or more guests. After listening to beautiful music and a program they finished up by enjoying ice cream and cake.

Mrs. Nickerson, who lives on Long Beach boulevard, desires your patronage in sewing as she is an accomplished dressmaker.

Members of Rev. Washington's church netted $21 from their social Saturday evening, which will diminish his salary.

Ministers seemed glad to see so many seats filled Sunday. It makes them feel like doing more to draw all men unto God.

Miss Martin enjoyed the outing at the seaside Thursday.

The following families attended the beach party Thursday: Lane, Hines, Taft, Chilvers, Young Walkers, Fournier, and others.

Mrs. Walker's daughter, Mrs. Doyle, from Kirkville, Texas, is visiting her mother and kindred for the summer.

Mrs. Young, who lives on Long Beach Boulevard, has been under the doctor's care and is better at this writing.

If you are in need of vegetables just from the market, call on Mrs. Smith, who lives on Thaxter St. She will deliver them at your door. Why not help your own color?

Betty Conroy, one of our graduates from Watts Grammar School, has begun a course of music from Madam Simpson that she can help when in need of an organist or player.

Mrs. Halvey gave a luncheon Thursday for her art circle.

NOTICE

There will be an old fashioned Harvest Festival given by the County Art Industrial Club of Watts and an old fashioned picnic dinner will be cooked and served on the grounds by the two churches and workers of the Old Folks' Home so please come out and help. We will have an exhibit showing what we are doing from the needle work to the garden work.

Take Redondo Beach car, get off at Long Beach Boulevard and the picnic grounds are on the southeast corner.

Mrs. W. M. Holway of Watts entertained a number of friends last Friday evening at a very delightful dinner. Those present were: Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Berrien, Mrs. Wall, Mrs. W. F. Williams of Oakland, Cal., Mrs. S. B. Strickland, Pasadena, Mrs. A. C. Richardson, Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. M. Holway entertained a few friends last Wednesday. Those present were: Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Cook, Mrs. Johnson and son of Oakland, Mrs. Lyles of Tacoma, Washington, Mrs. R. Jones of Watts and in the evening the covers were laid for six, after which all left for home, after enjoying a delightful time.

SOJOURNER TRUTH HOME

Sojourner Truth Doings

Our Employment Department is still calling for all classes of workers.

MRS. CAMBELL, Pres. MRS. M. SMITH, Sec.

For the atmosphere of real home life don't forget the sunny rooms of Sojourner Truth, 1119 E. Adams street. Phone S. 3417.

Women are urged to register at the Home for employment. We have many calls for domestic help and we are anxious to place our women, knowing there are many seeking employment.

The Club offers to the women and girls classes in domestic science, physical culture, sewing, etc. Avail yourselves of this opportunity under the supervision of efficient teachers.

Several of the delegates attending the Federation, who availed themselves of the opportunity of coming personally in contact with the Home and its work, expressed their hearty approval and assured us of their support, among whom were Mmes. Williams, Matson, Jackson, Tobe Williams, Johnson, Brown, Lee and others.

Many visitors called and were unstinted in their praise of the Home and the matron, Mrs. McLain, saying that Sojourner Truth women and all the women, north and south, had every reason to be proud of this institution for women.

Mrs. Brown and daughters of Topeka, Kansas, are new arrivals at the Home.

Sojourner Truth club held a very interesting business meeting last Monday and have entered upon the year's work with enthusiasm. The club has started a membership rally for 100 new members, hoping to reach that number by the first Monday in October. The club is divided into two sections, the Gold and the Blue, under the leadership of Mrs. L. E. Williams, secretary captain of the Blues, and Mrs. G. M. Scott, president captain of the Gold. The losing side will have the pleasure of banqueting the winners.

All member in arears for more than a year will be reinstated for one year's dues.

All good women inclined in this benevolent work are asked to help. Keep your eye on Blanchard hall September 12th.

Rev. W. J. J. Byers, Pastor

Last Sunday the pastor occupied the pulpit at both services. The morning subject was, "Why Go To Church?" There was a splendid audience and all seemed much interested as the pastor set forth the logical reason why people should go to church. He also emphasized the importance of the church being worthy of the people attending it, taking the position that the church society should be the very best in the community. Sunday evening the subject was, "The Influence of Evil Upon the Christian." Sunday morning Mrs. S. L. Prescott, traveling Missionary from Chicago, will deliver the sermon, and the pastor will be at his post in the evening.

GIRLS SURPRISE MOTHER ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

Last Thursday evening the four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Albritton gave a surprise party in honor of their mother's fiftieth anniversary.

Even though this is the story, as told by the candles on the great white birthday cake.

Mrs. Albritton in appearance is not much older than her youngest daughter.

No pains had been spared in the decoration and comfortable arrangement of the home for this occasion. Over the dining table laden with good things there hung a huge basket of pink and white carnations.

The table was laid for eight. Those seated at the table were Rev. and Mrs. Davies, Editor and Mrs. J. B. Bass, Mr. and Mrs. Albritton, Miss Lomax Albritton and Mrs. Banks, eldest daughter of the Albrittons. At the end of the 5-course dinner a merry host of young people came in to help the sisters celebrate in honor of their parent. Misses Lomax and Carrie Albritton delighted the guests with several beautiful solos.

A most delightful evening was spent by the guests present.

On account of rush of work the memorial service of Rev. S. L. Harris, late pastor of the A. M. E. church was omitted from our columns last week.

Hiawatha Wedding Feast

The big Hiawatha Wedding Feast, consisting of a Chorus of about one hundred voices of California's best singers, together with the dramatic scenes, promises to be the best ever staged in the city of Los Angeles.

Prof. R. G. Jackson of the Western University, Quindaro, Kansas, is a musical genius. He will arrive her ethe morning of August 23rd, will take the big chorus, train and dramatize the various characters for the Hiawatha Wedding Feast, which, together with other charming selections of the sweetest melodies, will be rendered at the Trinity Auditorium on the evening of September 5th.

Many of the leading Clubs of the city have already made reservations; and the calls are coming in all the while. Those who have seen the staging of the Hiawatha Wedding Feast, declare it to be the greatest scenical and pleasing stage affair that romance has arrayed o the eye of man. To love dreamers, it is a bubbling spring of laughter, and a rippling river of song. It is said that no other can stage it better than Prof. Robert G. Jackson, no better performers than those who are participants.

The following is a partial list of the clubs that have made arrangements for reservations:

WILLIAM H. FULLER FOR SUPERIOR JUDGE

The candidacy of William H. Fuller is receiving at the hands of all the people a strong support, and he is receiving assurances that will be doing put him up at the primaries August 29.

Among the many endorsements is the unanimous endorsement of his candidacy by the County and City Civic League, his rich and varied experience at the bar peculiarly fits him for this exalted position. He is making an active campaign and everywhere he goes he is gathering a strong support.

Capt. Helms For Dist. Attorney.

That "Cap" W. T. Helms, candidate for district attorney, is a friend of the voter who is out and out for a clean administration was proved on Tuesday morning when he lined up with the reform element in the Los Angeles City Council Meeting. Pressure was brought to bear in an effort to swing him over to the forces who desire cafe dancing.

As usual "Cap" Helms stood firmly for the right. He proved that his friends who are depending on him for support in their battle for a better city and county government, have not counted on their choice for district attorney for nothing. Ready to "go to the bat" with the proper slogan "Cap" Helms was on deck with his fighting togs.

The matter was dropped when it was seen that the forces against cafe dancing were in the majority. No action was taken, but at the same time the voters who had been wavering between two opinions came out squarely on the side of Helms for district attorney. This means a mighty vote at the primaries.

There was a doubtful element in the claims that the Citizens' Campaign Committee had made for the man who is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University. It was claimed that Helms would be elected at the primaries without question, but this claim was doubted. However, with the pledges made on Tuesday by a number of the leading workers in the present campaign this claim does not seem to be extravagant.

Lines are being clearly cut in this campaign. Hairbreadth decisions are being made. In the case of the district attorney, however, the voters have a choice between a man who is a straight Republican and a Democrat. "Cap" Helms stands for the principles enunciated by the Republican party. He expects to be elected as a Republican and his pledges and promises, which are made with reserve, are nevertheless as a Republican.

"What I stand for means much to me," said Helms yesterday. "As th edate for the primaries approaches the lines are being even more clearly defined. There must be no quibbling. A man who is candidate for the high office of district attorney must state his principles clearly even though this fight is being made along lines that are non-partisan.

"As a Republican I stand for the principles of the Republican Party. There is no middle line. I cannot choose a course that will take me between the Republicans and Democrats. Without any excuses or apologies, without embarrass me I expect to be elected district attorney of Los Angeles county."

The candidacy of Judge Robert McDonald of Pasadena is gaining draw nigh and it is predicted that momentum. As the primaries

A hot time in the old town is promised at the great political meeting to be held at the Colored Workingmen's Club on next Tuesday evening.

W. H. Fuller, whom the County and Civic League endorsed this week is a strong man and is in every way fitted for the Superior bench. It goes without saying that he will receive a strong support.

As far as the Colored voters support is concerned in the 74th district, they should study well their interest and give their support where it will do the most good for the greatest number.

You cannot descount the fact that F. H. Mousher, present assemblyman, is one of the staunch friends of the Colored people nor that he will go to the front at all times to do the things that will help this people. No one will attempt to deny this fact, so on these things we must contemplate for our choice in the coming primaries.

Daddy Lake had a large order of cards printed by this office this week for which we thank him, and he says that he will open up in earnest his campaign for assemblyman next week.

E. T. Hubbard says that he will hold a monster meeting on the 25th at the 14th Street school auditorium at which time he will at length present his cause.

The Woolwine Campaign Committee is now working hard and saf they are confident of electing him at the primaries.

The following ticket is out for Committeeman from the 74rt district: William Telle, G. P. Brown, Willie Wilson, E. Hermann, W. H. Penson, Charlotta A. Bass, W. Sharp.

UNANIMOUSLY FOR GOVERNOR JOHNSON. COLORED VOTERS AT NORMANDIE HALL ENTHUSIASTIC

What the meeting at Normandie Hall lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm Wednesday evening when Lt. Governor Stephens, Mr. MacBeth and Senator Benedict addressed the meeting. Ringing resolutions were passed endorsing the candidacy of Governor Johnson for United States Senator, Hon. Stanley Benedict for Congress; Arthur G. Kuck for State Senator, J. S. Stubblefield for Assemblyman, William H. Fuller for Superior Judge, W. D. Woolwine for District Attorney and E. J. Delorey for Supervisor of the 4th district. The address of Hon. W. D. Stephens was a warm endorsement of Governor Johnson, and his address was frequently interrupted by applause. Senator Benedict also showed that Governor Johnson merited the vote of every thoughtful citizen in the State.

Mr. Stubblefield showed very clearly he will be one of the best Assemblyman the 72nd district ever had. Mr. MacBeth spoke in glowing terms of the services of Arthur G. Kuck when he was Assemblyman from the 72nd district. Mr. Edward J. Delorey spoke of the vital needs of the citizens of his district, the 4th supervisorial and was frequently applauded.

Mr. W. H. Fuller will not only be an ornament to the Superior Bench, but one of the best upon the Bench in this County. Much credit is due Dr. W. M. Fowler for the fine showing made by his Boy Scouts who contributed much to the entertainment of the evening. Mrs. Frank Brown, the chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. Emma Montgomery in an especial manner, are deserving of much praise.

BOWLES

(Special to the California Eagle.)

One of the largest and most enjoyable affairs of the season was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Pickerton on last Friday evening at their beautiful home on Pilkerton avenue, in compliment to Miss Tomeasue Fosta of San Francisco, whose folks have recently purchased a large ranch here. The evening was given over to music, with Miss Bernice Chavers at the piano, while the grounds surrounding the house were all aglow with Japanese lanterns. The pretty girls in their smart frocks added much zest to the evening.

Mrs. Pilkerton was assisted in dispensing with her hospitality by Miss Eva Clark and Miss Mary Seatton. A tempting collation was during the evening. Among the guests on this brilliant affair were Tomeasue Fosta, Julia Campbell, Helen Hall, Ethel Colbert, Kathleen Boatman, May Hall, Elizabeth Colbert, Mae McClendon, Leona Clarke, Cilea Hall, Mary Sutton, Eva Clark, Lottie Truett, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Williams, Mrs. Charlotte Smith, Mrs. Fisher, Messrs Rowe, Brown, Ernest Bowen, Jack Transit, Leon Sutton. Those who motored down from the Fresno youngger contingent were Misses Zella, Bernice and Zola Chavers, Messrs Leroy Calhoun, Earl Carlton, Ben Young, Roy Carlton, and William A. Bigby, Jr.

Miss Leona Baker and Mrs. Eliza Warner returned to the city this week from vacations spent in the north.

Attorney Aine McDowell, of the Wilcox building, returned on Thursday from the north, where he had attended the District Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows. Stopping over in San Francisco and Oakland, he was entertained by prominent attorneys and residents of those cities. Attorney McDowell was elected a member of the board of directors of the Mortuary Fund Association, to have charge of the mortuary fund of the California Odd Fellows.

RESOLUTION OF ENDORSEMENT OF E. F. MANN FOR CONGRESS BY THE PASADENA REPUBLICAN CLUB

WHEREAS, Edwin F. Hahn is a candidate on the Republican ticket for representative in Congress from the Ninth District, and is asking the support of the voters at the primaries to be held August 29th; and

WHEREAS, The said Edwin F. Hahn, having been a resident of this community for the past 25 years, is well known to us all as a sterling Republican, is a man of high mental and moral qualifications, and a representative citizen of the most progressive character; and

WHEREAS, we believe that this important district with its splendid and varied resources and especiall ysts vast citrus production, should have ample tariff protection against foreign cheap labor; therefore, it is important to this end that its representative should belong to the great Republican party, which has always stood for the principles of protection;

NOW, THEREFORE, having confidence in the ability of Edwin F. Hahn, and believing him to be the proper type of man to represent this District, and obtain for it much needed legislation, we heartily endorse his candidacy and enlist for him the support of his fellow citizens at the polls.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE PASADENA REPUBLICAN CLUB.

THE NEW ANGELUS THEATER UP TO THE MINUTE

The New Angelus Theater, 1015 Central avenue, under the management of F. A. Williams and Callus Johnson, continues to please the people and the crowds that throng this beautiful picture house each evening testify to the high class pictures and vaudeville furnished.

The gentlemen certainly deserve the strong support for their enterprise in providing the citizens a place of amusement of which we are all proud.

One of the busiest weeks of the campaign for a place on the county ticket through the direct primaries found Peter H. Updike, candidate for supervisor in the fourth district spreading the gospel of good roads and business-like management of the county's affairs throughout his district. Monday evening Mr. Updike addressed a meeting of the Angelus Mesa Improvement Association, talking on the needs of the county for business men at the head of their business affairs.

Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 he addressed a meeting of the boys in blue at the Soldier's Home. Thursday evening a reception was given in his honor at the home of E. F. Hastings, 1345 W. 52nd St. Wednesday afternoon he was the guest of the women of the Ladies' Aid Society at Monsella and 59th St., and that night spoke to another group at a card party at the home of Mrs. Gardner. On Friday evening he was present at a Willis Booth meeting.

Mr. Updike's clean cut business methods, and his known ability in the conduct of financial affairs, have won him a large following in his district. He declares that by economy of expenditure more and better improvements can be had for lower cost.

WALTER S. GATES

Regular Republican Candidate for Assembly

Seventy-second District

Judge Walter S. Gates, who is the regular Republican candidate for Assembly, 72nd District, is well known in this city.

He is president of the International White Cross Society of this city and also vice-president of the Clean Government League of California. Two years ago he was elected Judge of the Police Court (unexpired term) by a vote of over 65000.

He is a strong, clean, moral man with high ideals for the improvement of our government. He favors fewer and better laws and is a staunch advocate of progress, efficiency, economy and clean government.

We need good, intelligent and broad minded men like Mr. Gates to represent us in or legislature, for law making is the most important factor in our government. With Judge Gates in office all men will have an equal chance, as he is greatly opposed to race segregation. He believes that men are created equal and for this reason all men should have equal advantages politically and socially.

Our candidate is a native son of California, being born in Pomona, Los Angeles County about thirty-five miles from this city. He is a member of the law firm of Gates & Randles, which has for a number of years last past carried on an active law practice in Los Angeles, California.

He is a self made man having earned his way through the public schools of this city while working as a newsboy in the City of Los Angeles. He later worked his way through college and the University of Southern California.

Due to his kindly consideration for all people, no matter of what color or race, Mr. Gates is very popular in business life. His election will mean another point and a noticeable one in favor of clean government and all who favor progress, fewer and better laws, will do well to vote for Walter S. Gates.

ANDREW W. FRANCISCO

Andrew W. Francisco, known all over the country as "Andy" is running for State Senate in the 37th Senatorial District. Andy came to Los Angeles in 1883 from Columbus, Ohio, where his father was widely known in the newspaper business. Mr. Francisco was County Supervisor and Collector of Port. As Court Clerk for ten years and afterwards as Chief Deputy County Clerk, Francisco was a friend and adviser to all young attorneys, and many prominent attorneys of this county still owe him a debt of gratitude. As Chief Deputy County Clerk, he was known throughout the State as one of the most efficient and obliging officials in the State.

Minute orders he drew are now being used by the Clerks of the Courts, etc., qualified to help the courts and to pass intelligent laws.

He was admitted to practise law in 1891 and has been admitted to all Courts except the United States Supreme Court. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Elks, Masons, Knights of Pythias and other orders and for several years has been a director of the Gamut Club which has done so much for Music and Art in this city. Those who know him as a public official, are working and to elect him State Senator, firm in the belief that the public will have in him a safe sound and able business representative.

There are nine precincts of the 74th Assembly District, which are in Mr. Andrew W. Francisco's, 37th Senatorial District and are bounded by 11th street on the South, Wall street on the East, Hill street on the West and 5th street on the North, and are numbered 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 168, 169, and 170.

E. J. DELOREY THE LOGICAL CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR OF FOURTH DISTRICT

The big question in the Fourth District is who will go on with Delorey admitted by all to be the high man at the primaries. Mr. Delorey's wonderful strength is due to the fact that he has the largest personal following of any of the other candidates, because of the stand he has taken on all questions of public interest and also to the fact that he is not a politician, never before having sought a public office.

Mr. Delorey is a man whose heart and energies are with the wage earner, a man who has seen life from all sides, resulting in a ripe experience which in turn has made him intensely human, a man respected by all classes. He has always stood for equal treatment to all citizens regardless of race or creed. This idea will be carried out by him in selecting county employees. Every citizen so desiring shall have a hearing and anyone doing business with the county shall have direct and courteous treatment at the hands of the county employees.

For a thorough business administration characterized by economy in investing the people's money, elect E. J. Delorey, Supervisor of the Fourth District.

Mr. Delorey has been endorsed by the City and County Civic League and the colored voters throughout the district will do well to give to him their undivided support as he is a man that truly stands for the masses for the great common people, and with him on this board of supervisors it is assured that all of the people without regard to race, color or creed, will receive from his hands a square deal.

Mrs. Alice Hulsey in company with her niece, Cecil Lindley, of Joplin, Mo., arrived in the city Friday morning en route to San Francisco.

Mrs. Hulsey, who lived in Los Angeles until a few months ago, has been visiting relatives and friends in Kansas City, and now returns to her home in San Francisco.

The Kentucky Club will meet again August 24th at 710½ East 18th street. The president desires that all members should be present.

Monday evening, August 21st, the Boy Scouts and School Girl drill and dance will be a feature at Normandie Hall. All young folk are invited.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON LOUD IN PRAISE OF 10TH CAVALRY

Telegram sent by Governor Johnson upon his learning of the recent memorial services in honor of the Carrizal dead of the 10th Calvary, was forwarded this week to Major Young of the 10th Calvary, care of Pershing's Base Headquarters, Mexico, to be permanently filed with the Regimental Records.

Telegram as follows:

San Francisco, Calif.

Hugh E. Macbeth, Los Angeles, California.

I profoundly regret that I am unable to be present with you at the memorial service to be held today for the Carrizal dead of the Tenth United States Calvary. I should have been more than glad to have added my mite of respect and praise for those brave Americans who sacrificed their lives for their country. These soldiers of the Nation typified the spirit of the Republic—the spirit of equal citizenship and of freedom. They made the supreme sacrifice that human beings can make—they yielded up their lives. They have won the gratitude of the whole Nation and they will ever live in that Nations memory. I unite with you citizens of Los Angeles today in honoring them.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON,
Governor.

DE YOE FOR ASSEMBLYMAN FROM THE SIXTY-SECOND DISTRICT

The EAGLE presents to the voters of the 62nd Assembly District a splendid Republican and a man who is in every way deserving and worthy of your most loyal support.

He is a man who believes in the greatest good to the greatest number; stands squarely for the masses.

In these days of graft and political corruption it is truly refreshing to encounter a candidate for office whose distinguishing characteristic is the possession of a moral courage to stand for the right on all occasions and the ability, coupled with zeal and indefatigable energy to successfully battle for his honest convictions.

Such a one is J. Wellington De Yoe, Republican candidate for member of the State Assembly from the 62nd District. He is entitled to and should receive the support of all who believe in clean politics. He will represent this section with honor and credit and may be relied upon to secure for his constituents their full share of beneficial legislation. A relentless foe to moral obliquity, which seems to prevail among so many politicians of the modern school, he will be found fighting all forms of legislation calculated to increase the onerous burdens of taxation heaped upon the people of the State.

Mr. De Yoe as superintendent and manager of the Union League Club has been a large employer of Colored labor and probably employs more of them than any other one man in Los Angeles. They all speak of him in the highest terms as a man who stands for a square deal to all.

And all who know him are very strong boosters for his candidacy and the Eagle strongly endorses the same and we ask the voters of the 62nd Assembly district to give him a hearty support.

JUDGE McDONALD FITTED FOR SUPERIOR BENCH

If all of the voters of Los Angeles county knew Judge Robert W. MacDonald of Pasadena, he would be elected at the primaries by overwhelming majority; and it is not out of the question but that he will be, on account of his enviable reputation as a just Judge.

He has served faithfully and well in the lower courts and now the people say he must go up higher.

In Pasadena, where he lives, the people are unanimous in singing his praises and exalt him for his signal services as a police and Justice of Peace of that fair city. He is meeting the people throughout the county and is being assured of a hearty support from all sections of the County and from all classes of its citizenship and no doubt is assured of his nomination and election.

WILLIAM H. FULLER FOR THE SUPERIOR COURT

William H. Fuller, whom we introduced to our readers in our last issue, is making a most wonderful success in reaching the people and to reach them with him is to gain their support.

During the past week he has met at their meetings and otherwise many of our people and he has received assurance from them of a hearty support all along the line.

Mr. Fuller is a strong character and one that will, if elected, reflect honor and dignity upon the position to which he aspires.

TAKES THE EAGLE TO TASK.

August 15th, 1916.

Editor of Calif. Eagle,
Los Angeles, California.

My dear Editor:

I have asked so many times that you would print certain things that I would send you, and you fail to print them so often, even that I offer to pay you to print. However, I suppose that you have a reason for it, as some of our people do not like any Negro who is really doing things, and having something, so I suppose that some of that class have told you so many things until you don't know who is right,—the other fellow or me, and too one little jack leg lawyer came up here and went around among the fifth class of Negroes, and got a lots of stuff from a class that no one who knows them would think of anything that one or all of them might say and went back down there and I am informed that he tried to make Los Angeles believe that it was true. Everything that one could hear of me, so I am sending you a daily newspaper printed by white people of this city. Please read on page 10 in the city briefs and see for yourself what it says of me, as I do not have to hunt them up nor pay a penny to get matter printed in the white papers. They look me up.

If no Colored paper on earth never prints another word for me, thanks be unto God, I am fixed. I do not have to make it—I have already made it. I am absolutely out of the Negroes way. They cannot hinder me, for I am gone.

I just finished my garage last week and I am painting it today, do not owe any one on earth a nickel, have taken 16 people in my church since I came from the East, and just as soon as the Association is over next week I will get down to work on my house. It is started already, but I cannot go at it as I wish until after the Association. My apartment house here is doing simply great, and I am building a still better one.

If you do not think that it would humiliate your paper to mention my name in it this week you might print that matter that is in the Santa Barbara paper that I am sending you, and state where it was first printed and whatever your charges are I will pay you next week when I come down.

Yes, I am really doing things, and know it very well. Many a Negro is mad about it, but I will help them all that I can, right along.

From very truly yours,
REV. H. B. THOMAS.

The above letter from Rev. H. B. Thomas of Santa Barbara is self explanatory, the paper to which he refers for some reason failed to reach us, but we take it that it is a complimentary reference to his progress, etc.

Now in reference to the complaints of Rev. Thomas we want to say that we have tried to be eminently fair with all concerned, we have our ears ever ready to exploit the achievements of men and women for the uplift, the untoward things we eschew, we have when properly put never refused Rev. Thomas or any other citizen of Santa Barbara a hearing in these columns. The Eagle has a large circulation there and our clientage is entitled to the same, but we will not open our columns for personal attack. We have no knowledge of ever refusing to publish anything worth while, the forces opposing Rev. Thomas can likewise have a hearing if they so desire.

Now both sides accuse the Eagle of unfairness and both are very much wrong in their deductions.

They must understand that we can take no sides in these internal affairs; only on general lines. We are eternally against hypocrisy and deceit, against immorality; we stand for the highest and best citizenship.

In so far as we know Rev. Thomas is alright, likewise the entire citizenship of Santa Barbara. If any of these parties transgress the laws or are guilty of wrong doing they are the weights on not only the prisoners of the race, but of the community in which they live and they should be punished.

We sing loundl the slogan Be Something and Have Something and are always glad to exploit the same. We have times without number given publicity to the progress of Rev. Thomas. We trust that his standing will always be such as will permit us to do so, likewise do we have the same hopes for all the good citizens of Santa Barbara. We believe in All Men Up and No Man Down.

So the good Reverend, if in the right, has but to go on, like the Danes who in the time of war would destroy the hearing of their horses that they might not become affrighted in time of battle, don't hear them. But of course if in the wrong your sins will sooner or later find you out. We certainly appreciate your frankness and trust that your analysis of the situation is correct.

ANOTHER INSTANCE OF GOVERNOR JOHNSON'S SPIRIT OF FAIR PLAY
